He married Mary Viola Hough 25 Dec 1915 in Ceresco, Calhoun Co, Michigan; born 23 Jan 1894 in Michigan; died 25 Jan 1992 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Clifton Frederick Lutz:

Clifton Lutz was a farmer in the Ceresco area all his life. He was a hard working man and an efficient farmer. Mary (Hough) took china painting lessons upon completing high school. She has kept up on painting through the years, and, at present, she gives lessons on china painting. When the telephone office was located in Ceresco, Mary was an operator for about two years. She is also a faithful worker in her church. Mary was a deeply kind and beloved woman who was known for decades as "Aunt Mary" to everyone in her community. They had no children. Note: Clifton and his brother, Russell Michael Lutz, married sisters, Mary and Edna Hough.

Ceresco - Clifton F. Lutz, 67, lifelong resident of the Ceresco vicinity, died at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday Nov. 12, 1957 in Battle Creek where he had been a patient for two weeks. He had been in poor health for three years. Mr. Lutz was born Nov. 10, 1890, in Fredonia Township, son of Fred and Ada (DeKoeyer) Lutz, and was married Dec. 12, 1915 to Mary V. Hough. He was a retired farmer. Surviving besides his wife are three brothers, George E., Russell N. and Arthur E., all of Ceresco.

Ceresco, Sept. 27, 1964 - The old Lutz family farm, purchased by Fred Lutz in 1908, has been sold by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clifton Lutz, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Abrahamson of 157 Fairway Dr., Battle Creek. The deal includes the tenant house where Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Iler and family have lived for 25 years, operating the farm since March 1, 1957. A story about the farm was related in a paper written by the late Caroline (Beardslee) Cameron for the Marshall News in 1909, and kept by the Lutz family all these years.

Under the head, "Discover Another White Family," the newspaper account tells about a Mr. and Mrs. Stiles and their family who lived on a small shanty on the property in 1832 when this area was all wilderness. According to Mrs. Cameron's report, the Stiles' children were at play one day when they saw two white women and a child riding horseback. They ran to tell their mother, who replied "They must be Indians," as she knew of no white settlers in the area. The women, however, were not Indians. They were Mrs. Grenville Beardsell and her sister who was visiting from Rochester, New York, at Beardsell home on what is now the Vern Peck farm. When the women left to return home from visiting at the Stiles farm, Mr. Stiles followed them, blazing the trail with an ax, and thus marking for future use a road between the two houses. This old Stiles farm was the one which Fred Lutz bought in 1908. The family lived there until Mr. Lutz built a bungalow on the edge of the farm, next door to an old friend, Simary Phelps, who operated the grocery store in Ceresco.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz's children were Dora, who married Dr. R. M. Gubbins of Ceresco, and George, Clifton, Russell and Arthur. In 1944 Mr. Lutz sold 185 acres of his farm to his son, Clifton, who later bought 80 more acres. All the buildings were newly built during 1945-1950, and a new brick house was built in 1948. Clifton Lutz died in 1957.

During the summers of 1960, 1961 and 1963, the farm was visited by youngsters from Friendship Home at Hamtramck, who each year spend a wonderful day watching cows being machine milked, seeing baby pigs and calves, riding on ponies, hay wagons, motor boats, and rafts, and swimming in the Kalamazoo river.

Now that her house is sold, Mrs. Lutz, called "Aunt Mary" by most area children, plans to build a smaller house on a lot reserved for her in the transaction, adjoining the house of her brother, John Hough, where a creek runs to the Kalamazoo River between the two lots. On the other side of the Houghs' lives Russell Lutz and his wife, Edna.

Notes for Donna Altize Lutz:

Battle Creek – Two persons were killed in the head-on collision of two car on the Emmett Street road just west Gorsline Road intersection at 1:20 p.m. Sunday Sept. 21, 1952. The dead are Clair F. Porter, 62, Route 5, one of the drivers, and Mrs. Donna Lucas, 56, of 60 South Broad, wife of the other driver, Jesse Lucas, 58, of the Broad Street address, the other driver, was reported as in fair condition at Leila hospital today. He suffered a fractured leg and severe head injuries. Mr. Lucas was driving westward on Emmett and Mr. Potter eastward when, for some unknown reason. Mr. Potter's car swerved into the path of the Lucas car and they crashed head-on. All three persons were taken to Leila hospital. Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Potter were pronounced dead on arrival. The deaths were the 26th and 27th in Calhoun County from traffic since the first of the year. Dr. Willard N. Putman, coroner, said that both persons died of multiple fractures and internal injuries but an autopsy was performed this morning to determine the exact cause of Mr. Potter's death. No decision about inquests has been made as yet.

Mr. Potter, who had resided in Convis Township for the past two years, was a mason and small contractor. He had lived most of his life in and around Battle Creek. He was born in Fennville, March 11, 1890, son of Alexander and Mary Jane (McDerby) Potter, and married Marvia Carney Nov. 10, 1944, in Battle Creek.

Surviving besides the wife are three daughters, Kathleen K. and Rozanna and Rebecca, twins, all at home; three sons, David, Arthur and Arnold, also at home, and five brothers, Perry E. of Lansing, Lloyd of Newton, Lavern of 81 Yale, Donald D. of Pennfield Township and Paul C. of 34 Chambers.

