Notes for Charles William Dotterer:

Harper, Kansas, August 20, 1914 - Harper people were shocked yesterday August 19, 1914 when the news reached town that Charles Dotterer had been run into and killed by the south bound Orient passenger train at a crossing one mile north east of town. Mr. Dotterer had been in the country and was returning home He was driving a team hitched to a low wheeled wagon. The accident occurred at the crossing west of Dan Billig's farm. At this point a clear sight of the track can be had for nearly a mile both ways and no one knows how the train happened to hit him. The team had crossed the track and the engine evidently hit the wagon squarely. Mr. Dotterer was thrown several feet and death resulted instantly from a deep hole in the right side of his head. It was the only mark on him. The wagon was completely demolished but the horses were unhurt.

The train crew brought the body to the Orient depot and the county officials were at once summoned. Judge Rowell held an inquest but it is not completed as he wishes to give the engineer and fireman a hearing and this cannot be done until this evening. Mr. Dotterer was hard of hearing and it is believed that he did not hear the warning of the whistle or see the train until it hit him. His death is a particularly, sad one, and doubly so as only two years ago his wife was killed by being thrown from a buggy when the horse, she and her husband were driving became frightened. Mr. Dotterer was nearing seventy years of age. He was born in Germany and came to this country when only six years of age. He has been a resident of Harper county for the past twenty-six years.

Harper, Kansas, September 12, 1914 - Charles R. Dotterer was born in Ohio over 43 years ago. In 1882 he with his parents moved to Rice Co., Kansas where they lived until 1889 when they came to this county and settled on a farm north west of town in Grant Township. Here he grew to manhood and remained until a little over two years ago, when he went to Holly, Colorado which place was his home for the remainder of his life. Not long after taking up his residence in Colorado he became troubled with a mental affliction that gradually clouded his mind. Medical skill of the highest order was consulted but to no avail. At last it became necessary to remove him to a Sanitarium at Pueblo, Colorado, where he lingered on till Sunday, September 8, 1918, when death came.

The remains were sent to this place, and arrived on Tuesday, September 10. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church at his place where a large number of friends and relatives gathered to pay the last tribute to the dead. Rev. Von Schrittz delivered a short discourse upon the character of the deceased and spoke of the Christian life with its hopes of life eternal and he solace given to those who mourn that loved ones departed shall be met over yonder. Beautiful (and suitable music was rendered by the choir. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery here.

He married Miss Roberts in 1904 to this union were born one child, a daughter. Both of them survive him. He also left four brothers, Daniel and Edward of Burlington, Oklahoma, Andrew of Stafford, Kansas and Theophilus of this place, and five sisters, Mrs. F. A. Maninger, Mrs. L. D. Renollet and Mrs. Ernest Bear of this place and Mrs. Joseph Smith and Miss Bertha Dotterer of Goodwell, Oklahoma. All were present at the funeral.

A few years ago he was converted and ever afterwards lived the consistent Christian life. By the death Charles Dotterer there has been removed a good father, husband and neighbor. He was quiet, unobtrusive, very sincere in his friendship, and very honest. There are many here who will mourn his departure and cherish a recollection of him and his sterling qualities.

Notes for John Henry Cline:

John Henry Cline educational advantages were somewhat limited, for he began helping his father, farming and lumbering, at an early age. After attaining his majority he "cropped" on his father's farm for five years, and then bought the Jacob Sides farm (later selling it to his son Harry A. Cline). Buying the Robinson gristmill in W. Wheatfield he also operated that for a time, and then bought 800 acres of timber land, embarking in the lumber business quite extensively in his own and surrounding townships. During this time he made his home wherever it was convenient, mostly in Burrell and W. Wheatfield Townships.

He has continued to deal in timber lands ever since, buying the land, cutting off the timber, and reselling, and has also dealt largely in other real estate, being notable shred buyer. He assisted in laying out the borough of Farrell, in Hickory Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, built many houses there and had his own home there for a while, but he preferred his native township. And in 1890 returned to W. Wheatfield Township, buying a farm of 135 acres where he resumed agricultural pursuits. He still manages the cultivation of that place in addition to looking after his real estate and timber interests. There are two rich veins of coal underlying the property. Mr. Cline is a self-made man, and all the success that has come to him is well deserved, for he has worked hard to make his ventures profitable, and all his advancement is due to his own efforts.

Indiana County, Pennsylvania, Her People, Past and Present" by Prof. J. T. Stewart:

John Henry Cline is one of the notable successful men of his section, engaged in farming, lumbering, milling, dealing, in timber land and general real estate transactions, and though he has now relinquished arduous labor he retains many important interests and continues his business activities.

Mr. Cline belongs to an old family of West Wheatfield Township, founded here almost a century ago by his grandfather, Samuel Cline, who was born in York County, Pennsylvania, where he passed the first part of his life, his family being born there. Moving to is now West Wheatfield Indiana County, Pennsylvania, he lived there among the pioneers for a number of years, later moving to Greenville, Ohio, where he died. His children were: Andrew, Henry, Samuel, and Kate, who married George Fulcomber and had children, George, Samuel, (who followed farming in West Wheatfield Township all his life) and John. Andrew Cline, son of Samuel, was born in 1806, in York County, Pennsylvania, and came to West Wheatfield Township with his parents in the year 1820. After working with his father for some time he rented a farm and began on his own account, this being the place owned by grandfather Sides. He was a tenant there until he bought the property, which consisted of over 238 acres, part of which he cleared and all of which he improved, in addition to general farming carrying on stock raising, making a specialty of hogs and fine horses. Mr. Cline was a man of good education, in both German and English, and he also had exceptional business ability, which, combined with his thrifty and industrious habits, brought him unusual success. His methodical management and intelligent care made his farm one of the best kept in the vicinity.

Mr. Cline married Elizabeth Sides, who was a daughter of Adam Sides, and four children were born to them: (1) Samuel, born May 18, 1830, died March 2, 1908, On September 27, 1860, he married Lydia Walbeck, who was born December 19, 1830, and died July 30, 1885. Their children were: Armenta Elizabeth, born July 16, 1861, married John Mabon; Anna Theresa, born September 27, 1862, married Joseph M. Mack; Andrew Curtis, born March 29, 1865, died April 6, 1866; Sarah Matilda, born October 15, 1867, married Harry H. Mack, Nora Eveline, born March 29, 1870, married John F. St. Clair, of West Wheatfield Township, who is employed as pure food inspector by the State of Pennsylvania. (2) William died in infancy. (3) Anna, married Harry Penrose, of West Wheatfield Township, and their children are: Andrew, Mary, John, Elizabeth, Joseph, Lloyd, Albert, Emory, and Charles. (4) John Henry is mentioned below. The father of this family died May 30, 1876, the mother died in 1886. He was one of the founders of the German Lutheran Church in West Wheatfield Township, served that congregation as elder for many years and was always a liberal contributor to its support. He and his wife are buried in the Lutheran cemetery there. They were held in affectionate regards by all who know them.

John Henry Cline was born June 29, 1839, in West Wheatfield Township, and there attended the Lynn school. But his educational advantages were somewhat limited, for he began helping his father, farming and lumbering, at an early age. After attaining his majority he "cropped" on his father's farm for five years, and then bought the Jacob Sides farm of 173 acres (which he later sold to his son Harry A. Cline). Buying the Robinson gristmill in West Wheatfield he also operated that for a time, and then bought eight hundred acres of timber land, embarking in the lumber business quite extensively in his own and surrounding townships. During this time he made his home wherever it was convenient, mostly in Burrell and West Wheatfield Townships. He has continued to deal in timber lands ever since, buying the land, cutting off the timber, and reselling, and has also dealt largely in other real estate, being a notable shrewd buyer. He assisted in laying out the borough of Farrell, in Hickory Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, built many houses there and had his own home there for a while, but he preferred his native township. and in 1890 returned to West Wheatfield Township, buying a farm of 135 acres where he resumed agricultural pursuits. He still manages the cultivation of that place in addition to looking after his real estate and timber interests. There are two rich veins of coal underlying this property. Mr. Cline is a self-made man, and all the success that has come to him is well deserved, for he has worked hard to make his ventures profitable, and all his advancement is due to his own efforts.

