

Matt was the last active player on the team who played any games prior to 2014 when the team name was the "Yankees". Deadly at the plate and on the base paths, Matt has consistently been among our best hitters over the years holding a career batting average of .371 and OBA of .482. He has collected 65 stolen bases in 71 tries since 2014 including a team record for stolen bases in a season set in 2014 when he stole 18, unlikely to ever be topped (minimum 8 games played in the season).

In 2023 Matty had a strong season but was banged up all year long and he ended up taking 2024 off (initially calling it a "retirement". The year off helped his back greatly and he returned to the team in 2025.

He only playing in only 5 games for the year but was back to his old self at the plate and had some success on the mound as well. His arm and back held up well and he is excited about coming back (hopefully to play more games) in 2026.
