

Blue Jays

We picked up Clark before the season as he reached out looking to play. We were lucky to be able to add him.

After a bit of a slow start at the plate, Clark found his footing about half way through the season and was able to turn things around significantly, being one of our better hitters during the 2nd half of the season. He is versatile in the field, able to play multiple positions which gave us flexibility defensively.

Clark was a valuable lower half of the batting order contributor who was able to finish 2nd on the team in RBI (10) despite never hitting higher then 7th during the season.
