“A November Thanksgiving Potpourri”

Many months of the year have a holiday within them that tends to provide a theme for the whole month. Valentine’s Day provides February with a much needed gift of warmth through the loving hearts we see and experience. While the month of July begins with the celebration of Independence Day, the fireworks and firecrackers (for better or for worse) last through the whole month. And December is gifted by the celebration of Christmas – as we remember THE Gift and share our gifts with others.

Here we are at the beginning of November. Yes, the remains of Halloween are still with us – whether they be the neighbor’s Halloween decorations or the leftover trick-or-treat candy that never made it into a child’s outstretched hands. That candy is now working to stretch our own mid-sections. But November is a month of Thanksgiving. And it is with thanksgiving that I write this November Courier article.

Within this newsletter you will see a good many reasons to give thanks – as well as a good many opportunities in which to become involved at and through Zion. I will only be lifting up a few of them. Make sure you read the rest of this newsletter!

I’ll first start with a “November Eve” opportunity. Realizing that the majority of you will be receiving this mailing before Reformation weekend (October 29th and 30th), I want to remind you that Bishop Amy Current will be with us at Zion on this weekend. It would be wonderful to have a great turnout at these worship services to welcome and to get to meet our bishop. Parents of children? It would be additionally great to have Bishop Current get a taste of the gift of life that Zion knows through our children. I hope you can be here!

The first Sunday in November is “All Saints Sunday” – a day in which we remember and give thanks for the saints (those made holy through Jesus Christ) who have gone before us. The plan is that our children will be singing with Zion’s choir on that Sunday morning (thank you!) – a morning in which we will also celebrate a confirmation. A freshman in high school, Talon, who has been a part of Zion’s confirmation class, has grown up as a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church. As he affirms the gift of God through his baptism, we will also be welcoming him as a new member of Zion Lutheran Church.

The Clinton Ministerial Association is offering a time of community thanks and an opportunity for service on Thursday, November 17th. This event will take place in the Gathering Space of Zion Lutheran Church. Please make note of what is shared about this event further on in this newsletter.

We’ll celebrate another baptism in November. Folks will be blessed through our GriefShare ministry as we approach a potentially tougher time to be in grief – the holidays. The RiverChor will be making use of Zion’s wonderful building as they share their fall concert. The Morning

Zion Child Care & Preschool

October was a busy month that was full of fun! All our preschool classes were able to visit the fire station. This is one of their favorite trips! The firemen do such a great job showing all the ins and outs of the station and all the emergency vehicles. The kids' favorite thing is seeing the firemen come down the pole!!

Our 4's preschool classes also got to go on a trip to the Sawmill Museum. They enjoyed checking everything out and playing with everything that is offered there.....especially the water exhibit.

Our child care and preschool classrooms enjoyed their Halloween parties that were held on October 31st. They have such a great time with all the activities and also going around the building to trick or treat and show off their costumes. Some of our parents also joined us for the party!!

Zion Child Care Preschool is celebrating their 41st birthday on November 1st!! Our very first day of operation was November 1, 1981. We are so proud of our program and thank everyone that has made it possible along the way to provide quality child care and preschool to our community!!

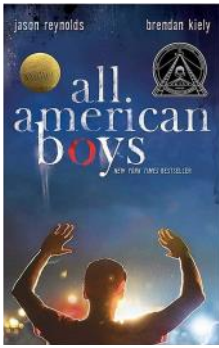

We appreciate all of the love and support!!

New Zion Library Books for November 2022

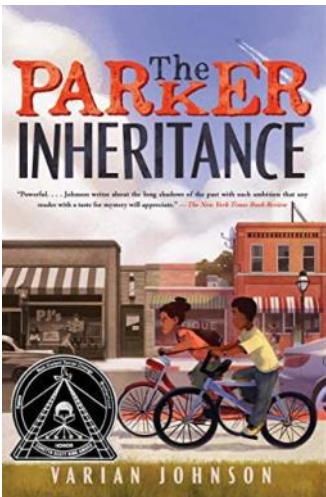

All American Boys by Jason Reynolds and Brendan Kiely is a novel about two high school boys, one White, one Black. Their lives become intertwined when one boy witnesses the other being beat up by a policeman. How they live their lives after this is told, day by day, from each one's point of view and involves their whole community. Very timely subject! Donated by Bill Zickau.

