Notes for John Jacob (Jake) Roller:

Mr. Jacob Roller, an old and respected resident of this locality and one of the foremost farmers in this vicinity for many years, died at his town home, Monday night at 11:45, May 2, 1921, after an illness of two weeks with an attack of appendicitis and peritonitis.

Jacob Roller was born in Sebewaing township, July 6, 1853 and was at the time of his death sixty-seven years, nine months and twenty-six days old. He attended school at Sebewaing where, he was confirmed in the Lutheran church. April 6, 1878 he was united in marriage to Miss Louise Winter at Sebewaing. To them nine children were born. One died in infancy and those surviving with the wife are four sons, Messrs. John, Jacob, Henry and Oscar all residing in Akron township within three-and one-half mile of Unionville, the latter on the old homestead, and three daughters, Clara, Mrs. Fred Layer, of Fairgrove, Ida, Mrs. Herman Strieter, of Caro, Sophia, of Detroit, and Elsie, Mrs. Arthur Brady, of Unionville. He is also survived by one brother, Fred Roller of Cadillac, and one sister, Mrs. Agnes Carson.

Immediately after his marriage Mr. Roller bought one hundred and nineteen acres of new and south and west of Unionville, three and one-half miles, which he cleared and made into one of the garden spots of this locality. There his children were born, and as the sons grew into manhood he purchased new farms, until the three leaving the homestead, each had a fine farm near the old home.

Mr. Roller was a quiet unassuming man, attended strictly to the management of the farm and his business, and the rearing of this family. He was beloved by his family for his fatherly interest and his wise council and advice. He was kind and devoted husband, a good neighbor and staunch friend. He was a member of the Moravian church where he was a constant attendant.

Last year he purchased the William Lohrer residence on East State Street and, move to Unionville during the summer. His health had begun to fail, but no thought of the long journey being taken so soon was never a cloud in their sky. It was the expectation that he and his worthy wife would be able to enjoy life so well earned after so many years of strenuous labor tilling the soil. Thus in a few days all the plans were shattered and the family have the sympathy of all who were wishing them long life of happiness in our midst.

The funeral occurs this afternoon at 1:30 at the house and 2:00 at the Moravian church, Rev. Theo. Weingarth officiating. L.D. Sees funeral director. Burial in the Moravian cemetery. The four sons of the deceased and two sons-in-law acted as pall bearers.

Regina (Rachel)¹⁰ Staebler (Margaretha (Mary)⁹ Roller, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronymus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 24 Jul 1860 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 30 Jan 1920 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 15 Aug 1850 in Wolfsoelden, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 27 Oct 1908 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Regina (Rachel) Staebler:

It has pleased Almighty God in His divine providence to call from this world Mrs. Regina Gall, nee Stabler. She was born in Freedom Township, Michigan, July 24, 1860. April 29, 1879 she was married to Gottlieb Gall. To this union eight children were born, four sons and four daughters. Since the death of her husband, which occurred in 1908, Mrs. Gall made her home with her children, and during the last two years she leapt house for her son, Otto.

Mrs. Gall was a devoted Christian and a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, and also of the Ladies Aid. After an illness of about six weeks she passed peacefully away January 31, 1920, and because of her Christian faith we have reason to hope she has entered into the rest prepared for the people of God.

The time of her earthly pilgrimage was 59 years, 6 months and 3 days. She leaves to mourn for her four sons, four daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and four sisters.

Her trials and her griefs are passed, A blessed end is her's at last. She bore Christ's yoke and did it well. And the she died, she liveth still, well.

Born in Germany in 1863, the son of a French and a German father, he learned to speak three languages, English, German and French. His earlier years in this country were spent in Chesaning, Chicago and Detroit, where he attended school. Mr. Sack was a builder by trade and erected churches and houses in many communities of the area before he retired 30 years ago. He also was employed by the city service department for several years and as a supervisor in the pattern shop of the Olds Motor works. He was the oldest member of the Emanuel First Lutheran church of Lansing. Friends and relatives feted him on his 95th birthday earlier this summer but his greatest thrill of the day was a birthday card sent by air mail from President Eisenhower.

Surviving are the widow, Katherine; three son, Arthur E. of Lansing, Lawrence A. of Detroit and Harold W. of Phoenix, Arizona; a daughter, Mrs. Robert J. Hesse of Warren; nine grand-children; five great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Matilda Krauss of Lansing.

Notes for Johann Martin Stabler:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ingham and Livingston Counties, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1891.

Martin J. Stabler. The future of our great commonwealth depends upon the stability and integrity of the young people of today, and among those who are contributing to the general progress is the gentleman whose name introduces these paragraphs and whose life thus far has been crowned with success. One of the young and enterprising agriculturists of Lansing Township, Ingham County, his pleasant estate is located on section 7, where he is the fortunate owner of seventy-six acres of fine land. He has embellished his farm with a commodious residence of modern style of architecture, and elegantly furnished with everything that can contribute to the comfort of the household. Mr. Stabler devotes considerable attention to the breeding of stock and has large barns and good stabling, as well as other outbuildings which a progressive farmer now deems essential to the proper management of his estate.

Mr. Stabler is now in the early prime of life, having been born January 28, 1860. His parents, Charles and Barbara (Roller) Stabler, were natives of Germany, and possessed those qualities of thrift and energy which are prominent characteristics of that nation. About the year of 1848 they emigrated to America, and immediately after landing proceeded to Michigan and settled in Ann Arbor. That city then bore but few indications of its present high development and was only a little hamlet in the midst of uncultivated surroundings. After residing there three years the parents removed to Lansing, where Martin J., of this sketch, was born. He is proud to claim the capital city as his birthplace and now ranks among the most influential native-born citizens of Ingham County.

At the age of three years our subject accompanied his parents in their removal to Clinton County, where he was reared to manhood. He received a good education of which he is making practical use, and keeping thoroughly posted upon all events of interest he ranks among the well-informed men of the community. Until he was twenty-four years of age he worked for his father, in the meantime acquiring habits of thrift and prudence. On October 4, 1883, he was happily married to the lady who now gracefully presides over his household. She bore the maiden name of Mary L. Burke and is the daughter of John and Klenora Burke, natives of Germany. In that country Mrs. Stabler was born September 3, 1861, and thence at the age of four years she accompanied her parents to the New World. They sojourned in Ohio until 1872, when they removed to Clinton County, Mich., where they still reside. One child has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Stabler, a daughter, Florence E. who was born May 16, 1887.

Always interested in every movement calculated to advance the general welfare of the county, Mr. Stabler feels that the best interests of the commonwealth are subserved by the Republican Party and his vote and sympathies are usually with the candidates pledged to the principles of that party. Realizing his ability his fellow-citizens have often called upon him to aid in the carrying on of public affairs and these duties he has always discharged to the satisfaction of all. He was Treasurer of Lansing Township two years and was there as elsewhere faithful to the trust reposed in him. He and his amiable wife are members of the German Methodist Church and enjoy the esteem of those who have been associated with them since they first located on section 7.

May 29, 1923 - Martin J. Stabler, 63, of 508 . . .afternoon following a week's illness. Mr. Stabler was born in Lansing, January 28, 1860, and lived here all his life. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. For several years he had followed the occupation of a building contractor.

He leaves a wife, Charlotte B. Stabler, one daughter, Mrs. Fred Hunnell of Lansing and two grandchildren; one brother, Jacob Stabler of Sebewaing, Michigan; and three sisters, Mrs. Gus Wahnes of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Theo. Stoll of Watertown; and Mrs. Herman Roy of Lansing.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 2:00 o'clock, Thursday afternoon. Interment will be at Mt. Hope cemetery.

- 363 iii. Richard Franklin Rey, born 17 Nov 1898 in Michigan; died 07 Oct 1933 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Richard Franklin Rey:

Oct. 20, 1933 - Six lives have been lost, five of them directly as a result of construction of the Logan street viaduct, and one apparently an indirect result of the bridge job. Five bridge workers were killed in collapse of a cofferdam when the bridge was being built and Richard F. Rey, city bridge engineer during the construction project, ended his own life recently. It was believed that he had worried over testifying in the case although it was said that he had been cleared-of any blame. The city was represented in the federal court suit by Raudabaugh and Alva M. Cummins, prominent Lansing attorney. The bridge company was represented by the Lansing law firm of Shields, Silsbee, Ballard & Jennings.

Richard F. Rey, 34, former city bridge engineer, committed suicide at his home, 311 West Maple Street, shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday morning Oct. 7, 1933. He took his life with a .12-gauge shotgun, shooting himself in the head. Mr. Rey's act was attributed to the fact that he was due to take the stand in the suit of the Folwell Engineering company against the city. As bridge engineer he designed the Logan Street bridge and grade separation, which were built by this firm. During the construction a cofferdam collapsed, five men losing their lives. Mr. Rey had been at the trial for six weeks, but had not been called to the witness stand. He had, according to Richard Raudabaugh, city attorney, who is handling the case, been cleared of any responsibility or negligence in planning the structure. He was to take the stand Friday, but on Thursday Collins Thornton, employed in the city engineer's office and another witness at the trial, which is being heard in federal court in Detroit, noticed that Rey was not himself and spoke to Mr. Raudabaugh about it. Mr. Raudabaugh said that he went to Rey's room and went over the case with him, and at the conclusion of their talk said that there was nothing to cause the witness to worry. Shortly before noon Friday, however, Rey said that he could not testify during the afternoon, and court was adjourned with Rey due to take the witness stand next Wednesday. He rode home with Mr. Raudabaugh and Mr. Thornton, with Thornton driving, and said that he felt all right when he reached Lansing. He had previously said that he would be able to take the stand when court resumed again. City officials and employees were shocked by the tragedy, as Mr. Rey had long been associated with the city engineer's department. When the staff was reduced some time ago, with no bridge construction planned immediately, he lost his employment with the city, but had been employed recently by the state highway department.