The body is at the Hebble funeral home, but arrangements for services have not been completed. Mrs. Lucas, a lifelong resident of the Battle Creek area, was born August 18, 1896, in Fredonia Township, daughter of Michael and Clara (Abbott) Lutz.

She and Jesse W. Lucas were married Dec. 24, 1912, in Newton Township and they had resided at the Broad Street address for the past 11 years. Mr. Lucas was a member of the Maple Methodist church and the Shafer circle of the church.

Surviving besides the husband are here mother, Mrs. Clara Lutz of Ceresco; three daughters, Thomas (Katherine) Boehlke of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Merlin (Thelma) Hess of Santa Anna California, and Mrs. Ernest (Arleta) Banner of North Stone, Wattles Park; one sister, Mrs. Laurence Spooner of Ceresco; two brothers, Harold Lutz of Athens and Carlton Lutz of Dowling, and two grandchildren, David Boehlke and Janon Kay Banner. The daughter from California, Mrs. Hess, and her husband left here a few days before the accident to drive back to their home, after visiting her parents. They located in Colorado, notified of Mrs. Lucas' death, and are on their way back here.

The body is at the Farley funeral home and services are scheduled at 2 p. m. Thursday, with burial in Newton cemetery.

Battle Creek, Sept. 23, 1952 – A brain tumor and a resulting stroke affecting one of the drivers caused the fatal accident in which two persons died and a third was badly injured Sunday afternoon. A post-mortem examination yesterday on the body of Clair F. Potter, 62, of Route 5, the driver who swerved from his side of the road on Emmett near the Gorsline Road, showed he suffered from a large brain tumor, according to Dr. Willard N. Putnam, coroner. The doctor said the cause of death was the tumor and resulting hypertension rather than injuries suffered in the crash.

Mrs. Donna Lucas, 56, of 60 South Broad, passenger in the other car driven by her husband, Jesse, died in the collision. Mr. Lucas was seriously hurt. State police said witnesses saw Mr. Potter suddenly swerve his car into the path of the Lucas car.

Services for Mr. Potter will be at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Hebble funeral home, conducted by the Rev. Earl Kelbaugh, and burial will be in Reese cemetery. Mr. Potter and his wife, the former Mania Carney, were married in 1943, and lived in Emmett Township the last eight years.

Marriage Notes for Neva Lutz and John Rocho:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lutz in Ceresco was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon Aug. 5, 1924 at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Neva G. Lutz and John LaVern Rocco of Newton Township were united in marriage. About 30 relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Quinton S. Walker, pastor of the First M. E. Church. The home was elaborately decorated with garden flowers and greenery, a wedding arch of ferns and evergreens being arranged in a corner of the living room where the ceremony took place. The bride wore a pretty gown of Champaign, trimmed with rhinestone braid and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and bebe's breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Beulah Lutz, while the groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Dennie Sterns.

Following a brief reception, an elaborate three course dinner was served by Mrs. Christian Lutz, a cousin of the bride. Many lovely and useful gifts were received. The young people left later for a motor trip to the "Soo." The groom is an employee of the Grand Trunk and upon their return they will live in Ceresco. The out of town guests were Miss Minerva Parker of Battle Creek and the Misses Marion and Pauline Rogers of Albion. Among the prenuptial parties which have been given for the bride was a picnic last Friday evening, given by 12 of the girls from the bran department of Postum Cereal in Willard park, Goguac Lake. A trip around the lake in a launch with swimming and boating were the diversions. A cooperative supper was served and Mrs. Flora Woodworth, in behalf of the company, presented the bride with a handsome bedspread.

Burt Kenneth<sup>8</sup> Lutz (Burt Louis (Bert)<sup>7</sup>, Charles Friedrich<sup>6</sup>, Simon (Samuel)<sup>5</sup>, Christina Katharina<sup>4</sup> Luz, Anna Catharina<sup>3</sup> Hermann, Johann Conrad<sup>2</sup>, Johann Conrad<sup>1</sup>) was born 22 Mar 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 11 Dec 1994 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Elizabeth Louise (Betty) Laubengayer 18 Jan 1942 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Oscar Laubengayer and Veronica Braun. She was born 03 Sep 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Jan 2009 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Burt Kenneth Lutz:

"When Burt Lutz Jen Main Street, part of Main Street went with him. He was an institution here, a kind man, a gentle man, the eternal optimist, a good counselor, a gentleman. We won't see his kind again." That tribute to the Jong-lime operator of the Quality Bakery at South Main and East William Streets comes from an old friend, Dave Sager, partner in the Fiegel's Men's Store, across the street from the old bakery site. Lutz was 74 when he died Sunday Dec. 11, 1994 at SL Joseph Mercy Hospital after a long illness.

"Burt made tremendous contributions in energy, ideas and money to downtown Ann Arbor," Sager recalls. "He was the nicest, most sensitive businessman I ever knew. He was even-tempered, mild-mannered. And he never let things get to him. I never heard anyone say a negative thing about Burt Lutz. He'd encourage you, show you how to look at the bright side, just convince you by his manner, by his spirit that things would work out. He was a prince of a man. Everyone who ever met him will miss him. And remember him."

