History of Washtenaw County, Michigan : together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Philip Bach, senior member of the firm of Bach & Abel, dry-goods dealers at Ann Arbor, Michigan, is a native of Germany and was born in the Duchy of Baden October 20, 1820. When nine years of age his parents came to America, and settled in Pennsylvania, where they lived five years. In 1835 they came to Ann Arbor, since which time Mr. Bach has resided in this city. He began his business life with Brown & Company in the lower town, than the leading business house in the town. He was afterward for a time with Hiram Goodspeed, then with E. Root & Son, and later with Bach & Abel, of this city, with whom he remained until 1843, when he began business life for himself as a partner in the firm of C. B. Thompson & Company. In 1855 he opened the house of which he is now the leading member. He has been longer continuously in business in Ann Arbor than any other man in the city and has never yet known failure. In 1865 he built the store where he now does business.

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

PHILIP BACH is the senior member of the, J. popular and well-known firm of Bach, Abel & Co., dealers in dry-goods, cloaks, notions, etc., and located in Ann Arbor. Mr. Bach was born in Baden, Germany, March 20, 1820. He was the second in order of birth of twelve children born to Philip J. and Barbara (Dick) Bach. His parents emigrated to America in 1829 and located first at Easton, Pa., in Northampton County and in a few years-in 1835-they removed to Michigan which was then a Territory, locating first at Ann Arbor, but shortly after removed to Freedom Township, locating on a farm where they carried on general farming in a small way. The father (died in 1865, the mother having passed away in 1864. Our subject, Philip Bach, after being reared on the farm until reaching young manhood, settled in Ann Arbor and became a clerk for the firm of Brown & Co., merchants, with whom he remained for twelve months. He was afterward with E. Root & Sons, and in 1839 formed a partnership with Mr. Abel, and in 1843 in the fall season entered the employ of C. B. Thompson. This partnership lasted from 1843 to 1853, at which latter date Mr. Bach sold out and went into business with Peasor & Hewitt. He later entered into partnership with Mr. Abel which continued until the death of the latter in 1890, and at that time a part of his interests were purchased by Zachariah Oath, when the firm became that of Bach, Abel & Co. The firm carry a very fine stock of well-selected dry-goods, cloaks and notions and do a good business.

Mr. Bach was first married to Hannah Polhemus by whom he had one child, now Mrs. Hannah J. Warner, of the city of Mexico. Mr. Bach was a second time married in 1855 to Miss Nancy Royce. By her he had four children, they being James R., Philip Jr., a merchant in New Mexico, Mary L., the widow of Wm. R. Henderson, residing at home, and Rudolph G., deceased. In 1876 Mr. Bach was again married, this time to Annie Botsford, to whom two children have been born-Nellie and Waldo B. He was elected Mayor in 1858 and served one term. In 1857 he was elected as a member of the School Board and served for nearly thirty-four years. He is Vice President and Director of the First National Bank of Ann Arbor and has been connected with it since its organization, having also held the office of President. He is at present Director of the Detroit Fire and Marine Insurance Company and has been so connected since its organization in 1866. During the years which have passed and which have demonstrated its success, it has proved to be one of the solid institutions of the State of Michigan.

Notes for Philipp Jakob (Georg Philipp) Lohr:

When he first came to Michigan he worked out as a farm hand. At the close of his season of work his employer offered him 180 acres of land in the wilds of Illinois for his years wages. He declined the offer after a trip out west to look the land over and took money instead. The court house in the city of Chicago, Illinois now stands on part of those 180 acres.

Later on he had a chance to buy some northern Michigan land for almost nothing but declined and saw the mines of the Calumet and Hecla Company located on the tract.

Notes for James Royce Bach:
 Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

James R. Bach, whose judgment and enterprise have proven important factors in the successful conduct of leading business interests in Ann Arbor, was born in this city, September 7, 1859. His father, Philip Bach, a native of Baden, Germany, came to the new world in 1833, and remained for about a year a resident of Pennsylvania, whence in 1834 he removed to Ann Arbor. He was one of the pioneer merchants of the city, establishing and conducting a store in days when the inhabitants here were few and when business development had made little progress. He married Miss Hanna J. Polhemus and they became the parents of one daughter, Hanna J., now the wife of James D. Warner, of Cincinnati, Ohio. For his second wife Philip Bach chose Nancy L. Royce, of this city, and unto them were born four children: Mary B., who is now living in Canada; James R.; Philip, a resident of Bakersfield, California; and Rudolph, deceased.

Reared under the parental roof James R. Bach acquired his education in successive grades of the Ann Arbor primary, grammar and high schools, wherein he continued his studies until 1878 and then, putting aside his text-books, he entered business life, where he has won a creditable name and position. He is now the secretary and treasurer of the City Ice Company of Ann Arbor and to other fields of activity has extended his efforts, being likewise secretary of the Rettich Building Association. He is also well known as an extensive real-estate dealer, handling both improved and unimproved property, and he represents a number of old and reliable insurance companies, having an extensive clientage in both the real-estate and insurance business. He has studied the needs and possibilities of his city in relation to its material improvement and his efforts in the field of real-estate operations have proven of benefit to Ann Arbor as well as the source of gratifying income to himself. Success in any walk of life is an indication of earnest endeavor and persevering effort-characteristics that Mr. Bach possesses in an eminent degree.

In 1880 Mr. Bach was married to Miss Blanche E. Tremain and they had one daughter, Lois, who is now living in Seattle, Washington. In 1891 Mr. Bach married his present wife, whose maiden name was Martha M. Drake. In Masonic circles he has attained the Knight Templar degree and is a past commander of Ann Arbor commandery. He is likewise a past exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and his religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Episcopal Church. A Democrat in his political affiliation, he was elected on that ticket the first city clerk of Ann Arbor and his interest in the public welfare has been manifest in tangible cooperation for the general good along many lines of progress and improvement. His acquaintance is wide, his circle of friends almost equally so, for his salient characteristics are such as gain high and favorable regard. In all his varied relations in business affairs and in social life he has maintained a reputation and standing that have impressed all with his sincere and manly purpose to do by others as he would have them do by him.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

James R. Bach. The popular and genial dealer in real estate and agent for various insurance companies, whose name appears above, is a resident of Ann Arbor, and socially and commercially ranks high among the best, most progressive and advanced people of the city. He is a son of Philip and Nancy (Royce) Bach, of whom a sketch may be found under the more complete history of Philip Bach in another portion of this work. Our subject was born in the city of Ann Arbor, September 7, 1859. His father, who is at the present time a prominent merchant of this city, was one of the early settlers of Washtenaw County, having come from Germany in 1829. After a few years spent in Pennsylvania he removed to Michigan in 1835, while the country was still a Territory.

The original of our sketch acquired his education in the excellent schools of Ann Arbor, finishing his course at the High School. On leaving school he went to Millington, this State, and was there engaged as manager for the firm of Pebach & Co., merchants. With them he remained for six years and then removed to St. Louis, this State, where he engaged in the clothing business on his own account. He spent two years at that place thus interested, and at the expiration of that time returned to his native place and entered the store of Bach & Abel. After engaging for two years in this way in 1887 he launched into the real estate and insurance business. In the insurance business James R. Bach insures against fire, life and accident. He is agent for both local and Eastern companies and probably secures as large an amount of patronage as any man in the county. Wherever our subject has been located he has always enjoyed the confidence and respect of the townspeople and has been given evidence of the estimation in which he is held. While in Millington he was elected Village Trustee and also served as Township Clerk. In the spring of 1888 he was City Recorder for Ann Arbor and in the spring of 1889 was elected City Clerk for a term of two years.

An ardent Democrat in his political belief and affiliations, that party has honored our subject by appointing him Secretary of the Washtenaw County Democratic Committee and in this capacity he does excellent service. She married Friedrich John Schleede 27 May 1869, son of Wilhelm Schleede and Elizabeth Regelin. He was born 08 Oct 1842 in Germany, and died 30 Jun 1908 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friedrich John Schleede:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frederick J. Schleede, whose business career has been marked by consecutive progress and substantial achievement, is now conducting an excellent book bindery in Ann Arbor, where he is also proprietor of a book, stationery and jewelry store. He was born in Germany on the 8th of October, 1842, his parents being William and Mary Schleede, who were likewise natives of the same country. The father was a carpenter by trade, and both he and his wife attained to a venerable age, Mr. Schleede passing away about twenty-three years ago, at the age of eighty-two years, while his wife died thirteen years ago, at the age of eighty-six years. In their family were nine children, of whom five are living.