According to Coroner Ray Gorsline Mr. Rey got up Saturday morning, went downstairs to the kitchen, and then returned to his room, where he kept his shotgun and the ammunition for the gun. The sound of the shot soon followed. Mr. Rey was a graduate of Central high school and Michigan State college. Mr. Rey is survived by his father, Herman Rey, and a brother, Clarence, both living at the Maple Street address.

Her finger-tip length silk veil (the one that was worn by the groom's mother 26 years ago) was held in place by a Juliet cap of satin lace and rosebuds and she carried a bouquet of white talisman roses, white carnations and baby breath. A double stand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, complete the costume. Following the ceremony at 6:30 o'clock a three-course wedding dinner was served to 125 immediate relatives and friends at the Arbeiter Hall from tables set T shaped, prettily decorated with bands of yellow and green and picture vases of spring flowers. The bridal table was adorned with a 5-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and a groom. Michigan along with a twin sister, Marlene Ida Rettig. They were the only children of Ewald and Ida Rettig. From a young age they were both trained in music and art and during grade school had advanced to playing in the Detroit City Youth Orchestra. Marion played the viola and Marlene played the cello. In addition, they were piano students of Helen Weber. At 13 years of age, Marlene died of tubercular meningitis. Marion lost interest in continuing viola performances but kept her interest in piano and organ. At age 16, Marion's piano teacher retired as organist at Marion's church, but had primed her to take over as organist. She filled that position several years and it is where she eventually met Melvin, who became her husband on May 31, 1952.

Prior to the marriage, Marion took 2 months off of all work positions to accompany her parents to Germany to visit their parents they had not seen in 25 years. Upon her return, she had a position saved for her with the Detroit Public Schools administration offices. She continued there until her marriage, later the arrival of her first born, Kim, at which time they moved to Alpena, Michigan. They lived there 14 years before moving to Petoskey in 1967, along with son Kurt and daughter Kristi, having been added to the family. In 1970 Marion began her work with Michigan Department of State, serving 22 years, the last 15 as Manager of local Secretary of State office. In addition, she served as Treasurer of West Traverse Township for several years, 22 years on North Central College Trustee Board, 18 years on NCMC Foundation Board, and 22 years as Music Director of Harbor Springs United Methodist Church and Alanson United Methodist Church. Marion adored playing piano for the weekly church services at Bay Bluffs for the last 23 years, having started the service while her husband resided there. Marion and Mel had a strong faith that helped them through many health difficulties. That faith was constant.

Mel passed away in 1999 after a lengthy illness. Surviving are Marion's loving children, Kim (Betty), Kurt (Marianne) and Kristi (Tony). Grandchildren are Sarah (Tony), Scott (Micaela), Cameron (Nicole), Reilly (Christian), Jordan, Nikolas, Zakary, Peter, Maggie, and Anna. Great-grandchildren, Jude and Bodhi. Granddoggies also have a special place in her heart.

Special friends are too numerous to mention. They also have a special place in her life. They know who they are and how much they added to care and joy they brought. Several years ago a special person appeared and took the place of her lost sister by asking if she could bring her string instrument and play with her at church, it was a "cello" and Marga Eickholt held that special place all these years. In 1997, Marion received a Paul Harris Fellowship award, given by Rotary Club of Petoskey, for "making a difference in the community". In 2012 she was awarded recognition by North Central Michigan College with a Founder's Day award for dedication to the college. Marion also received many letters of recognition of her communication skills when working as Manager of Michigan Secretary of State in Petoskey. On May 6, 2022 Marion received an Honorary Degree from North Central Michigan College recognizing her as a lifelong champion of education.

A celebration of life will be held in the spring on Thursday, May 25th with details to follow. In lieu of flowers, Marion asks that you each take your family out to dinner and enjoy looking back on family remembrances. Donations in Marion's honor may be sent to North Central Michigan College or Harbor Springs United Methodist Church.

Notes for Ruth Katherine Kusssmaul:

Lansing, June 2, 1951 - A short - lived windstorm, hitting with mixed fury in scattered locations in the Lansing; area, resulted in one fatality and rendered extensive damage to suburban and rural homes, barns, utility lines and trees Friday night June 1, 1951 but spared the capital city itself. Killed during the storm, which struck shortly before 9 p.m., was Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere St., Holt. State police said she was riding with her husband, Herman, on Aurelius Rd., when a large wild cherry tree was uprooted by the high wind and fell on their automobile. Mrs. Whiting was crushed in her seat and died instantly, according to Coroner Ray Gorsline. Wrecking crews were forced to pry the car apart before removing her body. Mr. Whiting was in critical condition in Edward W. Sparrow hospital, suffering from a possible skull fracture, internal injuries and severe cuts and bruises. Mrs. Whiting, a bride of a little more than one year, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kusssmaul, 2331 Forest Rd. The couple had lived in Holt since their marriage. Mrs. Whiting had been an employee of Melling Forging company for 15 years, and had left her job recently. She was an expectant mother in July, according to relatives.

A survey early Saturday morning showed that at least six barns in the Lansing vicinity were blown down by sudden wind gusts, one was destroyed by fire resulting from lightning, the second story and roof of a suburban home was blown off, other homes were damaged by wind and falling trees, and four house trailers were tipped on their sides. In addition, electric and telephone poles were toppled in several rural sections mostly around Holt and Leslie with service over wide areas being disrupted for hours during the night.

Lansing - Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere Rd., who was crushed to death by a falling tree during Friday night's wind storm, were delayed today due to the condition of her husband, Herman W., who was seriously hurt. Mr. Whiting, who suffered possible internal injuries and skull fracture, was reported "Improved" by attendants at Edward W. Sparrow hospital. His condition was given as "fair." Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kusssmaul, 2331 Forest Rd., put off making funeral plans pending further improvement of their son-in-law, according to a spokesman for the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Mrs. Whiting's body was removed there after being cut from the automobile crushed by an uprooted wild cherry tree about 9 p.m. Friday on Aurelius Rd.

Besides the parents, Mrs. Whiting is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Wibel and Mrs. Pearl Tucker, both of Lansing, and Mrs. Agnes Danley, St. Johns, and two brothers, Howard Kusssmaul of Lansing and Arthur Kusssmaul of Belleville. A former employee of Melling Forging, Mrs. Kusssmaul was a member of the Seymour Ave. Methodist church.

Notes for Dr. Austin Frederick Burdick:

History of Michigan, Volume 4, by Charles Moore. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company, 1915.

Austin Frederick Burdick, A.B., M.D. The medical profession of Michigan is worthily and capably represented at Lansing by Dr. Austin Frederick Burdick, whose comprehensive training, inherent ability and high achievements have placed him in a foremost position among the men of his honored calling in this state. Doctor Burdick is a native son of Lansing, born March 23, 1878, and is descended from two Michigan pioneer families. His father, Ichabod Burdick, was born at Allen's Prairie, Michigan, November 15, 1833, a son of Ambrose S. Burdick, a native of New York state, born February 9, 1807. The grandfather came to Michigan during pioneer days, taking up government land, but in later life removed to Lansing. His wife, Margaret G., whom he married in New York, was born in the Empire state, December 19, 1808. The mother of Doctor Burdick bore the maiden name of Mary Yeiter, and was born in Ohio, February 17, 1840, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Brock) Yeiter, natives of Germany, the former born July 1, 1811, and the latter May 5, 1817. They were married in the United States, were early settlers of Ohio, and came to Lansing in about the year 1850. The parents of Doctor Burdick were married at Lansing, March 26, 1857, and seven years ago celebrated their fiftieth, or Golden, anniversary, and both are still living and enjoying the best of physical health and unimpaired mental faculties. The father learned the furniture maker's trade in his youth, and was engaged at this occupation until the outbreak of the Civil War, at which time he enlisted in Company A, Twentieth Regiment, Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He saw some very active service and at one time was taken prisoner by the enemy and confined for five months in Salsbury Prison. At the close of hostilities Mr. Burdick returned to the peaceful pursuits of his trade, was very successful in his business ventures, and of late years has concentrated his energies upon looking after his property interests. a department store, and china and glass dealers everywhere have to contend against the keen competition of these general stores. For this reason, where a successful individual business of this kind is found, its very existence and prosperity are a splendid tribute to the energy and commercial judgment of its proprietor.'

Dr. Austin F. Burdick secured his early education in the Lansing public schools, and was graduated from the high school here in 1896. He was president of his class in both sophomore and senior years, and in his junior year was chairman of the Junior Exhibition Committee, which committee was the founder of the plan to hold the junior exhibition in the opera house, and which has since become an annual event of much importance to the students and interest to the general public. After leaving high school Doctor Burdick spent one year in the drug store of his brother-in-law, Dr. Turner, at Webberville, Michigan, but in 1897 resumed his studies as a student in the University of Michigan, taking the full course of six years in one year less than that time, and was graduated with the class of 1901, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was graduated from the medical department of the same school with the class of 1902, receiving the degree of Doctor of Medicine, and at once entered practice at Webberville, there spending one year. Following this he was located at Perry, Michigan, for three months, and next went to Beloit, Wisconsin, where he was engaged, in a special practice in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, until May, 1912, when he returned to his old home at Lansing. Here he has firmly established himself in his profession as a specialist. Doctor Burdick has never ceased to be a close and assiduous student. He has taken post-graduate work at the New York City Eye and Ear Infirmary, at the Chicago Polyclinic, at the Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital and at the Central London Nose and Throat Hospital, London, England. At this writing (June 20, 1914), he is preparing to attend the annual meeting of the American Medical Association, at Atlantic City, New Jersey, following which he will go abroad to London, England, to pass the balance of the summer at the two institutions above named. It is his intention also to attend the clinical congress of North American Surgeons, to be held in London.

