

Jasenko Pilja

Biography

Jasenko Pilja has been living in the Greater Boston region for 22 years. He grew up in Sarajevo, Bosnia where attended The International University of Sarajevo and completed a Bachelor's degree in Horticultural Engineering.

After relocating to the United States, Jasenko went into the hospitality industry and has been a hospitality professional at Harvard, Wellesley College, Harvard Private Club and Bloomingdales for the last 22 years. During his career he successfully oversaw the opening of two restaurants and the renovation and reopening of Wellesley College Faculty Club. Ready for a new challenge, Jasenko received his real estate salesperson license in the 2018 and joined RE/MAX soon after. Jasenko made the decision to join RE/MAX because they are a leading real estate company worldwide and operate in over 100 countries. After meeting with the RE/MAX Unlimited team in Brookline, Jasenko recognized it would be a great fit for him and he looks forward to working with a team of very dedicated and passionate individuals.

Jasenko purchased his first home in 1999 in Arlington and he still lives in Arlington with his wife and their son Nicholas. For the last 5 years Jasenko has owned and managed the rental process for properties in Cape Cod MA, Bartlett NH, Croatia and Bosnia in Europe. Through these personal investments, his passion for real estate grew. The properties that Jasenko chose to invest in marked major milestones in his life and he would like to have the opportunity to take part in the life changing real estate endeavors of others as well.

Jasenko has a special interest in educating and helping first time home buyers. He looks forward to building relationships with future clients and believes that helping them find their dream home is a very rewarding part of the real estate profession. He is very excited to begin his real estate journey with RE/MAX and his familiarity with the Greater Boston region will be an asset to both buyers and sellers.