At the usual age Frederick J. Schleede began his education in the public schools of the father land. He was a youth of fifteen years when he came with his parents to the new world and here continued his studies for a period of eight years, winning the money that enabled him to pursue his course. On his arrival to the United States he made his way directly to Philadelphia, afterward went to Cleveland, and later spent one year in Detroit and one year in Cincinnati. He next located in Chicago and thence came to Ann Arbor, where he has since made his home. Here he became foreman in the Dr. Chase book bindery and held that position for thirteen years, and foreman in the Beal bindery of this city for eight years. About twenty-two years ago he established business on his own account at the corner of Huron street and Fifth Avenue, and his present location is at No. 340 South State Street, where he conducts a book bindery and also has a well equipped book, stationery and jewelry store. He is the inventor of a very ingenious temporary binder, which he has patented, and has already sold thousands to the students of the University of Michigan and to the trade. The device is a very useful one. In the year 1868 Mr. Schleede was married to Carrie Lohr, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have five children, two daughters and three sons.

Mr. Schleede is a member of the Independent Order of United Workmen and of the Arbeiter Verein. He has held various offices in these organizations and is now corresponding secretary of the latter. He is likewise an active member of the Zion Lutheran church, and his political allegiance has been given to the Republican Party since age conferred upon him the right of franchise. After many years of active and close connection with business affairs Mr. Schleede, feeling that he had already earned a vacation, made a very pleasant trip to California, accompanied by his wife, spending some time on the coast in viewing the many points of historic, modern and scenic interest in that section of the country. He is a man of excellent business ability and keen discernment, who has carefully watched every indication pointing to success and has kept abreast with the changing modern conditions of business life in the conduct of his industrial and commercial interests in Ann Arbor. His enterprise has been a strong and forceful factor in his prosperity and his close application and unremitting diligence have also been basic elements in his success. He is today one of the most prominent and representative business men of the city, and his name is an honored one in trade circles and on commercial paper.

Notes for Karl Amos Lohr:

Marshall, Feb. 3, 1919 - Mrs. Carl A. Lohr, who came here from Fort Monroe, Virginia, last week to visit her sister, Miss Vera Lockwood, has received a telegram from the war department announcing the death of her husband, Major Carl A. Lohr, in France, January 6, of toxic infection. A native of Marshall, Major Lohr was graduated from Annapolis in 1905. He went to France in navy service but was transferred to the army. He was 35 years old.

Notes for Bessie Kirby Lockwood:

Detroit - Although heart balm suits have been outlawed in Michigan, such actions can still be brought in Federal Court. This was demonstrated Wednesday April 1, 1936 when testimony was taken, in the $75,000 suit brought by Mrs. Bessie Lohr, thirty-four-year-old divorcee, against Fred C. Fiegel, wealthy seventy-two-year-old farmer living on Abbott Ave., near Ann Arbor. Mrs. Lohr, who also has a farm near Ann Arbor, was able to bring the case into Federal Court by establishing a residence in Toledo. As the resident of another state, she could sue a Michigan resident in the Federal courts. Although it may not be the first action of this type filed in Federal Court in Detroit, it is the only one in the memory of the oldest court clerks.

Mrs. Lohr, before a jury of seven women and five men in Judge Ernest O'Brien's court, told of a romance with Fiegel, which, she said, was to have culminated in marriage Dec. 15, 1934. However, she charged, shortly before the date which she said Fiegel set for their marriage, he revealed to her that he was already married and was unable to fulfill his promise. Mrs. Lohr, three times divorced, said she was the mother of two children. She first met Fiegel when he came to her farm as an appraiser for the Federal Crop Loan Corp. Their friendship grew, she testified, until he made a promise of marriage.

During the hearing Wednesday, Charles Bowles, former mayor of Detroit and a former judge in Recorder's Court, who is acting as Mrs. Lohr's attorney, was reprimanded by Judge O'Brien when he objected to portions of Mrs. Lohr's cross-examination by John B. Mellott, defense attorney. He made his protests from his chair. "If you want to make any objections in this court," Judge O'Brien advised him, "stand up to make them." Mrs. Lohr had started a breach of promise suit for $100,000 against Fiegel in Washtenaw County in August, 1935. When the case was called she failed to appear.

More About Loren Roller and Ruth Bach:

Marriage: 27 Aug 1949, Sebawaing, Huron Co, Michigan

Children of Ruth Bach and Loren Roller are:

- + 225 i. Lenore Frances¹⁰ Roller, born 12 Aug 1950 in Michigan.
- 226 ii. Joy Roller, twin, born 10 Aug 1954 in Michigan.

Notes for Joy Roller, twin:

2013 - Joy Roller Roller, - President, Global Cleveland. The terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001, and ensuing recession led Joy Roller to her current role running Global Cleveland, a nonprofit focused on increasing the region's population with initiatives that attract and retain newcomers. There were big steps in between, however. The downturn after the attacks was tough on the television industry. With a resume that includes documentaries and shows for television, Ms. Roller's job as a producer ended when the company she worked for closed in 2003. She did independent work, but after she was told a third time as a job-hunter how she was too experienced — a euphemism for being too old for youth-oriented TV — she decided she needed a new plan.

Her twin sister, Jan Roller, a partner at the Davis & Young law firm here, suggested she try law school. She took the advice. "I decided to get off the TV merry-go-round and live a more authentic life," Joy Roller said. "I saw law school as a bridge to that." Attending the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law at Cleveland State University, she said, taught her a more focused way of approaching issues, which she had expected from discussions with her sister during Jan Roller's law school days. Joy Roller took a different path, though, also earning a master's degree in political theology at Harvard University. That taught her how to consider questions of life broadly.

Both kinds of thinking guide her work today. Before joining Global Cleveland in January, she spent six years as executive director of the Gordon Square Arts District, which created a new brand for the area at West 65th Street and Detroit Avenue. Although the arts district now is regarded as a success, the idea initially elicited surprised, blank stares. But she knew how to tell a story from her TV days, and at the district she learned now to run a nonprofit.

Now Joy Roller is putting her skills to work at Global Cleveland, which has a staff of six including her, to create a perception of Cleveland as a world-class city, a welcoming place that offers diversity, opportunity and a rich cultural life. Over time, Global Cleveland had been seen as primarily focused on aiding emigrants, but her task is to broaden its scope because the region needs to attract talent as well as retain talent leaving the region; as she notes, "emigration will not fill the whole bill" for the region's people needs. "This is the culmination of everything I've done," Joy Roller said. "I've created something from nothing as a TV producer. I know how to build a nonprofit."

How does Global Cleveland define success? The real benchmark, she acknowledges, will be the outcome of the next U.S. Census in 2020 after decades of population decline in the city. More immediately, she believes it will be measured by a changed perception of Cleveland outside the region to one of vitality and diversity. Another item in Ms. Roller's toolbox is an insider's view of politics. Before launching her television career here as a producer at WJW-TV, Channel 8, in 1984, she had worked as a paid staffer for political campaigns. After living in many cities, Joy Roller enjoys living in Cleveland. "It's like living in a resort," she said, compared to other, bigger cities she has lived in from coast to coast. She lives in the Coventry neighborhood of Cleveland Heights and enjoys traveling. One thing happens often here, however. On an almost daily basis she and her sister get confused with each other.

Jan Roller and Joy Roller regard each other as BFFs and brush aside the mistaken identities. Joy Roller helped them develop their identities as children. When their parents dressed the young girls in identical outfits, "Joy put an end to that," Jan Roller said. Although Joy Roller is broadening the perception of Global Cleveland's mission, Radhika Reddy, a partner in Cleveland-based Ariel Ventures economic development financing consultancy, said she also is continuing to reach out to the region's many ethnic communities. "She's taking a grass-roots approach," said Ms. Reddy, who serves on a Global Cleveland advisory committee. "She's helping to project a progressive view in the region on the immigration debate. She's very hard-working and focused."

