Notes for Friedrich Carl (Fritz) Horning:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frederick C. Horning, deceased, was the first German child brought into Washtenaw County, and reared to manhood here he eventually became actively interested in farming pursuits and at the time of his death was a prosperous agriculturist of the locality in which he had so long resided. He was born in Germany, September 21, 1829, his parents being Charles Frederick and Catherine Horning, both of whom were natives of the fatherland, whence they came to America in 1830. They did not tarry on the Atlantic coast but made their way at once into the interior of the country and took up their abode in Freedom Township, this county, being among the pioneer settlers here. The father purchased land from the government and cleared a small farm, while eventually he became the owner of a large and valuable tract of land in the same township, carrying on agricultural interests up to the time of his death. Both he and his wife died in that locality and their loss was deeply, deplored by many friends for they had become recognized as worthy citizens of their community, Mr. Horning being held in high esteem because of his business success and his many excellent personal traits of character.

Frederick C. Horning of this review was reared amid the wild scenes of frontier life and the environments common on the frontier. He acquired his education in the public schools of Freedom Township and studied both English and German. When not occupied with the duties of the schoolroom he aided his father in the labors of the home farm and subsequently he purchased a threshing machine, which he operated in various parts of the county, doing all kinds of threshing. For ten years he followed that business and then with the profits he had acquired he purchased a tract of land in Pittsfield Township and began farming on his own account.

While living in Freedom Township Mr. Horning was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Cook, a native of that locality, born October 3, 1839. She was the first white child born in -this county, her parents being John George and Catherine Cook, who were natives of Germany, the former born on the 4th of July, 1813, and the latter on the 2nd, of February, 1816. They emigrated to America in 1831 and landed in New York city, whence they made their way to Buffalo and on to Cleveland. As the father's supply of money gave out at that point he had to leave his family there while he came on by wagon to Washtenaw County, arriving here on the 19th of April, 1831. He then borrowed the money to send for his family and he took up his abode upon a small farm of forty acres. It was covered with timber but he at once began to clear away the trees and brush and in due time the land was ready for cultivation. He purchased a yoke of oxen and built a log house. At one, end of the room was an immense fireplace with a spacious chimney and over this fire the cooking was done. His wife would walk to market at Ann Arbor, a distance of seventeen miles, in order to dispose of butter and eggs and other farm products and buy the necessary supplies for the family. Hardships and privations were born in those early days but eventually prosperity crowned the efforts of the family, who in the course of years purchased another farm of one hundred and sixty acres in Freedom Township. A few years later Mr. Cook removed to Lodi Township, where he owned several farms, his landed possessions aggregating over four hundred acres. Here he lived for seven years and then removed to Pittsfield Township, where he purchased a large farm, making his home thereon for six years. On the expiration of that period he took up his abode in Ann Arbor, where he lived retired until his death, enjoying a rest which he had truly earned and richly deserved. He was a man of marked industry and enterprise in his business affairs and his prosperity resulted entirely from his own well directed efforts for he came to America empty-handed but eventually became one of the substantial residents of Washtenaw County. He passed away August 7, 1902, at the very advanced age of eighty-nine years, while his wife died in November, 1900, at the age of eighty-four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Horning became the parents of six children: Martha, now the wife of Julius Bliss, of Lodi Township; Samuel, who married Anna Heinzelman and lives on the old Cook farm in Pittsfield township, that he purchased from his mother; Lydia, the wife of Alfred Sites, of Lodi Township; Emma, the wife of E. T. Alber, who is living at St. James Hotel in Ann Arbor; Mary, the deceased wife of Charles Bliss; and Nathan, who married Katie Roth and also lives in Ann Arbor, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Alber, conduct the St. James Hotel. Following his marriage Mr. Horning continued to carry on general farming in Pittsfield Township and was thus closely associated with agricultural interests up to the time of his death, which occurred on the 17th of December, 1884. In all his work he was practical, realizing how to use his advantages in the best possible way and so improving his opportunities that he gradually advanced on the high road to prosperity and at his death left an excellent property. In politics he was a democrat, while Mr. Cook was a republican in his political affiliation. Both were gentlemen of genuine personal worth and no history would be complete without mention of them because of their close identification with pioneer life and the agricultural progress of the county. Mrs. Horning is a member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Ann Arbor. Following her husband's death she sold the farm to her son and removed to this city, where she has since lived, owning a nice brick residence at No. 525 South First Street. She has a nephew residing with her, William Horning, a painter by trade, who is now twenty-seven years of age. She has in her possession a very interesting family relic, a record of the Cook family and also of Washtenaw county prepared by her father when he first came to this county in 1831. It is a document of considerable historic value. Few people are so closely connected with two prominent families as Mrs. Horning, who was the first white child born in this county, while her husband was the first German child brought to the county. In her memory are many pictures of frontier scenes and pioneer experiences and she can relate many interesting reminiscences of the early days when the work of improvement and progress seemed scarcely begun here, when the land was untilled, the forests uncut and the rivers unbridged. Great changes have occurred and in the agricultural progress of this part of the state the Horning and Cook families have taken a most active and helpful part.

Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. His entire life has been passed in the county of his nativity and his deep interest in its welfare is manifest in the public spirited support which he gives to various measures for the general good. He is recognized as a man of good business qualifications, of keen foresight and unfaltering enterprise and his success is the merited reward of his persistent labor.

Notes for Johann Karl (Koch) Cook:

Dr. C. P. Lathrop, Barry County coroner, said Friday night May 13, 1938 that he found a heart attack the cause of death of Charles J. Cook, 64, Orangeville Township farmer, who died Friday afternoon, a few minutes after being found, badly burned, where he had been burning grass. Mr. Cook was discovered lying in the burned area by Frank Maskin, a neighbor. Mr. Maskin said the Injured man was alive when he found him but that he died a few minutes later. His clothing was burned from his body. He was dead when the Delton fire department arrived to extinguish the grass fire which had spread and attracted the attention of neighbors. Coroner Lathrop and Sheriff Jay Blakney, after investigating, said that Mr. Cook evidently had started the fire in some brush and then had suffered a heart attack and fallen into the path of the flames.

