Notes for Johannes Braun:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Braun (deceased) was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1816. He grew to manhood and was educated in that place. When young he learned the stonemason's trade, and in '36 immigrated to America, settling in Ann Arbor, where he followed his trade for several years. While a resident of that city, he married Anna M. Eberhardt, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. In 1851 he moved upon an 80-acre tract of land in Scio tp., for which he paid the sum of $1,100. After residing on this farm eight years, he moved on a farm in Ann Arbor tp., consisting of 177 acres, and subsequently purchased 60 acres more. He accumulated a handsome property by industry and integrity. His death ensued in 1876. His wife is still living, and lives on the old homestead. Eight children, the result of their marriage, are still living.

Notes for Adam Klaeger:

August 30, 1894 Seneca, Kansas - A good illustration of the changes that come upon people was brought to notice on Friday morning last, when Adam Klager, one of the thrifty German farmers living adjacent to Seneca, drove into town at the head of a procession of fourteen hog wagons, containing 75 head of hogs averaging 250 pounds weight, which he had sold to William Scott at five cents. Mr. Klager came to Nemaha County about twenty-five years ago and bought an eighty of railroad land, upon which he was only able to make a first payment of $24; this eighty is now a part of the Charles Fahsholdt farm near Bern. To earn a living and prosper, Mr. Klager worked for Sant. Leatherberry. Those were days of hardship, to many farmers, being the grasshopper limes; and among those who came to Seneca for aid were Mr. Klager. He received a side of bacon from the relief committee; and going home the purchaser of his hogs on Friday last was company Mr. Scott then living on his farm down the Nemaha. He rode with Mr. Klager to his home, and then walked the rest of his way. Mr. Klager now owns a half-section farm, and on Friday morning led the wagons through town riding in his own carriage at the head of the teams hauling his hogs to market. He has sold $1400 worth this year; and it might be mentioned incidentally that he is not a calamity howler.

Notes for John Michael Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

John M. Braun - The attractiveness of Washtenaw county as a place of residence is indicated by the fact that many of its native sons have spent their entire lives here, content with its opportunities and privileges and enjoying the many advantages afforded in this part of the state. To this class belongs John M. Braun. He was born in Ann Arbor, August 16, 1843, his parents being John and Anna Maria (Eberhardt) Braun. The father was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and came to America in 1836. By trade he was a mason and he worked in Ann Arbor in that line for fourteen years in partnership with a Mr. Shoemaker. They were contractors and erected many of the leading buildings of Ann Arbor at that day. In 1852, however, Mr. Braun withdrew from building operations and purchased eighty acres of land in Scio Township, whereon he resided for eight years, when he sold that property and in 1860 became the owner of one hundred and eighty acres on section 5, Ann Arbor Township. To that tract he afterward added sixty acres, so that he became the owner of two hundred and forty acres of rich and productive land. He was a prosperous agriculturist, carrying on general farming in a capable manner that resulted in the acquirement of a comfortable competence. He died January 9, 1876, while his wife, who had come from Germany to America in 1837, passed away March 1, 1894.

John M. Braun pursued his education in the schools of Ann Arbor and Scio Township. He assisted his father in the operation of the home farm and there remained up to the time of his marriage, which was celebrated April 17, 1879, bliss Caroline R. Kapp becoming his wife. She was a daughter of Christian Kapp, of Northfield Township. This marriage has been blessed with one child, Athniel J., who was born February 18, 1885, and is assisting his father in tile farm work. Mr. Braun purchased one hundred and forty acres of land on section 5, Ann Arbor Township, in 1875, and as his financial resources increased lie added to the property until he now owns two hundred acres, a small part of which lies across the boundary line in Northfield Township. He has carried on general farming and feeds his grain to his stock. In 1893 he started his orchard and at the present time he has three thousand pear trees, eight hundred apple trees, one hundred pear trees and fifty cherry trees. His is a splendidly improved property. He has a fine residence upon the place and large barns, one of which is sixty eight by thirty-eight feet and the other forty by twenty feet. He also has a shed eighty by twenty feet and there is a tenant's house upon the place, for he employs a man throughout the year to aid him in the work of the farm. In all that he undertakes he is thorough, systematic and practical and is recognized as one of the most successful farmers of the locality.

In his politics Mr. Braun is an earnest Democrat, but liberal in his views, having given his support to that party since age gave to him the right of franchise. He has served as justice of the peace for sixteen years, filling the office at the present time for the fourth term. He has also been a member of the school board for eighteen years and is greatly interested in religious work, holding membership in the Zion Lutheran church of Ann Arbor, of which he is now one of the elders. His life has been honorable, his actions manly and sincere, and in the county where he has always lived he has won the favorable regard and friendship of many with whom he has come in contact.

Company 1891:

John Michael Braun. Among the native sons of the city of Ann Arbor who have made their work felt in the up building of the township on agricultural and commercial lines, we find him whose name we have just written, who was born August 16, 1843, being the third in order of age in his father's family. He was in his ninth year when the family moved on to the farm and about seventeen when he made his home on what is now known as the homestead. As his father died when he was twenty-three years old he remained at home until the year 1875. At the time he left there he signed over to the other heirs his interest in that property but now has a beautiful farm of one hundred and ninety-six acres which was long known as the Abram Moe farm.

Upon the farm just named our subject has lived ever since leaving home which is some sixteen years. This property Mr. Moe cleared from timber and settled upon in 1826, making his home here for a full half century. One of his sons, Orville Moe, still lives in Ann Arbor but the father died six ago in Adrian. Upon this property Mr. Braun is carrying on general farming and raises a large crop of grain, having generally from eight hundred to one thousand bushels of wheat. He also devotes considerable attention to fine stock, having excellent specimens of Short-horn cattle and a flock of fine wool sheep.

Caroline R. Kapp was the maiden name of the lady whom our subject chose as his life partner and to whom he was united in marriage on the 17th of April, 1879, Her parents were Christian F. and Regina (Schlichteren) Kapp and she was born in Northfield Township, September 14, 1852. Her brothers, Dr .John Kapp of Ann Arbor and Dr. Christian F. Kapp of Manchester, are well-known residents of this part of Michigan, while her parents who were pioneers of this township are well remembered and highly honored by all who know the history of the early days.

Only one child has been granted to our subject and his excellent wife, namely: Athniel John, who was born February 18, 1885. Our subject is a member of the first Lutheran Church where he has long been an official member, having filled the positions of both Trustee and Deacon, and in both capacities having shown his trust and interest and ability. He is a Democrat in his political sympathies but is a man of liberal views and is one of those who can understand and sympathize with those who do not agree with him on matters of importance. Great credit is due to this gentleman, for his early record as his father's death left great responsibilities upon him and the fact that his mother's family was kept together and was educated and cared for is largely due to his efforts and discretion.

Notes for John Michael Stein:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

John Michael Stein. One of the beautiful farms in Ann Arbor Township, richly cultivated and neatly kept, is that which is owned and supervised by Mr. Stein. Although of German parentage, he was born in Scio Township, upon the farm on section 26, where his father settled in 1835, his natal day being June 23, 1842. His parents, Michael and Magdaline (Hornbecker) Stein, were both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and the father was born in 1805 and served for three years in the German army. The military service and the disadvantages of continental life roused this worthy man to an appreciation of what life in America might prove to himself and children, and he emigrated to this country in 1835 and settled on what is now the old homestead, taking and clearing up eighty acres of good farming land, to which he later added eighty acres more.

The father of our subject died April 3, 1869, and his good wife survived him for many years and finally passed away at the age of seventy-eight, on the 3d of July, 1888. They had a family of ten children, all but one of whom are now living and in Washtenaw County.

Our subject was reared upon the farm and besides learning what all boys learn, who are thus trained, took the carpenter's trade when he was twenty-one and followed that for seven years* He and his brother Christian bought the homestead upon which they lived together for six years, and then John sold out his interest to his brother and removed to where he now lives, three miles north of Ann Arbor. He has here a handsome farm of one hundred and forty acres, which is in a splendid condition and where he carries on general farming. This farm was settled by James Fellahee, who secured it from the Government and lived upon it for fifteen years.

The 19th of May, 1870, marked an epoch of great importance in the life of John M. Stein, as he was then happily united for life with Katherina Braun, who was born July 28, 1845. The children who have blessed this union are Simeon F., who died at the age of two years; Albert Christian, Who was born August 15, 1873; and Hannah Maria, who was born May 26, 1876. Both children are students at the High School at Ann Arbor. The political views of Mr. Stein have led him to affiliate with the Democratic Party, and his religious belief brings him into active co-operation with the Lutheran Church.

He married Maria Dorothea Andres 17 Jun 1886 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johannes Andres and Katherine Hutzel. She was born 29 Mar 1863 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 02 Oct 1957 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Carl (Charles) Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles Braun, interested in general agricultural pursuits in Ann Arbor Township, was born in the city of Ann Arbor on the 29th of May, 1848. His parents were John and Anna Maria (Eberhardt) Braun, both of whom were natives of Germany, but their marriage was celebrated in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The father was born in 1816 and in 1836 crossed the Atlantic to America with a company of young men. In 1837 the mother came with a party to the new world. Mr. Braun was a mason by trade and followed that pursuit in Michigan until 1852, when he purchased eighty acres of land in Scio Township west of Ann Arbor and began farming. He lived upon that place until 1860, when he sold out and bought one hundred and eighty acres of land on section 5, Ann Arbor Township, to which he afterward added until his farm comprised two hundred and forty acres of land, which he brought to a high state of cultivation. He carried on general farming and stock raising, meeting with a creditable measure of success, and his life was characterized by unremitting diligence and energy. He died January 9, 1876, at the age of forty-nine years, while his wife survived him for a long period, passing away on March 11, 1894. His political allegiance was given to the Democratic Party. In the family were eight children: Fred B., who was born in 1840 and died in 1902; John M., born August 16, 1843; Catherine, who was born July 22, 1845, and is the wife of J. M. Stein; Charles, of this review; Christian, who was born February 23, 1850, and died December 16, 1902; Christina, who was born March 23, 1851, and is the wife of Fred Kern; Henry, who was born May 20, 1854; and Simon, who was born February 2, 1857, and died August 3, 1887.

Charles Braun of this review was reared in the usual manner of farm lands, early becoming familiar with the duties and labors that fall to the lot of the agriculturist, and his education was acquired in the public schools. After all the children were grown he purchased their interests in the farm, thus coming into possession of the old homestead property, on which he carried on general farming until 1893. He then concentrated his energies upon agricultural pursuits and is today one of the best known fruit raisers of this part of the state, having a peach orchard of twenty acres, while nine are planted to apples. He has also bought and fed stock. The farm is a well improved property on which are two good barns, one fifty-six by thirty-eight feet, the other sixty by thirty-eight feet, together with good buildings for the shelter of the grain, stock and farm machinery. The residence was erected in 1867.

Mr. Braun was married in 1887 to Miss Mary Andrews, a daughter of John Andrews, of Scio Township. They have had three children: Sylvia Maria, who was born March 10, 1888; Carl William, born June 27, 1889; and Simon Walter, born June 19, 1891. All are now attending school. Mr. Braun is recognized as one of the stalwart advocates of democracy in Washtenaw County and is active in the work of the party. He has served for three years, from 1892 until 1895, as supervisor and again filled the office from 1898 until 1902. In the fall of the latter year he was elected county treasurer for a term of two years and in 1904 was defeated for that office in the great republican landslide. In positions of public trust he is ever faithful, his course being marked by an unflinching patriotism and devotion to the general good. He holds membership in the Zion Lutheran church of Ann Arbor and has a wide and favorable acquaintance in the city and throughout this part of the state by reason of his energy and success in business life and his activity in political circles. Since 1892 he has been secretary of the German Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Charles Braun. Among the families who have been residents of Washtenaw County ever since the old Territorial days, we are pleased to name the one represented by our subject. John Braun, his father, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1816, and in his youth learned the brick and stone-mason's trade, emigrating to America in 1836, and settling in Ann Arbor, where for a number of years he followed his trade. While living in that city, he married Anna M. Eberhardt, like himself a native of Wurtemberg, and in 1851 he took up his residence on a farm of eighty acres in Scio Township, for which he paid the sum of $1,100. Eight years later he removed to a farm in Ann Arbor Township, where his death ensued in January 9, 1866. He had accumulated a handsome property by industry and integrity.

Our subject was born in the city of Ann Arbor, May 29, 1848, and is the fourth in his father's family, his brothers and sisters being: Frederick B., born October 20, 1840, in Ann Arbor Township; Johanna, who died in infancy; John Michael, born August 16, 1843; Catherine, July 28, 1845; Charles; Christian, born February 7, 1850; Christiana, November 23, 1851; Henry, May 20, 1854; Simeon, February 2, 1857. The last named died August 3, 1887. Frederick and Christian are living near Ann Arbor on the Dixboro Road, and John lives on an adjoining farm; Catherine is Mrs. John Michael Stein; and Christina is Mrs. Fred Kirn, of Ann Arbor; Henry is on the old Doty farm; and Charles and Simeon had worked the home farm together after Henry married and left the home some ten years since, and continued thus until a few months before Simeon's death, which was the result of consumption, following inflammation of the lungs. This is the only case of consumption in this circle, as it is not a family tendency.

Charles Braun has two hundred and seven acres which is part of the tract which his father originally located. In his youth he attended the Union school, and afterward took a course in the Ann Arbor Business College, and at twenty began to teach in the district school, which he continued for two winters. Upon the 17th of June, 1886, he was married in Scio Township, to Miss Mary D. Andress, daughter of John and Katharina Andress, the latter being still a resident of Scio Township. This lady was born in that township, March 29, 1863, and to her have been granted three children: Sylvia Maria Katharina, born March 10, 1888; Carl William, June 27, 1889; and Simeon Walter, June 19, 1891.

