Blue Jays

Chris joined the team in 2016 and immediately brought with him to the team an air of confidence and expectation that the team was sorely lacking. He joined the coaching staff in 2020 and has been a strong presence in helping bring in players and helping others improve has been vital to the growth of the team.

Despite breaking his ankle in 2021, a season in which he had gotten off to a torrid start, his veteran leadership and positive attitude helped keep us guided in the right direction. His 96% Stolen base rate (25 out of 26) is the highest in franchise history and his is in the top 5 in every offensive stat in team history.

In 2024, Chris had to take a step back from the team as his son was taking a giant leap forward in his own personal development as a ball player.
