

NaGuanda Nobles discovered a love for singing at an early age. Mrs. Nobles accepted a full scholarship to attend Florida State University (FSU) and received her BM and MM degrees in Voice Performance. Receiving rave reviews for her “big, warming soprano with a lovely shimmering top that she uses with a ravishing effect”, Mrs. Nobles offers a winning combination of beauty and intensity in her singing. She has made her mark on the concert and operatic stages all across the world. Mrs. Nobles released her debut CD of spirituals, entitled “Homage to the Journey”, as a tribute to the slaves whose battered shoulders upon which she stands and the people who have been instrumental throughout her career. Mrs. Nobles is also the founder of The HighArt Foundation, a non-profit organization that awards scholarships and provides mentorship to graduating high school seniors who are planning to pursue a degree in music.