Mr. Cook was born in Pittsfield, Washtenaw County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Cook, and came to Orangeville Township at the age of 18 months. At the time of his death his home was at Burnip Corners. He never married.

Notes for Robert Samuel Horning:

Robert Samuel Horning of Largo, Florida Born March 16, 1926 in Ann Arbor to Samuel and Anna Barbara (Hanselmann) Horning, Robert Samuel Horning died June 13, 2019 in Largo, Florida (near Clearwater) at age 93 after receiving injuries during a recent fall. Bob attended Ann Arbor High School; he then served as a rifleman in the Army during World War II, in the 70th Infantry Division, earning two bronze battle stars in European Theater Operations, and was a prison guard in Western Germany. Upon discharge, he worked as a clerk at the U.S. Postal Service for thirty-three years. He loved life, including hiking, traveling, photography, playing cards, collecting coins and stamps. But he would drop those any time for a conversation with friends and acquaintances. He was always reading, could remember tons of trivia, and probably would have done well on Jeopardy. Later in life he became more interested in God and drew closer to him.

Bob's nearest relatives were his nephews and their wives: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy). His brother, Walter, died in 2007.

A committal service will be at Bethlehem Cemetery on Jackson Rd. in Ann Arbor at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2019.

Notes for Christian Albert Trinkle:

Funeral services for Albert Trinkle, Scio township supervisor killed yesterday Jan. 22, 1954 when his car collided with a train, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday from the Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. Walter S. Press will officiate. Members of the Board of Supervisors will serve as honorary pall-bearers. Burial will be in Bethlehem Cemetery. Friends may call at the Muehlig Chapel until 11 a.m. Monday, and the body will lie in state at the church from noon until the hour of the services.

Mr. Trinkle, who lived at 4401 Park Rd., was killed about 1:20 p.m. yesterday when he drove into the path of a southbound freight train at the W. William St. crossing of the Ann Arbor Railroad. The car was impaled on the tow-joint of the Diesel engine and carried some 110 feet, then crushed against some freight cars standing on a parallel track. Engineer of the train was Elmer Martineau of Owosso, but the engine was being handled by a 27-year-old apprentice engineer and fireman, Donald Duvall, also of Owosso. Both men were questioned by police and released.

Mr. Trinkle served as Scio Township Road Commissioner before he became a member of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors in 1928. He served as board chairman in 1937. He was a member of the Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed Church and served on the board of the Bethlehem Cemetery. He belonged to the Washtenaw Masonic Lodge 65 (Dexter), the Eastern Star of Dexter and the Zal Gaz Grotto.

Surviving are his wife, Emma; one daughter, Mrs. Norman E. Haeussler, one granddaughter, all of the Park Road address; a brother, Gottfred of Freedom township; three sisters, Miss Lydia Trinkle, Mrs. Otto Stierle and Miss Matilda Trinkle, all of Ann Arbor.

Albert Trinkle, 74, Scio Township supervisor for 26 years, was killed Friday January 22, 1954 in an unusual accident involving his car and an Ann Arbor Railroad freight train at the W. William St crossing in Ann Arbor. The accident occurred about 1:20 p.m. A police officer, Patrolman Arthur Meggison, headed west on W. William St., had stopped at the crossing preparatory to making a U turn to mark some parked cars when he saw Trinkle's car coming west down the steep hill from S. Main St. As Trinkle passed the officer and started across the tracks against the signals, a freight train, traveling about 10 miles an hour, moved into the intersection, hitting the car broadside, Meggison said. Trinkle's car, impaled on the tow-joint at the front of the diesel engine, was carried some 110 feet along the tracks, then crushed between the engine and some freight cars standing on a siding. Trinkle was killed instantly. The crash sent one set of the engine's wheels off the track and crewmen worked more than 1-1/2 hours to get the engine on the tracks and back away from the wreckage. Firemen stood by in the event sparks from the metal set fire to spilled gasoline.

Engineer of the train was Elmer Martineau of Owosso, but the engine was being handled by a 27-year-old apprentice engineer and fireman, Donald Duvall, also of Owosso, at the time of the crash. Both men were questioned by city police and released. Mr. Trinkle was born on Aug. 11, 1879, in Freedom Township, a son of Christian and Anna Mary Trinkle. He was married to Emma Buss in Scio Township on March 19, 1904. Mr. Trinkle served as Scio Township Road Commissioner before he became a county supervisor in 1928. He served as chairman of the Board of Supervisors in 1937 and had been a member since. He belonged to the Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed Church and was a member of the Bethlehem Cemetery Board. He also was a member of the Washtenaw Masonic Lodge No. 65 (Dexter), the Eastern Star of Dexter and the ZalGaz Grotto.

Surviving are his wife, Emma, a daughter, Mrs. Norman E. Haeussler and a granddaughter, all of 4401 Park Rd.; a brother Gottfred of Freedom Township; and three sisters, Miss Lydia Trinkle, Mrs. Otto Stierle and Miss Batilda Trinkle, all of Ann Arbor. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed Church with the Rev. Walter S. Press officiating. Members of the Board of Supervisors served as honorary pallbearers. Burial took place in Bethlehem Cemetery.