Like his father, our subject is a sturdy Democrat in his political views, and is now serving as Township Treasurer. He is an earnest and efficient member of the Lutheran Church, and a progressive farmer. He takes great interest in breeding Short-Horn cattle, keeping several registered animals and breeding Poland-China hogs, besides marketing large crops of wheat.

Notes for Johann Jakob Knapp:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

J. KNAPP. One of the leading German-American farmers of Freedom Township is he whose name is at the head of this sketch, where he owns a farm on section 35. He is a son of John Jacob Knapp, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. The elder Mr. Knapp while in his native land learned the business of a butcher, but later became a farmer. Our subject's mother was Anna Mary (Northway) Knapp, also a native of Wurtemberg. The family emigrated to America in 1828-29, settling first in Philadelphia, where the head of the family followed the business of butchering for a period of about three years. In 1842 they came to Michigan and settled upon the farm which our subject now owns in Freedom Township.

At the time of our subject's advent hither there were but few improvements in the township. The country was almost all heavily timbered and there was on the place a tiny log house and a log stable. Our subject's father died in 1857. His mother survived until 1884. They were the parents of five children, two of whom are now living—our subject and his brother, William J., who is in the hardware business at Chelsea. The religious training to which Jacob Knapp was brought up was that of the Evangelical Church of which his parents were members, the father having been a Deacon in the same. He also took an active part in local politics and was an old-line Whig. Many times he stood as candidate for various offices in this locality, but his party was in hopeless minority.

Jacob Knapp was the eldest child born to his parents, his birthday being March 15, 1842, and his natal place being Philadelphia. The same year the family came to Michigan where as the child grew older he attended the district school and acquired a practical knowledge of the ordinary branches there taught. He also had the additional advantages of a short time at the Union School of Jackson. The decease of his father occurring when he was fifteen years of age, three years later he assumed the full charge of the farm and has ever since remained here. He is now the owner of two hundred and fifty-two acres, having about one hundred and seventy-five acres under cultivation. He carries on general farming. Since becoming proprietor in full of the place our subject has greatly increased its value by adding to its buildings and erecting new barns. He here has a very pleasant home and everything required to lead a comfortable and happy life. He is the owner of some fine stock, making a specialty of fine-wool sheep. He also has some fine draft horses and ideals in the last named stock to quite a considerable extent, making frequent trips to Ohio for the purpose of their buying the finer breeds.

In 1866 the original of our sketch was married to Miss Dora Schmidt, a daughter of Peter and Christina (Beutler) Schmidt, who came to Michigan about 1843-44, settling first in Scio Township. The decease of Mrs. Knapp's parents occurred at our subject's home, they passing away within two years of each other. They were the parents of seven children, all of whom are living. Mrs. Knapp was born in Germany in 1843. She there received a good education. Our subject and his wife have had their union blessed by the birth of two children—Adam, who is now a student at the High School at Manchester, and Emma Johanna Christina, who attends school at home. Our subject and his wife are members of the Evangelical Church in Freedom Township. He of whom we write has been an incumbent of local offices in the district for many years. He is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen at Manchester, and is a Trustee of that society at the present time. He also united with the Knights of Honor of Manchester, where he also occupies a position of Trustee. He moreover belongs to the Arbeiter Verein of Manchester and is a Trustee of that order; he is also a member of the Masonic order of Manchester. In politics Mr. Knapp has always been very active and is a warm adherent of the Democratic Party. He has served as Constable of Freedom Township and as Highway Commissioner for many years and for five years held the position of Drain Commissioner; was Township Clerk for three years and Deputy Township Clerk for five years and Justice of the Peace for twelve years, which latter office he is now holding. He is also Health Officer at the present time and has been Township Treasurer. In 1880 he was elected County Treasurer and re-elected in 1882 thus serving four years in this capacity. For twelve years past he has attended every county convention and has also served many terms on the Board of Canvass and for eight years past has been an attendant at the District and Senatorial conventions, frequently serving upon political committees. Mr. Knapp is known as figuring among the prominent politicians of this State.

She married Friedrich Seitz 20 May 1911 in Dexter Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 05 Apr 1882 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 20 Sep 1926 in Pinckney, Livingston Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friedrich Seitz:

Howell - Monday afternoon Sept. 20, 1926 a call was sent to Sheriff Teeple's office to the effect that two men were probably in the Schoollot Lake some three miles northwest of Pinckney and two deputies were at once dispatched to the scene of the accident. Monday afternoon Fred Seitz, aged 41 of 52 Seitz St., Ann Arbor engaged a boat of Guy Hinchey to go fishing on Schoollot Lake. About five o'clock Mr. Hinchey and his daughter Mildred noticed the boat riding at anchor but no one appeared to be in their boat. An investigation followed and one body was located. Jerald Reason of Pinckney dove and recovered the body of Philip Seitz in about ten feet of water. After deputies, Roy Hardy and Burnett arrived. Mr. Hardy recovered the body of the other man in about twelve feet of water.

Coroner Henry Beuermann decided that an inquest was not necessary and the bodies were taken to Ann Arbor by the Wilkinson ambulance. Fred Seitz watch stopped at 4:55 and the body was recovered at 5:30 showing probable time the men were in the water. Mr. Hinchey is reported as saying that the men although weighing about 200 lbs. each chose a small boat for their fishing. The boat as the Republican is informed was not tipped over but was partly filled with water. Just how the men and the boat were separated may never be known. One of the men was casting and may have lost his balance and have fallen over, the brother may have gone to his rescue. Just why the men in the water did not cling to the sides of the boat is not plain.

Philip Seitz who is survived by his wife and two daughters and his brother are two of a family of six brothers contractors in Ann Arbor.

Philip Seitz, age 41, of 520 Sixth Street and his brother Fred Seitz, 44, of 1003 West Liberty Street, were drowned about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon September 20, 1926 at Schoolot Lake, three miles north of Pinckney. The two men were fishing, when it is believed the boat which was anchored about 30 feet off shore capsized. Henry Benurmann, Howell corner was called and asserted in his opinion, the drowning was accidental. The two went on the lake at 4:30 and as the watch of one stopped at seven minutes to 5 o'clock; the accident is believed to have occurred shortly before 5 o'clock. A paper floating on the water with the name of Philip Seitz written on it, aided in establishing his identity.

The body of Philip was discovered within an hour after the time of the accident is believed to have occurred and his brother's body about 12 o'clock midnight. Both bodies were brought to Hildinger's Funeral home here. Philip Seitz was born October 10, 1885 at Saline and attended the public school there. He came to Ann Arbor 15 years ago, and since had been a carpenter and contractor. For three years, he with his brothers, Fred, Martin, William and Philip formed the firm known as Seitz Brothers, contractors. The past two years he was in business for himself. He was a member of the Carpenter's union and St. Paul's Lutheran Church. He was married April 6, 1911 to Miss Ida Jedele.

Fred Seitz was born April 5, 1882 at Saline and also attended the school there, coming to Ann Arbor about 30 years ago. He was employed as a cabinet maker for six years at the Michigan Furniture Co, and later worked in Detroit and Pontiac. He returned to Ann Arbor in 1913. He was a member of the firm of Seitz Bros, and for about a year had been, working for his brother Philip. He was married May 21, 1911 to Miss Lillie Schmid of Dexter. He was a member of the Carpenter's union and Zion Lutheran Church.

Besides the widow, Philip Seitz is survived by two daughters, Delia and Melinda, both at home. Fred Seitz also leaves six brothers, David Martin, William and Emanuel of Ann Arbor, John of Long Beach, California, and Paul of Saline and three sisters, Mrs. Clara Laubengayer and Mrs. Carl Sweet of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Floyd Wirth of Ypsilanti.

191 Mich 367 1 & 8 If W 103 Election - Corrupt Practice Act - Prohibition of Contribution by Corporation

Acts 1913, No. 109, & 14, providing that no director of a corporation shall pay money there of to any political committee for any election expenses. (See note at end of this case)

Exceptions from Circuit Court Ingham County COLLINGWOOD Judge Criminal action Jacob Gansley convicted of violation of corrupt practices act and alleges exceptions. The facts are stated in the opinion.

AFFIRMED

Grant Fellow, L.W. Carr and William C. Brown for People.

Warner, Raudabaugh & Person and Fred A. Baker for respondent

(358) STONE, C.J. This case is brought here upon exceptions by the respondent after conviction, and before sentence, for an alleged violation of section 14 of Act No. 109 Pub. Acts 1913 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3841), entitled:

(359) "An act to regulate and limit nomination and election, expenses to define and prevent corrupt and illegal practices in nominations and elections to secure and protect the purity of the ballot, and to require accounts of nomination and election, expenses to be filed and providing penalties for the violation of this act".

The accusation set forth in the information reads as follows:

That heretofore, to wit, on the 1st day of April, A.D. 1914 at the city of Lansing, and in the county aforesaid, one Jacob Gansley, being then and there an official, director, and manager of the Lansing Brewing Company, a Michigan corporation and acting for said Lansing Brewing Company, a Michigan Corporation, did pay, give and lend to a certain political committee, to wit, the Personal Liberty League of Lansing, Michigan, the sum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars, in money belonging to the said Lansing Brewing Company, for the payment of election expenses incurred in opposing local option at an election to be held and which was held on the 6th day of April, A.D. 1914, in the said County of Ingham, to ascertain the will of the electors of said county whether or not the manufacture of liquors and the liquor traffic should be prohibited within the limits of said county the said Lansing Brewing Company being then and there a corporation incorporated and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan and doing business at the city of Lansing in said State, and not being a corporation formed for political purposes; the said Personal Liberty League then and there being a committee opposing local option at the election to be held and which was held in said county of Ingham on the 6th day of April. A.D. 1914 to ascertain the will of the electors of said county, whether or not the manufacture of liquors and the liquor traffic should be prohibited within the limits of said county - contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of Michigan."

Upon arraignment the respondent stood mute, but moved the court to dismiss the information for the (360) reason: That it set forth no offense known to the law That said section 14 is unconstitutional and void because:

- 1) Said section is not within the title to the act .and is in conflict with the provision of the Constitution of this State requiring the object of an act of the legislature to be set forth in its title.
- 2) That said section 14 is in conflict with the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States that no State shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. That corporations are persons within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment of tilt Constitution of the United States, and said section 14 denies to all corporations domestic or foreign other than corporations organized for political purposes the right secured to natural persons by section 3 of said act to make expenditures of money for nomination or election expenses.
- 3) That the title of said act confines it to the nomination and election of candidates for office and it can have no application to local option elections in the several counties of the State under the local option prohibitory liquor laws of this State.
- 4) That said section 14 is in conflict with section 4 of article 2 of the Constitution of this State.
- 5) That the act is indefinite, uncertain, and vague and the intent and meaning of the same cannot be interpreted.
- 6) That it is class legislation especially section 14 of the act.

The trial court overruled the motion to which ruling respondent duly excepted and thereupon a plea of not guilty was entered by order of the court. The assignments of error are to the effect that the court erred in overruling respondent's motion to dismiss the information which motion was made at the time said respondent was arraigned and renewed after the evidence had been submitted also in adjudging the respondent (361) guilty contrary to the objections to said information. In this court counsel for respondent argued the question presented under the following heads:

- 1) Whether the act has any application to elections under the local option prohibitory liquor law.
- 2) That section 14 of the act is unconstitutional and void, first, because it denies to corporations, as artificial persons the right granted to natural persons to make the legitimate expenditures authorized by section 3 of the act; and second it denies to corporations the right to make such lawful expenditures as may be necessary to protect their interests in contest to be determined by the people at the polls.
- 3) That section 14 is also in conflict with the provision of the Constitution of this State which (section 4, art. 2) reads:

"Every person may freely speak write and publish his sentiments on all subjects being responsible for the abuse of such right and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press."

- 4) That the whole act should be declared unconstitutional and void.

It may be said at the threshold of this opinion that the construction and validity of the act in question in so far as it affects the conduct of the respondent are here involved.

1. As we understand the first position of counsel for the respondent it is that this act which is generally spoken of as the Corrupt Practices Act has no application to what may be termed local option elections "that looking at the title and body of the act together neither should be construed as applying to local option elections." We have with some care made an analysis of this act copying such sections as are particularly relevant and as this is the first time we have been called upon to examine the act, we include such analysis here.

(362) Section 1 of the act (1 Comp. Laws 1915, & 3828) limits the sum of money to be paid or expenses authorized or incurred by or on behalf of any candidate, to be paid by him, in order to secure or aid in securing his nomination to any public office or position in this State. It also provides that no sums of money shall be paid and no expenses authorized or incurred, by or on behalf of any candidate who has received a nomination to any such office or position, in excess of a stated amount further that no sum of money shall be paid and no expense authorized or incurred by or on behalf of any candidate contrary to the provisions of the act.

Section 2 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3829) provides that every political committee shall appoint a treasurer who shall receive keep and disburse all sums of money which may be collected or received by such committee or by any of its members, for election expenses; and unless such treasurer is first appointed, it shall be unlawful for a political committee or any of its members to collect receive or disburse money for any such purpose.

Section 3 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3830) provides that no candidate and no treasurer of any political committee shall pay give or lend or agree to pay give or lend either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for any nomination or election expenses, whatever except for the purposes therein specified. It also provides that none of the provisions of the act shall be construed as relating to the rendering of services by speakers writers publishers or others for which no compensation is asked or given.

Section 4 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3831) provides that every candidate and every treasurer of a political committee shall file within the time specified a full true and detailed account and statement of all money (363) received or disbursed by him for nomination or election expenses and specifies what such statement shall contain.

Section 5 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3832) makes it unlawful to administer the oath of office or to issue a commission or certificate of nomination or election to any person nominated or elected to any public office until he has filed an account as required by the act, and provides that no such person shall enter upon the duties of his office until he has filed such account nor shall he receive any salary or fees for any period prior to the filing of the same.

Section 6 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3833) provides that such accounts shall be open to public inspection.

Sections 7, 8, 9, and 10 (1 Comp Laws 1915, 3834 & 3837) relate to the statement and what may be done in case it is not filed or is not conformable to the statute.