Doctor Burdick is a member of the Ingham County Medical Society, the Michigan State Medical Society and the American Medical Association. His fraternal connections include membership in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. On June 10, 1903, Doctor Burdick married Jessie Stabler, who was born in Clinton county, Michigan, daughter of Charles and Carrie (Goodrich) Stabler, and they have two children: Arlene Adell and Elgeva June, aged respectively, nine and four years.

Dr. Austin F. Burdick, 81, S. River Rd., Grand Ledge, former Lansing resident, died Monday evening Jan. 4, 1960 at a Perrinton convalescent home following an extended illness. Born in Lansing March 23, 1878, Dr. Burdick was long prominent in the medical profession. A graduate of the University of Michigan medical school in 1902, he commenced practice at Beloit, Wisconsin, returning to Lansing in 1912 where he continued his specialty practice in eye, ear, nose and throat. He undertook advanced study in London, England prior to the outbreak of World War I. Before his retirement in 1941 he was a member of the Eaton County Medical Society, a senior member of the Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, Southwestern Michigan Triological society, and American Association for the Advancement of Science. For a period of 10 years he served as an associate editor of the Michigan Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, a monthly publication.

Surviving are his widow, Jessie S., two daughters, Mrs. Arlene Sevener of Napa, California, and Mrs. Elgeva Hall of Los Altos, California, a son, Dr. Bruce Burdick of Topeka, Kansas, and seven grandchildren. Funeral services will be announced later.

She married Dr. John Stuart Swanton 14 Sep 1936 in East Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; born 04 Oct 1911 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; died 03 Jan 1997 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Virginia Lou Stabler:

Mrs. Virginia Swanton, wife of Dr. Stuart J. Swanton, was found dead by her husband Monday night Sept. 27, 1937 when he returned from his office to their apartment, 106-1/2 Island Avenue. Mrs. Swanton, who had suffered a nervous breakdown and who had been ill for months, had taken her own life during a period of extreme despondency. Mrs. Swanton, 24, was born in Lansing and was a graduate of Central high school. Following her graduation, she entered Michigan State college but due to a nervous condition was advised by her physician to discontinue her studies, so left college after her first year. Mrs. Swanton, formerly Miss Virginia Stabler, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Stabler, 423 West Grand River Avenue. She was popular socially in Lansing and was married to Doctor Swanton a year ago. The nervous affection recurred several months ago and Mrs. Swanton went to the University hospital, Ann Arbor, for treatment and was later a patient at Mercywood hospital there.

When Mrs. Swanton returned to her home in Lansing, she was apparently greatly improved. Later, however, there was a recurrence of the nervous trouble and Mrs. Swanton suffered from extreme despondency. She had declared to her husband and to her parents that there was no hope that she would ever regain her health. It is believed that Mrs. Swanton took her own life some time before noon Monday, hanging herself by a rope attached to a Murphy bed in the apartment. Doctor Swanton did not return to the home for luncheon and for this reason the discovery was not made until the doctor had closed his offices and had returned home in the evening. Coroner Ray Gorsline was called. It was learned that Mrs. Stabler, the young woman's mother, had called her daughter by telephone before noon Monday but had received no response. This fact, however, caused no apprehension as Mrs. Swanton had said that she might visit a relative during the day.

Besides the husband, Dr. Stuart J. Swanton, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stabler, Mrs. Swanton leaves a sister, Mrs. Robert Kraft, a grandmother, Mrs. Joseph H. Bard, within other relatives who live here. Declaring services, which will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the parents, 423 West Grand River Avenue. Interment will probably be in Deepdale cemetery.

Notes for Dr. John Stuart Swanton:

Stuart J. Swanton, D.D.S. of East Lansing, born October 4, 1911 in Lansing; died January 30, 1997 at the age of 85. Dr. Swanton was a life-long resident of the Lansing area; a graduate of Michigan State University and the University of Michigan Dental School. He established his dental practice in Lansing in the 1930s. During World War II he served as a Captain with the United States Army Dental Corp. At the end of the war he returned to Lansing and reestablished his dental practice which he maintained until his retirement in 1980. During his college years, he played piano in a local dance band and continued to enjoy the piano throughout his life. He was an active participant in many organizations. An avid sportsman, he hunted and fished in Northern Michigan. He held great affection for the Slagle Trout Club where he maintained second home. He was a past member of the Slagle Trout Club Board of Directors and had served as President of the Club. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Virginia, and his second wife, Velma, to whom he was married for 49 years.

Dr. Swanton is survived by his daughter, Velma Ann and her husband, Robert F. Rought of Farmington Hills; 2 grandsons, Scott and Stuart and a great-granddaughter.

A graveside service will be conducted by the Rev. Lynn A. DeMoss of Central United Methodist Church at 12 noon, Saturday, February 1, 1997 at Mt Hope Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the West Bloomfield Hospice. Arrangements by the Estes-Leadley Greater Lansing Chapel.

More About Loren Roller and Ruth Bach:
Marriage: 27 Aug 1949, Sebawaing, Huron Co, Michigan

Children of Loren Roller and Ruth Bach are:

- + 579 i. Lenore Frances¹³ Roller, born 12 Aug 1950 in Michigan.
- 580 ii. Joy Roller, twin, born 10 Aug 1954 in Michigan.

Notes for Joy Roller, twin:

2013 - Joy Roller Roller, - President, Global Cleveland. The terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001, and ensuing recession led Joy Roller to her current role running Global Cleveland, a nonprofit focused on increasing the region's population with initiatives that attract and retain newcomers. There were big steps in between, however. The downturn after the attacks was tough on the television industry. With a resume that includes documentaries and shows for television, Ms. Roller's job as a producer ended when the company she worked for closed in 2003. She did independent work, but after she was told a third time as a job-hunter how she was too experienced — a euphemism for being too old for youth-oriented TV — she decided she needed a new plan.

Her twin sister, Jan Roller, a partner at the Davis & Young law firm here, suggested she try law school. She took the advice. "I decided to get off the TV merry-go-round and live a more authentic life," Joy Roller said. "I saw law school as a bridge to that." Attending the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law at Cleveland State University, she said, taught her a more focused way of approaching issues, which she had expected from discussions with her sister during Jan Roller's law school days. Joy Roller took a different path, though, also earning a master's degree in political theology at Harvard University. That taught her how to consider questions of life broadly.

Both kinds of thinking guide her work today. Before joining Global Cleveland in January, she spent six years as executive director of the Gordon Square Arts District, which created a new brand for the area at West 65th Street and Detroit Avenue. Although the arts district now is regarded as a success, the idea initially elicited surprised, blank stares. But she knew how to tell a story from her TV days, and at the district she learned now to run a nonprofit.

Now Joy Roller is putting her skills to work at Global Cleveland, which has a staff of six including her, to create a perception of Cleveland as a world-class city, a welcoming place that offers diversity, opportunity and a rich cultural life. Over time, Global Cleveland had been seen as primarily focused on aiding emigrants, but her task is to broaden its scope because the region needs to attract talent as well as retain talent leaving the region; as she notes, "emigration will not fill the whole bill" for the region's people needs. "This is the culmination of everything I've done," Joy Roller said. "I've created something from nothing as a TV producer. I know how to build a nonprofit."

How does Global Cleveland define success? The real benchmark, she acknowledges, will be the outcome of the next U.S. Census in 2020 after decades of population decline in the city. More immediately, she believes it will be measured by a changed perception of Cleveland outside the region to one of vitality and diversity. Another item in Ms. Roller's toolbox is an insider's view of politics. Before launching her television career here as a producer at WJW-TV, Channel 8, in 1984, she had worked as a paid staffer for political campaigns. After living in many cities, Joy Roller enjoys living in Cleveland. "It's like living in a resort," she said, compared to other, bigger cities she has lived in from coast to coast. She lives in the Coventry neighborhood of Cleveland Heights and enjoys traveling. One thing happens often here, however. On an almost daily basis she and her sister get confused with each other.

Jan Roller and Joy Roller regard each other as BFFs and brush aside the mistaken identities. Joy Roller helped them develop their identities as children. When their parents dressed the young girls in identical outfits, "Joy put an end that," Jan Roller said. Although Joy Roller is broadening the perception of Global Cleveland's mission, Radhika Reddy, a partner in Cleveland-based Ariel Ventures economic development financing consultancy, said she also is continuing to reach out to the region's many ethnic communities. "She's taking a grass-roots approach," said Ms. Reddy, who serves on a Global Cleveland advisory committee. "She's helping to project a progressive view in the region on the immigration debate. She's very hard-working and focused."

Joy Roller - As President of Global Cleveland, Joy Roller leads a civic/corporate initiative to increase the population of Northeast Ohio and strengthen the region by connecting immigrants and domestic newcomers to its opportunities, resources and services and promoting the region as a welcoming place for all.

