Notes for Jacob Clayton Gable:

Jacob Clayton Gable, the 4th and youngest child of Jacob Gable and Mary Ann Sechrist, was born on October 5, 1876. The Gable name at this point is being spelled consistently as "Gable". At the time of his birth three generations of Gables were living on the farm. The 1880 Federal Census indicates that his paternal Grandmother Lydia, her 3rd husband Adam Folkomer, and Jacob Clayton's maternal Grandmother, Henrietta Blouse Sechrist, were living with his parents and siblings. On June 22, 1897 Jacob Clayton married Idella Seitz in Jacobus, York, Pennsylvania. Idella was the daughter of Henry Seitz and Catharine Grim. Jacob Clayton's and Idella's first child, Margie, was born on January 15, 1898.

By the year 1900 there were still 3 generations of Gables living on the Gable farm, Jacob Clayton's parents Jacob and Mary, sister Lydia, a nephew by marriage named James Grove - age 16, and the immediate Jacob Clayton Gable family of 3. Carl Clayton Gable was born in 1901. Per the 1910 Federal Census Lydia and James Grove were no longer living on the farm (she probably moved after her marriage to Michael Strayer in 1905) and Jacob and Mary were living in the "Summer House" until their deaths in 1913 and 1914. We find that the multi-generational living arrangements were typical until Jacob Clayton and Idella moved off of the farm at some point after 1924 when his son Carl married, purchased the homestead, and began farming independently of his father.

In 1899 Jacob Clayton was elected Felton Borough's first Justice of the Peace. Jacob Clayton registered for the World War I draft on September 12, 1918 at the age of 41. His occupation is listed as "Farmer" and he is described as being of medium height, of stout build with brown eyes and black hair. Jacob Clayton played the clarinet in the Felton band and was invited to play with the John Philip Sousa band when they performed in York. He was an avid hunter. The 1920 Federal Census is the last census that lists Jacob Clayton's trade as "Farmer". Significant life events occur by the 1930 Federal Census enumeration. Jacob Clayton and Idella have moved off the farm and are living on West Main Street in Felton proper in a house that Jacob Clayton built. His occupation is listed as "Painter" and that he is self-employed. Idella is working at the local cigar factory as a "Cigar Maker". The house stands to this day.

Jacob Clayton died in 1940 and Idella in 1957. Both are buried in the Bethany United Methodist Church Cemetery, (the church in which Idella was the first Gable convert), on 49 High Street in Felton, Pennsylvania. A stained glass window was donated to the church by the Gable family and can still be viewed in the church.

Marriage Notes for Patricia Koch and James Strayer:

Red Lion - Patricia Sue Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman A. Koch, East Country Club Road, Red Lion RD 2, became the bride of Pvt. James Russell Strayer, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell Strayer, Lion Court, near town, in St. John's Reformed church, North Main Street, last evening Sept. 29, 1953. The bride's pastor, Rev. Dr. Oliver K Maurer, of St. John's church, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m., assisted by Rev. Dr. M. H. Welty, pastor of Bethany EUB church, West Broadway.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace with long sleeves, inserted with lace, that ended in points over the hands. Her skirt had cascades of pleated nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over satin. Her fingertip veil of net fell from a crown headdress, trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Miriam Shellenberger, West Main Street, Dallastown, was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Janice Dietz, Red Lion RD 2; Norma Kohler, 74 Main Street, Windsor, and Doris Haugh, 30 South Main Street, Red Lion. Their gowns were strapless models of nylon net with velvet bodices and velvet shrug jackets. Mrs. Shellenberger wore aqua and the bridesmaids deep pink, all with matching hats. The matron of honor carried mixed fall flowers, tied with deep pink streamers, and the bridesmaids fall flowers with aqua streamers. Dee Koch, Red Lion RD 2, a sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. Her light green gown had a dark green velvet bodice and she carried fall flowers. The flower girl, Sue Ann Bosley, 51 West Gay Street, a cousin of the bride, wore a white taffeta with net dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

The bride's mother chose a lilac lace dress with black accessories while Pvt. Strayer's mother wore a royal blue dress with pink and blue accessories. Both had orchid corsages. W. Russell Strayer was his son's best man. Ushers were Duane Swartzbaugh, West Maple Street; Barry Stein, 26 South Charles Street, a cousin of the bride; Robert Zarfos, Felton, and Ned Kinard, First Avenue.

