Patrick Buscar

For quite a few years, Patrick played on the Mets in the MMBL, one of the teams I used to have trouble beating in my previous time running the MMBL Blue Jays. A fluke contact with Johnny Mac led to some conversations back and forth and the realization that Patrick lives almost directly across from Nelson Park.

Given his schedule, he has only been able to play in 8 games over his first couple of years with us but he has been able to contribute both on the mound and at the plate in the limited games he played.

Owen Bramley

Owen joined the team in 2025 and had a remarkable season offensively. He played in only 10 games but he set single season records in several categories including; Batting Average, On Base Average, Slugging %, OPS, and OPS+. Owen pitched for us as well and despite his numbers not being what we expected, he was at times effective and, next year (once we have added more pitching to the team) we will slot him in as more of a short inning type of pitcher as opposed to pushing him to pitch more as we really had no other choice this year given our lack of pitching options.

Mike Hays

Solid at the plate and in the field, Mike had a really good first season with us. Despite being hampered by a nagging hamstring injury, (he only was able to get into 10 games) Mike fit in great and was able to play well at 3rd as well as the outfield. Heading into next season, here is hoping that the injury bug leaves Mike alone for 2026.
