Marriage Notes for Robert Satterlee and Marielouise Hillman:

Miss Marylouise Hillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herbert Hillman, Upper Broadway, was married at 11 a.m. Saturday June 20, 1959 in St. Joseph's Church to Robert John Satterlee, son of Mr. Norma Satterlee, 159 North Edwards Ave., Syracuse, and the late William Satterlee. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Fox, pastor, performed the ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial Mass which was concluded with the Papal blessing. "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Your Feet Is Kneeling," were sung by Mrs. Lola Vaughn. Peter Haley was organist. White snapdragons, light pink roses and babies breath decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk peau-de-soie, designed with Alencon lace bodice enhanced with ed pearls, a bell-shaped skirt with wateau back, terminating in a chapel train. The crown was made in matching lace with a cascade of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Bernard Sims, Syracuse, twin sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, wearing a pale blue pure silk shirtmaker dress with three-quarter length sleeves and bouffant skirt. The bodice was embroidered with tiny pink rosebuds. Her headpiece was a whimsey of pale blue pink rosebuds and she carried a cascade of deep pink sweetheart roses and ivy. Miss Kathryn Ann Hillman, wearing a dress identical to that of the matron of honor and carrying the same flowers, was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeannine Cahill and Mrs. Mitchell Lee Potvin, both of Hudson Falls, and Mrs. Joseph Ryan of Chester, Pennsylvania. The last two were college classmates of the bride. They wore identical dresses to those of the two honor attendants but carried light pink sweetheart roses. Bernard Sims, Syracuse, was best man. Frank Reith, William Gottstein and Robert Ryan, all of Syracuse, and John Bartfonte of New York City were ushers. Mrs. Hillman chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of Dior blue lace with bolero jacket and pale pink accessories. She wore a corsage of light pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy-blue chiffon dress with imported Alencon lace bodice fashioned with a scalloped V-neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her corsage was light pink roses.

The reception was held at the Fort William Henry Hotel, Lake George, immediately following the ceremony. When leaving for a wedding trip to Nantucket the bride wore a toast-colored raw silk sheath dress with a bolero jacket, light green and beige accessories, a beige hat and a corsage of cymbidiums. The couple will be at home at 168 Tyson Place, Syracuse after July 2. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy, Glens Falls, and the College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, New Jersey. She was formerly employed as a case worker for the Washington County Child Welfare Department. Mr. Satterlee, a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse, Le Mayne College and Cornell Law School, is employed as chief accountant for Syracuse University. He is a member of the New York Bar Assoc. and served two years in the Navy. The bride presented her attendants with cultured pearl earrings. The bridegroom gave wallets to the best man and ushers.

Guests at the wedding were from Syracuse. Utica, Chester, Pennsylvania, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, Providence, Rhode Island, Flushing, Long Island, Albany, Granville, Liverpool and New York.