Mrs. Gladys Slenker, South Main Street, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Through the Years" and "I Love You Truly." Besides the traditional wedding marches, Mrs. Dorothy Furst, West Lancaster Street, the organist, played "O Perfect Love," "Blest be the Tie That Binds," "At Dawning," "I Love Thee" and "To a Wild Rose."

About 200 persons attended the reception in the church social rooms. Pvt. and Mrs. Strayer went to New York City for their wedding trip, expecting to return about Oct. 12. The bride, a 1953 graduate of Red Lion High school, is employed in the payroll department of the Red Lion Cabinet company. Pvt. Strayer was graduated from the same school in 1951. He has been in training at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, but will report to Camp Stoneman, California, at the end of his furlough. Mrs. Strayer will reside at the home of her parents for the present.

Marriage Notes for Diane Ferree and Joseph Strobeck:

Spry - Diane Joyce Ferree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Earl Ferree, 2427 Arlington Street, and Joseph Robert Strobeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen Strobeck, 224 East Fourth Street, Yoe, exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon Oct. 19, 1963 at 4 o'clock. Rev. Roger E. Keech, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in Otterbein EUB church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length princess style gown of slipper satin. The fitted bodice featured a jewel neckline, trimmed with lace, pearl and sequins, and long tapered sleeves. The controlled front panel of skirt was accented with puffed side effect and the carriage back ended in a chapel train. A bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a pearl and crystal crown and the bride carried a cascade of gardenias.

Pamela Ferree was her sister's honor attendant while Linda Ferree, another sister, Carol Wallick, 335 Folkstone Way, York, and Susan McDowell, Dallastown RD 1, served as bridesmaids. Sharon Weiser, Red Lion RD 2, was flower girl and Matthew Ferree, a brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Attendants wore street-length gowns in Bahama blue velveteen. The fitted bodices featured modified square necklines, long tapered sleeves and controlled skirts. They carried cascades of white and blue spider mums and pompons with the maid of honor's being aJ11 all-white arrangement. The flower girl had a street length dress of white peau de soie with a Bahama blue cummerbund. She carried a basket of blue and white pompons.

Mrs. Ferree chose for her daughter's wedding a gold brocade dress while the bridegroom's mother selected a dress of American Beauty chiffon. Both mothers wore accessories to match their dresses and corsages of white cymbidiums. Robert Strobeck, of the Yoe address was best man for his brother, Llewellyn M. Ehrhart, Jr., 323 West Main Street, Dallastown, Larry Moore, 39 West Gay Street, Red Lion, and Wayne Foulk, Bridgeport, New Jersey, served as ushers. The soloist, Joan Raver, York RD 2, sang "O Perfect Love," "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Noah Koller, 2164 South Queen Street, the bride's aunt, played on the organ "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn," "Largo," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" and the traditional wedding marches.

About 150 guests attended the reception in Avalong Dairy dining mom. The couple will spend one week in the New England states and then reside at 230 North Main Street, Red Lion. 100. Carl Clayton<sup>6</sup> Gable (Idelia (Idella)<sup>5</sup> Seitz, Henry (Sides)<sup>4</sup>, Jacob<sup>3</sup>, Philip<sup>2</sup>, Michael<sup>1</sup>) was born 05 Jun 1901 in Felton, York Co, Pennsylvania, and died 20 Nov 1991 in York, York Co, Pennsylvania. He married Mary Alilce Akins. She was born 07 May 1905 in Felton, York Co, Pennsylvania, and died 30 Aug 1988 in Felton, York Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Mary Alilce Akins:

Mary Alice Akins, the youngest child of Theodore Akins and Emma Jane Baughman, was born in Felton on May 7, 1905. Mary attended the Felton Primary School with her older sister Hazel and her husband to be Carl Gable. Mary, when asked in later years whether she noticed Carl in school, mentioned that he would always be throwing stones at recess and that she did not pay attention to him until her late teens.