Section 11 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3838) is as follows: "No person who is not a candidate or the treasurer of a political committee shall pay give or lend or agree to pay give or lend any money whether contributed by himself or by any other person for any election expenses whatever except to a candidate or to a political committee."

Section 12 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3839) provides that no money paid shall be credited to any person other than the one furnishing it.

Sections 13 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3840) makes it unlawful for any candidate or treasurer of a political committee or person acting as such treasurer to disburse money received from any anonymous source.

Section 14 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3841) is the section which respondent is charged with having violated. It reads as follows:

There must be some basis for its action. There must be a petition setting forth the facts said to be wrongful either directly or upon information and belief or in some way facts and circumstances must come to its attention which seem to show a violation of the statute. It is not enough for a party to say: "There may have been a violation of the statute. We don't know. We would like to have the court investigate and lay the facts before us. As will be seen the statute gives to everyone the power to examine minutely every expenditure made. If any one of them is illegal the attention of the court should be called to it."

Notes for Charles Frederick (Carl) Klager:

Dunlap, Kansas August 30, 1919 - I am trying to find some clue by which I can locate my husband Charles Klager from whom I have not heard since July 12, 1919. He drove for some agents of a milking machine in June, last. He went from here to Wichita to drive for them and has not been heard from since the above date. He left here July 2nd. Anyone knowing the names of the milking machine agent or the name of the firm they worked for will confer a favor by informing me at once. I fear Mr. Klager has met with foul play. Any information on this matter is most earnestly requested.

Notes for William M. Klager:

Parsons, Kansas - William Klager, 2322 Main Street, committed suicide early this morning July 18, 1922 by hanging. His was discovered by roomers his home hanging from a rafter the basement. Klager had been for the past 18 months and over his health is blamed for his act his wife said. According to the story told by Mrs. Klager her husband had threatened to take his life several times, telling her he couldn't stand his suffering. Last night he seemed cheerful and in better spirits than in months, his wife said. This morning when Mrs. Klager arose and saw her husband's room empty, she thought he was on a sleeping porch. Failing to find him there she looked about the house and saw a door leading to the basement open. "I knew what had happened when I saw the cellar door open," she said. "I just couldn't go down so I called two of the men rooming here. They found him hanging from the rafters." The discovery was made about 6:30. Physicians who examined the body declared death had occurred about 4:30 o'clock. The body was still warm. Despondent over ill health is the direct cause of Klager's suicide, his wife said. Recently he made a trip to the Mayo Brother's hospital in Minnesota but failed to find a cure. Formerly he was a painter here but had not worked for the past two years.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, 2:30 p. m. at the residence. The Rev. E. M. Paddleford will be in charge. Interment in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Klager was born April 10, 1872, at Seneca, Kansas. He came to Parsons six years ago.

He is survived by Mrs. Klager and one son Dewel Klager; sisters, Mrs. Herbert Schroff, Miss Lizzie Klager; brothers, Charles, Matthew and Edward. The body will lie in state at the residence until the funeral hour.

Notes for Burt Frederick Schumacher:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Burt F. Schumacher. The gentleman whose name is at the head of this sketch is the second son in order of birth of his parents' family and the third child. He was born in the city of Ann Arbor, January 10, 1868, and is a son of John Schumacher, who died February 16, 1890. The latter was one of the prominent and enterprising workers of Ann Arbor—a man of financial standing and one who sought to promote social and personal purity.

Our subject's father who was also born in this city, September 11, 1839, and who died at the date above given, was greatly mourned by hundreds of people, to whom he had endeared himself, throughout a lifelong residence in this city. For a long time the cause of temperance had no more earnest defender and the reformed man no truer friend. He was a son of Frederick Schumacher, who was one of the earliest settlers in this part of the State.

Between the ages of fourteen and seventeen he lived in Detroit and Toledo, but spent the remainder of his life in this city. After learning the hardware trade he started in business for himself and at the age of twenty-two he was married to Miss Sarah Harkins, who with four children survive him. A daily paper publishing an obituary notice at the time of his decease said of him that his best work will never be written. Only those whom his genial sympathy has lifted to a better life know the full extent of what he has done. For many years his store on Main Street has been the center of all forms of temperance work. He possessed the rare faculty of retaining almost universal friendship while engaged with intense earnestness in reformatory work.

With such an example daily before him of virtue, unquestioned morality and piety, our subject grew to manhood and imbibed the principles that should guide a truly pure life. He was educated in the city schools of Ann Arbor and later entered the High School. On finishing his course he entered his father's store as an assistant and there learned the tinner's trade and remained with his father until his death, when he succeeded to the business, the place being located at- No. 68 South Main Street, where may be found a good stock of both heavy hardware, stoves and furnaces, and domestic utensils. In stoves and furnaces our subject carries a particularly good stock, having the latest and most approved designs. He has in his manufacturing establishment the best machinery and is prepared to do satisfactory work for his patrons.

Notes for Carl Friedrich Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Carl F. Braun, assistant cashier of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank, was born January 26, 1873, in Ann Arbor Township, this county. His grandfather, John Braun, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, in early life. In his family were eight children: Michael, a farmer residing on the Whitmore Lake Road; Charles, who is farming in the same locality; Henry, who carries on agricultural pursuits on the Dixboro Road; Christian, deceased; Mrs. Christine Kirn, of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Caddie Stein, who is living in Ann Arbor Township; Simon, deceased; and Frederick B., the father of our subject. Frederick B. Braun was a native of Washtenaw county, born in October, 1840, and spent his entire life here. His father purchased the Vogel farm west of Ann Arbor when he was twelve years of age, and on selling that property bought a farm on the Whitmore Lake road. In 1869 Frederick B. Braun bought the farm on the Dixboro Road, which was his home up to the time of his death. He became recognized as one of the influential and leading business men of the county and was president of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Company at the time of his death, which occurred in December, 1902. His success was marked and attributable entirely to his well directed efforts. He was a man of unassailable integrity in his business affairs, was highly respected in all of life's relations, and by his courtesy and kindness he won hosts of friends who hold his memory sacred. He was a republican in his political views, very prominent in the ranks of the party, and held almost every township office. He belonged to the Zion Lutheran church and was a man of upright life and of marked influence, leaving the impress of his individuality for good upon many public movements.

Friedrich Benjamin married Regina Kirn, also a native of Michigan, and to them were born three children: Carl F.; Benjamin N., who is senior engineer in the University of Michigan; and Caddie M., who died in 1887. Reared in the county of his nativity and educated in the public schools, Carl F. Braun is a graduate of the Ann Arbor high school of the class of 1892. He continued to assist his father in carrying on general agricultural pursuits until January, 1894, when he entered the Ann Arbor Savings Bank in the position of collector. He has been successively promoted to bookkeeper, teller and assistant cashier, filling the latter position at the present writing. This bank stands first in Michigan in point of surplus to capital, with total resources of over two million dollars. Mr. Braun has become interested in other business enterprises, being now a director in the Crescent works, where corsets, waists and skirts are extensively manufactured. He and his brother still retain the ownership of the homestead property, which is a fine dairy farm, comprising one hundred sixty-three and a half acres of land.

In October, 1899, Mr. Braun was united in marriage to Miss Marie C. Knapp, of Chicago, and they have one son, Roger K., who is five years of age. Mr. Braun is an independent republican in his political views. For about ten years he has been one of the directors of the Alumni Association and has also been treasurer during that entire time. He is a young man of excellent business ability, who is steadily working his way upward, realizing that capability and close application constitute the basis of all success.

Notes for Albert Fiegel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Albert Fiegel, a member of the firm of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel, clothiers, of Ann Arbor, was born in Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, December 31, 1873, his parents being John and Kunigunda (Lambarth) Fiegel. The father was a prosperous farmer, who came from Germany to America in his boyhood days, and for over thirty-two years was a resident of Pittsfield Township, where he conducted extensive interests as an agriculturist. He was perhaps the best known farmer of his county, carrying on his business along modern lines of progress and improvement, his place being unsurpassed, because of the care and labor which he bestowed upon it. He held membership in the Zion Lutheran Church, in which he served as deacon, and his life was actuated by principles that neither sought nor required disguise. In his family were nine children, but the eldest died at birth. The others are: Fred C., who is married and living on a farm in Scio Township; Lydia C., the wife of Enoch Dieterle, a prosperous undertaker of Ann Arbor; John E., who is married and lives upon the homestead farm in Pittsfield township; George W., who is married and carries on farming in Scio township; Jacob, deceased; Albert, of this review; Mary C., the wife of John Sauer, of the firm of Sauer & Company, architects of Ann Arbor; and Emma, the wife of Ernest Wurster, of this city.

Albert Fiegel spent his youth upon his father's farm, and in the district schools of Pittsfield Township pursued his early education, while in the period of vacations his time and energies were devoted to the work of the fields. He afterward enjoyed the privilege of instruction in a German school in Ann Arbor, and he entered upon his business career as a clerk in the employ of Wadham, Kennedy & Reule. For five years he remained with that house, gaining an excellent knowledge of the business, both in principle and detail, and working his way steadily upward until he was admitted to a partnership, and is now actively interested in the management and ownership of the business under the firm style of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel.

Mr. Fiegel was married in 1900, to Miss Hannah M. Stein, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have two daughters, Gertrude Christina and Lucile Kunigunda. Mr. Fiegel is an active worker in the Zion Lutheran Church and for many years has been a teacher in the Sunday-school, while of the young peoples' society he is a charter member. His political views accord with the principles of democracy, but he has had no aspiration for public office as a reward for party fealty. His business career is in all ways honorable and commendable. From humble clerkships have come many of our most prominent merchants, and often those whose youth is spent among unfavorable conditions are found in later years in control of the great arteries and exchanges of traffic. Mr. Fiegel is one whose history is indicative of the positions that lie before men in the new world as a utilization of the advantages which surround all have made him one of the representative merchants of Ann Arbor.

Marriage Notes for Robert Finkbeiner and Matilda Hertler:

March 1970 - Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finkbeiner, who have been married for half a century and are still holding hands, now "wonder where those 50 years went!" The couple, whose home is at 10660 W. Michigan Ave., were married March 8, 1920, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hertler, and have lived within a mile area all their lives. They have always been members of St. James United Church of Christ, and she is a member of the Ladies Guild. They also belong to the Farm Bureau. They attended the same grade school, Benton. They both like gardening as a hobby. He is semi-retired, but still drives a tractor.

The Finkbeiner's have a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eldene Finkbeiner, and a grandson, Michael, who will be hosts at a celebration dinner at a later date. Their house is located on the site of the old "Halfway Inn", built in about 1830, a stage stop on the old Chicago turnpike. There was a "spring floor" dance hall upstairs, and the Finkbeiner's danced there at their wedding. At one time, Henry Ford was interested in moving the house to Greenfield Village, but it was too big. When US-12 was widened, the Highway Department contractor wanted to pay to have the historic house moved back from the road, but the owners felt the job would be impossible, and it was torn down. Right now, the world looks "a little dark" to Mrs. Finkbeiner, who had a cataract operation on Feb. 5. But it's still brightened by the smiles of the "child bride" and her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finkbeiner of W. Michigan Ave. celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 18, 1980, at a dinner planned by their son Eldene and daughter-in-law Jean Marie. Many cards and calls from friends and relatives added to the occasion. Both Robert and Matilda grew up on farms in Saline Township. They married at Matilda's parents' home - where they now live - with the late Oscar Hertler and Frieda Finkbeiner Cramer standing up for them, on March 18, 1920. Eldene is the couple's only child. They have one grandson, 26-year-old Michael.

Robert and Matilda are lifelong farmers; they retired about 10 years ago and now Eldene and Michael farm their land. They have been members of the Farm Bureau for years and are lifelong members of St. James United Church of Christ in Saline Township. They enjoy their home ... "They are home-bodies, always have been, but they always enjoy company and communication through the mail," Eldene says. The Finkbeiners are dog lovers; Aussie, their two-year-old, is just like one of the family.

He married Virginia M. (Ginny) Hanson 05 Aug 1944 in Ionia, Ionia Co, Michigan, daughter of Henry Hanson and Esther Loveland. She was born 1923 in Dayton, Ohio.

Notes for Victor Elwood (Vic) Hawn:

Victor "Vic" Elwood Hawn of Sheridan, Michigan, age 90, went to be with the Lord on Friday, October 22, 2010. He was born Aug. 28, 1920 in Ionia, Michigan, the son of Wilbert and Sarah Hawn who resided at 439 Union St., Ionia, Michigan. Married Aug. 5th, 1944, to Virginia M. "Ginny" Hanson of Ionia, Michigan, by her father the Dr. and Reverend Henry A. Hanson.

Vic Graduated from Ionia High School in 1940, where he played center on the school basketball team for 3 years. After school he worked as a butcher in a local market to help support his family. Vic met his future wife, Ginny a stunning looking Episcopalian minister's daughter, of all places, on the beach at Grand Haven State Park. Things were no different back then for a red blooded American boy. Veteran of WWII (from Oct. 1942-Nov. 1945) in Rhineland Central Europe with the 103rd Division of Company M, 157th Infantry. Received 2 Bronze Stars, Good Conduct Medal and a WWII Victory Medal. Vic has been a regular attendee of the annual Division Reunions that meet in a different city each year. He attended St. Louis University, in St. Louis, Missouri, for cadet training for the Air Force.

Vic and Ginny, now a college grad and an Aeronautical Engineer, got married during the war and started Hawn's Bridge Street Market in Belding. After post war hard times and both working a couple jobs, they sold the market and Vic became a mail carrier for the Belding Post Office. After several years, they moved from Belding to Long Lake in Fenwick, MI Post Office where he was a rural mail carrier for both Post Offices. Vic and Virginia are long standing members of St. John's Lutheran Church in Ionia and prior to that Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Belding. He was a member of Belding Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rural Mail Carrier's Association, church Elder, VFW and the American Legion Clubs of Belding and Greenville, served as President of the Belding & Greenville Sportsman's Club and Lion's Club District 11-C-1 Governor. One of Vic's biggest passions in the Lion's Club was as the Chairman of the International Youth Exchange. Vic & Virginia traveled all over Europe, meeting some of the student families while placing foreign students in local Belding area family homes.

