BIOGRAPHY

Sherry Sherrill is a true Change Agent. The eldest daughter of a former public elected official in City of Buffalo, and the County of Erie (NY), Sherrill is a native Tennessean, and her family household's fourth generation Community Activist. Also an Environmentalist, and former professional singer-songwriter, she has emerged as one of the Buffalo Niagara region's most prolific minority community crusaders. One of the exciting local and region impacting initiatives Sherrill is currently endeavoring at, is the East Side Buffalo community's overwhelming opposition to the U.S. State of New York's $1.5Billion Kensington Expressway Project. After researching global community establishment studies that have proven a direct link between such high-speed infrastructures' high toxicity factors, Sherrill linked arms with a progressive environmental advocacy group called East Side Parkways Coalition, and then formed East Side Collaborative Partnership. Determined to educate the United States of America's public elected officials about toxic infrastructure projects' direly detrimental impacts on human health, neighborhood commercial district development, and residential property values, Sherrill is a proud practitioner of such visionary USA quality-of-life improvement strategy. Now that a New York State Supreme Court Ruling has ordered the State of New York's Department of Transportation to furnish a comprehensive Environmental Impact Statement for the agency's Route 33 Project, a huge win has been gained by Sherrill's and East Side Collab's growing partner network. Armed with a renewed groundswell of community and regional support, these proponents of a united push for environmental justice for America's urban inner-city communities, stand ready to make history in City of Buffalo's Humboldt Parkway neighborhood. Sherrill is thoroughly committed, expressing: "I am proud of East Side Collaborative Partnership's historic environmental advocacy accomplishments. From our proposed "Heaven" youth workforce development initiative, to our successful thus far Highway Removal campaign, The Collab is making a difference that can lead to lasting positive change in these United States."