The deaths of his father-in-law, Oscar Laubengayer, and his sister-in-law, Luella, brought Burt Lutz and his wife, Betty, into the bakery business in 1974. Laubengayer had founded the Quality Bakery with a partner, Ferdinand Drebes in 1920 and became sole owner on Drebes' death in 1949. When Oscar Laubengayer died in 1964, his daughter, Luella, took over the business. When she died in 1974, Bert and Betty Lutz became owners and operators. They kept and enhanced the reputation of the Quality Bakery, by putting in crushing work hours with days beginning at 3 a.m. so the freshly baked goods would be ready for the morning crowd. In addition to the walk-ins, Quality Bakery supplied a half-dozen businesses including the University of Michigan.

school house. Alberta saw the first automobiles and television sets. Her family survived the depression days, in part, by owning and working a local grocery store/gas station which also offered meals to visitors. She worked at King Sealys and in the kitchen of an elite dormitory at University of Michigan. She married and moved to Grand Haven. Her life then centered around the joy of raising her family of three children and watching her family tree grow to include seventeen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

She grew with the history of Grand Haven, enjoying the beauty of this area. She favored the Musical Fountain, The Coast Guard Festivals, walks in Duncan Woods and the Harbor Boardwalk, Fricano pizza, ice cream cones and the trolley rides become traditions. Also, making seven different houses a home in Grand Haven became an easy task for her. Alberta enjoyed crafts, sewing and writing poetry. She was an expert at growing beautiful, healthy flowers and earned awards in flower arranging contests. She taught Sunday School and Cub Scouts and participated in choirs and entertained by playing the piano and violin.

Besides being a winning contestant in Bake Off entries, special home baked treats, in her immaculate home, were shared with those who lived with her or came for a visit. She always had time to lend an ear over a cup of tea with many who loved her. The neighborhood coffee clutches were always attended and many smiles and stories were shared there by a special group of friends. Alberta spent many years working at Medallion Instrument, Inc. Robbinswood and several home care and nursing facilities in this community. She was a gifted caretaker and cared deeply about her family, friends and acquaintances around her. Dr. Eugene F. Dice "Gene", once called the "Daniel Boone of the Land Use Education Committee and a pioneer district natural resource agent" by Michigan State University's Natural Resources monthly newsletter, passed away peacefully on January 2, 2013 in Ludington, Michigan. Gene was born on May 8, 1922 on a very humble farm in Midland County Michigan. He was the third of four sons who took lettuce sandwiches to school and picked berries if they wanted pies. Through odd jobs he was able to save enough money for flying lessons and received his pilot's license in 1940. In 1942, he enrolled at Michigan State University and enlisted in the Army ROTC program. In 1943, Gene was called to active duty in the Pacific Theater where he served his country until the end of the war.

In 1946, Gene returned to MSU to resume his studies. While at MSU he met his future wife Emergene M. Ernst of Saline, Michigan and they were married on August 26, 1947. Gene earned his B.A. degree in agricultural Engineering in 1949. In 1955, he returned to East Lansing and earned his MA degree from his alma mater. Even though Gene received his Doctorate in Adult Education from the University of Michigan in 1965, he remained a green and white fan his entire life.

Gene spent his career working for Michigan State University in the Extension Service. First as a Field Agent in Muskegon County where his first two sons were born and then on to Genesee County where his last son was born. After receiving his doctorate, he took a position as Professor and Extension Specialist at MSU in the Department of Resource Development and Parks and Recreation. During the late 1960's and into the 1980's Gene continued in this role while working on a number of special projects such as involvement of the introduction of the Coho Salmon to the Great Lakes and charter boat and marina industries, assisting Michigan's private campground owners become more established and profitable, assisting in the initialization of the National Thunder Bay Underwater Shipwreck Park in Alpena, and determining the effects of the snowmobile industry on Michigan's farms. Gene also chaired the Suburban Conservation Society of America, chaired the Farmers Week resource development programs, and chaired the first field agent training school in resource development.

Gene was always an outdoors man, enjoying hunting and fishing. He was always in the woods with his sons on November 15th and for a time had a membership in a fishing camp in Canada. He also loved gardening and was able to develop a new super sweet strain of apples on his 1/4-acre lot in East Lansing. He was a very giving person and helped each of his sons build their homes as well as sitting on his Lutheran Church building committees over the years. After retirement from MSU in 1984 he spent his time helping the church, spending time with family members, gardening, hunting, and fishing.

Gene was preceded in death by his parents Fred and Clara Dice of Midland, a brother Kenneth Dice, his wife Emergene Dice in 2005, and grandson Brandon Andrew Dice. He is survived by his brothers Garold Dice of Midland and Robert Dice of Hart, sons Stephen, Scott, and Ronald., daughter in laws, Kathie, Carolyn, Cynthia, four grandchildren, Derek, Carli, Rhonda, and Ron Jr., and two great grandchildren.

As Gene and Emergene both donated their bodies to the MSU Medical program for education, there will be no service at this time. Gene and Emergene will be laid to rest together later this year and a life celebration will be held for both at that time. The family has entrusted funeral arrangements to Oak Grove Funeral Home & Cremation Center in Ludington.

