

ACCESSIBILITY AT KAPADOKYA TURKISH RESTAURANT

Our quirky little restaurant is situated on one of Plymouth's oldest streets and housed in a former 18th century Inn. The building itself is not only a listed building but also sits in a conservation area.

Whilst we would love to welcome everyone into our restaurant, the nature of the building itself may not be suitable for everyone. Our dining room is located on the first floor with only one 4 cover table adjacent to the service bar on the ground floor next to our main entrance.

Our facilities are also only accessible via a staircase.

Due to the nature of the building accessibility may not be suitable for those with mobility issues.

Please do let us know when booking if you or any of your party may have difficulty in visiting us.

There is no parking outside the restaurant but you are able to be dropped off outside.

Paid parking is available throughout the Barbican area with both car parks and on street parking along the main strip of the Barbican and surrounding areas.

Word of warning, some of the on street parking is allocated to residents only so please do double check the signage.