By 1920, at the age of 15, Mary was working at one of the local cigar factories as were most of the youngsters aged 14 or more, her job being a roller. It was during this period of time (after leaving school and before her marriage) that she and her sister Hazel would make annual summer trips to Atlantic City for vacation. The stories they told of the trips, and also the surviving post cards back to their parents, were full of the language of fun. It has always amazed me that they were allowed to make the trip on their own at such a young age, but it was a different time and an age of innocence.

On June 7, 1924 Mary married her school mate and neighbor Carl Gable, the son of Jacob Clayton Gable and Idella Seitz and moved to the Gable Farm (Deer Springs Farm) just east of Felton on the Felton Road. Their first child, Audrey, arrived in 1925 and by 1942 they had a full family of three daughters and one son. Mary, upon marriage, took up the life of a farmer's wife, milking cows, feeding the farm hands, and taking care of the children. She made the best fried chicken I have ever tasted and made a dessert dish called "Heavenly Rice" that was just that, heavenly tasting. Her daughters, even after having helped her make these dishes and having the recipes, have not been able to duplicate the taste.

Mary was a founding member of the Windsor Assembly of God church, where she was a Sunday School teacher, director of Women's Ministry and a member of the church choir. She also was a member of the Felton Fire Company Auxiliary. Mary died on August 31, 1988 at the age of 83 years and Carl died on November 20, 1991 at the age of 90 years. Both are buried in the Trinity Cemetery in Felton, Pennsylvania.

Children of Carl Gable and Mary Akins are:

She married Leroy Sheldon Kimmons 1947. He was born 23 Feb 1924 in Dover Twp, York Co, Pennsylvania, and died 29 Jun 2004 in York, York Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Phyllis Jean McCoy:

Spring Garden Twp. - Phyllis J. Kimmons, age 92, of Spring Garden Township, York, Phyllis died peacefully on July 4, 2020 in her home of 67 years, surrounded by love, as she had lived her life. She was born December 21, 1927 in York, daughter of the late Charles and Ruth (Schriver) McCoy. She graduated from William Penn Senior High School in 1945, and retained valued friendships with many classmates, including a lunch group that continued to meet monthly until recently. In early 1946, while working as an assistant at Thompson's Ladies Wear Store, she met Leroy S. Kimmons, who had returned that day from military service in Europe in World War II. Phyllis and "Kim" were married August 17, 1947 and enjoyed 56 years of adventures and joy until Kim's death in 2004.

Phyllis was devoted to her family, and created a warm and loving home. She faithfully acknowledged birthdays, anniversaries, and other landmarks. She maintained strong friendships throughout her life, always interested in the stories others had to share, and loved gatherings of family and friends. Phil and Kim loved hosting parties — the table was always full, and musical performances were encouraged. Phyllis was a lifelong learner, with keen interest in the arts and travel, and was a voracious reader throughout her life. She and Kim shared a love of dancing to big band music, and may have fallen in love to the soundtrack of Stan Kenton. They always enjoyed traveling together, and frequently visited friends and family throughout the country, always making new memories. She was an active member of Luther Memorial Lutheran Church and cherished her church family. She was a longtime member of the choir, was active in ladies' circles, Bible studies, and the Young-at-Heart group, and edited the church newspaper for many years.

She is survived by daughter Nancy J. Kimmons and her husband John O. Senior of Wayne, Pennsylvania; son Stephen T. Kimmons and his wife Ruth of West Orange, New Jersey; granddaughters Diana Senior, Emily Kimmons, and Rosalie Dumas; brothers Robert McCoy of Moorestown, New Jersey and Donald McCoy of Sun Lakes, Arizona; and sister-in-law Virginia Young and her husband Malcolm of Willow Valley, Pennsylvania, as well as numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom stayed in close contact with her.

Phyllis and her family especially appreciated the network of local friends and neighbors whose support and companionship enabled her to remain in her home, as well as the expert care provided by her helpers and Hospice & Community Care at the end of her life. A public memorial service will be held at a later date. Private burial will be in Mount Rose Cemetery. Kuhner Associates Funeral Directors, Inc., 863 South George Street, York, is in charge of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Luther Memorial Lutheran Church, 1907 Hollywood Drive, York Pennsylvania 17403.

