

Unfortunately injuries and health concerns cost him the bulk of the 2nd half of the 2022 season right when he had seemingly turned a corner at the plate regarding extra base hits as just before they began, his last 5 hits had been 4 doubles and his first career homer. He had a bounce back season in 2023 both with the bat and was consistent in the field as always.

In 2024, Justin kept on being Justin: Solid at the plate, goes for every ball out in the field as hard as he possibly can and just does everything in his power to help us win. He was far more vocal this year as a coach and leader on the team and it was much needed as we struggled out of the gate during our losing skid.

His hitting kept us going in games where, at times, we really had no business being in it still. He also hit his 2nd homer of the season and was willing and able to help out other teams whenever he could.

2025 will be the year where all of his hard work will be rewarded
