Together, we are building confidence, creating opportunity, and helping shape the future of Canadian cycling.

Since 2024, we've helped more than 400 girls and women discover, or rediscover, a love of sport.

Meet the FOUNDERS

Haley Daniels, OLY | Co-Founder

Haley Daniels is an Olympian, speaker, coach and advocate for gender equality in sport.

A pioneer in women's canoe slalom, Haley helped lead the successful push for women's canoe to be added to the Olympic Games before representing Canada at the Tokyo Olympics.

Now retired from international competition and based in Canmore, Haley continues to create opportunities for women and girls in sport through coaching, advocacy and community building.

She co-founded the Canmore Women's Enduro alongside Sarah and works in partnership sales at SponsorPulse.

Haley brings the perspective of an athlete who has competed on the world's biggest sporting stage while also understanding what it takes to challenge systems and create opportunities that didn't previously exist, remove barriers and make sure girls can see a place for themselves in cycling.

JUNIOR ELITE MTB

Peak Pursuits Elite MTB is a Cycling Canada-registered Trade Team focused on developing the next generation of Canadian female cyclists.

The team will compete at the highest levels of North American mountain bike racing, including the Canada Cup Series, Continental Race Series, USXC events, and Canadian National Championships. Our mission is to provide athletes with world-class coaching, mentorship, racing opportunities, and the support needed to progress from provincial competition to international competition while building confidence, leadership, and lifelong success in sport.

HEAD COACH RYAN DRAPER

Ryan Draper is the Founder of Cycling-101 Inc. and one of Canada's most experienced cycling coaches, bringing more than 30 years of endurance sport experience to athlete development. An NCCP Certified Cycling Coach, Level 2 Certified Bike Fitter, PMBI Certified Mountain Bike Instructor and Guide, and Safe Sport certified coach, Ryan has worked with more than 500 athletes ranging from beginners to elite competitors. His extensive racing background includes 28 solo 24-hour mountain bike races, 10 victories, and a top-10 finish at the World Solo 24-Hour Championships.

JUNIOR - ELITE ROAD & TRACK

The Elite road team provides a high-performance pathway through premier stage races and national-level competition, including the Valley of the Sun Stage Race, Tour de Bloom, Coupe de l'Avenir, Tour de l'Abitibi, Canadian Road Championships, and Canadian Track Championships. Athletes gain experience in race tactics, teamwork, stage racing, time trials, and high-performance competition while working alongside some of Canada's most experienced coaches and mentors.

Supporting the road and track teams are coaches Alissa Maglaty and Steve Shiers who bring extensive experience in athlete development, performance coaching, and mentorship. Steve is recognized for his expertise in sprint development, race tactics, and helping athletes maximize their strengths through structured training and competition planning. Alissa, the 2025 Alberta Coach of the Year, has played a pivotal role in developing young athletes across multiple cycling disciplines.

JUNIOR ELITE DH/ENDURO

Peak Pursuits is expanding in 2027 with a dedicated Downhill & Enduro squad, creating a stronger development and racing pathway for female gravity athletes across Western Canada.

The squad will compete across major provincial and national events, including the Canadian Enduro League, BC Downhill Series, Canadian Enduro Championships, and Canadian Downhill Championships, alongside select regional and high-performance racing opportunities.

Our goal is to give young female gravity athletes access to the coaching, mentorship, race support, technical development, and team environment they need to progress from local and provincial racing toward the highest levels of Canadian and international competition.

Like every Peak Pursuits program, the Downhill & Enduro squad is about more than results. We are building confident, capable athletes and creating a place where girls can progress together, take on bigger challenges, develop as leaders, and see a future for themselves in gravity racing.

More racing. More progression. More girls on the start line. New for 2027.

ENDURO & DH COACHING

The Enduro & Downhill teams will utilize multiple specialized coaches, ski hills, training venues, and experienced athlete mentors across British Columbia and Alberta to create a complete training environment. By exposing athletes to different terrain, coaching expertise, race environments, and mentorship, the program will develop the technical skills, speed, confidence, race craft, and decision-making required to progress in both Enduro and Downhill.

PEAK PURSUITS PROVINCIAL TRADE TEAM

Peak Pursuits also offers partnership opportunities through our provincial Trade Team. The Provincial team maintains a strong Western Canadian focus, providing young female cyclists with access to leading coaches, regional and national race opportunities, and year-round athlete development.

Beyond racing, athletes participate in online education sessions covering mental wellness, healthy fueling practices, race tactics, strategy, social media safety, and leadership development.

Trade Team partners play a direct role in helping more girls access high-quality coaching, safe sport environments, mentorship, and opportunities that keep them engaged in cycling for years to come.