Notes for Leroy Sheldon Kimmons:

Leroy S. Kimmons, 80, of Spring Garden Township, died at 2:50 p.m. Tuesday, June 29, 2004 at York Hospital. Born February 23, 1924 in Dover, a son of the late Harry S. and Amanda (Snelbecker) Kimmons, he was a 1942 graduate of William Penn High School, serving as class Secretary and as one of the "Sunshine Boys". He was a 1952 graduate of the University of Cincinnati, where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Architecture. He worked as an architect and civil engineer for Harry Lenker, Architect; Noonan Engineering; and retired as Vice President of Nutec Design. He had been a Eagle Scout, and a Boy Scout Leader, was a past member of the Downtown Lions Club. He was a member emeritus of the American Institute of Architects. He was very active in the Central Penna. Chapter of the Construction Specifications Institute, where he served as President, Education Committee Chairman and a Regional Director. On a national level, he served as Vice President of the Institute, and was honored as a Fellow in 1983. After retirement he taught at Harrisburg Area Community College and Penn State Harrisburg. He was a member of Luther Memorial Lutheran Church, serving as Church Council President, architect for renovation, Sunday School Superintendent, and chair of many committees, as well as singing faithfully on the choir for more than 40 years. He was a U.S. Army Veteran of World War II, serving as a combat engineer, and participating in the Normandy Invasion. He was a Purple Heart recipient, and received numerous other commendations. After WWII he joined the Air Force Reserves, retiring as a Major after more than 30 years of service.

Mr. Kimmons is survived by his wife of 56 years, Phyllis J. (McCoy) Kimmons; a daughter, Nancy J. Kimmons, and her husband John O. Senior of Wayne, Pennsylvania; a son, Stephen T. Kimmons, and his wife Ruth Brons Kimmons of West Orange, New Jersey; four granddaughters, Diana R. Senior, Emily N. Kimmons, Sara K. Senior, and Rosalie A. Dumas; and a sister, Virginia Kimmons Young, and her husband, Malcom of West Islip, New York.

Funeral services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday at Luther Memorial Lutheran Church, 1907 Hollywood Drive, York with his Interim Pastor, the Rev. Douglas Cromer, officiating. Military rites will be presented by the York County Veterans Honor Guard immediately following in the Churchyard. Visitation will be 1 to 2 p.m. Saturday at the Church. Private burial will precede the funeral service in Mt. Rose Cemetery. Baumeister, Orcutt & Small Mortuaries, Inc., South Queen at Jackson Street, York is in charge of arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to Luther Memorial Lutheran Church.

Notes for Esther Marie Gable:

Esther Marie Gable, the youngest daughter of Carl Clayton Gable and Mary Alice Akins, was born on September 1, 1937. Esther was the 4th generation of Gables born on Deer Springs Farm (just west of here on Felton Road). Esther attended the Felton Primary School located in Felton, Pennsylvania. Esther was an "Honor" student, graduating from Red Lion High School in 1955. She was of the first generation of Gables to attend school beyond the 8th grade. Her interests were in the arts and she was an accomplished vocalist and pianist. She would often speak fondly of her childhood and how much she enjoyed church, school, and her life in Felton.

She spent much time with her mother, Mary, and her Aunt Hazel, Mary's sister, regularly attending Windsor Assembly of God (her mother was a founding member) and spending summer vacation at Maranatha camp grounds (the location of Eastern Bible Institute). It came as no surprise when Esther enrolled in Eastern Bible Institute in 1955. It is there that she met her future husband, John DeNicola, a ministerial student at the same institution. They were married on July 21, 1957 and immediately after the honeymoon moved to Dexter, Maine for their first pastorate. While Esther did not work outside the home, she endeavored to assist her husband John in the pastorates in any way possible. She typically was the church pianist, soloist, a Sunday School teacher, and a Women's Ministries leader. If they did not have a piano she could be counted on to provide accompaniment with her accordion. Son Mark recalls the whole family cleaning the Easton church on Saturday evenings.