For the past six years, Joy served as Executive Director of the Gordon Square Arts District, a collaboration of three separate non-profit organizations in a single $30 million capital campaign. On November 15, 2012, The Plain Dealer reported that Joy was, "The woman who oversaw the conversion of Cleveland's Gordon Square Arts District into an edgy, creative economic engine is about to bring her exuberance and marketing mojo to a wider audience." Since May 2006, the campaign has transformed Cleveland's Detroit Shoreway neighborhood by attracting 75 new businesses, creating over 520 jobs, restoring the 1920s Capitol Theatre, renovating the Cleveland Public Theatre, groundbreaking for Near West Theatre's new performance center and making extensive streetscape improvements and parking acquisitions.

In addition to her economic development experience in Gordon Square, Roller brings over twenty years as a television producer and political campaign manager to her current position. A one-time political director of United States Secretary of State John Kerry's first successful race for public office, Roller started her television production career at WJW in Cleveland. Her writing, producing and directing credits have appeared on HGTV, VH1, TLC, Discovery, Lifetime and PBS.

Roller holds a Masters of Theological Studies degree from Harvard University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and economics from Denison University. In 2004, she returned to Cleveland from New York City to attend Cleveland State University's John Marshall College of Law. She graduated with a Juris Doctor degree in December 2007.

Notes for William Allen Gilbert:

Ann Arbor - William "Bill" Gilbert passed away after a short illness on December 27, 2016. He was born on July 27, 1944 to parents Robert and Margaret Gilbert. He was a lifelong resident of Dexter, Michigan having attended Parker Country School, Bates Elementary and Dexter High School and graduating in 1962. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Andrew's Church in Dexter. As a youth, Bill was actively involved in 4-H raising sheep and enjoying farm life. While on the farm, Bill enjoyed taming barn pigeons as pets. When the family moved down the road to their new house Bill began raising homing and fantail pigeons. The same gentleman who introduced Bill to raising fancy pigeons was the same man who introduced his father to raising dahlias. For many years, Bill enjoyed bowling and won many trophies. He also enjoyed doing small parts assembly at DAPCO, Laser Systems and Raycon. Bill loved to work with his hands and for years made birdhouses and other projects with wood. He also loved the outdoors and took pride in gardening and growing dahlias the last few years. One of his favorite past times was watching the abundant wildlife that frequented their yard and nearby fields. He loved feeding the birds and seeing all the different varieties that would visit. In the last few years Bill also enjoyed his Tuesday morning coffee group of old friends. He looked forward to it every week and loved the social time with his buddies. A very special friend and neighbor, Bob, has been a great support for Bill in the last few months. Bill was preceded in death by his father, Robert Gilbert.

He is survived by his mother, Margaret Gilbert; sister, Kathy Warner (David Gilmore); niece, Robyn (Derek) Lachman and his grand-nephew Camden Lachman with whom he had a very special bond; as well as several cousins.

A funeral will be held at St. Andrews Church, 7610 Ann Arbor St., in Dexter, at 11:00 am on Saturday, December 31, 2016. 442. Lorena O.¹² Wolfe (John Henry (Wolfe)¹¹ Wolf, Maria A. (Mary)¹⁰ Staebler, Margaretha (Mary)⁹ Roller, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronymus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 21 Aug 1915 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Oct 1996 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Norman Emanuel Scherdt 14 May 1938 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Emanuel Scherdt and Martha Geisel. He was born 12 Feb 1913 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 06 Jan 2005 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Norman Emanuel Scherdt:

Norm Scherdt, a spry 91, headed uptown to get a haircut one morning last month, carefully driving his blue Ford Taurus to the appointed destination. As was his custom, Mr. Scherdt arrived, early for his date with the clippers, so prompt that Bill's Barbershop wasn't yet open on that snowy Saline morning. While a cup of coffee may have beckoned a few steps, away, Scherdt decided instead that it was high time to get to work. "The sidewalk was covered with snow, so Norm went into his trunk, got out a snow shovel, and began shoveling the walk in front of the barbershop," recalled Kelven Braun, who along with his brother Howard were lifelong friends of Scherdt. "Within a few minutes, he had shoveled the sidewalk and then was ready to get his hair cut. That's the kind of guy he was. He was always thinking of others and he loved to stay busy, right up until the final day."

That day, ironically enough, came on another "snow day" in Saline, when Scherdt died while clearing his drive of the white stuff with his beloved daughter Betsy Marl nearby. "I called him around 6:15 last Thursday morning and he greeted me with a chipper, 'snow day,'" said Marl, a teacher at Houghton School where classes were idled that day by the winter weather. "By the time I got to his house around 7:45, he had already cleared his sidewalk and was working on the driveway. I went into the garage to get a shovel and then I heard the snow blower banging into the wall and saw that he had collapsed. It was difficult to see, but I was so glad that I was there. That's the way he would have wanted to go, or with a rake in his hand or on a lawn mower. He never wanted to be a burden on anyone and he would never have wanted to be hospitalized or in a nursing home."

A native of Lodi Township, Scherdt spent nearly four decades with Ford Motor Co., beginning his career with the giant automaker in rural outposts before retiring from the maintenance department in 1978 at the Ypsilanti Plant. "He worked at the Ford soybean mills and helped build the dams in Manchester and in Saline," recalled Braun. "He never missed a day of work at Ford. I remember one time that he was so sick that when he showed up for work on a Friday his supervisor thought he was drunk. It turned out he had double pneumonia. By the time Monday rolled around, he was back to work. He was an amazing guy, one of a kind. They don't make 'em like Norm anymore."

Scherdt also enjoyed a second career of sorts, assisting Francis Lockwood, Jerry Bahnmler, and Jim Robison with various duties at the funeral home in Saline during a 45-year span. "Norm was a great employee and an even better friend," said Bahnmler, who owned the funeral home in Saline for some 20 years. "He always was ready to help and he planned everything down to a T. He died with his boots on, which is the way he wanted to go." During his career in the funeral home profession, Bahnmler prided himself on running a tight ship, where punctuality was uppermost in mind. "Norm was very meticulous and he had plans for his funeral written out in great detail," said Bahnmler. "I can remember him telling me, 'Make sure it's started on time.'"

Timeliness and orderliness were Scherdt trademarks, character traits that his many friends and admirers appreciated. "You could set your clock to my Dad's daily routine," said Marl. "He was very precise in everything he did and he did every job to the best of his ability. He also was so grateful to the many people who looked out after him—the Brauns, the Wellers, the Laidlaws, Jerry Bahnmler, and some of his other neighbors."

Services were held last Saturday at St. Paul United Church of Christ, where he had been a longtime member with his wife of 58 years, Lorena, who died in 1996. Fittingly, Bahnmler was in the funeral hearse for Scherdt's "last ride" to Oakwood Cemetery where he was buried on a snow-swept January day. But not before he had successfully completed another assignment for his daughter, one of Saline's favorite elementary teachers. "Charlene Stoddard and I have a tradition in our classes each holiday season of giving some small gifts to our students in coffee cans that we specially decorate for the occasion," said Marl. "My Dad would collect coffee cans from his friends and paint them red for us to decorate. When I went into his basement the other day, he probably had about 200 cans lined up, all neatly painted and ready to go, just as I would have expected of him."

Norman E. Scherdt of Saline, Michigan, age 91, died Thursday, January 6, 2005 in Saline, Michigan. He was born February 12, 1913 in Lodi Twp., Michigan the son of Emanuel and Martha (Geisel) Scherdt. He had been a Saline-Lodi Twp. resident all of his life. On May 14, 1938, from her parent's home in Lodi Twp., Michigan he was married to Lorena Wolfe and she preceded him in death on October 23, 1996. Norm was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ of Saline. He had been employed by the Ford Motor Company for over 39 years until his retirement in 1978 and the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline for over 45 years.

Survivors include one daughter, Betsy (Gary) Marl of Saline, Michigan and one grandson, Brian Marl, also of Saline. Other survivors include three sisters-in-law, Margaret Feldkamp, Virginia Hieber, Esther Schaible; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services will be held on Saturday, January 8, 2005 at 11:00 A.M. from the St. Paul United Church of Christ of Saline with Rev. Ron Boldman officiating. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery,

Saline. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the St. Paul United Church of Christ. Notes for Rudolph Clifford Feldkamp:

December 21, 1944 - Mrs. Rudolph Feldkamp received the Honor Medal of her husband, which was awarded to him for his courage and bravery in saving the lives of 50 men while serving on the Anzia beach head. Pfc. Feldkamp has been overseas 23 months and saw action in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, Anzio Beach head with the 5th Army in Rome, Southern France and is now with the 7th Army in Germany.

May 24, 1945 - Evidence of proof that Saline boys were among the conquerors of Nazi Germany are beginning to arrive in the homes of the community and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Feldkamp are quite proud of the collection they have already received from their son, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp, of the Anit-Tank Co., 30th Infantry, with the Seventh Army. During the past couple of weeks they have not had a letter from him, but several packages have arrived with interesting contents. Just a few days ago they received one containing a German Gun, a regular shotgun with three barrels, two of which are average size and the third about half as large as the others. The cartridges are contained in a special compartment in the stock. It is complete with carrier strap.

