Lt. Melvin Alber of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office was found dead in bed at his home at 211 North Ann Arbor Street Tuesday afternoon December 7, 1948. He had been off duty for about ten days, following a minor surgical operation and neighbors who had been calling on him daily, discovered his body. He had joined the sheriff's department during the administration of the late Sheriff Jacob Andres and most of the time had served on the 12 to 8 "mid-night" shift as desk sergeant. He was born in Saline 52 years ago and attended the Saline High School. In 1917 he enlisted in the U. S. Army Signal Corps, a served overseas for about a year. He had never married.

She was born 31 Oct 1871 in Macon, Lenawee Co, Michigan, and died 26 Mar 1948 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for George Grant Burkhardt:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Burkhardt, postmaster of Saline, and a popular and well known citizen, comes of worthy German ancestry. He was born in this village May 30, 1862, but his father, Charles Frederick Burkhardt, was a native of Wurtemberg, and in his childhood days was brought from Germany to America by his parents, who settled in the Township of Freedom. There Charles F. Burkhardt was reared and educated, and after putting aside his text-books he worked for his father on the home farm for several years. He then took up his abode in the village of Saline and secured a clerkship in a dry goods store. Later he started in the dry-goods business on his own account in the early '60s, and is still identified with business interests here. He then bought a farm of one hundred and twenty acres three-fourths of a mile west of Saline, becoming owner of this property in the early '80s. He has since carried on agricultural pursuits through his son, Charles F., and is one of the representative farmers of this part of the county. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Maria L. Case, was born in Saline Township, and died at the age of twenty-six years, when her son George was six years of age. The other members of the family were: Frederick JT., who is engaged in clerking in his father's store; Charles F., who occupies the home farm in Saline Township; Mrs. John Wahr, of Ann Arbor, who died in 1890; Mrs. William Cody, of Pittsfield Township; and Louise, who is living with her father in Saline. George Burkhardt acquired his education in the village schools, completing a course in the Saline high school with the class of 1880. From his early youth he was more or less familiar with mercantile methods through the assistance which he rendered his father, and for seventeen years he remained in his employ as a clerk.

During this time he was married on the 19th of May, 1892, to Miss Marguerite Harmon, a daughter of Anson and Jane Harmon, of Saline, representatives of an old family of that township. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt have an adopted son, Donald, the child of his wife's cousin, born April 26, 1894. From early boyhood days Mr. Burkhardt has taken an active interest in politics and has always been a champion of republican principles. He has taken an active and helpful interest in the work of the party in this locality, has been president of the corporation of Saline, also a trustee and the treasurer of the village. He is now not only serving as postmaster, but is also a director of the school board, and the cause of education finds in him a warm friend. He received appointment to his present position as postmaster in 1897, and gives a public-spirited administration, characterized by promptness and fidelity in the discharge of all his duties. It was through his efforts that the postal authorities consented to have two extra mail deliveries made in Saline, using the electric railway for this purpose.

Fraternally Mr. Burkhardt is connected with the Masons and has taken the Royal Arch degrees. He is also a Knight of the Maccabees and is clerk in the Modern Woodmen camp. He is also identified with the Modern Brotherhood of America and is a member of the Arbeiter Verein. Mr. Burkhardt is one of the most popular and esteemed residents of Saline, possessing a kindly manner, a cheery disposition and an unflinching courtesy which render him a favorite with all with whom he comes in contact. A stranger visiting the village always finds in him a friend who is willing to do a favor or grant a courtesy to the visitor. Both he and his father have been actively associated with the welfare and improvement of Saline for many years, and their efforts have found tangible evidence in hearty co-operation in many movements that have been of direct good.

Burkhardt, at 870 Manchester Road, the home in which they have resided ever since their marriage on Nov. 1, 1893 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening. Rev. Cotton, and a nephew, Fred Wahr, who is a professor of German at the U. of M. About 75 friends, neighbors and relatives helped the couple commemorate the occasion. A lace tablecloth covered the table at which a buffet lunch was served. The table was lighted with four candles which were held by two silver holders, and the centerpiece was a beautiful three-tiered cake. The couple received gifts of money and many lovely remembrances, and they are in the best of health. 3250. Friedrich Ludwig¹⁰ Burkhardt (Charles F. (Karl)⁹, Jacob Friedrich⁸, Barbara Dorothea⁷ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁶, Anna Katharina⁵ Kaercher, Anna Katharina⁴ Fauser, Anna Katharina³ Lorenz, Hans Jerg², Johann¹) was born 10 Sep 1879 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Mar 1941 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Caroline Stegmiller 19 Aug 1909 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of John Stegmiller and Mary Lane. She was born 22 Oct 1884 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Sep 1939 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friedrich Ludwig Burkhardt:

Fred L. Burkhardt, a life-long resident of Saline, passed away at his home last Thursday morning March 27, 1941 after an illness of several months. Mr. Burkhardt was born in Saline September 10, 1879, the son of Charles and Adelaida Buehler Burkhardt. He married Miss Caroline Stegmiller of Manchester August 19, 1909. She died September 8, 1939. Mr. Burkhardt's father founded the dry goods business under the name of Burkhardt & Aldrich 70 years ago in the same location years ago the business was taken over by Mr. Burkhardt's two sons, George and Fred, who continued the store under the name of Burkhardt Brothers. Fifteen years ago Fred Burkhardt became sole owner and again the name was changed, to Burkhardt Store. Mr. Burkhardt was a member of the Saline Rotary Club and St. Thomas Catholic church in Ann Arbor and the Holy Name Society of the church. When the business men of Saline had an indoor baseball team, back in 1911-12-13, Mr. Burkhardt played short stop on the team. In 1912 Saline won the state championship. Mr. Burkhardt is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Everard Beasley, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Miss Jeanne Carleen Burkhardt; granddaughter, Karyl Jean Beasley, of Milwaukee; a brother, Charles Burkhardt; two sisters, Mrs. S. Y. Cotton and Mrs. William Cody.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Thomas Church, Ann Arbor, and burial was in St. Thomas Cemetery. Stores and business places here were closed during the hour of the funeral. Members of the Rotary Club and business associates of Mr. Burkhardt were honorary ball bearers.

Sept. 18, 1941 - Of interest to all was the opening of the Burkhardt Store on Saturday. While they admired; the store in its new streamlined appearance, many turned back in memory to what it used to be. Being one of the first stores in Saline it is rich in history and has grown along with the community through the changes which the years have brought. The store was built about 1871 and was established by Charles F. Burkhardt, grandfather of the present owners, and a Mr. Aldrich carrying lines of groceries, crockery, dry goods, hardware, carpets, curtains, and taking farm produce in exchange for merchandise. G L. Parsons recalls some of the stores of that period as his grandfather had a similar store. He says many of the farmers came to town only once in three or four months, then they drove the team on a wagon, often struggling through mud a foot deep or more. They bought provisions to last for a spell because the trip really meant effort. Usually one store handled all the merchandise any family would require even to the family heating stove.

In 1888 Mr. Burkhart purchased the interest of Mr. Aldrich and for ten years conducted the place alone. He continued the general merchandise, including wallpaper, gloves, fly nets, etc. In 1898 he sold the business to his sons George and Fred. Mrs. Burkhart helped in the store too and increased her circle of friends rapidly. The brothers, through their long experience in the store, were familiar with the wants of the people and continued the policy of handling merchandise which these customers knew was reliable and dishing it out with friendliness and accuracy. The business continued to grow and the reputation of the firm spread for miles around. The brothers had the stairs built which residents recall at the front of the store. On the second floor they had carpets, linoleum, wallpaper and curtains.

Mrs. Gertrude Lutz, who joined the staff in 1913, has a photograph taken inside the store. It is interesting because it shows the manner of display. As was, customary then, coats, dresses and suits were suspended from the ceiling, the cornice, any place where they would be high enough for customers to walk beneath them. The notion counter has always been at the front.

Plainly visible in the picture are the collars, niching and stays which were fastened in neckwear to hold it securely behind the ear. (A neckline in those days really reached the neck and choked it, too.) Counters were the same as they have been until the present remodeling. Along the east side premiums were displayed, shoes, shirt waists, yard goods, underwear. The ribbon counter was large and well-filled. In fact, the stock was so tremendous that the space behind the counters was filled almost to the ceiling. George and Fred Burkhart and Mrs. Lutz are in the picture. In 1927 Fred Burkhart bought out his brother and became sole owner of the store. Groceries were discontinued, as other lines of merchandise were specialized, in and handled, catering to that particular line of trade, the Burkhart store gradually emerged from a general into a dry goods and men's wear store. Jean Carlene Burkhart laughingly recalls the first sale she ever made. She was 13 years old and sold a hat to a lady. She was thrilled and has never forgotten the joy of the moment. Later she was allowed to try a sale on yard goods. She cut through four folds of cloth in trying to cut off the right length of sheeting, but laughs over it now. Mrs. Beasley also recalls her first sale. She too was thrilled because she was allowed to wait on a customer. It chanced the lady wanted to purchase some cheese-cloth. As most of us know, that's one item which is hard to handle and harder still to cut because of the coarse mesh, and the points of the scissors getting tangled in the weave. She became entangled in the cloth and the purchaser told her she thought she could do a better job of cutting the cloth herself, so she dropped the bolt on the counter and told the lady to help herself and ran to the back of the store. But Papa Burkhart had been watching all the time and letting daughter get some experience. He gently but firmly told her to go back to the front of the store and apologize, take the scissors and cut the cloth. So she did. Those who knew Mr. Burkhart can readily imagine the kindness with which he taught his young daughter successful business principles.

After the death of Mr. Burkhart, the question of the future of the store hung in the balance. Mrs. Beasley (Maree) was married and lived in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Miss Jean Carlene had graduated from Cleary College and due to the illness and failing health of her father she had stayed in the store instead of seeking a business connection elsewhere. The question was, should the Burkhart store, the only store which has continued from its establishment to the present day under its original name, be sold. The sisters talked it over and Mrs. Beasley left it up to Jean Carlene to decide. She could sell out and be free to locate where she pleased, continue her schooling or seek a business career in the city, or continue the Burkhart tradition. She was undecided. It had been a severe strain for her, the long weeks of her father's illness, the recent death of her mother, the responsibility of the store, and it seemed like dropping a load to consider selling and starting life over somewhere else. While in this unsettled frame of mind, she walked down to the store one afternoon and looked around. Here were the old counters upon which her grandfather had displayed merchandise, here her father had sold yards and yards of cloth, here she had played as a child, and here she had shouldered the load of ordering, invoicing, unpacking and selling merchandise. Many times she and her father had discussed the future of the store.

He had dreams and plans. He wanted to put in and enlarge the stock. Then his health failed and he gradually slipped more and more of the responsibility from his hands to those of his daughter. She stood thinking of those visits with her father, the shadows of the past became more real, then she knew that the Burkhart store would go on. Here were her friends, the people she had grown up amongst, the house of Burkhart would continue to serve them just as it had in her grandfather's day, her father's time and now. A quiet, thoughtful girl walked slowly home. She did not see the familiar houses with children playing on the lawns and house-wives sitting on the porches, she was seeing a new store rise from the ashes of the past. Freedom, the city, an easy job where she carried no responsibility but her pay-check were not alluring now. Late into the night she and her sister made their plans. It would mean changes, work, responsibility, new things to learn, but the decision was made and they were ready to forge ahead. What took place Saturday was the result of that decision and the efforts which have followed. The remodeled store is very light and attractive but as much as possible of the old store has been retained. The same counters are still used. The tops are solid walnut and have stood the wear of year in a remarkable manner. The fronts of the counters have been painted a rich cream to match the walls, while the ceiling is pale gray. The shelves have been dropped 22 inches at the top and this space is used for display of bedspreads, yard goods and miscellaneous articles. A modernistic counter at the front takes care of handkerchiefs and hose.

Perhaps the greatest change is at the rear in the men's department. A large late-style counter displays handkerchiefs, socks, and ties. The shelves merge into a cabinet which has deep drawers for shirts. Boots and shoes are in concealed cupboards with sliding doors. The cupboards are, made so that different sizes are kept in separate compartments. On the west side new shelves have been built which take care of overalls and work pants. Beneath the shelves are cupboards with sliding doors where wampuses, mackinaws, coats of all descriptions may be easily seen. Down through the center of the store four tables will display merchandise, sweaters, blouses, etc. Fluorescent lights have been installed and while enough of the past has been retained so that it is still the Burkhart store, yet one feels the freshness of paint, the crispness of new goods, the rebirth of an old institution to fit the needs of this day and time.

Assisting in the store are Mrs. Lutz, who has endeared herself to all patrons, and Mrs. George Winkle. Five years ago, when Mrs. Lutz was very ill for a length of time, Mrs. Winkle came in to help on Saturdays, holidays and whenever extra was needed. For the past two years she has been a full time helper.

Mrs. Beasley might have been an architect, for she has the mind which can design and figure out how to put ideas into working order. Mrs. Beasley and Miss Burkhart share the credit of the modernized store with Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Winkle. "We all had ideas, pooled them, and here's the result," We share the work and we share the pleasures, too." Huge baskets of flowers throughout the store Saturday bore witness to the great esteem with which this store is held. Among the local friends who sent flowers was a beautiful basket of dahlias from the Greenhouse, a basket from Mr. and Mrs. Wells of the C. F. Smith store with vivid colors and beautiful blossoms, three baskets from Mrs. Herman Heining, one featuring purple and gold, one yellow and white, and one of red flowers; a gorgeous bouquet of gladioli from Mrs. Lutz, a bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sturtz which fitted into its setting perfectly, asters and rosebuds from the Bridgewater Lumber Company were dainty and sweet. Other friends also sent flowers. Among the firms sending contributions was a basket of giant chrysanthemums from Edson-Moore of Detroit, the Krolick Company of Detroit sent a large basket of red roses, Finck & Co., makers of overalls, sent a basket of orchid colored flowers, Goodrich Company of Detroit also sent flowers, and the Lovely Lady Beauty Salon. It was joy day at the Burkhart store Saturday. Everyone was happy over the expressions of praise and appreciation from friends and patrons. And now the store is launching forth with a new captain at the wheel and will continue to serve the community in the true Burkhart style. Another generation is now playing in the store as little Karyl Jean Beasley plays wrapping packages and amuses herself quietly while business moves on. That the building was well built as well as the traditions of business was proved when workmen began tearing out old shelves, partitions, and found most of the wood used to be whitewood, almost extinct now.

Notes for Christian George Aprill:

Ann Arbor, December 7, 1897 - Christian Aprill, a well-known young farmer living a mile south of this city, met with an accident while hunting this afternoon which may cost him his life, and if he survives is pretty sure to cause him to lose his right arm. He and a neighbor's son named Staeb were out in the woods hunting rabbits. Aprill had sat down on a log to rest when young Staeb scared up a rabbit. He turned quickly around and aiming his gun at the rabbit, fired the whole of an unusually large charge of No. 4 shot into Aprill's body at short range. The shot covered the whole fore part of the entire body, chest, abdomen and both arms, especially his right arm. He was hastily loaded into a buggy and brought to the university hospital for treatment. The surgeons are still uncertain as to whether any of the shot have penetrated the lungs or abdomen. If they have not, the hurt is not necessarily dangerous, although the man is in great pain. The rabbit escaped without injury.

Notes for Christian Gottlob (Christian George) Koch:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Christian G. Koch is a member of the firm of Koch Brothers, well known contractors of Ann Arbor with a business which at once indicates their standing in industrial circles and the trust uniformly reposed in them. Mr. Koch was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, August 22, 1862, his parents being George and Annie (Atta) Koch. The father was a merchant and game warden for the government and died when his son Christian was but two years old. The mother long survived and passed away in the place of her nativity in 1891. They were the parents of three sons and two daughters, namely: Christian G.; John, a mason contractor and builder, who is a member of the firm of Koch Brothers; Henry, who is a mason and works for the firm; Mrs. Sophie Baker, a resident of Germany; and Anna Marie, who is also living in the fatherland. Christian G. Koch spent the days of his boyhood and youth in his native country and acquired his education in the public schools there. He was a young man of about twenty-three years when in 1885, attracted by the business possibilities of the new world; he came to the United States, making his way at once into the interior of the country. Coming to Ann Arbor, he began work as a carpenter and builder in the employ of his brother John Koch, who after two years admitted him to a partnership under the present firm style of Koch Brothers. They are widely recognized as leading contractors of this city with a business that is extensive and profitable and they have erected many of the finest structures here, including the new homeopathic hospital connected with the University of Michigan, St. Thomas Roman Catholic and Zion Lutheran churches, and the Farmers and Mechanics and State Savings Banks.

Mr. Koch married Miss Sarah P. Staebler, a daughter of Jacob Staebler, of Scio Township, and unto them have been born five sons: Irwin, George C., Oscar W., Karl H., and Oswald J. The family occupy a very handsome residence at 720 South Main street. They have a large circle of warm friends and are highly respected throughout the entire community. Mr. Koch is identified with some fraternal organizations, including the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Knights of the Maccabees, while his religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Zion German Lutheran church. He has never had occasion to regret his determination to seek a home in America, for here he has found the business opportunities he sought, which by the way are always open to young men of determination and ability. As the years have gone by through the careful utilization of the possibilities which surround all he has advanced until his position in industrial circles is a prominent one, while his business is represented by a large figure annually.

Notes for John Christopher Ehrhardt:

John Christopher Ehrhardt was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, Oct. 11, 1849, and died at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown, August 26, 1928, age 78 years, 10 months and 15 days. Mr. Ehrhardt came to America in 1878 and located in Marquette, Michigan, where he remained for five years. He moved to Clare in 1883 and the following year he was married to Miss Eva Karcher.

Four children were born to this union and two of them have preceded him in death. Charles departed this life nine years ago, and George, of North Bradley, died four years ago.

Mr. Ehrhardt was janitor of the Clara schools for twenty years and his natural love for children and faithfulness to his work made him a very successful caretaker of the building. He resigned that position the spring before the old school structure burned.

He was confessed follower of the Christian religion and a member of the Baptist Church for many years. During the past three years, Mr. and Mrs. Ehrhardt have rented their home on east Eighth Street and have made their home with their daughter. He has been in ill health for some time and during his last illness was confined to his bed for a period of four weeks.

He leaves to mourn, besides the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Esther Brown, of Clare, and Mrs. Eunice Harrold of Gladwin, and many other relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held from the Brown residence on East Sixth Street, Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. H. B. Johnson officiating with interment was in Cherry Grove. Notes for Phyllis Anna Stott:

Phyllis Anna Gasser, age 90, of Harrison, passed away February 19, 2006 at Kootenai Medical Center in Coeur d'Alene. She was born May 7, 1915 at the homestead of her parents Thomas A. and Nellie A. Stott in Arbon Valley, Idaho. The family moved to Montana for about a year, then, in 1919, they came to the Harrison area. She attended Fairview School and Harrison High School. In 1934 she married David Edward (Ed) Scott. Ed died just six years later. In 1942 she married John W. Gasser. John died in 1984.

She has lived the rest of her life in their wonderful home on the ranch on Coeur d'Alene Lake. John and Phyl raised purebred Hereford cattle on "The Lazy G W Ranch". They both loved to hunt elk and deer and to fish for "bluebacks". They worked very hard and enjoyed a happy life together. They had many friends. After John died, Phyl continued to raise a large garden every year and cared for many laying hens. She generously gave away almost all of the eggs and produce to friends and to the poor.

Phyllis is survived by one sister, Wilma Claire Justad of Boise. She was preceded in death by her older sister, Lela Rose Ward (1993), older brother Eugene Stott (1964), little brother Richard (1928), and brother Paul Stott (1995). She is also survived by many nephews and nieces: David Ward, Richard Ward, Ronald Ward, Carol Ward Goldenberg, Joyce Stott Dougal, Gerald Stott, Thomas Stott, Wanda Stott Metzger, Julie Justad, Jan Justad, and Jody Justad (there are also many great nephews and nieces). John Justad and Dennis Stott, nephews, are deceased. Phyl loved everyone. All who knew her loved her. Her great life stories and her sense of humor are legendary. She loved animals...all animals.

Funeral service will be 10:00 AM on Friday, February 24, at Yates Funeral Home, Coeur d'Alene Chapel. Burial will follow at Riverview Cemetery. The family prefers memorial contributions to Hospice of North Idaho, 9493 N. Government Way, Hayden, Idaho 83835.

Notes for Henry Carl Friedrich:

History of Cooper County, Missouri by W.F. Johnson in 1919; page 408:

The life story of Henry Carl Friedrich, of the Billingsville neighborhood, Palestine Township, is a record of industry, energy, good business management, and of an interest taken in good works beyond that of the ordinary citizen. Since the purchase of his first modest farm of 121 acres in Aug., 1909, Mr. Friedrich has been prosperous and enterprising. His present home place of 214.70 acres is a fine farm, good land, which raises good crops each year. This farm, which is fairly well improved, was purchased by Mr. Friedrich in 1909 at a cost of $74 an acre, or a total cost of $16,000. Mr. Friedrich has done considerable improving of the property since he purchased it. He has built over seven miles of woven wire fencing. He handles pure bred Hereford cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs.

Henry Carl Friedrich was born in Germany, Feb. 11, 1866. He is a son of Herman and Martha Elizabeth (Sunshine) Friedrich. His father was a public school teacher in Hesse-Cassel, and died in 1868, leaving seven children: Mary died in Germany; William came to America, settled in Cooper County, Mo., and died here in 1897; August died in the land of his birth; Ferdinand lives in Pennsylvania; Charles lives on a farm eight miles east of Boonville; Henry Carl, subject of this review; Adam resides on a farm south of Bunceton, Missouri. The mother of these children was born May 3, 1835, and is living at the home of Mr. Friedrich.

Henry Carl Friedrich received a good education in his native land, which he left in 1885, accompanied by his mother and his brother, Adam Friedrich. When he arrived in Cooper County, he was possessed of $200 in cash. He first worked out by the month until he became familiar with conditions and then began renting land. He has made a success of his vocation as an intelligent tiller of the soil. His first farm was bought on time payments and the first crop season, that of the famous dry year of 1901, was a period of discouragement to him. However, everybody suffered the same hardships and like his neighbors, he managed to pull through and has had enough good crops in past years to enable him to trade his first homestead for his present place. This trade placed him $8000 in debt, but this is all paid and the Friedrich farm is clear of all indebtedness.

Jan. 7, 1892, Henry Carl Friedrich and Miss Lena Grauer were married. Mrs. Lena Friedrich was born March 5, 1872, near Boonville, Missouri, and is a daughter of Jacob and Catherine Grauer, natives of Germany and Texas, respectively, the latter of whom died in 1881.