Notes for Walter Frederick Horning:

Horning, Walter F. Died peacefully January 7, at age 96. Born August 15, 1910 on a farm on Ellsworth Rd., Walter (Pork) moved to town as a boy with his German immigrant parents, Samuel and Anna. He learned English in kindergarten and at the YMCA, his second home. He graduated from Ann Arbor High and the U of M, then worked his entire career at King-Seeley/Chrysler. In 1940, Walter married Ruth Mitchell, which, as he liked to tell everyone, was the smartest thing he ever did. She lives on.

The couple has four children: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy); 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Walter's younger brother, Bob, lives in Florida. Athletics were a big part of Pork's life. He played fast pitch softball locally, and twice earned All-America honors in volleyball for men over 35. He was the PA announcer for Pioneer High football games for many years, and worked for the UM athletic department for 58 years, selling and taking tickets for just about every sport, until age 93.

He was an active, life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church. Walter was a great man, loved life, and was a wonderful model for those of us who were fortunate to live with him so many years. Visitation will be at Muehlig's Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 10, 3-7 p.m., and from 12-1 p.m. on Thursday at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty St. in Ann Arbor, immediately preceding the funeral at Zion. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Arbor Hospice or Lutheran Social Services of Michigan.

Notes for Ruth Alice Mitchell:

Ruth A. Horning died July 29, 2012. She was born in Detroit on September 5, 1917, and moved with her parents, Thomas and Mary (Brewster) Mitchell, to East Ann Arbor at the age of two. She was in 4H, the National Honor Society in High School, and attended Cleary College. Ruth worked for Detroit Edison for three years before marrying Walter Horning in 1940. He was a coach for the Pfeiffer fast-pitch softball team on which she played second base, and was state champions in 1942.

Ruth leaves behind four sons, Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy), and a brother, Dwigh Mitchell. Her husband died in 2007, and her older siblings, Bill, Betty, and Tom, have also died. Walter and Ruth have ten grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She was active at Zion Lutheran Church, taught Sunday School and Bible class, loved gardening, reading, sports, travel, and, most of all, her family. And her family loved her. Better mothers or grandmothers don't exist. She was quietly happy, stable, consistent, hard-working, and witty to the end. Add another hundred positive adjectives and they would all fit. Now add another descriptive - missed.

Visitation will be Thursday, August 2 from 5-9 pm and Friday from 10-11 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church. The memorial service will be Friday 11am at Zion, 1501 W. Liberty St. Ann Arbor, In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to be given to Zion Lutheran Church or Arbor Hospice.

She married William Robert Yek 02 Dec 1932 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Gustav Yek and Wilhelmina Schmidt. He was born 23 Dec 1908 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Jan 1967 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Esther Dena Horning:

Esther D. (Horning) Yek, age 98, died peacefully on January 23, 2008 surrounded by her loving family and beloved cat Dasher, after a very long and rich life. Esther was born on August 9, 1909 to William and Dean (Frey) Horning in Ann Arbor. She married William R. Yek on December 2, 1932; he preceded her in death on January 14, 1967. Esther was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church and lived in Ann Arbor until moving to Connecticut three years ago to live with her daughter and son-in-law. She is survived by her son, William T. (Judy) Yek of Ann Arbor, daughter Deanne (Richard) Mincer of Ridgefield, Connecticut, granddaughter, Tiffany (Robert) Rounds, three great grandchildren: Camrie, Chloe, and Colton of San Diego, California and a sister, Luetta Werner of Ann Arbor. Esther also touched the lives and is survived by her step grandson, Scott Mincer, and his son, Michael of Las Vegas, Nevada and a granddaughter, Elizabeth McDermott of Honolulu, Hawaii.

The family would also like to acknowledge and thank Mia Fahey, who helped care for Esther so lovingly the last couple of years. Esther's life and the times in which she lived are now long-ago history to most of us. The year Esther was born, Ann Arbor was a small town with 15,000 residents and approximately 40 automobiles; women would not have the right to vote for almost ten more years. Her family's home was on First Street and had a hitching post in front and a barn in the back (the hitching post remains today). Esther's mother died when she was a teenager, so as a very young woman, she became a homemaker for her father and younger sister. Esther enthusiastically embraced her mother's talents, learning to sew and embroider little samplers, which are still in the family; cooking and baking and carefully writing out the recipes. Her sewing ability allowed her to pursue this interest in her first job as a seamstress for a downtown men's tailor shop. Her attention to detail produced exceptional clothing for customers and family. After the birth of her first child she stayed home to be a wife and mother. Esther's life took a dramatic change when her beloved husband of 35-years passed away unexpectedly; she then learned to drive and started a new job at the University of Michigan. Also at this time, Esther had the opportunity to travel with her daughter and son-in-law, accompanying them on many trips within the US and Europe.

Once she saw the world outside of Ann Arbor, she never lost her desire to see and experience more, traveling well into her 80's. Every Christmas, family and friends would enjoy Esther's homemade cookies which always included her beautifully decorated cut-out cookies. Several years ago, she wrote the recipes down in books and gave them to members of the family as Christmas gifts. These books will be cherished always, but the cookies made will never replicate her exquisite little confections. Esther experienced much in her life which came close to spanning a century. She was a sweet gentle soul who will be missed greatly by her family. Rest peacefully, Mom. Visitation will be from 4-6 p.m. Monday January 28 at Muehlig Funeral Chapel. The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church Chapel (South Entrance), 1501 West Liberty, Pastor Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Bethlehem Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in her memory may be made to Zion Lutheran Church or the American Heart Association.