Articles included in other packages were several steins. One was of clear glass with a patriotic crest on the front side. Another was an ornate affair of porcelain, standing almost a foot high including the cover, which was of carved metal on top of which was the replica of a German infantryman. Around the sides of the stein in vivid colors and embossing were pictures of German infantrymen and other battle scenes. An inscription around the top and another around the bottom indicated that it was a souvenir in memory of service granted during a previous war to the Duchy of Hesse and an allied province. On one side was a toast in rhyme to the valor of the German Infantry and on the other side was a toast to the Duke and the Fatherland. One cup of ordinary size had the colored picture of a patriotic crest around which was the inscription: "Wir Deutsche fuerchten Gott und Niemand anders". (We Germans fear God and no one else). There were two briar pipes of unique shape. One bore the inscription on the bowl, hardly visible, "Heidelberg, SS 1910", and the other had a metal plate on the front with the words "Zur Erinnerung an meine Dienstzeit" (In memory of my period of service).

There were numerous other insignia, some presumably dedicatory name plates, and fronts of plaques. Several pieces of jewelry, a traveler's clock, a ring and necklace, bore the trademark of a Frankfurt jeweler. One package had been wrapped in a peculiar leather-like waterproof paper, and the individual articles were wrapped in the magazine sections of a Berlin paper. It is an interesting display and one thought crosses one's mind when looking at the articles—How deeply engrained in the minds of the German people was the life of militarism and the glories of war that it was even imprinted on their pipes, glassware and earthenware. They never allowed to forget them.

August 23, 1945 – Home with his honorable discharge papers which he received at Indiantown Gap, Mil Res., Pennsylvania, August 12, 1945, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp served overseas 30 months during which he took part in many battles. He served with the third division of the Seventh Army in Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggia, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe.

A member of the third division, which had more casualties than any other division in the European Theatre, Cpl. Feldkamp was never injured, although having close calls. A jeep driver all of the time, he had a total of 124 points, taking part in the battles of Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggia, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. His hardest battle was on the Anzio Beachhead. Besides his truck driver's badge Cpl. Feldkamp wore the Soldier's Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Distinguished Unit, European, Africa, Middle Eastern Service Medal with eight bronze service stars and five overseas bars. After putting all these ribbons, stars and medals away with his uniform, the civilian now wears a small lapel button which represents his honorable discharge. It took, the corporal just four days from the time he left Casablanca, Africa, to get home and be a civilian again. He returned to the States by plane. A resident of Washtenaw County all his life, he is the husband of the former Margaret Wolf. He was in the armed forces 4 years, 5 months and 20 days. He feels pretty happy to be home again.

RUDY CELEBRATED HIS 63RD BIRTHDAY on November 16, 1980. Two days earlier, as a young man of only 62 years, Rudy Feldkamp reached another milestone that set him apart from practically everyone in this self-centered world. As he has done for many, many years, he gave another pint of blood at the Saline Red Cross Bloodmobile Clinic—and with that gift, Rudy Feldkamp became a 10-gallon giver. Red Cross officials declare that such a record is almost unheard-of anywhere. Young Rudy plans to keep adding to it, with more gifts of life. And he has a lot of helpers. Nephew Luther Marion in photo below with nurse and volunteer helper Mrs. Ed Barrett is building his pint-total just as Rudy did. Also noted as a special helper: Cathy Suiter Hills, who traveled over 100 miles to her former hometown and gave her pint here in Saline.

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Feldkamp of 8400 Weber Road, Saline 72, died suddenly February 9, 1990 in Dundee while unloading hay. He was born November 16, 1917 in Pittsfield Township, the son of Reuben and Amanda (Geisel) Feldkamp. Rudy had been a Saline area resident all of his life. He was a member of the United States Army serving in World War II. On April 3, 1942 in Tacoma, Washington, he married Margaret Wolfe of Saline and she survives. He was a member of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township, and had served on the church board and cemetery committee for several years. He dedicated his life to his family and farming and had been a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Arnold Lake Farm Bureau Group.

Survivors in addition to his wife include: one daughter, Eleanor Feldkamp Beitelshoes and her husband Terry of Saline; three beloved grandchildren, Kevin, Scott, and Kristen; two brothers, Glen Feldkamp and his wife Lucille of Saline, LeRoy and his wife Blanch of Dexter; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Loretta) Roehm of Saline, Mrs. Louell (Erma) Roehm of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Wiedmayer of Manchester, and Mrs. Herman (Doris) Marion of Saline; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Neil, Erwin, Milton, and Lloyd (Shorty) Feldkamp.

Funeral services were held on Monday at the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township with Rev. Ron Boldman officiating. Burial took place in the Bethel Church Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Bethel United Church of Christ. Envelopes will be available at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home.

Notes for Samuel J. Gall, Jr.:

June 21, 1945 - T. Cpl. Samuel Gall, Jr., is spending a 45-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gall, the first furlough he has had since he went into service 31 months ago. After four months of training in Texas was sent landed at Casablanca on March 9, 1943. He went through the African campaign, being stationed at Bizerte. From there he was sent to Sardinia with his outfit, Hdq. Battery, 533rd AAA Bn., AWM for harbor installations and airfield protection, for 11 months. He reached Marseilles, France 15, 1944, and then went to the front lines at Aydoille for artillery protection.

They crossed the Siegfried line at Wiesenberg and thence to Offenbach, Mutlerstadt and to Heidelberg, the University City. From Heidelberg he went to Dallau where he visited one of Germany's underground factories. This particular factory was hidden in the side of a mountain and camouflaged with shrubbery. He states that it was absolutely invisible to any passerby. Motors for airplanes were made there. From Dallau they went to Kochersteinfeld, to Mainhardt, Goppingen and Winterreiden. He left his outfit at Fussen near the Austrian border on a detachment furlough on April 30 to begin his trek homeward. They went by truck from Essen through the Black Forests to Saarburg, France. Then a three-day train trip to Marseilles where he was on V-E Day in camp awaiting embarkation. He spent the next 21 days coming through the Straits of Gibraltar and through the South Atlantic, and was told upon arrival in New York on June 2 that this was the last convoy to cross the Atlantic in the blackout, which accounted for the long voyage. The convoy made up 37 ships, have four non-casualty troops to arrive in New York from the European front. His boat was the "Moses Austin." The last night before reaching the States was a sleepless one for all men aboard. They knew they would reach the mainland during the night or early morning and paced the decks all night watching for the first sight of the Statue of Liberty, and "The Old Lady" was finally caught sight of about 5 in the morning by one of the men who gave the alarm and the boys swarmed the decks half-dressed or in whatever state the alarm overtook them.

While in action he states that he averaged about seven warm meals a month and never milk, which he particularly craved. They would become so exhausted that they could sleep amid any amount of noise or falling debris. Cpl. Gall will report again for duty at Fort Sheridan on July 2, and since this is a detachment furlough begun before V-E Day he faces the possibility of being sent back to join his outfit. He has been awarded the Bronze Medal for shooting down a plane with one shot while on the Rhine.

On May 15, 1993 he married Margaret K. Egeler who survives. Self-taught as a programmer/analyst, Dave retired from Fingerle Lumber in Ann Arbor after many years. He had previously worked in Chicago for The Great Books Foundation. The cities of Chicago, Seattle, Cleveland, Covington, Roanoke, Clifton Forge, and Richmond, Virginia had the good fortune of hearing Dave's pleasant bass voice on the radio where he worked as a disc jockey under the air names 'Dave Diamond' and 'Rick Shaw'. He was especially proud of the time he spent at Covington's own WKEY. He was a true tech geek who enjoyed helping others with their computer troubles. After many years living the big city life in Chicago, Dave came to love the quiet and slower pace of country life. Dave was a kind and generous soul who loved music, a sharp wit and good food.

In addition to his wife Margaret, he is survived by many loved ones: brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and cousins. Dave was cherished by his family and will be sorely missed. Notes for Helen Kathryn (Betsy) Hubinger:

Helen "Betsy" Pommerening (November 13, 1920 ~ November 11, 2013) I grew up in a small town in Michigan where we spoke as much German as English. I always wanted to be in medicine and got my wish at the University of Michigan School of Nursing. World War II had me in uniform helping those recover who suffered from war trauma.

I always loved Dr. Bob, and we were married in the mid-1940s. He took me to Seattle where we had five sons - one right after another. His early death forced a major change in my life. I worked for many years in the hospital as the volunteer coordinator. I was bitten badly by the travel bug. For years I led tours all over the world. There are too many countries to count. I watched my boys grow-- watched them lead divergent lives-- accepted who they were without rancor. I aged without regrets. I accepted the life I was given. Losing my oldest son was almost as hard as losing my husband. I waited in peace. God was always a part of my life, and still is.

Memorial Service, Messiah Lutheran Church, Seattle, Nov 23, 1 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Lutheran Compass Center, 77 Washington St., Seattle.

Notes for Loren Alton Koengeter:

Dorothy and Loren Koengeter, Chelsea: Life on the farm 50 years ago was about the time people started using tractors to do the hard work. We still had horses. I marveled at how good they were to work with. Much of the work was hard and they got very tired. When it was very hot they got very hot but never seemed to not want to work. This was also the time of the one room school, with one teacher for all grades. When I attended there were about 20 pupils. Some schools had 50. We had outside toilets and a pump for water. We'd pump a pail full and everyone dipped from that. In winter we had a large wash boiler placed on an electric plate. Then we warmed pupils' lunches, which they'd brought in glass jars. Farmers didn't go to town often. They mostly went to town on Saturday night so that the whole family could go. We didn't buy many groceries because we raised beef, pork and chickens and canned many jars of fruits and vegetables.