The children born to Henry Carl and Lena Friedrich are: Ferdinand, Edward Carl, Arthur Henry, Oscar Harmon, Henry Rudolph, Adolph Eugene, and Adolph Elmer. Ferdinand William Friedrich was born Nov. 19, 1892. He is a farmer and owns 85 acres of land. He married Lydia Delius. Edward Carl Friedrich was born Jan. 23, 1895, is a farmer and land owner. He was called to the colors to serve in the National Army July 26, 1918. He was in training at Camp Funston, received his honorable discharge in Jan., 1919, and returned to his home Jan. 14, 1919. Arthur Henry Friedrich was born Feb. 7, 1897, and is a land owner and farmer. Oscar Herman Friedrich was born Jan. 30, 1899. Henry Rudolph Friedrich was born Nov. 3, 1902. Adolph Eugene Friedrich was born March 27, 1908. Adolph Elmer Friedrich was born July 8, 1916.

Mr. Friedrich is a republican. For a number of years he has been a member of the local school board and is serving as president of the board. For the past 13 years he has been trustee of the Billingsville Evangelical Church. He is active in educational work, is a teacher of the Bible Class in the Sunday School and has been superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years. He is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and is active in lodge circles. He holds membership in the Woodmen of the World and he and his brother Charles inaugurated and were the principal organizers of the Speed Camp of Woodmen in 1900. He is a member of the Ladies' Circle and Auxiliary of the Woodmen.

Notes for Walter Frederick Horning:

Horning, Walter F. Died peacefully January 7, at age 96. Born August 15, 1910 on a farm on Ellsworth Rd., Walter (Pork) moved to town as a boy with his German immigrant parents, Samuel and Anna. He learned English in kindergarten and at the YMCA, his second home. He graduated from Ann Arbor High and the U of M, then worked his entire career at King-Seeley/Chrysler. In 1940, Walter married Ruth Mitchell, which, as he liked to tell everyone, was the smartest thing he ever did. She lives on.

The couple has four children: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy); 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Walter's younger brother, Bob, lives in Florida. Athletics were a big part of Pork's life. He played fast pitch softball locally, and twice earned All-America honors in volleyball for men over 35. He was the PA announcer for Pioneer High football games for many years, and worked for the UM athletic department for 58 years, selling and taking tickets for just about every sport, until age 93.

He was an active, life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church. Walter was a great man, loved life, and was a wonderful model for those of us who were fortunate to live with him so many years. Visitation will be at Muehlig's Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 10, 3-7 p.m., and from 12-1 p.m. on Thursday at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty St. in Ann Arbor, immediately preceding the funeral at Zion. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Arbor Hospice or Lutheran Social Services of Michigan.

Notes for Ruth Alice Mitchell:

Ruth A. Horning died July 29, 2012. She was born in Detroit on September 5, 1917, and moved with her parents, Thomas and Mary (Brewster) Mitchell, to East Ann Arbor at the age of two. She was in 4H, the National Honor Society in High School, and attended Cleary College. Ruth worked for Detroit Edison for three years before marrying Walter Horning in 1940. He was a coach for the Pfeiffer fast-pitch softball team on which she played second base, and was state champions in 1942.

Ruth leaves behind four sons, Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy), and a brother, Dwigh Mitchell. Her husband died in 2007, and her older siblings, Bill, Betty, and Tom, have also died. Walter and Ruth have ten grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She was active at Zion Lutheran Church, taught Sunday School and Bible class, loved gardening, reading, sports, travel, and, most of all, her family. And her family loved her. Better mothers or grandmothers don't exist. She was quietly happy, stable, consistent, hard-working, and witty to the end. Add another hundred positive adjectives and they would all fit. Now add another descriptive - missed.

Visitation will be Thursday, August 2 from 5-9 pm and Friday from 10-11 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church. The memorial service will be Friday 11am at Zion, 1501 W. Liberty St. Ann Arbor, In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to be given to Zion Lutheran Church or Arbor Hospice.

He was born 23 Dec 1908 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Jan 1967 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Esther Dena Horning:

Esther D. (Horning) Yek, age 98, died peacefully on January 23, 2008 surrounded by her loving family and beloved cat Dasher, after a very long and rich life. Esther was born on August 9, 1909 to William and Dean (Frey) Horning in Ann Arbor. She married William R. Yek on December 2, 1932; he preceded her in death on January 14, 1967. Esther was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church and lived in Ann Arbor until moving to Connecticut three years ago to live with her daughter and son-in-law. She is survived by her son, William T. (Judy) Yek of Ann Arbor, daughter Deanne (Richard) Mincer of Ridgefield, Connecticut, granddaughter, Tiffany (Robert) Rounds, three great grandchildren: Camrie, Chloe, and Colton of San Diego, California and a sister, Luetta Werner of Ann Arbor. Esther also touched the lives and is survived by her step grandson, Scott Mincer, and his son, Michael of Las Vegas, Nevada and a granddaughter, Elizabeth McDermott of Honolulu, Hawaii.

The family would also like to acknowledge and thank Mia Fahey, who helped care for Esther so lovingly the last couple of years. Esther's life and the times in which she lived are now long-ago history to most of us. The year Esther was born, Ann Arbor was a small town with 15,000 residents and approximately 40 automobiles; women would not have the right to vote for almost ten more years. Her family's home was on First Street and had a hitching post in front and a barn in the back (the hitching post remains today). Esther's mother died when she was a teenager, so as a very young woman, she became a homemaker for her father and younger sister. Esther enthusiastically embraced her mother's talents, learning to sew and embroider little samplers, which are still in the family; cooking and baking and carefully writing out the recipes. Her sewing ability allowed her to pursue this interest in her first job as a seamstress for a downtown men's tailor shop. Her attention to detail produced exceptional clothing for customers and family. After the birth of her first child she stayed home to be a wife and mother. Esther's life took a dramatic change when her beloved husband of 35-years passed away unexpectedly; she then learned to drive and started a new job at the University of Michigan. Also at this time, Esther had the opportunity to travel with her daughter and son-in-law, accompanying them on many trips within the US and Europe.

Once she saw the world outside of Ann Arbor, she never lost her desire to see and experience more, traveling well into her 80's. Every Christmas, family and friends would enjoy Esther's homemade cookies which always included her beautifully decorated cut-out cookies. Several years ago, she wrote the recipes down in books and gave them to members of the family as Christmas gifts. These books will be cherished always, but the cookies made will never replicate her exquisite little confections. Esther experienced much in her life which came close to spanning a century. She was a sweet gentle soul who will be missed greatly by her family. Rest peacefully, Mom. Visitation will be from 4-6 p.m. Monday January 28 at Muehlig Funeral Chapel. The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church Chapel (South Entrance), 1501 West Liberty, Pastor Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Bethlehem Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in her memory may be made to Zion Lutheran Church or the American Heart Association.

Notes for Deanne Kay Yek:

Deanne Mincer's teachings are grounded in the steadfast belief that each of us is the Light of Eternal Life and Love and that we can come to know the Truth while in this lifetime. In concert with her beliefs, she has authored The 52: Discovering the True You in 52 Simple Lessons - Inspired by the Profound Truths of A Course in Miracles, Classic Yoga Texts, and the Mystical Poetry of Rumi and has created "Divine Love: A Unique Yoga Nidra Experience," in collaboration with Sacred Acoustics. This groundbreaking recording brings together for the first time, the powerful meditative guidance of Yoga Nidra (sleeping meditation) with the consciousness altering sounds and tones of Sacred Acoustics. Deanne is an inspiring speaker on the subject she likes best, learning to love yourself in every moment of your life. Her talks are filled with meaningful quotes, personal stories, demonstrations on muscle testing and clearing negative belief systems, as well as humor, joy and fun. She sees every person as the Light of Divine and Eternal Love and wants to share this vision with you.

Deanne has been a long-time student of spiritual studies. For many years, she was a practitioner of yoga and in the late 1980's she was drawn to share her enthusiasm by becoming a yoga teacher. Her certification, from the Himalayan Institute, was a comprehensive two-year program including the study of anatomy, diet, nutrition, Ayurvedic medical practices, the methods of teaching hatha yoga, the science of breath and the study of raja (the royal path of yoga) philosophy. She has taught yoga, meditation, and spiritual classes for more than twenty-five years. In the mid-1990s, she experienced a spiritual awakening called shaktipat and her teachings took on a new and freshly informed understanding.

This was the beginning of many mystical transformations that were brought about from guru's and teachers, both in their bodies and out, and by ascended masters of the highest order. These involved signs, manifestation, and messages that emerged from unlikely sources. As Deanne continued her studies, she explored Reiki and also studied with Henry Grayson, Ph.D. where she refined her work with muscle testing and the complex of energy healing methods Dr. Grayson has developed for use with his patients. Dr. Grayson's work is illuminated in his books, Mindful Loving and Use Your Body to Heal Your Mind. This work, which engages many modes of healing, is taught in a private setting and scores of individuals has made great strides in learning to love themselves and let go of issues and traumas that kept their lives in states of fear, anger, depression, and hopelessness. For many years she brought her attention to the profound teachings of A Course in Miracles, concentrated on every word of the three major parts of the book. She now offers regular groups called "Into the Light of Miracles," guiding through the daily lessons.

Another popular and unusual program she presents is called "Rumi and Me." this includes the reading of the mystical Sufi poet, Rumi, and participants learn a rare form of meditation called whirling, as followed by the "whirling dervishes" in seeking unity with God. Deanne's special interest in this springs from a completely unexpected encounter with Rumi himself when she entered his shrine in Konya, Turkey. Deanne has, in the past, offered classes in yoga as well as stress reduction programs and meditation in many forms (sitting, walking, whirling, meditation in action, and "sleeping" meditation called yoga nidra). She has developed methods of using yoga in treating those with life threatening diseases as in the programs she designed for Gilda's Club and Friends in Deed in New York City.

She was a consulting producer on an alternative health program for CNBC's Alive and Wellness, and she has demonstrated yoga on network television. Deanne created the audio CD Inner Light Yoga with Deanne Mincer and she has spoken widely and demonstrated meditation in many venues. Deanne is an enthusiastic and joyful teacher. She is known for the keen interest she takes in her students' physical and spiritual development. She stresses that each student should work at their own pace in a non-competitive and caring environment. You can read some of the comments her students have shared in the Testimonials Section of this site. Her teaching is grounded in her own steadfast spiritual awareness - that each of us is a being of eternal light and love and that we can all come to knowing this truth for ourselves. She is eager to help guide you on this joyful path of body, mind, breath and spirit. And to come face to face with your True Self.

Notes for Wilbert Christian Koch:

On June 30, 1986, secretary of state Richard H. Austin certified 23 farms in 20 Michigan counties as centennial farms—owned by the same families for the last 100 years. One of those farms belongs to Wilbert and Helen Koch, 595 S. Fletcher Rd. At the rate things change there, more Kochs will be around in the year 2086 to be recognized for 200 years of farming the same land. The Kochs live in the house that grandfather Jacob and grandmother, Christiane Koch, immigrants from southern Germany, bought in 1885. Though semi-retired, Wilbert Koch still farms the 95 acres his grandfather started with. And the 20-acre woodlot on N. Fletcher Rd., purchased by Christian and Tema Koch, is still family property and swells the farm's total acreage to 115. Jacob sold Christian the farm in 1906. Christian died in 1942 and Wilbert, the oldest of five children, has worked the farm ever since. He bought it from his mother in 1957. No part of the farm has been sold off, said the Koch's. The original barn burned down years ago and was replaced. Other than that, the only building of significance that has been added is the home of son Gary Koch, who lives next door with his wife and four children. Gary Koch and his son Kevin, 19, now help with the farming, and son Jason, 15, may be ready to start as well. "I suppose that's the way it'll go," Wilbert Koch said when asked if the younger men will take over. There appears to be no intent in either household to part with the farm. Signs posted on the lawn before each house reflect the onetime threat of a buyout by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and the resolve of the occupants to stay put. The signs say, "This Land Is Not for Sale to H.C.M.A."

There isn't even much turnover of farm equipment. Wilbert Koch gets along with two Allis- Chalmers tractors from the 1950s and a 1963 Case, all of which he keeps repairing. "For what I did here, I always got along with them," he said. As he recalled, his own father was not entirely enamored of modern contrivances; even though the family had a telephone, they knew how to get by without it. "Dad used to take out the phone once in a while because he said it cost too much," Wilbert remembered. Helen Koch, who has no quarrel to pick with contrivances, has also played a big part in the farm's history. The former Helen Neyer of Scio Church Rd., she married Wilbert in 1943 and raised daughter Lynda, today of Sylvan Center, and sons Gary and Ronald, who died in Vietnam in 1968. She also tended the big kitchen gardens until this year; arthritis in one hip socket and the period of recuperation for surgery on the other has limited her mobility. The Koch's continue to practice what they call "general farming," planting corn, oats, wheat and hay this season. They still keep chickens and about 15 beef cattle. Sheep and dairy cows have been part of the farm at various times.

Yet she scoffed at the notion that the centennial farm distinction implied any special contribution to Michigan life, as the award certificate states. "All we done wag, we did our farming and took our crop," she said. Since the program's start in 1548, over 5,400 farms have been certified as 100-year veterans, owned by members of the same family and having at least 10 acres. A token amount of cash business must be conducted as well. Wilbert Koch said the farm could not always support his family. He held various other jobs to supplement the farm income. For some years, he drew milk at dairy farms in the area. He drove a Chelsea school bus. And he put in 11 years at the University of Michigan as a maintenance man.

For the most part, at least, the farm supported itself; only when the Koch's had dairy cattle did they need to buy extra feed for their animals. In the years when Christian Koch owned sheep, Wilbert helped drive them to the woodlot- pasture on N. Fletcher Rd. He recalled that marauding dogs killed so many sheep that the family eventually gave up raising them. If the farm could not always offer its owners extravagant returns, it could offer them security. The Koch's recalled no significant threats to the farm, other than the temporary annoyance caused by talk of the HCMA's wanting to buy their property. Interstate 94 went in about a mile to the north, just far enough away to leave the property intact and to keep traffic noise from being a bother, but just close enough to make for easy access. However, Wilbert Koch said he could not imagine driving sheep on Fletcher Rd., where it passes over 1-94 today. There are a few things that change.

Wilbert C. Koch of Chelsea, age 78, died suddenly Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1995 at Chelsea Community Hospital. He was born Feb. 8, 1917 in Lima Township, the son of Christian and Tema (Homing) Koch. Mr. Koch lived in the same house all of his life, he retired from the U. of M. Mail Department, and farmed all of his life on the family centennial farm. He was member of Chelsea's Covenant Church. On June 5, 1943, he married Helen Neyer in Freedom Township, and she survives.

Koch of Chelsea and his fiancée, Kitty Hamel; five grandchildren, Kevin, Jason, Jennifer, and Julie Koch, and Braden Gladstone; one great-granddaughter, Emma Lee Koch; two sisters, Hilda Horning and Rubena Gross; one brother, Leon Koch; and many nieces and nephews, he was preceded in death by one son, Ronald and one brother, Lawrence.

Harold served Lima Township as a trustee for 21 years. Hazel says they are also members of Farm Bureau, and list fishing and needlework among their favorite hobbies.

3954. Dorothy Marie¹⁰ Gross (Adolph Friedrich⁹, Georg Friedrich⁸, Heinrike⁷ Rath, Christina Dorothea⁶ Lorenz, Johann Heinrich⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Hans Jerg², Johann¹) was born 18 Dec 1920 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 29 Mar 2018. She married Charles William Leverett 20 Dec 1942 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Harold Leverett and Edith ?. He was born 24 Jul 1920 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Nov 1976 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dorothy Marie Gross:

Dorothy Gross Leverett and her late husband Charles (Chuck) ran Leverett Country Market at the corner of Packard and Carpenter Road on Carpenter's corners. And that market started in 1956, and the story that Dorothy told me was that it began when her brother-in-law had some extra corn and asked if the kids wanted to go down to the road and sell it. And they did, and they sold it all in two hours. And so the market was born.

I met Chuck at the Pittsfield Grange at Saturday night dances in 1937. We both graduated from high school in 1938. I was from Dexter High and he was from Ypsilanti High. I attended Henry Ford Nursing School on a scholarship and Chuck went to Michigan State. When war broke out in 1941, I went to work at the bomber plant. We were ... I worked there for about six months, I guess, and then I went to visit my husband who was in the service. We were married in December of 1942, while he was in his senior year, having been allowed to finish as he was in ROTC. He graduated in 19 ... April '43. Three weeks after graduation he reported for military duty, went to Fort Custer at Battle Creek, and then to Camp Barclay in Abilene, Texas. He entered into the Officer's Medical Training School. In July, I went to Texas and we had a one-room apartment with a lovely family. Chuck had to be at camp but usually had week-end passes. In December '43, after nine months of training, he graduated as a Second Lieutenant in the Medical Corps. Overseas duty followed in March of '44. He left on April 1st. I arrived in Corsica and then on to Italy. He was lost in the Alps while helping one of his fellow officers who had been injured. And then he went on to France. He served in French hospitals, then Germany for the next 21 months. I lived with my parents near Dexter and our daughter Judith was born July 1944. We were with them for 23 months.

During this time, the property on the farm for the trailer park was sold. I don't have the exact dates of it, but I mean, that's when it was handled. Chuck returned from overseas in 1946 to his first child of 19 months. Still was in the Army Reserve, attended meetings once a week. He obtained the rank of First Lieutenant while overseas and actually shy of two weeks of being a Captain. We had a short to get reacquainted with his wife and child and now look for a job. Jim Warner, owner of Warner Dairy on Washtenaw Ave, asked him to come to work. His major in college was Dairy Manufacturing. He offered him $200 a month, six day a week. He accepted. He became the plant superintendent immediately. But after two years there would be no chance for advancement as Jim's son-in-law had started working there.

So in 1948, Chuck and his father talked it over and decided to go back to general farming and the farm house was made over for both families. The folks moved upstairs and our family was downstairs. We had two children at that time. Becoming a resident of Pittsfield Township, I registered to vote with Dan Ellsworth, who was the clerk. Dan Ellsworth farm was the corner of Carpenter and Ellsworth.

Well, August 22nd, 1962 was the day our son was killed under the tractor. He and Bill Brooks were going to go get sweet corn and that's been 39 years ago. All property south of Packard and Ellsworth, actually to I94 we farmed. And the farm on Ellsworth Road known as Doc Cady Farm, which is now all private homes we used for farmland. We rented a farm on Morgan Road and a farm on Liberty Road and that's all now in a big subdivision.

The Christmas of 1962, we had purchased our Christmas trees and the Boy Scouts sold them. We had everybody in the subdivision and all our friends had been so generous, we set up a memorial fund. And the Scouts came and sold the trees, and all the profit went into the fund. And I think we did that for four years. And many boys and girls in the Carpenter District were allowed to apply for help to start their college. I think it was $300 they would give them. It was handled by the Ann Arbor Trust. It has been closed out. Some went to the Saline Church Home and they decided the remainder should go to our son Mike's college upon the death of his father.

The Leverett farm was sold to Sam Frankl for a shopping center. That was in 1963, and that was when they put our house up on beams and got it ready and we cleared the orchard out. And I remember that was a time that President Kennedy was shot and I ran all the way down to the orchard to tell Chuck and the other guys that were working. And we also put up a barn to hold all our machinery, reopened our market with Robert Lilly doing the carpenter work. Later flowers she had attached to the market which served its use for the sale of flowers and Christmas trees. The market was opened May 1st to November 1st and then we opened December 1st usually till about the 18th.

In 1975, Judy and Christine, now out on their own, no longer helped at the market. Christine was married and she had an adopted son, our grandson from Korea. Mike was in college at Western Michigan. Chuck was doing more soy beans, grain farming, possibly thinking of ending the market business. With all the kids gone it was kind of hard. Some worked after school too. Some of those Lilly kids worked over there too.

And then November 1976, my husband had a heart attack in the morning, and was rushed to the hospital. By 6:30 that night he was ... had a massive heart attack on the operating table and passed away.

Mike was still in college. He came home weekends and we worked till late at night, combining and ... One night the combine on Morgan Road got mired in wet area, and thanks to Richard Sakstrup, who came to our rescue and pulled it out.

We decided the farm work had to come to a close. The market we could handle. Did do the sweet corn for another year, as Mike was home in the summer. Then a great friend said he would raise our sweet corn and we could pick it up each morning freshly picked. We had really built our business on our sweet corn because it was always fresh, being picked all day long. Weekends we had sold 300 dozen per day. We never went back to that amount though. All our corn was picked by hand, carried on a bushel basket.

Mike did transfer to Eastern which made it easier, except it added one year of college to him. We have continued going to Detroit market three to five days a week for produce and plants and flowers. This means leaving for Detroit by two a.m. and then come home and work from nine to seven, seven days a week. Long hours, but still rewarding.

We had an auction and sold all our farm equipment after we decided not to do any more farming. In 1979, I sold the farmhouse there. And Mike and I bought a condo on Earhart Road and I lived there 19 years. And then in 1986, we heard the house was going to be sold for a car wash, and we knew it adjoined the rest of us, so we bought ... I bought it back.

So we rented the market out for one year. He didn't succeed and he left without paying, so that was ... the building stands empty as far as I'm concerned. Then my daughter Chris did it for a year, and she didn't make out too well, so she said it was too many hours for no little ... for nickels and dimes. It's been empty for several years. In two ... last ... in 2000, this couple opened it through July and October but they're not planning on doing it.

We're doing wholesale only now. My son Mike is the manager. He still buys in Detroit. He does all the buying. He has the long hours, and this will be our 40th year purchasing trees from Duddle's Tree Farms. They sent me a note with our Christmas card this year. And this is our 45th year in business. We're going to continue on the wholesale business and Christmas trees in December. Seems to be slowing down myself. I turned 80 last December but still work three mornings a week to help pack the produce and I hope I can continue.

Dorothy Leverett was born in Dexter, Michigan on December 18, 1920. She grew up in Dexter on the Gross family farm, on the same property where she lives today. She graduated from Dexter High School in 1938 and took one year of nurses training at Henry Ford Nursing School. When World War II broke out, she went to work at the Ypsilanti Bomber plant doing office work. She married her husband Charles, whom she met at a Pittsfield Grange dance in 1937, in December of 1942. He served in the Medical Corps in Europe during the war. They had four children: Judith, Charles W. (who was killed in a farm accident in 1962), Kristine, and Michael. Her husband Charles died of a heart attack in 1976.

In 1948, Charles went back to general farming at his family farm located at Carpenter's Corner (Carpenter and Packard Roads). In 1957 they opened a produce stand, which evolved into Leverett's Country Market, which became a 45-year institution in the Township. This interview deals mostly with Mrs. Leverett's memories of running the market.

He graduated from Grass Lake High School in 1940. He served in World War II on an artillery unit in Italy from 1943 until the end of the War. Dean was raised on the family farm on East Michigan Avenue which he continued to manage throughout his lifetime. He was elected county commissioner several times and served two terms on the Jackson County Road Commission, retiring in 1992. Grass Lake residents who are now adults may remember him for his years driving a school bus for Grass Lake students. Dean had long working relationships with both the Pierce family and the Wolpert family. We also want to mention the help given by the Low family and the wonderful support given by Kim Miller as well as Dean's nephew, Larry Champney. We want to recognize the long-term friendship Dean had with Phil and Sally Sherwood and their thoughtful assistance in caring for our father on many occasions. He will be remembered as a hard-working, skilled farmer, cooperative with others, generous to his friends, a dedicated member of the United Methodist Church, thoughtful and affectionate to his family, an entertaining story-teller and a gently competitive Euchre player. He loved to travel, visiting countries in Europe and South America. One of his last trips was an ocean cruise around New England with his adult grandchildren. He enjoyed the many family reunions and visiting family around Michigan. He was a regular at VFW meetings and a welcomed participant at coffee gatherings for neighbors, friends, and fellow farmers.