On April 26, 1866, Cline was married to Evelin Livengood, who was born September 20, 1848, daughter of Henry and Mary Ann (Willits) Livengood, of Derry township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and they have had a family of twelve children, namely: (1) Clark, born February 7, 1868, now in the lumber business in West Wheatfield Township, married Myrtle Robinson and they have a son, Clark. (2) Harry A. is mentioned below. (3) Joseph Wilmer, born July 29, 1871, was killed with a shotgun November 4, 1907, in West Wheatfield Township, and his body was not found until five days afterward. He was in the lumber business and ran several sawmills, and having just sold his sawmill to his brother Harry had a large amount of money with him when murdered. His slayer, Emanuel Betz, was convicted and is now serving a twenty years' term. Mr. Cline was one of the well-known young business men of his section. (4) Annie, born May 9 1873, married Charles Rashon, an optician, of Johnstown, Pa., and has three children, Russell, Allen, and Hazel. (5) Frank, born August 9, 1875, is working at home on the farm. (6) Alice, born April 29, 1877, married Andrew J. Riddle, and died in 1899, and is buried in the Lutheran cemetery in West Wheatfield Township. (7) John, born March 28, 1879, died in 1898. (8) Garfield, born September 24 1880, now: residing in St. Clair Township, Westmoreland County, where he conducts a sawmill, married Sarah George. (9) Charles, born October 21, 1884, married Ida Pickles and resides at Bolivar, Westmoreland County, where he superintends the planning mill of his brother Harry A. Cline. (10) Daisy, born October 26, 1887, is at home. (11) Jessie Hazel, born March 3, 1892, married Robert Black and resides at Strangford, Indiana County. (12) George Homer, born October 31, 1889, living at home is engaged in the lumber business and also owns a saw mill.

Mr. Cline is a member of the Lutheran Church, which he serves as trustee. In politics he was originally a Whig, but long ago joined the ranks of a Republican party, though he is independent in supporting whatever men or measures he most approves.

Harry A. Cline, second son of John Harry Cline, was born July 13, 1869, in West Wheatfield Township, and there attended common school. Working with his parents until he reached his majority, he then bought his father's farm of 173 acres, and for a time devoted himself entirely to farming. Then he became interested in the lumber business, also running three steam sawmills, and he has continued to enlarge the volume and scope of his various interests until he now has one hundred men in his employ.

He owns and operates several up-to-date threshing machines, has over forty horses and does teaming, and is also successful merchant, owning a large general store at Bolivar. He has continued his speculations in timber lands, of which he has become an excellent judge, and the system with which the different interests are managed shows him to be a versatile and thorough business man, alive to the possibilities of the various lines he has entered and capable of developing them.

Mr. Cline was married May 20, 1894, to Elizabeth Griffith, daughter of James L. and Phebe (Myers)

Griffith, of New Florence, Pennsylvania. They have had children as follows: John Lewis, Phebe Eveline, Myrtle Armeta, Theresa Virginia, Andrew Scott, Lillie Marie, Harry Curtis, and Ida Elizabeth.

Notes for Joseph Wilmore Cline:

From Indiana Evening Gazette - Indiana Pennsylvania - November 11, 1907:

"William Cline of Bolivar, Pennsylvania, Victim of Atrocious Murder and Battered corpse lay in field, where it was found after search of several days"

Victim had sold sawmill for cash and was returning him with the money. Johnstown, Pennsylvania, November 11 - Badly mutilated and showing evidence of having been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten, the body of William Cline of Bolivar, Westmoreland Co, was found a short distance from that town in a field. He had been murdered and robbed of a large sum of money.

Two weeks ago Cline sold a large sawmill he operated about three miles from Bolivar, obtaining the price in cash. He started at once to walk to the residence of relatives in Bolivar with the cash in his pockets and that was the last that he was seen alive. Although a vigorous search had been prosecuted for the man it was unsuccessful notwithstanding that the remains lay in a field near a public highway during that time.

There is no clue to the murderer.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (November 13, 1907) REWARD IS OFFERED FOR CLINE'S SLAYER Father of Bolivar Lumbermen Will Aid in Search for Murderer DETECTIVE NEAL AT INQUEST

County Detective Josiah Neal returned yesterday from near Bolivar, where he had attended the inquest held over the body of Joseph Wilmore Cline, who was shot down on Nov. 4. The authorities have no clue to the murderer, although a man of questionable reputation in that section is being watched.

John H. Cline, father of the dead man, has offered a reward of $50 for the arrest of the murderer. He is a well-known lumberman and says he will assist financially in running down the man who waylaid his son. Detective Neal will present the facts in the murder to the County Commissioners and they may offer a reward. One of the chief witnesses heard at the inquest held on Monday by 'Squire John Houston in the German schoolhouse, was Mrs. Robert Mack, of West Wheatfield township. From her home overlooking the valley, she testified on the forenoon of Nov. 4 she had heard at least seven or eight shots fired in fairly rapid succession. Upon hearing the first shot, she looked in the direction of the sound and saw two men fighting. Later she observed one of the men attack the other with stones. When she told Mr. Mack of the strange happenings he said several hunter had evidently quarreled, and the subject was dropped.

William Felton, of Pitcairn, was another witness. He was visiting relatives in that section last week and on Friday went hunting in one of the Cline Farms. He told the jury of his party discovering a badly mutilated body in an open field under a locust tree and their recognizing the remains as those of Joseph Cline, a neighbor. The father was then notified. Up to that time he believed his son was in South Sharon as he had left home on Nov. 4 saying he intended looking after business interests there.

The dead man was aged 34 years and was regarded as one of the most prominent residents of that section. Some weeks ago he sold a sawmill near there and it is thought by the officers that the man who committed the murder had robbery as a motive. The dead man had a large sum in his possession when he was waylaid and this is missing. Cline was a powerful man and from indications put up a terrific struggle before the murderer shot him to pieces.

Cline is survived by five brothers and three sisters, besides his father already named.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania - December 7, 1907: Garfield Youth Mixed Up in Disappearance of Broken Shot Gun, Placed in Jail to Answer for William Cline's Death

Three or four who seemed to have suddenly secured a surplus of funds were watched, and rumors of probable arrests became general. One of the suspects was Emanuel Betts, who recently quit a job on the railroad.

The search for Betts' possible part in the Cline murder soon developed that on the day of Cline's disappearance, Emanuel Betts had borrowed a shot gun from his brother, Robert, announcing that he was going hunting. The next day Emanuel did not return the gun, and upon being asked about it by his brother, first said he had left it at home. He admitted that the gun was broken, saying he had fallen with it. This story reached the detectives through a cousin of Cline, who had learned it from Robert Betts.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (December 7, 1907) Chain of Evidence About Betts Caused His Arrest for Murder Garfield Youth Mixed Up in Disappearance of Broken Shot Gun, Placed in Jail to Answer for Wm. Cline's Death

One of the promised arrests in the William Cline murder was made at Garfield on Friday, the prisoner being Emanuel Betts, a robust youth aged nineteen, who is a brother of an exconstable in West Wheatfield Township. Betts was brought to Indiana Friday night by County Detective Josiah Neal and Officer Stiffler, of town, and a detective from Pittsburg, the accused being handcuffed to the local officers during the ride from Bolivar to Indiana. The arrest of Betts had been expected for some days and is the result of the public's having heard of a dispute Betts is alleged to have had with a brother. Betts was arrested Friday forenoon and during the remainder of the day the excitement ran high in Bolivar. When the party left there platforms in the vicinity of the depot were thronged with people. The trip to and arrival at Indiana were uneventful.

A few persons were attracted to the office of Squire James A. Crossman, when they saw the quartette going there. An information charging murder was read to Betts and he was asked if he wished to have or to waive a preliminary hearing. He replied that he desired an early hearing, but had nothing further to say. Sheriff Wetling was then given custody of the prisoner and told to present him at a hearing at the Justice's office on Dec. 19.