Loren Alton Koengeter of Chelsea, Michigan, age 88, passed away on Thursday, April 12, 2012 at Legacy Assisted Living in Jackson. He was born on June 6, 1923 in Freedom Twp., the son of Wilbert and Elsie (Loeffler) Koengeter. Loren had lived in Chelsea his entire life and was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church, Chelsea, where he was also a Church Council member. He graduated from Chelsea High School in 1941 and was Kiwanis Farmer of the Year in 1989. He was a member of 4-H, the Washtenaw County Livestock Council, and a former Chelsea Fair Board member. Loren exhibited at the Junior Livestock Show at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Surviving are three children: Nancy (Garry) Hopkins of Galesburg, Donald (Wanda) Koengeter of Chelsea, and Robert (Dee) Koengeter of Chelsea; eight grandchildren: Todd, Scott, Amy, Daniel, Beth, Lisa, Laura, and Joe; eight great-grandchildren; and his brother- and sister-in-law, Lloyd (Arlene) Grau of Chelsea. Betty Kathryn¹² Race (Alta Dell (Ada)¹¹ Stabler, Johann Carl¹⁰, Katharina Barbara⁹ Roller, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronymus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 1916 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 2009 in Florida. He was born 07 Sep 1907 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 17 Sep 2001 in Vero Beach, Indian River Co, Florida.

Notes for Betty Kathryn Race:

Betty Kathryn Wall - Once upon a time a pretty little 16-year old minx maiden carrying a book bag, skipped past an office building on her way to high school in Lansing, Michigan. Spotted by an older prince, my father, he was besotted with Love sweet love. He watched her many days before finding a suitable person to introduce him, then courted her with beautifully drawn and lettered cards and missives. She was so young. Forced by her evil parents to take at least one year of college before she married, she chafed out the year at Michigan State University as a music major, and soon her beautiful coloratura soprano voice sang all the choir's solos, but she trembled at the limelight. Let me out, let me get married. After which she sang at her Seventh Day Adventist church and for weddings, ("Oh Promise Me"), and funerals ("Shall we gather at the River" In the Sweet by and by; Blessed assurance"). She was first and foremost a woman whose home was impeccably kept and made. We the next generation didn't want to be our mothers and we spun off into a multitude of jobs, marriages, messy plot lines. The wide world was ours. We thought we didn't need the small stifling role of homemaker/ house keeper. Industrious house keeper she was, making sure the blocks of delivered ice went into the icebox; serving canned baked beans once a week on "pay-off-the-mortgage" night; cranking the mangle to squeeze out the washing water from the laundry load, then carrying the heavy damp linens out to the clothes line, clamping the pins to the wire. The truth is, I've never been truly comfortable since I left her home. I've never slept so luxuriously as in her sunshine dried, freshly ironed sheets. And never was the word "homemaker" more literally true. She designed her homes, laboriously hooked her rugs, quilted her quilts, and spun a multitude of bright paintings out of her imagination. The marriages of her age were long lasting. The husband came always first and for 66 years they were together. My mother was especially happy when her husband retired and his time belonged to her. Chaucer was right. What women want is mastery, but in the end, she was not the master of her own fated demise. As she lay dying, first in the hospital, "Baa baa black sheep have you any wool" pipes over the loud speaker in the hallway. "What's that" asks my mother. "A baby has just been born," smiles the nurse. Coming onto the Earth passes and over takes Going off the Earth. Giving birth, taking death, each is an arduous endeavor in the gyre of life. Generations have trod, have trod, have trod and will trod on hopefully happily ever after. Toward the end it is the gateway-to-heaven Hospice House that accepts our mottled rags and bones. Hospice: Hospitality at the Abyss of that good night, into which she did not go gentle. My mother was of German heritage. She loved potatoes cut in thick fry slices then roasted in olive oil; creamed potatoes with green peas. Her last food request was mashed potatoes. I rushed home to make them, but when I returned, she no longer wanted food. Some advice to the soon to be lovelorn: The last events are rapid ones. Get your love, forgiveness, mashed potatoes in on time. At the end, I sit wrapped in her yellow quilt, the one appliquéd with roses, where she dyed half the cloth to get just the right shadings of color. I listen to the night murmurs, the snaps and crackles of her breath, and hold her hand and feel the mouse twitch of her pulse.

I her only daughter Judith Olney Smith, my husband Walter, my son Nathan Lazell Olney, her sister Mary Cherne , and her dear Lee will miss and mourn her greatly. The stone labeled Lazell John Wall (1907- 2001) awaits its mate inscribed Betty Kathryn Wall (1915-2009). Paxpaxis sweet, fierce little Mommy. Amen

Notes for Judith Anna Wien:

Judith Ann (Wien) Gremel, 79, Tipton, passed away immersed in the sound of hymns and surrounded by her family on Tuesday, February 23, 2022. Judy was born April 19, 1942 to Ruth (Basey) Wien and Kermit Wien in Lafayette. She was baptized in her faith as a baby and later confirmed her faith at St. James Lutheran Church in Lafayette. Judy attended Concordia River Forest Teacher's College in Chicago, Illinois where she met Kurt Gremel, who saw her and thought she was the most beautiful girl he'd ever seen. On June 27, 1965, Kurt and Judy united as one and began their adventure. Kurt and Judy started life together in Cincinnati, Ohio where Judy worked as an elementary Lutheran school teacher. From there, life with Kurt took Judy and the family to several different cities, including Midland, Michigan, Decatur, Illinois, and Fort Wayne, Indiana. She made many friends along the way whom she continued to travel to visit until recent years. In 1979, they moved to Tipton, Indiana where she and Kurt settled in to raise their four children.

Judy's faith was the cornerstone of her life. She served as a devoted Pastor's wife and participated in many church activities through the years: Lutheran Women's Missionary League, Dorcas Circle, Alter Guild, Choir, playing bells, and attending Pastor's wives' retreats. She treasured the many friends she made on her faith journey. Judy also loved to teach and spent many years in the Tipton Community School systems as a substitute teacher. Judy and Kurt were blessed with four children who provided them with 16 grandchildren that were the apple of her eye. Judy wouldn't miss her grandkids' activities – theatre, sports – whether a Blue Devil, Husky, Raider, Golden Eagle, Cougar, or Miller – she attended them all in the school's spirit wear and with her nails done to match. An avid Purdue fan, Judy didn't hesitate to get into IU gear to support her grandson on the IU Football field. Judy's competitive spirit also came alive on the golf course, whether with the Tipton Women's League or traveling to play with friends in Florida and Tennessee. On the quieter side, her love of quilting and sewing produced the most impeccable quilts that are treasured by her family to this day. She loved a good devotion or mystery novel. Judy was never lost for words and her love of being with people included playing cards and spending time with family and friends.

Survivors include her husband, Kurt Gremel of Tipton; children, Stephanie (Mike) Moses of Tipton, Kent (Bethany) Gremel of Atlanta, Heather (Bobby) Delagrang of Carmel, and Shane (Keta) Gremel of Tipton; grandchildren, Natalie, Aidan, and Meghan Moses, Hailey (David) Branham, Grant, Isaac, and Eisley Gremel, Zach and Sydney Delagrang, Addison, Kurt, and Reese Gremel, and Olivia, Landon, and Owen Spidel.

Judy is also survived by her mother, Ruth Wien, sisters, Marcia Williams of Daytona Beach and Melodi Mowery of Washington, Indiana; brothers, Mike Wien of Port Orange, Florida, Steve Wien of Lafayette, Kevin Wien of Lafayette, along with several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father, Kermit Wien, one son and one grandchild, Bryna Lynne Gremel.

Funeral services for Judy will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Monday, February 28 at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Tipton. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Visitation is from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Sunday at Young-Nichols Funeral Home. Memorial donations in Judy's honor may be made to ABC & Me Childcare through Young-Nichols Funeral Home, 216 W. Jefferson Street, Tipton, Indiana, 46072.

579. Lenore Frances¹³ Roller (Loren Franklin¹², Henry Gustav¹¹, John Jacob (Jake)¹⁰, Johann Jakob (Jacob)⁹, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronymus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 12 Aug 1950 in Michigan. She married Donald Clark Oswald, Jr. 03 Feb 1973.

Marriage Notes for Lenore Roller and Donald Oswald:

Purple, lavender and pink carnations graced the altar of St. John's Lutheran Church for the wedding ceremony of Lenore Frances Roller and Donald Clark Oswald Jr. The Rev. A. J. Klopfer officiated at the ceremony Saturday afternoon Feb. 3, 1973 at 4:30 o'clock following a program of organ selections by Mrs. J. Paul Tritch. Miss Diane Groll of Toledo, sang "There Is Love" and "Wedding Prayer." Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Loren Roller, 1504 Arrowhead Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Oswald of Angleton, Texas.

Walking down the aisle with the bride were her mother and father. Her gown of maraten jersey was styled with long full sleeves and empire waistline. Beaded lace formed the wedding ring collar and marked the bodice front, waistline and cuffs. Her full-length mantilla was edged in the beaded lace, also and she carried white silk forget-me-nots, purple ferbabutts and white sweet peas arranged on a white prayer book. A friend of the bride, Miss Faith Ann Swanger of Florence, Alabama, was her maid of honor and her twin sisters, Jan and Joy Roller, were bride maid.