Thank you to all of his friends, nurses and doctors who cared for our beloved Dean over the years. A celebration of life service is being planned for the summer at the Grass Lake United Methodist Church. Arrangements are entrusted to Sherwood Funeral Home, Grass Lake.

- 5820 iv. Jennifer Lee Gross, born 23 Sep 1958 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 02 Sep 1991 in Pleasant Plains, Lake Co, Michigan. She married Brett Matthew Fischbach 18 Sep 1982 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 25 Jun 1953 in Corona, Riverside Co, California; died 24 Oct 2007 in Baldwin, Lake Co, Michigan.

Notes for Brett Matthew Fischbach:

Brett M. Fischbach, (formerly of Saline) editor of the Lake County Star, died Oct. 24, 2007, at his home in Baldwin. He was 54. Mr. Fischbach was born June 25, 1953, at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Corona, Calif., the son of Frederick and Marylouise Fischbach. Even as a child, he gave evidence of a lively intelligence, boundless curiosity and a passion for fishing. Mr. Fischbach attended grade and high school in Ann Arbor and Saline, graduating from Saline High School in 1971. At the age of 18, he volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army and served in the Third Army at Fort Ord in Seattle and Fort Bliss in El Paso, Texas. He was honorably discharged in 1974. Following his Army service and 13 years in the Merchant Marine, he earned college degrees from Central Michigan University in zoology and history, ultimately attaining master's degree in both disciplines. He also taught undergraduate courses in ichthyology, fisheries biology, limnology and zoology, and served as assistant curator of the university's Museum of Cultural and Natural History. A longstanding love of ships and the sea inspired Mr. Fischbach to pursue a career in the Merchant Marine. Following his training at the Harry Lundeburg School of Seamanship in Piney Point, North Carolina, he received his Able Seaman's certificate and, for many years, worked on Great Lakes vessels, both as a deckhand and later as boatswain.

In 1983, Mr. Fischbach married Jennifer Lee Gross of Ann Arbor. His beloved first wife died after a long illness in 1991. In 2005, he was wed to Cappy Beins, originally from Toledo, Ohio, whom he recruited to write as a regular contributor to the Lake County Star.

Mr. Fischbach assumed the post of editor of this weekly newspaper in 2002. He quickly established a reputation for being a fine reporter who relentlessly pursued stories, and a clever feature writer who's popular and award-winning "Virtual Bait Shop" became one of the best-loved columns in the area. Being a Master Angler as well as an avid football fan, Mr. Fischbach was well equipped to cover a wide variety of outdoor activities and sports. He was also profoundly interested in politics and extraordinarily well informed about current events. A fervent champion of the common man, who despised cant and was always willing to speak his mind in the face of any opposition, Mr. Fischbach composed a fine series of "op-eds" on subjects ranging from war to the economy to public welfare and education, never failing to provoke thought and useful discussion. He was recognized for his outstanding work as a writer and editor by the Michigan Press Association.

Everyone who knew Mr. Fischbach well agrees that he was a most remarkable and truly unique individual. Humorous, bright, kind, and amazingly well read, he never lost his childlike fascination with ecology, gardening, chess, wartime strategy and field equipment. An expert on the American Civil War and World War II, he could identify any and every tank, plane or weapon from memory. There was not a single general on either side that he did not recognize by sight. While serving at Fort Bliss, Mr. Fischbach's Army colleagues who knew of his chess talent arranged a match for him with a Mexican National Master from nearby Chihuahua. Mr. Fischbach won the match when the master made a "poor move" in Mr. Fischbach's words at about the eighth move.

Mr. Fischbach was outstanding in biological taxonomy: his powers of retention were such that he could quickly classify any animal, whether terrestrial or aquatic, and explain its most important characteristics. Perhaps most of all, his relatives and friends will cherish the memory of his wonderful conversation. He lived a life that was jam-packed with adventures and could relate delightful anecdotes about rescues in the waters of Lake Superior, violent storms, occasional wild encounters with very colorful characters from Mexico to northern Canada, and fine musical concerts. Though he met literally hundreds of people during his life, Mr. Fischbach never forgot a name (or the lyrics to a song). Mr. Fischbach was a member of the American Legion, the Pere Marquette Watershed Council, the Lake County Property Owners Association, and the Federation of Fly Fishers.

Besides his widow and parents, survivors include three siblings, Cort S. (Maureen) Fischbach of Pinckney, Kristin Louise (Harold "Hal") Holcomb of Chelsea and Dirk F. (Kathryn "Katy") Fischbach of Saline; nephews Skylar Smith of Pinckney, Evan and Colwyn Fischbach of Saline, and Scott and Kenneth Gross; one uncle, R. Curtis Fischbach of Adrian; nine cousins; Jennifer's beloved mother, Jutta Gross; and a host of friends.

A memorial service will be held noon Saturday at Reddeman Farms, 555 S. Dancer Road. Another service is planned noon Nov. 10 at Verdun Funeral Home in Baldwin. Cremation has taken place, with ashes to be interred at Lakeview Cemetery in Ludington following the service. Memorial contributions in Mr. Fischbach's name may be directed to Museum of Cultural and Natural History, Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, MI 48859. Envelopes will be available at the services. Rest in peace.

4061. Joanne Noreen¹⁰ Haisch (Otto Paul⁹, Rosina Katharina⁸ Murrthum, Anna Catherina⁷ Lorenz, Johann Jakob⁶, Friedrich Carl⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Hans Jerg², Johann¹) was born 12 Apr 1938 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 22 Aug 2012 in Ohio. She married Peter Anthony Appeddu 1961, son of Pietro Appeddu and Margherita Prosperia. He was born 25 Jul 1932 in Rome, Italy.

Notes for Joanne Noreen Haisch:

Joanne (Haisch) Appeddu passed away at the age of 74 at Hospice of Northwest Ohio on August 22, 2012 having reached the end of a long and fulfilling life. Joanne was born in Ann Arbor on April 12, 1938. She graduated from Ann Arbor Pioneer High School. Joanne then attended the University of Michigan where she earned both a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration and an Elementary School Teaching Certificate, and where she met her husband. While at Michigan, she was a member Alpha Xi Delta sorority, and maintained a lifelong relationship with her sorority sisters in the Toledo Chapter. After taking time off to start her family, she later earned her Masters Degree in Library Science from the University of Toledo.

Joanne was a teacher and librarian in the Mason Consolidated, Perrysburg, and Toledo Public School districts, and an instructor at the University of Toledo. She completed her career as the librarian at Bowsher High School in 2002. Joanne was dedicated to educational excellence. She cared for her students as if they were her own children, encouraging them to graduate and to continue their education. She was a member of the Alpha Delta Kappa international honorary organization for women educators, in which she held various officer and committee member roles. One of Joanne's favorite projects was administering the ADK local chapter's scholarship program for area high students desiring to pursue a career in teaching. So important was this program to her, that Joanne personally presented the awards and congratulated each recipient individually. In addition to her community service and career, Joanne was an active member of the Toledo U of M club, and was a B.S.A. Cub Scout Den Mother at St. Rose Church.

Joanne loved to travel, visiting all 50 states, Canada, and many countries in Europe. She also chaperoned student tours to Italy, Greece, France and Japan. One of her fondest memories was the family cruise to the Caribbean in 2009. Her lifelong passion for reading, history, and raising flowers was a source of happiness. She was very artistic with remarkable talent for creating displays and albums. The most important people in Joanne's life were her husband, children, grandchildren, and family. She will be greatly missed and remembered as a caring wife and loving mother, grandmother and sister. She held on to life during her extended illness to see her grandson graduate from high school and enter college, and until she had an opportunity to impart her advice and wisdom to each of her grandchildren during their recent visit.

Joanne is survived by Peter, her loving husband of 51 years; sister Nancy (Haisch) Purigraski and husband Milan (Buzz) of Stuart, Florida; son Paul Appeddu, Ph.D. and wife Vivian of Houston, Texas; daughter Lisa Appeddu, Ph.D and husband Jason Johnson, Ph.D. of Weatherford, Oklahoma; son-in-law David Treadwell, Ph.D of Austin Texas; grandchildren Philip and Gabrielle Appeddu; cousins George Fletcher and Virginia Parisho; and nieces Cynthia Bethke, Cathleen Klotz, Jennifer Barnes, Pamela Piekney, and their families. She was preceded in death by her parents Otto and Dorothy (Stoll) Haisch, daughter Teresa (Appeddu) Treadwell, and sister Norma (Haisch) Ashby.

The Appeddu family is grateful for the gentle and compassionate care provided by the staff of Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Perrysburg, during her final days. The family also wishes to thank Kathy Gerace and Cindy Sampson for their excellent healthcare and kind support for the past nine months.

Friends will be received from 2 to 8 pm on Friday, August 31, 2012 at Witzler-Shank Funeral Home, 222 E. South Boundary St., Perrysburg, Ohio where a prayer service will be at 7 pm. Prayers will be recited at 9:15 am in the funeral home on Saturday, September 1, 2012 followed by a Funeral Mass at 10:00 A.M. in St. Rose Catholic Church with burial in St. Rose Cemetery. Family and friends are invited to a memorial luncheon at the church following the graveside services. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the church or to Hospice of Northwest Ohio, 30000 E. Notes for Willard J. Graff:

Source: The History of La Russell, page 101, by Charles and Neva Chrisman, 1988.

La Russell School was originally known as "Swindle" school. The La Russell School was originally organized as the Swindle School District about 1870. It was located southwest of La Russell on the old Jacob Graff farm at the crossroads of Highway F and Second Road. It was used as a church and a school. Some years later a nice frame house was built on the Lewis Meador farm about 200 yards west of the present Meador home, but it was still called Swindle school.

In 1904 when the Missouri Pacific Railroad went through, La Russell was established and a 2 room, red brick building was built on a hill west of La Russell where the school now stands. A new modern room was added in 1962. The La Russell School consolidated with Sarcoxie School in 1966. Teachers:

- 1922-1923 Paul Dewney & Ruth Quinn

Notes for Rodney Edmund Runsteen:

Betty L. Smith, of 1425 N. C St., is in critical condition this morning March 7, 1980 in an Omaha hospital after an accident Thursday night on west Dodge Road in Omaha. Douglas County Sheriff authorities said Ms. Smith was eastbound on Dodge about 7:30, following a car driven by Rodney Runsteen, 66, of Omaha. He stopped to make a left turn and Ms. Smith apparently ran into the stopped car, said Captain James T. Wintle. Authorities said they do not know why she hit the parked car. The impact pushed her car into the oncoming lane of traffic, where it bounced off a westbound car and roiled, Wintle said. The driver of that car was Debra L. Montoya, 16, of Omaha. He said Ms. Smith suffered head injuries and was taken to Nebraska Methodist Hospital. Mrs. Runsteen, a passenger in the car her husband was driving, received minor cuts and bruises, Runsteen said. Ms. Smith was alone in the car and Ms. Montoya escaped injury.

Notes for John William Fred Layher:

John William Fred Layher of Saline, Michigan passed away peacefully at StoryPoint Assisted Living on October 9, 2024 from pancreatic cancer and congestive heart failure. John was born in Dearborn, Michigan on January 26, 1927 to the late Thema (Schnirring) and Rudolph Layher. He graduated from Saline High School in January, 1945. He joined the Allied forces during the end of WWII when he joined the US Coast Guard right before his 18th birthday. His dad suggested the US Coast Guard so he wouldn't have to serve overseas. As per John's luck, he joined the other unlucky 20% of the Coast Guard that had to serve overseas. He was stationed in the Mid-Pacific as a Radio Technician 3rd Class. On May 12, 1956 he married Elaine Kurowicki in Milan, Michigan. They were married 66 years when Elaine passed on June 29, 2022. They met on a blind date arranged by their good friends Tom (deceased) and Noreen (Schwartz) Love.

John was a life-long member of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, where he was baptized and confirmed. He served on church council multiple times, building and grounds committee, memorial committee and sang in the choir. John also volunteered with the Saline Historical Society for many years and enjoyed taking many an elementary class for a historical tour through downtown Saline, Rentschler Farm and the Saline Depot. He retired from the USDA Soil Conservation Service in 1993 after 37 years of service, where he worked as a Soil Conservation Technician. He worked with farmers, school districts, and Engineers throughout Washtenaw and surrounding counties, designing drainage systems, ponds and other earth related projects. He also farmed on his family farm on Maple Road in Saline with his brother Rudolph (Bub) Layher. John was an environmentalist long before it was a thing. Caring for the earth, growing earth sustaining plants and trees, and clean water were his priorities.

John loved the Lord and had read the Bible cover to cover four times (if not more). His Bible was highlighted throughout and he loved to argue theology with his pastors, many of whom called him a Biblical Scholar. In November 2023 at age 96, John took an honor flight, with his grandson, to Washington DC from Toledo, Ohio. He was the oldest veteran on the flight and the only Coast Guard veteran besides the pilot. He was welcomed back with a celebration for all the veterans that never received a welcome home when they returned from war.

What John loved the most, besides his family, was to visit with people. Into his late 80's, he was often seen walking around Saline, to the grocery store, hardware store and barber shop. He would stop to talk with whoever was along his route. In November 2022 he moved into Assisted Living at StoryPoint, Saline. There he made many new friends that became very important to him, including his best friend Donna Dahlenberg and her daughter Deb Gumucio, Janet Laatch, Charles, Ed, and fellow Vets living at StoryPoint. John thanks everyone who came to visit with him while in StoryPoint including Betsy Marl, Scott Rentschler, Pastor Jim Coran and many others who called and spoke with him for many hours at a time. He wanted to thank his caregivers at StoryPoint for caring for him so well. And he wanted to thank Corsocare Hospice for their wonderful work. He wanted to especially thank his grandson Jared for his many hours of companionship, shopping for and lovingly taking care of grandpa, niece Susan Yuhasz who lived down the street, and his dear neighbors Fred and Laura Girbach and Donald and Denise Hatfield.

John is survived by his children Patricia (Craig) Richter of Saline, Paul (Rikilynn) Layher of Frankenmuth, and John (Jan Mata) Layher of Tecumseh. Spending time with his grandchildren was his "Happy Place".

He is survived by those beloved grandchildren, Joshua Richter of Canton, Jared Richter of Saline, Sarah Richter (Rachel Krawchuk) of Grand Rapids, Sadie Layher (Conner Applebee) of Boston, MA, Samuel Layher of Oak Park, Bryan and Daniel Layher of Ypsilanti. He is also survived by his sister-in-law and brother-in-law Janet and Donald Hann of Holland, brother-in-law James Weber of Grand Rapids, sisters-in-law June Fowler of Morenci and Jean Kurowicki of Evansville, Indiana.

John was preceded in death by his beloved wife Elaine, his parents, his sisters and brothers-in-law Lucille (Walter) Hinderer, Elizabeth (Donald) Dechert, brother and sister-in-law Rudolph (Marjorie) Layher, his sisters-in-law Stella Weber and Linda DeVee, and brothers-in-law David Kurowicki and Paul Kurowicki. He is also preceded in death by his favorite dogs, Mandy and Cindy.

Notes for Georg Friedrich (Fred) Gollmar:

A History of Cleveland and Its Environs: Biography. By Elroy McKendree Avery, Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago-New York, 1918. Page 469:

Fred G. Gollmar. There are very few self-made men who, in looking back over the path they have successfully climbed, will really wish that their lot had been otherwise. There is a compensating satisfaction in self-earned victory that is very valuable to one who has gained it. One of the prospering business men of Cleveland is Fred G. Gollmar, who is president of F. J. Gollmar & Company, and his business success has been the direct result of his own industry and perseverance.

Fred G. Gollmar was born in Stuttgart, Germany, January 8, 1876. His parents were George and Christina Gollmar, who came to the United States in 1881 and settled with their family at Medina, Ohio. There Fred G. attended the public schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he went to work as an employee of A. I. Root Company, manufacturers of beekeepers' supplies. He was steady and industrious and remained with the company for seven years, when he came to Cleveland, where he very soon secured a position as salesman for the firm of Stranahan & Company, where, for ten years he had charge of their cigar department in the Arcade Building. It was this connection that gave him the experience that has since proved so valuable in his own enterprises.

During his long term of service with Stranahan & Company, Mr. Gollmar had contracted a wide acquaintance and made many personal friends, and when he severed his old business relations and purchased a cigar business of his own, at No. 163 Arcade Building, he found a purchasing public ready for him. As a business man on his own responsibility, Mr. Gollmar soon proved the possession of many of the business qualities that are essential to success, and in 1912 illustrated it by taking over the cigar business in the Rathskeller on East Fourth Street. In the following year he secured the cigar trade of his former employers, and in 1914 he purchased the cigar stand at No. 742 Euclid Avenue. At present he is operating all the above under the general name of the F. G. Gollmar Company, of which he is both president and treasurer. To no outside influence does Mr. Gollmar owe his business success. He worked faithfully and efficiently while in the employ of others and when the opportunity came for independence, he had the wisdom and good judgment to make use of it. He is now one of the substantial business men of this city.

In February 26, 1902, Mr. Gollmar was married at Cleveland to Miss Laura Blaschke, and they have one daughter, Anna Louise, who is attending the public school. Mr. Gollmar has always been an upright and useful citizen and has ever used his influence in the furtherance of movements that promise to be generally beneficial. In political affiliation he has preferred to be independent. He belongs to Forest City Lodge, Free & Accepted Masons, to the National Union and to the order of Maccabees, and is known to be very charitable although never, advertising his generosity.

She married (2) Frank Burnett Rose Bef. 1920. He was born 28 Nov 1852 in New York, and died 13 Mar 1928.

Notes for Catherine Margaret (Katie) Stabler:

I, Catherine Rose Stabler, was asked by the Superintendent of Wind Cave, South Dakota to write my experiences while there as lady guide and explorer from 1891 through 1902 and the season of 1913 (cook and guide). I became interested in Geology from a small square of striped sandstone my father, John Stabler, picked up at Chatanuga (Chattanooga), Tennessee in 1864. He had carried it through the end of the Civil War and gave it to me when I was quite young.

My father, John Stabler, one of five children, was born of George and (sic) Margret Stabler in a part log house (still there) near a mill pond near Mifflin, Junita Co., (sic) Pennsylvania in 1847. His father owned a blacksmith shop. He died when Papa (John Stabler), the youngest of five, was quite young. His mother married Jake Meintzer and moved near Broadhead, Wisconsin. When Papa was 16 he ran away from home and joined the 7th Wisconsin, Cavalry. He was wounded at Chattanooga, Tennessee and discharged at end of Civil War. He met my mother Lydia Raymer, daughter of a very religious family, of Rock City, Illinois (1867-1866). They were married and had six children, all deceased except myself, three brothers older and 2 sisters younger.

In 1871, with their three sons, they went out west in a covered wagon where Papa acquired a grant of land from the government at Middle Creek, Nebraska. Near Melford where 2 of Papa's sisters lived on farms and also Mother's brother lived in Melford. The youngest son, only a baby, tumbled out of the back of the wagon while enroute. It was several miles later that they missed him. They retraced their tracks and found that someone had rescued him and were waiting for them. Papa was building a house and had not completed the kitchen. It still had it's dirt floor. Mother needed some soap and as she was about to step onto this dirt floor, she remembered she had some. Father saw a white flash, (it was night) and went over and killed a large rattlesnake. Then on morning, (while the kitchen was still being built) as she was starting breakfast on the outdoor fireplace, she reached for the frying pan and there curled up was a rattlesnake. Those were the dry years and grasshoppers came in clouds, they would settle on a piece of grain and eat it to the roots, lay their eggs in the ground and rise up in a cloud and fly to a fresh field. They left bare cornstalks and dry pits on peach trees. We lived on barley coffee which Mother roasted, game Papa shot and a very few groceries. Our folks back east sent us barrels of clothes, bedding, nuts and necessities. Papa was a carpenter walking five miles each way for $1 per day. Mother was a tailoress and made clothes for people. She also pieced a quilt of calico, some material from the Civil War days. This quilt is being handed down to my great-grand daughter. One morning while Mother was getting breakfast, she saw a prairie chicken on the fence and called Papa who grabbed his gun and shot it. She skinned it and had it cooking before it's muscles stopped twitching.

The youngest son, Raymer, died the summer of 1873 and I was born October 29, 1872. The town of Middle Creek burned and all records were lost. I never got a birth certificate. When rebuilt it was named Pleasant Dale. In 1874 we moved to Hastings, Nebraska where Papa and a Mr. Deisher went into the implement business. Country was new and crops good, lots of machinery was needed, so they made good. My two sisters were born here. While living here, I remember being sent to town on an errand. In the park, I witnessed and had to pass a man being hung. They sold out in the fall of 1879 and moved to Lincoln, Nebraska where Papa started to make machinery in the prison with convict help. I remember attending the circus and riding on Jumbo's back. Also Jumbo being killed by a train and saving her baby elephant by throwing her over her back. It was at this fair that Papa had an exhibit of his machinery and had built a spiral stair case. The first of its kind and a great curiosity which drew large crowds. The Indian performances were next to his exhibit and they made me an Indian Queen. Also my cousin Harry Raymer age 3 months and weighing 33 lbs. was the prize winning largest baby. I took care of him one afternoon while mother and my aunt were shopping. He cried all the time they were gone and I had to walk the floor with him. I was sure tuckered.

Papa's (sic) buisness here was not a success as the convict help was not satisfactory and also the bank where Papa had his money went broke. (The bank president absconded with the money). We bought a home in East Lincoln and Papa went on the road selling machinery. He made good, but wanted a (sic) buisness of his own. While here I remember the blizzard of 1888. We went to school a mile from home and it had started to snow after lunch. By 2:30, traffic was stopped. Our teachers had all children living in one direction take hold of hands and walk in middle of road. Schools in country, teachers, and children stayed in school, breaking up furniture to burn. Others started out with the children and not reaching home, some died, others climbed into haystacks to keep warm.

The next fall after the blizzard of '88, we moved to Chamberlain, South Dakota and ran a hotel, The Brule. The Sioux Indian track of land was being opened for homesteads by the government. Before the rush for these government claims our house was full all of the time. The winter of 1890 and '91, the last Indian war, the Battle of Wounded Knee, every woman and child who could afford to go, left until the battle was over. I remember one Saturday night twelve Indian chiefs stayed in our house until Monday morning as no trains left on Sunday and Chamberlain was the end of the line. We had a small room across the hall from the office where they smoked pipes and pow-wowed. They were great eaters. We left them in the dining room after all other guests were gone and then put everything we had cooked on the tables and they ate and ate. They got up and shook themselves and sat down and ate again. They were on their way to Washington to see the White Father and negotiate peace.