Esther and John started their family in 1958 with the addition of son, John Mark. Another son, Eric Stephen, was added in 1962. The family ministered to six congregations during her life time with their last pastorate in Brave, Pennsylvania in 1971. They moved to Waynesburg, Pennsylvania in 1983 when a new church was built in that town (the church in Brave having been moved). It was there that she would spend the remainder of her life, dying on February 24, 1987 in Morgantown, West Virginia after a prolonged illness. Her husband John died on March 9, 2008 in Hershey, Pennsylvania. They are both buried in Trinity Cemetery.

Notes for Rev. John DeNicola:

The Reverend John DeNicola, the 7th child of Gaetano (Guy) DeNicola and Adelina Erminia Vizza, was born on September 2, 1932. John was of the 1st generation of DeNicola's born a citizen of the United States. John worked while going to school, starting at the early age of 12 when he obtained his first job at the VFW. He would arrive home after school, eat supper, do his home-work (occasionally), ride his bike several miles to the VFW, work in the kitchen until 1:00 am, and then ride his bike home. When asked why he worked, he said, "I always liked to have some change in my pocket." It was said that he was a good dancer, excelling at the "Jitter-bug", a dance popular in the 1940's.

John enjoyed high school, excelling in math, mechanical drawing and the performing arts. He was a self-taught pianist and vocalist (his voice was compared to Dean Martin's) who had the ability to sight read music and "hear" every part of a musical score. John attended Greenville High School located in Greenville, Pennsylvania, where he was the only freshman accepted as a member of the High School choir. He graduated from Greenville High School in May of 1950. After graduation John worked at the Greenville Steel Car as a crane operator. Sometime between his high school graduation and 1953 John felt the call to become a minister. He enrolled in Eastern Bible Institute, located in Green Lane, Pennsylvania, in 1954. It was there during his 2nd year that he met his future wife, Esther Marie Gable. He graduated from the Ministerial program in 1957. Within 3 months after graduation from "EBI" John obtained his "License to Preach" from the New England Council of the Assemblies of God, accepted a position to pastor a pioneer work in Dexter, Maine, married Esther and moved to Dexter right after returning from their honeymoon.

John and Esther started their family in 1958 with the addition of son, John Mark. Another son, Eric Stephen, was added in 1962. The family ministered to six congregations during their life time with their last pastorate in Brave, Pennsylvania in 1971. They moved to Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, in 1983 when a new church was built in that town (the church in Brave having been moved). John was well-known for his straight-forward, inspirational sermons and would participate in all music venues in the church including solos, duets with Esther, leading the choir, and providing piano accompaniment for Esther's solos. While serving as a pastor he also chaired and served on multiple committees and organizations that benefited the local schools, churches, and communities. At the time of his passing he was serving as Board Vice President of the Woods at Cedar Run in Camp Hill.

John died on March 9, 2008 in Hershey, Pennsylvania. He was preceded in death by wife Esther, who died on February 24, 1987 in Morgantown, West Virginia after a prolonged illness. He is survived by his wife Dorothy M. (Seslar/Conant) DeNicola and many family members. John and Esther are buried in Trinity Cemetery located outside of Felton, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Damian Robby Morton:

Livonia: Damian Robby Morton died unexpectedly on February 17, 2016 at age 31 years. Predeceased by grandparents Donald Morton and Mary Shank. Survived by his daughter Lilia Morton, parents LaVerne & Cindy Morton of South Carolina, and brother Shane Morton (Tasha Barger) of Scottsville. Also survived by grandparents; Rodney Shank of Conesus and Priscilla Morton of South Carolina, cousin CJ Reynolds who was like a second brother to Damian, and many other loving family and friends.

Damian Morton was a charismatic, genuine, and loving man. If you've ever met Damian you know he was the type of person anyone could love. From the moment he first met her, he loved his daughter Lilia more than anything in the world. He liked to hunt, hike, and also loved some good fishing. He enjoyed meeting new people and people's company in general. Damian liked to spend his days with family and friends, experiencing all that life had to offer. He knew we all make mistakes and was always willing to forgive those he loved. He will be greatly missed and never forgotten.

A gathering was held to remember Damian's life on Tuesday, February 23rd, at 7PM at the Kevin W. Dougherty Funeral Home Inc., Rte 15 & 20A, Livonia. Memorial contributions may be made to Lilia Morton, C/O LaVerne Morton, 120 Sunset Drive, Clover, South Carolina 29710.