Joy Roller - As President of Global Cleveland, Joy Roller leads a civic/corporate initiative to increase the population of Northeast Ohio and strengthen the region by connecting immigrants and domestic newcomers to its opportunities, resources and services and promoting the region as a welcoming place for all.

For the past six years, Joy served as Executive Director of the Gordon Square Arts District, a collaboration of three separate non-profit organizations in a single $30 million capital campaign. On November 15, 2012, The Plain Dealer reported that Joy was, "The woman who oversaw the conversion of Cleveland's Gordon Square Arts District into an edgy, creative economic engine is about to bring her exuberance and marketing mojo to a wider audience." Notes for Jay Patrick:

June 16, 2014 - Gurnee police Cmdr. Jay Patrick -- best known as the department's spokesman over his lengthy career -- is headed into retirement. Patrick's finale on Friday will cap a Gurnee police career that began in June 1986. His departure will come slightly more than a month after Deputy Chief James Caldwell's retirement.

It was a good time," Patrick said of his Gurnee career. "A great place to be. Right time and right place." Police Chief Kevin Woodside said he'll miss Patrick's friendship, law-enforcement experience and calm voice during a crisis. He said Patrick's career accomplishments will continue to be noticed in the Gurnee police firearms proficiency program. "Besides being an expert marksman, he was one of our first firearms instructors and supervisors of our training program," Woodside told the Daily Herald. "He pioneered our program, which now sets the standard that ensures our police officers receive the best possible training."

Patrick was a police officer in southwestern Michigan when his wife accepted a position at Grayslake-based College of Lake County in January 1984. He joined her after getting a job at the Lake County sheriff's office. After two years as a deputy sheriff, Patrick landed in Gurnee. In addition to the firearms instruction, his duties over 28 years in the village covered patrol officer, investigator, media spokesman and project manager for the police headquarters building that opened in late 2003.

Notes for Kathleen Frederica Schleede:

Kathleen S. (Katie) Bohr died suddenly, on March 11, 2008, while jogging in Gallop Park. She was born April 29, 1917 in Detroit, Michigan, to Julia Stuart Crump and Waldo Edwin Schleede. She graduated, cum laude, at age 16, from Detroit's Thomas M. Cooley High School. She completed a business school course at Detroit Business College (later, Wayne State), the University of Michigan, and UCLA. She was employed as a secretary in the Investment Department of The Detroit Bank; in the Civil Engineering Department at the University of Michigan; in the Personnel Department of Douglas Aircraft Company, in Santa Monica, California. In 1940 she married David F. Bohr (subsequently Doctor and Professor Emeritus in the University of Michigan Medical School).

Their children are John Nicholas Bohr, database consultant, of Ann Arbor; Ann (Barbara) Bohr Benner, non-profit administrator and social worker, of Charlottesville, Virginia; and Louise Ann Bohr, Professor of Education at Northeastern Illinois University, Chicago. Their grand-children are Thomas Bohr Benner and Jack Allen Benner, of Charlottesville. A writer, Katie was published in the Michigan Quarterly Review; and was a frequent contributor to the Opinion Section of The Ann Arbor News. She wrote three novels; and three 3-act plays, two given staged readings by a local playwright group. She studied and wrote extensively about the life and times of her great-great uncle, Charles Beebe Stuart, who was a railroad engineer, and (briefly) Engineer-in-Chief of the U. S. Navy; and who was a fervent supporter of the concept that it was our nation's "Manifest Destiny" to spread the American nation across the continent from "sea to shining sea" - for the purpose of preventing the continent being divided up into small squabbling nations, a condition for which Europe, under the influence of Napoleon, was to be criticized. She regretted being forced to face the fact that with that growth accomplished the nation has become the subject of the envy and enmity of the modern world. While some may dispute this statement, Katie is the author here, and this is what she wrote.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice. Friends are invited to join family for a service at the Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, Michigan on Sunday, March 16 at 5 p.m.

Dr. Bohr was born in Zurich, Switzerland, lived for five years as a boy in Cuba, and received most of his childhood education in southern California. In 1933, he entered the University of Michigan, matriculated in 1936 in its medical school and graduated in 1942. Bohr interned at Henry Ford Hospital for one year before being assigned by the U.S. Army to a Dutch hospital ship for three years of duty as laboratory officer and detachment commander (1943-46). Dr. Bohr trained for two years as a research fellow at the University of California in San Francisco (1946-48). Following this fellowship, he returned to the University of Michigan, and in 1957 was promoted to the rank of professor. He was internationally known for his work on the role played by the vasculature in the development of hypertension.

He was the recipient of many awards, including the 1984 Ciba Award for Hypertension Research and the Gold Heart Award from the American Heart Association. In 2007, Dr. Bohr received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the University of Michigan. Dr. Bohr was a dedicated educator who mentored numerous scientists and students. Dr. Bohr served many scientific societies including the Council for High Blood Pressure Research of the American Heart Association and the American Physiological Society. He served on the Hypertension Task Force for the National Institutes of Health from 1978-79. From 1965-68 he was a member of the Committee on Physiology of the National Board of Medical Examiners (1965-68) and he also served on the Cardiovascular Review Panel for the Space Science Board of the National Academy of Sciences (1968-72). As president of the American Physiological Society (1978-79), Dr. Bohr visited Cuban medical schools and observed Cuban health care, and promoted exchange of information between Cuban and American physiologists. David Bohr took great pleasure in the game of tennis throughout his life. Family, friends and students enjoyed his ready sense of humor, his compassion, optimism and love of learning. Dr. Bohr was preceded in death by his wife Kathleen (Katie) earlier this year. They were married in 1940 and were friends as teenagers.

Dr. Bohr is survived by a son, John Nicholas Bohr, theoretical mathematician and database consultant of Ann Arbor; two daughters, Ann (Barbara) Bohr Benner, non-profit administrator and social worker, of Charlottesville, Virginia and Louise Ann Bohr, Professor of Literacy Education at Northeastern Illinois University, Chicago. Grandchildren are Thomas Bohr Benner of Brooklyn, New York and Jack Allen Benner, of Charlottesville. A memorial service, titled David Francis Bohr, M.D., Gentleman Scientist, will be held on Saturday January 31, 2009 in Ann Arbor at the Michigan League, League Ballroom from noon to 4 p.m. In lieu of flowers, contributions should be made to the David F. Bohr Quasi Endowment, Department of Molecular and Integrative Physiology, University of Michigan, 1301 E. Catherine, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

David F. Bohr, professor of physiology at the University of Michigan, died Tuesday, November 4, 2008. He was 93 years old and lived in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Dr Bohr was born in Zurich, Switzerland lived for 5 years as a boy in Cuba, and received most of his childhood education in southern California. In 1933, he entered the University of Michigan, matriculated in 1936 in its medical school. and graduated in 1942. Dr Bohr interned at Henry Ford Hospital for 1 year before being assigned by the US Army to a Dutch hospital ship for 3 years of duty as laboratory officer and detachment commander (1943-1946). Dr Bohr trained for 2 years as a research fellow at the University of California in San Francisco (1946-1948). Following this fellowship, he returned to the University of Michigan, and, in 1957, was promoted to the rank of professor. Dr Bohr's rich career touched on many aspects of hypertension research, ranging from ion transport in red blood cells from hypertensive animals to the central actions of mineralocorticoids to elevate arterial blood pressure. However, it was his work on the role played by the vasculature in the development of hypertension that was his fundamental contribution to the field. Two of his favorite publications were published in "Science". In the first, he demonstrated that calcium not only causes contraction of vascular smooth muscle but also in higher concentrations decreases excitability to cause relaxation or inhibition of contraction. In the second, he quantified the calcium requirement for contractile activity of vascular smooth muscle and skeletal muscle and showed that the calcium dependency for the contractile apparatus of the 2 machines was identical.

Over the years, Dr Bohr was the recipient of many awards, including the 1984 Ciba Award for Hypertension Research and the Gold Heart Award from the American Heart Association. In 1977, he gave the Wiggers Lecture for the American Physiological Society. Dr. Bohr received the A. Ray Daggs Award from the American Physiological Society in 2005. In 2007, Dr. Bohr received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the University of Michigan.