One morning word came that Sitting Bull was on the boat that just came in so everybody rushed down to see him. He was smart, shut himself in his cabin and charged people 50¢ to see him. Not far from Chamberlain was Mitchell, South Dakota where I remember visiting the Corn Palace, the only one in the world. Also took boat trips up the Missouri to the Crow Indian reservation and went to the Indian's church. Most of them sat outside and hunted lice on their children's heads and cracked them between their teeth. Visited the beef issue across the Missouri and saw the cattle slaughtered and divided among the Brule Indians. The Indian children would run around sucking the entrails. After the crowds had filed on their homesteads, (sic) buisness dropped off so Papa sent Charles, my younger brother, with a party to Hot Springs, S.D. to look up a location. He found the Hotel Parrot on the right side of the court house almost finished and rented it. Papa packed our furniture in two freight cars and shipped them to Hot Springs. Then he bought a covered wagon, team of horses and equipment, found another family, the Vet Schofields, to share the trip, and we started on a very interesting trip. Our party consisted of Father, Mother with four children and son's wife, The Schofields and their three children. Later their baby was the first child to go in Wind Cave. Mrs. Schofield is living now in Hot Springs as Mrs. Gregory. We crossed the Missouri on a ferry, then over the Wounded Knee battle grounds which had been fought three months before. We found a few Indian war relics and ran into several war parties with their war paint on. The drinking water was a problem. We would fill our barrels only to find it bitter and would have to dump it. The Bad Lands were just Indian trails and gumbo (mud). When it would rain it clung to the wagon wheels until they were a foot or more wide and would have to scrape it off. Luckily there was a store in the heart of the badlands as we used up all our food in just one week. We thought we had brought enough for the two weeks it would take us to get through these badlands. Brother George shot some game which was scarce. To me the bad lands looked like a large winding dry river that dropped 20 to 40 feet with a wall on each side gulches which made going through two states forming a ring around it with only a few passes to enter. It was a geologist paradise with (sic) petrified snakes, fish, toads, birds, (sic) lizzards, etc., beautiful crystals of all colors, and shapes. Rustlers used to drive stock there, keep the breeders and rebrand them as there was good grazing in parts and very hard to find the stock. There was Lame Johnny Creek which was named after a rustler who was caught and was hung there. Mother caught poison ivy which covered her body, and she nearly died before we could get to a doctor. Before we got to Buffalo Gap we were pounded twice within an hour by hail stones. The stones piled up to the horses knees, broke some the wagon staves and made black bruises on our hands where I had tried to up hold up the canvas. Next day we arrived in Hot Springs and drove to the Hotel Parrot, found our furniture stored in the basement so we moved in there while we cleaned and furnished the rooms. Then we opened to the public, we had all we could take care of.

Just six weeks after the hailstorms of our trips, we were struck again. We hurried to get sick people and guests out as it broke all windows on the North side and blew down the chimney. It had battered the headboards which stood across the rooms. This storm flooded the Fall River which runs through Hot Springs which is warm water and Cold Brook which is cold and met just above the plunge bath. My brother, his wife and my sisters and many of our guests were in this plunge bath when the storm struck. It washed out bridges, broke the glass roof over the plunge bath and the tower. They scurried to shelter and had a rough time finding their clothes as lights had gone out. The B. & M. Railroad came in the west end of town and the Northwestern came up from Buffalo Gap and very often, each year they would be washed out and then repaired at a great expense.

Some time that first summer of 1891 Papa went out to Wind Cave. There were no stairs and they went down a rope and did a lot of climbing and crawling. He was very much interested in it and saw great possibilities for development. It was occupied by a Mr. McDonald (a squatter), who had been sent by Mr. Folsom, head of a mining company, to do the assessment work. He jumped the claim and took it as a homestead. This was unknown to my father at this time or he would not have bought into the cave. McDonald's family were starving, very hardup, and was very anxious for someone to invest money in the developing of the cave. He sold Papa one-half (sic) interest and we sent out wagon loads of food several times.

The entrance to the cave was in a deep gulch. The original opening was a small oval hole about 8"x12" worn smooth by water spouting out a geyser, (9) a geyser 12 mi. south of H.S. (at Cascade live) There are others south of Hot Springs and geologists who came from all over the world said there were so many signs of it's being an extinct geyser. The story went that two Bingham brothers hunting rabbits camped for the night on top of the gulch and while one brother made camp and got supper, his brother went down into the gulch hunting and heard this wind coming out of a hole but covered with brush and debris washed there by floods. So he scraped away the brush and as he looked into the hole, the wind took his hat up into the air. He ran back to camp and told his brother that all hell had broken loose down in the gulch. In the morning they decided to take another look at this hole, and as they neared the spot, the first man threw his hat toward the hole and said "Watch it go up!" but the wind had changed and took the hat in. They never saw the hat again. We found out later that this wind was governed by atmospheric pressure and turned out to be a true (sic) anemometer. Clear days it blew out and the longer it was going to be clear, the stronger the wind. As a storm approached, the wind blew in and the closer the storm got the stronger the wind.

Later a log house was built over the hole which had been blasted near the original discovery. The front room being directly over it and near the trap door made in the floor and steps built down 155 feet to the first passage of cave. The wind blew so strong at times it took two of us to raise or lower this door according which way the wind blew and after it got to the first level, there was no strong wind but a regular system of circulation. Some routes of wind going in and some coming out. In fact, we used this draft to aid us in exploring. All of the rooms had two to a dozen openings and we could take our candle and put it in each opening and the one with the strongest draft indicated the largest country ahead. We carried a ball of twine which one end we tied to a rock as it was so easy to get lost. The cave as we knew it was a number of crevices where we found the large rooms (running N.W. to S.E. - 50 to 150 ft. apart) connected by ovens, as we called them, crawling on our knees and sometimes pulling ourselves through on our (sic) stomachs. Many times we would have to make a bridge of our bodies for the others to cross on. We kept ourselves well padded, where needed. Papa made a code signaling by tapping rocks. One tap – two taps – three taps and then two and a one tap – all meaning something like Come, I've found a new room; I am lost; Am in the dark, etc. I still have this code that Papa made me.

I loved to explore and seldom missed a trip. It was a great thrill to go into a room anywhere from 12' x 12' to 3 acres of floor surface that no one had ever set eyes on before. The ceiling and sided festooned with beautiful formations, sparkled like diamonds, large rocks strewn everywhere and fun to make out images of faces, animals, etc.. The floors were as clean as the walls and showed no dirty water had flowed through, but all the water had gone up. On one occasion we were in there 18 hours with temperature of about 45 degrees. When we became tired we rested, but we never caught cold. In fact, we had some (sic) asthmatic people stay with us to go down and breathe that air.

One experience I remember, Papa and I were exploring and had, it seems, been in the cave about two hours or more. The first part of the trip is pretty hazy to me, but I distinctly remember coming to a small room about 12 feet around shaped like an Indian (sic) teepee, the center having a strong draft. Papa had become tired and laid down to rest. (We often went to sleep when tired in cave and never caught cold) I looked down this hole and seeing some rocks that I thought I could reach with my feet, let myself down, my arms resting on the floor until I got my balance. I sat down and lit some magnesium ribbon which I used in large rooms while guiding. I was greatly thrilled being the first person in a room no one had ever been or seen before. It was truly beautiful. It was a very high room, about 100 feet by 50 feet wide. A portion of the ceiling about 30 feet by 15 feet had fallen just about the middle and in falling cracked open. It had their (sic) iridescent chocolate colored crystals found no other place in the cave. The rest of the room including the floor was covered with what we called Satin Spar which glistened like diamonds. The (sic) prettiest room I ever expect to find this side of heaven. I called Papa and after exploring the room further, we gathered some of the loose pieces of crystals and started our long hard crawl out. As far as I know this room was never named as it was hard to get there and was not shown.

There were three routes opened the first being The Garden of Eden in the winter of 1891 and 92. Many of the rooms were named by the guides and many more were named by the visitors themselves. The Prairie Dog and Mound was named by one of the guides who picked up a large rock which looked like the shape of a prairie dog and placed it on this mound; Snow Ball, many shapes of snowballs; Post Office, little boxes lined walls; M.E. Church, our first stop in guiding to rest and we generally sang a song. Odd Fellow's Hall, we had to cross a stone which looked like a turtle so this was named Turtle Pass. The Cross Roads, we branched off to the right to go the Garden of Eden. One room had large stones we sat on and called this room Stone Quarries. The G.A.R. Hall was named by a group of G.A.R. members who were guided through as were the Eastern Star, Odd Fellow's Hall, W.C.T.U. Hall, Union College rooms and many others.

The second route, the Fair Grounds started at the Crossroads. This route was opened in 1892-93 and so named after Papa guided Billie Bryan and (sic) Governor Lee through the Cave. The following newspaper clipping tells the story.

John Stabler surely captivated Gov. Lee when he visited the cave last summer for besides being appointed as an Omaha exposition commissioner, John has also been named as a delegate to Stock Grower's Association at Denver on Jan. 25, 26 and 27. (1893) In speaking to Billie Bryan, Papa once said "I wish I might talk like you". Billie Bryan answered "I wish I might laugh like you".

Another newspaper clipping reads: A Transmississippi State Commission Governor Lee has appointed a new Omaha exposition commission for this state, as follows: Vice-Pres. A. McKinney, Lead; W.L. Gardner, Rapid City; Harris Franklin, Martin Chapman and Charles Davis, Deadwood; John Stabler, Hot Springs; Hance Murphy, Elk Point; C.A. Jewitt, Sioux Falls; O.H. Mann, Okobojo; Hugh Smith, Howard. The governor says that he will appoint additional members of the board at the earliest opportunity and will call the commission together and devise some means of raising money for making a state exhibit. The governor certainly made no mistake in naming John Stabler, of this place, for he can make an attractive exhibition alone if necessary – with his Wind Cave Specimens – and he no doubt will. (Sent large collection to the Smithsonian Inst. Wash.) John Stabler did have an exhibition of specimens at the State-Fair and so named the room State Fair Route. Among the Fair Grounds route rooms was the Kimball Music Hall where you could tap the columns and play an octave. Johnstone's Campground – Where Johnstone, the mind reader, slept on his three day journey through the cave for the pin head. Then we heard of Mr. Johnstone, the mind reader, coming to Hot Springs, driving through the streets blind folded and found a name in a register at a certain hotel. The name belonged to the man whose mind he read. My father met him and asked him if he thought he could find something hidden in the cave. He said "Yes". So they made arrangements for the trial. A business man of Hot Springs, Mr. Germond and Alva McDonald, our chief guide, hid the head of a scarf pin in the cave. Meanwhile Mr. Johnstone stayed in his hotel room in Hot Springs and the next morning with his manager Mr. Germond and the Associated Press reporter with Mr. Johnstone blindfolded got in an opened spring wagon. Mr. Johnstone drove the 12 miles of very bad roads in 45 minutes. This drive usually took us 1½ to 2 hours to drive. One of the horses dropped dead, the other one was never any good afterwards.

Brother Charles's wife and I saw the horse drop. As he entered the hotel he took a razor from my brother's hand (my brother was shaving my father) and shaved a few stokes. We all looked scared to death. At the table he wanted anything he would name it and touch the man next to him and reach for it before anyone else could. When he went down to the cave entrance, he sat on the step leading down in the cave and cried "I've lost my power" repeating it several times. Finally, still blindfolded, he jumped up and said "Come, I see the way". He flew down the stairs dragging the man who had the other end of string tied to his wrist. We knew where they were all of the time as we sent a guide a distance behind them in case they should get lost. This guide carried blankets to sleep on and food to places he knew they would pass. They were three days and nights and were getting exhausted, so Alva took them to the place where the pinhead was hidden. Mr. Johnstone, still blindfolded, took the pinhead up on the end of his knife blade and put it in Mr. Germond's hand. Our boys took a stretcher in, but when they got to the Post Office, they heard them coming so they stepped beside the wall and when Johnstone still in the lead, passed he didn't see them but Gerome did. Johnstone immediately said "I don't need that stretcher, watch the path".

Later when Papa got very sick, we sent for Mr. Johnstone and he hypnotized him with the thought that his pain was all gone. That really helped him more than doctors and medicine. Another room was Alpine Pass was so winding sometimes called the Merry-go-Round.

The third route, the Pearly Gates, was opened in 1892 and was so named by my brother-in-law (Mamie's husband) Oscar Merwin. He said it reminded him of what the Pearly Gates would look like. The Blue Grotto of the Pearly Gates route had a 500 foot level, the lowest we had ever been. The Raymer room named by my Grandfather Raymer when he went through the cave at the age of 81. He died at age 89.

The Wind Cave Hotel, as it was called, my father first built on a hill. It was a two story house and after moving it down off the hill Papa added two wings. One for an office and one for kitchen and two bedrooms. The lower part of the original building we used as a dining room and we served dinner to all who wanted. My brother, George, ran this hotel for the first year until papa could sell out in Hot Springs. Besides buying the half-(sic) interest in the claim, my two brothers, brother-in-law, and myself took up homesteads to cover the surface of the cave. Also McDonald's son took up a homestead claim, McDonald having the claim which covered the entrance. George had the next claim closest to the hotel. Each claim was 320 acres consisting of 160 timber and stone, 160 tillable.

I started exploring in 1891 and also guiding a few people in the cave that first season, 1892. We explored winters and my family spent 11 winters blasting and opening routes and making them possible for women to go through without overalls. My father, mother, brother Charles and family and myself lived on my homestead. I had the deed to the only spring of water a mile away and when the stage coaches would come to water horses, they would pick me up to guide the party. Papa visited all the hotels in Hot Springs, getting people to come and tour the cave. I continued to guide steady for 11 years until 1902. Have guided many groups of students from School of Mines at (I believe) Sturgis. Also, geologists from all over the world studying the different formations, where located, etc. we would take three parties a day. At one o'clock, 5 o'clock and 12 P.M. We couldn't get the Indians to go through except one party of 10 or 12 who were in missionary work. They chanted their Indian songs all the time they were in the cave. WHERE THE WINDS PLAY

Former Stephenson County Man Finds a Mammoth Cave in the West 100 Miles Explored and the End is Not Yet – One of the World's Greatest Wonders. Rock City, Nov. 9 – Last Saturday a number of citizens of Rock City were taken by surprise when the 11:30 passenger train arrived. John Stabler, wife and daughter, who a number of years ago resided at this place, stepped off on the platform and shook hands with their many friends. Years ago, Mr. Stabler went west and settled in South Dakota. He was not expecting, at that time, that there was an underground fortune awaiting him. But an opening in mother earth was (sic) discovered, in the form of an immense cave, and as the wind came forth with such force Mr. Stabler and a partner who was with him, concluded that they would try and enter into the opening. The result was they discovered enough to see that there was a fortune near them. So in the year 1892 a stock company was organized and Mr. Stabler was made superintendent and overseer of the cave and the name Wind Cave was the title given it. One hundred miles had been explored and yet there are new openings likely to be found. Your reporter is unable to give the names of all that has been seen and discovered in this wonderful cavern. Thousands of visitors from all parts of the world come to take a view of the wonderful sights. Mr. Stabler, the superintendent, resided ten miles from the entrance to the cave at the nearest point of railway accommodations and he has led as high as 150 persons at one time through the cave. The price for admission is one dollar for each visitor. Although this may seem to be a great speculation yet there is a large expense in erecting stairways and bridges over some of the deep crevices. Also every ten to twenty-five visitors must be furnished with a guide to conduct them through. If any of the readers of this article would like to see a large display of the relics of this cave they can do so by calling on George Raymer, of Rock City, who is the father of Mrs. John Stabler. He has one large room at his residence in Rock City that is ornamented with numerous kinds of minerals and a long list of names is given to these relics. Everybody is welcome to call at Mr. Raymer's and see these specimens. Mr. Stabler expects to remain one month before he returns home.

Newspaper Clipping 1895 - A TRIP TO SOUTH DAKOTA

On Sunday morning, May 19th, after a most bountiful breakfast at the palatial Midland Hotel, Kansas City, a number of the members of the Southwest Missouri Press Association, through the kindness of The Great Burlington Route, by their gentlemanly and courteous passenger agent, Col. Ives, departed for the famed Hot Springs, S.D. From Kansas City to St. Joseph, the party was honored with the company of Mr. Harris, city passenger agent, and his beautiful wife and little daughter. After a short stay at St. Joseph, the train pulled out for the great west. A short stop was made at Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and the next morning at 8:40 the wonderful Hot Springs was reached. The country west of the Platte River, in Nebraska, to the foot hills in South Dakota, has a dreary look and is in reality a desert. The only vegetation visible for many miles after leaving Crawford and before reaching Edgemont was an occasional bunch of buffalo grass and sage brush. The prairie cactus was also plentiful. On reaching Hot Springs, truly the "Carlsbad of America," the party was escorted to the Evans Hotel, the leading hotel of the place. Hot Springs is 3500 feet above sea level, and nestles in a most charming valley in the Black Hills. The scenery surrounding the city is grand and inspiring. Back of the town a short distance stands what is named "Battle Mountain", named for a terrible fight which (sic) (sic) occurred years ago between the Sioux and the Cheyenne Indians for the possession of the hot springs. The city has about 3,000 inhabitants, a social, energetic and thrifty people. The buildings are modern and will compare favorably with any city in the world for beauty of architecture and convenience. The Evans Hotel, the palace resort hotel of the West, is built of pink sandstone and will accommodate 300 guests. It is equipped with all modern conveniences and is just such a home as the person seeking health, repose and comfort desires. In Hot Springs are many hotels and several fine business blocks, two newspapers, the South Dakota Soldiers' home, and many residence mansions. The great plunge bath, the wonder of the west is 275 x 150 feet. This is unquestionably the finest plunge bath in the U.S. The water temperature as it bulges from the earth is (torn) and the most glorious was torn in by man.

The after (torn) day there was devoted to a drive over the city. To our friend, Capt. A. B. Connor we are greatly indebted for this pleasure. Our better-half and daughter were the guests in a like pleasure of Col. Fred T. Evans., Capt. Connor was stationed at Fort Wyman in this city and was instrumental in the construction of the same, and also Ft. Ditty near the School of Mines. He was, after that and for many years, with Gen. Crooke and Gen. Custer. He retired from the service, but a few weeks before Gen. Custer met his death at the hands of the Savages at Big Horn. He and Col. Evans are possessors of large tracts of land adjoining Hot Springs. To Dr. W.E. Adams, Kennett F. Harris, the Stanley Bros., Congressman Lucas and others whose names have escaped our memories, we are under obligations for many courtesies.

The evening was devoted to a pretty dancing party given by Col. Evans which was interspersed with music, song and story. As only a few newspapermen ever indulge in tripping the light fantastic the party was not as largely represented as Col. Evans had desired. The Burlington's travel agent, Col. G. H. Baxter, a most genial gentleman, was on and did much to make all who happened near him enjoy themselves. The next morning after a good night's rest, in two large tally-ho coaches, a large number of party started for Wind Cave, a distance of twelve miles. The owners of this wonderful handiwork of nature, Messrs. Stabler & McDonald, had us under their wing, and although the air was crisp and bracing, the distance was quickly covered by these gentlemen.

The story of the discovery of Wind Cave, which is ninety-six miles long and the most unique and wonderful cave formation in the known world, was that a hunter in 1881 chased a deer to its opening. So wonderful was the rush of air from the small opening that he returned the next day with his brother to whom he had told the story. An investigation was begun and from an original opening of eight by twelve inches, it has been enlarged to admit three men walking abreast. Twenty-five thousand dollars have been expended on inside improvements making it the finest and easiest traveled underground wonder known. There are twenty-five hundred subterranean chambers, and the contract has been closed to light everyone with electricity. A good hotel adjoins and the meals are excellent. Our party explored this wonderful cavern to the depth of 350 feet and a distance of three and a half miles. We are utterly unable to give a description of what can be seen here. The formations are different from those found in any other cave in the known world, while their (sic) brilliancy and beauty are marvelously grand. This cave has been explored ninety-seven miles, and resembles an eight-story building. All who have visited this wonderful place pronounce it the first of the known wonders of the world.

On our return from Buffalo Gap, a distance of sixty miles. Prairie-dog villages are numerous along the route. After a most refreshing bath, and an excellent dinner, the remainder of the evening was spent with billiards, genuine western hospitality led by Congressman Lucas and a delegation from Edgemont headed by Mr. Russell Thorp, and a (sic) progressive euchre party. At cards the Missourians proved themselves on par with the men in the wild and woolly west who had taken lessons from the heathen Chinese, and won every prize but one – that a "booby".

The next morning at 8 o'clock, the sad farewell was said and (sic) accompanied by a pleasant bevy of ladies and gentlemen, the train was taken for Deadwood and the vast gold field of the Black Hills.

Notes for Walter Henry Schnirring:

Feb. 3, 1940 - That good Sac county farmer. W. H. Schnirring, near Sac City, owns one of the good farms of northwest Iowa. It has taken Schnirring the greater part of 40 years to build it up to the present excellence. Schnirring is the land of farmer who realizes the necessity of keeping good livestock along with tilling the soil He has good herds of Holsteins and Brown Swiss that are the answer to his livestock problems. They do their part by filling the buckets with rich, wholesome milk and are able to do it because Schnerring is a good provider when it comes to furnishing the feed.

She married William Arthur Phares 29 Nov 1899. He was born Aft. 1870, and died Aft. 1921.

Notes for Maude McCune:

Mrs. Maude Phares, former Decatur resident, died at 5:30 p.m. Saturday July 30, 1949 in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Richard Kent of Flushing, New York. She was born in Decatur, a daughter of Charles and Barbara McCune. She married Arthur Phares here and the family moved to Indianapolis about 20 years ago. Besides her husband and daughter, she also leaves one grandson. Services and burial will be in New York.

Notes for William Arthur Phares:

Oct. 15, 1921 - W. A. (Art) Phares is absent from Decatur, his whereabouts unknown. Persons interested are checking his books and accounts admitted that appearances indicate that Phares is a defaulter to the extent of $50,000 as the minimum, and it may be $100,000. No one knows at this time and the high figures are guesses. Miss Ella Race, whose confidential business manager he had been for many years, will lose not less than $25,000, and the Pan-American Auto Co., of which he was treasurer, will doubtless have a loss of not less than $25,000.

"We know that he is short not less than $20,000 in his accounts with our company," said Edward Danner, president of the Pan-American Co., "but that is as far as we care to go in making positive statements. Yes, it is possible that the shortage might be as much as $40,000, but if I should say more than I have said, it would be conjecture and I prefer not to make such statements for publication. When the audit of the books has been completed we shall have positive knowledge. The audit may not be completed before the last of the month.

"The first intimation of anything wrong I had was Monday, when Mrs. Phares called me and told me of a letter forwarded to her by a relative in Indianapolis in which Art said that he was not coming back to Decatur. I got busy at once. We trusted him implicitly and felt justified in that, in view of the business path he had trod coming to our company. We liked him personally. He was absolutely in charge of his department. Knowing him to be competent, and having confidence in his honesty, we did not concern ourselves about his accounts."