Our Man in Charleston by Christopher Dickey is the true story of a young man, Robert Bunch, who is Great Britain's diplomat in Charleston during the lead-up to the Civil War. At this time in history, diplomats were expected to also send intelligence back to their home countries. As secession and war approached, the Southern states found themselves in an impossible position. They knew that recognition from Great Britain would be essential to the survival of the Confederacy, and also that such recognition was likely to be withheld if the South reopened the Atlantic slave trade. Robert Bunch knew that the economic survival of the Confederacy would force the South to import slaves from Africa in massive numbers. When Bunch was sent on an actual spy mission to the Confederacy, he finds himself in the middle of a fight between the Union and Great Britain that Secretary of State William Seward says threatens to "wrap the world in flames." History, a spy story, intrigue and surprises await the reader of this book. Donated by Allan Rathje

Zion's Book Club

Zion's Book Club will meet on Wednesday, November 16th, at 10:00 a.m. in the library. We will be discussing The Parker Inheritance by Varian Johnson. This is a novel in which 12-year-old Candace finds a letter in an old attic in Lambert, South Carolina. She isn't sure she should read it. It's addressed to her grandmother who left town in shame, but the letter describes an injustice that happened decades ago. A mystery unfolds, and a fortune awaits the person who solves the puzzle.

The books are on the cart in the library for checkout. Please return your book to Zion's library when you finish reading it, so others can also enjoy it. All books are due on book club day. Come join us!

Committee Annual Reports

While we still have a few months left in the year, it is important to note the deadlines for committee annual reports to be turned in to Amanda for inclusion in the final church annual report. Please make note of these dates as it is important these deadlines be met so that all reports get included in the final report.

Committees whose reports do not require end of year financial information are due to Amanda on Friday, December 30, 2022.

Reports for committees that do require end of year financial data need to be turned in no later than Wednesday, January 11, 2023.

Faith FUNdations

Wow! We are two months into Faith FUNdations and the children and adult volunteers are really enjoying it! In the month of October our classes discussed Hannah and Samuel. It is amazing to see how much they learn after four nights of lessons. November's lesson will be The Widow's Offering.

We also participated in Kids Against Hunger in October! What an amazing turn out!! We had approximately 35 children and 20 adults there to prepare meals for other children. It was so heartwarming to watch some of the middle school kids help the little preschoolers with their tasks. At the end of the night, we were able to prepare 3000 meals (6 meals in each bag). Since Zion has partnered with Kids Against Hunger, we have packaged 40,080 meals!

In addition to all the excitement in October please mark your calendars for Sunday, November 6th, 2022, as the children will be singing at the 9:00a.m. service. More information to come. The children have been working hard and we look forward to seeing them all in church! There will be no Faith FUNdations on Wednesday, November 23rd, 2022, and we will resume on November 30th.

The number of volunteers and children continue to grow, and we are always excited to see new faces! If you are thinking of bringing your child please contact the church office, Linda Schoening or Judy Carstensen for more information.

Stewards of God

Good day and God Bless from Zion's Stewardship Committee. It is that time of year when Zion starts preparing for the coming year. That entails planning and budgeting. Of course, we do not have to tell you that, because every family is doing the same thing. You may be considering applying for a new job, buying a house or car, or paying off long-standing credit cards. Some families may just be trying to figure out how they will pay their everyday expenses. Planning is essential in our personal lives and in business. The same is true for Zion Lutheran. Zion's Council needs to make plans for 2023. It will consider mission obligations, benevolence, new projects, and all expenses related to keeping the church on track. Part of that plan is preparing a budget that considers all the above for 2023. A vital part of that budget is figuring out what funds (income) will be available to cover all expenses. That is why the Stewardship Committee is asking every member to examine their "Plan for Giving for 2023". The Stewardship Committee will be mailing out "Plan for Giving" materials in early November to each church family. The mailing will contain a Plan for Giving Card along with some additional materials to help you in establishing your Plan for Giving to Zion in 2023. We ask that you return your Plan during the Saturday evening service on November 12, or at the Sunday morning service on November 13. Other alternatives to return your card are to drop it in the box set aside for that purpose in the narthex of the church or to mail it to the church office.

