Requirements and purpose for this notice and the meetings:

The regulatory requirements for public comments can be found at 24 CFR 903.17. While the method utilized to notify the public of the meeting may vary, Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) are required to conduct a public hearing to discuss the PHA plan(s) and invite public comment on the plan(s). The hearing itself must be conducted at a location that is convenient to the residents served by the PHA.

Moreover, no later than 45 days before the public hearing, the PHA must:

- Make the proposed PHA plan(s), the required attachments and documents related to the plans, and all information relevant to the public hearing to be conducted, available for inspection by the public at the principal office of the PHA during normal business hours.
- Publish a notice informing the public that the information is available for review and inspection, and that a public hearing will take place on the plan, and the date, time and location of the hearing.

Lastly, the PHAs must also perform reasonable outreach activities in order to encourage broad public participation in the PHA plan(s).
