

AMAZING OPPORTUNITIES
KENTUCKY

Core Values

Mission

Amazing Opportunities Kentucky (AOK) aims to promote independence to people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and supporting them in living a life they want to live. We support building natural, lasting relationships, opportunities for growth, participant choice, and collaboration within the community they live for maximum self-reliance.

Integrity

We do the right thing for the right reason, we do what is best for participants, even when no one is watching.

Compassionate

We treat participants and team members with dignity, and respect. We support unique and new ideas, and find creative solutions to help eliminate obstacles for participants and our team members.

Teamwork

We work together to achieve goals participants value, and support others in helping them reach those goals.

Equality

We provide quality services to participants, no matter their disability, race, gender, religion, or sexual orientation, and understand everyone has value in what they can do.

Empowerment

We encourage participants to be as active as possible in making decisions that affect them. We support and assist in developing natural relationships with people that participants choose to have in their lives.

Trustworthy

We act in ways that build a trustworthy relationship between participants, employees, leadership, community partners, and parents and guardians. We are honest in the work that we do.