Vic had many hobbies. He was an avid sportsman and really enjoyed getting out in nature. Inspired by being a member of the Sportsman's Club, he took hunting and fishing trips to Canada, was a regular deer hunter in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, even back when you had to take a ferry across to the Upper Peninsula. From his early experience as a butcher, he became one of the local deer processors for area hunters. Vic liked to work with his hands and do things for other people. He built and repaired antique furniture as well as making many needed custom projects for the church. He liked to do wood carving, painting, and every wood working project you can imagine in his expansive wood shop.

Vic had a friend, Clarence Sparks, that was a beekeeper (apiarists). When Clarence became ill, Vic took over his honey business. It started out small, but in no time with lots of help from the family, he had over 150 hives and was selling honey to all of the markets in about a 50 mile radius. Vic and Ginny would go to the Michigan State Fair every year to display their honey products. They took 1st prizes for years and sold just about all of the honey that they brought to the fair. Vic and Ginny have traveled and established friends over a lot of the world. Several trips to Europe and Alaska, all over the Holy Lands, Mexico, Hawaii, and even Russia and some of the Iron Block countries. They have hiked the Chilkoot Gold Rush Trail and over the glaciers in Alaska and all over Isle Royal in Lake Superior. They both liked to swim and water ski. Snowbirds to Florida for over 20 years, they would escape the Michigan winters. For the rest of Michigan's seasons the past 5 years, they have been residing in a more manageable house on Pearl Lake in Sheridan.

Victor will be remembered by all for his unselfish and caring attitude for family and friends. He will be missed very much. He is survived by his wife, Virginia M. Hawn; children, Michael "Mike" Hawn and his wife, Deborah and Victoria "Vicki" Deatherage and her husband, Wayne; grandchildren, Brad Parker and his wife, Julie Brian Parker and his wife, Nikki, Tori Deatherage, Scott Deatherage and his wife, Amanda, Mike Deatherage and his wife, Tina; 10 great grandchildren; 1 great-great grandchild. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wilbert and Sarah Hawn of Ionia; sister, Crystal Stencil of Ionia and brother, Howard Hawn of Lansing.

The Memorial Service, conducted by Pastor David Bogda will be held at 11:00 am Tuesday, October 26, 2010 at St. John's Lutheran Church, 617 N. Jefferson St., Ionia, MI (616) 527-1250, with a luncheon to follow at the church. Contributions, in lieu of flowers, can be made to St. John's Lutheran Church. The family will receive friends and relatives 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the Schrauben-Lehman Funeral Home, 220 Rich Street, Ionia MI (616) 527-2250 on Monday, October 25, 2010. Interment will be at Great Lakes National Cemetery (for Veterans), 4200 Belford Rd, Holly Michigan 48442.

To the strains of "Mendelsohn's Wedding March." the bride with her father, preceded by Mrs. Russell Burkhardt, cousin of the bride, came down the aisle; to the chancel, where the groom, attended by his brother Melvin, as best man, were waiting. Rev. Geo. Daschner officiated, using the double ring ceremony. For her wedding the bride chose a princess, style grey satin dress fashioned with a hustle. She wore a grey feather hat and grey accessories. She carried a white Bible and a corsage of red roses and white .mums with streamers. Her cousin Mrs. Russell Burkhardt of Whitmore Lake assisted as matron, of honor. She chose a forest green silk dress and green feather hat and green accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and mums. Melvin Armbruster, brother of the groom, was best man. She was born 17 Feb 1904 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 30 Jul 1969 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Luther Karl Christian Klager:

School name after Mr. Klager: Luther C. Elementary School at 405 Ann Arbor Street; Manchester, Michigan for grades kindergarten through 4th grade.

In 1930, Luther C. Klager and his brother Erwin started the Klager Hatchery on the family farm in Bridgewater. Now it is the largest producer of egg type baby chicks in Michigan. The four incubators have a capacity of 210,000 eggs—50,000 chicks a week. Pullet chicks supply replacement pullets to egg production farms in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

The operation used to hatch 32 different breeds. Now they hatch only one—a layer type. Other changes are that today most of the consumers are commercial operations. Ten years ago, general farmers bought from 100 to 1,000 baby chicks and raised them, selling eggs and chickens on regular routes. Klager contracts a number of farmers to produce the pullets under their supervision and the hatchery delivers around 650,000 ready to lay pullets per year. Their largest customer now has 75,000 layers. Today 98% of all layers are in cages which house 2 to 9 birds. Growing birds are also raised in cages. The hatchery employs 11 full-time and several part-time employees.

December 10, 1936 - Klager's Hatchery at Bridgewater

Since 1920 the familiar figure of a giant white rooster mounted at the front of the building has told the passerby that Klager's Hatchery is operated by two brothers, has grown steadily from year to year. While they are even now culling flocks to secure eggs for hatching they do not stop at that, they also of Michigan is nationally famous for its delicious chicken dinners.

For 5 years the Klager hatcheries have been under the supervision of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Husbandry and the state bureau also. Dr. Beck of the Lansing bureau conducted the blood tests this year and Dr. Jacoby was in charge of tuberculin and pullorum tests. Arthur has the flocks blood and tuberculin tested. Thus all chicks purchased from their hatchery come from healthy, large egg producing strains. They also do custom hatching for many people throughout the countryside.

While chickens predominate they also hatch duck, goose and turkey eggs. The greater demand lies in the chick market. The Lake region Williams, Eugene Luckhardt and Raymond Streeter comprise the local force. Luther Klager and his brother, Erwin, are owners and managers. Their three hatcheries, Chelsea, Ann Arbor and Bridgewater, have a combined capacity of 182,000 eggs.

In the off season the Klager brothers travel for the Smith Incubator Company.

1582. Charles Fredeick¹¹ Braun (Carl William¹⁰, Carl (Charles)⁹, Anna Maria⁸ Eberhardt, Barbara⁷ Schittenhelm, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Anna Maria⁴ Klaeger, Johannes³, Georg², Hans¹) was born 19 Aug 1933 in Ann Arbor Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Apr 2013 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Catherine Ann Fishbeck, daughter of Fred Fishbeck and Harriet ?. She was born 12 Oct 1934 in Michigan, and died 08 Mar 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Charles Fredeick Braun:

Charles F. Braun, age 79, passed away at his home, after a short bout with pancreatic cancer on April 19, 2013, with his family members by his side. He was born on August 14, 1933 to the late Carl and Hilda (Fiegel) Braun in Ann Arbor Township and remained an Ann Arbor Township resident his entire life. After his father died in 1944, Charles, at the age of 10, was thrust into the role of becoming a man and farming the family homestead. Charles attended the Braun one-room school and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1952. He went on to college at Michigan State University and graduated in the school's Agricultural Short Course. Charles returned to the farm with new and better ideas. He was a deep thinker! He retained a lot of knowledge and his head was full of ideas. Many of these ideas were expounded upon, experimented with, and finally implemented into his farming operation or business ventures. One of these experiments was planting and harvesting cucumbers with the help of migrant labor. He, also, was the first in the area to plant huge fields of pumpkins. Charles was the master-mind; the labor and implantation jobs fell mostly to his three step-sons or his employees in later years. He employed men and women from the surrounding areas with many of them hired from his own neighborhood community.

Charles was a confirmed member of the Zion Lutheran Church. He was a member of the Michigan Christmas Tree Association and was a prominent retailer of Christmas trees for Braun's Tree Farm the last several years at his farm in Ann Arbor Township. He was also a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and a former member of the local Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group. Charles was a noted grower of Michigan Certified Seed throughout the state. Charlie served Ann Arbor Township Fire Department as a volunteer fireman for many years beginning in the early 1950's. He, then, became assistant chief and his dedication to the Fire Department led him later to become Fire Chief for six years in the 1980's. C. F., as he was known by some, formerly owned and operated the 49er Truck Stop located at the near-by corner of North Territorial and Whitmore Lake Roads. He, also, built the C.F. Braun Company farm elevator from the ground up. This was one of the largest grain elevator operations in the county at that time. He had a dealership for the German-made Deutz tractors and sold other farm implements as well. He served local area farmers for years with seed, fertilizer, chemicals, supplies, and purchased their harvested grain. A devastating fire, touched off by a propane gas explosion, consumed and demolished his business in April 1978, but Charles, along with his wife, Catherine, faced the challenge of rebuilding his business and went on to assist the farming community until he sold the business in 1985, after serving the farm community for over thirty years. Charlie was well-known throughout the state for his farming expertise. In April 1963, he was featured on the cover of the Successful Farming magazine with his 2-row corn planter attached to his plow. He implemented this new "plow-plant" system. When he finished plowing the field, he had completed the planting! He was never afraid to try anything new, before unheard of, in farming. He did exactly what he wanted to do in his lifetime, which was farming, and also, helped other farmers attain their goal in farming. At the height of his agri-business days, he had many semi drivers on the road delivering anhydrous ammonia to various areas throughout the state, as well as semis hauling grain to the Maumee, Ohio River elevator where the farm grain was loaded onto boats and shipped around the world.

Charles is survived by his loving wife, Catherine (Fishbeck) Judkins Braun; two daughters, Mary Catherine (James) McCreedy and Pamela Anne Braun; one step-daughter, Linda Judkins (Nick Contompasis); three step-sons, Kenneth Judkins, Richard (Sheri) Judkins, and Bruce Judkins; two grandchildren, Abigail Marie and Justin James McCreedy; six step-grandchildren, Tyler Hartman Knutson, Spencer Truman Knutson, Ashley Suzanne Judkins, Alexandria Renee Judkins, twins, Emily Catherine and Nicole Elizabeth Judkins; one step-great-granddaughter, Bailey Stubbe; his brother, David C. Braun of Grand Rapids, Michigan; cousins, Frieda (Kent) McCullough, John Braun, Mary Pfaus and Barbara (Luther) Schaible. Charlie also leaves behind his cherished dog, "Sadie" and cat "Tip" who will greatly miss his daily attention. The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor for their help and excellent care at this difficult time.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 from 2-8 PM at the Nie Family Funeral Home, Liberty Road Chapel, 3767 W. Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, April 25, 2013 at 11:30 AM with an hour of visitation prior to the service at the funeral home with Pastor David Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions in honor of Charles may be made to Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor or the Huron Valley Humane Society.

Notes for Florice Ellen Seger:

Florice (Hunt) Gutekunst was born on January 20, 1918 to Glen and Ada Seger and passed away Sunday, October 17, 2010. We are comforted that she is with her Savior and her son, John, who preceded her in death this August. Florice was married to Jim Hunt and is survived by children, Gail (Don) Winchell, Jim (Chris) Hunt and Barbara (Don) Pickworth; eight grandchildren and six great-grandsons. Florice was married to Richard Gutekunst in 1982, both husbands preceded her in death.

For over 70 years, Florice "touched" many lives with her violin music. Her hobbies became her passion, knitting 200 scarves each year for Youth Haven, her homemade framed pictures (over 27,000 sent to ten countries, each labeled with Bible verses in their languages), and currently she made greeting cards and sent thousands of them to soldiers in Iraq and Afganistan. She received commendations and many grateful letters from soldiers. She loved to travel and visited England and Scotland five times. She spent time on the Tahquamenon River, during most of her summers, with her sisters and close friends. Mom enjoyed life until the day she passed. She loved the beauty of trees, nature, sunsets, marshmallow roasts, singing old hymns and the love of family and friends. We were so blessed to have her for our Mom and Grandma and we will miss her so much!!

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, October 21, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. at the Ganson Street Baptist Church with Pastor Allen Grover officiating. The family will greet friends at Wetherby Funeral home on Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. and at the church on Thursday from 10 to 11 a.m. Those who wish may direct memorial contributions to Youth Haven or Ganson Street Baptist Church.

Notes for Stanley Clarence (John S.) Ganssle:

St. Thomas, North Dakota, Nov. 29, 1919 The Stanley Ganssle farm lying about three miles north of this city has been sold during the past week for a good figure. The farm has quite a remarkable history, as a few years ago it was considered one of the most run down pieces of property in the county, but since Mr. Ganssle took charge of it in person, he has by careful and systematic farming, built it up to where it is considered one of the most desirable properties in the county. Mr. Ganssle was employed in the Farmers' State bank here for a number of years, and his determination to go onto the farm created no little surprise at the time he resigned, but his subsequent success has convinced the most skeptical that his views on proper agricultural methods for the Red River Valley were sound in substance.

He was born 20 Jan 1929 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 17 Feb 2018 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Wilma Marie Alber:

Wilma Mynning, of Dexter, Michigan Age 92, died October 2, 2020 peacefully at home after a period of declining health. Daughter of Dorothy (Finkbeiner) and Julius Alber, Wilma was born July 5, 1928 at home on the family farm in Clinton, the youngest of four children. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Florence Harvey, Paul Alber, and Ella May Smith; her husband, Russell J. Mynning; and a son, David R. Mynning. Wilma is survived by a daughter, Rosemary Downer (Thomas); grandson, Paul Roberts (Karen); and great-grandchildren, Janie, Sophie, and William Roberts. Other survivors are her sisters-in-law, Jacqueline McGinn and Dorothy Alber, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Following graduation from Saline High School in 1945, Wilma found employment as a bookkeeper in Ann Arbor. She was living with her sister and brother-in-law, Ella and George Smith, in their home located on Pratt Road, just down the road from a family named Mynning. Whether by design or luck, Wilma met the love of her life when Russ Mynning was hitchhiking, and she stopped to give him a ride home. Russ and Wilma were married on December 27, 1947 at St. Thomas Catholic Church, Ann Arbor, and were together for 70 years until Russ' death in 2018. Wilma was an avid gardener and cook, skilled seamstress, joyful dancer, committed organizer of family events, savvy card shark, and exceptional raconteur. She was kind and generous to her extended family, and a dedicated volunteer for the Knights of Columbus Ladies' Auxiliary and St. Joseph Catholic Church, Dexter. Wilma was a woman of faith, love, determination, and purpose. She often said, "With God, all things are possible," but also, relying on her own fortitude and pluck, "Where there is a Wilma, there is a way!"

