In Loving Memory of Nakisha Linzer: A Legacy of Love and Light

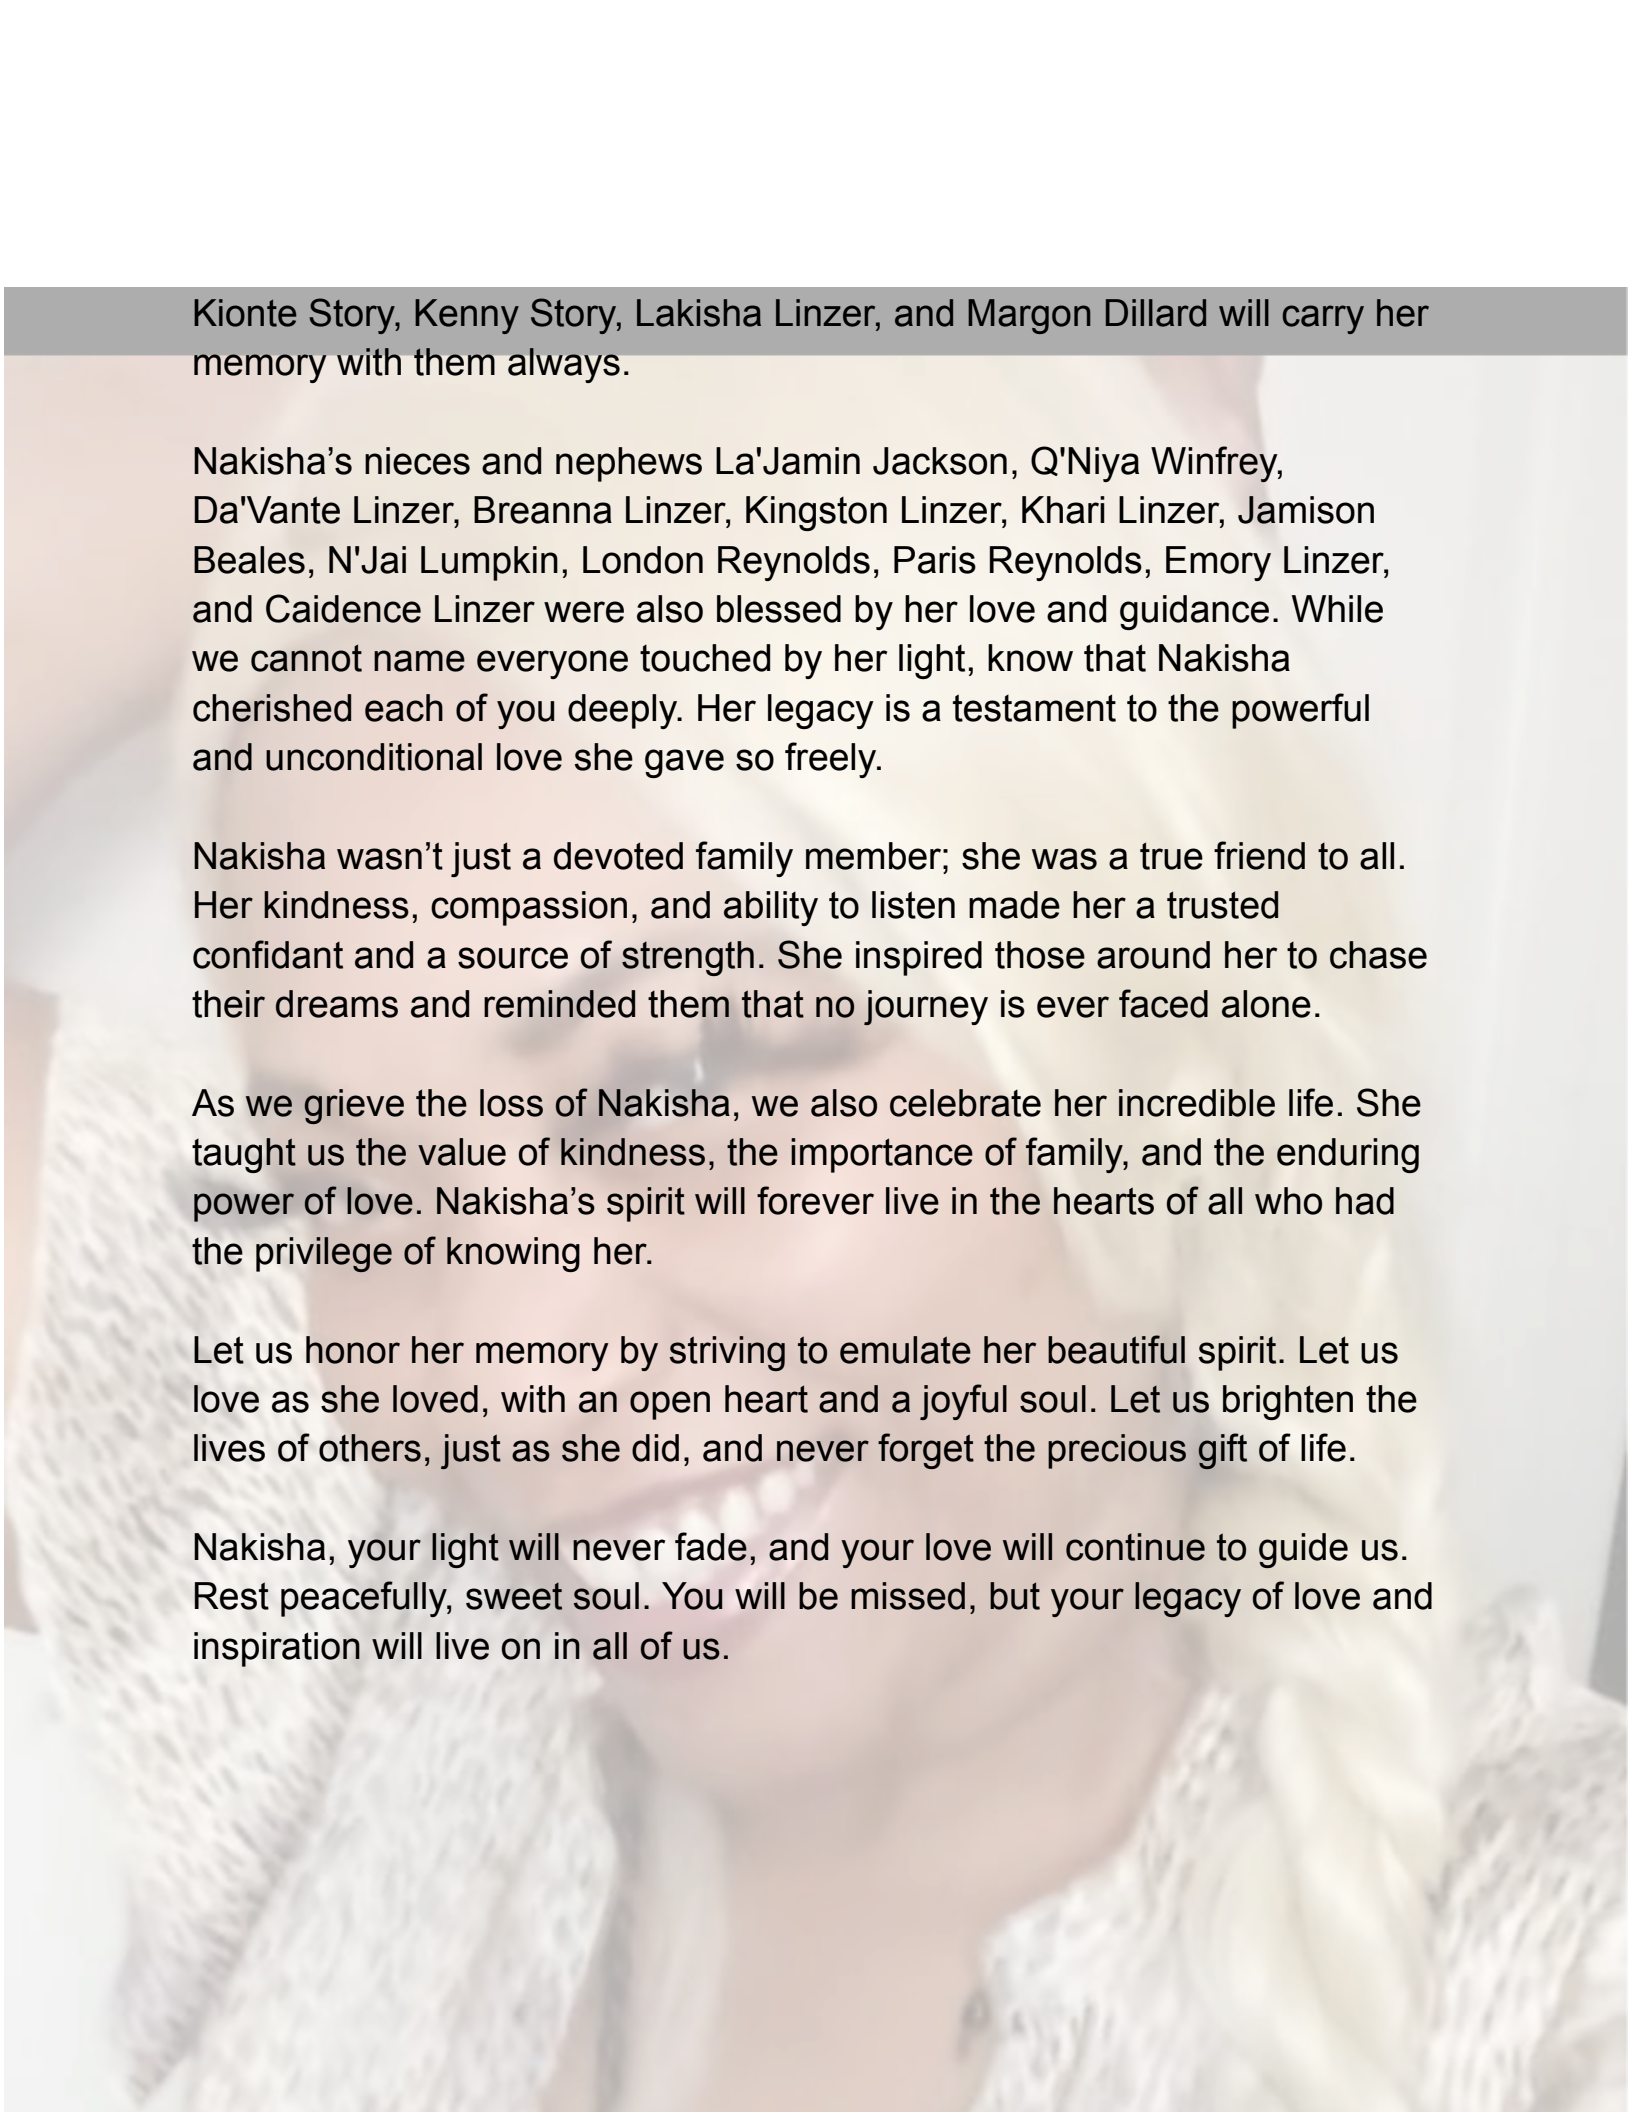

With heavy hearts, we come together to honor and celebrate the extraordinary life of Nakisha Linzer, a remarkable woman who brought boundless love, joy, and warmth to everyone fortunate enough to know her. Nakisha departed this earthly life on November 13, 2024, leaving a void that can never be filled but her light and love will forever shine in our hearts.

Born on January 11, 1980, Nakisha was a true beacon of love and positivity. She lived her life with purpose and a deep commitment to empowering those around her. Her laughter was contagious, her radiant smile a source of comfort and joy. She reminded us all to cherish life's moments and to find beauty even in the midst of trials.

Nakisha was lovingly known by her nickname, "Shoebox." She shared a special bond as a twin with her sister Lakisha Harrison, affectionately called "Shaboobie." As the older twin, Nakisha embraced her role with love and humor. She was known as the "Sweet Twin," lighting up every room she entered and being the life of every gathering.

