ADORATION CHAPEL

Silence and prayer are not a form of Defection [from addressing the problems of the world]. They are the strongest weapons against evil. Man wants to "do," but above all he must "be." In silent prayer, man is fully human. Cardinal Robert Sarah Don't delay. Come to adore.

VACANT HOUR
Saturday 2 p.m.

Thank you for answering the call to adore! Prayer Partners are needed for all hours. Call Lu Menghini at 282-6909 or Barb Broullire at 221-9707 Visit www.theadorationchapel.com

Why do Catholics Use Crucifixes?

Crucifixes, like statues and stained glass windows, are used by the Catholic Church to help tell the story of Jesus.

Catholic churches use crucifixes instead of empty crosses because it helps bring the message home in a deeper way and because the cross is meaningless without Christ's death on it. Catholics do realize, of course, that Christ didn't stay there.

The Catholic church requires a crucifix to be visible during Mass. You can also find them in Catholic homes, hospitals and schools, for example.

ASSUMPTION of MARY

August 15th is the Assumption, it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation this year.
