Dear Parishioners: Fr. Joe and I had a meaningful and joy filled convocation with Bishop John and U.P. priests in Green Bay two weeks ago.
We are grateful for your prayers.

The Gospel this Sunday is the account of the parable of the tenants of the vineyard. The vineyard owner goes away and puts his vineyard in the hands of servants who mistreated the messengers and at last kills the owner's son. Jesus follows the parable by assuring the chief priests and elders that the kingdom will be taken away from them, just as the vineyard was taken away from the servants of the owner. The readings, with the imagery of the vineyard, remind us that we are stewards, not masters, of creation. We are called to care for the vineyard of God, God's holy people.

I look forward to Faith Formation, On Wednesday October 7th, when we begin with prayers in the Church. My hope is that we all pray, ask God to center our hearts, and become receptive to our catechists who aid parents in passing the faith to our young people.

THE BLITZ IS HERE. Please be generous to the U.P. Catholic Services Appeal. Fresh cinnamon rolls with real butter will be served after the 8:00 am & 10:15 am Masses. Please return your pledge card when making a pledge. Checks may be made payable to American Martyrs Parish. An appeal pamphlet describes the many Catholic efforts supported by UPCSA. I am grateful to our Parish committee members, phone callers, and all who give and pray for our effort.

October is the month of the Most Holy Rosary. May God bless you. Fr. Greg
