

November 22nd & 23rd – Christ the King Sunday

A Gathered with one voice, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

A brief silence.

A We pray for the church in the world, its leaders, and its mission to share the good news of healing and restoration. Inspire us to embody the beloved community in ways that faithfully witness to the Holy Spirit. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A We pray for the trembling mountains and glad streams of creation. Preserve and renew your coastlines, deep seas, forests, and grasslands. Guide all who tend flocks or care for creatures of all kinds. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A We pray for leaders and advocates in government, civic life, and public safety. Support equity across the globe and heal division with accountability and truth. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A We pray for any who are hungry, living in poverty or desperation, weary in body or spirit, or sick Todd, Mark, Joyce, Diane, Dortha, Linda, Helen, Marilyn and all those we now lift before you silently and aloud. (pause) Comfort all in need of your tender care. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

A We pray for this part of the body of Christ gathered around word and sacrament. Bring us into authentic community where all ages are valued and experience God's faithfulness together. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

P We give thanks for all who have died in faith. May we remember them faithfully until we are gathered with you in the paradise you promise. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

P We offer these and all our prayers to you, O God, trusting in your grace and unyielding love; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.