Notes for Deanne Kay Yek:

Deanne Mincer's teachings are grounded in the steadfast belief that each of us is the Light of Eternal Life and Love and that we can come to know the Truth while in this lifetime. In concert with her beliefs, she has authored The 52: Discovering the True You in 52 Simple Lessons - Inspired by the Profound Truths of A Course in Miracles, Classic Yoga Texts, and the Mystical Poetry of Rumi and has created "Divine Love: A Unique Yoga Nidra Experience," in collaboration with Sacred Acoustics. This groundbreaking recording brings together for the first time, the powerful meditative guidance of Yoga Nidra (sleeping meditation) with the consciousness altering sounds and tones of Sacred Acoustics. Deanne is an inspiring speaker on the subject she likes best, learning to love yourself in every moment of your life. Her talks are filled with meaningful quotes, personal stories, demonstrations on muscle testing and clearing negative belief systems, as well as humor, joy and fun. She sees every person as the Light of Divine and Eternal Love and wants to share this vision with you.

Deanne has been a long-time student of spiritual studies. For many years, she was a practitioner of yoga and in the late 1980's she was drawn to share her enthusiasm by becoming a yoga teacher. Her certification, from the Himalayan Institute, was a comprehensive two-year program including the study of anatomy, diet, nutrition, Ayurvedic medical practices, the methods of teaching hatha yoga, the science of breath and the study of raja (the royal path of yoga) philosophy. She has taught yoga, meditation, and spiritual classes for more than twenty-five years. In the mid-1990s, she experienced a spiritual awakening called shaktipat and her teachings took on a new and freshly informed understanding.

This was the beginning of many mystical transformations that were brought about from guru's and teachers, both in their bodies and out, and by ascended masters of the highest order. These involved signs, manifestation, and messages that emerged from unlikely sources. As Deanne continued her studies, she explored Reiki and also studied with Henry Grayson, Ph.D. where she refined her work with muscle testing and the complex of energy healing methods Dr. Grayson has developed for use with his patients. Dr. Grayson's work is illuminated in his books, Mindful Loving and Use Your Body to Heal Your Mind. This work, which engages many modes of healing, is taught in a private setting and scores of individuals has made great strides in learning to love themselves and let go of issues and traumas that kept their lives in states of fear, anger, depression, and hopelessness. For many years she brought her attention to the profound teachings of A Course in Miracles, concentrated on every word of the three major parts of the book. She now offers regular groups called "Into the Light of Miracles," guiding through the daily lessons.

Another popular and unusual program she presents is called "Rumi and Me." this includes the reading of the mystical Sufi poet, Rumi, and participants learn a rare form of meditation called whirling, as followed by the "whirling dervishes" in seeking unity with God. Deanne's special interest in this springs from a completely unexpected encounter with Rumi himself when she entered his shrine in Konya, Turkey. Deanne has, in the past, offered classes in yoga as well as stress reduction programs and meditation in many forms (sitting, walking, whirling, meditation in action, and "sleeping" meditation called yoga nidra). She has developed methods of using yoga in treating those with life threatening diseases as in the programs she designed for Gilda's Club and Friends in Deed in New York City.

She was a consulting producer on an alternative health program for CNBC's Alive and Wellness, and she has demonstrated yoga on network television. Deanne created the audio CD Inner Light Yoga with Deanne Mincer and she has spoken widely and demonstrated meditation in many venues. Deanne is an enthusiastic and joyful teacher. She is known for the keen interest she takes in her students' physical and spiritual development. She stresses that each student should work at their own pace in a non-competitive and caring environment. You can read some of the comments her students have shared in the Testimonials Section of this site. Her teaching is grounded in her own steadfast spiritual awareness - that each of us is a being of eternal light and love and that we can all come to knowing this truth for ourselves. She is eager to help guide you on this joyful path of body, mind, breath and spirit. And to come face to face with your True Self.

Notes for Wilbert Christian Koch:

On June 30, 1986, secretary of state Richard H. Austin certified 23 farms in 20 Michigan counties as centennial farms—owned by the same families for the last 100 years. One of those farms belongs to Wilbert and Helen Koch, 595 S. Fletcher Rd. At the rate things change there, more Kochs will be around in the year 2086 to be recognized for 200 years of farming the same land. The Kochs live in the house that grandfather Jacob and grandmother, Christiane Koch, immigrants from southern Germany, bought in 1885. Though semi-retired, Wilbert Koch still farms the 95 acres his grandfather started with. And the 20-acre woodlot on N. Fletcher Rd., purchased by Christian and Tema Koch, is still family property and swells the farm's total acreage to 115. Jacob sold Christian the farm in 1906. Christian died in 1942 and Wilbert, the oldest of five children, has worked the farm ever since. He bought it from his mother in 1957. No part of the farm has been sold off, said the Koch's. The original bam burned down years ago and was replaced. Other than that, the only building of significance that has been added is the home of son Gary Koch, who lives next door with his wife and four children. Gary Koch and his son Kevin, 19, now help with the farming, and son Jason, 15, may be ready to start as well. "I suppose that's the way it'll go," Wilbert Koch said when asked if the younger men will take over. There appears to be no intent in either household to part with the farm. Signs posted on the lawn before each house reflect the onetime threat of a buyout by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and the resolve of the occupants to stay put. The signs say, "This Land Is Not for Sale to H.C.M.A."

There isn't even much turnover of farm equipment. Wilbert Koch gets along with two Allis- Chalmers tractors from the 1950s and a 1963 Case, all of which he keeps repairing. "For what I did here, I always got along with them," he said. As he recalled, his own father was not' entirely enamored of modern contrivances; even though the family had a telephone, they knew how to get by without it. "Dad used to take out the phone once in a while because he said it cost too much," Wilbert remembered. Helen Koch, who has no quarrel to pick with contrivances, has also played a big part in the farm's history. The former Helen Neyer of Scio Church Rd., she married Wilbert in 1943 and raised daughter Lynda, today of Sylvan Center, and sons Gary and Ronald, who died in Vietnam in 1968. She also tended the big kitchen gardens until this year; arthritis in one hip socket and the period of recuperation for surgery on the other has limited her mobility. The Koch's continue to practice what they call "general farming," planting corn, oats, wheat and hay this season. They still keep chickens and about 15 beef cattle. Sheep and dairy cows have been part of the farm at various times.

