

The Art of the Journey

Shamanic mantra

Decades have gone by and the students have labored.

"I can't see the drum."

"My guides won't come in"

"Every time I get to a certain place in my Journey, it just fades."

What is the journey?

A fixation with someone else's idea of how to eclipse an altered state of consciousness in order to achieve illumination.

What's wrong with this picture?

The journey is an individual experience generated by a myriad of perceptions and experiences.

What works for one may not work for another soul.

Some of our indigenous brothers and sisters have drunk the koolaid, drawn upon colonized waters.

It's a spiritual DNA cocktail.

Sprinkled with numerous other programmatic alternatives.

Most important!

It is spirit led.

Often sprinkled with many colonized implanted ideas.

You may not realize it but, you are the sum total of your experience.

If you don't believe it baby, close your eyes.

Tell me what you see?

We will explore this topic on our website pointing out the psycho spiritual hijacking and understanding of what a journey should entail.

We will also explore why it's so important to know thy self...

The first installment will be up on divinityiseternal.com.

Drop us a line if you are interested in learning more about the keys to your soul.

Step one:

Get out of the way.

Realize that you are a soul.

This may take a little work.

Why are you trying to journey?

What are you hoping to achieve?

Why are you interested in attaining a vision of the past, present or a situation?

Understand that there are many illuminations that you can receive while journeying.

If you do it successfully there are many pieces of information that can be conveyed

Are you ready to receive them?

The worlds of psychic illumination as well as the prophetic repose could be laid at your feet.

This is why you must prepare the temple.

Like a good soldier, you must boot up.

Soliciting the Universe for protection is a must.

Remember it is the Spirit that leads.

What does your higher power look like to you?

Don't skate on those Sunday school lessons you learned early.

The truth is, it gives you a discipline, with which you can build.

"Cause honey, when the fire rages," it will be your ancestors that will pull you from the flames."

So let's begin in simplicity.

Your first task before you journey; define.

Who are you mentally and spiritually?

Next week will talk more about booting up...Until then- keep on moving ..