W. A. Phares was for many years confidential business manager for John R. Race, and following his death acted in the same capacity for Miss Ella Race, who inherited a large part of her father's fortune. She trusted and relied upon Phares because of his long association with her father. On Oct. 8 Miss Race received by mail from Phares, then in West Baden, Indiana, the key to her safety deposit box. In that box has been found a note signed by W. A. Phares for $24,000, payable to Miss Race. It is unsecured. The inference is that Phares used securities to the value of $24,000 and put the note in the box to square the account. Attorney Horace W. McDavid, representing Miss Race, said: "The note for $24,000 suggests the thought that Phares owes Miss Race at least that much money. How much more I do not know. There is much to be done in studying the accounts with which I have had no familiarity, for I did not handle the money end of the business. I cannot say how much it was possible for Miss Race to lose through the defalcation of Phares."

W. A. Phares left Decatur two weeks ago today, his business associates understanding that he was going to West Baden, Indiana, for a visit. It was from West Baden he wrote to an Indianapolis relative of his wife, saying he was in bad and would not return to Decatur. That letter was forwarded to Mrs. Phares in Decatur and she at once informed Edward Danner, of the Pan-American Co. Members of Mr. Phares family insist that they know nothing concerning his absence. More than 20 years ago Art Phares was bookkeeper for the Race Clothing Co., and thus became confidential man for John R. Race. About 17 years ago he entered the employ of the National Bank of Decatur and in time became cashier. He resigned his position in the bank in April 1917 to become secretary of the Pan-American company.

Playing the board is reported to have been the avenue through which Phares unloaded the easy money he was handling. That has been shown to the satisfaction of some persons by the cancelled checks found in Phares personal accounts. The statement is made too that there has been sufficient study of the accounts of Phares to show that within a period of 12 months he was one-time loser of $30,000 on the board, and that one time he was winner of $15,000, or was that much temporarily to the good. But it is admitted that even then he might have been short for no one knows how much it had been necessary for him to invest to win that $15,000. More than a year ago Edward Danner asked Phares if he was playing the board and the company secretary admitted that he one time had indulged in such high flyers, but he had abandoned the game, and his statement was accepted as truthful.

Nov. 15, 1922 - W. Arthur Phares, former official of the Pan-American Motors corporation, now serving a term in the Chester penitentiary for embezzling funds of that company, will be brought to Decatur to testify in the case of Ella Race against the National Bank of Decatur, to recover $10,000 for stock which Phares sold to H. R. Gregory, cashier of the bank. Judge Baldwin, in the circuit court Tuesday, issued a writ for the return of Phares to Decatur for the trial of the case which is scheduled to come up on Wednesday, Nov. 22. The writ was requested by Redmon, Hogan & Redmon, attorneys for the bank. Phares is being brought here to testify about his part in the deal in which he sold stock of the bank owned by Miss Race. The defense, it is hinted, will try to prove that Phares was acting as the business agent of Miss Race when he disposed of her holdings in the bank early in 1920. She claims that she knew nothing of the sale until last fall when shortages were uncovered in the affairs which were conducted for her by Phares. McDavid, Monroe & Hershey will represent Miss Race in the trial which is one of the most interesting on the civil docket for this term of court.

Nov. 24, 1922 - The Race-National bank of Decatur suit was continued Thursday until the January term at the suggestion of H. W. McDavid, attorney for Miss Race, who declared in an affidavit presented to the court that Arthur Phares, principal witness in the suit, changed certain statements he made to him about the affairs of Miss Race.

Mr. McDavid said that in an interview with Phares in Chester penitentiary Nov. 2, Phares told him that he sold Miss Race's stock in the bank without her authority and appropriated the funds to his own use to cover losses sustained in grain deals. A few days ago, in another interview with Phares in the Macon County jail, Phares completely changed his version of the application of the funds and made other statements, which Mr. McDavid says contradicted statements made Nov. 2. The developments made it necessary to study the case from a new angle and for this purpose Mr. McDavid requested more time, which the court granted. Phares has been here since last Saturday awaiting the trial of the case. He will be taken back to the penitentiary in a day or two. Phares has not been locked up all of the time, but has enjoyed considerable freedom, and Thursday was seen loafing in the court house corridor.

Feb. 9, 1923 - Was Arthur Phares, who is now serving time in Chester penitentiary for embezzlement, the general agent of Miss Ella Race when he sold her stock in the National Bank of Decatur to the officers of that institution in April, 1920? The question of agency is the important one in the suit of Miss Race against the bank for $10,000, which started in the circuit court Thursday. Phares, the trusted friend of the Race family for years, and who by Miss Race's admission on the stand Thursday afternoon had authority from her to sign numerous checks against her account and sell half of her bank stock, sat with other spectators in the courtroom while his dealings were aired before the jury. He was brought here from Chester to testify as a witness for the defense and may get on the stand today to explain the authority that he had to do business for Miss Race. The trust, which Miss Race placed in Phares, who attended to many of her business affairs and advised her on financial matters, was brought out by her in her testimony. In ill health and often unable to attend to her affairs because of absence from the city for the benefit of her physical condition, she authorized Phares, who was a trusted friend of her father's before his death, and later executor of his will, to sign checks against her account and to keep the key to her safety deposit box. On trips she would write him for money and he would send her drafts. Annually he would make a report to her of her financial standing. She did not discover the true state of affairs until late in 1921.

H. R. Gregory, cashier of the banking institution, and defendant with the bank in the suit, was called as the first witness in behalf of the plaintiff. Miss Race, to identify the stock certificates of the bank and give other information concerning the deal for the stock, which he consummated with Phares in 1920, long before Phares was ever suspected of overstepping his authority in the Race affairs or in the Pan-American Motors corporation, which he served as treasurer. Miss Race, according to Mr. Gregory, possessed 33 shares of stock in the bank and 16 of these were sold by Phares to him Feb. 14, 1920, and on April 14, the remaining 17 were disposed of. Miss Race was then in California. A stock dividend of 63-5 shares, declared in January, 1920 were also disposed of to Mr. Gregory by Phares, at the rate of $250 a share, while the other shares of stock were bought at $253, or a total of approximately $10,000. The par value of the stock was $100, Mr. Gregory said, and he gave it as his opinion that $253 was a fair cash market value.

"The transaction took place at my desk in the bank," Mr. Gregory said. "W. A. Phares came there and produced the stock certificate and a letter in the handwriting of Miss Ella Race and said that he had authority to sell the stock. I did not read the letter." Mr. Gregory explained a discrepancy in the date of issuance of the stock as shown on the records, by the fact that the stenographer who made out the certificates affixed the same date as the date shown on the stock dividends. Checks were produced showing that Mr. Gregory paid to Miss Race the money for the stock and that Phares deposited to her account $3,198, and took the remaining $6,801 in cash at the teller's window. What he did with it has not been brought out.

"W. A. Phares has been connected with the business affairs of our family for 25 years," Miss Race testified. After the death of my father, he was made executor of his will and since then I have looked to him to help me. Nearly every year I have been gone for two or more months for my health. Mr. Phares transacted a great deal of my business. He paid the taxes, insurance, collected rents, made some of my charitable donations; collected dividends on my bank stock. But always he consulted me and I gave him the authority. "I had a conversation about the sale of my bank stock with Mr. Meriweather, president of the bank, and wrote to Mr. Phares about it March 16 and 29, 1920. He replied to both of my letters and on April 8 I received a certificate, from him which I afterwards learned was a certificate granting power of attorney to Mr. Phares. I signed it and returned it on the same day. I wrote Mr. Phares two letters in which I authorized him to sell, one half of the stock. I did not know that all of the stock had been sold until October, 1921 when Mr. Meriweather informed me of it. I learned that out of the proceeds of $9,999 only a little more than $3,000 had been deposited to my account."

At this point her attorneys introduced a dozen checks of different dates, one as far back as February, 1917, and for amounts from $100 to $1,000, totalling altogether $7,020. which Phares signed. Miss Race said she did not authorize him to sign the checks and did not receive any benefit from them. Two were to the Bartlett-Frazier Grain Co. "Mr. Phares was not my general agent." Miss Race testified on cross examination. "He had been transacting my business for about 13 years. I authorized him to pay my bills but I usually wrote to him to tell him what bills should be paid. He had no legal power of attorney. We had a verbal agreement between us that he could sign checks against my account when I authorized him to do so from time to time. That agreement existed until October, 1921. He attended to business under my supervision. He collected money from the buyers of lots in Raceland and if any payments were made to him by check he had the power to endorse the check.

"I authorized Mr. Phares to buy the stock in the bank, and told him to buy Leader Iron Works stock. Government bonds, and he made many loans for me. When they came due he collected and would tell me about it. The loans were made by him by check on my account and he had authority to endorse my name on them. I only saw the first issue of the Government bonds that he bought. I never saw a single mortgage that he made. "Whenever anything would come up he would write to me, and I would then give him instructions. He had authority to sell 16 shares of my bank stock. I knew he was writing my name to checks and that he was receiving checks payable to me. He made a statement to me every year showing the conditions of my finances.

"When I was gone he usually sent drafts. In 1920 he sent several drafts. He got the money by writing my name on the checks. When I was away my expenses were never more $300 a month, except in the spring or fall when I needed clothes. I would write to him and he usually sent me a draft for whatever I wanted. I usually signed the checks for my clothes. In 1920 I made a trip to Alaska, and I received the expense money through Mr. Phares who was authorized to sign my name, to the checks. I have no knowledge of a check for $500 that was issued May 1, 1920." Miss Race was asked about Phares' dealings on the board of trade.

"In 1917 Mr. Phares approached me and said that we, ought to buy some corn. I said "I don't know what you mean." He said he had a chance to buy some and make money, and I told him that I wouldn't invest more than $100 or $150. I didn't know until four years later that he did invest the money. "I authorized him to buy Midvale steel and authorized him to pay for it out of the proceeds from the bank stock. I have since learned that I never was on the books of the company. I didn't know that he could buy it on the board of trade. He told me that it would be a better investment than bank stock; that it would draw 8 percent, instead of 5 percent which the bank stock paid.

"I always supposed that the bank stock was in the bank. Yes, it was in the possession of Mr. Phares. I had a safety deposit box there. Mr. Phares carried the key and always had it. During all of the years I never saw the contents of the box. My securities were in the custody of Mr. Phares. I supposed that he looked after them. I don't know how the dividends on the bank stock were paid. (Miss Race at this point identified a number of dividend checks on bank stock endorsed by Phares). He had authority to endorse my name on the back of the check if it was issued to me. He had authority to sell land. I would sign blank deeds and he would fill them out as the land was sold if I happened to be out of the city. "I knew the state of my bank account. In 1921 I found that it was overdrawn. Mr. Phares always gave me statements which I accepted. I authorized him to look after all of the business that I specified." The cross examination of Miss Race will be concluded this morning.

Dec. 14, 1924 - Arthur Phares, after serving 30 months in the Chester penitentiary following his plea of guilty to two indictments charging embezzlement, has been paroled with permission to leave the state and go to Indianapolis. He visited in Decatur for a few hours Friday and then went to Indianapolis.

There remain on the criminal docket of the circuit court of Macon County, three indictments charging Phares with embezzlement. It is not unlikely that those indictments will be stricken with leave to re-instate for Phares will not be entitled to a clean bill on his parole until a 12 months period has elapsed. Phares served in the penitentiary a larger term than he had anticipated when he went to that institution. When he had been there a year he wanted to be released on parole. He was advised that such petition would be resisted by the authorities of Macon County, the intimation being that the least that he should expect was two years in the prison. Also he was advised to remember that there were yet in force three indictments on which he might be brought to trial if he was paroled.

State's Attorney C. F. Evans Saturday night said that he did not care to make any announcement concerning the action that would be taken in relation to the three Indictments on which Phares had not been brought to trial, but he did say, "When Phares had been in the penitentiary about a year and wanted to be paroled, I declared that the persons who suggested his release, that I would not stand for his parole at that time unless I was compelled to do so. I thought that such short term was insufficient and so informed his friends. Now he has served about 30 months. When his petition for parole was filed I simply did not make any statement to the board of pardons. The members of the board were familiar with the case. I am not prepared to make a statement concerning the course to be pursued on the three indictments yet on the docket."

If Phares does not violate the provisions of his parole, at the end of 12 months he may ask the governor for a full pardon and restoration to citizenship. Citizenship does not automatically reinvest in a convict when his period of parole has elapsed, even though his conduct during that period has been exemplary. To be restored to citizenship he must petition the governor for that privilege. The crime for which W. A. Phares was indicted and convicted was the squandering for his personal enjoyment, the major portion of the estate of Miss Ella Race, whose confidential agent he had been since the death of her father, John W. Race, having been his confidential business agent for a number of years.

Marriage Notes for Maude McCune and William Phares:

At 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening Nov. 29, 1899 at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. McCune at 1044 West Eldorado Street, occurred the marriage of Miss Maude McCune and W. Arthur Phares. The nuptial service was celebrated by Rev. J. F. Wohlfarth, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, in the presence of a party of 100 guests which included Mr. and Mrs. George Ritscher of Owaneco, Mrs. E. E. Reed of Taylorville, Mrs. E. S. Daigh of Taylorville, Mrs. George Daigh of Mechanicsburg, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Flock of Springfield, the groom's sisters the Misses Lulu and Bertha Phares and brother Otis Phares of Grove City, Miss Mae Walker of Taylorville, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Laugblin of Cerro Gordo.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ferns, smilax and white chrysanthemums which was arranged in the corner of the front parlor. The couple were attended by two flower girls, the Misses Gertrude Damrow and Amelia Wiefel, who carried silver baskets filled with large white chrysanthemums. As the bridal party took their places Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Ina Kincaid and this was continued softly during the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of French organdie simply made with a yoke of valenciennes insertion and lace which was outlined with fluffy ruffles of the organdie edged with ruching. The skirt was trimmed with the ruffles edged with ruching and set to form a drapery at the aide front. The collar and belt were of crushed silk. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses tied with white satin ribbon. The little flower maidens were dressed in gowns that differed only in color. Miss Damrow in light blue silk with white applique yoke and Miss Wiefel was in light pink silk with white applique yoke. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was decorated with large fern leaves laid carelessly on the cloth. There was a vase of white and pink chrysanthemums in the center and one large white chrysanthemum tied with white satin ribbon was placed at each corner. The other tables were in similar dress. Mr. McCune was assisted in receiving by the Misses Laura Dillehunt and Emma Russell. The gifts were many and of more than ordinary beauty and value. Among them was a handsome lamp, the gift of the Race Clothing company and tire employees and a silver service. Mr. and Mrs. Phares left for Chicago on the Diamond Special last night for a short visit. Returning they will reside with the bride's parents. Mr. Phares is the book keeper for the Race Clothing company.

Notes for Robert Dean Oldfield:

Robert Oldfield, 16, of 511 South Crea Street, was treated for an injury to his right leg Friday night Dec. 8, 1939 after a traffic accident in the 900 block East Wood Street at 6:30 p. m. According to police reports a truck driven by C. A. Howerton, 970 East Wood street was parked and the boy ran into the back of it with his bicycle. The police report indicated lights were on the truck.

Dec. 13, 1941 - Bob Oldfield, son of Mr. and Tonnie Oldfield, 511 South is with the navy in Harbor, Hawaii.

June 19, 1942 - Robert D. Oldfield, young Decatur sailor on a United States cruiser docked at a West Coast port, got so homesick to see his parents that he deserted and came home. Last Sunday young Oldfield gave himself up to Decatur police, Thursday word was received from Washington to turn the young sailor over to naval authorities at the Great Lakes Naval Training school. Police will take him there today. In his cell at the county jail and young Oldfield said that now he was happy that he had seen his parents. Mr. & Mrs. T. Oldfield, 511 South Crea Street, and wanted to return to this ship to see more action against the Japs. He expected to be punished for going A.W.O.L. but thought the trip home would be worth the price.

Incidentally, young Oldfield has been in the thick of the battle against the Japs in the Coral sea action, as well as in the Gilbert Island area. He is a fireman, first class, and was working below decks of his ship when the battle of the Coral sea was fought. But he said that he was permitted to go on deck after the battle was over, and that he saw the sinking of the United States Carrier Lexington. "The ship was blazing from stem to stern, and I saw our own ships torpedo her before she went to the bottom. My ship took on most of the survivors of the Lexington and brought them to a West Coast port," young Oldfield said.

In the Gilbert Island battle Oldfield saw direct action, saying that was acting as street, was acting as a gun loader at time and was on deck in action as the Jap airplanes flew at the ships and were met by terrific anti-aircraft fire. He said he was not permitted to talk much about the action he had seen but that it was a never-to-be-forgotten occurrence. He said he was anxious to get back and see more battles now.

Two persons were in St. Mary's Hospital Thursday night July 28, 1966 one in serious to critical condition following a two-car accident on U. S. 51 on the north edge of Elwin. In serious to critical condition was Robert D. Oldfield, 43, of Route 2, Macon, the driver of one auto. In fair condition was Mrs. Lena Klarner, 66, who was a passenger in the auto driven by her husband, John Klarner, 1820 N. Church St., Decatur. According to state police, the Oldfield car was traveling north on U.S. 51 at 6:08 p.m. when the car went out of control, spun around and stopped in the south - bound lane of traffic, where it was hit from the rear by the Klarner auto. Klarner was treated at St. Mary's Hospital and released.

Notes for Otto Herold Haab:

Docket No. 204, Calendar No. 36,572. Submitted October 14, 1932. Decided December 6, 1932. Appeal from Washtenaw; Sample (George W.), J. Submitted October 14, 1932. (Docket No. 204, Calendar No. 36,572.) Decided December 6, 1932.

Otto H. Haab was convicted of bastardy. Reversed, and new trial granted.

Jacob F. Fahrner and Andrew J. Sawyer, for appellant.

Paul W. Voorhies, Attorney General, Albert J. Rapp, Prosecuting Attorney, and Frank B. DeVine, for the people.

WIEST, J.

Defendant was convicted of bastardy, and prosecutes review by appeal in the nature of certiorari.

At the trial Miss Brandt, the complaining witness, in answer to questions, gave details not mentioned at the examination before the magistrate, and defendant was not permitted to so show by the transcript of the evidence returned. The evidence, taken before the magistrate, is in the record, and we find nothing therein tending to impeach her testimony at the trial, and, therefore, pass the point without further comment.

Miss Brandt was 23 years of age, and her father testified, in behalf of the prosecution, in part as follows:

" Q. Did you learn that your daughter was pregnant some months ago? " A. Yes, sir.

" Q. And whom did she accuse when you found that out? Who was the father of this child?

" A. Otto Haab.

" Mr. Sawyer: I object. That's hearsay unless it was done in the presence of the respondent.

" The Court: No.

" Mr. DeVine: That's perfectly competent.

" The Court: Yes.

" Q. She accused Otto Haab? " A. Yes.

" Q. And any time you talked to her about her pregnancy did she suggest anyone else?

" Mr. Fahrner: That's leading and suggestive.

" Q. Did she mention anyone else? " A. No, sir.

" Q. Mr. Haab is the only one she accused? " A. Yes, sir."

The court instructed the jury:

"I instruct you further, that in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant that you may take into consideration declarations of the complaining witness, Hilda Brandt, when the fact became known that she was pregnant; that she stated to her parents and attending physician that the defendant was the father of the child, in connection with all the other testimony in the case and give it such weight as you deem proper."

The testimony was not admissible and the instruction was erroneous and prejudicial. The instruction sent the incompetent testimony to the jury as substantive evidence upon a vital question.

It is true that in People v. Cole, 113 Mich. 83, it was said it was proper to ask the attending physician if the complaining witness told him who was the father of her child, but the record in that case discloses that this was on cross-examination and under the claim that she did not then accuse the defendant.

The statement to the father was made months after conception, and could not be employed in corroboration of Miss Brandt, much less as substantive evidence of defendant's guilt.

The baby was exhibited to the jury, without objection, but later the court was requested to instruct the jury that the baby was too young to constitute evidence against defendant. The court refused a request to so instruct the jury, and gave the following instruction:

"I further charge you that the child which was born upon the 21st day of February, 1932, was produced in court in the trial of this cause and that you may take into consideration the appearance of the child, in determining whether or not the defendant is guilty as charged."

At that time the baby was 39 days old. No opinion evidence of resemblance was given. The probative value of the exhibit was not dependent upon age, but upon resemblance or want of it as a fact. The age and immaturity of the child affected the weight of the evidence and not its admissibility. Anderson v. Aupperle, 51 Ore. 556 (95 P. 330); State v. Danforth, 73 N.H. 215 (60 A. 839, 111 Am. St. Rep. 600, 6 Ann. Cas. 557). We are aware of the conflict of authority on this subject. See note in 40 A.L.R. 97. But, as said in People v. White, 53 Mich. 537:

"While arguments of resemblance in so young an infant, in the absence of peculiarities, are a little preposterous, it is difficult on this record to determine that any rule of law was violated in discussing it."

Exhibition of even so young a child might in some cases furnish the most cogent evidence in favor of an accused.

On cross-examination, defendant was questioned about alleged conversations as to how and where Miss Brandt would be cared for during her confinement, and as to who was to pay for the same. It appears that at such times defendant denied his guilt, but it is claimed that he said he would pay the expenses of confinement.

Counsel for defendant contend that such testimony was inadmissible under the rule which excludes, as privileged, offers to compromise, and cite People v. Gill, 247 Mich. 479, where we held that the rule, rejecting offers of compromise as evidence of guilt, applies to a prosecution for bastardy, but in that case there was an offer of settlement made by the defendant, accepted by complainant and her parents, and rejected by the board of superintendents of the poor. In the case at bar there was no compromise, and defendant at all times asserted his innocence.

The question here presented was considered in Robb v. Hewitt, 39 Neb. 217 (58 N.W. 88). There the father of the prosecutrix told the defendant of the girl's condition and asked him what he was going to do about it. Defendant denied the implied charge. There was talk about sending the girl away, and defendant said:

"Do you mean if I would pay half that you would pay half?"

The court stated:

"This testimony was objected to, and its admission assigned as error, counsel invoking the rule which excludes, as privileged, offers to compromise. The rule referred to applies to this class of cases. (Olson v. Peterson, 33 Neb. 358 [50 N.W. 155].) It is a salutary rule and should be rigidly enforced; but this evidence did not fall within it. There was no offer to compromise, but merely a suggestion that defendant would share the expense of sending the girl away. The rule arises from the policy of the law which favors amicable settlements, but does not extend to offers made, which, if accepted, would merely baffle prosecutions or conceal evidence, without effecting a legal compromise."

It was competent for the prosecution to show what defendant said when accused by Miss Brandt and third parties.

For the error pointed out, the judgment is reversed, and a new trial granted.

CLARK, C.J., and McDONALD, POTTER, SHARPE, NORTH, FEAD, and BUTZEL, JJ., concurred.

