

March 7th & 8th – 3rd Sunday in Lent

A Reconciled by God's mercy and sustained by God's presence, let us pray for the world and its needs.

A brief silence.

A O God, when suffering and uncertainty arises, preserve your church. Give to pastors, deacons, bishops, and all servants of your gospel the endurance that produces character and the hope that will never disappoint. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A When the waters run dry, sustain this earth. Send water to places languishing with drought, and bring relief to places damaged by floods. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A When quarrels ensue, soften our hearts. Quell hostilities between nations and peoples, and reconcile all humans across the lines of race, class, nationality, moral conviction, religion, and all else that divides or oppresses. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A When your people thirst, satisfy their needs. Send water and food to all who need nourishment. Grant welcome to all who are excluded. Show your mercy to any in need. We especially lift before you Linda, Pam, Rick, Jeri, Joyce, Peyton, Skip, Carolyn, Tom, Judy, Kay and all those we now lift silently or aloud. (pause) Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A When we gather to worship, send us your Spirit. Renew our hearts through the joyful noise we make and bless the work of our church musicians and musical ensembles especially Donica, Chris, April, our Bell choir, our Choir and all our guest musicians. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

P O God, when death draws near, we rejoice in the promise of life with you. We remember all who have entered eternal rest, and we pray that you bring us the hope of sharing in your glory. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

P Receive our prayers, O God, through Jesus Christ, our strength and salvation.

Amen.
