SUMMARY

Callie graduated from Ohio University where she studied Interior Architecture. Callie was an active member in many organizations and activities including the International Interior Design Association (IIDA), OU Design Group, The Athena Yearbook, and Sigma Kappa Sorority; she was grateful to hold board positions in each. Callie is working towards her NCIDQ certification, taking the IDFX exam fall 2024. Her passion for the design industry has pushed her to gain this qualification, to not only enhance her knowledge for her clients but to be a part of elevating our industry standards. Currently working in remodeling, Callie is eager to push outside her comfort zone and transition into a new sector of the design industry.
