

Around the World, Across the Street

Words and Music by Sharon Dennis and Doris Au MacDonald

Intro D A D E

Voice

A-round the world, a-cross the street, a ba-by cries, a moth-er weeps. But love is wide and mer-cy's deep. God looks for us with long-ing eyes a-round the world, a-cross the street. A-round the world, a-cross the street, a ba-by cries, a moth-er weeps. But love is wide and mer-cy's deep. God looks for us with long-ing eyes a-round the world, a-cross the street. A-round the world, we see the same stars. A-cross the street, we share a bro-ken heart. And the wave that starts with me trav-els far be-yond the sea to share the Fath-er's love a-round the world. A-round the world, a-cross the street, a ba-by cries, a moth-er

24 D A D F#m Bm

27 E D A D

31 E D F#m

weeps. But love is wide and mer-cy's deep. God

34 Bm A/C# D E F#m

looks for us with long-ing eyes a - round the world, a - cross the street. God

37 Bm A/C# D E F#m

looks for us with long-ing eyes a - round the world, a - cross the street. God

40 Bm A/C# D E D

looks for us with long-ing eyes a - round the world, a - cross the street.

43 A

