Seasoned Saints

We are excited to announce that the St. James' Seasoned Saint for May is Dianne Stewart.

Dianne has been a member of James for many years, and served over those years in many capacities, including teaming with Mot and helping in VBS. Diane served with honor as a National Registered Paramedic for 3 years in Laurens, and 23 in Spartanburg. She was known as an extremely dedicated caregiver, not only as a paramedic, but after also taking care of her MeMa, Father Daniel, and Mother Helen since 2016. Diane's hobbies includes wood burning, making flowers, and the love of her life, welding, which she spent many hours doing with Daniel in his welding shop.

Please reach out to her sometime in May by either visiting at 6684 Enoree Hwy 92, Enoree, or via the telephone at (864) 205-6000