Yet she scoffed at the notion that the centennial farm distinction implied any special contribution to Michigan life, as the award certificate states. "All we done wag, we did our farming and took our crop," she said. Since the program's start in 1948, over 5,400 farms have been certified as 100-year veterans, owned by members of the same family and having at least 10 acres. A token amount of cash business must be conducted as well. Wilbert Koch said the farm could not always support his family. He held various other jobs to supplement the farm income. For some years, he drew milk at dairy farms in the area. He drove a Chelsea school bus. And he put in 11 years at the University of Michigan as a maintenance man.

For the most part, at least, the farm supported itself; only when the Koch's had dairy cattle did they need to buy extra feed for their animals. In the years when Christian Koch owned sheep, Wilbert helped drive them to the woodlot- pasture on N. Fletcher Rd. He recalled that marauding dogs killed so many sheep that the family eventually gave up raising them. If the farm could not always offer its owners extravagant returns, it could offer them security. The Koch's recalled no significant threats to the farm, other than the temporary annoyance caused by talk of the HCMA's wanting to buy their property. Interstate 94 went in about a mile to the north, just far enough away to leave the property intact and to keep traffic noise from being a bother, but just close enough to make for easy access. However, Wilbert Koch said he could not imagine driving sheep on Fletcher Rd., where it passes over I-94 today. There are a few things that change.

Wilbert C. Koch of Chelsea, age 78, died suddenly Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1995 at Chelsea Community Hospital. He was born Feb. 8, 1917 in Lima Township, the son of Christian and Tema (Homing) Koch. Mr. Koch lived in the same house all of his life, he retired from the U. of M. Mail Department, and farmed all of his life on the family centennial farm. He was member of Chelsea's Covenant Church. On June 5, 1943, he married Helen Neyer in Freedom Township, and she survives.

Other survivors include one daughter, Lynda (Jeff) Gladstone of Chelsea; one son, Gary W. Koch of Chelsea and his fiancée, Kitty Hamel; five grandchildren, Kevin, Jason, Jennifer, and Julie Koch, and Braden Gladstone; one great-granddaughter, Emma Lee Koch; two sisters, Hilda Horning and Rubena Gross; one brother, Leon Koch; and many nieces and nephews, he was preceded in death by one son, Ronald and one brother, Lawrence.

The family received friends Thursday 7 to 9 p.m., and Friday 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the Covenant Church of Chelsea.

Notes for Herold Adolph (Harold) Lambarth:

Friday night July 7, 1932, about 1:30 a new Buick eight 5-passenger coupe drew up at the Wiedman filling station and the driver, a youth of about 20, told Harold Lambarth, the attendant, to fill his tank with gas. After getting 15 gallons the lone occupant of the car got out and asked the price. Harold went inside to show him the price chart, the driver following, and as Harold was about to turn around a gun was pressed against his back and he was told to turn over the money—and only one dollar bills. Harold seemed rather reluctant to do so, but the bandit told him to make it snappy, as he meant business. After getting twelve $1 bills and $3 worth of gas he forced young Lambarth to stay inside the station backed away to his coupe and drove off toward Detroit. Harold phoned Ypsilanti, but there was no trace of the thief in that direction.

He was born 20 Aug 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 18 Jan 1984 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Doris Blaess Smith:

Doris Blaess (Smith) Buettner passed away on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, at her residence with her daughter at her side. Doris was born in Saline, Michigan on March 31, 1925 to Carl and Emma Smith. Doris graduated from Saline High School. Her parents preceded her in death as well as her brothers, Harold (in infancy) and John. She was raised in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran Church and was currently a member at Redeemer Evangelical Church in Ann Arbor.

Doris married Howard J. Buettner in 1946 and together they welcomed two daughters, Pamela and Trudy. Doris's greatest tragedies were the loss of her husband and daughter, Trudy.

Most of her life Doris was a homemaker whose clean house was always sparkling and the food was extremely delicious. She was also an avid vegetable gardener. Howard was employed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Doris joined with other wives in a group called the Fish Wives for years. Howard and Doris were founding members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Doris finally convinced Howard to travel and they made trips to Europe and Hawaii. After Howard's passing, Doris made it a point to continue her worldly travel by joining the Jackson Trippers and a Pittsfield Township senior group to see the world. Much appreciation goes to Lucinda and Karen Fleckenstein for working out the ability of their bridge group bunch to meet for many years: Francis Spelman, Barb Rolfe and Lucinda who was the self-appointed chauffeur as the women aged. Additional thanks to Doris's next-door neighbor on Agincourt, DJ Johnson, who took care of her home maintenance and looked out for her. And lastly, special thanks to the Brookhaven staff and the Arbor Hospice team who provided help and guided the family to the end.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 2021 at 3:30 pm before the funeral service at 4:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1360 Pauline Blvd, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Light refreshments will be served in the next door building prior to the service. Masks and social distancing will be observed. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, attendance limitations may apply as the church can have up to 50 people. Memorial contributions may be made in Doris's honor to Redeemer Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice. In sadness, Doris will not be able to see her beloved magnolia tree bloom this year nor will her daughter, Pamela continue to receive the daily call to double check that she is okay.

Notes for Barbara Ann Horning:

My name is Barbara (Horning) Shannon and we are distant cousins. My brother is David Horning and we both live in the Atlanta, Georgia, area (and both work at Emory University--David in the Hospital and myself in the College of Arts and Sciences--Biology Department), but we grew up in Ann Arbor. I have been using your information in the published volumes of our German ancestors, which is very interesting, as I am in the process of assembling my own ancestry books (which are turning into photo albums). I was stationed twice in Germany (I am retired U.S. Army, SSG/E-6) but did not have this information at that time, or I would have looked up our relatives! Thank you very much for all of your work in putting that together, as well as your history of the German settlers in the Ann Arbor area. Also very interesting.

