

Modern Slavery Act 2015 (“MSA”)

Global Growth Institute Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for the Financial Year 2022/2023.

Global Growth Institute takes a zero tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking.

Global Growth Institute has taken appropriate steps to ensure that slavery or human trafficking is not taking place in its supply chains by means of its procurement and due diligence processes and ensuring awareness of the risks of slavery and human trafficking in supply chains.

As part of its supplier on-boarding process, Global Growth Institute Ltd engages with its suppliers to seek assurance about their anti-slavery and human trafficking policies and whether they are taking steps to prevent slavery and human trafficking in their respective business and supply chains.

Global Growth Institute will not support or engage suppliers where it is aware of slavery or human trafficking in such suppliers’ business or supply chains.

This statement is made under section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Global Growth Institute slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st March 2023.

This statement has been approved by Global Growth Institute Board of directors and will be reviewed annually.