Burial: Jan 1993, Bethlehem Cemetery Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Notes for Anne Louise Hein:

Anne Louise Gebhardt, age 88, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, went peacefully into the arms of her Lord on February 8, 2015. She passed away after a long illness, still residing in the home built by her loving husband and children. Anne was born Anastasia Constantine Savas on August 6, 1926 in Buffalo, NY to Lazarus K. Savas and Charlotte Ella Hein. As a child the family moved first to Detroit, where her brother G. William Hein (Karel) and sister Victoria Shumaker (Jack) were born. They preceded her in death. Before reaching school age, the family moved to Ann Arbor, where Anne attended Mack and Bach Elementary, Slauson and Tappan Junior High, and finally Ann Arbor High School. The separation and divorce of her parents in 1933 was a traumatic event for her and thrust her into the role of caring for her younger siblings while her mother worked to put food on the table. Together with Bill and Vickie, newly renamed Anne Louise Hein sold papers, delivered laundry, babysat and sold sandwiches at football games to help her mother Lottie maintain the household. Anne was also saddened by a lifelong separation from many of her cousins and relatives on her father's side of the family after the divorce. She was however, delighted to reconnect with her cousins in her later years following the death of her mother. To help support her family, she cut short her senior year in high school and entered the workforce as a telephone operator at Michigan Bell in Ann Arbor. She was President of the Women's Traffic Division of the Union local, and was active during the start of the Communications Workers of America (CWA), attending the first convention in 1947.

She met her husband, Robert G. Gebhardt on a picket line at Michigan Bell on Huron Street during the CWA strike of 1947. They were married on June 26, 1948 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor, MI. Robert preceded her in death in 1993. After the birth of her first son in 1949, she retired from full-time work to raise a family. She continued to work part-time as a telephone operator at the U of M Law Club for a few years but quit when it began to interfere with the children's bedtime rituals. Anne later became very active in the antiques business when necessity and her depression-era frugality started her out finding and refinishing furniture for her home. She frequented garage and estate sales, the Treasure Mart and second-hand shops looking for furniture finds and glass. She eventually became a serious collector and dealer in antique pattern glass and had a booth at the first Ann Arbor Antiques Market and for many years thereafter. Anne loved her children and was a strong advocate for their education, taking part in their schooling and school support organizations. As a good role model, years after her premature departure from high school, she took a night course in History at Pioneer High School to make up remaining credits and received her own high school diploma in the late 1960's. She was also a woman of strong faith and was active at St. Paul's Lutheran Church where she was confirmed on May 25, 1941. Her favorite passage was Isaiah 54:10: "Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you. After the death of her husband, she found much comfort and friendship at Peace Lutheran Church, where she loved to attend worship services and special events. Together Anne and Bob imbued their children with the faith, love and respect that they found in their church.

Anne is survived by her sons David R. Gebhardt (Sherry), Thomas A. Gebhardt (Betsy), Bruce G. Gebhardt, daughter Julie A. Gebhardt and one granddaughter Lisa J. Gebhardt. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews and cousins on her father's side, whom she had not seen for many years.

Visitation for family and friends will be held on Thursday February 12th from 2:00 -4:00 PM and 6:00 - 8:00 PM at Nie Family Funeral Home, 3767 West Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, MI. A funeral service will be held on Friday February 13 at 11:00AM at Peace Lutheran Church, 8260 Jackson Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48103 followed by interment with her husband at Bethlehem Cemetery. Lansing, Feb. 20, 2006- A humble farmer and diligent worker, C. Gerald Haarer helped establish an agricultural empire at Michigan State University. As the first director of the MSU Land Management Department, Haarer oversaw the construction of the MSU Pavilion and enhanced the university's off-campus properties and facilities. Haarer, 71, died of congestive heart failure Friday at a hospital in Naples, Florida. He was surrounded by his wife, Jean, and their children and grandchildren. "His whole life and vision has been in agriculture and farms," said Haarer's daughter, Pam Collins of Windermere, Florida. "I've never met a harder working, humbler man who never wanted credit for anything."

Achieving a lifelong dream, Haarer saw the construction of the Pavilion for Agriculture and Livestock Education before he retired in 2000. The massive pavilion at Farm Lane and Mount Hope Road, built for $14.5 million, is now a staple of Spartan life, hosting hundreds of rodeos, shows, auctions and tournaments each year. As land management director, Haarer was in charge of research facilities at 44 sites with more than 20,000 acres in 28 counties. He came to Lansing to study at MSU, where he was a member of the livestock judging team, after graduating from Saline High School in 1952.

In 1957, he started a small meat processing plant with his father and brother. He later formed Mahogany Farms, which developed into Premier Cattle Corp., and then Manor Hill Farms, featuring an Angus cattle breeding program and Arabian horses. He became the first land management director at MSU in 1979. "Jerry's great impact was that he saw each of the MSU locations as a reflection of the university," said Roger Wilkinson, the former MSU vice president of finance, who worked with Haarer for 12 years. "He had a major responsibility and was a wonderful man to work with."

During his life he attended church there and also at Marshall Wesleyan Methodist Church. Gardening was a favorite and yearly pastime until he could no longer do it due to his health.