The murder of William Cline occurred on the Cline farm, near Germany Church, on the forenoon of Nov. 4. Cline had sold a sawmill and was making the rounds of his brothers preparatory to starting on a business trip to Sharon that day. While passing a bit of woodland he was shot several times from ambush. Although desperately wounded, Cline did not fall at once but rushed toward the man who had attacked him. A hand-to-hand struggle followed, Cline being killed by blows over the head from stones or other blunt instrument. His body was found a week later by John Felton and Clint Wakefield, who were hunting. As Cline had carried about $300 the day he was murdered, his near relatives, all of whom are well-to-do, decided that robbery had been the motive.

In working out this line, detectives from the G. B. Perkins agency, of Pittsburg, who were employed by Cline's father, John Cline, soon invaded the township and looked into the habits of a number of young men.

Three or four who seemed to have suddenly secured a surplus of funds were watched, and rumors of probable arrests became general. One of these suspects was Emanuel Betts, who had recently quit a job on the railroad.

The search for Betts' possible part in the Cline murder soon developed that on the day of Cline's disappearance, Emanuel Betts had borrowed a shot gun from his brother, Robert, announcing that he was going hunting. The next day Emanuel did not return the gun, and upon being asked about it by his brother, first said he had left it at home. Then he admitted that the gun was broken, saying he had fallen with it. This story reached the detectives through a cousin of Cline, who had learned it from Robert Betts.

The Perkins men also found that Emanuel Betts had taken the broken gun to the works at the pumping station at Roaring Run, near Garfield, and there trace of the weapon was lost. It is believed, however, that the gun was later thrown in the Conemaugh River.

That Betts had spent the night of Nov. 4 at the pumping station was evident from the fact that he and his brother Jesse went from there to Bolivar on the forenoon of Nov. 5, election day. The officers say that if Emanuel killed Cline, he tramped over the hills of Chestnut Ridge all that afternoon to the pumping station on the West Penn tracks.

Following the arrest of Emanuel Betts, Robert Betts and Mrs. Jesse Betts were apprehended. Jessie Betts was taken into custody on stepping off the evening train on his way up from the water works. Jesse Betts and wife and also Robert Betts were given a hearing before Justice McHale, of Bolivar, and were warned to hold themselves in readiness to appear as witnesses. Jesse was discharged on the count of being an accessory to the crime. Daniel Betts, father of the suspected youth, is a Civil War veteran and resides in Bolivar.

Detective Neal returned to Bolivar today to secure additional witnesses. One of those who will appear against Betts is Mrs. Robert Mack, who testified at an inquest that on Nov. 4 had observed a quarrel between two men near the scene of the Cline murder.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (December 11, 1907) DIS-INTERRED CLINE'S BODY
Coroner Gates Performed Post Mortem on Murdered Man.

Coroner W. D. Gates is in Bolivar today holding a post-mortem on the body of William Cline, who was murdered on Nov. 4. The coroner is doing this so as to secure evidence desired by District Attorney Feit, and Judge Telford on Tuesday issued an order permitting the disinterment of Cline's body. It will be remembered that Cline's body was not found until a week after his death. At an inquest held by 'Squire Houston, of Garfield, acting for Coroner Gates, witnesses testified that Cline had been shot a number of times and had also been struck on the temple with a blunt instrument.

District Attorney Feit in order to present his case against Emanuel Betts, now in jail here charged with Cline's murder, decided he should know more about these wounds. He also wished to learn whether the gunshot wounds came from a rifle, revolver or shotgun.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (December 14, 1907) COMPLICATES CLINE CASE

Since He Was Shot by a Revolver Prosecution Needs Evidence. Coroner W. D. Gates found at his post-mortem examination of the body of William Cline at Bolivar on Wednesday that the murdered man had been shot with both a revolver and shot gun.. The bullet from the revolver entered Cline's head near the left eye It will be remembered that the chief clue connecting Emanuel Betts with the Cline murder rests on the alleged disappearance of broken shot gun.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (December 18, 1907) BETTS HEARING GOES ONER
UNTIL TUESDAY Interested Attorneys Desired More Time in Order to Prepare Their Evidence REVOLVER AND GUN FIGURE

'Squire James A. Crossman has postponed the hearing in the murder case against Emanuel Betts from today until next Tuesday, the postponement being made in order to allow District Attorney Feit and Attorneys J. N. and William Banks, counsel for Betts, more time in which to secure evidence as the barristers have kept busy at court during the past few days.

According to interested parties no more arrests are expected as the prosecution believes it has a strong case against the young Betts. Their charges are built around a revolver found in Betts' possession when he was arrested and a broken shot gun said to have been thrown into the Conemaugh River shortly after Cline's death on Nov. 4.

The post-mortem held by Coroner Gates last Wednesday revealed that Cline had been shot in the left eye with a 32 caliber revolver, this being the kind of weapon found on Betts, and that Cline had also received a charge of buckshot in his back.

It is presumed the dead lumber dealer was first shot in the back and then when wounded was shot in with the revolver. As the scene of the murder indicated that a struggle had occurred and as Cline had been felled through the use of some blunt instrument it is figured that a shot gun was used to beat the wounded man.

Jesse Betts, Emanuel's younger brother, is out under bail as a witness, it being charged that he advised Emanuel to dispose of the broken fowlingpiece. From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (December 24, 1907)

Damaging Testimony Against Young Betts Man Accused of Cline Murder Near Bolivar Was Given a Hearing Before Justice Crossman Today.

Before a crowd that filled the room, Justice James A. Crossman this afternoon head damaging testimony against young Emanuel Betts, the alleged slayer of William Cline, of Bolivar. One of the chief witnesses was Robert Betts, a brother of the defendant. The hearing was for the purpose of deciding whether Betts should be held for court. District Attorney Feit conducted the investigation. He was assisted by Attorney Samuel Cunningham. Attorney John N. Banks was counsel for Betts, being assisted by his son, William Banks, Esq. The latter objected to a number of Mr. Feit's questions but was frequently overruled by the justice. He continually said Mr. Feit was conducting a "pumping expedition."

Coroner W. D. Gates, who held a postmortem over the remains of Cline, was the first witness. He said Cline had received a blow over the temple from some blunt instrument, which he believes was not a stone. Cline had been shot at close range with a revolver, probably of 32 caliber. The bullet entered the right eye, passed through the head and came out below the left ear, the course of the bullet indicating that the man who shot Cline stood above him when he fired the pistol.

Dr. Gates said a blow from the butt of a gun would have felled Cline, but would not have rendered him unconscious at once. Asked if it would have caused death, he replied in the affirmative, unless the patient had been removed to a hospital and had received excellent care.

Regarding the shot found in all parts of Cline's back and legs, the witness said they came from a shot gun fired some distance away. He said the charges of shoe would not have caused death. Witness also believed several shots have been fired.

William Felton, of Pitcairn, and his cousins, J. C. and H. C. Wakefield, were hunting on Harry Cline's farm in West Wheatfield Township on Nov. 9, when Felton found the body of William Cline, a brother of Harry. The remains were about 600 yards from the Cline home and twenty feet from a lane leading to it. The body was lying covered in elder bushes and golden rod and would not have been seen from the lane.

Felton helped carry the body to the Cline home and was also there the next day. He said probably 250 No. 6 shot were lodged in Cline's body and that it took two or three loads to produce this result. Loose shot rolled from Cline's shoes when they were removed.

Robert Betts was the next witness. The young man was affected his being called as a witness and took some time in giving his answers. His testimony is summed as follows: On Nov. 1 Emanuel Betts asked the witness for the use of his gun. Later the witness's wife said Emanuel had secured the gun. One week later Robert met Emanuel on the streets in Garfield and asked for the gun. Emanuel said the weapon was at the pump house, one mile from Garfield. Emanuel promised to return the fowling piece, but failed to do so and some days later Robert went to the pump house. The gun was not there and witness could not locate it in the cupboard or other such places.

Upon returning to Garfield, Robert Betts met Emanuel at Fisher's store and was again told the gun was at the pumping station. The witness replied, "It was, like the devil." Emanuel then said that if witness would accompany him home he would secure the gun there. On the way to Emanuel's home he told Robert he had fallen on the gun and had broken it. Clarence Johns was with him at the time. He said the pieces were at the pump house.

