Dear Parishioners: Thank you for gathering to mark my 35th priesthood anniversary, and Fr. Joe's 61st priesthood anniversary last weekend with a social in the Parish Hall. Fr. Joe and I are grateful to serve you at American Martyrs and also being active in local Catholic efforts. It is our privilege to be a part of your lives of faith.

The Corpus Christi procession took place last Sunday, and many families, individuals, Knights, and servers walked the distance between St. Mary/St. Joseph Parish and Immaculate Conception Parish. The Eucharist is the source and center of our Catholic lives.

This Sunday, the Gospel begins with Jesus' heart being moved with pity and compassion for the crowds that follow him. Jesus is the true shepherd who calls laborers for his harvest. The names of the twelve apostles appear, and they are sent out to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is at hand. In imitation of Jesus, the apostles cured the sick and possessed, drove out demons, and raised the dead. These were all signs of God's reign on the earth.

Today is Flag Day, and we have noticed more American flags in recent years. May God bless and guide our nation.

Sincerely in Christ

Fr. Greg
