BVB Blue Jays Past Players

Adriano Vega

Adriano is a top notch player. He first started playing with me in the MMBL when I was running the Blue Jays there. He had power, speed and a strong arm. He could pitch, he catch and throw from Center field and he could really hit the ball....when he was focused.

When I took over the BVB Blue Jays, I brought him over and over the course of 4 seasons, Adriano was a solid player. his last 2 years with the team, he was no longer able to pitch to the same level and had some issues with how we had decided to use him in the outfield and abruptly quit on the team 2 games into the 2020 season.

Mike Villa

Mike joined the team in 2017 as a part time player and made an immediate impact. His solid defense at 3rd base along with his extra base power at the plate were something we really needed. Over the course of the 4 years he played with us, he averaged only 7 games a year but was easily among our best hitters each of those years.

He had to step away mainly due to an ever increasing work load at his place of employment.

Miso Radman

 I have known Miso since 2003 when we both started off playing with the Phillies in the MMBL. When the two of us asked the guy running the Phillies for the two of us being included as coaches for the team after our 2nd season, he refused so we branched off and made our own team; The Marlins.

 After 2 relatively good years, we decided to re-brand as the Blue Jays in the MMBL. Miso always a great hitter and a hard thrower. He had Tommy John surgery several years ago and has reached out about returning to the team for 2026.

Cesar Castillo

His first couple of games were a feeling out process for us as we learned where to best play Cesar. We had him on the mound, at 2nd and in Right Field. Ultimately Right was the best spot for him defensively. Cesar's bat took a while to finally come around as he nearly hit a dinger off of Country of the Cards and had a big hit in our Wild Card Game loss.

Jesus Recinos Jr.

Primarily a 2nd basemen, Jesus was able to big a big contributor at the plate when he was able to come out. He had a few key hits and a strong batting average and on base average despite hitting on the lower half of the batting order for most of the season.

Rafael was only able to get into a single game for us. He struggled on the mound with holding runners on base and was hit by a pitch in one of his 2 at bats. Due to family reasons, he moved to the States due to personal reasons. We wish him well.

Miguel Do Los Santos

His bat has always been his calling card but what surprised me about him most was how well he was able to pitch. Injuries slowed him substantially as he was unable to basically run and easy doubles for many were barely singles for him. If he is able to be healthy and returns in 2024, he would be a huge addition.

JJ Ventura

Blessed with an electric arm, JJ seems to have all the tools to be great on the mound. In his 4 innings on the mound, he demonstrated a great fastball and incredible slider. He needs to focus his attention more when on the mound as it tends to waiver a bit but he is superbly talented and if he returns for 2024, he could be a true wild card that could help us rise up the standings.

Juan Adames

Juan joined the team late in the 2023 season and showed flashes of brialiance both on the mound and at the plate. His batting average and Onbase average were phenomenal (in a short sample size) but his most important contributions were felt on the mound where he had an exceptional start followed by an average one striking out 12 and walking 4 in 7 total innings.

We are unsure if he will be back for 2024.

Ryan was one of the members of the Inaugural team in 2014. In his only season with the team, he led the team in RBI's (10) and OBA (.600). He had to stop playing due to a lingering hip injury that began robbing him of the torque needed to swing the bat effectively.

Ben has been playing what seems like everywhere forever as he is the kind of guy who just loves the game. And he's really good at it too so that helps. He was the team MVP for those first 3 seasons as our leadoff hitter and CF, he was able to control the game at will.

He holds the franchise record for career BA (.449), OBA (.602) and is 3rd in stolen bases (45 for 49, 92% efficiency). He also holds the single season record for highest OBA (.750 in 2017). Ben continues to play in the league and is always welcome to return.

Brad became a member of the team in in 2019. He has the versatility to play several positions including 3B, SS as well as LF and RF but where he truly excels is on the mound. He is the only pitcher on the team who has a .500 record or better as he had a 3-1 record this past season.

He is able to make the right play at the right time when in the field and has a devastating split fingered fastball that can fool even the best hitters in the league.

Matt came over from the Brewers after having played with them for several years and after the team moved on to another league. Surehanded defensively and dynamite from the left side of the plate, Matt did everything in his power to help the team win game in and game out.

In 2017, Matt recorded the 2nd highest Batting Average ever at 0.529 (second only to Ben Singh that same year who hit 0.550) and the 3rd highest OBA at 0.714 (behind only Ben at 0.750 and Terry at 0.738).

He left the team to re-join the Brewers returned to the league in 2018.

Cory was a member of the inaugural team and his consistency at the plate was instrumental in several wins early on. His versatility out in the field was also a key to helping the team grow in those early years.

Family life took over as his main priority and his last season with the team was 2015.

Go Pats!

A Power bat and great glove at short, Joe was a steady presence in the early years of the franchise. He has the distinction as being the first player on the team to hit a home run in our inaugural season.

After 3 seasons, family life was no longer allowing Joe to have the time to play and he had to step away.

Nardelli was possibly the best left handed pitcher I have ever seen . When he was on, it was like playing a video game as he could manipulate the ball to move either way, up or down and side to side. Add in a dominating fastball and you have the makings of a True Ace. Unfortunately, due to family obligations, Mike was unable to keep playing on a more regular basis and his last season only saw him play in a handful of games. Oh what might have been....

Emerik was playing ball in Brampton with Zac before coming out to help us one night....and (thankfully) he never left.

From the moment he came out to play, I think there was a perfect fit between "Em" and the team. He literally was a godsend as his abilities were quite literally exactly what we were missing. On the mound specifically, Em was at times dominant. His 38 innings pitched included the last 5 straight starts of his being complete games (A team record).

At the plate, Em was no slouch finishing with a 0.346 average, 0.613 OB Average, he stole 4 bases (without being caught) and scored 7 runs (tied for 3rd on the team). With some added pitching reinforcements we are getting for the 2025 season added to what we now know Em is capable of, we look to be in a very strong position to rebound in a big way.

Steve started playing on the MMBL Blue Jays in 2011 and came over to the BVB Team in 2014. He was always smooth as silk out on the field. He had a canon for an arm and a power left handed bat that was coupled with a great eye allowed him to be very selective at the plate. In his 2 seasons with the team, he was a strong defensive presence that seemed to help keep everyone under control out on the field.