Two days later Robert again went to the pump house to "See whether his brother Jesse, who works there, had the gun." This time it was found lying on a bench. The stock was broken near where the connection is made back of the barrel. New scars and scratches were noted on the stock and something that Jesse pronounced blood was visible near the outer end of the barrel. The witness said he believed the marks near the sight came from new mud. As the gun was no longer of use he left it at the pump house.

During this evidence Robert also said the gun had previously been broken at the stock but the he had fastened it together. On cross examination Robert told Attorney Banks that Emanuel was careless during his hunting trips and had fallen and broken two other guns. To District Attorney Feit, the witness then said the fowling piece could also have been broken if it had been used to strike a blow.

Just previous to this the prosecuting attorneys played one of their best cards when they finally induced Robert to say that Emanuel had given him something equivalent to the value of the gun.. This was a revolver and the exhibit presented by Detective Miller, of the Perkins Agency, Pittsburg, caused the witness to state that it was at least just like the one he received from his brother, Emanuel. Before leaving the stand District Attorney Feit secured from him a statement that Jesse had thrown the broken gun into the Conemaugh River. Robert said he did not care as the weapon could not have been repaired.

County Detective Josiah Neal was called. Mr. Neal had several conversations with Emanuel Betts, both in the jail here and in Bolivar. He said Betts had told different stories. But the last one relating to his movements Nov. 4, the probable day Cline was shot, showed that he had toured the vicinity of the crime. According to Detective Neal, Betts left the pump-house early in the morning and then went to Muir's sawmill, but returned at noon. While hunting he fell and broke the gun. It was then put away. Some nights later, "Upon the advice of interested parties," Betts threw the weapon into the river.

Other witnesses and their testimony were: John Cline, father of William, told of meeting his son on Harry's farm at 10:15 a. m. the day of the shooting.

Mrs. Robert Betts corroborated the statements of her husband and examined the revolver alleged by the prosecution to be the one given her husband by Emanuel. Mrs. J. B. Mack told of seeing two men quarrel on the Cline farm and of hearing shots. L. H. Taylor said he spent the forenoon of November 4 at the pump-house and that Emanuel was not there. Justice Crossman then decided that Emanuel should be held for court. The prisoner was returned to jail by Sheriff Wettling.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 19, 1908) Emanuel Betts Will Soon Be On Trial for Cline Death - Large Array of Legal Talent Spent the First Day in Securing Jurors, the Examination of Talesman Being Especially Severe --- Accused Man May Plead Self-Defense.

What promises to be the most interesting murder trial heard in the courts of Indiana County for many years opened this morning with Judge S. J. Telford on the bench. The defendant, Emanuel Betts, or Robinson, this county, is charged with the murder of Wilbur Cline, a wealthy lumberman. The crime occurred on one of the Cline farms in the forenoon of Nov. 4, 1907 and the motive was robbery.

The prosecution is expected to produce what is said to be a confession made by Betts while a prisoner in the jail her. This statement it is said was made to Former District Attorney George J. Feit, Detective Miller, of the Perkins Agency, Pittsburgh, and Miss Annie E. Vogel, a stenographer.

As publicity had been given to this statement, it is understood the defense will make a plea that Betts was defending himself when Cline received the wounds that produced death. Betts has taken on some weight since committed to jail four months ago, and presented a neat appearance when brought into court. He is a fair-complexioned youth, aged about nineteen, and bears up well under the ordeal of hearing the attorneys use the words "murder" and "death" in the questioning of prospective jurors.

His brother, Jesse, sits at this side at the counsel table. Attorney John N. Banks is senior counsel for the defendant. He is being assisted by his son, William Banks, and James W. Mack. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Betts are also here.

John Cline, the wealthy Bolivar lumberman, is her aiding in the prosecution of Betts. He is the father of Wilbur Cline, the murdered man. Harry Cline, a brother, of the deceased, is also present. District Attorney Elkin is being assisted by Former District Attorney Feit and Attorneys Cunningham & Fisher.

Each side is allowed 20 peremptory challenges. Three men have already been discharged by the court and several challenges for causes have been recognized. Out of 21 jurors examined during the forenoon six were accepted.

After being sworn each talesman is quizzed as to his acquaintanceship with the Betts and Cline families: as to his occupation, age, father's name, religion, vocation, and opinion regarding capital punishment; he is then asked concerning his knowledge of the crime and as to whether what he had read caused him to form an opinion and as to how far said opinion could be moved by evidence.

R. C. Cunningham was excused because he is the nephew of the Attorney Samuel Cunningham. John R. Smith was dismissed because of slight trouble in hearing. Lewis Conway did not understand question propounded by the attorneys and was allowed to return to the audience. Fred Downs, who is of German birth, does not fully understand all English phrases and was likewise excused by the court.

The jurors not accepted by either one side or the other because they had opinions regarding the crime and punishment follow: J. E. Smith, George Adams, John Malcolm, Charles Conner, J. A. Bogley, Dennis Peddicord, W. L. Barrett, A. R. Fyock, J. K. Altimus, J. F. Donahue, Cornelius Rowley, S. M. Cribbs, S. A. Douglass, G. W. Colgan, R. W. Langham, John Huffman. With the court being crowded, scores of women being in the assembly, a special venire for 20 jurors was issued early in the afternoon. After 51 men had been examined, the twelfth juror was secured at 3:15 p. m. Six jurors were taken during the afternoon. Two minutes later District Attorney Elkin opened for the commonwealth. These men were found unsatisfactory to the interested attorneys at the second session;

Wallace Irvin, C. A. Ginter, R. B. Calhoun, James Neal, Joseph H. Elkin, C. R. Piper, James Speedy, E. T. Anderson, John Shank, Isaac Billings, John Gamble, R. E. Coleman, Ben Jamison and James Barclay. Thomas Hart, J. D. Thompson, and J. A. Cripps were excused by the court because of illness.

The Jurors Accepted. A. C. Coleman, Farmer, Conemaugh Twp.; T. M. Carson, Painter, 4th ward, Indiana; Enos Dorr, Will Worker, Indiana; W. C. Shields, Farmer, Rayne Twp.; Harvey Balentine, Foundryman, Indiana.; D. H. Stephens, Farmer, Cherryhill Twp.; John Russell, Lumberman, Indiana.; J. D. Cummins, Carpenter, Indiana.; D. L. Ralston, Bricklayer, Indiana.; H. K. Boucher, Woolen Mill Employe, Indiana.; I. W. Gibson, Hardware Dealer, Indiana.; J. E. Lewis, Farmer, White Township. Attorneys Cunningham and J. N. Banks agreed that they had secured a good Jury. Messrs. Russell and Gibson served on the Jury in the Lindsay murder case.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 20, 1908) Cline's Kin Chief Witnesses Heard in the Trial of Betts Father of the Murdered Man Was on the Stand for Two Hours, and a Younger Brother Was Under Fire Almost as Long — Dr. Gates Described the Wounds.

Following District Attorney W. F. Elkin's address to the jury late Thursday afternoon, at which time he explained a map drawn by County Surveyor D. L. Moorhead in which all places connected with the Cline murder are shown, the Commonwealth opened its case against Emanuel Betts. The chief witness heard that afternoon was William (should be John) Cline, the father of Joseph Wilbur Cline, the murdered man. William Cline (should be John) stated that his son left home the morning of Nov. 4 last, intending to call at his brother's farm nearby and then go to Bolivar, where he would leave for Sharon. The father related details concerning his son's business as manager of a sawmill and told of this mill having been sold during the last week in October to another son, Harry Cline.

Details were given regarding the clothes worn by Wilbur Cline and, before the witness left the stand, he identified a rain coat, sack coat, trousers and lumberman's shoes as part of the apparel worn by his son when he bade the home folks goodbye the forenoon previous to this death. It is also declared that Wilbur Cline then had a large sum of money in his possession. William Felton, of Pitcairn, took the stand to tell how he and his cousins, J. C. and H. C.