Gowns of the attendants were identical, of deep purple styled with ruffled cuff and hemlines. Their headdresses were of lavender and purple flowers arranged with deep purple veiling. They carried arrangements of assorted colored carnations, purple ferbabutts, pink roses and purple starflowers. Kenneth Oswald of Danbury, Texas, brother of the bride groom, was best man and another brother, Wayne Oswald, of Denver, Colorado, and Larry Roller, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, cousin of the bride, were ushers. Mrs. Roller chose a lavender double-knit floor-length gown for her daughter's wedding. She pinned white carnations and pink roses to her shoulder.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Elks Clubrooms for the reception. Beth Roller, Mary Lou Gremel, Linda Schepflin and Sharon Wilhelm were hostesses. The newlyweds plan a honeymoon later to Europe. They will reside in Angleton, Texas. Mrs. Oswald, a Ross High School graduate, until recently had been employed as a registered nurse at Denver Children's Hospital. Her husband, who attended Brazosport College, is employed by Dow Chemical Co. of Freeport, Texas.

581. Jan L.¹³ Roller, twin (Loren Franklin¹², Henry Gustav¹¹, John Jacob (Jake)¹⁰, Johann Jakob (Jacob)⁹, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronymus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 10 Aug 1954 in Michigan. She married David Thomas Abbott. He was born 23 Feb 1952.

Notes for Jan L. Roller, twin:

2013 - When Jan Roller's name circulated this year as a potential candidate for Cuyahoga County Executive, she had a rare combination of attributes going for her, but high name recognition among members of the public was not one of them. However, she was well known among the Democratic Party faithful and had the benefit of a recent appointment to a board seat on the Cleveland Cuyahoga County Port Authority. She also had a deep resume of campaigning for candidates and causes.

Her first campaign was in 1976, when she hit the trail in New Hampshire for Fred Harris, an Oklahoma senator who ran for president as a populist. A picture of Ms. Roller and President Barack Obama reflects her most recent choice for the nation's top job; she served as a delegate for the president at the 2008 Democratic National Convention.

Angela Shuckahosee, executive director of the Cleveland Tenants Organization, said she strongly urged Ms. Roller, a friend and neighbor in Cleveland's Edgewater neighborhood, to run for the county job for a simple reason. "I thought she'd be great," Ms. Shuckahosee said. "In her political work, civil work and neighborhood activity, she routinely navigates murky waters with ease. She leads through intelligence, depth of character and wisdom.” Ms. Shuckahosee said Ms. Roller is well-known among politicians countywide and enjoys support from young women who often turn to her as a mentor to weather “male-dominated corporate antics.”

Ms. Roller said the county job tempted her because she believes more women need to be represented at the table. However, she did not pursue it because she did not want to devote the next two years to campaigning and is more passionate about her long list of nonprofit and charitable activities. She is a past president of The City Club of Cleveland — the community's citadel of free speech — and now is working on tasks ranging from Near West Theatre's fundraising for a permanent home in Cleveland to serving on Planned Parenthood's new statewide board.

All those things are apart from how Ms. Roller is best known: as a take-no-prisoners defense lawyer, the first woman to become a partner at the Davis & Young law firm, which dates from 1922. She joined the firm when she returned to Cleveland in 1983 from trial-intensive jobs as an assistant county prosecutor in Massachusetts while her husband, David Abbott, attended Harvard Law School. “In Massachusetts, I was in the courtroom daily,” she recalled, and when she was invited to join Davis & Young, it needed a litigator who could hit the ground running. She added, “Between November 1983 and November 1984, I had seven common pleas jury trials.”

Today, Ms. Roller's peers describe her as a respected, hard-working trial lawyer and able advocate. Roger Synenberg, a litigator who once served as chairman of the Cuyahoga County Republican Party, describes Ms. Roller's advantage in the courtroom succinctly: “Experience, experience, experience.” For her part, Ms. Roller said she finds trial work exciting and likens going into a trial to putting on a theatrical production. Liberal leanings and defense clients typically do not go together. Asked how she balances the two, Ms. Roller said she sees the law as an avenue to fairness and justice. She said she often tells juries if they award a judgment, to award what is fair and no more. Plaintiffs and their lawyers typically seek more than that, she said.

Ms. Roller said she might have become a teacher, but Mr. Abbott suggested she might enjoy the law. The two met in high school in Fremont, Ohio. They attended Denison University together on their way to becoming a Cleveland power couple; Mr. Abbott is executive director of the Gund Foundation. They have three grown sons, between ages 23 and 27, all working or attending school outside Northeast Ohio. Known as a mentor to younger women in finding work-life balance, Ms. Roller credits her ability to pursue her career and interests to shared values with Mr. Abbott and the help of their nanny. She also has a new goal in her legal career: She wants to serve as a mediator on an increasing basis.

Notes for David Thomas Abbott:

September 27, 2021 - As he retires as president of the George Gund Foundation at the end of the year, David Abbott will step into a new role in 2022 as the inaugural Distinguished Jurist in Residence at the Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Law school Co-Deans Jessica Berg and Michael Scharf announced the new post when they presented Abbott and his wife, Jan Roller, with the school's annual Humanitarian Award at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum. The event on Sept. 24 marked the university's 30th anniversary of the Frederick K. Cox International Law Center. With its Gund Foundation endowment, the Cox Center has emerged as a nationally ranked institution, whose work has been cited by international courts and nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize by an international prosecutor.

“The Cox Center was endowed with a gift from the Gund Foundation in 1991, so it's fitting that we select the foundation's former president—as well as an incredibly active member in our community—as our first Distinguished Jurist in Residence,” Berg said. Abbott boasts a storied career. He earned his law degree at Harvard University and a master's degree at Columbia University. Before joining the Gund Foundation in 2003, Abbott served as president of University Circle Inc., executive director of the Rock Hall and executive director of the Cleveland Bicentennial Commission. Early in his career, Abbott worked as a reporter for The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His wife, Jan Roller (LAW '79), who shared the Humanitarian Award, has also been a leading light in Cleveland, having served as chair of the Cleveland – Cuyahoga County Port Authority, president of The City Club of Cleveland, president of the Cleveland Bar Foundation, president of the Near West Theatre and a longtime board member of both the Refugee Response and Planned Parenthood. “Having David join the School of Law is a perfect fit,” Scharf said. “Our objective in establishing the Distinguished Jurist in Residence initiative is to bring a recently retired executive, judge or government official to campus each year to enrich student learning, aid in faculty development, advise the deans and engage with alumni.”

As part of the new role at the law school, Abbott will serve as a special advisor to the deans. He also will be invited to join faculty on the platform at the law school's commencement, lead a group discussion in his areas of expertise, followed by dinner with select faculty and students; he'll also be assigned an office in the law school to be accessible to students. "It is a tremendous honor to join the School of Law in this capacity as its first Distinguished Jurist in Residence," Abbott said. "Throughout my career, I've worked to make Cleveland, and our country, a better place to live. I look forward to continuing that work in this new role."

Katrene Diane¹³ Gall (Albert Erwin¹², Herman Frederick¹¹, Regina (Rachel)¹⁰ Staebler, Margaretha (Mary)⁹ Roller, Johann Jakob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Andreas⁵, Onomus (Hieronimus)⁴, Martin³, Hieronymus², Caspar¹) was born 23 Nov 1944. She married Robert Lynn Starling, Jr. 22 Jun 1963 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Robert Lynn Starling, Sr.. He was born 12 May 1942.

Notes for Katrene Diane Gall:

Another family name that has thrice been represented on the long list of Miss Saline winners is the Starlings. Katrene Gall Starling won the Miss Saline title in 1961 when, as she states, "there were only three things for girls to do and competing to be Miss Saline was one of them." Katrene notes that her family was deeply involved in the Saline Fair beginning with her father, Albert Gall, who served as president of the Fair Board for a number of years. This, she says, could be a reason why the Miss Saline Pageant is so important to them. DeeDe Starling Bormann, Katrene's daughter, wore the Miss Saline crown in 1981 and she also recalls the fair as being an important part of her formative years in Saline. "I feel like I've grown up at the fair," claims DeeDe. "She remembers taking Stacey's baby picture to the fair and entering it in a competition."

Stacey, 'DeeDe's sister, captured the Miss Saline honor two years later in 1983. She and Beth Vogel were friends who attended the Wendy Ward modeling program sponsored by Montgomery Ward. According to Dorothy Vogel, the classes taught the girls poise and modeling techniques. "The girls all loved fashion from an early age," says Dorothy. According to their mother, Katrene, "Stacey always said she wasn't going to compete to be Miss Saline.

However, as fate would have it, she didn't have a basketball game, in which she was the captain, scheduled for the Friday of the pageant, so she decided to enter." Stacey wrote a fashion show for her talent, according to Katrene. She made her gown along with four other outfits that some of her friends modeled. DeeDe's talent was a ladies lead with wool, where she sewed a purple wool suit and showed a sheep.

Katrene reflected on the night that her girls won the crown: "We were extremely proud. They were two wonderful evenings and even my father was able to be there with us." Katrene doesn't recall if she was nervous on the night she was named Miss Saline 1961, however, she says her daughters remained calm and collected. "Everything they had done them for the competition.

Their involvement in 4-H, meeting people, making friends, playing sports; everything they had done, helped them to not be nervous." The Saline Fair has been woven in the fabric of the community for years and Katrene recognizes it as a "great place to go as a family and see the agriculture side of Michigan." "Michigan still generates products we use every day and sometimes we forget just how much this state produces," says Katrene. She adds, "The fair is one of the few places where families can introduce their kids to animals." Overall, Katrene, who serves as chairperson for the Former Miss Saline Association, viewed the pageant on Sept. 2 as a success. "It was great. It was like putting on two pageants at a time," says Katrene.

