SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR THE COMING WEEK JULY 19 THRU JULY 25, 2026

(Confessions heard before all daily Masses)

TUESDAY	6:05 pm – Recitation of the Rosary
SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions

Dear Parishioners: We welcome regular parishioners, family members, and visitors during the summer. We hope that you find a spiritual home at American Martyrs Parish.

Last Sunday, we heard the parable of the Sower and learned how to receive the Word of God. Today, another parable of sowing and growth tells us of the Kingdom of God. An enemy sows weeds among the wheat, but because of good grain, the master forbids the servants to pull up these weeds until harvest time. As we cultivate good and root out evil, God's patience is long lasting. The longer form of the reading includes two more parables of the Kingdom which speak of incredible growth: from a tiny mustard seed comes a huge bush: from a small amount of yeast comes a great batch of dough. God's reign continues in our midst here and now.

What is a simple way to evangelize? The motto in our Diocese is: 1) Be a friend of Jesus: Foster personal encounters through prayer and reflection. 2) Make a friend: Build loving communities and form welcoming parishes. 3) Introduce your friend to Jesus: Share faith and help others make a personal decision to follow Jesus.

Have a blessed summer in the Lord,

Fr. Greg

Prayer Warriors Needed: We are seeking dedicated volunteers to join our prayer chain. Our prayer chain is a vital ministry that provides spiritual support and healing to those in need.

SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions

Dear Parishioners: We welcome regular parishioners, family members, and visitors during the summer. We hope that you find a spiritual home at American Martyrs Parish.

Last Sunday, we heard the parable of the Sower and learned how to receive the Word of God. Today, another parable of sowing and growth tells us of the Kingdom of God. An enemy sows weeds among the wheat, but because of good grain, the master forbids the servants to pull up these weeds until harvest time. As we cultivate good and root out evil, God's patience is long lasting. The longer form of the reading includes two more parables of the Kingdom which speak of incredible growth: from a tiny mustard seed comes a huge bush: from a small amount of yeast comes a great batch of dough. God's reign continues in our midst here and now.

What is a simple way to evangelize? The motto in our Diocese is: 1) Be a friend of Jesus: Foster personal encounters through prayer and reflection. 2) Make a friend: Build loving communities and form welcoming parishes. 3) Introduce your friend to Jesus: Share faith and help others make a personal decision to follow Jesus.

Have a blessed summer in the Lord,

Fr. Greg

TUESDAY	6:05 pm – Recitation of the Rosary
SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions

Dear Parishioners: We welcome regular parishioners, family members, and visitors during the summer. We hope that you find a spiritual home at American Martyrs Parish.

Last Sunday, we heard the parable of the Sower and learned how to receive the Word of God. Today, another parable of sowing and growth tells us of the Kingdom of God. An enemy sows weeds among the wheat, but because of good grain, the master forbids the servants to pull up these weeds until harvest time. As we cultivate good and root out evil, God's patience is long lasting. The longer form of the reading includes two more parables of the Kingdom which speak of incredible growth: from a tiny mustard seed comes a huge bush: from a small amount of yeast comes a great batch of dough. God's reign continues in our midst here and now.

What is a simple way to evangelize? The motto in our Diocese is: 1) Be a friend of Jesus: Foster personal encounters through prayer and reflection. 2) Make a friend: Build loving communities and form welcoming parishes. 3) Introduce your friend to Jesus: Share faith and help others make a personal decision to follow Jesus.

Have a blessed summer in the Lord,

Fr. Greg

Prayer Warriors Needed: We are seeking dedicated volunteers to join our prayer chain. Our prayer chain is a vital ministry that provides spiritual support and healing to those in need.

An enemy sows weeds among the wheat, but because of good grain, the master forbids the servants to pull up these weeds until harvest time. As we cultivate good and root out evil, God's patience is long lasting. The longer form of the reading includes two more parables of the Kingdom which speak of incredible growth: from a tiny mustard seed comes a huge bush: from a small amount of yeast comes a great batch of dough. God's reign continues in our midst here and now.

What is a simple way to evangelize? The motto in our Diocese is: 1) Be a friend of Jesus: Foster personal encounters through prayer and reflection. 2) Make a friend: Build loving communities and form welcoming parishes. 3) Introduce your friend to Jesus: Share faith and help others make a personal decision to follow Jesus.

Have a blessed summer in the Lord,

Fr. Greg

Dear Parishioners: We welcome regular parishioners, family members, and visitors during the summer. We hope that you find a spiritual home at American Martyrs Parish.

Last Sunday, we heard the parable of the Sower and learned how to receive the Word of God. Today, another parable of sowing and growth tells us of the Kingdom of God. An enemy sows weeds among the wheat, but because of good grain, the master forbids the servants to pull up these weeds until harvest time. As we cultivate good and root out evil, God's patience is long lasting. The longer form of the reading includes two more parables of the Kingdom which speak of incredible growth: from a tiny mustard seed comes a huge bush: from a small amount of yeast comes a great batch of dough. God's reign continues in our midst here and now.
