Dear Parishioners: Our Parish staff, Fr. Joe, and I hope that you have a safe and blessed weekend. Independence Day, known as the Fourth of July, is a commemoration of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, when our nation was established. We are blessed to live in the United States and have many freedoms and opportunities. May God bless our nation and keep us and all other nations and peoples safe.

The readings emphasize that God is not a far away deity, disinterested and detached from creation. God is personal, loving, and seeks to guide our lives. Little ones in the Gospel refer to God’s children like us who are humble enough to see that God is revealed in Christ. Revelation of God comes to people who are humble and receptive. Jesus promises rest for those who follow him. Rest means refreshment, peace of mind, and renewed energy. A yoke is a harness on an animal. Jesus invites us to trade yokes as he takes our burdens, and we receive grace, love, and forgiveness from God that comes through Jesus.

Many Saints appear on the Church calendar during July, a few of whom are St. Thomas, St. Maria Goretti, St. Henry, St. Kateri, St. Mary Magdalene, St. James, and more. It is worthwhile to study the lives of the Saints. The one God and Holy Spirit that guided them remains with us today. With what Saint do we most identify? In what ways do we reflect God’s holiness in our families and workplaces?

Please make regular prayers and Mass an important part of summer. May God bless all of our families.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

Cathedral Corp. is still having issues with production of envelopes; therefore, we ask that for the month of July that you put your offering in either a blank envelope with your name on it or a left-over envelope from previous months.
Thank you for your understanding!