Notes for Jerry Lee Glubke:

Jerry L. Glubke, 86, a Battle Creek native and longtime resident, died on Wednesday, April 7, 2021, at Reflections Memory Care where he had lived a little more than two weeks. Jerry was born on February 28, 1935, in Battle Creek, the son of Joseph N. and Teresa A. (Lybarger) Glubke. He was a 1953 graduate of Battle Creek Central High School and also had attended the old Battle Creek Community College and Kellogg Community College.

Jerry worked for 35 years at the Carton and Container Division of Post Cereals, retiring in 1988. At C&C, he was in the accounting department for 21 years, rising to the role of budget supervisor. He then worked 14 years in the manufacturing department where he was the finishing-warehouse foreman. In August 1965, Jerry transferred to the Post plant in Saratoga Springs, New York, where he and his young family lived for about two years before returning to Battle Creek. Jerry was proud of his time at Post and, as a manager, always tried to treat others the way he wanted to be treated. Jerry was a member of the Post 25 Year Club. He served on the Board of Directors of the Post Employees Credit Union for 17 years, and was the treasurer for 15 of those years.

Jerry was a man of many passions and golf was perhaps his greatest passion of all. He was an outstanding golfer most of his adult life and, over the years, had been a member of Marywood Country Club, Bedford Valley Country Club, Riverside Country Club and Cedar Creek Country Club. He was proud of the fact that he shot in the low 70s much of his adult life. In August 2010, at the age of 75, he shot a hole-in-one on the 170-yard 11th hole at Cedar Creek, something he always regarded as a peak experience. Jerry also enjoyed watching boxing, football, basketball, and baseball. For several years in the 1970s, he coached Mike's little league team.

He was an avid music fan and almost always had music playing in the background. A trumpeter in his high school marching band, Jerry especially enjoyed jazz trumpet and swing music. He was a big fan of the Brass Band of Battle Creek and rarely missed a concert.

Jerry and Marion loved to travel and, in 2001, they took a trip to Italy and Switzerland to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. They also had traveled throughout the United States and Canada. They made dozens of trips to New York City to visit Mark and Jeff, and made numerous trips to Orange County, California, and Austin, Texas, to visit Mike and Jody and their family. For several years, Jerry and Marion spent part of each winter in Austin to be near Mike and his family.

Jerry always said that his family was the most important thing in his life and there was nothing he enjoyed more than family gatherings. He also had a keen interest in family history. He was proud of his Polish heritage and loved sharing memories of his Glubka (that was the original family name) ancestors from Minnesota. In 2013, Jerry and Mark took a genealogy trip to Minnesota to find ancestral sights and reconnect with cousins he had not seen in decades. Jerry was an animal lover and volunteered for years at the Humane Society of South-Central Michigan. He also loved antique cars (especially Kaiser and Chevrolet), mystery novels, Battle Creek history, Broadway theater, gangster movies of the 1930s and 1940s, and a good Reuben sandwich. Jerry was a warm, funny, humble and unpretentious man who was loved by all who knew him. He laughed easily and frequently, and genuinely seemed to enjoy his life. It is a testament to his character that several people outside the immediate family regarded him as an important father figure.

60 years ago this month, Jerry married the love of his life, the former Marion L. Lutz. Their wedding took place on April 22, 1961, in the Ceresco Baptist Church. In addition to Marion, Jerry is survived by his three children, Mark (Jeffrey White) Glubke of Kalamazoo, Mike (Jody) Glubke of Austin, Texas, and Kristen (Chad) Bevins of Battle Creek; six grandchildren, Sarah (Joe) Kelsey of Kansas City, Missouri, Allison (Rick) Downs of Battle Creek, Brandon Marsh of Kalamazoo, and Nolan, Jillian and Gracelyn Glubke, all of Austin, Texas; a sister-in-law, Marilyn Glubke of Battle Creek; and many nieces, nephews and friends. He was preceded in death by his brother and best friend, Louis C. Glubke.

A visitation will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday, April 16, at Farley-Estes Funeral Home. A celebration of Jerry's life will be held at noon Saturday, April 17, at Riverside Country Club. Burial will take place at Memorial Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the South Michigan Food Bank, the Humane Society of South-Central Michigan or the Alzheimer's Foundation of America.

Still in serious condition at University Hospital is John G. Bihlmeyer, 27, of 7926 Schneider Rd., who was rushed to the hospital in the Superior Ambulance Co. helicopter, Thursday Feb. 6, 1969, after ahead on auto crash. His wife, Sandra, also 27, was also injured in the mishap, and is reported in good condition at the hospital. The driver of the second car, Gary G. Paxton, 22, of Manchester, was released from the hospital on Friday. Exact cause of the accident was not known. Sheriff's deputies said Paxton's car, east bound on Austin Rd. near Parker Rd., apparently veered across the center line and struck the Bihlmeyer car head-on. Because of the severity of Bihlmeyer's injuries, deputies feared that ambulance transfer to the hospital might take too long; they called for the helicopter which is stationed in Wayne County. It arrived at the accident scene within a few minutes. Mrs. Bihlmeyer and Paxton were transported by ambulance.

Notes for Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka:

Ballston Spa - Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka, born Nov. 21, 1938, the son of Frank S. and Mary Zilka (deceased), passed away Monday, Jan. 7, 2013. He was the beloved father of his sons, Frank S. Zilka II and his wife, Suzanne, and grandchildren, Katie, Andrew and Jon; and Timothy R. Zilka. Zeke enjoyed a close relationship with his in-laws, the Mann family of Queensbury. He was predeceased by his wife, Jane Widmayer Flynn, and survived by his stepdaughter, Christine Flynn Curran and her husband, Dr. Joshua Curran.