Wakefield, happened across the body of Wilbur Cline lying in a small thicket while hunting on the Cline farm the afternoon of Nov. 9, 1907. After notifying the elder Mr. Cline and his sons, Mr. Felton went to Bolivar and secured Undertaker J. L. Vann. Mr. Felton was at the Harry Cline home when the remains were carried to the house, some 600 yards from where they were found. He remained while the body was prepared for burial, and described at length the wounds on the deceased.

Wilbur Cline had received several charges of buckshot in this back, the shot extending from head to feet. A scalp wound was noticed on the back of the head and a contusion was noted on the forehead. A revolver bullet had entered his left eye and had passed out the right ear. Loose shot were found in Cline's heavy shoes and small leaden pellets dropped from the clothes when they were removed.

Although the Cline farm was "posted" against hunter, the Wakefield boys had shot a rabbit before they met the senior Mr. Cline. The witness had found several of the four empty shells that are supposed to have held the shot sent into Cline's body. George Cline, a younger brother of the deceased, was heard this morning, after his father had been recalled to answer a few questions. George told many things related by his father and introduced a few new incidents connected to the case. One of these related to a strange rabbit dog he and his mother had noticed the day Wilbur Cline left home. This dog belongs to a Mr. West of Garfield and will figure in the trial.

Much of the testimony given by Mr. Felton was repeated by Undertaker J. L. Vann who had charge of the burial. He also related his part in the examination Fr. Gates made of the body two months after burial. The remains were exhumed and Dr. Gates, assisted by Detective Miller, traced the course of the bullet wound in the head and made a study of the blows on the skull. This post-mortem was conducted in a summer kitchen on the Lichenfels farm. It is the opinion of Coroner W. D. Gates, as the result of this examination, that the blow on the head was received first and that the pistol shot followed while Cline was on the ground. Marks on the right hand of the deceased indicate that he had struggled valiantly for his life. Powder marks on the body show that the weapon was discharged at short range.

To the belief of Dr. Gates the blow on the head was inflicted with some blunt instrument, such as the butt of a gun or a very smooth stone. He said the revolver used was probably of .32 caliber.

Interest was a fever heat in the Betts murder trial this afternoon when, in the presence of a crowd that filled practically every available nook in the court room, Robert Betts took the stand to relate particulars concerning the shot gun Emanuel Betts borrowed from him but failed to return. Robert Betts is but a year or so older than the defendant and is of a retiring disposition. The shot gun episode related by Robert Betts started with his meeting Emanuel several days before Nov. 4 and granting him permission to use his gun. The weapon was secured by Emanuel but was never returned, the latter saying he had left it at the pump house with Jesse Betts, another brother.

In the interim between the death of Wilbur Cline and the finding of his body, Nov. 9, Robert grew impatient over the delay in securing the gun. He therefore went to the water station, but although he looked in the place designated, could not find the gun. Later Emanuel said he had fallen while out hunting and had broken the gun. He also said the pieces were no longer of any use.

Following this Robert one day met Emanuel in Garfield and was told by him that he would give him a revolver to replace the weapon lost. A .32 caliber revolver was secured at the Betts family home and was turned over to Robert. The pistol was shown by Attorney Feit and was partially identified.

MRS. MACK SAW ENCOUNTER

After proving a crime on Friday, the prosecution today, in the case against Emanuel Betts produced a witness to show that young Betts did not give a clear account of his travels on Nov. 4 and that he is implicated in the death of Wilbur Cline. That he alone committed the act has not yet been stated by the commonwealth, but the full extent of their case is yet to be shown. T. N. Miller, a field operator for the Perkins Detective Agency, of Pittsburgh, is the party who testified regarding Betts' alleged connection with death of the former Bolivar lumberman. Detective Miller was engaged by the Cline family on Nov. 16 and on Dec. 8 he assisted in the arrest of Betts.

Previous to that he had visited the Cline farms several times and had found shells, stones and the "four end iron piece" from a Remington gun. All these exhibits were admitted after much parleying and figure in the case. When Betts was arrested on Dec. 8 he was taken to the Bolivar station and kept in that vicinity for some hours. In the presence of Detective Miller, Detective Neal, and Officer Stiffler he is said to have told the first of a series of contradictory stories relating to his movements on Nov. 4.

One of these was that the prisoner spent the forenoon at the pump house with Jesse and that they played checkers. The second version was that Emanuel had been hunting on the day in question and that while chasing a rabbit he fell on a stone. He received several bruises on his chest and hands that were attended by a physician. During this expedition Emanuel broke his gun. He changed this story by saying he had been hunting on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

The third story was secured two days after the prisoner was placed in jail here. Detectives Miller and White, of the Perkins Agency, and Detective Neal, were present. It was alleged by the defendant's counsel that Miller had asked Sheriff Wetling to keep others away from Betts and not offer him counsel, thus securing this latest information under duress. After plenty of argument by both sides Miller was allowed to tell what was learned. Upon this occasion Betts said he had hunted in the vicinity of Muir's saw mill the forenoon of Nov. 4.

Detective Miller's story was not altered in the least during the three hours Attorney Banks quizzed him. Many of the witnesses returned home this evening and will return for a forenoon session Monday. Detective Neal with another Betts confession will then be the star witness.

Mrs. John H. Cline, the mother of Wilbur Cline, was the last witness heard Friday afternoon. Although still bearing signs of the suffering she experienced, Mrs. Cline readily answered the questions propounded by Attorney Samuel Cunningham. Her testimony related principally to the departure of Wilbur Cline on the morning of Nov. 4. She said that at that time her son had a roll of money as he had shown it when he gave her some money that day.

Mrs. Cline was given a brief cross examination when court opened this morning. That Cline and his assailant struggled before the dead man lost the unequal battle was shown through testimony of Mrs. J. B. Mack, who lives about one-half mile from the Harry Cline home. Shortly after 10 o'clock on the forenoon of Nov. 4, she was in her front yard when she heard several rounds that seemed to come from the discharge of a shot gun. She heard four of these shots and upon looking in the direction of the sounds, saw two men. They were about 2,200 feet from her home, but she could follow their movements because they were on higher ground. Later one man seemed to stoop over and the other hit him with a club and then threw three stones toward him. Mrs. Mack heard a number of moans at that time. The witness then re-entered her house and when she re-appeared outside a few minutes later she heard a pistol shot. That noon Mrs. Mack told her husband of hearing the shots and seeing the quarrel, but no investigation was made as the Macks thought the parties engaged in the fight were strange hunters. Mrs. Mack is distant relative of the Clines.

Mrs. West, of Garfield, was heard. She formerly owned the white rabbit dog with black spots that is said to have been borrowed by Harry Betts, brother of the defendant, at 6 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 4, 1907. Witnesses "Knew it was one of the Betts boys when she received this early caller and was told later it was Harry Betts who borrowed the dog." The canine wandered home late the same afternoon. Mrs. West said Harry Betts worked at the McGraw home that day. Asked how she fixed the date, witness said two of her children had been vaccinated on Nov. 4 and she presented a certificate from Dr. Alexander to better prove the date. J. C. and H.

C. Wakefield, cousins of William Felton, told of their hunting expedition on Nov. 9 and of the finding of Wilbur Cline's body. Much of their testimony had already been given by Mr. Felton.

One of the first persons to reach the scene after the finding of Cline's body was John F. St. Clair. He related incidents connected with the taking of Cline's remains to Harry Cline's house. Mr. St. Clair described at length the wounds received by Cline, his evidence corroborating testimony given by Coroner Gates and others.

J. A. Walbeck, one of the well-known Walbeck twins and a distant relative of the Clines, was summoned to Harry Cline's home the evening of Nov. 9. After the clothes were removed from the deceased, Walbeck instituted a search. He found a small package of tobacco. Several pockets were turned inside out.

County Surveyor D. L. Moorhead identified the map he had made of the Cline land and the scene of the murder. J. B. McCartney, a Bolivar barber, stated that he had shaved Wilbur Cline the day previous to his disappearance and that at that time the deceased appeared to have plenty of money.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 23, 1908) Plea of Self-Defense for Betts; Commonwealth Closed at Noon - Defense Claims the Accused After He Was Attacked by Cline, Who Had Ordered Him from the Place

In the opening address to the jury this afternoon, Attorney William Banks, of counsel for Emanuel Betts, stated that his client has killed Wilbur Cline, but the tragedy had been committed in self defense. Mr. Banks spent a half hour in explaining the testimony the defense would introduce. The crowd is larger than at any time since the trial started.

