

Jimvisions Mission Statement

The Jimvisions corporation is a career breakthrough firm. Our mission is to transform the job mindsets of low-income individuals living in urban and suburban America into career prosperity mindsets. We empower our customers with career breakthrough tools. These tools are then used year-after-year to realize breakthroughs that result in career prosperity.

Our career prosperity system ("Prosperity Pathways") is an easy-to-use, convenient, affordable 3-step process. Step 1 is tool design and customization. Step 2 is breakthrough application. Step 3 is dream lifestyle. There are 7 breakthrough domains. In each domain, a pathway of prosperity is developed.

Career Breakthrough Continuum

You are seeking job success. This is short-term thinking. Using our Career Breakthrough Continuum, you are trained to think strategically. This is beginning with the end in mind, because your job is going to change many times during your career life. By thinking "dream lifestyle" you are able to identify and pursue your definite, specific purpose - to enjoy career fulfillment.

Early Career Stage

As a customer in this stage of career life, you have a very high level of job focus, and a very low level of career focus. you are thinking job or occupation over 90% of the time. The continuum empowers you to think more strategically.

Mid-Career Stage

As a customer in this stage of career life, you are thinking more strategically based on your job-life experiences, and your need to support your family. The continuum enables you to devote more thought to long-term success, and provides you with a pathway of career prosperity, a step-by-step course of action that produces greater prosperity.

Later Career Stage

As a customer in this stage of career life, you are thinking retirement, and dealing with health issues, and family issues. Your focus is to live out the remainder of your career life, and prepare for a happy retirement. But your reality is you're not ready. Either you need to keep working, or you want to keep working. Fulfillment and financial freedom are not goals. The continuum provides new hope, new beliefs and a course of action that inspires you and restores your spirit.