Special thanks to: family, for their prayers, support, love, and laughter over the years; Paul and Karen Roberts; Betty Raab, for hands-on assistance, especially in times of need; the good neighbors at The Cedars of Dexter; Father Brendan and parish members from St. Joe's Church; Wilma's caregivers from Our Family Friend; and Arbor Hospice for their kind care. A private memorial service and burial are planned. Donations in Wilma's memory can be made to St. Joseph Catholic Church, 3430 Dover Street, Dexter, Michigan 48130, the Arbor Hospice Foundation, or a charity of one's choice. Arrangements by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea.

Notes for Russell Joseph Mynning:

Russell (Russ) Mynning passed peacefully on February 17, 2018 in Dexter, Michigan. Born on January 20, 1929 in Ann Arbor he was the son of Donald and Josephine (Mercier) Mynning, younger brother of YeVonne (Joe) Clisham, Jacqueline (Jack) McGinn, Don Jr. (Margaret) and older brother of Jim Mynning, husband to Wilma (Alber), father of Rosemary (Tom) Downer and David, grandfather to Paul (Karen) Roberts and great-grandfather to Billy, Janie, and Sophie. In addition to his wife of 70 years he is survived by his sisters, children, grandson, great-grandchildren and many nephews and nieces.

Russ's long career in construction began in 1947 when he was employed in the building supply division at Ann Arbor Construction Company. Thirteen years later he accepted a managerial job with Rohde Brick and Supply Company. He retired from The University of Michigan's construction division in 1993. As he moved through the ranks in the construction industry he never lost sight of what it was like to work in the field and never asked his crews to do something he wouldn't do himself. Construction was also a significant part of Russ's personal life starting with the building of his and Wilma's first home in Scio Township and a cottage on Half Moon Lake. A larger house built on family land off Pratt Road replaced those earlier dwellings and was the site of many spirited gatherings for family, friends and neighbors. In 2009 Russ and Wilma sold their home and moved to the Cedars of Dexter.

Russ needed to be out of doors in all seasons. He could be found gardening, mushroom hunting, watching the birds and other wildlife and in earlier years, hunting and fishing. He devoted countless hours during the growing season to mowing six acres of lawn in addition to tending a large vegetable garden. During the winter he could be found behind the wheel of his truck plowing snow in the neighborhood. Russ's involvement in community service started early. At the urging of his father, he began his affiliation with the Knights of Columbus Ann Arbor Chapter when he was 18 years old, transferring his membership to the Dexter Council several decades later. Over the years Russ served as Navigator, Grand Knight, and District Deputy. He was an honorary life member of the Third and Fourth Degree. Russ was an active parishioner at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dexter chairing the property commission which takes care of the church buildings and grounds. Russ was involved in Christmas in Action (formerly Christmas in April), a nonprofit agency that partners with members of the community to repair the homes of low income and/or disabled homeowners. "Neighbor helping neighbor" is the organization's motto which struck a chord with all who volunteered their time, labor and material. In retirement Russ delivered Meals on Wheels.

When he wasn't working he enjoyed playing card games with friends, attending music festivals and dances at Old German Park, Frankenmuth, Tri-County Sportsmen's League and other locations, but his true passion was woodcrafting. While he sold some of his crafts, most of his creations were given as gifts to friends and family members or donated for charity auctions and fundraisers. From bluebird houses to dollhouses, rocking horses to whimsical animals, model toy trains, planes, cars, and Santa's sleigh and reindeer, he took great pleasure in making and sharing them. Throughout his life Russ demonstrated his faith and values through actions and deeds. He was a quiet Christian, committed family man, proud patriot and most of all a good friend to all.

Mass of Christian Burial will be prayed at the St. Joseph Village Church, 3430 Dover St., Dexter, with Fr. Brendan J. Walsh presiding on Friday, February 23, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Burial will follow at the St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery in Dexter. The family will receive friends at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Thursday from 4-8 p.m. with a Scripture Service and Chalice Ceremony starting at 7:00 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Christmas In Action or the charity of one's choice.

Marriage Notes for Lillian Kohler and Donald Gilbert:

The farm home of Mrs. Matilda Kohler on Braun Road, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday evening, May 18, 1946, when her daughter, Lillian became the bride of Donald William Gilbert of Ypsilanti. The bridal party formed before a background composed of bouquets of white, purple and yellow iris and lilies of the valley promptly at eight-fifteen o'clock, with the Rev. C. A. Haneberg, pastor of St. James Church, performing the ceremony. The bride was gowned in a white floor length gown with which she wore a finger-tip length veil fastened to her hair with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Stella, was her only attendant and she also wore a white gown and carried talisman roses. Harold Peplau of Ann Arbor served as best man. Mrs. C. A. Haneberg presided at the piano and played Lohengrin's March and other traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony which was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a few friends, a reception was held at the home at which wedding cake and punch were served. On the Tuesday preceding the wedding the couple were feted by a miscellaneous shower at the Polar Bear, sponsored by her sisters. They were the recipients of many lovely gifts. The bride is a graduate of Saline High School and is taking work at the Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti. During the past year she has been teaching in the Kuebler School. After their return from the honeymoon trip, destination not revealed, they will reside in Ypsilanti where the groom is in business with his father.

Stella (Kay)¹¹ Kohler (Matilda Beutler¹⁰ Boettger, Anna Maria⁹ Beutler, Dorothea⁸, Johann Georg⁷, Anna Maria⁶ Brenner, Anna Maria Catharina⁵ Schittenhelm, Anna Maria⁴ Klaeger, Johannes³, Georg², Hans¹) was born 27 Dec 1927 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Sep 2019 in Jackson, Jackson Co, Michigan. She married Harold Julius Peplau 07 Sep 1946 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Julius Peplau. He was born 20 Feb 1924 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 27 Mar 2018.

Notes for Stella (Kay) Kohler:

Stella "Kay" Peplau (Kohler), age 91, of Jackson, Michigan passed away peacefully on September 8, 2019 with her family by her side after a brief illness. Stella was born on December 27, 1927 to Charles and Matilda Kohler in Saline, Michigan. Stella is survived by two daughters and a son-in-law, Karen K. Cook of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, and Sharon and Bruce Robinson of Canton, Michigan. She is survived by four of eight siblings- two sisters and two brothers. Kay was around eight years old when her father was killed in an auto accident that almost also took the life of her oldest sister. After his death, all of the children had to take on extra chores to help support the family. Her oldest sister dropped out of high school and started working. The younger children were responsible for feeding the chickens and collecting the eggs, and older children were responsible for helping to run the farm, milk the cows, and help take care of the younger children.

After high school, Kay met Harold J. Peplau who was living life as a bachelor and farming his Father's farm in Saline. They were married on September 7, 1946. Sometime after that, they both started working at Ford Motor Company. When Harold and Kay had their first daughter Karen in 1951, Kay stopped working outside the house and became a homemaker. Their second daughter Sharon was born in 1954. Kay was a loving and devoted Mother to her two daughters. She was always there to see to their needs. She enjoyed helping them with sewing projects, taking them shopping, making potato doughnuts, and baking springerle cookies at Christmas. At birthdays, Kay would always bake a very special hickory nut cake for the occasion. Kay also loved her standard poodles. Her first poodle Zsa Zsa would get dyed to match the color of each new convertible. People would do a double take to see a geranium orange dog riding in the backseat of a top down geranium orange convertible. Kay enjoyed raising chickens, collecting their eggs, and was proud of her Banty rooster. Kay had a green thumb and raised beautiful orchids on a coffee table in her dining room. Harold and Kay built their first home at 5675 Carpenter Rd. In Ypsilanti, Michigan with the help of some family members. Harold stopped working at Ford Motor Company and became a partner in Smiths Carpets in downtown Ann Arbor. In 1964 Kay and Harold finished building their dream house just down the road at 6320 Carpenter Road. Harold also separated from his partnership with Smiths Carpets and opened his own store called Smiths Floor Coverings Inc. and formed a partnership with Jerry Mrozinski and opened Ann Arbor Carpets.

After Kay's youngest daughter Sharon graduated from high school, Kay went to work at Kitchen Glamour in Kerry Town in Ann Arbor, MI and fancied herself as a gourmet chef. When Harold retired in the early 1990s, he sold his share of Smiths Floor Coverings Inc and Ann Arbor Carpets to his partner Jerry, started planting apple trees and working on becoming a master gardener. Kay and Harold also started to travel the world spending time in Italy, the Caribbean, Switzerland, Germany, and Iceland. As the orchard grew from the initial 10 trees to 150 trees, Harold being forever the businessman, started having Kay sell the excess apples from a farm wagon by the side of Carpenter Road with Kay sitting in her Jaguar until a Pittsfield County official said they had to stop. After that, customers had to drive up to the house and sound their car horn, and while Harold was off pursuing other activities it was up to Kay to sell the apples.

Kay and Harold lived at the 6320 Carpenter Road house until Kay fell on December 23, 2017 and broke several ribs. From there she moved to Glacier Hills Rehab Center. Two weeks later Harold fell and broke his hip so Kay was unable to go home and live by herself. It was decided that the best thing for Kay was to move her to Legacy Assisted Living in Jackson, Michigan where she would be with her older sister Tema Haab and her younger brother Clarence Kohler. Harold would also move to Legacy to be with Kay to further rehab from his fall. Unfortunately, Harold's injuries and previous health conditions proved to be too much and he passed away at Legacy on March 27, 2018, only a few weeks after he moved in.

Kay continued to live at Legacy after Harold passed and this was the first time Legacy had three siblings living in their facility. At Legacy, Kay thrived eating her meals with her sister and brother in the dining room, playing Bingo on Monday's, Wednesday's, Friday's, and Saturday's with her brother, and generally became more social and active than she had been in years. Legacy was a beautiful place to live and everyone there took exceptional care of Kay.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, September 13, 2019 at 1:15 P.M. at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline, MI, with Pastor Drexel Morton officiating. Notes for Harold Julius Peplau:

Harold J. Peplau, 94, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, March 27, 2018. Born on February 20, 1924, he is survived by his wife of 71 years Stella (Kay) Peplau, his two daughters Karen Cook and Sharon (Bruce) Robinson, and his two sisters Evelyn Candianides and Dorothy Kasmar. Harold was born in Detroit and moved to Saline after high school and worked on his farm for several years when he met and married his wife Stella. While he worked at many different occupations throughout his life, Harold always considered himself first and foremost a farmer. After working several years in the Willow Run Bomber plant and at Ford Motor Company as a machinist, he partnered with Vaughn Smith and started Smith's Floor Coverings, Inc. and with Jerry Mrozinski to open Ann Arbor Carpets. He worked for 39 years until he retired in 1990. During this same period, Harold was one of the founding Board of Director members for Huron Valley National Bank in Ann Arbor. He served on the board from 1963 through 1994 which included several years as the Chairman of the Board.

After he retired, Harold worked to become a master gardener and volunteered extensively at Matthaei Botanical Gardens. He worked in the gardens and helped with their annual fund-raising flower show. He also lived for his farm, starting a small apple orchard and a formal rose garden, mowing lawns, and gardening. Even at 93, Harold was still mowing 5 acres of lawn on a large commercial lawn mower and tending a large vegetable garden. It was the place he was the happiest.

Harold's philanthropic works included extensive contributions to the U of M Cardiovascular Center, helping to fund several heart treatment studies in the early 1990's. He also worked closely with other donors in 2009 to help fund a permanent facility for Therapeutic Riding Inc. on East Morgan Road in Ann Arbor that was named in his and Stella's honor. This list also includes help to provide ongoing financial support to Food Gatherers of Ann Arbor, Gleaners Food Bank of Detroit, and Forgotten Harvest of Oak Park Michigan through donation matching grants that have helped fund over 20 million meals.

Finally, one of Harold's greatest honors was to be nominated by Michigan Abilities Centers Equine Assisted Therapy for the PATH International 2017 National Senior Rider of the Year. At the end of February this year, Harold rode with a little girl that was four years old, so there was 90 years difference in their ages. Riding at Michigan Abilities was the highlight of his 94th birthday and something that he was determined to complete no matter what.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, April 3, 2018 at 11:00 A.M. at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline, MI with Chaplain David Goldsmith officiating. Burial will follow the service in Arborcrest Memorial Park in Ann Arbor. Friends are invited to celebrate Harold's life with his family on Monday, April 2, 2018 from 3:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. at the Funeral Home and again on Tuesday, from 10:00 A.M. until the time of service at 11:00 A.M. In recognition of Harold's continuing philanthropy, the family has requested that instead of sending flowers, to please consider making a charitable contribution to either Food Gatherers of Ann Arbor, Gleaners Food Bank of Detroit, or Forgotten Harvest of Oak Park Michigan. To avoid the inevitable question of which organization the family would prefer most, we can only say that they all do incredible work, and all three organizations deserve support. Envelopes will be available at the funeral home.

1873. Roy Bernard¹² Klager, Jr. (Roy Bernard¹¹, Charles Frederick (Carl)¹⁰, Adam⁹ Klaeger, Johann Georg⁸, Christian⁷, Jakob⁶, Christian⁵, Christian⁴, Johannes³, Georg², Hans¹) was born 20 Jul 1928 in Baltimore, Blatimore Co, Maryland, and died 21 Jan 2004 in Wichita, Sedgwick Co, Kansas. He married Kathryn Jane Curtis 06 Mar 1950, daughter of Vance Curtis and Mary Harris. She was born 16 Jul 1931 in Richland, Indiana, and died 01 Oct 1998 in Wichita, Sedgwick Co, Kansas.

