Notes for Juanita V. Castillo:

Juanita V. Steinaway, 69, died October 24, 2012 at her home in Seattle, Washington. She was born October 6, 1943 in Brownsville, Texas, the daughter of Alfredo Castillo and Carmen Vega Castillo, who predeceased her. Juanita lived a remarkable life. Joining the U.S. Air Force with her sister Olivia, she became a nurse and met and married her true love, Paul Steinaway. They lived abroad and returned to the States to live in Colorado. After Paul's death, Juanita moved with her children to Michigan to celebrate their father's birthplace and enjoy the four seasons. Needing to change careers, Juanita graduated with an associate's degree in business and began a long career in government service at the state and federal levels. In addition to her military and civilian service, she was the widow of a Veteran and the proud mother of two Veterans, one who recently retired from the US Air Force.

Juanita had an amazing ability to connect with people from all walks of life. She made us better people, better professionals and better cooks. She will be remembered for her generosity, wry sense of humor, keen wisdom, strong will and, above all, unfailing love. She will also be remembered for her incredible food, the recipes of which she shared with many in the past couple of years but only through demonstration and tutorials. She will be profoundly missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her and call her mom, nana, sister, mama Steinaway, and Nita.

Juanita leaves behind her children Steve, Scot, Sherry, Sonda and Nancy Steinaway. Her grandchildren Steve, Amanda, Alexandra, Kalon and Austin Steinaway. Her great grandson, Aiden Steinaway and her 'bestest boy' Jake Steinaway. She is survived by her five sisters, Olivia Grider, Nicolasa Cordova, Mary Lou Castillo, Rose Castillo, and Belinda Mawhiney, her brother-in-law Larry Grider, her daughter-in-law Danielle, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held on Friday, November 2, 2012 from 12:00 noon until 1:00 p.m. at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea with a graveside service to follow at Vermont Cemetery, Chelsea.

She was born 29 May 1925 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 22 Feb 2002 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Alton Lewis Steinaway, twin:

On August 23, 2012, Alton Lewis Steinaway passed away at his home. He was born in Sylvan Township, Michigan on February 23, 1922, 10 minutes before his twin brother Alvin, to Lewis and Lena Steinaway. He married his beloved Betty on January 19, 1944 and they spent 58 wonderful years together before her death in 2002. Together they raised two daughters, Gracie and Barbara.

Alton was a proud World War II United States Army veteran, serving in the 36th Texas Infantry Division as a heavy machine gunner in the second wave of the Invasion of Normandy. He was a 66 year charter member of the American Legion Post 557 in Dexter. For more than 50 years, just prior to Memorial Day, he faithfully placed flags on veterans' graves in all the Dexter cemeteries to honor those who served our country. For many, many years he led the Memorial Day parade down the hill carrying the American flag, with Alvin at his side carrying the Legion flag.

He was a volunteer firefighter for the Dexter Area Fire Department, unselfishly serving his community for more than 25 years. He loved being a firefighter and was so proud to be able to ride in the 1925 Model T fire engine in the 2012 Dexter Daze parade. Alton was a faithful member of St. James Episcopal Church for the past 68 years. He served as an usher for most of that time, was a member of the vestry, and cooked chickens for the annual Chicken BBQ for more than 40 years. Alton leaves behind his family who loved him so much. There was nothing better than spending time with Pa on his front porch, watching the world go by.

He is survived by his daughter Gracie Brand (Jerald), his 5 grandchildren: Lee Miller (Vikki Greenfield), Brent Miller, Alison Oehler (Paul), Gregory Brand (Jenna), Matthew Brand (Erica LeBlanc) and 5 great grandchildren Olivia, Logan and Mackenzie Miller, Lloyd and Henry Brand and a large extended family. We have faith that he was met in heaven by Betty, Barb and his brothers Carl, Bob and Alvin. He lived a great life, worked hard, served his country and his community and was the much loved patriarch of our family. We will miss him every day.

Visitation will be Saturday, August 25, 2012 from 11 AM until 1 PM at St. James Episcopal Church at 3279 Broad Street in Dexter with funeral services beginning at 1pm. Interment will be at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made in Alton's honor to St. James Episcopal Church or Dexter American Legion Post 557-Boys State Fund.

Notes for Charles Ronald Kuhl:

Charles "Ron" Kuhl, 81, an area Manchester farmer, passed away at the Kuhl Family Homestead, on July 16, 2020. Ron was the fourth-generation to operate the farm that has been in the family since 1873. Farming was Ron's life and career starting at the age of ten years old to help with chores, milking and driving a team of horses. Ron was born on February 21, 1939 at the farm and remained in the home for the rest of his life. He was the son of the late Charles F. and Alta K. Kuhl. His elementary education included attending Rowes Corners School which is adjacent to the farm and was purchased by Ron to be a part of its property many years later. Ron graduated from Manchester High School with the class of 1957. He attended Michigan State University for a variety of short course agricultural studies. During the winter months he did sheep shearing in the Washtenaw County area for many years to come.

Ron is survived by his two sisters, Janet A. Kuhl and Donna A. (Kuhl) Newgord and brother-in-law Noel Newgord, all of Racine, Wisconsin. He has two nephews, Gary E. (Kelly) Newgord of Austin, Texas and Kurt M. Newgord of Racine, Wisconsin. His great nephews and niece include Marlo, Odin and Soren Newgord.

Ron is survived by many relatives, long-time farming friend Michael Hall, a long list of farming friends and acquaintances from the area and beyond. In later life, after the sale of the dairy cattle, Ron enjoyed traveling to Australia and New Zealand during which time he developed a group of friends that annually gathered at their area Midwest farms to share their farms and local interests. His travels included Alaska, Hawaii, Europe, China, Russia and areas of Central and South America; picking up friends along the way. Community involvement was also part of his life as a 4-H member, leader and supporter for many years, helping with the Manchester Chicken Broil, Barn Quilts Committee, Manchester Fair, continuing his interest in Historic Barn Restoration and other community events. He was a Michigan state sheep shearing champion and Farm Bureau member.

Ron has requested that no funeral will be held. A Celebration of Life will be hosted at a later date due to the COVID-19 directives. Wally had battled fiercely for two years with cancer. Numerous rounds of chemo, radiation, and trial drugs never kept him down. He always said that at the end of his battle he wanted to do something that would make a difference, whether that meant being a police officer, firefighter, or paramedic, but in the end he chose to donate himself to science in the hope of finding a cure for the late relapse of cancer that he experienced.

He also loved working on projects around the house. He was one who couldn't sit still. He was the biggest kid at heart and this was reflected through his love for Optimus

Prime from his favorite childhood cartoon, Transformers. Wally had worked as a binder operator for Malloy, which is now Edwards Brothers Malloy. He was a very likable guy and a good friend to all he met. He was helpful and giving, never turning away anybody who asked for help. He was a jack of all trades, the handy man. He was a fighter, hero, and angel for his family. He was a good brother and son, and a loving husband and father.