The event marked the 55th anniversary of the Miss Saline Pageant and many of the Former Miss Saline winners were on hand for the festivities. "We were very pleased to see how it came together," says Katrene. Starling acknowledges that being named Miss Saline is exciting to the girls because they are able to represent the community that they hold so dearly to their hearts.

That's exactly what Nicole Stegenga said on the night she was named Miss Saline 2003. In our newly elected Miss Saline's words, "I am very excited to represent my community, visit other communities and act as a role model for the youth of Saline." Nicole was awarded Miss South Central Michigan Teen USA in July 2003, which qualifies her to compete for the title of Miss Michigan Teen USA. The competition will be held the weekend of Sept. 25-27 at the McMorran Place Theater in Port Huron. Nicole, the daughter of Jerry and Laurie Stegenga, is a junior at Saline High School. She is a majorette in the Saline High marching band, a member of the National Honor Society, Saline Twirlettes, Future Leaders, and SADD. She also is a gold honor roll student at SHS and is an AAU gold medalist in twirling. Friends are welcome to attend the pageant to support Nicole.

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:

Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms
By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their live.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. "We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

Notes for Ronald Ernest Mann:

The Manchester Enterprise - Thursday, May 14, 2009 - By Daniel Lai, Staff Writer

After 14 years serving as special assessment coordinator for the Washtenaw County Water Resources Commission, local resident Ron Mann is stepping down. I have a lot of things I would like to do and this affords me the ability to take some time for myself," he said. Mann, who was also recently elected to another four-year term as supervisor for Manchester Township, said his retirement from the county will allow him more time to spend in the township.

"I have worked two jobs for the last 20 years and the supervisor position has been a lot more demanding recently," he said. "I wouldn't say I will have more time, but by working one job, I can spend less nights and Saturday mornings in the township office." Mann said over the years he has come to enjoy his responsibilities as a special assessment coordinator. "I enjoy working with the county and local units of government," he said. "I also enjoy working with people."

Mann said his interest in politics and a knack for crunching numbers led him to apply for the position over a decade ago. "With my assessment training in the township, this job fit right in," he said. "I've always been a numbers person and with my background, this jump seemed a logical step for me." However, he said he didn't expect to remain with the county as long as he has.

"I didn't figure I would be here for 14 years," he said. "The average person goes through seven different careers in their life; maybe I have a few more left." As an assessment coordinator, Mann is responsible for determining how to allocate the cost of sewer repairs to the county's 500 drain districts. "Anytime we do work on a drain -- from dredging to clearing out trees -- the costs are appropriated to the district that the sewer is located in. It's my responsibility to come up with a fair and equitable system that can work with the township governments," he said.

Each year the Water Resources Commission handles $1.5 to $2 million in sewer work which is spread over 60 to 85,000 parcels of land and 100 districts. "I have enjoyed working at the county and I will miss the people, but I will be around," Mann said. One accomplishment Mann is proud of is the number of interns that have gone on to find jobs across the country. "I've had 54 interns that have worked with me and almost everyone of them said they were able to get a job because of their experience in Washtenaw County," he said. "Real world experience gave them the insight they needed to succeed."

Mann's last official day will be May 21. A special retirement party will be held at noon at the Washtenaw Western Service Center, 705 N. Zeeb Road; Ann Arbor. With more free time, Mann said he looks forward to spending time with his six grandkids and traveling with his wife. He also plans to continue volunteering at the Manchester Chicken Broil and Manchester Fair. "I will definitely be hanging around the community," he said. Editor Daniel Lai can be reached at 428-8173 or dlai@heritage.com.

He married Pearl Catherine Roman. She was born 01 Jan 1939 in Hamtramck, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 22 May 2020.

Notes for Timothy Gordon David Kraft:

Timothy Gordon David Kraft passed away peacefully on October 14, 2021, after a long struggle with Alzheimer's. Tim was born on May 26, 1937, in East Lansing, Michigan to Robert and Jane Ann Kraft. From an early age, Tim knew he wanted to attend the University of Michigan. It was there that amongst the beautifully designed buildings on the Michigan campus that Tim not only obtained his Architectural Degree but also met the love of his life, Pearl (Roman) on a blind date. It only took a few dates, for Pearl to capture Tim's heart, and ultimately became his wife and life partner of 59 years. As a young and inexperienced student, Tim attended an Architectural Conference held in Southern California. Little did he know at the time, but this conference introduced Tim to his future home. Upon graduation, Tim and his new bride, Pearl, joined the migration to the Golden State. They settled in Anaheim and were soon blessed with three children, Debra, Diana, and Cameron. After starting his career with a large Architectural firm in Los Angeles, Tim longed to be his own boss and started his own business where he was best known for designing motels and commercial buildings in the Disneyland area. As his practice grew, Tim soon realized that his true love was designing custom homes. His talents as an artist and draftsman, along with his colorful renderings of what Tim called, "his pretty pictures" often won him the project. One of Tim's final projects before being stricken with Alzheimer's was designing his own custom home in Anaheim Hills. Tim always found time to play an active role in his children's lives and supported his church and community. He was active in the Rotary Club for many years where he met many life-long friends. Tim and Pearl were also very active in the Krewe of Komus, which was a New Orleans style social club that held an annual Mardi Gras Ball. It was at the Krewe of Komus, that Tim also discovered he was an accomplished stage set designer. Despite the hectic pace of life, Tim and Pearl still found time to travel the world together, and he always made time to explore and study the architecture of each place they visited. Tim lived a good life, and perhaps, one of Tim's Architectural hero's I.M. Pei once said it best, "Architecture is the very mirror of life. You only have to cast your eyes on buildings to feel the presence of the past, the spirit of the place and the reflection of society".

Tim was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Pearl, and son, Cameron; and is survived by his sister Gina (Klco); daughters, Debra (La Berge) and Diana (Krekel); sons-in-law, Roland, and Phil; and grandchildren, Amanda, Alec, Justin, and Jillian.

The family wishes to thank family friend and caregiver, Jennifer Harrison, the Memory care staff at Oakmont, and the Hospice Team for their loving support during his final days. A Graveside Service will be held at the Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Orange on Tuesday, November 9, 2021. In lieu of flowers, a charitable donation can be made to the Alzheimer's Association or the American Heart Association.

Notes for Pearl Catherine Roman:

Pearl Catherine (Roman) Kraft passed away to be with our Lord on May 22, 2020. Pearl was born to Sophia and Walter Roman in Hamtramck, Michigan on January 1, 1939. Pearl wanted to be a nurse and she wanted to attend college. She accomplished both of her life's wishes at the University of Michigan. It was at the University of Michigan that Pearl met another fellow "Wolverine" on a blind date, Timothy Gordon Kraft. Tim would later become Pearl's life love and husband for 59 years. The new college graduates soon married and sought a new life in California where they prospered as life-long residents of Anaheim. Soon, Pearl and Tim would be blessed with three children, Debra, Diana and Cameron. World travel became a great part of Pearl's life. So much so, she left nursing to become a Travel Agent. The flexibility of being a Travel Agent allowed Pearl to better balance her family's needs, advance her career, and provide even greater opportunities to travel the world. Pearl was devoted to her family and friends. She loved Bowling, playing Bridge and Bunco, and attending Broadway Plays.

Pearl was preceded in death by her son, Cameron; and is survived by her husband, Timothy, daughters Debra La Berge (Roland), Diana Krekel (Phil), and four grandchildren, Amanda, Alec, Justin and Jillian. In her later years, Pearl was greatly assisted by her family friend and caregiver, Jennifer Harrison.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions and concern for the safety of family and friends, a private burial was held on June 15th. A celebration of Pearl's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, a charitable donation can be made to the University Of Michigan School Of Nursing, the Alzheimer's Association, or another charity of your choice. McAulay & Wallace Mortuary

Notes for Cameron Michael Kraft:

Cameron Michael Kraft, 41, a longtime resident of Anaheim, passed away on Monday, June 22, 2009. Cameron was born July 27, 1967 to Pearl and Timothy Kraft. Throughout his life, he made many friends and touched many hearts. It was his compassionate nature and zest for life that drew people to him. Cameron loved to ride motorcycles, fish, fly remote control helicopters and just hang out with friends. He earned a living working with his hands as a long-time employee of Dicksons Air Conditioning & Heating of Anaheim.

Cameron is survived by his mother, Pearl Kraft; his father, Timothy Kraft; his grandfather, Walter Roman; his two sisters, Debra LaBerge and Diana Krekel; and nieces and nephews, Amanda LaBerge, Alec La Berge, Justin Krekel and Jillian Krekel.

Ronald Peter Beck, 70, passed away June 7, 2017, doing what he loves best, working on his boat. He was born July 18, 1946 to Peter Beck and Alice Kelly Beck in Detroit, Michigan. He started working at an early age shining shoes in his father's barber shop. He went to a military high school and joined the Navy after graduation. He served on the USS Kitty Hawk between 1964 and 1968, during the Vietnam campaign. During his work years he was a top producing Real Estate Broker, salesman and customer favorite, highly-trusted car salesman, and an HVAC service man to name a few of his career positions before becoming a U. He was the grandfather of Braden Beck. Captain Ron did not give his friendship lightly, and when he took a liking to you, rest assured that Grizzly bear would always have your back. He reminded us to laugh at life, in spite of challenges, how to prioritize between our wants versus needs. He showed us to live, learn, and love life with 'perfect peace.' His smile, laugh, and charm would light up any room he entered. He was a tough guy on the outside with a heart of gold for those he loved and adored. Most specifically he was a model of honor, gentility, and chivalry to his wife Jennifer Jones Beck.