Notes for Roy Bernard Klager, Jr.:

Dec. 4, 1962 Kansas City - FBI agent testified yesterday that Roy L. Williams, president of teamsters local 41 and district council 56, had told him the unions, through him, had cracked down on car repair expenses and directed business agents either to lease cars or accept a set monthly amount fined car expenses, Roy B. Klager, Jr., the agent, appeared as a witness in the trial in U. S. District court of six teamster officials, Roy Williams, Earl Dean Williams, Floyd R. Hayes, Karl Rogers, Stanley Clevenger and Cecil H. Bennett on charges of abstracting and embezzling union funds.

Klager testified Roy Williams told him in late 1961 that there had been no authorization for the purchase of a Jeep by Floyd Hayes, and that there had been no authorization for the union to pay for the repairs on a Jeep to Hayes.

Williams made the statements. Klager said, after an investigation into alleged padding of union accounts and kickback was already under way by the FBI. Klager said the investigation had been in progress by the and "for two or three weeks, in answer to questions from Thomas Wadden, Jr., Washington, attorney for Roy Williams, Klager testified that Williams told him October 25, 1961, that union agents did use personal cars on business for the union. "That's correct, he did," the agent said. "Didn't he tell you that changes had been made in this on August 1, 1961?" Wadden asked. "Yes, sir," Klager said. "He said there would be a change on August 1." "Didn't he tell you at that time that the union agents were either going to have to accept $150 a month for car expenses after that time or lease a car which would cost the union $153 a month?" Wadden asked. "Yes, sir," Klager said. "Didn't he say that changes were because the charges had been getting excessive?" Wadden asked. "He said it was too expensive to be done the other way," Klager said. "He said he was just as interested as you were in finding out what was going on in joint council 56 or local 41?" Wadden asked. "Yes, sir," Klager said.

Dudley Talley, shop foreman at the Art Hoffmann Buick agency, 3300 Main Street, testified that Hoffmann had told him in January or February, 1961, that the practice of charging repairs to a car other than the one being repaired would have to stop. "Mr. Hoffmann was in the repair shop and saw a Jeep with repair tickets on it charged to another car," Talley testified. "He asked why these tickets were made out to another car and said he wanted that sort of thing stopped." Talley testified that he had started the procedure when the agency was the Con Frazier Buick agency and that it was in effect when Hoffmann acquired the agency.

Earlier, Talley had testified that Hayes, Bennett and Clevenger had had their personal motor cars repaired at the Hoffmann agency and had the costs charged to the union motor car maintenance funds through district council 56 or local 41. Under questioning from James Broaddus, attorney for Clevenger, Talley testified that five copies were made of repair orders on various cars that came into the agency and that four of these copies accompanied the car during its repair. Broaddus asked him if the repair orders did not carry the name of the person to whom the car belonged, the make and model of the car and the license number, and he said they did. Broaddus asked if the orders listing cars other than those for which repairs were actually made were never questioned. "One of the mechanics asked me about it one time," Talley said. "What did you tell him?" Broaddus asked.

"I told him that was the way the union wanted it billed," Talley said. Broaddus asked if it did not present problems for the cashier when the bills were paid. Talley said that occasionally an employee going to pick up the car in the service lot would come back and say she could not find the type of car for which the ticket was made out. Then Talley would indicate the right car. Talley testified that he always handled the making out of the repair orders on the teamster cars during the time they were repaired at the Frazier and Hoffmann agencies. He said he was the only one who handled the repair orders and got a service sales commission on them.

John Molle, general manager of the Sarann Auto Leasing company testified that he had signed lease agreements with Roy Williams and Bennett for cars from 1958 through 1961, both at the Sarann agency and at the Van Auto Leasing company. Harold L. Thornton, an insurance agent and broker here, testified that he wrote insurance on two cars for Hayes from 1958 through 1961, a 1957 Lincoln and a 1961 Chrysler station wagon. He said the premiums were paid by district 56 and 41 and covered the unions as well as the driver, Hayes. Thornton also testified, in answer to questions from James Featherstone, an attorney for the justice department, that he had written insurance through teamster local 41 on a 1959 Oldsmobile, a 1960 Oldsmobile and a 1961 Ford for Clevenger. F. R. Walterbach, treasurer of the Hoffmann agency, identified a series of statements and checks made out to local 41 and district council 56 for repair work, including some which covered repair work done on cars belonging to Hayes, Bennett or Clevenger.

In a typical exchange Featherstone would ask Walterbach to identify the documents and Walterbach would reply: "This is a statement issued to 41 on February 24, 1961, in the amount of $125.31." "Is there a repair order included there?" Featherstone asked. "Yes, there is a repair order! in the amount of $47.81," Walterbach said. "Can you identify this?" Featherstone asked.

"Yes, that is a check in the amount of $125.31 issued by local 41 March 17, 1961, in the amount of $125.31 in payment of the previous statement," Walterbach said. The questions and answers were repeated time and again, with varying amounts and dates. Wadden said he would stipulate that the checks were signed by Roy Williams on local 41 and district council 56, but that in itself would not necessarily indicate that Mr. Williams was part of any plot that was alleged. Judge Floyd R. Gibson, before whom the trial is being conducted, said that the evidence would be admitted but that he had instructed the jury that evidence was to be considered only in relation to its merit.

In answer to a question from Broaddus, Walterbach testified that Talley was paid a commission of 2 per cent on all service sales and that the number of orders he wrote would vary from five to 25 a day. The trial, during the afternoon session, was punctuated by frequent conferences at the bench, out of hearing of the jurors, on some point in the conduct of the trial. One session at the start of the afternoon session was held in Judge Gibson's chambers. The trial will resume at 10 o'clock this morning.

Jan. 1, 1981 Tampa - Roy B. Klager Jr. is starting the New Year with a new job in a new city in a new state. Klager begins 1981 as the special agent in charge of the Tampa FBI office. He arrived here Monday afternoon from St. Louis, where he had been agent in charge since December 1977, and he has been busy making changes ever since. The changes so far have been more those of style than substance. And they have involved pieces of furniture, rather than people or policies. One of the first things he did was have the lights dimmed and the sofa moved in his sixth-floor office in the Robert L. Timberlake Jr. federal building in downtown Tampa. He also prefers to keep the drapes closed, unlike his predecessor, Philip A. McNiff. But don't get the impression that Klager has spent the past few hours involved solely with interior decorating. Neither should one get the impression Klager is given to widespread revamping of the office.

"This is a very fine, first-class operation that the FBI has in Tampa," Klager said in a brief interview with The St. Petersburg Times Wednesday afternoon. "My attitude is going to be to sit back, look and listen." "You can't knock success, and this certainly has been a very successful operation," he said. Actually, Klager has spent more time meeting with some of the 80 agents he now supervises than he has shifting chairs. He is learning what investigations are under way in the Tampa office, which is the headquarters for a region that stretches across mid-Florida from Clearwater Beach to Cocoa. He praised his predecessor, McNiff, as a "fine manager." The 54-year-old McNiff resigned from the bureau Nov. 14 to take a job with New York Yankees owner and Tampa shipbuilder George Steinbrenner. He would have faced mandatory retirement at age 55. Klager said he doubts it will take long to settle into his new post. "The procedures are the same, the things are done the same as they are in other field offices," he said. "All I need to worry about here is learning what's going on in Tampa, and I can pick up from there," he said.

Klager, 52, had been in charge of the St. Louis office for three years prior to accepting the transfer to Tampa. He joined the bureau in 1951, working as a field agent for 20 years in Louisville, Dallas and Kansas City. He has also served in the FBI headquarters in Washington and as assistant special agent in charge of the Jackson, Miss, office. He said he is "delighted" to be in Florida, where he has relatives. He acknowledged it will probably be "several months" before he is settled permanently into the Suncoast life style. Speaking of the priorities he expects for the Tampa bureau during the next couple of years, Klager said he thinks the office will continue to focus on the three principal areas that the FBI has set as national priorities. These are organized crime, white-collar crime and foreign counter-intelligence. Speaking of the foreign counter-intelligence work in which the bureau is engaged, Klager said it would surprise most people to know such activity is going on in mid-Florida.

"This is an area I cannot discuss with you, of course," he said, "but, yes, it does (occur)." "This is a field that, surprisingly, occurs in almost all of the field offices across the country. "Anywhere there's high technology you're going to find an effort on the part of foreign counterintelligence agencies, and it's our responsibility to see they don't score." In this area, Klager said, the activity could be expected to center on the space industry around Cape Canaveral and in the many electronics-related industries of Central Florida. Klager stressed the importance the "new" FBI of Director William Webster places on making certain that FBI agents operate within the law, something that has not always been the case in the past. "We've got to be damn sure that we don't ever again fall prey to the second-guessing and retrospective criticism that been's leveled at us in the past," he said. "This is not a reconstituted FBI, but what I think is an FBI that is mandated to meet a new set of priorities."

Notes for Gertrude Ann Duwald:

Gertrud A. Klager, better known as Gerti, was born in Lollar, Germany on May 8, 1929. She came to the United States with her husband PFC. William James and they settled in Saline, Michigan. William James preceded her in death December 1960. Gerti then moved to Bridgewater, Michigan with her second husband Lloyd S. Klager, who also preceded her in death February 1969. Gerti was one of 5 sisters, late Margarta of Maryland, late Hedwig of Minnesota, Irene of Germany and Irmgard of Australia. Gerti is also survived by her three children, Mary (late Vic) Izzo, Ronald (Kathy) James and Trudy (Russell) San Nicolas; 6 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

Gerti was a longtime member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, Michigan. She enjoyed being a Sunday School Teacher for over 25 years, singing in the choir and being a member of the Mary-Martha Circle Women's Bible Study Group. Living right across from the church, Gerti was also the "unofficial watchdog" for the church, always knowing about church happenings. Gerti loved spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved traveling especially to Florida and California. Gerti loved to knit; probably some of you have received a knitted scarf from her. Gerti loved her Hallmark Movies and loved decorating for Christmas. She had been known to keep up her decorations until February! Many people know Gerti from working at Comerica Bank or after she retired, working at Tim Horton's where she greeted her regulars with a smile and a cup of coffee.

Her family wishes to extend their deepest gratitude and appreciation to the Saline Evangelical Home and Arbor Hospice for their dedicated care and compassion in caring for Gerti. In lieu of flowers, if you wish to make a memorial contribution to St. John's Lutheran Church or EHM Senior Solutions, 440 W. Russell St., Saline, Michigan 48176. Life-long Chelsea-Dexter area farmer Charles Trinkle was found died on March 7, 1991 at his Lima Township farm, the victim of an apparent, suicide, according to a report filed by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. No note was found at the scene, the milking parlor for the family dairy herd. The incident apparently took place shortly after noon. Trinkle, 56, was a member of the Lima Township Board and represented the board on the planning commission. "He was a sincere guy who worked to 150 percent of his ability," said township supervisor Bill Van Riper, a farmer and long-time friend. "He was a workaholic but was a very giving person. It's a terrible tragedy and a terrible waste of talent." Van Riper said he was shocked by Trinkle's death and noted Trinkle had seemed in fine spirits at March township board meeting. Van Riper said he was asked by Trinkle's brother, Harold, if he could serve the remainder of "Charlie" Trinkle's term on the board. Van Riper said he was leaning in that direction but the decision would be up to the board. Harold Trinkle is a member of the planning commission. Charles Trinkle was owner of Charles Trinkle & Sons Hay and Straw, one of the largest such operations in the county, and had farmed in the Dexter area all his life. In 1906 he was honored as the Dexter Jaycees, "Outstanding Young Farmer," and was runner-up in the state competition. Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor and graduated from Pioneer High School in 1968.

She met the love of her life, James L. Jedeled, in the fall of 1968 and they were married on September 12, 1970. Nancy was an active member of Faith Lutheran Church in Dexter, Michigan for more than 50 years. Nancy worked at UofM hospital for more than 25 years as an inpatient unit clerk. She spent most of those years in the SICU where she made many wonderful friends. She truly loved her job and considered it her "home away from home". Nancy and Jim started Berry Hill Farm in 1986. Initially started as a red raspberry farm, they grew the farm into a fall destination with its large pumpkin patch and fun fall decorations. Nancy enjoyed meeting all who visited the farm and many who visited became friends. She was a member of the North American Raspberry and Blackberry Association.

She gave the best back/shoulder rubs and arm tickles EVER and sang "You are my Sunshine" & "Skinamarinky, dinky dink" on repeat to her grandkids. She loved to be outside in her flower and fairy gardens; she would spend hours getting them "just right". She will be deeply missed and remembered for her hard work ethic and kind and loving nature.

Notes for Patricia L. Gillette:

Patricia (Gillette, Dowling) Gutekunst April 9, 2016 was the departure date for my last Great Adventure. Preceding me were my parents Leonard and Bertie Gillette, half-brother Herbert (Jean) Gillette, husband Albert Dowling and, way too early, my son Gregory Dowling. Staying behind, my faithful, understanding and loving husband John Gutekunst, my one-of-a-kind son Martin Dowling and the daughter I admire and cherish Barbara (Todd) Dowling Glickstein and a loving stepdaughter, Julee (Mark) Fuller.

If you knew me one time or another then you might know of my successes and failures. If you didn't know me then my life wouldn't be of interest to you. It has been a great life. A mixture of highs and lows, laughter and tears but I lived it the best I could. I just wish that everyone would learn to SMILE. Smiling is easy. You smile at someone and they smile back. The world's problems would be solved easier and faster if everyone just tried smiling at each other. Pat's family would like to thank the outstanding staff at both the Chelsea and Ann Arbor locations of St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital for their outstanding care and compassion. Donations can be made to the Jackson County Animal Shelter or the Cascade Humane Society. A private family service will be held at a later date. Wetherby Funeral Home 402 Wildwood Ave.