Notes for Jacob Charles Hieber:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 635:

JACOB HIEBER, whose model farm of 101 acres lies seven miles northeast of Bucyrus, Ohio, in Liberty Township, was born on this farm in 1875, and is a son of Frederick and Lydia (Lust) Hieber. The Hieber family is of German extraction on both sides and the father of Jacob Hieber was born in Germany, while the mother was born in Lykens Township, Crawford County, of German parents. Ten children were born to them, namely: Frederick W., Elizabeth, Samuel, Benjamin, Joseph, Jacob, Sarah, Isaac, Sophia and Reuben.

Jacob Hieber was educated in the district schools. He remained at home and operated the home farm until he purchased the same in 1908, since which time he has made many excellent improvements and it may now be numbered with the model farms of the township.

Mr. Hieber has a pleasant family circle. He married Miss Louisa Kafer, who is a daughter of Jacob and Magdalena (Shealy) Kafer, old residents of Crawford county, and they have had two children: Winfield Jacob, who died at the age of two and one-half years; and John Frederick, who resides at home. Mr. Hieber and wife are members of the German Lutheran Church. He is an intelligent, wide awake citizen and as such is interested in public affairs in his neighborhood. He is a Democrat in politics.

Notes for Dr. William Frederick Koch:

Scientific Therapy and Practical Research - - William F. Koch. Ph. D. M.D. - Dec. 15, 1925

William Frederick Koch was born in Detroit, April 6, 1885. He received his early education in the schools of Detroit and his collegiate education at the University of Michigan from which he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1909, the degree of Master of Arts in 1910 and the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1917. He taught four years in the University of Michigan, two years (1910-1912) as Assistant in Physiology, and two years (1912-1914) as Instructor in Histology and Embryology.

In 1914, he was made Professor of Physiology of the Detroit College of Medicine a position which he held for years. He received the degree of Doctor of Medicine from the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery in 1918 and was licensed to practice medicine in the state of Michigan the same year. He held the position of Pathologist at the Woman's Hospital, Detroit, for the years (1917-1919) and has since been Consulting Pathologist to this hospital.

But the interest of the medical profession in Dr. Koch centers about this work as a research student. While at Ann Arbor he early directed his attention to the experimental study of the function of the parathyroid glands. The results of his researches were published in contributions to the Journal of Biological Chemistry, 1912 and 1913, to the Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine, 1916, and to the Journal of Medicine and Surgery in 1917. This early work was favorably commented on in the Journal of the American Medical Association and was cited by Dr. Lewellyn F. Barker of John Hopkins. Dr. Paton of the University of Glasgow later confirmed Dr. Koch's findings. He demonstrated in these early researches that the parathyroid glands have a protective function against the guanidine poisons.

Dr. Koch is an indefatigable worker. No sacrifice of sleep, food or pleasure was ever too much for him to make in order to stay on the job of watching the behavior of his parathyroid-ectomized dogs or of the chemicals in his retorts. Even at the University of Michigan he had many discouragements to encounter, many obstacles to overcome. One of his darkest days was when on going to his laboratory his dogs were missing and on inquiry was told that they had been killed, as there was no fund to purchase food for them. Oh, how gladly he would have sacrificed anything to have fed those dogs, if only he had been warned of what was going to happen.

After going to Detroit, he continued his research, but now directed his attention primarily to the study of cancer, a subject in which his interest had been quickened by the death of his father after much suffering from cancer of the stomach. 'Applying the results of his experiences in the study of the parathyroid glands, he undertook a study of the chemistry of the toxins present in persons afflicted with cancer. As a student of bacteriology and histology he had found what he thought was the germ of cancer, which he now believes was the motile bacillus stage of the Glover parasite. His chemical studies gave him a new concept of antitoxins, namely, that they are converted toxins. His final conclusions were that cancer is a germ disease, that the cancer tumor is an effort on the part of Nature to produce a protecting gland whose function is the conversion of toxins into antitoxins, and his final accomplishment was the production of a 'synthetic antitoxin' which when injected into the cancer sufferer causes the conversion of the toxins into antitoxins and as a consequence of the digestion and absorption of the cancer tumor, the reconstruction of damaged parts and the relief of all toxic symptoms. In short, he had been able to work out on the observed facts that he finds are incontrovertible, and the establishment of the immunity process, to offer to the medical profession a substance which was not only a cure for cancer but a protective against cancer and an immunizing agent against the recurrence of cancer.'

Preliminary reports of his findings were published in the Detroit Medical Journal, July 1919, and in the New York Medical Record, October 30, 1920. Since then the way of the searcher for truth, and the benefactor of humanity have been beset with many difficulties. He, like Holmes, Semmelweis, Lister and other contributors to scientific therapy, has been denounced by his former associates, by dominant members of the medical profession and by medical bodies and their official journals. He has suffered the loss of his professorship and the loss of his membership in the local medical society and, par consequence, in the American Medical Association.

But Dr. Koch is the type of man who having observed facts that he finds are incontrovertible, does not give up in discouragement. Even though he has not been able to get a medical committee to conduct a proper examination into the clinical value of his treatment for cancer (such an examination would require at least six months of observation of cases) he has kept doggedly at the research, has made important changes in the original formula of his synthetic antitoxin, has made many valuable clinical observations and is really gradually attracting the attention of worthwhile men to his work.

Through the Journal of the American Association for 'Medico-Physical Research' the work of Dr. Koch has within the last few months been brought to the attention of 15,000 to 20,000 physicians, many of whom are watching his work with interest, particularly since the studies of other men have brought forth what seems to be conclusive evidence of the parasitic origin of cancer—the isolation, culturing, sub-culturing of the germ and the tracing of its life history.

Notes for William Frederick Koch, Jr.:

If the people of Gulf Stream remember William F. Koch Jr. as lovingly as he remembered the town, history will have been served. At his death on June 17, 2012 Bill Koch had been Gulf Stream's mayor for 46 of his 91 years. But he'd come here first as a boy in the late 1920s, and he remembered it well. He remembered when Gulf Stream had caves where the St. Andrews apartments stand today, because he'd played in them. He remembered "Cap," the local beachcomber of his youth, and kept the broken neck of a green, hand-blown bottle Cap gave him, all his life.

Mayor Koch remembered Prohibition, when lanterns were hung from the town's water tower to guide rumrunners through Boynton Inlet. "He used to tell me he remembered when his grandfather would take him to Key West on the old Flagler railroad, and watching the coal sparks fall in the water," his son, William Koch III, remembers. "He used to tell me how much he loved doing that." Mayor Koch was a Midwestern boy who grew to become a Florida man and made Palm Beach County a better place without making a lot of noise while he did it.

"He never asked for public recognition for anything he did," said his daughter, Claudia Koch Burns. "He never sought out the limelight, or accolades for his public service. He just truly enjoyed helping build his little area of South Florida."

William Frederick Koch Jr. was born Feb. 18, 1921, in Ann Arbor, Michigan, the son of William Frederick and Luella Koch, and first saw Florida during winter visits to his grandfather's Delray Beach home. At Ann Arbor High School, he was a freestyle swimmer who made the Olympic trials. In Delray Beach, he was a lifeguard.

He enrolled in Rollins College, then left to serve in World War II. As a bombardier in the U.S. Army Air Corps, he flew in a squadron of B-17s on D-Day. His plane had a painting of the actress Lana Turner on the side, and its mission was to destroy railroad targets in Nazi-occupied France. Looking down, Bombardier Koch remembered what he saw. "The trees were covered with what looked like giant white flowers," he told his son. "But they weren't. They were the parachutes of our guys who had been shot and just left hanging there."

After the war, he returned to college, earned a degree in business, and met his wife. Bill and Mary Lou Koch — whom everyone knows as Freddie — celebrated their 64th anniversary on May 31. In 1956, he opened a realty office in Delray Beach, and when he complained about the mosquitoes tormenting Gulf Stream's polo field, the town gave him $150 and named him mosquito commissioner. He sprayed twice a week and joined the commission. The mosquitoes stayed, he remembered, and he left to serve on the county's planning board. Ten years later he returned, was appointed mayor, and stayed mayor through 15 terms, for the next 46 years.

Rita Taylor, the town clerk, has known him since the early 1970s. "He was always here before the Town Hall opened so we had an opportunity to discuss business," she remembers. "Many people probably didn't see the side of him I saw. He could be gruff, but to me he was a very kind gentleman. He had a lot of empathy for mankind." When state environmentalists declared Australian pines a non-native species and ordered them destroyed, Mayor Koch led the fight to have State Road A1A through town declared a historic highway. The trees are still there. After checking in at the Town Hall each morning, he drove on to the real estate office.

"He was really amazing," remembers Muriel Mowry, the office manager for 11 years. "He just had so much energy for his age. He came in every single day and would go out to lunch with the guys and his friends." He favored the Fifth Avenue Grill and La Cigale. "We always had to flip for lunch," remembers George Elmore, a friend for 30 years. "Of course, when he'd lose, he'd grumble, and when somebody else lost he'd tease them a little. Talking to him, he was gruff and outspoken, but he was a very caring man." Another lunch pal was Joel Strawn, his personal attorney since 1966. "You never needed to worry about what was on his mind, because if you asked him, he would flat-out tell you," Strawn remembers. "He was forceful and honest, but with a great sense of humor."

In his time, Mayor Koch served on the boards of Episcopal churches; WPBT-2, the public television station; and SunTrust bank. In the mid-1950s, he was among a group of residents who decided Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach was too far away. Four years later, Bethesda Memorial Hospital opened in Boynton Beach. "He was involved from day one and stayed on as a board member," says Roger Kirk, the hospital's current president and CEO. "We were always a little better prepared when we knew we were going to face Mr.

Koch, because we knew he would ask the tough questions. But we grew to love and respect him." After his death, Mayor Koch's daughter was asked if he had any hobbies. She had to think for a moment. "If he had a hobby," Claudia Koch Burns said at last, "I guess you'd have to say it was community service."

In addition to his wife, son and daughter, he leaves a daughter-in-law, Laura, of Gulf Stream; a son-in-law, Scott Burns; a grandson, Scott Frederick Burns, and a granddaughter, Lauren Christine Burns, all of Phoenix, Arizona.

The family suggests that donations be made to Bethesda Hospital Foundation, 2815 S. Seacrest Blvd., Boynton Beach, FL 33435. In 1929, when Bill Koch was a little boy playing in Gulf Stream's caves, the town had 16 registered voters. Today, there are 650. In 1929, the town's total assessed value was $111,260. Today, it's $652 million. When Bethesda Memorial Hospital opened in 1959, it had 32 doctors and 70 beds. Today, there are 650 doctors on staff and 450 beds.

In his 91 years, Mayor Bill Koch saw Gulf Stream grow and change, and change again, from hidden caves to dazzling mansions. Some of the changes he championed, and some he opposed, but he always worked for what he thought best for his town. And for that, he should be remembered.

Marriage Notes for Marie Burkhardt and Edward Beasley:

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Burkhardt entertained at a delightful dinner on Valentine's day February 1932, in honor of their daughter, Miss Maree. The occasion marked the announcement of her engagement to Everard Beasley of Battle Creek. The colors at the table were in gold and pink. A centerpiece of pink rose buds in a bronze vase, with pink taper candles at either end. These were surrounded by golden cupids and tiny hearts suspended from gold ribbons. The message was conveyed to the guests on pink and gold valentine hearts. Miss Burkhardt's valentine was a cupid with the ling tied to the bow in his hand. Those entertained were girl-friends of Miss Burkhardt. No- date for the wedding has been arranged, as Miss Burkhardt has returned to Ann Arbor to resume her studies at St. Joseph Hospital School.

St. Thomas Catholic Church in Ann Arbor was the setting for a fall wedding at 10 o'clock Saturday morning October 22, 1932 when Miss Maree A. Burkhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Burkhardt of Saline was united in marriage with Everard J. Beasley, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shurtz of Saline. The nuptial mass was solemnized by Rev. Thomas R. Carey, pastor of the church, in the presence of about seventy guests. Prof. Anthony Whitmire of Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, played two violin selections before the mass and also played, during the service. While Miss Nell Brown, church organist, contributed, to the recital before the service and played the processional and recessional marches. The bride, who was escorted by her father, also honored her mother by being married on her birthday, chose, a; becoming gown of egg-shell, satin smartly fashioned with a molded bodice and long sweeping skirt cut on the bias. The deep V neckline distinguished, the bodice and the long sleeves had brief puffs at the elbow and were tight fitting to, the wrists where they ended in points. Handmade flowers of the satin at one side at the high waistline formed the only trimming. Her veil formed a long train extending from a tulle and lace cap, ornamented with real orange blossoms. The lace of the cap draped softly from either side to the shoulders. She wore, white slippers and in place of the usual flower's, carried a rosary and white prayer book, family heirlooms, and dainty old lace handkerchief which was made by Miss Katherine Sears of Saline, an intimate friend. Mrs. Christine Harrington of Jackson, the bride's godmother, was matron of honor, and Miss Jean Carleen Burkhardt of Saline, sister of the bride was maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Kearney of Ann Arbor, Miss Alice Schleh and Miss Muriel Woodbridge of Saline and Miss Florine Blackman of Milan. Mrs. Harrington was charmingly attired in a gown of midnight blue velvet, surplice style, with three-quarter length puffed sleeves. Her hat was of the same shade of blue and she wore black suede slippers and eggshell gloves. Miss Burkhardt as maid of honor selected a smart frock of an unusual shade of red velvet, the pleats of the sleeves starting on the shoulders, giving a broadening effect. The skirt was cut on the bias, while the cowl neckline followed the latest, mode and. was especially attractive. Golden brown velvet was selected for the bridesmaids' frocks and all wore small matching hats with tiny nose veils. Two of the bridesmaids' frocks were designed with square necklines, with the high waistline marked by shirring and the long flowering skirts becomingly cut on the bias. Short puffed sleeves were a smart note.

The other two gowns were designed with high necklines with the broad shoulder effect, achieved, through shirring at the shoulders and the sleeves being fashioned of four tiers of velvet. Points at the high waistlines were unusual in the design of the bodices and the skirt were long and full. All of the bridesmaids, including the maid of honor, wore matching suede slippers and velvet gloves. They and the matron of honor each carried a single bronze chrysanthemum. Mrs. Burkhart, mother of the bride, was costumed in a modish gown of deep wine shade of velvet made with a beaded white chiffon yoke. Her accessories included black velvet pumps and a black velvet hat with a tiny nose veil. Mrs. Shurtz aunt of the groom, wore a black chiffon lace dress with black accessories. Both Mrs. Burkhart's and Mrs. Shurtz's corsages were pale yellow rosebuds around orchid sweet peas. George Armstrong of Lansing attended, Mr. Beasley as best man, and the ushers were Leroy Staib of Ypsilanti and Garry Lynch of Ann Arbor, Dickie, Roberts, cousin of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts of Detroit, was attired in a full dress suit, and served as ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served to 50 relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents. Notes for Jean Carleen Burkhardt:

Mrs. Marie Beasley entertained for her sister, Miss Jean Carlene Burkhart, who is leaving Saturday Oct. 3, 1942 for Des Moines, Iowa. She has joined the WAACS and will receive her training there. Business men and their wives were guests at an informal get together at the Tavern Monday evening from 8:30 to 11. The room was beautiful with flowers, gifts from the firms whose merchandise is sold in the Burkhart store. There were baskets of gladioli in many colors, chrysanthemums and combinations of flowers making the room attractive indeed. A representative from Edson Moore & Co., gave a fine toast in honor of Miss Burkhart and Mayor Alwin Gross on behalf of the business people presented her a lovely service watch which is water proof. Refreshments were served and Miss Burkhart received the good wishes and congratulations of all present. She is the first from this vicinity to enter any of the army auxiliary services.

Feb. 24, 1944 -Sgt. Jean C. Burkhart of Saline, Michigan, has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal. She is stationed at First WAC Training Center Fort Des Moines, Iowa. This is one of the first awards of this nature ever presented to a Wac at Fort Des Moines. The Good Conduct medals were awarded to Wacs who had shown exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity and who had served in the Army for a year or more. Since no medals are presented by the War Department during the war, the Wacs received red and white striped ribbons and will be awarded the medals when the war ends. The ribbons are worn over the left upper pocket.

A life well lived drew to a close Dec. 8, 2007 when Jean Carleen Burkhart Austin of Saline died. She was born April 9, 1917, to Fred and Caroline (Stegmiller) Burkhardt. Mrs. Austin's heritage was a family with deep roots in the history of Saline. Her grandfather, Charles Burkhardt, established the Saline Savings Bank and Burkhardt Dry Goods Store in downtown Saline. Her father, Fred, ran Burkhardt Store until his death, when Mrs. Austin and her sister, Maree, took over the family business. Mrs. Austin graduated from Saline High School in 1934 and then attended Cleary College. In 1942, her patriotism prompted her to enlist in the Women's Army Corp. She served in the Army as a sergeant and was honorably discharged in 1945.

After the war years, she met and married Vern Austin of Dundee on May 1, 1947. In 1948, her daughter, Angela, was born and the family moved to the countryside of Saline, where she resided until June 2006.

Mrs. Austin was a longtime member of St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Saline and in later years a member of Immaculate Conception Church in Milan. She took an avid interest in government and served on the York Township Planning Commission. Her steadfast life commitments were clearly to God, family, country and friends. All who knew her will miss her zest for life, listening ear, compassion and sense of humor.

Visitation will be from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline. A Rosary service will be held 7:30 p.m. A Mass of the Christian Burial will be held 1 p.m. Saturday at St. Thomas Catholic Church in Ann Arbor. The Rev. John Bosco will serve as celebrant. Burial will be at St. Thomas Catholic Cemetery in Ann Arbor. Marriage Notes for Jean Burkhardt and LaVere Austin:

Simple dignity marked the 12 o'clock wedding Thursday, May 1, 1947, at St. Thomas, the Apostle Catholic Church of Ann Arbor where Jean Carleen Burkhardt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederic L. Burkhardt was united in holy matrimony to LaVere Vaughn Austin, first son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Austin of Dundee. The impressive double ring service was solemnized by Msgr. Warren W. Peek in the presence of the immediate families. While profound strains of organ music sounded the traditional processional, the bride was escorted by her brother-in-law, E. J. Beasley. They were preceded to the altar of the Blessed Virgin by Miss Clara Bowen of Oakland, California, as maid of honor, and Miss Karyl Jean Beasley of Saline, a niece of Miss Burkhardt, as bridesmaid. Soft shades of delphinium blue were chosen, as the color theme. Miss Burkhardt wore a smartly styled double peplum, two-piece' deep blue gabardine suit, accentuated by accessories in old ivory. Honoring her mother, the bride carried the white prayer book and pearl rosary, gifts of many years ago. Complementing the bride's costume, her attendants were gowned in subtle prints of modish basque design. Their tiny poke bonnets in matching material and creamy lace mitts were suggested by the veiled "Kate Greenway" hat worn by the bride. Mr. Austin presented his bride with a lapel spray of old ivory gardenias and her two attendants with, shoulder corsages of beautifully shaded pansies, deftly completing the ensembles. The bride's sister, Mrs. E. J. Beasley, chose a dressmaker suit in pale grey with, grey green accessories. Mrs. Austin, the groom's mother, wore beige crepe, with black accessories. The former wore a corsage of pale pink rosebuds, while rosebuds of deep crimson were worn by Mrs. Austin. Roland Kraeger of Dundee was best man. Seating the guests was Glen Austin, the bride's groom's brother, of Dundee.

Informal floral arrangements of white snapdragons and yellow daffodils completed the setting for the luncheon served in the candlelight dining room of the Saline hotel, following the ceremony. Acting as hostess, Miss Donna Mae Austin of Dundee, a sister of the bridegroom, seated the eighteen guests. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Austin were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shurtz, uncle and aunt of Mr. Beasley. The couple left immediately for a honeymoon in Canada. Mrs. Austin, a graduate of Saline High school and Cleary College, Ypsilanti, before entering the Woman's Army Corp was co-owner of Burkhart Store. Mr. Austin, a graduate of Dundee High School, having attended Michigan State College, volunteered in the Medical Corp as a dental technician. He is at present employed by the Hoosier Engineering Co., preparatory to resuming his professional career. Both Mr. and Mrs. Austin may be sincerely complimented for their diligence and military standings while serving their country four years.

Notes for Otto Friedrich Wagner:

Jan. 7, 1987 - Dexter Cider Mill has been sold to a local family, Dick and Katherine Koziski of Chelsea. They purchased the mill from Katherine Wagner, heir of the family that owned the mill for the last 86 years. Mrs. Wagner had other offers, but chose to sell the mill to the Koziskis, who she characterizes as "fine people who will continue the cider mill operation as before." Katherine Staffan Wagner has known Katherine Merkel Koziski all her life, since both come from prominent Chelsea families. When Mrs. Koziski was a teen-ager, she used to babysit for Mrs. Wagner's children. Dexter Cider Mill was built in 1886 by Mr. Tuttle and Mr. Van Ettan and originally produced jelly as well as cider. It changed hands several times in the, first 14 years, but in 1900 was sold to John Frederick Wagner and has stayed in the same family until now. When John Wagner died, his son, Otto took over. In 1935, Otto's son, Frederick, became a partner and the mill name changed to "O. Wagner & Son Cider Mill." In 1937 Frederick, married Katherine Staffan. They lived in Chelsea most of their married life.

The mill operation has remained basically the same for 100 years. In 1953 modern bottling equipment was installed and in 1957 a grill to produce donuts was added. Frederick Wagner died in 1981. Katie Wagner took over the operation with the help of Steve Snay who had already worked for her husband 15 years. Steve will continue as operating manager under the Koziskis' ownership. When Katie Wagner decided she could no longer run the mill, wanting free time to travel and pursue her own interests, her three children were all engaged in successful careers and none could take off three months a year to make cider, although all of them helped when they could. In recent years, granddaughter Kellie Kanten also assisted. Mrs. Wagner's oldest son, Frederick W. Wagner, is chairman of the department of Urban and Regional Planning at the University of New Orleans. Daughter Stephanie Kanten is a second grade teacher in the Dexter Public Schools and a member of the Chelsea village council. John Wagner works for an HMO insurance company in Phoenix, Arizona. The village of Dexter, fearing a future buyer might tear down the mill that is a trademark of their community, attempted to buy it. $1,166.05 in cash was raised and an additional $525 was pledged. 214 people expressed their interest in preserving the mill by contributing money or writing letters of support.

However, village officials came to the conclusion that the only way to raise enough money was either to get a grant from the state or to levy a millage, neither of which could be accomplished by the first of the year, which was the date that Mrs. Wagner wanted to have the matter settled. So about three weeks ago they decided to abandon their efforts. People who contributed money for the mill have the choice of having it returned or contributing it to a Dexter tree fund or for public improvements in the downtown area. If not enough money is earmarked for either of these projects, the money will be returned.