The defense hopes to show that Betts was hunting on the Cline farm on Nov. 4 and that he was ordered off by Wilbur Cline; that because Betts would not go readily Cline calling him some vile names: that Cline pursued Betts and then threw stones at him; that Betts discharged his shot gun; that other stones were hurled; that Betts again shot Cline; that Betts a mere boy was defending himself from a powerful man when Cline received the wounds that caused his death, and there was no robbery as Cline had but a few dollars.

Preliminary testimony was introduced to show that Harry Betts was not with Emanuel on Nov. 4. Conductor James L. Horton, of Derry, stated that Harry worked for him that day. Timekeeper E. H. Cassidy, of Pittsburg, identified reports showing that Betts was on the road Nov. 4.

Harry Betts appeared and said that it was Oct. 25 when he borrowed the West dogs and that on Nov. 4 he was in Derry, taking his breakfast that morning with John Betts, another brother. Emanuel Betts took the witness stand on his own behalf about three o'clock. In direct examination he admitted the killing of Cline, claiming it was done in self-defense. He denied that he had robbed the body of his victim. He is still on the stand as this report closes.

Stories related by Betts figured largely in the testimony presented by the Commonwealth this morning. The accused showed that he laid many pitfalls for himself by his freedom of speech, as four witnesses appeared who told of damaging statements they had heard Betts utter. Constable Findley Barr, of town, had a brief conversation with Betts early in January, that was introduced. Here is the way Barr repeated the conversation. Mr. Barr said, "What are you in for, young man?"

For the killing of Cline," said Emanuel Betts. "You didn't do that, did you?" asked Barr. "Yes, I did: I had to" was the reply. "He would have killed me had I not shot him" said Betts. "Did you use the shot gun or revolver first?" inquired Barr. "With the shot gun" said Betts. Asked whether any others were present at the time, Betts said no one was "near or handy." Barr stuck to his story on cross examination.

John Williams, a young man from Smith Station, made six visits to Indiana for the purpose of interviewing Betts and then secured interviews with the accused. He said that Betts at one time had said he had killed Cline and that he secured $4,300. At another time Betts stated that $2,200 was the amount taken from Cline's pockets. According to Williams, Betts had given a part of this money to his sister living in Johnstown, had handed $1,500 over to his mother, and had presented his brother, Jesse, with a portion.

Young Betts had also taken a Bolivar to Johnstown and they had spent money rather freely there. The watch found on Cline's person was sold for $8, according to Williams. During one of his six visits Williams was asked by Betts to bring a saw and a revolver with him on his next trip. Williams replied that Sheriff Wettling would not allow. County Detective Josiah Neal testified regarding another Betts confession. His story is similar to that given by Barr. Charles W. Hammond, of Bolivar, and Detective John Williams, both of whom worked under Detective Miller, told of articles found at the scene of the murder. Hammond also presented the revolver he had secured at the residence of Robert Betts. This is the weapon Emanuel gave Robert after he broke the shotgun.

The commonwealth closed its case a few minutes previous to the noon hour today when Robert Boyle and Amos Bossinger were called. These men work on the Conemaugh Division and were employed in the vicinity of the pump house, below Garfield, on Nov. 4 and Nov. 16. Shortly after 1 o'clock on the afternoon of the first named day they saw Jesse and Emanuel Betts walking on the opposite track. Emanuel was showing Jesse some money and was fingering a few bills. On Nov. 16 the witnesses saw the Betts brothers again, and upon this occasion, Emanuel carried a shot gun that seemed to be wrapped with a shoe lace. Mr. Boyle also learned that early in November Jesse Betts made a trip to Pittsburg. This was one or two days after he had seen the brothers with the money.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 21, 1908) Emanuel Betts, on Trial for His Life, Relates His Version of the Fatal Quarrel with Wilbur Cline STATE STRONG IN REBUTTAL.

Endeavored to Show that the Murdered Man was Incapable of Throwing Stones Because of Physical

Infirmities,

Arguments by the attorneys this afternoon and Judge Telford's charge will bring the Betts murder trial to a close by night. The twelve jurors, who have been on duty since Thursday afternoon, will hardly complete their work before tomorrow. As the Commonwealth closed its taking of testimony in rebuttal at noon, the opening hours this afternoon were devoted to addresses by counsel. James W. Mack discussed the points of law as they should apply to Betts' case and Samuel Cunningham reviewed the statutes for the Cline side. Former District Attorney George J. Feit spent an hour in delivering an able review of the case the Commonwealth had woven around Betts. William Banks spoke on Betts' behalf, his contention being that the accused acted in self defense and that he had not robbed Cline. Messrs. Mack and Cunningham will also further address the jury before the Court's charge is delivered. Following the testimony of Jesse Betts the defense rested at 10 o'clock this morning. As the defendant, Jesse and his mother, had related incidents to show that Emanuel was injured in his encounter with Cline, thus endeavoring to establish the self defense theory, the Commonwealth on rebuttal started out to explode this testimony.

It was shown that some eight years ago Wilbur Cline was injured in a sawmill accident and that he had since been slightly muscle-bound in the right fore-arm. Three months previous to the death of Wilbur Cline he was burned on the right hand and some weeks later and the forefinger on his hand amputated. This wound was almost healed at the time of his death.

Cline was a right handed man and, it was claimed, was not able to pick up small object or throw a stone more than a few feet. Those heard regarding Cline's injured hand are, John H. Cline, Harry Cline, George Cline, J. A. Walbeck, and Dr. Updegraff. Squire James McHail, of Bolivar, was heard and was asked to identify statements made by Jesse Betts in which alleged contradictions regarding Emanuel's hurts were set forth in writing. Miss Annie Vogel and County Detective Josiah Neal, of town, and Perkins Detective W. J. White, of Pittsburg, were the last witnesses called. They spoke concerning confessions made by Betts. This closed the testimony. Several members of the Betts family testified today. Mrs. Carolyn Betts, mother of the defendant, who was called Monday afternoon, stated that shortly after Nov. 4 she gave Emanuel some salve to apply locally to bruises he received while out hunting.

Jesse Betts told that Emanuel had described his bruises to him at length and that he had dressed them. This was not until after Cline's body had been found. Jesse told the assembly that Emanuel had informed him that the broken gun had been thrown in the river. John Betts, of Derry, another brother, stated that on Nov. 4 Harry Betts was at his home. The only other testimony introduced by the defense was that Emanuel Betts had borrowed a hunting dog from Russell McLain, who testified to that effect. Emanuel Betts was on the stand three hours during Monday afternoon. He confessed practically everything shown by the prosecution, either stating that the testimony against him had been correct or that he was so confused when visited by detectives and others that he could not remember what he said. The only witness he flatly contradicted was John Williams, who "sprung" the $4,300 story.

Betts' voice was weak in direct examination and Attorney James W. Mack had (unreadable) the boy to express himself. When Attorney Samuel Cunningham took up the cross examination, the defendant deliberated before making his answers and usually said he did not remember the full details of any special incident when asked to make matters plain. Despite a number of questions propounded by the opposing counsel, Betts did not at any time tell where he had secreted the broken shot gun that is said to have been used over Cline's head. Betts said any injuries on Cline's head came from the deceased being kicked when they were fighting. Another denial made by Betts was that he had ever tried to purchase a Remington gun in order to replace the one borrowed from his brother, Robert.

In brief Betts' story is as follows:

Last month the defendant was nineteen years old. On Nov. 4 he took Robert's shot gun and his revolver and went to the pump house. Leaving there at 7:30 a. m. Betts hunted through the Jenkins, Henderson, and other fields and finally reached Harry Cline's. After being there 15 minutes, he saw Wilbur Cline on the road.

The accused knew the deceased by sight, but did not speak to him as he was in the field and probably 100 feet distance from Cline. Wilbur Cline said "Get off this land you --- (here Betts repeated the vile name is said to have uttered). Or I will kill you." The defendant stated that his reply was, "I'll get off."