Dave was a multi-sport athlete in high school and college, who enjoyed playing and coaching sports, especially tennis. In the 1990's, Dave served as Assistant Men's Tennis Coach at Willamette University and as the Head Boy's Tennis Coach at North Salem High School, where he was honored as Coach of the Year in 1997 for the Valley League 4A.

In 2000, Dave became a part of the Breitenbush Hot Springs, maintaining and upgrading the various infrastructure systems for this unique alternative geothermal community, it was at Breitenbush that he met the love of his life and future wife, Heidi Peterson. In 2003, Dave and Heidi left Breitenbush to care for his mother in Kansas for a year before returning to purchase their dream home in the Blue Mountains of Northeast Oregon. It was here that Dave and Heidi flourished. They enjoyed a mutual passion for entertaining and for sharing the beauty and serenity of their home and region with their diverse community of friends and family. After many years together, Dave and Heidi exchanged wedding vows on August 21, 2010 at their home on Weston Mountain before their dearest friends and family in a multi-day celebration of their love.

Dave found peace in his garden and relished in gracing his home with cut flowers and plants. He enjoyed playing jazz piano and bluegrass mandolin and was an award-winning photographer. Dave was a talented craftsman and enjoyed working with his hands doing high end remodeling and construction. Dave loved the Oregon Country Fair and only missed two fairs in twenty-seven years. He was a senior member of Energy Park and shared his exuberance for the fair with many people he met. His Blue Mountain paradise served as a quiet and peaceful location to work on his many archival projects documenting citizen activism and his numerous and varied successful efforts to reform state, national and international public policies. Dave was a gifted writer and public speaker who thrived on educating and empowering individuals to take control of their lives. These ethics influenced every interaction he shared with his colleagues, peers and friends. Dave had a dynamic and radiant spirit and he will be remembered for his ability to make every person that he met feel that they were important and special.

Dave is survived by his wife, Heidi Peterson of Weston Mountain, Oregon, his sister Catherine Hunt of Salina, Kansas plus the many friends who shared in his life's adventure.

Efforts are underway to establish a foundation in Dave's honor that will support citizen-to-citizen diplomacy to find common understanding among people in contentious issues as well as other causes that were important to Dave. Arrangements are being made with an interim non-profit organization to receive donations in Dave's honor for this purpose. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to support this effort at: David D. Hunt Fund; co CAPECO; 721 SE Third Street; Pendleton Oregon, 97801.

A gathering and celebration of Dave's life will be held at the Pringle Community Hall at 606 Church Street S.E. in Salem, Oregon at 1 :00 pm on Saturday, January 22, 2011. A celebration will also take place on February 6, 2010 in Dave's much-loved hometown, Salina, Kansas. Arrangements are being made by Burns Mortuary in Hermiston, Oregon.

He married Nancy Jean Haynes 22 Jul 1978 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Roland Haynes. She was born 09 Feb 1952.

Notes for Kenneth George Feldkamp:

Kenneth Feldkamp of Clinton, Michigan age 64, died Tuesday, December 26, 2017, at his home. Kenneth was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on September 10, 1953 to the late Milton and Margaret (Finkbeiner) Feldkamp. Ken married Nancy Haynes on July 22, 1978 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. In addition to his wife, Ken is survived by his daughter, Amy (Bryan) Marr of Britton, Michigan; son, John Feldkamp of Ypsilanti, Michigan; and grandchildren, Aiden and Allison Marr. He is also survived by siblings Diane (Earl) Horning, Albert Feldkamp, and Janet (Jase) Wholehan, as well as many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents. Ken was a lifelong farmer on the family farm in Saline with his brother, Albert. Throughout their farming careers, the "Feldkamp Brothers" enjoyed raising pigs and crops, as well as going to auctions and farm shows. Throughout his childhood, Ken was a member of the Saline 4-H Farmers, Saline High School Future Farmers of America Chapter, and Saline Steer Club. While in these groups, he participated in showing animals and on judging teams, even traveling to and competing in several State and National 4-H and FFA Conventions. This love of showing animals carried into the rest of his life, as he was proud to help his children, niece, nephew, great-nieces, and great-nephews prepare their own animals, especially their pigs, for 4-H and other local fairs. Ken graduated from Saline High School in 1972, and following his graduation, began a career at Saline Area Schools as a custodian. It was there that he met his future wife, Nancy. "Mr. Kenny" truly enjoyed working with the staff in his various buildings over the years, but his favorite part was spending time with and helping the children who attended his schools. He retired from Saline Area Schools in 2010, after 38 years of service to the district. His family was incredibly important to Ken. The greatest joys of Ken's life were raising his children, Amy and John, and in recent years, being Grandpa to Aiden and Allison and spending time with them whenever he could. Ken was also a lifetime member of St. James United Church of Christ in Saline.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, December 30, 2017 at 11:00 A.M. at St. James United Church of Christ, 11005 W. Michigan Ave., Saline, with Pastor John Deuble officiating. Visitation will be held at St. James United Church of Christ on Friday, December 29 from 2:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. and Saturday, December 30, 2017 from 10:00 A.M. until the time of the service at 11:00 A.M. Burial will take place at the St. James United Church of Christ Cemetery following the service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. James United Church of Christ and envelopes will be available at the church.

Notes for Jody Marie Haus:

Jody Marie Glatz of Saline, Michigan, age 57, passed away peacefully Thursday, April 9th at University of Michigan Hospital after a brief illness. She was born February 13, 1952 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania the first daughter of John & Joan Haus. Jody graduated from Hillsdale High School in Hillsdale, Michigan in 1970, and Eastern Michigan University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology in 1974. She was married on June 17, 1972 to Kenneth Glatz of Saline.

A long time Saline resident, Jody was the Director of Marketing at Brecon Village and a member of St. Andrew Catholic Church. Jody was a very active parent and assisted in many organizations while her children attended Saline Schools. She was also active in several groups at St. Andrew Church, the Saline Chamber of Commerce, and Friends of the Library. In recent years she attended WCC in pursuit of an associate's degree in Web Design and also completed the Saline Leadership Institute. Jody was a life-long learner with a passion for science and history. She was an avid reader and lover of politics, CNN and Meet the Press, gardening, home-improvement shows, movies, crossword puzzles, and pop culture. Jody had a curious mind, a dry wit, a fiery temper and a very big heart. She loved going apple-picking every fall, going to Holiday Nights every December, and never missed the Ann Arbor Art Fair. She liked to make every occasion special, and loved all kinds of holidays.

She enjoyed working with the wonderful, warm people at Brecon Village. Some of her favorite times were going on family trips to North Carolina, Mackinac Island and Disney World. Jody will be best remembered as a loving mother and friend. There was absolutely nothing in the world she wouldn't do for her children and her favorite times were spent with her family eating, playing games and hanging around their backyard pool. She was a quick and passionate person, always ready to share an opinion or idea, and many hours were spent with her family debating, talking, and laughing. She was fiercely loyal, smart, and compassionate in addition to being a life-long Catholic and a deeply spiritual person. Her legacy will be carried on in the hearts of everyone she touched. She is survived by her husband of 36 years, her children, Kristen of Ann Arbor, Dana (Glatz) and Jason Kohler of Novi, Adam and soon-to-be daughter-in-law Stacey (Atkinson) of Columbus, Ohio; two sisters, Nicole Howard and husband Scott of Middletown, Delaware, and Lisa Sheraw and husband George of Carmel, Indiana; and nieces Amanda and Danielle Howard, and Paige Sheraw. Notes for Laurence Alan (Larry) Carr:

Laurence Alan Carr (Larry), 77, died Tuesday, July 16, in Louisville, Kentucky of complications from Myelodysplastic Syndrome. He was born March 21, 1942 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, the son of the late Hollis and Virginia Carr. He graduated from Saline High School as valedictorian in 1960, having served as class president for multiple years. He attended the University of Michigan, graduating in 1965 with a B.S. in Pharmacy. He then went on to earn a Ph.D. in Pharmacology from Michigan State University. In 1969, Larry and his wife, Jeanne, moved to Louisville, Kentucky and joined the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology at the University of Louisville. Over 32 years, he taught graduate, medical, dental, and nursing students and was named Teacher of the Year by the student body twice. As a scientist, he studied how drugs act in the brain. He was named a Fulbright Research Scholar in 1980, leading to a year of research in Paris, France. He also served as Associate Dean for Curriculum in the UofL Medical School from 1987 until his retirement in 2001. Larry truly was an educator, scientist, historian, leader, and volunteer. He served as president of several local chapters of national societies, including the UofL Association of Retired Personnel.

Throughout his life, Larry had a passion for genealogy and for history, especially the Civil War.

Vacations with family entailed countless trips to monuments and landmarks. For the past 17 years, he volunteered at the Filson Historical Society in the archives. He was a long-time member and supporter of St. Paul United Methodist Church. Larry was generous with his time, serving on the board of Highland Community Ministries and volunteering with Meals on Wheels from his retirement up until a week before his death. He was commissioned as a Kentucky Colonel in 1984. Larry was patient, thorough, careful, and, at times, remarkably thrifty, suitable for his do-it-yourself philosophy toward life and home improvement projects.

He was an exceptional husband, marrying Jeanne (Levleit) Carr, his sweetheart from kindergarten, in 1964. He is survived by Jeanne, two very grateful children, L. Alan Carr, Jr. (Janet) of North Branford, Connecticut and Rachel Atwell (Michael) of Louisville, Kentucky, four grandchildren, Seth and Wyatt Carr and Ethan and Madeline Atwell, his brother Bruce Carr (Phyllis) of Irving, Texas and his sister Deborah Brunelle of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and several nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held at the Filson Historical Society, 1310 S. Third St., on Friday, August 9, 2019 from 4:00-6:00PM, followed by a memorial service at 6:00 PM. Donations can be made to the St. Paul United Methodist Church, the Filson Historical Society, or the Parklands of Floyds Fork.

Notes for Margaret Marleen Luckhardt:

Margaret Marlene Comfort 79, of Saline, Michigan passed away peacefully on Monday, June 28, 2021. Marlene went to bed on the night of the 27th, and, after a long and restful nap, found herself with her Lord Jesus in Heaven on the night of the 28th. Any recollection of Marlene's life would be remiss without discussion of what she believed to be her primary calling: that of a Foster Parent primarily (but not limited) to newborn children. It was her joy to provide love and care for these children between the time they were born and could find adoptive parents; a time frame that lasted from days to years for each child. In her later years Marlene trained for and became additionally certified to care for medically challenged children. Over her many years of service in this vocation over sixty children could, for a time, call Marlene "Mom."

Marlene's other interests and talents included arts and crafts (she was particularly known for her tatted cross bookmarks and crocheted blankets for newborns); animals (she was especially fond of Dachshunds and horses), and following the Detroit Tigers. She was a member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saline.

Marlene was born on May 12th, 1942, to Leo Luckhardt and Lorena (Kohler) Luckhardt, both of whom precede her in death. She is survived by her sister Loraine (Luckhardt) Harwick; her brother Doug Luckhardt; her two children, George (Janet) Ragle, and Daniel (Beth) Ragle; three grandchildren, Maureen Lauer, Nicole Ragle, and Ashley Ragle; and several nieces, nephews, and great-grandchildren.

2363. George Scott¹³ Rentschler (Gilbert Royden¹², George Robert (Buddy)¹¹, Christian¹⁰, Christian⁹, Anna Maria⁸ Klaeger, Matthaeus⁷, Christian⁶, Christian⁵, Christian⁴, Johannes³, Georg², Hans¹) was born 30 Jun 1972 in Louisville, Jefferson Co, Kentucky, and died 07 Apr 2004 in Baghdad, Iraq. He married Rachael A. Basham 11 Sep 1998. She was born 1976.

Notes for George Scott Rentschler:

April 8, 2004 - Lillian Rentschler never got a reply to her e-mail asking her only son if he had received the Easter package with the silly dancing bear. Yesterday morning she received a telephone call from her daughter-in-law, Rachel, telling her that George Scott Rentschler had been killed in Iraq the night before. The 31-year-old sergeant, who grew up in Louisville, was serving with the Army's 135th Armored Division. He was killed when a rocket hit the side of the tank he was riding in while checking on his platoon members, who were working at a checkpoint, Rentschler said yesterday at her South Louisville home. Just a couple of hours after she had received the call from Rachel, who is living in Germany, two Army officials from Fort Knox knocked on Rentschler's door. They confirmed her son's death.

"When the military shows up at your door, you know it's real," she said. George Rentschler attended Central High School and received his diploma from Male High School before joining the Army. During his 10 years in the service, he held several jobs and spent time at Fort Knox, at Fort Hood, Texas, and in Bosnia. Before going to Iraq, he'd been a training officer at Fort Knox, a job that appealed to his love of teaching, Rentschler said. In October, George Rentschler shipped out for Iraq, with a short stop in Germany, where his wife and two sons, 12-year-old Scott and 5-year-old Brock, have been living since then. He was supposed to depart Iraq on leave April 19 his mother hoping he could get home in time for the Kentucky Derby. "We knew it would only be a leave," but Rentschler said she just wanted to see her son. In the meantime, she settled for occasional phone calls and mostly relied on e-mail for contact. Lately, the e-mails arrived weekly because her son was working so much. She always included the same message: "Write back soon. Keep your head covered. And get back to me."

She also had tried to get him to think about leaving the Army as soon as possible. "There wasn't any talking him out of it because he loved what he was doing," she said. "He loved his country. And now he's given his life for it. I hope they appreciate it." Once he got out of the service, George Rentschler was hoping to become a coach, having always been involved in coaching youth teams in baseball and football. "He loved children," his mother said, especially his two boys.

Rentschler, a substitute teacher for Jefferson County Public Schools and a minister at First Gethsemane Church, said she always had reservations about her son being sent to Iraq. "I didn't want him to go, but he's a sergeant and he's been overseas before," she said. George Rentschler would try to reassure his mother about his safety. "He always told me that the only way he would get hurt was if they took a rocket to the side of his tank," his mother said. "That's what happened." Although she said she believes that the people in Iraq need help, she said it should be a more global effort. "I want our guys out fast, but the only way I know how to get them out is prayer," Rentschler said. Funeral arrangements are pending.