Carl Willoughby, Dexter village manager, was glad to hear of the purchase of the mill by the Koziskis, saying "The village's intent was to continue a tradition and landmark which contributes to the character of the village. If that' has been satisfied without the need for the village to be involved, we are very happy." The new owners are also very happy. Dick Koziski has wanted to buy the cider mill for 25 years and says he "feels very fortunate to want something so long and finally get it." He grew up in Massachusetts in the Berkshire Mountains where cider mills abound. When he came to Michigan and courted his wife, Katherine, the Dexter Cider Mill made him nostalgic for home and it was then that he first tried to buy it. He has worked for Ford Motor Co. for 30 years and has moved around the country, but whenever he returned to this area, he always visited the cider mill. The Koziskis have now returned to Michigan for good, settling at Cavanaugh Lake. Katherine Koziski has joined her husband as a Ford employee. The couple have four daughters and two sons-in-law, all of whom also want to help with the mill, so it will again be a family operation. The Koziskis plan to run the mill "exactly as it has been for 100 years, to basically maintain the mill's current operating season, as well as its meaningful historical presence to so many people in the area." Dick describes it as a "romantic setting that doesn't need messing with." The Koziskis will probably take over ownership Feb. 1. One of the first things they plan to do is plant some white birches on the site, thinking white clumps of trees will look beautiful next to the river and the red barn. Meanwhile, Katie Wagner plans to travel, going first to Phoenix and then spending three months in California. But she will return in plenty of time to help the Koziskis get started on their first cider season.

Katie Wagner has sold the Dexter Cider Mill that she helped her husband run for many years and then managed for the last five years after her husband's death. But no one is worried about her being at loose ends with nothing to do since she has always been extremely active in the community. She is probably best known for her involvement in the McKune Library, serving on the board for 36 years, and also for years of service to the Chelsea Woman's Club of which she is a charter member. These two activities are interconnected, since the Woman's Club, which was founded in 1931, founded the McKune Library in 1932. The building that houses the library, the McKune house, was owned by Katie's aunt, Katherine McKune. Fellow board member and cousin, Ann Belser, says Katie was active in all aspects of the Library Board, serving as president and secretary, but that one of her biggest contributions was working with Jean Eaton on setting up the Archives Room which is very much used.

Katie's sister-in-law, Katherine Staffan, describes Katie as "always interested in civic affairs." In addition to the library and Woman's Club, Katie works with Chelsea Social Services and is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and St. Paul United Church of Christ. Katie is a life-long resident of Chelsea, the granddaughter of the founder of Staffan Funeral Home (now Staffan-Mitchell). Her grandfather, Frank Staffan, was a building contractor who got into the funeral business because he made caskets. Katie attended the local Chelsea schools and Ypsilanti Normal College. Employment outside the home included working for Dr. Fisher and at the U-M Athletic Department. In 1937 she married Frederick Wagner. They had three children, Frederick W., John, and Stephanie "Sis" Kanten. Katie is an avid bridge player, playing twice a month with the same group that started when she was 15 years old. She also likes to travel, going to many places in the United States and Europe. Her next trip is planned for next spring when she will go with the Chelsea Senior Citizens to Alaska.

Marriage Notes for Clarence Aprill and Florence Nelson:

Ann Arbor, June 21, 1934 - Miss Fidelia Haughn, secretary and stenographer to Clarence J. Aprill,

Ann Arbor insurance man, is named as a love thief in a suit for $25,000 against her started by Mrs. Florence Aprill, school teacher and second wife of Aprill. The suit is on file in circuit court here. Mrs. Aprill also is suing Aprill for divorce and names him, Miss Haughn, Mrs. Paulena Aprill, his mother, and others in suits in which she alleges he has deeded his property away and made it impossible for her to obtain a financial settlement with her husband.

Allegations in Mrs. Aprill's suit against Miss Haughn are that Miss Haughn started attracting Aprill's attentions about Christmas, 1930, that in 1931 she moved in from her farm home near Milan, and has since been in Aprill's company frequently. She also has had full use of two cars Aprill purchased, is alleged to have had Aprill as a frequent visitor in her apartment, has had him with her at her farm home numerous week-ends, and that he has taken her to football games.

Miss Haughn has been employed by Aprill for five years and has enjoyed many more vacations than employees usually receive, the declaration states. Mrs. Aprill's suit for divorce names Miss Haughn as co-respondent. Aprill has filed a cross-bill charging that his wife is unduly jealous. The couple were married in November, 1929, about four years after Aprill's first wife, Gertrude, obtained a divorce. In other suits the defendants are charged with conspiring to defraud Mrs. Aprill of her dower rights, through the transfer by Aprill of a $5,000 piece of property here to his mother. The names of Jacob Aprill, brother of Clarence and his wife, Laura, appear as defendants in another similar suit.

Ann Arbor, July 17, 1934 - Clarence J. Aprill, Ann Arbor insurance man, kept his hair fingerwaved and bought hair nets to keep the waves in place nights, but he forced his wife to feed the ducks and chickens, spray the fruit trees, mow the lawn and put up the storm windows, Mrs. Florence Aprill testified Tuesday in her suit for divorce. Proofs were taken in open court without an appearance by Aprill. Only Mrs. Aprill and her sister, Miss Mabel Nelson, of 8551 Quincy Ave., Detroit, testified, and at the conclusion of the hearing Circuit Judge George W. Sample granted a decree on grounds of extreme cruelty.

The divorce decree and a property settlement brought to conclusion four other cases filed by Mrs. Aprill, one of them an alienation of affections suit in which Mrs. Aprill sought $25,000 from Miss Fidelia Haughn, Aprill's secretary and co-respondent in the divorce action. The other three were suits against Aprill and members of his family, seeking to set aside deeds to property which Aprill owned and which he said to have transferred to the ownership of his mother, the late Mrs. Paulina Aprill, and others. The settlement gives Mrs. Aprill $3,500 in cash and provides for payment of several bills incurred during the time the couple lived together. The settlement was declared satisfactory to Mrs. Aprill, but Mr. Aprill refused to comment. It was mentioned, as significant in connection with the settlement that Mr. Aprill received $500 in the recently filed will of his mother, and his brother Jacob and sister, Clara Koch, received the residue. The mother was co-defendant in the suits to have deeds set aside. Her death occurred shortly after filing of the suits.

The Aprills were married Nov. 16, 1929, and lived together until last August. Mrs. Aprill was given permission to resume her maiden name, Florence Nelson. Aprill also was divorced by his first wife, Louise Maulbetsch Aprill, in 1925. In that suit she charged that he gave her $3.75 weekly with which to run the house, and that on occasion he would bring home three pork chops, eat one of them while she was putting the dinner on the table, and divide the other two equally with her.

As superintendent of public works, he was responsible for all maintenance work within the village with the exception of the police and fire departments. His duties included upkeep of village streets, buildings, water and sewage systems, as well as, civil defense. He was civil defense director for 14 years.

"I just can't keep up with the work," says Sindlinger. "I don't believe I'm doing justice to the people of the village, to my family, and to my job when I have to work so many hours. Last week, for example, Sindlinger worked 61 hours. Tuesday, during the heavy snow, Sindlinger was beginning his 10th hour on the job clearing streets when he contacted The Leader office. "It's a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week job," says Sindlinger.

Sindlinger, who was born in Ann Arbor, has lived in Dexter for 31 years. He and his wife, Evelyn, have been married for 35 years and have four children and 16 grandchildren. Sindlinger is a member of the Loyal Order of the Moose, Ann Arbor, and Dexter Methodist church. He was a board member of the latter for two years.

Sindlinger's resignation takes effect Dec. 22. The Village Council held a special committee meeting Tuesday evening to discuss plans for hiring a new superintendent. According to village clerk Harry Peters, the resignation was "sudden and came as a big surprise." The committee will meet tonight to discuss procedures for filling the full-time post that presently carries an annual salary of approximately $10,000. Peters said the salary is subject to change and the post possibly will be combined with other duties when a replacement is hired.

Notes for Neil Oliver Staebler:

Nov. 1, 1959 - Neil Staebler, 59, Ann Arbor, now serving as congressman-at-large, a post to which he was elected in 1962 and his first elective office. He is president of Staebler & Son, a real estate development and building firm, and has been a businessman in Ann Arbor all of his adult life except for World War II service as an OPA price executive and Navy lieutenant in Washington, 1942-45. Staebler was co-founder and treasurer for 25 years of Staebler-Kempf Oil Company, disposing of his interest in that firm in 1951 to devote more time to politics. He also established Dixie Terminals Oil Company which operated in Detroit and Bay City from 1933 to 1948. Staebler & Son was founded by his grandfather and has remained a family firm, originally engaged in the coal business but converted to real estate development and home construction after World War II. Staebler became state finance director for the Democratic party in 1949 and was appointed Democratic state chairman in 1950. Thereafter he was unanimously re-elected state chairman for five successive two-year terms by Democratic state conventions. Shortly after his last term expired, In February, 1961, he was appointed Democratic national committeeman from Michigan, a post he held until this year. He was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from University of Michigan in 1926 and received an honorary doctor of laws degree from U-M in 1962. He is married and has a daughter and son.

Obituary in Ann Arbor News Sunday January 2001:

Died peacefully on December 8, 2000 in Ann Arbor. He had suffered from Alzheimer's disease for many years. Staebler was known as Michigan's "Mr. Democrat" in 1950s and 1960s and was known nationally as one of the leading organizers of the Democratic Party. Staebler was the descendant of early German settlers in the Ann Arbor area. His great-grandfather settled in Lodi Township in 1831 next to a Potawatomi Indian settlement. His grandfather moved into Ann Arbor in the 1880s and, with his seven children, built a flourishing business area centered around what is now the Earle. Staebler's father, Edward, owned the first two automobiles in Ann Arbor and was elected Mayor in 1928 and 1930. Staebler's mother, Magdalena, was Ann Arbor's first woman driver. Staebler attended Perry School and Ann Arbor High School. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1926.

Staebler entered his family's business and for many years ran the Staebler Kempf Oil Company with his partner Paul Kempf. Staebler ran a variety of other businesses including a coal company and during the 1950s and 1960s built 850 homes in Ann Arbor and Saline, helping pioneer concepts of open and affordable housing. During World War II Staebler worked for the U.S. Office of Price Administration, as chief of the Building Materials Branch, and then for the United States Navy where he served as a lieutenant.

In 1947 Staebler joined with a small group of liberals who sought to rejuvenate the Michigan Democratic Party. One of the group was G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams who was elected to six terms as Governor beginning in 1948. At Williams' urging, Staebler served as Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party from 1950-1961 and helped a liberal party organization which elected Democrats to every Michigan state-wide position by 1958 and carried out a variety of statewide reforms in civil rights, mental health and education. From 1955-1961 Staebler served as Chairman of the National Committee on Organization of the Democratic National Committee. Called "one of the most moral men in American politics" by Theodore White in "The Making of the President: 1960", Staebler was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives as an "at-large" representative from Michigan in 1962 when the legislature failed to re-apportion Michigan's Congressional districts following the 1960 Census, and ran unsuccessfully for Governor against George Romney in 1964. After serving for many years as a member of the Democratic National Committee, Staebler was nominated by President Gerald R. Ford in 1975 as an original member of the Federal Elections Commission where he served until 1979. Staebler was well known nationally for his increasing encouragement of citizen participation in the political process. He frequently said "the price of democracy is one hour a week, from everyone."

In 1966 Staebler founded Michigan's first successful venture capital company, Michigan Capital & Service, Inc. which financed a number of successful Ann Arbor companies. Staebler was the author of two books: "Out of the Smoke Filled Room: A History of the Michigan Democratic Party" and, with Douglas Ross, "How to Argue with a Conservative." Staebler served as a visiting professor of practical politics at the University of Massachusetts in 1962 and as a visiting fellow at the Kennedy School of Government in 1975. He received an honorary degree as Doctor of Laws from the University of Michigan in 1962. He was an active member of the Unitarian Church and a wide variety of civic organizations

Staebler is survived by his wife, Burnette Bradley Staebler of Ann Arbor, MI; a daughter, Elizabeth Brewer of Bellingham, MA; a son, Michael B. Staebler of Ann Arbor, MI; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild. A memorial service will be held 2:30 p.m. Sunday, January 28, 2001 at Rackham Auditorium, in Ann Arbor. In lieu of flowers,, contributions may be sent to Neil Staebler Political Education Fund at the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy of the University of Michigan (University of Michigan - - Staebler Fund).

Neil Oliver Staebler (July 11, 1905 December 8, 2000) was a politician from the U.S. state of Michigan. Staebler was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1922. He received a B.A. from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1926. He served on the staff of the Office of Price Administration, 1942-1943, and in the United States Navy, 1943-1945. He was chairman, of the Michigan state Democratic central committee, 1950-1961 and a member of the Democratic National Committee, 1961-1964 and 1965-1968. He was a visiting professor at the University of Massachusetts in 1962. He was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention from Michigan in 1952, 1956, 1960, 1964, and 1968.

Following the 1960 census, Michigan gained one additional seat in Congress due to reapportionment. However the state legislature did not create the new 19th district in time for the 1962 elections. Staebler was elected as an at-large candidate from the Democratic Party to represent Michigan in the 88th Congress, serving from January 3, 1963 to January 3, 1965. He was not a candidate for reelection in 1964, but instead unsuccessfully challenged incumbent Republican Governor of Michigan George W. Romney.

He was a member of the Federal Election Commission from April 1975 to October 1978. Staebler died in Ann Arbor from the effects of Alzheimer's disease.

Notes for Douglas Lee Hauser:

September 18, 1980 - Three varsity hockey candidates have been suspended by Head Coach Ross. The three suspended are Last year's scoring leader and offensive MVP Doug Hauser, Scott Baker and Gary Tudji. Hauser, Baker and Tudji were suspended one-week for cutting the distance they had to run in Monday's off-the-ice practice. Hauser also received a second week of no practice for allegedly-showing a lack of respect toward a member of the coaching staff," Ross said. Ross also said that he decided to go with the suspensions instead of some other form of disciplinary action because "it's a whole new ball game now that we're a varsity sport and we have to get a certain amount of respect from the players." The players are "expected to be ready for the season," Ross said, "and we can't have players putting themselves above the team." "By their actions they put themselves above the team," Ross said, "and no one is more important than the team." "This year's schedule includes some top Division I and II competition and we are looking for attitude as well as ability to know where we stand," Ross said.

Although Ross said he is aware of the ability of the three who were suspended these next two weeks of practice would "have told us (the coaches) where they were in terms of attitude. "Right now we have 35 guys shooting for 25 positions and those who follow the rules will excel," Ross said. Ross also stressed that the overall discipline policy of the coaches will be much tougher than when the sport was only a club attraction. "We are not going to let anything slide this year," Ross said. Hauser said he admitted to Ross that he was wrong. When Hauser tried to discuss the suspension with Ross Tuesday night. Ross told him he would be notified by mail. "I make mistakes off the ice," Hauser said. "All I want to do is play hockey, I can prove my leadership ability on the ice." Hauser also said he was not aware of the reason for the second week suspension, and he wasn't trying to put himself above the team by his actions. "I have gone out of my way to help the freshmen on the squad," Hauser said. "I have helped them with their schedules and getting oriented to college me."

Tudji, who spent half of last season with an injured knee, also admitted to making a mistake but feels the punishment "is quite harsh." The third member suspended. Scott Baker, was recruited for the Fall of 1979, but because of a broken leg did not start school until last January. "I just hope he (Ross) doesn't carry this over into the season," Baker said. All three players said they have been and will continue to work during their suspensions so they will be ready to return to practice. They also said that the suspensions will not affect their attitudes because all they want to do is "play hockey."

April 5, 2011 – Cleveland, Ohio -- I'll miss Padua hockey coach Doug Hauser. Hauser, who announced his retirement Saturday, was a cut-throat competitor who cared about kids with equal fervor. As a Padua player and coach for 31 of the past 36 years, he was the face, heart and soul of one of the area's most successful sports programs. During his 28 seasons as coach, Padua won three state finals (played in seven), three Baron Cups and 561 games. What many don't realize is his real job is sixth-grade teacher at Parma's Ridge-Brook Elementary School, and young coaches and teachers can learn from both Hauser's career arc and the reasons he hung up his whistle somewhat unexpectedly at 51.

Hauser is a part of a small fraternity of coaches who helped build Greater Cleveland high school hockey, including fellow 500-game winners Mike Bartley of Shaker Heights and Hauser's retired former rival at St. Edward, Bob Whidden. Hauser didn't like Whidden at first, and they engaged in some legendary gamesmanship and antics. The two hotheads jawed at each other during games while baiting the refs and screaming at their own players. It was Whidden who ultimately taught Hauser a valuable lesson. "Part of my young competitiveness changed a little bit when we won our first Baron Cup in '88 and we beat St. Eds, 5-4," Hauser said. "That was a great thing, and I remember thinking, 'I can go and shake Bob Whidden's hand now.'"

"He was so gracious as far as congratulating me and saying how good a job I did. That's when I started to realize that other coaches are just like me. They want to do what's best for their kids. It's not necessarily personal toward another coach." High energy was Hauser's style, from his days as an undersized Kent State forward to his relentlessness behind the bench. His teams rarely were out-skated.

Hauser always had high expectations, especially of himself. In the end, teaching sixth grade then scooting off to hockey practice in Strongsville took a toll. With the growing demands on teachers -- longer days, larger classes -- and the immense amount of time associated with running a premier hockey program, he realized something had to give. "I kinda felt my sixth graders weren't necessarily getting the best teacher they could get, and my high school kids weren't necessarily getting the best coach they could get. Where do you go with that?" he said. I asked University coach Bill Beard, a former Padua assistant, why Hauser was so successful. Beard answered in two words, "He cared." Coaches like that should be missed.

Notes for Raymond John Yost:

Uncle Leon Ralph Yost wrote the following before his death:

Ray John Yost - He was a quiet soft-spoken person, tall-over 6 feet, dark brown eyes and coal black curly hair. His sunny disposition prevailed most of the time; however, he had an incendiary temper that could flare when things went wrong. He had plenty of patience with the little ones. In fact, he was a nice guy to have around when you got an earache when you were 7 years old. He would load up his old pipe and light it, push the stem in your ear and blow gently on the bowl. The warm air and tobacco smoke would stop the ache real quick.

He called himself a miner, but he had plenty of know how in a lot of areas. He was one of the best at operating a thrashing machine separating wheat, oats, and beans from the straw. He was thoroughly qualified at operating a drill rig, cable tool walking beam type, drilling water wells or prospecting for ore. He drilled the well for the Baker School East of Ketchum, Oklahoma when I was 9. I helped fire the boiler, putting in wood and coal, watching the water level in the boiler and adding water when it got low. Some of the more up to date boilers had a high pressure pump to add water. The one we had had a steam injector, very temperamental but after he had taught me to operate the injector I became a wizard at it. When he and my older brother Cleve had given up getting it to take water and started running to let the boiler blow-up, I would jump upon the platform, spin the valves two or three times and flue would burn thru and blow off. The water escaping would usually put out the fire and we pulled the grates and Dad went in, to install a new flue, not waiting for it to cool. I always thought he would get burned really bad, but he never did.

I recall once coming home from town, the rear axle on the wagon broke. He sent me to the nearest house to borrow an axe. He cut a pole and put one end under the broken axle and tied the other end up to the front of the wagon box. I took the axe back and we went home on 3 wheels and a pole runner. He made a new axle.

I can recall the County Road Commissioner coming to get him to do some blasting with dynamite. He was really good with "powder", another time a neighbor had a mean stallion that he wanted shoes put on. The local blacksmith refused. Dad told the man he would shoe the horse. He took a rope and tied the foot to be shod to the horse's tail. The guy said, 'won't he kick his tail off?' Dad said, "I am worried more than that about him kicking mine off."

He was born 20 Aug 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 18 Jan 1984 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Doris Blaess Smith:

Doris Blaess (Smith) Buettner passed away on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, at her residence with her daughter at her side. Doris was born in Saline, Michigan on March 31, 1925 to Carl and Emma Smith. Doris graduated from Saline High School. Her parents preceded her in death as well as her brothers, Harold (in infancy) and John. She was raised in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran Church and was currently a member at Redeemer Evangelical Church in Ann Arbor.

Doris married Howard J. Buettner in 1946 and together they welcomed two daughters, Pamela and Trudy. Doris's greatest tragedies were the loss of her husband and daughter, Trudy.

Most of her life Doris was a homemaker whose clean house was always sparkling and the food was extremely delicious. She was also an avid vegetable gardener. Howard was employed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Doris joined with other wives in a group called the Fish Wives for years. Howard and Doris were founding members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Doris finally convinced Howard to travel and they made trips to Europe and Hawaii. After Howard's passing, Doris made it a point to continue her worldly travel by joining the Jackson Trippers and a Pittsfield Township senior group to see the world. Much appreciation goes to Lucinda and Karen Fleckenstein for working out the ability of their bridge group bunch to meet for many years: Francis Spelman, Barb Rolfe and Lucinda who was the self-appointed chauffeur as the women aged. Additional thanks to Doris's next-door neighbor on Agincourt, DJ Johnson, who took care of her home maintenance and looked out for her. And lastly, special thanks to the Brookhaven staff and the Arbor Hospice team who provided help and guided the family to the end.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 2021 at 3:30 pm before the funeral service at 4:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1360 Pauline Blvd, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Light refreshments will be served in the next door building prior to the service. Masks and social distancing will be observed. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, attendance limitations may apply as the church can have up to 50 people. Memorial contributions may be made in Doris's honor to Redeemer Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice. In sadness, Doris will not be able to see her beloved magnolia tree bloom this year nor will her daughter, Pamela continue to receive the daily call to double check that she is okay.

He was born 11 Oct 1964.

Notes for Barbara Ann Horning:

My name is Barbara (Horning) Shannon and we are distant cousins. My brother is David Horning and we both live in the Atlanta, Georgia, area (and both work at Emory University--David in the Hospital and myself in the College of Arts and Sciences--Biology Department), but we grew up in Ann Arbor. I have been using your information in the published volumes of our German ancestors, which is very interesting, as I am in the process of assembling my own ancestry books (which are turning into photo albums). I was stationed twice in Germany (I am retired U.S. Army, SSG/E-6) but did not have this information at that time, or I would have looked up our relatives! Thank you very much for all of your work in putting that together, as well as your history of the German settlers in the Ann Arbor area. Also very interesting.