Dr. Bohr was a dedicated educator who inspired and mentored numerous scientists and students, and many remember him as an important role model. He was kind, fair, and generous as he was brilliant. Dr Bohr's legacy is one to be remembered. Dr. Bohr served many scientific societies, including the Council for High Blood Pressure Research or the American Heart Association and the American Physiological Society. He joined the council in 1968 and was chairman from 1978 to 1980. He served on the Hypertension Task Force for the National Institutes of Health from 1978 to 1979. From 1965 to 1968, he was a member of the Committee on Physiology of the National Board of Medical Examiners (1965-1968), and he also on the Cardiovascular Review Panel for the Space Science Board of the National Academy of Sciences (1968 -1972). As president of the American Physiologic-al Society (1978-1979). Dr. Bohr visited Cuban medical schools and observed Cuban health care and promoted exchange of information between Cuban and American physiologists. He instituted a Standing Committee on Career Opportunities in Physiology to try to help young people during their early careers. He also initiated a meeting between the American Physiological Society Animal Care Committee and representatives of animal welfare groups at a time when it was possible to actually make progress with such interactions.

Dr. Rohr served on the editorial boards of hypertension, Circulation Research, American Journal of Physiology, and the Journal of Applied Physiology. He was a coeditor of the circulation section of the American Journal of Physiology and associate editor of the American Journal of Physiology: Heart and Circulatory Physiology. He also served as editor of the Handbook of Physiology, Vascular Smooth Muscle. David's work ethic was to be admired. John Faulkner, an internationally recognized muscle physiologist at Michigan once told me, "Clinton, I do not understand all the fuss about David's work ethic. For as long I have known him. he has only worked half days. Okay, he works 7 days a week. but it is . . .

192. Virginia Mary Sarah⁹ Lohr (Ernest Friedrich⁸, Amos Edward⁷, Anna Maria⁶ Bach, Philipp Jakob (Heinrich Philip)⁵, Philipp Jacob⁴, Johann Jacob³, Johann Jakob², Johannes Jacob¹) was born 18 Feb 1918 in Pittsfield Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 29 May 2007 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Earl Wayne Morgan 03 Feb 1946 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 14 Jun 1911.

Notes for Virginia Mary Sarah Lohr:

Morgan, Virginia M.S. Ann Arbor, Michigan, passed away following a rich life, at Hillside Terrace Assisted Living on May 29, 2007. She was 89. Virginia Mary Sarah Lohr was born on February 18, 1918 to Ernest and Phillippine (Bena) Lohr. They were a farming family of Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry who settled south of Ann Arbor during the mid 1800's. Her father, along with his father Amos farmed the land (good, bottom earth-as she used to say) until the farm was sold and 'Ernie' started the Ann Arbor Implement Store on First Street in Ann Arbor, which he ran, along with Bena until his death in 1955 whereupon his son, Paul Lohr, took it over.

Virginia led an idyllic childhood with her grandparents living on one side of the brick, Italianate farmhouse and she, her brother and parents on the other side. She would spend her days getting up early, reading her books including the bible, then saddle up her pony and tour the countryside visiting friends and cousins all the way to Saline and back. She attended the Mills one-room schoolhouse (formerly at the corner of Eisenhower and Saline Road) and was subsequently invited to attend University High school on U of M campus where she served as class secretary and excelled in drama and music. As a child, she was the first student in Ann Arbor of the renowned ballet mistress Madame Calliope Charisse and her brood of dancing daughters and sons. Nico Charisse would later marry dancer/movie star Cyd Charisse from whom Cyd acquired her stage name. Virginia had vivid memories of the dramatic Madame Charisse and her vivacious offspring and the experience left a great impression upon young Virginia. Yet, she claimed the ballet shoes hurt her feet so she concentrated instead on music. She loved music. Her mother, Bena, herself an accomplished piano teacher, would take her on the bus to Detroit for piano lessons. Later, Virginia learned to play the marimba/xylophone and dueted with a harpist. The duo performed extensively. After considering a career in music, she felt it not appropriate for the life of a young woman interested in someday marrying and having a family.

She opted, instead to pursue an education degree. Virginia received her bachelors in elementary education from Eastern Michigan University (Michigan Normal College at the time), taught for a while then returned to The University of Michigan and completed her Masters in Education. During this time she also taught summers at the Grosse Pointe Riding Academy where she instructed children in riding and swimming. World War II had broken out and Virginia, still a lover of dance, was a hostess of many USO dances held at the University. At one of these dances she met the dashing Earl 'Wayne' Morgan-a staff sergeant in the US Army studying at the Japanese Language School on campus. He returned to his training and they began a correspondence courtship. After the war, they married and soon settled down in Ann Arbor to raise a family. They eventually had four children-3 boys and a girl. When the youngest (Johnny) was school age Virginia--to help out their growing family (and pay for dental bills) began to substitute teach. She finally returned to fulltime teaching in the Willow Run School district and taught primarily third grade (her favorite age) where she remained for 30 years until retirement at age 70. Virginia, always a very religious woman, for years taught Sunday school at Zion Lutheran Church and was an active member in that same church.

After Wayne's retirement and subsequently Virginia's, she and Wayne built a swimming pool (to provide a fun meeting place for children and grandchildren). They had also begun to travel to Europe, which they did on several occasions. Virginia had become interested in genealogy and traced both her German and Wayne's English roots far back. Her detailed studies provided links to living relatives whom they met, visited and remained in communication with throughout their lives. Virginia enjoyed her home, neighbors and visits from children and grandchildren where her home was 'party central' to her own family of four plus seven grandchildren. Upon Wayne's passing in 2003, Virginia moved into Hillside Terrace Assisted Living where she met many friends, ran into some old ones and resided until her death.

She is survived by her brother Paul Lohr, his wife Madelyn, her children Scott, David (June), Jean (John Compton) and John (Mary); and grandchildren Jane, Nick, Jennifer, Caitlin, Tessa, Trevor and Clark as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was truly the family matriarch and will be greatly missed by her family and friends alike. Visitation will be on Sunday, June 3, from 2-8 p.m. at Muehlig Funeral Chapel on Fourth at William Streets. The funeral will take place on Monday, June 4 at 11 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church (chapel) on Liberty Street Private interment at Bethlehem Cemetery.

(contract via EnGenius Inc., Livonia, Michigan) - Automotive PCM Embedded Durability Test – The system consists of a test program that runs in a PCM while the module runs through a 1000 hour durability test. The program is a multi-tasking non-preemptive operating system and application. An external test system can send SCP, CAN and ISO-9141 message commands to the PCM to query for fault information and control 70 I/O lines.

- Designed/Implemented embedded durability test programs for PCMs based on 83C196 and ST10 microprocessors. Wrote drivers, I/O servers, and state machines.
- Designed/implemented protocol drivers for CAN, SCP and ISO-9141

- Repair Bay Subsystem - the repair bay technician uses the application access and update the database.
- Final Inspection Subsystem - is used to access the database and report the pass/fail status of the vehicle to the database.

Managed a software project to develop a Windows 2nd generation (EOL2) flat-file database

Supervised a group of four software engineers maintaining the subsystem applications

Btrieve database design and implementation (12 modules, 34 functions, 211K C source code)

Notes for Florence E. Johnson:

Florence Schmid, a resident of Wheaton, Illinois, went to be with the Lord on Monday, November 11, 2019. She was born December 25, 1932 in Chicago to Palmer and Marie Johnson. Florence grew up in the Roseland neighborhood, attended Chicago Christian High School, and later graduated from college with a B.A. in Communications. She returned to the Chicago area where she met and married Theophilus (Ted) Schmid III in 1957 at Bethany Reformed Church. Throughout their years together, they demonstrated a deep love for God, their family, and their local church.

God gifted Florence with creativity. This was evident in the beautiful home that she and Ted made with their five daughters. She delighted in celebrating birthdays, holidays, and everyday meals together. Lunchtime found the girls coming home from school for grilled cheese and dramatic readings of Little House on the Prairie and other classics. She worked for many years in radio drama, including at WMBI in Chicago. A favorite program she hosted was "The Listening Post," in which she made children's books come alive for a wider audience. In addition to radio drama, Florence did voiceover work and co-hosted the Focus on the Family radio program.

