What if your company could reduce payroll taxes by approximately $640 per participating full-time employee each year—without replacing your current medical plan or creating a major administrative burden?

My name is _____,

I connect qualified employers with a specialized benefits program designed to:

- Reduce employer FICA payroll taxes
- Potentially increase employee take-home pay
- Work alongside existing medical and MEC benefits
- Require minimal involvement from HR
- Improve the company's bottom line without disrupting operations

This is not an insurance replacement, or a traditional employee benefits sales presentation. Qualification requirements apply, and not every company will be eligible.

Would you be opposed to a brief 20-minute Zoom meeting to determine whether your company qualifies and review its potential savings?