After the giving cards are returned Zion's Council will prepare the 2023 annual budget for the church. The budget will be submitted to the congregation for approval at Zion's Annual Meeting. The budget contains figures for Zion's projected 2023 income and expenses. Some of the categories included in the budget are capital improvements, mission, benevolence, and operating expenses. These expenses include, but are not limited to, utilities, insurance, salaries, mission expenses, building maintenance, capital improvements, supplies, and many more. Your Plan for Giving is a crucial element in planning the church's 2023 budget. Zion cannot move forward without the funds to implement its mission, paying its staff and covering the costs of the church building and premises. God has truly blessed Zion and its members' families.

God does not need our money. God owns everything. God is more interested in our hearts than in our possessions. God has given each of us all that we have. We have substance because of God's gifts to us.

Most people immediately think of money when they hear the word "stewardship." But stewardship is so much bigger than finances. It is really a heart issue – a longing to offer everything we are and have to our Lord. Consider these truths from the Word of God as you prayerfully ask the Lord to synchronize your heart with God's will. Remember God's gracious gifts to the world. Consider the wonder and beauty of God's creation. God provides us daily with incredible riches and gifts which include a magnificent universe consisting of galaxies, solar systems, stars, planets and so much more. The earth is a beautiful home to billions of animal and plant species. We all live and enjoy life as part of this miraculous planet. We have been granted life, freedom, and free will. But the most amazing gift of all is Jesus Christ. God sacrificed his only son so that each one of us could enjoy eternal life with the Lord in paradise.

Let us look at three Biblical examples of women who gave substance from their hearts:

- ♥ "A woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment." Matthew 26:7
- ♥ "Some women...provided for him out of their resources." Luke 8:2-3
- ♥ "He also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins." Luke 21:2

The woman in Matthew chapter 26 lavished her substance on the Lord. She gave her ointment (some commentators say it cost her as much as one year's wages), her tears, her hair, her love, and her heart-felt affection. Oh, how this woman lavished her gifts on the Lord!

The women in Luke chapter 8 ministered unto Jesus of their substance. The gifts they gave quite possibly amounted to all they had. They gave him money, but they also could have given food, clothing, a bed, sandals, or many other things. Who can doubt their giving was unto their Lord?

The poor widow in Luke chapter 24 gave everything she had. The widow practiced unnoticed giving. Who in the temple that day noticed the giving of that poor widow woman? The Lord noticed it, and the Lord notices our giving today.

God is not concerned with the amount of money you give, but God is concerned with your intention—are you giving from your heart? We sometimes get hung up with the mechanics of our tithes and offerings and forget that we are giving them to the Lord. Do you ever feel that your giving is unnoticed, overlooked, or criticized by others? Do not worry, you're in good company! Note the Biblical women referenced above, it was not important to them what others thought if the Lord saw their giving.

Not everyone is able to make a gift of substance in the form of money. But consider a gift of your time and talent. Zion's mission statement includes many opportunities for service. Service which amounts to a gift of substance. What substance can you give to the Lord? Examine your lives, time, and talents. God has provided you with something to give back. It is important that you give out of a heart of gratitude. Your gift may be in the form of a monetary tithe; it may be a physical possession; it may be volunteering your time as a church committee member (e.g. offering your assistance in Zion's youth ministry program); it may be offering a specific talent that you possess for the Lord; or, it may be your faith offering for missions. Whatever it is, God has given it to you so you can give it back to God (see 2 Corinthians 8:11-12).

MORNING PRAYER FIELD TRIP

The group that meets for Morning Prayer on Wednesdays has been studying the creation story that is recorded in the first chapter of Genesis along with what science has taught us about the origins of the universe. We have decided to make a field trip to Our Lady of the Prairie Retreat Center near Wheatland to explore the Cosmic Walk that is on the retreat center grounds.

