He married Margery Jane DeFord 15 Mar 1958. She was born 21 Dec 1935, and died 10 Sep 2019.

Notes for Donald Steven Hauck:

Donald Steven Hauck, a man of faith, left this earthly life on April 24, 2021 in the faithful arms of his Heavenly Father, wrapped in the love of his adoring children, and cherished by his many, many friends. Don was born in Medina, Ohio on November 25, 1934 to Arthur and Lucille Hauck. He grew up in the tiny town of Valley City and worked from an early age at the Hauck family-owned Soda Grill. After his parents divorced, he lived with his grandmother, father and beloved older brother Bill. He contracted polio at age 6 and spent seventeen formative weeks in the hospital. His leadership skills were first recognized when he was elected Student Body President of his sixteen-member high school graduating class.

The first in his family to attend college, Don matriculated at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he pledged Phi Gamma Delta (PGD) fraternity. After graduating, he travelled across the US for a year in his Volkswagen Beetle representing PGD (also known as "Fiji") and was offered several fraternity-related positions at major universities. Don had other plans: he had decided to pursue the ministry when he was sixteen years old and had set his sights on attending the prestigious Princeton Theological Seminary. There he fell in love with and married the only woman in the Master of Divinity program, Margery Jane DeFord of Atlanta, Georgia. Their wedding took place on March 15, 1958 in Marge's home church. The two were happily and devotedly married for 62 years, until Marge's death in 2019. Don served as minister to Presbyterian churches in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Pampa, Texas and Richardson, Texas. He loved "bringing in the Kingdom" as a Senior Minister, but ultimately chose to forego the eighty-hour work weeks he required of himself. In 1970 the Hauck family settled in Austin, where Don worked for Presbyterian Ministers Fund, using his spiritual and temporal gifts to advise clergy of all churches on financial matters. Later he served as Development Director for Presbyterian Children's Home and Services. As an ordained minister, he presided over countless weddings, funerals and worship services, and was a generous and active member of First Presbyterian Church of Austin.

Never idle, Don dedicated his life to helping his community through service and ministry. He gave his time and talents to many causes throughout his life, including the YMCA, Blood Center of Central Texas, Austin Resource Center for the Homeless (ARCH) and Interfaith Assistance Ministry in Hendersonville, North Carolina. Through First Presbyterian, his spiritual home of more than 50 years, he participated in the Cold Night Shelter program, CROP Hunger Walks, Habitat for Humanity, Mobile Loaves and Fishes, The Walk to Emmaus and countless other causes. His last volunteer job was at St. David's North Austin Medical Center, where, at 85, he pushed patients and new mothers in wheelchairs. Don was happiest when he was of service to others.

Don was an exceptional father, providing unwavering support and love to his four children: Steven, Amy, Doug and Sarah. He enjoyed being benign patriarch to an extended family that included Sarah's and Amy's spouses, his grandsons James, Sam and Will Seaton, and countless in-laws, nieces and nephews from both the Hauck and DeFord clans. He participated with his progeny in YMCA sports, Boy Scouts, Indian Guides, Indian Princesses and Little League. Don made true and lasting friendships wherever he went. He was famous for his empathy and hospitality; holidays always included at least one unattached friend or acquaintance whom Don and Marge had invited to share in the loving home they had created together. For many years they were at the center of an extraordinary group of friends from First Presbyterian who celebrated each other's birthdays and anniversaries with parties that featured elaborate skits, roasts and practical jokes.

Though not an athlete in his youth (because of his polio), Don later became an avid runner, swimmer and tennis player. His passions for energy conservation ("Who the heck left the lights on in here?") and public transportation ("Take the darn bus! The last thing Austin needs is another car on the road!") are legendary. He never asked anyone to do anything he wouldn't be willing to do himself, and left this earth a better place through his love, empathy and example. A celebration of Don's life will be held at First Presbyterian Church of Austin in early June. In lieu of flowers, please consider giving a gift in his memory to Presbyterian Children's Home and Services, Mobile Loaves and Fishes, or to the charity of your choice.

Notes for Margery Jane DeFord:

Margery DeFord Hauck, a woman of faith, left this life on September 10 in the Faithful arms of her Heavenly Father, surrounded by her adoring family, assisted by the wonderful folks at Hospice Austin and with the love of her many friends from church and the Conservatory of North Austin, where she and her husband Don made their home. Margery was born in Chattanooga, but raised in Atlanta. She is a graduate of Agnes Scott College and did graduate work at Princeton Theological seminary where she met her husband of 62 years, Don. Later, she would earn a masters degree from the University of Texas, where she also taught on an interim basis.

