(Confessions heard before all daily Masses)

MONDAY	6:30 pm – Choir Practice for Advent & Christmas Season
TUESDAY	6:05 pm – Recitation of the Rosary

Dear Parishioners: We were happy to pray for and recognize veterans during Veteran's Day last Tuesday. Express appreciation to men and women who have served in the military.

During Thanksgiving, we gather with family and loved ones and offer thanks to God for many blessings. Be sure to reach out and provide a meal for people who are alone and without family. Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 8:00 am.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the end times are not a time for fear, but for witness. Jesus' followers are invited to trust that trials and sufferings are opportunities to witness to the faith; a witness that points to God's power to save us from death itself. In the first reading, Malachi urges us to take stock in our lives as we stand before God and engage in our faith so that we may one day be taken up in glory.

Sincerely in Christ, - Fr. Greg

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

Several parishioners have approached Fr. Greg and have asked for Holy Communion using gluten free hosts due to celiac disease or gluten sensitivity. The Catholic Church requires that communion be made of wheat and water; however, they have permitted the use of low gluten hosts for those people who request them. Low gluten hosts contain only a trace amount of gluten.

Beginning this weekend, we will provide low gluten hosts at American Martyrs Parish. If you need a low gluten host, please arrive at the Parish Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass. You will need to access a low gluten host, place it in a pyx, and then place the pyx on the credence table with the bread and wine. Fr. Greg will have the pyx in the ciborium during the distribution of Holy Communion, please proceed on the left side facing the altar.

We hope that our response is helpful to everyone.

TUESDAY	6:05 pm – Recitation of the Rosary
WEDNESDAY	5:15 pm – Faith Formation - grades 1-5 6:30 pm – Faith Formation - grades 6-11
SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions

Dear Parishioners: We were happy to pray for and recognize veterans during Veteran's Day last Tuesday. Express appreciation to men and women who have served in the military.

During Thanksgiving, we gather with family and loved ones and offer thanks to God for many blessings. Be sure to reach out and provide a meal for people who are alone and without family. Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 8:00 am.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the end times are not a time for fear, but for witness. Jesus' followers are invited to trust that trials and sufferings are opportunities to witness to the faith; a witness that points to God's power to save us from death itself. In the first reading, Malachi urges us to take stock in our lives as we stand before God and engage in our faith so that we may one day be taken up in glory.

Sincerely in Christ, - Fr. Greg

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

Several parishioners have approached Fr. Greg and have asked for Holy Communion using gluten free hosts due to celiac disease or gluten sensitivity. The Catholic Church requires that communion be made of wheat and water; however, they have permitted the use of low gluten hosts for those people who request them. Low gluten hosts contain only a trace amount of gluten.

Beginning this weekend, we will provide low gluten hosts at American Martyrs Parish. If you need a low gluten host, please arrive at the Parish Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass. You will need to access a low gluten host, place it in a pyx, and then place the pyx on the credence table with the bread and wine. Fr. Greg will have the pyx in the ciborium during the distribution of Holy Communion, please proceed on the left side facing the altar.

We hope that our response is helpful to everyone.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR THE COMING WEEK NOVEMBER 16 THRU NOVEMBER 22, 2025

(Confessions heard before all daily Masses)

MONDAY	6:30 pm – Choir Practice for Advent & Christmas Season
TUESDAY	6:05 pm – Recitation of the Rosary
WEDNESDAY	5:15 pm – Faith Formation - grades 1-5 6:30 pm – Faith Formation - grades 6-11

Dear Parishioners: We were happy to pray for and recognize veterans during Veteran's Day last Tuesday. Express appreciation to men and women who have served in the military.

During Thanksgiving, we gather with family and loved ones and offer thanks to God for many blessings. Be sure to reach out and provide a meal for people who are alone and without family. Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 8:00 am.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the end times are not a time for fear, but for witness. Jesus' followers are invited to trust that trials and sufferings are opportunities to witness to the faith; a witness that points to God's power to save us from death itself. In the first reading, Malachi urges us to take stock in our lives as we stand before God and engage in our faith so that we may one day be taken up in glory.

Sincerely in Christ, - Fr. Greg

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

Several parishioners have approached Fr. Greg and have asked for Holy Communion using gluten free hosts due to celiac disease or gluten sensitivity. The Catholic Church requires that communion be made of wheat and water; however, they have permitted the use of low gluten hosts for those people who request them. Low gluten hosts contain only a trace amount of gluten.

Beginning this weekend, we will provide low gluten hosts at American Martyrs Parish. If you need a low gluten host, please arrive at the Parish Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass. You will need to access a low gluten host, place it in a pyx, and then place the pyx on the credence table with the bread and wine. Fr. Greg will have the pyx in the ciborium during the distribution of Holy Communion, please proceed on the left side facing the altar.

We hope that our response is helpful to everyone.

Jesus' followers are invited to trust that trials and sufferings are opportunities to witness to the faith; a witness that points to God's power to save us from death itself. In the first reading, Malachi urges us to take stock in our lives as we stand before God and engage in our faith so that we may one day be taken up in glory.

Sincerely in Christ, - Fr. Greg

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

Several parishioners have approached Fr. Greg and have asked for Holy Communion using gluten free hosts due to celiac disease or gluten sensitivity. The Catholic Church requires that communion be made of wheat and water; however, they have permitted the use of low gluten hosts for those people who request them. Low gluten hosts contain only a trace amount of gluten.

Beginning this weekend, we will provide low gluten hosts at American Martyrs Parish. If you need a low gluten host, please arrive at the Parish Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass. You will need to access a low gluten host, place it in a pyx, and then place the pyx on the credence table with the bread and wine. Fr. Greg will have the pyx in the ciborium during the distribution of Holy Communion, please proceed on the left side facing the altar.

We hope that our response is helpful to everyone.

Dear Parishioners: We were happy to pray for and recognize veterans during Veteran's Day last Tuesday. Express appreciation to men and women who have served in the military.

During Thanksgiving, we gather with family and loved ones and offer thanks to God for many blessings. Be sure to reach out and provide a meal for people who are alone and without family. Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 8:00 am.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the end times are not a time for fear, but for witness. Jesus' followers are invited to trust that trials and sufferings are opportunities to witness to the faith; a witness that points to God's power to save us from death itself. In the first reading, Malachi urges us to take stock in our lives as we stand before God and engage in our faith so that we may one day be taken up in glory.

Sincerely in Christ, - Fr. Greg

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

Several parishioners have approached Fr. Greg and have asked for Holy Communion using gluten free hosts due to celiac disease or gluten sensitivity. The Catholic Church requires that communion be made of wheat and water; however, they have permitted the use of low gluten hosts for those people who request them. Low gluten hosts contain only a trace amount of gluten.

Beginning this weekend, we will provide low gluten hosts at American Martyrs Parish. If you need a low gluten host, please arrive at the Parish Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass. You will need to access a low gluten host, place it in a pyx, and then place the pyx on the credence table with the bread and wine. Fr. Greg will have the pyx in the ciborium during the distribution of Holy Communion, please proceed on the left side facing the altar.

We hope that our response is helpful to everyone.
