

Joe was helping run the Yankees in 2012 and 2013 when he made the decision to reach out to Marco to take over the BVB team in 2014. As it was he and Steve Ascah who were running things, upon agreeing to the changes proposed, Joe would go on to play the first in the first 3 years with the BVB Blue Jays before retiring in 2017. Joe has since moved to the East Coast with his family and has been enjoying life.