Cline picked up three or four stones, each about as large as a tennis ball, and began throwing them at Betts. One missile hit Betts on the neck. Betts then drew his shot gun and shot at Cline's feet, Cline turning his side and throwing his arm in front of his face in order to shield it. More swearing by Cline, some additional stone throwing and another shot from Betts followed. This time young Betts also aimed at Cline's feet.

Cline had gained on Betts by this time and the defendant was making for the top of the hill. Cline again threw a stone and it struck Betts on the back. For the third time Betts turned and shot at Cline, this time aiming at his hips. Cline was still able to run and Betts turned again, but the gun would not go off and Cline caught up to Betts.

Although Cline had received at least three charges of buckshot in his back, according to Betts, he was able to fight and pulled the gun from the latter's hands. While they were tussling for the weapon, both went down, Cline securing the gun. Cline struck at Betts with the gun, but hit the ground instead, breaking it at the breech. Owing to numerous wounds, Cline was not able to pursue him, but he still had sufficient strength to rise. While Cline was standing below him Betts fired the revolver in Cline's face. Cline then fell to the road and Betts hurried away.

He went to the pump house and spent an hour with Jesse. Shortly after the noon hour the brothers started to Garfield. On the railroad Jesse asked Emanuel for a loan, saying he was intending going to Pittsburg. Emanuel was showing his money, about $15 that remained from October pay as a brakeman on the Conemaugh Division, when they passed Boyle and Bossinger. Seeing that Emanuel's funds were not large, Jesse did not negotiate the loan.

For two days following the encounter with Cline, Emanuel remained at his home. He never told any of his people that he had killed a man and he did not explain why he desired some ointment for his bruises. He never at any time explained the disappearance of the gun, and did not make any confession whatever until after the preliminary hearing at Crossman's the last week of December. Betts also said he had not searched Cline's pockets and knew nothing concerning his watch and money.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 25, 1908) GENERAL PUBLIC EXCITEMENT Wide-Spread Discussion of the Finding of the Jurors --- No New Trial is Anticipated -- "Guilty of murder in the second degree," was the verdict of the jury in the Betts murder trial.

The jury went out at 9:30 o'clock, last night and returned at 9 o'clock this morning. The jurors took the first ballot shortly after midnight and the final one at daylight. For six hours two jurors stood out for a first degree verdict. Betts was overjoyed when he learned the death penalty would not be inflicted and he shook hands with his attorneys and then turned to receive the relatives who were present. The aged father and mother, whose plight had been noted by many and who were greatly pitied, were not present.

Mr. and Mrs., John H. Cline, George and Harry Cline, Mrs. J. H. Mack, William Felton, the Wakefield boys and several others were present. An audience of several score was in attendance. Betts' punishment for the killing of Wilbur Cline may be twenty years in the penitentiary, that being the maximum penalty.

Discussion of the verdict was heard in all quarters about town today. Those who argue that the jury should have found Betts guilty of murder in the first degree, and they are many, believe there was a robbery and that Betts was the aggressor in the fight. Others, however, claim that robbery was not proved and that the commonwealth did not show that the shooting was premeditated. These persons state that the only possible verdict would be the one returned.

In round figures the Cline case has already cost over $2,000. The 35 witnesses presented by the commonwealth were here from five to seven days and received $744 from the county. The pay of the jurors was $210. Then add to this the salaries of the court officials, district attorney and county detective. The Betts family must meet the expenses of the eight witnesses they provided.

John H. Cline engaged the Perkins Detective N. B. Miller and three assistants for some weeks and expended a large sum in addition to clear up the mystery of his son's death. The body of Wilbur Cline was found Nov. and Miller was engaged Nov. 14. He worked on the case almost constantly until the arrest of Betts late in December, and made four visits to Indiana after the prisoner was placed in jail.

After the jury was excused today, Judge Telford ordered Court Crier Youngblood to adjourn the court until next Monday afternoon when the Smith cases from Glen Campbell will be heard. The trial of Dimity Dorasehoof, an Ernest foreigner, accused of murder, is postponed until June. Attorney Samuel Cunningham addressed the jury Tuesday night. He spoke for eighty minutes and his excellent review of the case against young Betts was heard by a large and attentive audience. He claimed that any boy who could play checkers an hour after he left a person dying in a field could commit deliberate murder.

In the mind of Mr. Cunningham, the fact that Cline was literally filled with buckshot, was shot in the head with a pistol and had received a fractured skull, showed that he was murdered for a purpose. That motive, said Mr. Cunningham, was robbery, as the deceased had on his person when he met death a roll of money and a watch that were not found. The charge delivered by Judge Telford lasted an hour. He reviewed the testimony at length and stated that it was for the jury to decide where contradictions occurred. He stated that the burden of proof rested on the commonwealth. It was his opinion that the motive should be ascertained by the jury and that if all reasonable doubts were cleared away and a willful murder had been committed, the defendant was guilty of murder in the first degree.

The Court outlined the law regarding the rights of a man to act in self-defense saying that when a person was in danger of losing his own life and had tried every possible means of escape, the defendant has a right to check the aggressor. Under these circumstances the defendant should be acquitted. The grade of crime recognized as second degree and the statutes recognizing man-slaughter were also outlined. Jesse Betts told a Gazette reporter that he was taking treatment for trouble in his nose from a Pittsburg specialist during November and December and that he visited the doctor on Nov. 5, the day brought out by the prosecution the he spent in Pittsburg.

Notes for Dr. Frank Bours (Bower) Marbourg:

Everett, Pennsylvania - Dr. Frank Marbourg, of Schellsburg, died on Friday last April 7, 1893. He was a physician of ability and had an extensive practice. He received the democratic nomination for sheriff a few years ago, and was defeated by Jacob Chamberlain.

Everett, Pennsylvania – Dr. Frank B. Marbourg died unexpectedly at noon on Saturday April 18, 1891 after a short illness. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure, resulting from an aggravated complication la grippe and pneumonia. Dr. Marburg was a young man of high moral character and excellent habits and was a member of the Reformed church in which Sabbath school he was a teacher. His kind disposition and exemplary way made him many friends.

Services were held at the church at two o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, whence a large concourse of relatives and friends including a squad from Co. I., of which he was a lieutenant and thirty members of the Knights of the Golden Eagle followed the remains to the grave. A kind friend, loving brother and son has been laid to rest.

Notes for Dr. Hezekiah Wilson Marbourg:

History of Cambria County, Pennsylvania, Volume 2. By Henry Wilson Storey. Page 564:

Hezekiah Wilson Marbourg, M. D., late of Johnstown, who was a capable and efficient physician and surgeon and a citizen of worth and character, was a representative of a family of German ancestry which numbered many professional members.

Maximilian Marbourg, M. D., grandfather of Dr. Hezekiah W. Marbourg, was born in Marbourg, Austria, and studied medicine in the college at Munich, Germany. Soon after his graduation from this institution he came to the United States and located in Baltimore, Maryland. He removed to York County, and from thence, after a short time, to what is now Coopersdale, or the Twenty-First ward of Johnstown, Cambria County, Pennsylvania, where he practiced his profession with success for a number of years. His remains were interred in the old Union burying ground. His wife, a native of York County, Pennsylvania, bore him children: 1. Alexander, a merchant of Johnstown, who later removed to Washington, Iowa, and died there; 2. Frederick, see forward; 3. Jordan, died during the Civil war; 4. Charlotte, married Daniel Seigh, the family removing to Iowa, where she died.