In 1967 Florence and Ted moved from Chicago to the western suburbs where they developed the family business—Schmid Pharmacy in Glen Ellyn. The pharmacy flourished and in 1976 they moved to a new space on Pennsylvania Avenue where Flo created a gift and antique section that made the store a destination for many community members. Customers fondly remember the homemade fudge and unique gifts. After Ted's death in 1988, Florence continued as owner of the store and valued her interactions with employees and customers for many years. In 1967 Florence and Ted became active members at College Church in Wheaton, where she taught God's Word in Women's Bible Study, made lifelong friends, and served in many capacities. She was a godly mother and grandma and enjoyed reading stories, attending games and plays, and encouraging each one in their varied pursuits. She restored the Schmid cottage in Wisconsin to accommodate her many grandchildren and foster family ties. Through the years she took every opportunity to share her love for the Lord Jesus and her own story of his forgiveness and faithfulness.

Florence is survived by her children, Laurel (Bruce) Aulie of Wheaton, Illinois, Becky (James) Cook of Wheaton, Lisa (David) Helm of Chicago, Amy (Jon) Dennis of Chicago and Julie (David) Sohmer of Wheaton. She is survived by her 27 grandchildren Karis (Israel) Vazquez, Melinda Aulie, Alegra Aulie, Caleb Aulie, Emma (Nate) Vogel, Sarah Cook, Rachel Cook, Theophilus Cook, Noah (Julie) Helm, Joanna (Ben) Panner, Baxter Helm, Silas Helm, Mariah Helm, Micah (Claire) Latimer-Dennis, Julia Dennis, Liza (John) Gemmel, Anna Dennis, Joshua Dennis, Hannah Sohmer, Lydia (Caleb) Krumsieg, Sam Sohmer, Chloe Sohmer, Theophilus Sohmer, Calvin Sohmer, Phoebe Sohmer, Josiah Sohmer, Selah Sohmer and 9 great-grandchildren: Nathan Vazquez, Olive Vazquez, Iria Vazquez, Anniah Vazquez, Noa Vazquez, Luke Helm, Piper Panner, Jeremiah Panner, and Levi Panner. She was preceded in death by her husband Ted, her brother, David Johnson, and her parents.

A memorial service will be held Monday, November 18, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. at College Church, 332 E. Seminary Avenue in Wheaton. Family and friends can greet the family from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. prior to the service and at a reception immediately following the service. Memorials may be directed to College Church, 332 E. Seminary Ave., Wheaton, Illinois 60187.

Notes for John Griffin Manske:

John Griffin Manske of The Villages, Florida, was called to eternal life on January 30, 2015, at the age of 69, with his family by his side. Born February 23, 1945, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, John was a lifelong resident of Kalamazoo before moving to The Villages with his wife Rosanne in 2010. An athlete in high school, he was on University High's 1963 state championship tennis and golf teams. He attended the University of Michigan, and continued to be a passionate UofM fan until the end. (Go Blue!) After graduating from Valparaiso University Law School, he became a highly regarded local attorney in Kalamazoo. After working as a partner at the law firms of Howard & Howard and Miller, Johnson, Snell & Commiskey, he served as general counsel for Portage and Kalamazoo Public Schools until he retired. An avid golfer, John loved spending time on the golf course and with friends at the Kalamazoo Country Club, where he served on the Board and as President in 1984. He brought his sweet golf swing with him to The Villages, where he and Rosanne enjoyed countless rounds of golf. He thrived in The Villages. He was a regular volunteer at the Wildwood Soup Kitchen, and he became very active at Hope Lutheran Church, serving on the church council and executive board for the past three years. John is fondly remembered as a role model, mentor, and rock for countless people who were fortunate to know him. He enjoyed socializing, engaging everyone nearby with his storytelling. He was always eager to offer his skills and expertise in any capacity to show kind help, counsel, and support.

A wonderful husband and father, John is survived by his wife of almost 42 years, Rosanne; his three children Jill, Julie, and Jay (and wife Gina); and three grandchildren Nathan, Sophia, and Vivian. He is also a beloved brother to Liz Skinner and Carol Quandt, and uncle to several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, February 7, at 11am at Hope Lutheran in The Villages, Florida.

John Manske, a longtime Kalamazoo labor lawyer best known for his work for Kalamazoo-area school districts, died Jan. 30 in Florida at age 69. Manske was recently diagnosed with bladder cancer that had metastasized to his liver, said his wife, Rosanne. She and John moved to The Villages in Florida after Manske's retirement in 2009. Skip Knowles, a school board member for Vicksburg and the Kalamazoo Regional Educational Service Agency, said Manske was well-known in the educational community. "We all used him" for legal matters, Knowles said, referring to Kalamazoo County school districts. "He was a good guy. He didn't give you just these legalese answers; he would explain" the rationale behind his advice.

"John's commitment to education was really significant," said James Harrington, who worked closely with Manske for years while Harrington was a school board member for Kalamazoo Public Schools. "The guidance he gave board members was invaluable." "He had a passion for education," said David Webster, a KRESA board member. "He will be missed."

A Kalamazoo native, Manske was born on Feb. 23, 1945, and was a 1963 graduate of a University High School, where he was on the school's state championship tennis and golf teams. He earned his bachelor's degree from University of Michigan and went to Valparaiso University Law School, where he met his future wife. Rosanne Manke recalled that she was selling mums for Valparaiso's Homecoming she first met Manske, who was accompanied by his date -- one of Rosanne's sorority sisters. He quickly broke off that relationship and began pursuing Rosanne, who kept declining his dates. After each refusal, he sent her flowers and "my dorm room began looking like a funeral parlor," she said. After a few months, she relented, and "we were engaged three months later." They had, she said, a wonderful life together, and would have celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary this year.

After law school, Manske returned to Kalamazoo, working as a partner at the law firms of Howard & Howard and Miller, Johnson, Snell & Commiskey. He specialized in working with governmental agencies on labor issues. In 1998, the Kalamazoo and Portage school districts hired Manske full time to work for them, and they split the cost of his salary, an arrangement that continued for 11 years until his retirement. At Manske's final KPS board meeting before his retirement, Superintendent Michael Rice wryly recalled dealing with Manske while Rice first got hired and Manske negotiated his contract. "John represented the district very well when I first met him," Rice said.

Manske and his wife had three children, Jill, Julie and Jay, and three grandchildren. He was a devoted husband and father, Rosanne Manske said. "Nothing pleased him more than to do things with his kids," Rosanne Manske said. "He loved going to U-M games with them." "He was our rock," she said. "He not only had advice for the public but for us, and he was almost always right." "He was so knowledgeable and had such a quick mind," she said. "He wanted to do what was right, and he was very compassionate. Anyone who needed advice, he was so willing to help them."

An avid golfer, Manske loved spending time on the golf course and with friends at the Kalamazoo Country Club, where he served on the board and as president in 1984. After his retirement to Florida, Manske volunteered at a local soup kitchen and became very involved with Hope Lutheran Church, serving on its executive board. There will not be a memorial service in Kalamazoo, but Saturday's service in Florida. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Wildwood Soup Kitchen or Hope Lutheran Church.

Notes for Rosanne Marie Kamnetz:

Rosanne Marie Kamnetz Manske of The Villages, Florida, was called to eternal life on July 2, 2017, at the age of 65. From her birth on August 29, 1951, in Cumberland, WI, to her final days, Rosanne will be fondly remembered for her exceptional kindness, optimism, generosity, faith, and ever-present smile. During her childhood, she loved spending time with her siblings and friends -- especially on the lake -- and was involved in many activities, including basketball and theater. After graduating as valedictorian, she spent some of her most cherished years attending Valparaiso University, where as a junior, she was voted Spring Queen. While at Valpo, she caught the eye of law student John Manske; the two were married soon after she graduated and moved to his hometown of Kalamazoo, Michigan, to begin their new life together. A full-time mom for many years, Rosanne made every day special for her children, who have wonderful memories of the birthday parties, family vacations, and holidays she planned -- her homemade Halloween costumes were unrivaled! Even as adults, she would welcome her kids home with handmade signs. She contributed to the Kalamazoo community in many ways, such as volunteering with the Junior League and in her children's schools. Her involvement with Zion Lutheran Church was very important to her: she played the organ and piano, was active in Stephen Ministry, and taught Sunday School. Rosanne's career as a second-grade teacher at Haverhill Elementary School was a perfect match for her curiosity, patience, and love of learning. Rosanne poured tireless energy into her work, and her legacy continues through the positive impact she made on the lives of many students, families, and colleagues. Upon their retirement in 2010, Rosanne and John moved to The Villages and thrived, having fun with many new friends and enjoying countless rounds of golf.