My father, Norman Julius Horning, passed away at age 93 on October 24, 2016, after an unexpected medical condition (aortic aneurism, successful surgery, and then succumbed to CDIF and Sepsis infections). He is the son of Martha (Furthmueller) (Horning) Hoeft and Julius Horning, if you would like to update your information. David and I were in Ann Arbor in mid-July, as we had my father's burial (at Washtenog Memorial Park, next to my mother, Gena Irene (Inman) Horning) on July 14th, a graveside service for him on July 15th which included a 21-gun salute (he was a World War II Veteran and participated in the Battle of Normandy) by the Washtenaw County Honor Guard, and a celebration of life (in conjunction with our annual family reunion at Murray Lake in Ann Arbor) for my father, his sister Doris (Horning) (Stevenson) Bowling (who passed away in April of 2016), and Aunt Esther (Stevenson) Agner (not blood related to us but has always been part of the family and is Aunt Doris's first husband Lester's (Bud) twin sister and Doris's best friend). I also saw Edward Gebhardt (my cousin and GodFather; his wife Virginia passed away a few years ago) and Joan Gebhardt while in Ann Arbor (the wife of Fred Gebhardt who also passed away unexpectedly in the same 8 month time period, in addition to our cousin Nancy Lutz (can't think of her married name). Joan also has an ancestry book of her own, in addition to your published volumes, so your material is being put to good use, even though you did all of the hard work! Well, I just wanted to say hello and to connect with you via FaceBook. I hope you will accept my friend request. Sincerely, Barbara

Notes for Nancy Lynn Pope:

Nancy Lynn (Pope) Jedelee was called home to be with her Lord on August 26, 2025 after a long and courageous battle with Parkinson's Disease. Nancy was born on August 22, 1950 to Herbert A. and Elizabeth A. (Foote) Pope, in Ann Arbor Michigan. She was confirmed at Salem Ev. Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor and graduated from Pioneer High School in 1968.

She met the love of her life, James L. Jedelee, in the fall of 1968 and they were married on September 12, 1970. In 1975, they moved to Dexter, Michigan where they raised their 6 children in the house that they built. Nancy was an active member of Faith Lutheran Church in Dexter, Michigan for more than 50 years. Nancy worked at UofM hospital for more than 25 years as an inpatient unit clerk. She spent most of those years in the SICU where she made many wonderful friends. She truly loved her job and considered it her "home away from home". Nancy and Jim started Berry Hill Farm in 1986. Initially started as a red raspberry farm, they grew the farm into a fall destination with its large pumpkin patch and fun fall decorations. Nancy enjoyed meeting all who visited the farm and many who visited became friends. She was a member of the North American Raspberry and Blackberry Association.

Nancy is survived by her husband Jim and her 6 children: Philip (Jenefer) Jedelee of Dexter, Julie (Matthew) Desbrough of Manchester, Brian Jedelee of Connecticut, Sarah (Spencer) Schmitz of Saline, David (Jen) Jedele of Fowlerville and Paul (Laura) Jedele of Kalamazoo. As well as her 12 Grandkids: Alyssa, Erin & Austin Jedele; Nathan, Annalise, Rachel & Alinda Desbrough; Megan Jedele; Owen & Kayla Jedele; Bodie & Luka Schmitz. She is also survived by her brother David (Barb) Pope; sisters Peggy (Tom) Dorow, Julie (Steve) Mills, and Martha (Jeff) Asmussen; sisters-in-law Carol Tunningley, Phyllis Risdon and Joyce Beach; as well as many nieces & nephews. Nancy loved her family dearly, especially her children and grandchildren. Her family was always her top priority. She loved gathering the family in her home, making sure each holiday was special. She gave the best back/shoulder rubs and arm tickles EVER and sang "You are my Sunshine" & "Skinamarinky, dinky dink" on repeat to her grandkids. She loved to be outside in her flower and fairy gardens; she would spend hours getting them "just right". She will be deeply missed and remembered for her hard work ethic and kind and loving nature.

The family will receive friends at Cole Funeral Chapel, 214 E. Middle St. Chelsea 48118 on Friday, Aug 29 from 2-4 pm and 6-8 pm. A celebration of her life and her faith will be held at Faith Lutheran Church, 9575 N. Territorial Rd. Dexter Michigan 48130 on Saturday Aug. 30 at 11am with Pastor Biga officiating. She was very active in Faith Lutheran Church where she also sang in the choir. She loved Christmas and everything about it (just ask the Griswold's!). Hal worked as a lineman for Michigan Bell, retiring after 27 years of service. He was an extraordinarily patriotic man with a witty sense of humor until the very end. He loved music and had the talent to play almost anything he picked up. His favorites were piano and guitar, and he even performed on a stage in Nashville, when his daughter challenged him. He was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, although we definitely knew it would rain when he went, but that didn't stop him. He was a talented woodworker and could usually be found doing some sort of wood working or whittling something out of one piece of wood. He was an all around handyman and could fix most anything. May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first "who were genuinely excited for their sibling's success." When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates," Kelsey said. "Honestly, I don't regret anything. I would do it all over again. "I've loved being her teammate for the last four years. I'm sad that's going to end soon."

He married Julia Leticia Baroni. She was born 10 Feb 1953.

Notes for Julia Leticia Baroni:

May 28, 2013 - Julia Van Aken recently spoke about her duties as pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs on East Ganson Street in Jackson:

Age: 60

Residence: Grass Lake

Position and Workplace: Pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs, 900 E. Ganson St., Jackson

Length of employment: 36 years as a pharmacist; 12 years at Longe Drugs.