Zeke graduated in 1956 from Johnstown High School, where he lettered in five sports per year. Prior to high school graduation, he was offered a scholarship to the University of Buffalo for football but chose to attend RIT for baseball and engineering and graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. As a starter at RIT in baseball, he drew the attention of major league scouts and received no less than seven opportunities in professional baseball.

In 1960, he married Olivette Bunner Williams, his lifelong friend and the mother of their two sons, Frank and Tim. She survives him. His athletic career after college included being an original member in 1962 of the Glove Cities Colonials semi-pro football team. He played semi-pro baseball with the Schenectady Kralcs through the '60s, and in 1968 he took up the game of golf. His golf career spanned 44 years, having won numerous area golf tournaments. He was a member of Edison Club, Mohawk Club, Glens Falls Country Club and Saratoga National Golf Club. In 1978, Zeke set a modern-day course record at Edison Club. Zeke qualified and played as an amateur in the BC open in Endicott and was low amateur for the tournament. Zeke was an avid skier and a certified member of Professional Ski Instructors of America. He was a member of the West Mountain and Gore Mountain ski schools. Zeke was an avid outdoor sportsman and a member of the Gooley Club since 1962. He received his pilot's license in 1964.

In 1960, he joined Schenectady Chemical Co., and in 1972 he joined Pneutronics Group Inc. as a sales engineer. In 1981, he struck out on his own and incorporated H2O Technology. His sons, Frank and Tim Zilka, joined their father in 1984 as partners and the three grew the business to a multi-state operation. That business was sold in 1992 to Waste Management. In 1993, he incorporated Tech Services International, a pipeline cleaning and consulting company in which he remained active until his passing. He felt that Obama and the present administration were out to destroy small business.

He never missed his sons' athletic endeavors, his granddaughter Katie's ski races or lacrosse games or his grandsons', Andrew's and Jon's, football games. He played golf and hunted with his sons and grandsons until he entered the hospital Dec. 12, 2012. He touched the lives of many people as an athlete, outdoorsman and entrepreneur. He was dearly loved and will be missed by many, including his beloved dogs.

Relatives and friends are invited to a celebration of his life at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 15, 2013, at Saratoga National Golf Club, 458 Union Ave., Saratoga Springs. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations in Zeke's name to Saratoga Hospital Foundation, 211 Church St., Saratoga Springs, New York 12866.

Notes for James Edward Erickson:

James Edward Erickson, 85, of Plymouth, Minnesota, passed away peacefully May 26, 2016. Jim was a caring, steadfast, loving father, husband and grandpa. Family was the most important thing to him and we loved him for it. Jim enjoyed extensive travel, especially to his motherland, Sweden, throughout his life. He was an avid gardener and enjoyed volunteering for numerous organizations including Habitat for Humanity, The American Swedish Institute and was a Rotarian for many years.

Jim served with the U.S. Army during the Korean War. After his military service, he graduated from Illinois Institute of Technology with a chemical engineering degree. His professional career spanned over 30 years at The Dow Chemical Co. Jim was born in Chicago, Illinois. and spent the majority of his adult life in Midland. After retirement, he moved to Plymouth, Minn. to be near family.

Jim is survived by his loving wife, Leanne; daughters, Lucinda Ross (Bob) and Amy Klump (Dave); and son, Cary Erickson (Dara). He was a fantastic grandfather to his grandchildren, Tamara Ross Fultcher, Mike Ross, Blair Erickson, Cole Erickson, Emily Klump, Andrew Klump and Ryan Klump.

Memorials can be made to The American Swedish Institute or Chippewa Nature in lieu of flowers. Due to the importance of family to Jim, we are planning a celebration of his life in late August when the whole family can be together in Minnesota.

Notes for Clois Bernard Worley:

Mr. Clois Bernard Worley, age 81, husband of Sandra Gray Lutz Worley, died on Wednesday, February 15, 2023, at his residence on Jaudon Road in Elberton. Clois was born in Elberton on September 30, 1941, son of the late Dunston Baker Worley, Jr. and Eunice Gladell Lovinggood Worley Taylor. Growing up, he was the baby of the family, joining brother Roland and sister Gladell. Clois was a 1959 graduate of Elberton High School and furthered his education at Atlanta Business College. He had dreams of becoming an electrician, but failed a color test that prevented him from being able to obtain his license. Clois then moved back to Elberton and went into the granite business with his brother at Worley Monument Company, Inc. He served his country in the Georgia Army National Guard.

