

Blue Jays

Emerik was playing ball in Brampton with Zac before coming out to help us one night....and (thankfully) he never left.

From the moment he came out to play, I think there was a perfect fit between "Em" and the team. He literally was a godsend as his abilities were quite literally exactly what we were missing. On the mound specifically, Em was at times dominant. His 38 innings pitched included the last 5 straight starts of his being complete games (A team record).

At the plate, Em was no slouch finishing with a 0.346 average, 0.613 OB Average, he stole 4 bases (without being caught) and scored 7 runs (tied for 3rd on the team). With some added pitching reinforcements we are getting for the 2025 season added to what we now know Em is capable of, we look to be in a very strong position to rebound in a big way.

Em ended up playing with the Cubs in 2025. Luckily for us, the Cubs didn't know what they had in Em and misused him all year long.

So In 2026, Em returned and was dominant on the mound setting a new team record for wins in a season by going 5-1 with a 2.43 ERA over 20.2 innings in the regular season. He had 18 K's and 10 BB's as well only giving up 7 earned runs all year long. He pitched another 6 innings in Playoffs and helped keep us alive.

At the plate, he was consistent hitting 0.435 and getting on base at a rate of 0.615 during the regular season.