Nakisha's greatest pride and joy were her family. She leaves behind her beloved children: Clegeus Poledore, Jamikeal Linzer, Davion Linzer, and Dariana Linzer. She was a proud grandmother to Ire'Anna Linzer, Jatavist Linzer, Jaylee Patterson, and Baylee Patterson.

She was preceded in death by her dear mother, Betty Celestine, but is survived by her father, James Linzer Sr., and his wife, Margo Linzer. Her siblings James Linzer Jr., Jamison Linzer, Jamerius Linzer, Jamie Linzer, Kionte Story, Kenny Story, Lakisha Linzer, and Margon Dillard will carry her memory with them always.

Nakisha's nieces and nephews La'Jamin Jackson, Q'Niya Winfrey, Da'Vante Linzer, Breanna Linzer, Kingston Linzer, Khari Linzer, Jamison Beales, N'Jai Lumpkin, London Reynolds, Paris Reynolds, Emory Linzer, and Caidence Linzer were also blessed by her love and guidance. While we cannot name everyone touched by her light, know that Nakisha cherished each of you deeply. Her legacy is a testament to the powerful and unconditional love she gave so freely.

Nakisha wasn't just a devoted family member; she was a true friend to all. Her kindness, compassion, and ability to listen made her a trusted confidant and a source of strength. She inspired those around her to chase their dreams and reminded them that no journey is ever faced alone.

As we grieve the loss of Nakisha, we also celebrate her incredible life. She taught us the value of kindness, the importance of family, and the enduring power of love. Nakisha's spirit will forever live in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Let us honor her memory by striving to emulate her beautiful spirit. Let us love as she loved, with an open heart and a joyful soul. Let us brighten the lives of others, just as she did, and never forget the precious gift of life.

Nakisha, your light will never fade, and your love will continue to guide us. Rest peacefully, sweet soul. You will be missed, but your legacy of love and inspiration will live on in all of us.