A beloved mother and grandmother, Rosanne is survived by her children, Jill, Julianne (Jake), and Jay (Gina), and grandchildren: Nathan, Sophia, Vivian, and Josephine. She is an adored sister of Stephen (Dianne), Brian, Jane, Gregg (Mary Beth), and Karen (Scot), and aunt to several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at Hope Lutheran Church in The Villages on Saturday, July 22 at 11am. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made in Rosanne's name to organizations that are meaningful to her.

225. Lenore Frances¹⁰ Roller (Ruth Elizabeth⁹ Bach, Ferdinand Theodor⁸, John Alfred⁷, Christian⁶, Philipp Jakob (Heinrich Philip)⁵, Philipp Jacob⁴, Johann Jacob³, Johann Jakob², Johannes Jacob¹) was born 12 Aug 1950 in Michigan. She married Donald Clark Oswald, Jr. 03 Feb 1973.

Marriage Notes for Lenore Roller and Donald Oswald:

Purple, lavender and pink carnations graced the altar of St. John's Lutheran Church for the wedding ceremony of Lenore Frances Roller and Donald Clark Oswald Jr. The Rev. A. J. Klopfer officiated at the ceremony Saturday afternoon Feb. 3, 1973 at 4:30 o'clock following a program of organ selections by Mrs. J. Paul Tritch. Miss Diane Groll of Toledo, sang "There Is Love" and "Wedding Prayer." Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Loren Roller, 1504 Arrowhead Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Oswald of Angleton, Texas.

Walking down the aisle with the bride were her mother and father. Her gown of maraten jersey was styled with long full sleeves and empire waistline. Beaded lace formed the wedding ring collar and marked the bodice front, waistline and cuffs. Her full-length mantilla was edged in the beaded lace, also and she carried white silk forget-me-nots, purple ferbabutts and white sweet peas arranged on a white prayer book. A friend of the bride, Miss Faith Ann Swanger of Florence, Alabama, was her maid of honor and her twin sisters, Jan and Joy Roller, were bride maid.

Gowns of the attendants were identical, of deep purple styled with ruffled cuff and hemlines. Their bouquets were of lavender and purple flowers arranged with deep purple veiling. They carried arrangements of assorted colored carnations, purple ferbabutts, pink roses and purple starflowers. Kenneth Oswald of Danbury, Texas, brother of the bride groom, was best man and another brother, Wayne Oswald, of Denver, Colorado, and Larry Roller, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, cousin of the bride, were ushers. Mrs. Roller chose a lavender double-knit floor-length gown for her daughter's wedding. She pinned white carnations and pink roses to her shoulder.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Elks Clubrooms for the reception. Beth Roller, Mary Lou Gremel, Linda Schepflin and Sharon Wilhelm were hostesses. The newlyweds plan a honeymoon later to Europe. They will reside in Angleton, Texas. Mrs. Oswald, a Ross High School graduate, until recently had been employed as a registered nurse at Denver Children's Hospital. Her husband, who attended Brazosport College, is employed by Dow Chemical Co. of Freeport, Texas.

227. Jan L.¹⁰ Roller, twin (Ruth Elizabeth⁹ Bach, Ferdinand Theodor⁸, John Alfred⁷, Christian⁶, Philipp Jakob (Heinrich Philip)⁵, Philipp Jacob⁴, Johann Jacob³, Johann Jakob², Johannes Jacob¹) was born 10 Aug 1954 in Michigan. She married David Thomas Abbott. He was born 23 Feb 1952.

Notes for Jan L. Roller, twin:

2013 - When Jan Roller's name circulated this year as a potential candidate for Cuyahoga County Executive, she had a rare combination of attributes going for her, but high name recognition among members of the public was not one of them. However, she was well known among the Democratic Party faithful and had the benefit of a recent appointment to a board seat on the Cleveland Cuyahoga County Port Authority. She also had a deep resume of campaigning for candidates and causes.

Her first campaign was in 1976, when she hit the trail in New Hampshire for Fred Harris, an Oklahoma senator who ran for president as a populist. A picture of Ms. Roller and President Barack Obama reflects her most recent choice for the nation's top job; she served as a delegate for the president at the 2008 Democratic National Convention.

Angela Shuckahosee, executive director of the Cleveland Tenants Organization, said she strongly urged Ms. Roller, a friend and neighbor in Cleveland's Edgewater neighborhood, to run for the county job for a simple reason. "I thought she'd be great," Ms. Shuckahosee said. "In her political work, civil work and neighborhood activity, she routinely navigates murky waters with ease. She leads through intelligence, depth of character and wisdom." Ms. Shuckahosee said Ms. Roller is well-known among politicians countywide and enjoys support from young women who often turn to her as a mentor to weather "male-dominated corporate antics."

Ms. Roller said the county job tempted her because she believes more women need to be represented at the table. However, she did not pursue it because she did not want to devote the next two years to campaigning and is more passionate about her long list of nonprofit and charitable activities. She is a past president of The City Club of Cleveland — the community's citadel of free speech — and now is working on tasks ranging from Near West Theatre's fundraising for a permanent home in Cleveland to serving on Planned Parenthood's new statewide board.

All those things are apart from how Ms. Roller is best known: as a take-no-prisoners defense lawyer, the first woman to become a partner at the Davis & Young law firm, which dates from 1922. She joined the firm when she returned to Cleveland in 1983 from trial-intensive jobs as an assistant county prosecutor in Massachusetts while her husband, David Abbott, attended Harvard Law School. "In Massachusetts, I was in the courtroom daily," she recalled, and when she was invited to join Davis & Young, it needed a litigator who could hit the ground running. She added, "Between November 1983 and November 1984, I had seven common pleas jury trials."

Today, Ms. Roller's peers describe her as a respected, hard-working trial lawyer and able advocate. Roger Synenberg, a litigator who once served as chairman of the Cuyahoga County Republican Party, describes Ms. Roller's advantage in the courtroom succinctly: "Experience, experience, experience." For her part, Ms. Roller said she finds trial work exciting and likens going into a trial to putting on a theatrical production. Liberal leanings and defense clients typically do not go together. Asked how she balances the two, Ms. Roller said she sees the law as an avenue to fairness and justice. She said she often tells juries if they award a judgment, to award what is fair and no more. Plaintiffs and their lawyers typically seek more than that, she said.

Ms. Roller said she might have become a teacher, but Mr. Abbott suggested she might enjoy the law. The two met in high school in Fremont, Ohio. They attended Denison University together on their way to becoming a Cleveland power couple; Mr. Abbott is executive director of the Gund Foundation. They have three grown sons, between ages 23 and 27, all working or attending school outside Northeast Ohio. Known as a mentor to younger women in finding work-life balance, Ms. Roller credits her ability to pursue her career and interests to shared values with Mr. Abbott and the help of their nanny. She also has a new goal in her legal career: She wants to serve as a mediator on an increasing basis.

Notes for David Thomas Abbott:

September 27, 2021 - As he retires as president of the George Gund Foundation at the end of the year, David Abbott will step into a new role in 2022 as the inaugural Distinguished Jurist in Residence at the Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Law school Co-Deans Jessica Berg and Michael Scharf announced the new post when they presented Abbott and his wife, Jan Roller, with the school's annual Humanitarian Award at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum. The event on Sept. 24 marked the university's 30th anniversary of the Frederick K. Cox International Law Center. With its Gund Foundation endowment, the Cox Center has emerged as a nationally ranked institution, whose work has been cited by international courts and nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize by an international prosecutor.