Clois later met Sandra Gray Lutz, and the two would go on to become soulmates and best friends. They were privileged to celebrate 58 years of marriage. From the time he was born, he was spoiled rotten and Sandra continued that throughout their married years. In return, Clois did the same for her. A very talented man, he could make absolutely anything, and especially enjoyed steel work and working on race cars. Clois was an avid traveller who enjoyed family trips to Destin, Florida, scuba diving, and cave diving. He used his love of diving to benefit others. Clois was a member and former Vice President of the Elbert County Rescue Unit Dive Team and a certified scuba diver instructor. Of all the places he had been privileged to travel, he was always quick to say Gills Point in Lincoln County was his favorite. Clois enjoyed many summers there boating and waterskiing. He was a talented roller skater who taught most of his grandchildren how to skate. He was extremely proud of the fact that he could dance on skates. Clois and Sandra have been devout Jehovah's Witnesses for many years. They have enjoyed working together with fellow witnesses with their time and resources to further Jehovah's kingdom. Clois will be remembered as a kind, loving, generous, and noble man who never met a stranger.

Survivors, in addition to his wife Sandra, include his children: Clois Shane Worley of Elberton, Kevin Trace Worley of Athens, and Marjorie Elizabeth Worley of Elberton; and sister, Gladell Worley Brock of Athens. He was the fun loving and devoted "Papa" to his grandchildren: Candace Worley Erlandson, Timothy Clois Worley, Cassidy Elizabeth Worley, and Emily Destyn Higginbotham and his great-grandchildren: Erin, KJ, Elizabeth, Clio-Lynn, Chevy Clois, and Adriel. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Sidney Roland Worley.

There will be no funeral service or visitation. The family is at the residence. Berry Funeral Home & Crematory of Elberton is respectfully in charge of arrangements for Mr. Clois Bernard Worley.

He married Patricia Ann Toon 02 Sep 1967 in Louisville, Jefferson Co, Kentucky. She was born 15 Nov 1945.

Marriage Notes for Michael Willbur and Patricia Toon:

Miss Patricia Ann Toon, of Louisville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ray Toon, of Medora, became the bride of Michael Jerome Willbur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome E. Willbur, of Battle Creek, Michigan, in a double ring ceremony read at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 2, 1967, in Buechel Methodist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, of which the bride is a member. Dr. William H. Poore, pastor of the church, officiated at the rites.

Two seven-armed candelabra were used on either side of the chancel. Three huge individual brass candleholders, each containing a single large candle, and a three-branched candelabra holding two lighted candles were also used at the chancel. During the ceremony the bride and groom lighted the center candle of the candelabra and extinguished the two already burning, signifying their oneness. Also featured in the sanctuary setting were groups of palms flanking a pair of white marble columns topped with arrangements of white gladioli, snapdragons and daisy chrysanthemums. A large arrangement of flowers was used on the altar, and pews were marked by white satin ribbons, greenery and white tapers. Every other pew held a brass holder with a hurricane lamp, and an aisle runner was also used.

Mrs. Willis Anderson, of Louisville, was vocalist, and prior to the ceremony she sang "Beloved, It Is Morn", "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee", and, during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Walter Harper, of Louisville, was organist, also playing "Hymn to Joy", "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring", "Litany", "Arioso", "Trumpet Voluntary in D. Major" and "Trumpet Tune in D. Major". The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional floor-length gown of rich ivory peau de soie in an A-line silhouette. The bodice, with gently scooped neckline and bell sleeves adorned with peau d'Ange lace, was created with an Empire waistline defined by medallions of matching lace entrusted with bridal pearls and crystals. A deep border of delicate lace scalloped the hemline of the slender skirt. From a yoke of peau d'ange lace appliques over soft pleats, a Watteau train embellished with lace motifs flowed. The bride's veil featured a bubble effect and floated the entire length of her train. It was caught by a headpiece of complementing lace, richly embroidered with pearls and iridescents and ornamented by a peau de soie bow knotted with pearls. The bride's ivory gloves were wrist length, and tiny seed pearl earrings were her only jewelry. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, and also carried a white linen handkerchief, gift of her maid-of-honor.

Miss Sue Hall, former Louisville apartment mate of the bride and daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. Thomas W. Hall, of Medora, was the bride's maid-of-honor, and Laura Lynn Rietsma, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rietsma, of Marshall, Michigan, and niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Miss Hall was attired in a floor-length gown of moss green linen in skimmer silhouette, fashioned with short sleeves and scooped neckline. The front was adorned by a softly tailored bow. Two petite bows held a Watteau panel which fell to the hem from the deeply squared neckline at the back. Miss Hall's headpiece was a veil of illusion in matching moss green, falling to the hemline. She wore wrist-length gloves of ivory, and her shoes matched her gown. Single cultured pearl earrings were her only jewelry, and she carried three long-stemmed yellow roses. Laura's costume was identical to that of Miss Hall, and she carried a garden basket of yellow petals.

