A Message from Pastor Barbara

Greetings dear siblings in Christ,

It seems we jump from Advent directly into Lent. We've hardly had a chance to catch our corporate breath. Ahh, but here we go.

Lent feels like a somber season. It begins with a harsh reminder of our mortality. "Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return." And Lenten hymns, mostly sung in a minor key, are quite a switch from the Alleluias of Christmas. (A word, by the way, which is prohibited throughout Lent.)

The 40 days of Lent remind us of the 40 years the Israelites wandered in the desert. Their lack of faith made the journey long and arduous. The Hebrew scriptures are not written as a history book, but rather a narrative of the human journey. Or perhaps more accurately, a narrative of how God joins us on our journey.

Paul writes to the Corinthians "But [God] said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness" (1 Cor 12:9). Even in the wilderness God's grace provides. "For forty years I led you through the wilderness, yet your clothes and sandals did not wear out" (Deut. 29:5). In this light, Lent becomes a time to embrace our weaknesses so we might more clearly recognize God's grace.

I have found Lent to be a good time to incorporate a practice for watching for God in life. When I wait at a long traffic light, I look for God. When my neighbor insists on a lengthy discussion as I am late for an appointment, I look for God. And yes, even when the nightly news portrays a scary world, I look to find God there.

Let's spend this Lent looking for God. The Ignatian Prayer of Examen, done as one goes to bed, is a wonderful means of helping us to find what God is doing in our journey.

- 1. Become aware of God's presence. Get into a comfortable position. Let your mind quiet down. Take a deep breath. Become aware of God's presence.
- 2. Review the day with gratitude. Ask God to reveal all the gifts and graces of the day. Thank God for these gifts.

3. Pay attention to your emotions. Reflect on the feelings you experienced during the day. Boredom? Elation? Resentment? Compassion? Anger? Confidence? What is God saying through these feelings?

4. Choose one feature of the day and pray from it. Look at one thing from the day. Pray about it, whether intercession, praise, repentance, or gratitude.

5. Look toward tomorrow. Ask God to give you light for tomorrow's challenges. Pray for hope.

May you find God in unexpected places this Lenten Season.

Pr. Barb

Prayer Shawls & Prayer Squares

During worship services on January 24 & 25, beautiful prayer squares and prayer shawls were draped on the altar rail and were blessed and prepared for giving as a comforting reminder of God's love and Zion's caring, sharing and serving. We thank those who have prayerfully created these shawls and squares: LeAnne Larsen, Patti Lauritzen, Selma Schilling, Pat Steensen, Shirley Wolf and Sylvia Zickau.

The prayer shawls have been packaged and placed in the cabinet in the Library and the prayer squares are in a basket in the Narthex. Feel free to give a Zion prayer shawl or square to someone you know who may have a special need. If you are interested in becoming involved, or learning more about this ministry, please contact Deb Vath at 563-243-5333.

Zion Child Care & Preschool

Happy New Year!!

Preschool started the new year with having Special Person Day! The kiddos got to bring a family member or friend to preschool for part of the day. It's a fun and busy day!! I think our guests are impressed with all of the things that the kids can do!

This month we focused on the color blue and the shape rectangle throughout the building.

Our 3's preschool classes started to learn The Pledge of Allegiance. We also add a red dot to their right hand so they know which hand they need to use to cover their heart. They will have it down in no time!!

We had lots of projects about snow, snowflakes, penguins and all things winter!!

We are ready for warmer days ahead when we can get outside and use the playground again!

Midweek Lenten Services

Luther's Small Catechism

LUTHER'S SMALL CATECHISM will be the focus for our Midweek Lenten services this year. Each week, beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 18, and ending on Maundy Thursday, April 2, Pastor Paul Holmer will lead us in a look at one of the parts of Luther's Small Catechism – Ten Commandments, Lord's Prayer, Apostles' Creed, Baptism, and Communion – to grow in understanding for a more mature faith.

This follows a tradition that Martin Luther practiced. For years his Lenten sermons focused on these five basic elements of Christian faith and practice. Later, he wrote the Small Catechism as a concise expression of those many years of teaching and preaching.

Services will be held at 11:00 am and 7:00 pm, each Wednesday, February 18 – March 25, and on Thursday, April 2. It should be a good way to mature in faith and grow for Christian living. Join in each week in Lent.