“The Cox Center was endowed with a gift from the Gund Foundation in 1991, so it’s fitting that we select the foundation’s former president—as well as an incredibly active member in our community—as our first Distinguished Jurist in Residence,” Berg said. Abbott boasts a storied career. He earned his law degree at Harvard University and a master’s degree at Columbia University. Before joining the Gund Foundation in 2003, Abbott served as president of University Circle Inc., executive director of the Rock Hall and executive director of the Cleveland Bicentennial Commission. Early in his career, Abbott worked as a reporter for The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His wife, Jan Roller (LAW ’79), who shared the Humanitarian Award, has also been a leading light in Cleveland, having served as chair of the Cleveland – Cuyahoga County Port Authority, president of The City Club of Cleveland, president of the Cleveland Bar Foundation, president of the Near West Theatre and a longtime board member of both the Refugee Response and Planned Parenthood. “Having David join the School of Law is a perfect fit,” Scharf said. “Our objective in establishing the Distinguished Jurist in Residence initiative is to bring a recently retired executive, judge or government official to campus each year to enrich student learning, aid in faculty development, advise the deans and engage with alumni.” As part of the new role at the law school, Abbott will serve as a special advisor to the deans. He also will be invited to join faculty on the platform at the law school’s commencement, lead a group discussion in his areas of expertise, followed by dinner with select faculty and students; he’ll also be assigned an office in the law school to be accessible to students. “It is a tremendous honor to join the School of Law in this capacity as its first Distinguished Jurist in Residence,” Abbott said. “Throughout my career, I’ve worked to make Cleveland, and our country, a better place to live. I look forward to continuing that work in this new role.”

She married Richard Stanwood Benner 24 Mar 1984 in Charlottesville, Virginia. He was born 22 Aug 1941, and died 07 Jun 2024 in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Notes for Richard Stanwood Benner:

Richard "Rick" Stanwood Benner, 82, passed away on June 7, 2024 in Charlottesville, Virginia, his beloved home of over 44 years. Rick was an exceptional person, and his long life was a great story, full of humor, kindness, many interesting characters, diverse chapters and much love.

Born in Springfield, Massachusetts on July 22, 1941, Rick was the son of Sarah Stone Benner and Allen Rogers Benner. He grew up in Massachusetts and Maine, developing an acute life-long devotion to the Red Sox as well as to competition and sports. He graduated high school from The Governor's Academy in Massachusetts where he was captain of the soccer, basketball, and baseball teams and went on to Amherst College where he was an All-New England soccer goalie and member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity, making many life-long friends. After graduation from college in 1964, Rick had a series of diverse jobs, including: teacher at Cardigan Mountain School in New Hampshire; sportswriter and columnist at Maryland News in Rockville; and community relations director at Union Hospital in Salem, Massachusetts. He also spent a memorable year in Europe with his first wife Pam teaching at the International Riviera School in Cannes, France. After these diverse professions, and with his love of people, Rick realized he could have the most impact as a career counselor. This became his life's work. He received a Masters' Degree in counseling from Salem College and went on to be the director of counseling and career planning at Hampden-Sydney College in Farmville, Virginia.

In 1980, Rick moved to Charlottesville to work as the coordinator of career planning for the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Virginia (UVA)'s Office of Career Planning and Placement and also worked in career development, coaching, and organizational development at UVA's Darden Business School, McIntire School of Commerce, and Office of Organizational Development and taught career planning and life transition classes and workshops at Piedmont Virginia Community College, Martha Jefferson Hospital, and for UVA alumni. While at UVA, he completed a study of students' job trajectories which resulted in his book Life After Liberal Arts, which confirms the value of a liberal arts education for career development.

"Ricky B", "RB", "Ralph", "Bean" and "Roo" as he was affectionately called, loved words. He loved to speak them through stories, to hear them sung (especially by Emmy Lou Harris, Paul Simon and the Beatles) and to write them in many notebooks with many mechanical pencils and pens. He was fiercely funny and his family and friends often enjoyed long rambling but brilliant emails and voicemails covering his latest thoughts. He wrote a column during his time as a journalist called 'A Word to the Wise' which explored word origins and linguistics. For years, he exchanged cassette tape recordings with dear friends to stay in touch. During his last years, he was pursuing Oral Life Stories, to capture in words people's journeys through life, often beginning with the question he liked to ask everyone, including strangers: "What brings you joy?" Ironically, Rick also loved silence. He read all the books of zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and was an avid meditator. As he struggled with health challenges, he used mindfulness for clarity and calmness and attended meditation retreats and classes throughout his adult life. He also encouraged many around him to practice mindfulness.

Most of all, Rick loved people. This was his joy. He loved his teammates, his fraternity brothers, his friends, and his family. He loved to connect, to make you laugh, and to beat you at games. He loved to enjoy food with people: hot dogs, ketchup, spaghetti, milkshakes, Reese's peanut butter cups, and he was not above squirting whipped cream directly from the can into his mouth. He was the proud father of three children: Holly, Tom, and Jack. Rick, also known as "Gampy" and "Dr Tickle", loved to play and was adored by his grandchildren Sage and Ansel. Throughout the years, he was a member of many groups to connect and enjoy people, including the 'Curse of the Bambino Society', the 'One Year to Live Group,' and 'Toastmasters.'

Rick would also want you to know that he was an ENFP in Myers-Briggs Personality Test, and would encourage you to take the test and to read the book, What Color is Your Parachute, so you could find your own joy and life's work.

He will be dearly missed and remembered by: his sister, Susan Benner Worthen of North Andover, Massachusetts; his daughter, Holly Welborn Benner, and her husband, Kevin Lewis Schwartz, of Amman, Jordan; his son, Thomas Bohr Benner, and his wife, Jing Tien, of Los Angeles, California; his son, Jack Allen Benner, of Ann Arbor, Michigan; his grandchildren, Sage Vivian Schwartz and Ansel Jackson Schwartz; his dear friend and mother of his sons, Ann Benner of Charlottesville; his extended family; and many great friends from throughout his life.

A memorial service to celebrate Rick's life will be held on August 3, 2024 at 3:00 p.m. at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Charlottesville at 717 Rugby Road. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Rivanna Trails Foundation where Rick loved to walk or Insight Meditation Community of Charlottesville.

He married Catherine ?.

Notes for Gary Dean Hutzell:

Gary Dean Hutzell (November 4, 1955 – March 1, 2016) was an American visual effects supervisor from Ann Arbor, Michigan who worked on the television series Star Trek: The Next Generation, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, and Battlestar Galactica, among others. He was nominated more than 20 times for Emmy Awards, winning on four occasions.

Gary Hutzell was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He studied mechanical engineering at the University of Michigan for a period, but decided that he wanted to pursue a career in films and moved to California, where he studied photography at the Brooks Institute. His first job in the industry was as a van driver for the commercial production house FilmFair. While there, he decided that he wanted to pursue visual effects.

His first visual effects job was as second assistant cameraman on the 1985 film Teen Wolf. He then began to freelance for CBS, working on The Twilight Zone. In 1986, he was recruited to work on the new Star Trek television series, Star Trek: The Next Generation as a visual effects coordinator. He continued to work on the show for the following five seasons, before moving to work on the spin-off series Star Trek: Deep Space Nine where he was the visual effects supervisor for all seven seasons. During his work on the Star Trek franchise, he worked on a great number of visual effects shots including the breakapart model of the Borg Cube seen in the two-part episode "The Best of Both Worlds", the design of the USS Defiant and the blending of old and new footage required for "Trials and Tribble-ations". He also produced renderings for several non-canon Star Trek novels, although he was known as being reluctant to use computer generated imagery and preferred to work with physical models where possible. Hutzel co-wrote The Magic of Tribbles: The Making of Star Trek Deep Space Nine – "Trials and Tribbles-ations" alongside Terry J. Erdmann and Paula M. Block. Following the end of Deep Space Nine, Hutzel worked on the film Red Planet and the Spy Kids franchise. He was hired by writer Ronald D. Moore to work on the rebooted Battlestar Galactica television series. Hutzel had worked with Moore on Deep Space Nine. In addition, Hutzel went on to work on the prequel to Battlestar Galactica, Caprica. He then worked as visual effects supervisor for the television series Defiance.

While working on the special effects for the Freeform television series Beyond on March 1, 2016, in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, he had a heart attack and died. Freeform released a statement saying "We are deeply saddened by the loss of our friend and colleague, Gary Hutzel. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and our 'Beyond' family". He had a wife, a daughter and two sons.