Acting as Mr. Willbur's best man was his brother-in-law, Gary L. Rietsma, of Marshall, Michigan. Lt. Michael Nichols, of Battle Creek, ushered, as did George M. Smith, of Medora, cousin of the bride. Bernard Ray Toon II, brother of the bride, was acolyte. Mrs. Leslie Stahl, the former Miss Rita Lee, of Vallonia, registered guests in the narthex of the church prior to the wedding. Mrs. Toon, mother of the bride, wore a turquoise silk frock with accessories of a slightly darker turquoise. Her gloves were white kid. Mrs. Willbur, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold linen dress with matching jacket and moss green accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

Connie was born April 7, 1951, in Marshall to Wesley J. and Alta (Spooner) Lutz. She grew up in Ceresco and graduated from Harper Creek High School in 1969. After graduation she worked for a short time at the Kellogg Company in Battle Creek then started her career at State Farm Insurance Company Regional Office in Marshall. She worked at the Marshall office transferring to the Portage office where she retired in 2009 after 46 years of service. Ralph's sister, Tracy, introduced Connie to her brother Ralph W. Leigon, Jr. in the spring of 1976. On August 21, 1976, they were married at Ceresco Baptist Church. She and Ralph have lived in the Charlotte area their 36 years together. Connie and Ralph were Cub Scout leaders, coached T-Ball in Charlotte, and hosted 4 foreign exchange students over the years. They always had time to help others, many times taking special interest and providing help to a troubled child. Connie led an active life working with Ralph on their 17 acres mowing the lawn, landscaping, and tending her myriad of flowers. Her hard work in their garden provided the many good things which she loved to can and cook. Connie found time for her many friends through bowling, belonging to a card club, and volunteering at both the Eaton County Fair and Charlotte Frontier Days. She loved to crochet and donated countless hats to area hospitals for newborns. She loved to camp and fish, and dearly loved her many dogs and cats throughout the years.

Connie is survived by her loving family; husband, Ralph W. Leigon, Jr., son, Ralph W. (Denise) Leigon, III of Charlotte, grandchildren, Shania and Derick Leigon. She was a beloved sister to her brother Calvin (Cathy) Lutz of Union City, sisters Carlene (Rolland) Clements of Athens, Cheri (Keith) Palmer of Grand Blanc, and Cindy Lutz of Charlotte, plus a Godson Ryan Miller, and a good friend and former brother-in-law, John Popp, of Battle Creek, and many nieces and nephews. Keith Palmer had his leg below the knee amputated at Genesys Regional Medical Center after a 22-year-old driver who may have fallen asleep at the wheel struck his motorcycle from behind, police said. Palmer was on his way home from his retirement party and was stopped at a red light on Dixie Highway and Grange Hall Road in Groveland Township when he was hit.

Groveland Twp. -- An Oakland County Sheriff's deputy had to have his leg amputated below the knee after a traffic accident that occurred following his retirement party. Deputy Keith Palmer was riding on a motorcycle Friday, Oct. 8 when he was involved in a collision with another motorist. "It's very, very sad," said Sheriff Michael Bouchard, "especially on a day that should have been a celebration of his career. "We're doing all we can to help him and his family." Sheriff's officials said the accident happened the same day as Palmer's last day, celebrating his 28 years on the job, police said. Palmer was heading northbound on Dixie Highway and had stopped at a traffic light at the Grange Hall Road intersection. Another motorist heading north fell asleep at the wheel, drifted into the other northbound lane and struck Palmer, Michigan State Police said. He was taken to Genesys Hospital. Troopers said alcohol was not involved and it is suspected the motorist, a 22-year-old woman from Grand Blanc, had fallen asleep. She had only minor injuries. Notes for Blair Leah Erickson:

Blair Erickson & Andy Prescott, September 1, 2019 - Young Harris, Georgia. We both attended the University of Georgia and had several mutual friends in college. We would cross paths at parties, football games, tailgates, and concerts, but it was a camping trip with friends in fall 2012 that marked the first significant time we spent together. We laughed and talked a lot that weekend, and went on our first date a few weeks later at Blair's sorority's semi-formal. It was a wonderful night and we spent the entire next day together cheering on the Bulldogs in the playoffs. Nearly 7 years after that fall day in Athens, we will be married in the North Georgia mountains in front of you; our closest friends and family. Here is a bit about our lives in between our first date and wedding day...

After Blair graduated college in Summer 2013, we moved to Atlanta and spent about a year there. Blair began applying to graduate schools, and was accepted to a great match in San Francisco. It was more of an instinct than a decision for Andy to follow her, and we both moved to California in August 2014. We spent 10 months in San Francisco just a few blocks from the bay and a view of the Golden Gate Bridge, and then moved to a cozy little apartment across the bay in Berkeley. This was our home for most of our time together. We met amazing people and saw incredible things in California, but most of all we fell deeper and deeper in love.

We got engaged on one of our very last nights in Berkeley. Just a few days later we packed up our whole lives into a 2-door Honda Accord and took a cross country trip on our way to Blair's new home in Lexington, Kentucky, where she is now an intern at the Veterans Hospital. Andy moved to Nashville three hours south to work on taking his own career to another level in Music City.

It isn't easy living apart from one another during our engagement year, but our wedding day offers a constant source of excitement and joy. Our relationship was born and developed in nature, so we are so thrilled to have you join us in the beautiful North Georgia mountains for what will surely be the most memorable day of our lives.

Our ceremony will be at the Brasstown Valley Sunset Terrace. It is an outdoor venue with views that overlook the North Georgia mountains. A close friend of Andy's family, Andrew Frearson, will be conducting the ceremony. Our reception will be nearby at the Sunset Pavilion where we'll have a buffet supper, full bar, and live band made up of musician friends and colleagues.

The same color theme was carried over to the reception. Melissa did a great job making all the arrangements for the wedding. It was a beautiful wedding and Grandpa and Grandma were very proud of their grandson. The whole family was there and enjoyed the time spent together from Friday through Monday.
