

VPC Liability Release

VPC LIABILITY RELEASE FORM - July 2024

This form is a legal document.

Read and understand this form before accepting.

If you have any questions or are unsure of any statements here, consult qualified legal advice (Lawyer or Solicitor).

Once you have accepted this statement, you cannot make any claim of any kind against the club for any injury, loss or damage to you or your equipment.

Any litigation involving the parties to this Release shall be brought solely within the Province of British Columbia and shall be governed by and interpreted solely by and within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of British Columbia and no other jurisdiction.

By accepting this statement, you accept the sole and absolute responsibility for your own personal safety and for your property while taking part in Club activities.

By accepting this statement, you also acknowledge that the activities of the club have inherent risks and hazards and are arranged and led by volunteer, amateur personnel.

You forever and absolutely release VPC, it's volunteer executive, other members, guests and participants from all responsibility for any accident, injury or loss you may suffer or sustain by taking part in any activity, including a 'field trip' or outing organized or associated to the club at any location that you attend.

In consideration of being allowed to take part in any activities of the VPC, I hereby freely and voluntarily accept full and absolute sole responsibility for, and I forever and absolutely release and discharge VPC, its Volunteer executive, other members, guests and volunteer outings leaders from any injury, loss, damage, or cost that I may suffer or sustain, including property damage and personal injury, incapacity or death.

This release shall be effective and binding on myself and my heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators, successors, assigns and personal representatives.