Gary Dean Hutzel (November 4, 1955 - March 1, 2016) Born in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Dean and Janet Hutzel, Gary grew up surrounded by faith, family, and the values of "do unto others as you would want them to do to you." This became his credo, and he lived by the Golden Rule in both his personal and professional life. Time and time again, it is always mentioned how Gary paved a path for many by recognizing their talent, which in turn allowed them to have careers, family, and a sense of accomplishment they believe they would not have had without knowing Gary. Accolades fill his shelves-four Emmys, and six Visual Effects Society awards-but he was not boastful. Most people upon meeting him would not know of his greatness. In Gary's mind, the work was paramount, not him. In his personal and professional life, Gary was an inspiration to all. Everyone he met benefited from his kind heart, keen eye, and the ability to allow you to be your best without any fear of rejection or reprisal. He was the epitome of a boss who led without threat or anger. Gentle and calm, he had the ability to diffuse tense situations and sooth egos without insult. People did not recognize those times when Gary got them to change their mind or attitude; they always thought they figured it out for themselves. He was a guiding light to the artists who worked with him. His own artistic talent showed through his ability to create alien worlds and landscapes that were unparalleled in television. Motion picture quality work was his standard, not the exception. Always a perfectionist, he set the bar very high on all projects, even the smallest. Everyone will miss his amazing sense of humor and his ability to turn any terrible situation into a beautiful one.

Survived by his wife Catherine and their three children (William, Andrew, and Frances) Gary's legacy will live on through them. Gary truly made the world a better place and he will be dearly missed. Memorial services are planned for March 19, at 2:15 p.m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Newhall, California. A reception will follow.

- 348 i. William¹¹ Hutzel.
- 349 ii. Andrew Hutzel.
- 350 iii. Frances Hutzel.

Notes for Baxter Helm:

Baxter Helm - grew up on the South Side of Chicago in the Hyde Park neighborhood. He is an avid Chicago sports fan, and his first job was with the Chicago White Sox as an usher. He completed his B.A. in Business / Economics at Wheaton College and worked in the asset management industry for over five years before pursuing a full-time program through the Charles Simeon Trust called "The Chicago Course on Preaching." The summer of 2021, he joined College Church as High School Pastor. Baxter loves to preach God's word to himself and to others.

Baxter is married to his best friend, Kelsie. They enjoy live music, exploring restaurants, lawn games, and laughing together with family, friends, and students. They have a deep love for those in their high school years and were transformed during their own high school years as part of the local church.

Baxter Helm - My wife, Kelsie, and I are especially excited to be candidating at College Church for the role of Senior High School Pastor. It's been a privilege to be a part of this process and we have been encouraged by the gospel work currently happening at College Church. Ironically, this church has played an important role in my life from the very beginning. I was the first boy baptized in the new sanctuary at College Church. My mom, Lisa (Schmid) Helm grew up in this church, daughter of Ted and Florence Schmid, and my dad, David Helm, served on staff for many years. They, along with my Uncle Jon and Aunt Amy (Schmid) Dennis, were sent out as College Church's first church plant, Holy Trinity Church in Chicago. Presently my sister Joanna is serving in the college ministry along with her husband Ben, who is the College Pastor. I'm incredibly grateful for the faithful legacy of this church and the impact it has had on me and my family for many years.

The Lord put the work of church ministry on my heart at a young age. I was active in my own high school youth group as a student leader while at Holy Trinity. I also served on the student leadership team in the College Ministry at College Church while at Wheaton College, majoring in business/economics and minoring in Bible and theology. Following my undergrad years, I joined a team that was newly developed at PT Asset Management. I worked there for five and a half years as a wholesaler, covering clients across the country, and later as the manager of the internal wholesaling team. I was fortunate to learn and grow in that professional environment for many years.

In 2015 I committed to Holy Trinity's church plant in the Pilsen neighborhood. Since then I have served as an Elder, a community group leader, on the worship team, and as a member of the preaching team. After a season of prayer, Kelsie and I believed the Lord was calling us into full-time ministry work. I left my job last year and have been in a full-time ministry training program called "The Chicago Course on Preaching" through The Charles Simeon Trust. The program equips pastors and ministry leaders in rightly handling and teaching God's word. During this time, I've grown in my conviction for biblical exposition and have been given the regular opportunity to preach. I hope to use these tools for years to come, that students might cultivate a deeper love for God's word. One way I enjoy personally connecting with the Lord is through creating music. I love playing guitar and piano. I find much joy in "singing a new song to the Lord" as Psalm 96:1 says. I hope to find avenues to continue to encourage the hearts of students through writing music alongside them for us to sing corporately.

Kelsie and I met at Holy Trinity Church in Pilsen when she moved to Chicago after graduating from Taylor University. She enrolled in a graduate program and received a degree in clinical counseling and art therapy. She currently works in community mental health in the city of Chicago. We were married in December of 2019, it was a great day! She is my best friend, the one I love to laugh with, and my teammate for life. We enjoy exploring new restaurants, museum exhibits, and any live music events. I am a big Chicago sports fan, namely the Bulls and a certain baseball team on the south-side of Chicago, which I have been advised not to talk about that much during my candidacy. I hope to get to know many of you and labor alongside you in the gospel work at College Church.

Child of Baxter Helm and Kelsie Collins is:

401 i. Eden¹² Helm, born Mar 2024.

372. Joanna¹¹ Helm (Lisa A.¹⁰ Schmid, Theophilus⁹, Theophilus⁸, Sarah Elisabeth⁷ Hutzel, Louise⁶ Bach, Philipp Jakob (Heinrich Philip)⁵, Philipp Jacob⁴, Johann Jacob³, Johann Jakob², Johannes Jacob¹) was born 12 Dec 1990. She married Ben Panner.

Notes for Ben Panner:

Ben Panner - moved to Chicago to take on the role of Director of Workshops for the Charles Simeon Trust. Prior to this, he served in pastoral ministry at College Church in Wheaton for 12 years. He has a heart for training others to rightly handle the Bible. He will assist Pastor Helm to provide this kind of practical training for the men of Christ Church Chicago. He and his wife Joanna love life in the city with their five children.

Ben Panner became the Director of Workshops in 2024. Before joining the Trust, he spent 12 years serving as a pastor at College Church in Wheaton, IL (2012-2024). After earning a Bachelor's in Business and Economics and a Master's in Christian Formation and Ministry from Wheaton College, he continued his theological training by completing an MDiv through Reformed Theological Seminary. In 2024, he was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America. He has been a Workshop Instructor for the Simeon Trust since 2018. As the Director of Workshops, Ben will continue to instruct, train instructors, and work with a great team to coordinate workshops around the globe. Ben and his wife Joanna are enjoying the fullness of life with five young kids: Piper, Jeremiah, Levi, Simeon, and Seth.

Hall of Honor in 2024 Wheaton High School - Ben Panner was one of the most effective and productive players for the Wheaton men's basketball team, starting all 114 games he played for the Thunder over four years. He ranks fifteenth on the all-time Wheaton career scoring list with 1,499 points. He is seventh with 179 career three-pointers, and twelfth with 282 career assists. He was a D3hoops.com All-American his senior year following the 2008-2009 season, helping lead Wheaton to the Division III Tournament for the third-consecutive year. In addition, he was selected as a second-team All-Midwest Region by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and a Third Team regional selection by D3Hoops.com.

Considering life-lessons he learned while at Wheaton, Ben writes, "My time at Wheaton developed a love for cultivating a team culture. Learning to serve one another, and pursue a unified goal was life-changing. I have leaned on my experience learned from Coach Harris and Coach Schauer about how to invest and develop a unified team culture." When asked to describe a particularly meaningful athletic memory, Ben writes, "In 2009, Wheaton basketball secured the CCIW regular season championship in front of a packed King Arena. This led to two more victories at home to win the conference tournament. We were able to play in the first three rounds of the NCAA tournament in front of a packed home crowd. We had a heart-breaking loss to the eventual champion, Washington University, in the Sweet 16, but that stretch of games, from the end of the regular season to the Sweet Sixteen, was one of the most memorable times in my athletic memory." Ben graduated with a degree in Business/Economics, then earned a master's degree in Christian Formation and Ministry from Wheaton Graduate School, then an MDiv from Reformed Theological Seminary. Earlier this year, he was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America. He is currently Director of Workshops for the Charles Simeon Trust, an organization training Biblical expositors worldwide. Ben and his wife Joanna have five children, ages three to nine: Seth, Simeon, Levi, Jeremiah, and Piper.