An Eagle Scout project resulted in 22 stone markers being erected with signage that tells the story of our universe. We will visit the Prairie and walk the path on Wednesday, November 2nd. (Rides on a golf cart will be available for those who need assistance in walking hilly ground.) We will car pool from the church at 10 am, after Morning Prayer. We will each bring a sack lunch to eat once we are at the retreat center. Anyone is welcome to join us whether or not you attend Morning Prayer. Let Joyce Ollie (563-243-5477) know if you are planning to attend, so rides can be coordinated.

A “Visitation“ Note from Pastor Mark

During my time as your pastor, I have quite often heard something like “I know that you’re busy, so I didn’t call you.” Let me respond to this statement with a couple of thoughts.

First, I greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness for me in regards to my work, well-being, and time. Yes, I must admit that the call to serve as the pastor of Zion is a full and busy call. But that is (usually) a good thing!

But if you need to call your pastor, please call your pastor. I can’t think of a time (unless I was out of town or responding to an emergency) when someone has called with a request for a visit, or a prayer, or a time of conversation and counsel when I haven’t acted on that request. This said, I know there have been times when I have received a non-specific invitation to stop by and “visit sometime,” when I have not followed through on that general invitation. And, yes, that is usually because of my busyness. “General visitation” seems almost impossible with all that needs to be done as your pastor. So, if you need me to visit you, or you need to visit with me, please contact me and let me know. We’ll make it happen!

As I re-read what I have written here, it occurs to me that it sounds like I am responding to something negative that has recently happened or some complaint. This is not the case. I think that it’s coming from my feelings of remorse that are generated from the fact that I have found that I can’t get everything done that I would like to do.

Busy with you in caring, sharing, and serving in Christ’s name,

Pastor Mark Luepke

Homebound Communion Options

Is it difficult for you to join the members and friends of Zion in our times of worship together on Saturday evening or Sunday morning and, therefore, you find it difficult to receive Holy Communion? If it is a transportation issue, Zion’s Evangelism Committee may be able to help. If it is a matter of ill-health or physical disability, there are a couple of options available to you to receive the Lord’s Supper.

Zion has members that are willing to visit you and bring the Lord’s Supper with them. This particular ministry was side-lined by the COVID pandemic, but is now available for those who might want this.

Another option is to receive a few weeks supply of pre-packaged communion elements from Zion (wine and bread, grape juice and bread, or gluten-free bread and wine). Then, as you worship with the congregation as you listen to the Sunday morning service on the radio or watch the service on Facebook (either livestream or at a later time), you can commune with the rest of the congregation.

If any of these options sound helpful to you, please call the church office. We can answer your questions and/or connect you with a member of Zion who can.

A Thank You to Immanuel

When our sisters and brothers of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Clinton closed their congregation in September, they made sure that their closure would be a “Holy Closure.” In other words, they wanted to continue to be in ministry even after their closure through their resources that were then gifted to other organizations and ministries.

Zion was the recipient of a $4,000 gift from Immanuel. We are so very grateful! When asked how – or to whom – we could express our thanks, (since there is no longer a congregation to which to send a thank you note), the leadership of Immanuel suggested that, with many members of Immanuel now participating in Zion’s worship services and receiving Zion’s newsletter, maybe we could put a “thank you” in our newsletter.

So, those who have been a part of the life of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Clinton, THANK YOU for your generous gift to Zion as the congregation you loved and cared for has now closed. We join you in gratitude for the 150 years of ministry that God has worked through Immanuel. And we thank you for the spirit of mutual ministry that guided you to decide to distribute your remaining resources to so many other ministries. Zion appreciates being a part of this sharing.

Former members of Immanuel, would you please share this word of thanks with those who are not connected to Zion at this time? And, as you do so, please consider sharing a word of encouragement to these folks to seek out a community of faith to be a part of, if they have not yet found one.

Special GriefShare Session

Surviving the Holidays, a GriefShare ministry of Zion, is being offered for you to come and join others on Saturday, November 12, 2022 at 1:30 pm in Zion’s Library. This is a 1-day special session for people to hear ideas from experts on coping with loss during special holidays. We will gather for a video presentation and a time of sharing. There is a participant book available for $5.00, which accompanies the video.