Margery was a wonderful and supportive mother to four grateful children; Steven, Amy, Doug and Sarah. In them all she instilled a strong sense of activism and love for the arts. Additionally, she was a loving mother-in-law to David and Patricia, and the best Marmoset ever to James, Sam, Will and Jessica. She also leaves behind her beloved sister, Patricia Hix, of Laurinburg, North Carolina. Charming, witty and friendly, Marge made friends wherever she went. She was a voracious reader and was always willing to learn something new. Her skills at trivia and other games were legendary, and her needlework extraordinary. An athlete most of her life, Marge was an avid sports fan. She loved the Texas Aggies, but first and foremost, her sport was baseball and her team was the Atlanta Braves. She even began summering in North Carolina to not only escape the Texas heat, but to be a little closer to Turner Field.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church for almost fifty years. A memorial service and reception is planned there on Saturday September 21, at 10:00 am. Memorial gifts would be welcomed by the First Presbyterian Mission Fund, 8001 Mesa Drive 78731 or Austin's Habitat For Humanity, 500 W. Ben White Blvd. Austin, Texas 78704.

Notes for John Grier Hauck:

There will be a memorial service for John G. Hauck on Saturday, September 17th, 2011 at Centenary United Methodist Church in Granville, Ohio with Pastor Steve Cramer officiating. Calling hours will be at 1 p.m. in Shepherd Hall adjacent to the sanctuary, and the service will follow at 2 p.m. After the service, there will be a light meal and time of fellowship and sharing of memories in Shepherd Hall. All are welcome to this celebration of life in memory of Mr. Hauck, who passed away in Naples, Florida on June 17th of 2011.

Notes for Marilyn Florence Kenyon:

Marilyn Florence Kenyon Hauck, age 92, went home to be with her Lord on Thursday, July 23rd, 2020. Her greatest wish was to be reunited with her husband of 64 years, John Grier Hauck, who passed away in 2011. We can only imagine the joy of that reunion. Marilyn was born on July 11, 1928 in Weymouth, Ohio in Medina County to Amy Kelley Kenyon and Clyde Arthur Kenyon. She was the youngest of 4 siblings. Her brother Bill Rayner, sisters Marge Kundrat, Betty Miller, and Marion, who died as an infant, preceded her in death. Marilyn's father had a debilitating stroke when she was a freshman in high school, so her desire to go to college and pursue a degree in either archeology or interior design never came to pass. Instead, she earned her PHT (Put Hubby Through) degree when she and the love of her life, her husband John, married in 1947 when she was 18. John then pursued his college degree in education at Ohio State while she worked for an insurance company in Columbus.

Her greatest joy was in raising her 4 children while spending countless hours in gardening and landscaping her many homes in Lucas, Butler, Granville, Newark, Naples and then her 'treehouse' apartment back in Granville. She was a very talented singer and soloist, as well as an artist who graced her children's homes with lovely paintings. She worked when her children grew older at the Ohio Baptist Convention in Granville, and later as the manager of the OSUN bookstore. She and John also helped to raise their grandson Shaun, whom they loved as if he were their own. Her greatest love even beyond her husband was for her Lord Jesus, and she was always ready to share her lifelong faith in Him with love and kindness for all.

Marilyn is survived by her children, Jon and Jan (Frye) Hauck of Hilton Head South Carolina, Mary and Bob Erhard of Granville Ohio, Jeffrey and Evelyn (Bullock) Hauck of Newark Ohio, and Marcia and Ross Jaquith of Naples, Florida. She adored her grandchildren, Shaun Hauck, Kelley (Paul) McCormack, Elizabeth (Tommy) Smith, Kristina (Erik) Olson, Anna (Brad) Sikora, and Tim (Stephanie) and Andy Jaquith. She is also survived by her beloved great grandchildren Raegan McCormack, Edward and Michelle Olson, Connor and Brooke Smith, Hiestand, Carrington, and Bodie Sikora, Olivia and Emma Jaquith, as well as nieces Penny Zeeff and Nancy Koenig. Her helper and friend, Barb Scholten, deserves a very special thank you for her loving kindness as does Middleton Senior Living, who treated her as a family member.

A family memorial service will be held at a later date. Gifts in honor of Marilyn can be made to Hospice of Central Ohio. The help and comfort provided by nurse Mary, Courtney Merce, and Pastor Mark will never be forgotten.