Family: Married to husband Tim for 12 years. Two step-children, Justin, 32, and Jessica, 30; and one step-granddaughter, Raiden, 5

Q. How did you get into this line of work?

A. My dad was a high school counselor. He told me being a pharmacist would be a good job for a woman.

Q. What is your favorite part of your job?

A. Interacting with people; (especially) the people that I work with. We're in such a close proximity ... you have to really love the people you work with. We're shoulder-to-shoulder eight and a half hours a day. We spend more time together than we do with our spouses.

Q. What has been your proudest or most memorable moment at work?

A. There is a particular customer that I have helped a number of times. She's a mental health patient. She's had times where her doctor needed to be contacted and I went out of my way to reach her doctor for her. That's the most rewarding.

Q. Have you had a most embarrassing moment at this job?

A. When (co-workers) bought me a pair of black silk panties that were so big they would have fit a 300-pound man. One of the girls gave them to me all wrapped up nice for some occasion. There were customers standing around and I opened them up. Everyone was in on the joke but me. I put them right on over my pants. It was really funny. I could have fit three of me in them.

Q. If you could change one thing about your job, what would it be?

A. I wish the store were bigger and we had more room.

Q. How do you like to spend your free time?

A. Horseback riding. I've crisscrossed Michigan on a horse. It's a 520-mile ride. I also run. I get up at quarter to four in the morning, run six miles; then come to work. I just started doing that two years ago. I've run 5Ks. I'm usually outside.

Q. If you could have a "dream job," what would it be?

A. Something with horses. I worked at a camp store for awhile. I was like a camp counselor in a horse barn and I really liked that. I don't mind mucking stalls, feeding horses, brushing horses and doing the down-and-dirty work. ... That would be perfect if I could make a living at that.

- 605      vi. Ryan Matthew Estrada, born 14 Jan 2000 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 09 Dec 2016 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ryan Matthew Estrada:

Jan 12, 2017 Saline, Michigan - Few would suspect a three-sport varsity athlete to have underlying health concerns, so it came as a shock to Ryan Estrada's friends and family when the Saline High School junior was found unresponsive at wrestling practice on Dec. 9, 2016. Estrada, 16, was in the locker room waiting to weigh in before wrestling practice, his mother Kim Estrada later found out. Having gone right from football season to wrestling, Ryan Estrada was trying to drop 15 pounds to make his weight class. He lay down on the bench in the locker room to wait for his turn on the scale, but when his turn came his friends couldn't rouse him, Kim said.

"Fellow teammates quickly contacted staff who began treatment. EMS arrived at the scene and continued to provide support for Ryan," Saline Area Schools Superintendent Scot Graden wrote in a letter to Saline families after the incident. Ryan was transported to the University of Michigan Hospital, and he died the next day, Dec. 10, 2016. It turned out he had an enlarged heart that resulted in sudden cardiac death, Kim said. The Mayo Clinic says having an enlarged heart is the most common cause of heart-related sudden death in people under 30, and it's the most common cause of sudden death for athletes - although it's still rare overall for young people to die of sudden cardiac arrest.

Pittsfield Township Police Deputy Police Chief Gordy Schick previously told The Ann Arbor News the department would forego an investigation because the circumstances of Ryan's death were not deemed suspicious. "It's something you just don't know, unless you know what signs you're really looking for," said Kim Estrada, who has been married to Ryan's father, Henry Estrada Sr., for 22 years. "He had a headache earlier in the week - that's one sign. He went from football right into wrestling, so he said his upper body was a little sore. But he had that every year - that would be another sign." Henry Estrada Sr. said Ryan had been laughing and joking like he always did the night before his collapse at school, with no indication anything was wrong.

"The morning of it was the usual drag him out of bed," Kim said with a laugh, seated beside Henry Sr. in their Saline home on Tuesday, Jan. 10. "We said, 'Good-bye, love you and have a good day. I'll see you tonight.'" In the void left by the sudden loss of their youngest child, Kim and Henry leaned on their other children - Henry Estrada Jr. and his wife Jessica Clarke-Estrada, Carolyn Estrada and Amanda Estrada - plus their grandchildren - Jonathan, Manuel, Jazlyn and Alexandra - to get through the holiday season. Ryan also is survived by his grandfather Boyd Werner and many uncles, aunts and cousins.

The Saline community has been a great source of support since Ryan's death, Kim said. Parents of Ryan's football and wrestling teammates provide them with meals three times a week. Ryan's close friends accompanied him to the hospital that Friday in December, and many of his friends have stopped by the Estradas' house in the past few weeks to visit the family. "They're the same age as him. It just was comforting to have them here," Henry Sr. said. Ryan's teammates signed his No. 79 football jersey and gave it to Kim and Henry Sr. His friends also made a scrapbook for Ryan's parents with photos of Ryan and messages sharing their favorite memories with him. "Ryan was a great kid to be around. He was always positive and kind," said Saline head football coach Joe Palka. "He was well liked by students and appreciated by teammates. He had a great demeanor and a huge smile. He was always enjoyable to be with. He will be missed greatly by all of us." Ryan's visitation and funeral were held at Saline High School auditorium on Dec. 17 to accommodate the large turnout. University of Michigan football coach Jim Harbaugh sent an autographed football helmet and handwritten card with his condolences to the service.

A GoFundMe account set up to help the family with funeral expenses has raised more than $24,000 to date, exceeding the $15,000 goal set for the campaign. Money leftover after covering the cost of the funeral will go to the Ryan Estrada Saline HS Football and Wrestling Camp Fund his family established. Wrestling teams from other schools also sent cards to the family or made donations to the scholarship fund, Kim said. "I wish I could thank everybody," she said. "I wish I could individually thank everybody, but I'm having a hard time. It's just been so overwhelming."