If you have questions, or would like to let us know you will be attending, please contact Diane Dinning @ 563-613-3444 or Linda Dutchess @ 563-202-4418 by November 4, 2022. Thank you!

ZION’S PRAYER CHAIN

Zion has a prayer chain that has people who are ready to pray for you. If you, or someone you know, is in need of prayer, please call Mary Lou Mallicoat at 563-357-2963 or Helen Steen at 563-243-2288. All information is kept confidential; only first names are used on the prayer chain. Please ask permission if praying for someone other than yourself or get permission from a family member.

C. S. Lewis wrote: “I pray because I can’t help myself. I pray because I’m helpless. I pray because the need flows out of me all the time, waking and sleeping. It doesn’t change God. It changes me.”

If you would like to notify Zion’s prayer chain of a prayer request, please call one of the numbers listed above.

If you would be interested in becoming a member of the prayer chain, please contact Mary Lou Mallicoat at 563-357-2963.

COUNCIL NEWS

Summary of Congregation Council Minutes – September 13, 2022

(The full minutes are posted on the bulletin board near the church office.)

Zion member Pastor Paul Holmer gave a presentation to the Council on the First Circle of Friends program. This is an adult day program that engages individuals with memory loss in meaningful, cognitively stimulating activities. After a question and answer period, Pastor Holmer requested that Zion take the First Circle of Friends under its umbrella as a non-profit organization. The program had been previously under the umbrella of Immanuel Lutheran Church. After discussion, the Council unanimously approved this request.

Pastor's Report: Pastor Luepke reported to the Council that he was invited to participate in the service of Closure for Immanuel Lutheran Church in Clinton and to celebrate their 150th anniversary. At the conclusion of the service, Pastor accepted a check of $4,000 for Zion.

Membership: Pastor moved to accept the transfers in of Larry Cramer from Immanuel, Camanche and Lorene Snyder from First Lutheran, Manchester. Motion approved.

Treasurer's Report: Skip Carstensen reported to the Council that in the General Fund at the end of August, the YTD income balance is ahead of the YTD budget.

The Council reviewed the audit report letter that was included in the Council packets. The auditors found all financial records to be in good order.

Committee Reports: Dennis Andersen, reporting for the Building and Grounds committee, brought before the Council the condition of 3rd Ave. South in front of the church property. Dennis requested that a letter be sent to the City Engineer, Mayor, Councilperson and the Councilperson at Large requesting repair of the street. It was decided that President Travis Morehead would draft the letter and Pastor Luepke would review the draft.

The portico/canopy project was discussed and Dennis Andersen informed the Council that blueprints for the project have been developed by the architect and that a cost estimate could be coming by December.

At the request of the Building and Grounds committee, there was a Council discussion on which Building and Grounds projects need Council approval due to their cost. The Council's understanding is that if the project cost is in the budget, no Council approval is needed to proceed. If funds for the project are to be drawn from Special Funds, then the project expenditures need Council approval.

New Business: Vice-President Deb Vath, serving as the chair of the Finance Committee, reported to the Council that all committees have been requested to submit their budget requests by the October Council meeting.

Fellowship for Reformation Sunday, when Bishop Amy Current will be with us, will be hosted by the Council at the 9:00 a.m. service.

Pastor recognized Jurgen and Deb Duhr for their many years of service to Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church. This was Jurgen's last Council meeting as he and Deb are moving to New York state.

The Council discussed the pastor's 2023 health insurance designation. The Council approved the insurance designation as it has been, which is the Gold+ Plan from Portico.

The Council discussed the need to form the nominating committee.

Melissa Werner was thanked for heading the Pork & Sauerkraut Supper this year.

Information, Referral and Assistance Services – a service organization that Zion supports and, among other services, provides food assistance to those in need – is in need of assistance.

Zion's food pantry grocery cart is located in the narthex of the church. All food and personal hygiene donations are taken regularly to the IRAS pantry. And, as always, you can give monetary donations in your "Food Pantry" offering envelopes OR in a pew envelope that you then mark as "Food Pantry." 100% of these funds are given to IRAS for food pantry assistance.