My father, Norman Julius Horning, passed away at age 93 on October 24, 2016, after an unexpected medical condition (aortic aneurism, successful surgery, and then succumbed to CDIF and Sepsis infections). He is the son of Martha (Furthmueller) (Horning) Hoeft and Julius Horning, if you would like to update your information. David and I were in Ann Arbor in mid-July, as we had my father's burial (at Washtenog Memorial Park, next to my mother, Gena Irene (Inman) Horning) on July 14th, a graveside service for him on July 15th which included a 21-gun salute (he was a World War II Veteran and participated in the Battle of Normandy) by the Washtenaw County Honor Guard, and a celebration of life (in conjunction with our annual family reunion at Murray Lake in Ann Arbor) for my father, his sister Doris (Horning) (Stevenson) Bowling (who passed away in April of 2016), and Aunt Esther (Stevenson) Agner (not blood related to us but has always been part of the family and is Aunt Doris's first husband Lester's (Bud) twin sister and Doris's best friend). I also saw Edward Gebhardt (my cousin and GodFather; his wife Virginia passed away a few years ago) and Joan Gebhardt while in Ann Arbor (the wife of Fred Gebhardt who also passed away unexpectedly in the same 8 month time period, in addition to our cousin Nancy Lutz (can't think of her married name). Joan also has an ancestry book of her own, in addition to your published volumes, so your material is being put to good use, even though you did all of the hard work! Well, I just wanted to say hello and to connect with you via FaceBook. I hope you will accept my friend request. Sincerely, Barbara

Donna will always be remembered for her fun spirit, great sense of humor, joking personality and fantastic ability at story telling. In her prime years she was the fun lady to be around and even in her later years, in spite of her ongoing hospital visits and declining health, she was always the nice, fun and rowdy patient that hospital and care staff loved to be assigned to. Her humor, teasing and playful personality was contagious until the end. The family respectfully asks you honor Donna by remembering her when you see a crocheted item, watch her favorites NCIS or Law & Order, be with kids or grandchildren, enjoy the serenity of the north, stop a moment to give someone a hard time or love on your dog as those brought her the most comfort. Arrangements made by Generations Funeral Services.

Notes for Elayne Ada Launer:

Elayne Bloom went home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2018. She passed quietly at her home in Aledo, Texas with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter in attendance. She was born on April 28, 1924. She was beautiful outwardly and inwardly, gracious and loved people. She treasured visitors and always made them feel welcome. As a young woman in her teens, she loved to sing and was asked to join a travelling band to which her mother wisely said no. She was an executive secretary most of her working life, but developed an interest in real estate sales and changed careers. She had a passion for decorating and creating, so her later years saw her in the business of designing and selling gift baskets to those who wanted "one of a kind". It was a good description of her as well.

She was a loving wife, losing her husband to a crop-dusting accident in 1961. She was a loving mother who stayed ever devoted to her daughter and a doting grandmother to her granddaughter. Active in Calvary Chapel, Simi Valley, California before moving back to Texas in 2017, she shared the wisdom of her years with the ladies of the Bible studies and worked to setup and decorate for events until it was no longer possible for her. Elayne was predeceased by her four brothers and leaves behind her daughter Traci Miller, granddaughter Layne Miller, son-in law Rick Miller and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved staying in touch with.

Bless you, Mother, you will be missed beyond words. Memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Simi Valley, California on May 20th following Sunday service.

Dr. George Roger¹¹ Klare (Magdaline Elizabeth (Lena)¹⁰ Launer, Christina Friederike⁹ Wislicen, Karl Friedrich⁸, Elisabetha Friederike⁷ Lorenz, Friedrich Karl⁶, Friedrich Carl⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Hans Jerg², Johann¹) was born 17 Apr 1922 in Minneapolis, Hennepin Co, Minnesota, and died 03 Mar 2006 in The Plains, Athens Co, Ohio. He married Julia Marie Price 24 Dec 1946. She was born 05 Feb 1922.

Notes for Dr. George Roger Klare:

George R. Klare was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of George C. Klare, and Lea L. (Launer) Klare. He served as senior class president in North Bend High School in North Bend, Nebraska and graduated from that school in 1940. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where he studied before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942. He then took more college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following military and flight training, Klare served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England. On Dec. 31, 1944, he was shot down over Germany. He spent the rest of World War II in German POW camps. He was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably discharged as a First Lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

Klare later recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war in a chapter entitled "Questions" in Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment, published by Springer in 2004. In this extraordinary account, Klare tells how he narrowly escaped death three times on January 3, 1945. While on a railroad car en route to the Luftwaffe Interrogation Center, Klare survived a friendly-fire bombing in the rail yard in Fulda, Germany, the target on this third mission one week earlier. Klare and his crew were ordered by a German guard to remove packages from the Fulda freight station that was on fire from the Allied bombing. The guard then ordered the men out of the burning building just before it collapsed. A crowd of angry German civilians soon gathered near the collapsed freight station. The German guard, who was an English-speaking Luftwaffe captain, was armed only with a pistol. Yet he managed to hold off the mob and take Klare and his crew to a safe building. "I owe my life to him," Klare wrote. "He was the bravest man I ever saw."

After World War II, Klare earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947, and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After working for The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. It was during that period, he published, with Byron Buck, Know Your Reader: The Scientific Approach to Readability. This work introduced to the public the extensive research behind the popular readability formulas of the likes of Rudolf Flesch and Robert Gunning. The book showed the average reader in America was an "adult of limited reading ability," with half the population reading below the 9th-grade level. The readability formulas could be used to select and create literature and texts of different reading levels. Without appropriately graded texts, people will not read or improve their reading skill. His other books include Elementary Statistics (with P. A. Games), A Manual for Readable Writing, How to Write Readable English, and The Measurement of Readability. He also published 85 articles and book chapters.

Klare won a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He also won the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as The Literary Dictionary. He is listed in Who's Who in America and was listed in the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in the World. In 1978, he was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959 to 1963, as acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1965–66 and in 1984–85, and as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1971. He was also acting associate provost for graduate and research programs from 1986 until his retirement in 1987.

George R. Klare, 83, died Friday, March 3, 2006, at his home in The Plains, Ohio, from pneumonia. He was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of the late George C. Klare, and the late Lee L. (Launer) Klare. A 1940 graduate of North Bend, (Neb.) High School, he served as senior class president. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942, taking additional college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following basic military and flight training, he served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England until he was shot down on Dec. 31, 1944. He spent the remainder of World War II in German POW camps, and was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably separated as a first lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

After World War II, he earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947 and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After holding positions at The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. He was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology in 1978, retiring in 1987. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959-63, acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1965-66 and 1984-85, and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966-71. He also served as acting associate provost for graduate and research programs in 1986-87. He was author or co-author of five books, including "Know Your Reader," "The Measurement of Readability," "Elementary Statistics," "A Manual for Readable Writing" and "How to Write Readable English," the latter published in London in 1985. He also published 85 articles and book chapters, including "Assessing Readability," which was named a Citation Classic by the Institute for Scientific Information. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as "The Literary Dictionary."

He received numerous research grants and contracts, and served as a consultant to a number of education, industrial and military organizations. He also held a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He received the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He is listed in "Who's Who in America" and was listed in the Fourth Edition of "How's Who in the World."

He is survived by his wife, Julie M. Klare of The Plains; a daughter, Deborah Fox of Vero Beach, Florida; a son, Roger, and daughter-in-law, Connie Schmittauer, of Dublin, Ohio; and a daughter, Barbara, and son-in-law, Galen Fultz, of San Anselmo, California. He has a grandson, McCoy, and a granddaughter, Zoe, also of San Anselmo; a granddaughter, Sivan, of Portland, Oregon; and a step-sister, Dorothy Launer, of Fremont, Nebraska.

A memorial service will be held in April 2006, and contributions may be made to the Red Cross and Appalachian Community Hospice.

Census: 08 Apr 1950, 1757 Granville; Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California ED 66-862

Occupation: 1950, research electrical engineer aircraft manufacturing Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California

Notes for Carol H. Watt:

Resident of San Mateo - Carol Watt Parker, age 81, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 25, 2009, with her four daughters by her side. Born in New York City in 1927, she grew up in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, and attended Carnegie Tech, where she met and married her husband of 37 years, Norman F. Parker. They moved to southern California in 1949, where she attended UCLA to finish her degree in chemical engineering. From Whittier, the family moved to Michigan for 2 years, then to Woodside in 1968. Carol was always involved in community activities, from Girl Scouts, PTA and Children's Home Society when her children were young, to worldwide organizations involved in exploring and preserving nature later in her life. She loved the outdoors, traveling extensively to see places throughout the world. She hiked and camped with enthusiasm. Her adventures included sports car rallies, skiing, and whitewater rafting. Never idle, even indoors, she was an accomplished seamstress, knitter, and pottery maker. She enjoyed both bridge and Yahtzee. Her biggest love, though, was horses. She was active in most of the local equestrian groups, both as a rider and a volunteer. She was known in the San Mateo County Horseman's Association, the Los Altos Hunt, Los Viajeros Riding Club, the Woodside Town Trails Committee, the Woodside Trail Club, Jack Brook Horse Camp and the Folger Stable project, for her lively participation and her strong support. Carol took life in stride and rose above many obstacles along her way. Alzheimer's was her biggest challenge- she retained only fragments of herself as the disease progressed. Her cheerfulness and her polite behaviors, as well as her enjoyment of music and her great fondness for ice cream, were the last to go and will be long remembered by those who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters and their husbands- Leslie and Al Sasuga of Bishop, California, Kerry and Rick DeBenedetti of Woodside, Sandy and Henry Garbowski of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Noel and Art Ortiz of Twain Harte, California, and 6 grandchildren and their spouses- Miles and Beth (Obenour) DeBenedetti, Alan DeBenedetti, Torey (Sasuga) and Carson Beach, Cabe Sasuga, Liana Garbowski and Michael Garbowski.

The family would like to thank everyone at Canyon House in Menlo Park, for their years of kindness and care. No memorial service is planned; Carol may be remembered through contributions made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California.

5888. Arthur Raymond¹¹ Root, Jr. (Arthur Raymond¹⁰, Margaret Magdaline⁹ Lorenz, Johann Jakob⁸, Friedrich Karl⁷, Friedrich Karl⁶, Friedrich Carl⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Hans Jerg², Johann¹) was born 15 Sep 1931 in Middletown, Butler Co, Ohio, and died 01 Dec 2017 in Redding, Shasta Co, California. He married Joyce Marlene Auerbach 12 Aug 1952 in Butler Co, Ohio. She was born 09 Mar 1932 in Ohio.

Notes for Arthur Raymond Root, Jr.:

Arthur Raymond Root, Jr., age 86, died December 1, 2017 in Redding, California. He was born September 15, 1931, in Middletown, Ohio. An exposure to the greater Miami River Valley paper industries formed the basis for his life-long career in paper making. Graduating as a Chemical Engineer from the University of Cincinnati in 1954, he had already spent 5 years co-opting in various technical positions with local paper companies prior to filling his first position in paper research with the Champion Paper Company in Hamilton, Ohio. He subsequently moved into paper mill operations and was transferred to Shasta County, California, in 1964, as part of the start-up management team for Kimberly Clark's Shasta Pulp & Paper Mill in Anderson. He moved his family to nearby Redding, CA. Retiring from the now Simpson Paper Company's Shasta Mill in 1992, he completed his 42-year career in pulp and papermaking. He belonged to many paper-oriented organizations, but held his affiliation with Redding East Rotary and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity as his most prized. He greatly enjoyed playing golf with his four sons, woodworking, and adult Pinewood Derby Racing.

He is preceded in death by his parents Arthur R. Root, Sr. and Carolyn E. Eisenmenger, and a son David. He is survived by his loving wife of 65 years Joyce Auerbach, sons Michael and Steven of Oklahoma, Christopher of New Mexico, John of Nevada, 8 grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren. He loved his family and will be greatly missed. Burial at Woodside Cemetery, Middletown, Ohio.

Notes for Steven Arthur Root, twin:

Steven A. Root is Chief Analytics Officer, and Senior VP of Strategic Initiatives, of AccuWeather, Inc., the fastest growing private weather consulting company in the world. He resides in Edmond, Oklahoma. For more than 40-years, Steven Root, applying leadership and vision, has pioneered numerous applications of meteorology that have enhanced awareness, application, and demand for all types of weather information by both business and general consumers.

Following his primary passion, Steve has always sought to clarify meteorology for end-users, resulting in benefits for business, government and the public. His clarifications in turn resulted in greater demand for solutions through the application of meteorology, and there have been many noteworthy accomplishments; here are a few: During the mid-1970's, advances in computerization and miniaturization gave way to many new consumer devices, such as the hand-held calculator. As a graduate student during this time, Steve pioneered the idea that the same technology could be levered to generate site-specific, real-time personal weather forecasts. His research into weather patterns and identifying accurate analogs yielded a viable weather forecasting technique. However, the electronic blueprint for the device to display the weather information did not exist. Without any previous training, he worked with engineers to design and build such a device, resulting in an operational prototype. In 1980, the United States Patent and Trademark Office granted Steve a patent on this device, but, more impressively, because they considered the device and concept so unique, they created an entirely new patent class to accommodate it. During the following three years, Root met with consumer electronics fabricators, including Radio Shack, Texas Instruments and others, to build this device. Not surprising to those in this business, market studies revealed a consumer acceptance level of more than sixty percent, a metric unheard of at that time. It was only after fabricating teams at these companies failed to achieve their desired retail price levels that product development ceased. Of course, with costs continuing to decline as technology advanced, many companies today offer hand-held or small general consumer items that display local observed and forecasted weather trends.

Undeterred in the value of his efforts, Steve modified his technology from hand-held displays to colored computer images for on-air weather broadcasts. Only those of us over the age of fifty-five remember that television weathercasts then were limited to magnetic "Mr. Sun" and "Mr. Cloud" stickers and grease pens on glass panels. The first computer-generated color weathercasts had few colors, low resolution and, because of limited and expensive memory, did not animate images. In contrast, Steve presented a system that monitored local weather conditions in real-time, applied custom forecasting equations and rendered a specific forecast overlaid across a base graphic of the local metro. This capability was unheard of at the time. While others were focusing on computer hardware and software, Steve focused on the underlying base or core weather. Only during recent years have broadcast systems shifted focus onto more robust databases, longer lead-times in severe weather alerting, and better forecasting. Coincidentally, it was during the mid and late eighties at a television station in Salt Lake City that he was able to provide on-air television weathercasts using the same device that he designed, built and sold to major markets across the USA.

Around this same time, the personal computer was just beginning to gain acceptance, causing a dramatic change in the consumer's information landscape. A simple link between a PC and a modem allowed "info junkies" to download all kinds of data whenever they chose. This was especially true for weather information. Always a forward thinker, Steve adjusted his TV system software to produce a low-cost program to fuel the needs of the ever-increasing number of weather enthusiasts. Soon thereafter, a product review in a major PC magazine read: "Fire Your Local TV Weatherman!"... the revolution had started. These days it's not surprising that internet weather websites and The Weather Channel do so well!

Lessons learned from his early exposure in the broadcasting and consumer marketplaces led Steve to pursue servicing utility clients with long-range forecasts. To test his theories on using historical analogs, he required large quantities of historical data from many locations across North America. As with his earlier successes, Steve believed solutions to this complex problem might be found within the database itself. Little did he know then but soon came to realize, the raw data itself contained flaws. Weather monitoring programs then did not contain the many quality-screening attributes that networks do today. Lower quality sensors and telecommunication systems, considered adequate at the time created problems within the stored data. Steve also engaged other end-users who reported similar problems. However, these users were not meteorologists, so they were unfamiliar with weather data, its collection methods, formats and data types, etc., and they reported skewed program results after misinterpreting and incorrectly editing the raw data. Steve eventually realized that a QA/QC post-processing system was necessary, and that he and others could benefit from such a system.

Using his design, WeatherBank elected to build such a system. Today, with more than 60 man-years of support and enhancement behind it, WeatherBank has an automated procedure for ingesting, testing, correcting and archiving all publicly available weather data for North America. Containing more than 300 observed and predicted metrics this value-added database has served nearly every energy utility, transportation and retail concern in North America. To service additional demand, a forecast engine was applied to the historical data, rendering a seamless output of past, current and future weather. Countless success stories from end-users after having regressed point-of-sales, energy consumption, fuel usage or other internal, proprietary data against this database prove its benefits. End-users can mine their own solutions to their weather-related problems by extracting the solutions from inside their own data.

As other technologic platforms have emerged, including GPS systems, wireless and high-speed communications, Steve has kept pace, designing new state-of-the-art weather advisory systems that take advantage of geo-spatial location. Location-based and location-aware, an array of services constantly send individualized data and content, updating mobile communications devices, based upon the exact location of the device itself. Weather varies from mile to mile, minute to minute, and publicly available regional forecasts are too general over too large an area to be useful. "Location-based" weather services offer specificity, detail and timeliness unavailable by any other means. These products are, in effect, real-time micro-forecasts, reports targeted to the unique needs of each end-user. Matching high-value content and information with real-time location creates the potential for a vast range of consumer and business services that will force dramatic changes in the way we all live and work. While WeatherBank may not necessarily be the originating source for this micro-weather content, Steve realized that others within the enterprise could be, creating broad new opportunities for the entire industry. These systems have also been patented, with more than twenty-five USA and foreign patents granted and more than forty patents pending.

Mr. Root has earned a BS (1976) and MS (1980) degrees in meteorology from the University of Utah, and is a Certified Consulting Meteorologist, a professional designation from the American Meteorological Society (AMS). In January 2010, the AMS recognized Steve's achievements by awarding him their Award for the Outstanding Contribution to the Advance of Applied Meteorology, and in 2012, elected Steve AMS Fellow status.

Feb. 14, 1999 Jackson, Mississippi - Who: Karen Laubengayer of Ridgeland, plays classical piano and flute.

She has been an associate professor of music at Jackson State University for 14 years and occasionally plays with the Mississippi Symphony. She started when her parents merely supported her musical endeavor would be an understatement. "Music meant a lot to my parents," she says. "They were both musicians, though they never really had that much money to dedicate to their talent during the years of their youth. They wanted to see to it that my brother and I, however, had everything we needed to get started." The St. Louis native found her elementary years at heavily geared toward music at the St. Louis Conservatory of Music Preparatory School. "After that, I enjoyed home tuition, which also included a heavy background in music." She later received her undergraduate degree at Stevens College in Columbia, Missouri, and her master's and doctorate in music at Washington Laubengayer University.

Laubengayer was accompanying a friend who was performing a recital on a visit to Jackson. "While I was here, I discovered that JSU was hiring and practically had a position dropped into my lap. So in fall of 1984, I began my career at JSU." "As one of my bigger influences, I have to make mention of my home tutor back in St. Louis: Miss Jane Allen. "I found her wonderfully inspiring and informative, and I find that as my years of teaching go by, I have adopted many of her methods, and I see that many of the things she said to me I am repeating to my very own students, and it's so strange to me. I'll always be thankful to her."

Notes for Oscar Waldemar Haab:

Oscar W. Haab, 89, an Ann Arbor business leader who founded Haab's Restaurant with his brother, died Wednesday Nov. 29, 1995 in his home after a long illness. Mr. Haab founded the restaurant with his brother, Otto, in 1934. He also was an investor and founding member of the Huron Valley Bank, serving as bank chairman from 1963 to 1975. He was known for generous support of local charities. Survivors include his wife, Keturah.

Visitation will take place at Muehlig Chapel, 403 S. 4th Ave., Ann Arbor. Haab's funeral will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 420 W. Liberty, Ann Arbor. Burial will follow in Washtenong Memorial Park in Ann Arbor.

Oscar Haab

- 1934 Oscar Haab started Haab's restaurant at 14-18 W. Michigan Avenue. with Otto Haab.
- owned the entire west side of the street of homes and vacant lots along the 100blk of N. Huron and managed them as rentals until the 80s, 90s.
- One Founder of Huron Valley National Bank (now Comerica)
- Benefactor to Concordia University in Ann Arbor – Haab School of Business in the 90s and his trust gave $1.9million to Concordia in 2003

By the 1870s, James Fulton (1827-1908) had established a saloon on the current site of Haab's Restaurant. It provided fellowship—mainly to gentlemen. A dividing-wall separated the men's bar from the women's, and a portion of that wall still exists at the end of our bar.

Just as today, ownership in eating/drinking establishments changed fairly frequently. When Adam Shaner purchased the saloon from Fulton in 1894, he added tobacco to the offerings of a traditional saloon. He acquired the best tobacco leaves, and they were wrapped into cigars on the second floor. Apparently, this was Shaner's "hook" and attracted enough customers that he was able to maintain ownership till 1905.

When Charles A. Smith purchased the business from Shaner in 1905, he renamed the saloon "Smitty's Saloon and Riverside Club." He completely remodeled the space, installing a tin ceiling and a modern bar manufactured by Brunswick-Balke-Collender of Grand Rapids. Both the tin ceiling and bar remain today. Smitty held onto this successful business until his death.

Then came Prohibition (1920-1933), shuttering Smitty's and other establishments serving "spirits." Soon after its repeal, though, brothers Oscar and Otto Haab had the foresight to open a saloon that reversed the traditional focus of a saloon. The Haab Brothers' Café was the first establishment in Washtenaw County where food was the primary draw for the customer. Beer and wine complemented the meal.

In the 1940s and 50s, automotive travel on the main Detroit-to-Chicago route exploded, bringing travelers directly past the café's front door. Travelers and local residents alike discovered Haab's, "where it's fun to eat." The brothers prided themselves on providing large portions of good food. As a result, their customer base continued to increase.

To accommodate more diners, the brothers expanded in 1963, adding two additional storefronts to the original saloon space. Together, these three spaces make up Haab's Restaurant today. The rooms were decorated in an antebellum motif, with heirlooms from the original Haab Family homestead in Lodi Township scattered throughout. The hand-hewn beams, although they provide no support, were added to enhance the early-American atmosphere. We're careful to preserve that traditional atmosphere today.

Haab's Restaurant is located in downtown Ypsilanti, Michigan, at 18 West Michigan Avenue. The restaurant has a bar area with an 30-foot-long (9.1 m) African mahogany bar and overhead ceiling fans, and two dining rooms. The decor is 19th-century with a pressed tin ceiling and features Tiffany lamps and heirlooms from the Haab family. It has seating for 130. The menu entrées are mainly steaks, chops, fried chicken and seafood, with the London broil being the most popular menu item. The front entrance displays an article in Monthly Detroit about Detroit area steakhouses in which the author names Haab's as his favorite

Haab's was opened in 1934 by Otto and Oscar Haab on a site which had been used for a restaurant and bar since the 1870s, on U.S. Highway 12, the main road between Detroit and Chicago. The restaurant was purchased in 1976 by Mike Kabat and Harvey Glaze. Glaze sold his interest in the restaurant in 1991 and it is now owned by Mike Kabat and his son David. Up until 2011, on the third Monday in October, Haab's celebrated the anniversary of the opening of the restaurant by featuring three items from the 1934 menu, which are still served today, at their 1934 prices such as chicken in a basket

(50 cents), spaghetti (40 cents) and a barbecue sandwich (20 cents). The "chicken in a basket" menu item was formerly licensed from the now defunct Chicken in the Rough franchise. In January 2014, Haab's announced that the anniversary celebration would resume with a new format: a 34% discount off regular checks.

On July 14, 2013, Haab's was named the winner of the "June Road Trip" contest on the QVC program In the Kitchen with David. The restaurant was subsequently visited by the show's host David Venable and producer Mary DeAngeli. On July 28, it was announced that the show would do a remote broadcast from Ypsilanti on August 25.