Ryan was a lifelong University of Michigan football fan, and he had hoped to become a Michigan Man one day. His grandfather is a season ticket holder, so he attended as many games as he could. When Ryan was old enough, he attended summer football camps at U-M. His bedroom walls are covered in U-M memorabilia. Ryan began playing football in middle school, started throwing shot put on the track and field team in eighth grade and picked up wrestling in high school. "He spent most of his life in that gym," Henry Sr. said, recalling picking up Ryan from the high school at 10 p.m. some days after meets or games. "I never heard him complain about too much of anything. ... He was a heck of a good kid, and I'm not just saying that because he was mine. He was just a very quiet, funny kid."

While the 6-foot, 300-pound teenager certainly was a physical presence, Ryan's friends and family remember him most for his sense of humor. He loved comedian Gabriel Iglesias, who has a bit about being "fluffy," not fat. Ryan's friends nicknamed him "Fluffy," and he would wear Hawaiian shirts in imitation of Iglesias' signature style, Kim said. "He was always making people laugh," she said. "Even if it was the stupidest thing, he could make you laugh."

Ryan liked to dance, especially to Michael Jackson and other "oldies" music, his sister Carolyn Estrada said. Kim treasures memories of their family's summer trips to Alanson, Michigan, and making peanut brittle with Ryan at Christmas time.

Saturday, Jan. 14, would have been Ryan's 17th birthday. The family plans to go out for dinner - possibly at Olive Garden, Ryan's usual pick for his birthday - to mark the occasion. The wrestling team planned to pay tribute to Ryan at their first home meet of the season on Wednesday, Jan. 11. They named him an honorary captain this year, and some of the wrestlers carry a bag of Ryan's gear with them to the mat at the start of their dual meets, said Coach Scott Marvin. "He brought to the team a zest for life. He was always very happy. I can say I never really saw him too down," Marvin said. "All the kids enjoyed being around him."

Ryan had a good understanding of his abilities as an athlete, Marvin said, and he was willing to work hard to improve. He recalled their wrestling camp this past summer, when Ryan ran 29 miles over the course of four days even though running typically was a struggle for him. Marvin said Saline High School is planning to rename its annual wrestling tournament this month the "Ryan Estrada Memorial Tournament," and half of the admission sales from the tournament each year will be donated to sports camp scholarship fund in Ryan's name.

Ryan M. Estrada, Saline, Michigan. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Ryan Matthew Estrada. Ryan was taken from us much too soon at the age of 16 on Saturday, December 10th, 2016 at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. He was a life-long resident of Saline, Michigan and a proud Hornet. Ryan was born on January 14th, 2000 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He is survived by his loving parents, Kim Werner-Estrada and Henry Sr. Estrada; his siblings, Henry Jr. Estrada, Carolyn Estrada, Amanda Estrada and Jessica Clarke-Estrada; his grandfather, Boyd Werner; his nephews and nieces, Jonathan, Manuel, Jazlyn and Alexandra. Ryan was also loved by many uncles, aunts and several cousins, as well as his dear pets, Osito, Chiquito, and Snickers. He is predeceased by his grandparents, Asension and Virginia Estrada and Carol Ann Werner.

Ryan was a junior at Saline High School and he participated in a variety of sports. He played on the varsity football team, the varsity wrestling team and threw shot put for the track team. Ryan's love for the University of Michigan football program was apparent to anyone who knew him. One of his favorite things to do was watch the football games with his family. On weekends you could find Ryan tossing a football with his brother or spending time with his friends at Fifth Corner.

We will be celebrating Ryan's life on Saturday, December 17th, 2016. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline, MI. Visitation will take place Saturday morning from 9 AM to 11:30 AM in the Saline High School Auditorium, 1300 Campus Pkwy. Saline, Michigan 48176. A funeral service will follow the visitation and will take place at 12 PM. A private burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery in Saline. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Ryan's name to the Ryan Estrada Saline HS Football and Wrestling Camp Fund. Donations can be mailed to 212 Clark St. Clinton, MI 49236 c/o Jessica Clark-Estrada. Ryan will always be remembered for his humor, kindness and huge smile.

He married Angela June Martone 07 Oct 1995 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 02 Jul 1970.

Notes for Jason Ronald Koch:

On April 23, 2015 - Jackson, Michigan - While a Jason Koch awaited his sentence for a first-degree criminal sexual conduct charge, a prosecutor told the judge there is no number of years that can remedy the damage caused by the his actions. "We already know that whatever you do isn't going to rehabilitate him or fix him, if that weren't already painfully clear based on our own experience his comments make it crystal clear," Jackson County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Kati Rezmierski said. "These kids are never going to be any better. There isn't a magic number of years that you can give him that will make (the victims) any better." Rezmierski's statements were made in response to Jason Koch's claim that, outside of the events the charge stems from, he "had never done anything like this before."

Koch was originally charged with three counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct and three counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct for sexual assaults against three girls under the age of 13 over several years, according to court testimony. Chief Circuit Judge Thomas Wilson sentenced Koch to 25 to 50 years for the crimes on April 23. During her allocution, Rezmierski said the prosecutor's office was forced to offer Koch a plea deal after the victims were coached by individuals close to the case. In exchange for a guilty plea of first-degree criminal sexual conduct, which Koch entered on March 20, the remaining charges against him were dropped. Wilson said the only "good thing" that he could say about the case was that the victims were spared the pain of testifying during a trial.

Koch's attorney, Brent Leder, told the judge Koch suffers from "significant alcohol problems" but added that he and his client realize there is no excuse for his behavior. Leder also said Koch has shown "genuine" remorse since his arrest and has been cooperative with investigators. Koch apologized for his actions and told the judge "it was all because of alcohol" a claim Wilson said he did not believe. Koch was credited 142 days for time served.
