Jesus took Peter, James, and John to the top of a mountain where he was transfigured in glorious light while conversing with Moses and Elijah. From the clouds a voice is heard identifying Jesus as God's beloved Son. This same voice was heard at Jesus' baptism. In our baptism, we too were claimed by God as his beloved son or daughter. We have received the promise of eternal glory that Jesus makes present in the Transfiguration. We follow Jesus, who has passed through death into transfigured glory.

May God bless you during lent - Fr. Greg
