

D.O.P.E. DIVINE | ORDER | PERFECTLY | EXECUTED

A D.O.P.E. (Divine Order Perfectly Executed) moment, is what I would like to define as those moments when something you could not have planned for occurs. Those moments “if I had not been coming this way moments,” or “I could not have executed such a thing on my own” moments. Those moments, if you able to recognize these moments, (in the moment or even after the moment) it allows you “peace in a traffic jam,” “allows you to “NOT get frustrated” when you are detoured, and as an artist, it allows you to create things that blow your mind. Please visit the “Our Time” Exhibit to see exactly what I mean.