April 16, 2004, Sturgis, Kentucky - A Fort Knox-based soldier killed in Iraq on April 7, 2004 will be buried tomorrow. Staff Sgt. George Scott Rentschler, 31, died in a rocket attack in Baqouba. He grew up in Louisville and received his diploma from Male High School. Rentschler went to Germany from Fort Knox before the deployment to Iraq. His funeral is scheduled for 11a.m. tomorrow at Carlisle Avenue Baptist Church in Louisville. Burial with full military honors will follow in the Pythian Ridge Cemetery in Sturgis. Rentschler joined the Army on April 20, 1993, and received numerous commendations.

May 13, 2004 - Lillian Rentschler had hoped her son, Army Staff Sgt. George Scott Rentschler, would be home on leave from Iraq intime for the Kentucky Derby. Instead, she received a call from her daughter-in-law saying that her son had died. Rentschler, 31, of Louisville, Kentucky, planned to go back to coaching youth teams in baseball or football after he left the Army. The Fort Knox-based soldier was killed April 7 in Baqouba, Iraq, when a rocket hit his tank at a check-point His mother said she always had reservations about her son being sent to Iraq. Rentschler; who also served in Bosnia, would try to reassure her. "He always told me that the only way he would get hurt was if they took a rocket to the side of his tank," she said. "That's what happened." Survivor include his wife Rachel, and two sons.

Boca teacher Charles Stewart Klager dead at 60 taught at Spanish River High School for 28 years.
November 13, 2013 - By Lois K. Solomon, Sun Sentinel

In the parking lot at Spanish River High School in Boca Raton each day, there was a tall, thin man who directed drivers during the chaotic morning drop-off. Charles Stewart Klager, known as "Stew," remained calm amid impatient parents and inexperienced teen motorists. Mr. Klager maintained his peaceful demeanor throughout the school day, whether he was helping a family open a locker before the first day of school or encouraging the lower-performing kids he chose to teach.

Mr. Klager died on Saturday at 60. He had taught psychology, sociology and legal studies at Spanish River for 28 years. "He was a very quiet guy who made his mark in unassuming ways," said Brett Burkey, Spanish River social studies chairperson. "We have a highly charged group of students here, but he chose to teach kids who weren't academically motivated."

Mr. Klager attended Wentworth Military Academy in Missouri and served in the Army's 101st Airborne division. The Vietnam War draft ended right before he was about to serve there, said his daughter, Skylar Klager, 22, a 2009 Spanish River graduate. He received a social studies education degree from Florida Atlantic University and taught at Atlantic High in Delray Beach before starting at Spanish River, she said.

Skylar Klager said she and her brother, Shane, loved attending the same school where their dad taught. "He always told me he was lucky to have a job he loved, and wanted me to love what I did," said Skylar Klager, now a cancer researcher in Boston. Mr. Klager is survived by his wife, Liz; and children Shane and Skylar. A funeral service will be at 5 p.m. Thursday at Ascension Catholic Church, 7250 N. Federal Highway, Boca Raton.

Heather Feldkamp, 44, discovered her Lyme disease infection too late. The Saline resident was a very active soccer player when, in January 2013, her right leg started going numb. "I thought it was sciatica," a pinched nerve condition, she said. "I went to the chiropractor a couple of times. Eventually, my left leg started going numb as well. I was starting to limp. I couldn't play soccer anymore."

Heather Feldkamp was active and athletic before being diagnosed with both breast cancer and Lyme disease. Feldkamp's cancer is in remission, but the Lyme disease has left her permanently disabled. Feldkamp said her primary care physician was baffled and sent her to a neurologist, who conducted an MRI. Then came a spinal tap, and the coincidental discovery that she had cancer. She beat breast cancer within that year, but the tingling and impinged motion continued. Her primary care doctor and oncologist thought the symptoms were somehow related to her cancer, but Feldkamp was skeptical.

She went to a holistic doctor in Ann Arbor, versed in Lyme disease, at her own expense. "She tests me and says, 'You don't have cancer in your nerves; you're full of Lyme,'" Feldkamp recalled. Sharing that news with her other doctors brought pushback, she said. "They told me, 'We don't have Lyme (here),' she said. A blood test was shipped to a lab in California. Weeks later, Feldkamp received a call from the Washtenaw County Health Department. "Where have you been? Where have you been traveling?" she said they asked. Her test had come back positive for Lyme disease. "I hadn't traveled," she said. "I live on a dairy farm. We've got a lot of trees, a lot of cattle, deer." Feldkamp doesn't recall a tick bite, or the signature bull's-eye rash that often develops after one. "I could have had it for a year. Maybe it laid dormant," she said. "I was told I could have gotten bit on my head, where you never see the bite, because it's covered by your hair."

Feldkamp said she never got her primary care doctor, neurologist, or oncologist to take Lyme disease seriously. "And once I started being vocal about it on Facebook, I started hearing from all these other people suffering from Lyme disease who've had a similar experience with their doctors," she said. According to the Infectious Diseases Society of America, taking certain types of antibiotics for up to three weeks is the best course of treatment when Lyme disease is discovered early. Longer courses of antibiotics, possibly administered repeatedly over several months, are called for when the disease is caught later. More problematic, however, is when tests show the disease is gone, but debilitating symptoms remain, known as post-Lyme disease syndrome.

"There is no well-accepted definition of post-Lyme disease syndrome," a 2006 study published by the Infectious Diseases Society of America stated. "This has contributed to confusion and controversy and to a lack of firm data on its incidence, prevalence and (manner of development)." There's even debate in the medical community about what causes post-Lyme disease syndrome, Foster said. "Some people say it's still the spirochetes" — the spiral shaped, Lyme disease-causing bacterium — "that are still there, gone into cyst form," he said. "Others say the spirochetes are no longer there, but the initial infection is still causing an auto-immune response, and the body is attacking itself." The lack of answers, and outright skepticism sufferers can face from medical professional, have led to passionate responses, Foster said. A. My dad was a high school counselor. He told me being a pharmacist would be a good job for a woman.

Q. What is your favorite part of your job?

A. Interacting with people; (especially) the people that I work with. We're in such a close proximity ... you have to really love the people you work with. We're shoulder-to-shoulder eight and a half hours a day. We spend more time together than we do with our spouses.

Q. What has been your proudest or most memorable moment at work?

A. There is a particular customer that I have helped a number of times. She's a mental health patient. She's had times where her doctor needed to be contacted and I went out of my way to reach her doctor for her. That's the most rewarding.

Q. Have you had a most embarrassing moment at this job?

A. When (co-workers) bought me a pair of black silk panties that were so big they would have fit a 300-pound man. One of the girls gave them to me all wrapped up nice for some occasion. There were customers standing around and I opened them up. Everyone was in on the joke but me. I put them right on over my pants. It was really funny. I could have fit three of me in them.

Q. If you could change one thing about your job, what would it be?

A. I wish the store were bigger and we had more room.

Q. How do you like to spend your free time?

A. Horseback riding. I've crisscrossed Michigan on a horse. It's a 520-mile ride. I also run. I get up at quarter to four in the morning, run six miles; then come to work. I just started doing that two years ago. I've run 5Ks. I'm usually outside.

Q. If you could have a "dream job," what would it be?

A. Something with horses. I worked at a camp store for awhile. I was like a camp counselor in a horse barn and I really liked that. I don't mind mucking stalls, feeding horses, brushing horses and doing the down-and-dirty work. ... That would be perfect if I could make a living at that.

He married Tami Lee Billion 07 Jul 1984. She was born 18 Jan 1961.

Notes for Gerald Milton (Jerry) Luckhardt:

August 2, 1989 - After a one year stint in Saline, Jerry Luckhardt has hit the big time. A 1979 graduate of Saline High School and Saline High Band Director last year, Luckhardt is now the Interim Director for the University of Michigan Marching Band. "I heard of the opening through the grapevine," Luckhardt said. "Eric Becker, who was the director for about 7 years, was leaving. So I applied for the opening and interviewed." Luckhardt found out Thursday, July 27, that he was chosen for the job. Luckhardt was hired in Saline last August to replace John Mason, who was giving up his high school baton to help music head Dave Wolter direct the Middle School bands and run the department. Luckhardt attended Michigan for six years, earning a master's and served as section leader, fanfare band director, and graduate assistant for the marching band. "He was easily the best candidate for the job," said orchestra director Bob Phillips at the time. Luckhardt quickly re-familiarized himself with the Saline band department. "It was great to work with my colleagues—John, Bob and Dave. It was like a homecoming." While director here, Luckhardt became known for his dedicated and emotional teaching style. "Throughout the year, Jerry Luckhardt was Mr. Positive," observed Steve Clark, a senior in Luckhardt's band. "He was not afraid to hold back his emotions. He got us excited to play for every concert." He said that the students all liked his style and his attitude. Luckhardt's enthusiasm proved to be as equally successful, as his marching band and wind ensemble earned first division ratings at district festival. "We were the only band there to get straight I's in our category that night," Clarke pointed out. Luckhardt described the year at Saline as, "Wonderful. I couldn't ask for a better situation to teach under. My colleagues were great; and I had a great time getting to know the students."

However, when the job at U-M came up, it was a chance he could not ignore. "IT'S A GREAT PROFESSIONAL opportunity. If it had been anywhere else, I would have stayed in Saline." Luckhardt is the interim director for now. During the coming year, the music department will search for a permanent marching band director, and Jerry will have to try out all over again. Meanwhile, he says, he needs to organize his staff and make preparations for the fall. The U of M Marching Band has always been one of the best bands in the country. It's had great tradition. It's as good as it gets." Back at SHS, the marching band is preparing for camp August 14-18. Mason will take care of those reins. "Very busy," is how he described it. "It'll be fine, though. Jerry had it well-organized. It was already set up and ready to go." Details are still up in the air over who will permanently replace Luckhardt. Originally, the plans called for laying off Luckhardt—if the Headlee Override does not pass—because of his lack of seniority in the teaching staff. "We decided to keep the position, however," said Assistant Superintendent Ellen Ewing: "We would have given it less fund equity, depending on the election. Now that he left, we're planning on posting for it after the election. We are looking at class sizes and enrollment, and waiting to see what happens on August 14." "He did a wonderful job," Ewing continued. "He's very deserving. It sounds like he has a great opportunity. We're sorry to see him go."

Notes for Chad Christopher Trinkle:

Chad Trinkle, age 47, passed away peacefully on May 4th, 2025, in his home in Dexter, Michigan. Chad was born on June 13, 1977, in Ann Arbor MI to Doug and Penny Trinkle. Chad was a hard working, fun-having, larger than life person. He had a gentle soul that cared for animals and a tremendous heart that loved his family, friends, and community. Chad was one of the most giving and helpful people you could ever be lucky enough to meet. His chuckle and smile were famous for being contagious and would never be the only smile or laugh left in the room. Even strangers fell victim to Chad's warm laughter.

Chad was the husband to Carrie (Vargo) and the father of three beautiful children. Married on December 7th, 2002, Chad and Carrie built their family on a foundation of selfless love. As a team, Chad and Carrie struggled and thrived through life's ups and downs knowing they always had each other's back. As a young man, Chad worked at a number of local businesses including Chelsea Grain Elevator and Chelsea Lumber. He would later go on to work for the Washtenaw County Road Commission for over 20 years. Chad was very active in the community, volunteering countless hours at the Chelsea Fairgrounds. For over two decades Chad served on the Chelsea Fair Board, further devoting his time and effort to maintaining and improving the fairgrounds and surrounding community.

Chad was a lifelong farmer. Growing up, Chad's love for farming was instilled in him by his dad, who he would spend countless hours with working in the barn or out in the field. If Chad was missing, the first place to look was always the farm, and he'd probably be there. Chad passed this love of farming and raising livestock down to his own children. It was often teased that Chad's favorite holiday was fair week, but it was true. He loved watching his kids show animals at the fair and would always be proud of their hard work and time spent preparing for the fair. One of his proudest moments in life was when his son, Josh, got back in the ring and showed pigs after many years of not doing so. Josh has muscular dystrophy, a very challenging and restrictive disease. With Chad's encouragement, Josh returned to showing his animals at the fair. Chad told Josh, "No matter what challenge you face, you can always find a way to make it possible." Chad enjoyed watching WWE, football, and many other TV shows with his family. Chad loved going places with Josh, especially football games. Wherever he went, a can of Grizzly and a Pepsi went too. He loved spending time with his granddaughter, Maya, when she traveled for long visits. He wanted her to call him "Gramps," but she renamed him "PawPaw." He would take her down to the farm to see the cows and on tractor rides whenever he could. Caroline, his new granddaughter, was born just a few days before he passed. Although he wasn't able to meet her, stories about the man her Paw Paw was will be told for all her life.

Chad is survived by his parents, Doug and Penny Trinkle; his wife, Carrie (Vargo); two siblings, Tammie (Kevin) Christian and Tony (Julie) Trinkle; his three beautiful children, Sam (Kyle) Gorny, Emily Trinkle, and Josh Trinkle; two granddaughters, Maya and Caroline Gorny; as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Friends and family will gather at the Chelsea Community Fair Grounds to celebrate Chad's life. Visitation will be held at the Chelsea Fairgrounds Sports Barn on Monday, May 12, 2025, from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m., as well as on Tuesday, May 13, 2025 from 1-2 p.m. Funeral Services will be held at the Chelsea Fairgrounds Sports Barn on Tuesday, May 13, 2025, 2:00 p.m., with Pastor Kurt Hutchens officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Grove East Cemetery in Chelsea. A funeral luncheon will follow. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the family to assist with the care of his beloved family. Carrie, Samantha, Emily and Josh. Arrangements by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home.