Frederick Marbourg, second son and child of Dr. Maximilian Marbourg, was born on the family homestead in what was then Perkinsville, and is now the Twenty-first ward of Johnstown. He received a common school education, and then entered upon a mercantile career. At one time he was in a business partnership with his brother Alexander. He resided in Centerville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, for a number of years, later returned to Johnstown and established himself in business in Market Street. He and his wife were members of the Lutheran church, in which he held the office of elder. His political affiliations were with the Republican Party. His death occurred about 1862, and his widow survived him until 1882. He married, at Centerville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, Eva Lydia Sides, and several of their children were born in Centerville, the others in Johnstown. The children were: 1. Betsey, who married Michael Jack and died in Johnstown; 2. Dr. Jeremiah Lavimus, who was graduated from Jefferson Medical College in 1854. He practiced medicine until the outbreak of the Civil war, when he was made assistant surgeon and rendered excellent service. At the close of the war he practiced his profession in Bedford, Pennsylvania, until 1895 when he removed to Tacoma, Washington, and from thence to Seattle, where he died; 3. Hezekiah Wilson, see forward; 4. Charlotte, who married James Gardner, and died in Cumberland, Maryland; 5. and 6. Sarah and Annie, who died unmarried.

Hezekiah Wilson Marbourg, M. D., second son and third child of Frederick and Eva Lydia (Sides) Marbourg, was born in Centerville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, August 5, 1833, and died in the city of Johnstown, during the disastrous flood of 1889. He attended the public schools of Johnstown, and prepared himself for college in that city. He matriculated at Gettysburg College, and was graduated from the theological department of that institution, but was never ordained. He then took up the study of medicine with Dr. John Lowman, then entered the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from which he was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1857. He immediately established himself in the practice of his profession, and with the exception of one year spent in Philadelphia, his entire medical career was passed in Johnstown. During the latter part of 1863 he took up military service and served one year as contract surgeon. He practiced continually until his death, meeting with the success which attends well directed effort in any trade or profession. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church; of St. Paul's Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, of Philadelphia; and of the Cambria County Medical Society, in which he served as secretary for a number of years.

He married (first) Wilhelmina Rachel Wright, who was graduated from the Women's Medical College in Philadelphia, and practiced for a period of one year. She bore him children: Eva L., wife of McClellan Leggett, of Johnstown, and Edgar M., a physician of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Mrs. Marbourg died in 1870. He married (second), in March, 1872, Esther L. (Wright) Nippes, widow of J. Charles Nippes, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, by whom she had one child, Chester W. C. Nippes, a farmer of Indiana County. Mrs. Marbourg is a daughter of William and Rachel (Lukens) Wright, of Philadelphia, and a granddaughter of Elizabeth Johns Lukens, a Quaker preacher in Philadelphia. William Wright was a civil engineer, professor of languages in Philadelphia, and was a man of prominence. Esther L. (Wright) (Nippes) Marbourg was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was educated in the public schools of her native city, and subsequently pursued a course of reading in medicine under the preceptorship of Dr. Benjamin B. Wilson, of Philadelphia. She entered the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, in 1869, and in March, 1872, was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Medicine. Shortly after graduation she came to Johnstown, where she has been engaged in the successful practice of her profession since that time. She was one of the incorporators of the Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital, being the only woman among the incorporators, and has served on the staff of that institution. She is an honored member of the Cambria County Medical Society, the Pennsylvania State Medical Society and the American Medical Association, having been a delegate to the meeting of the latter association when it convened in Chicago, in 1887. She is also a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the work and interests of which she takes an active part.

114. Louisa⁵ Mikesell (Jane Carrie⁴ Sides, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 30 Nov 1829 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 07 Jan 1874 in Indiana Co, Pennsylvania. She married William B. Hoskinson 01 Jan 1852 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania. He was born Jun 1827 in Monongalia Co, West Virginia, and died 07 Mar 1908 in New Florence, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for William B. Hoskinson:

Indiana, Pennsylvania – After a brief illness, Squire William B. Hoskinson died late Saturday night March 7, 1908 at his home in New Florence, his death being due to a sudden attack of apoplexy. Last week his wife and adopted daughter, Miss Annie Lawson, recovered from a siege of the grip and at that time Mr. Hoskinson was in his usual health. He took sick Saturday afternoon and his decline was rapid. He was unusually well preserved for a man 80 years old and had visited his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Zimmerman, of Johnstown for the annual holiday gathering there.

Squire Hoskinson was born near Morgantown, West Virginia, (then in Virginia) in 1827. He was educated at the university in Morgantown. In 1850 he accompanied his uncles, Jacob and George Gamble, to this county, settling near Heshbon. Two of his brothers, John and Riley Hoskinson, were members of the party. For a number of years, the Messrs. Gamble followed their trade of millwrights and built grist mills along the Black Lick Valley, at Peelers, in Penn Run. Marion Center, etc, the Hoskinson boys assisting them. In the early 50s, Squire Hoskinson was employed as a construction engineer on the Pennsylvania and was with that road when the line was built through Westmoreland County.

In 1864 the deceased went to the front with Company H, 206th Regiment, P.V.I. The company was recruited near Brush Valley and was in charge of Rev. George M. Greer, a deceased U. P. pastor. Mr. Hoskinson was orderly sergeant and was among the first to enter Richmond after Lee's surrender. After the war he engaged in milling at Heshbon and later became merchant and postmaster there. His first wife, Louisa Mikesell, died in 1874. About ten years later he married Mrs. Maria Lawson, of New Florence. He soon removed there and had since been a resident of that town.

In politics he was a Republican and served two terms as Justice of the peace and as school director. For a score of years, he was a member of the board of the Methodist church there. He was always prominent in the fight waged almost yearly in New Florence against saloons. Within the past few years he represented Clearfield parties in securing coal lands near New Florence and business brought him to Indiana quite regularly. He had been a reader of the Gazette for many years.

The deceased is survived by his wife and these children: Rev. Dr. W. S. Hoskinson, pastor of the First Lutheran church in Sacramento, California, Dr. Wilson Hoskinson, of Parkville, Michigan; Mrs. Emma E. Wilson, of South Eleventh Street; Mrs. Herbert C. Howe, of Spokane, Washington; John N. Hoskinson, a merchant in New Castle, Nebraska, and Mrs. E. A. Zimmerman, of Johnstown, and an adopted daughter, Miss Annie Lawson, also by one sister, Mrs. Julia Anderson, formerly of Illinois, but now of near Bolivar. His brothers died during November, 1905. Mrs. W. E. Owens, of Naples, (formerly Amy Hoskinson, a teacher here) is a niece of the deceased.

Funeral services will be held at the Hoskinson home at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and interment follows in the Blairsville cemetery Wednesday forenoon.

History of Dixon County, Nebraska: Its pioneers, settlement, growth and ... By William Huse. Page 184:

S. P. Mikesell was born in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, June 14, 1839. Received a preparatory education for college, at Eldersridge Academy, and entered the sophomore class, Pennsylvania College, in 1861. Left the junior class in 1863 and joined the 26th Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, commanded by Col. Jennings. After the battle of Gettysburg he was appointed clerk in the ordinance office, war department, Washington. Resigned this position in the fall of 1865, and came to Nebraska in March, 1866. Was a resident of Dakota City and Sioux City three years.

In June, 1869, located in Ponca and entered the mercantile business with John Stough under the firm name of Stough & Mikesell. On January 1, 1886, the firm was dissolved, and in September of the same year, Mr. Mikesell opened the large store (38 x 100 feet) which he had previously built and which he has occupied from that time to the present. Mr. Mikesell is one of the most successful and reliable merchants in the county, and in other pursuits as well as merchandise, has an immense business. In education and executive ability he probably has no superiors in the county. At New Castle, Mr. Mikesell has another extensive mercantile establishment of which J. M. Hoskinson is manager. Mr. Mikesell has a wife and three grown up sons. A view of his large residence, as well as his portrait, are seen on the following pages.

Reports of cases in the Supreme Court of Nebraska, Volume 49. By Nebraska. Supreme Court, James Mills Woolworth, Lorenzo. Page 291:

JOHN STOUGH VS. WILLIAM L. OGDEN. FILED OCTOBER 7, 1896. No. 6713.

1. Alteration of Instruments: TIME. Whether an alteration apparent from the face of a note was made at, or subsequent to, the time of its execution is a question of fact for the jury, and it is not in such case error to receive in evidence the note sued on, upon proof by the payee that the alleged alteration was made previous to its receipt by him, on the day of its date, from one of the Joint makers thereof.

2. Witnesses: CROSS-EXAMINATION: DISCRETION OF COURT. The law has conferred upon the trial court some discretion in determining the limits within which the cross-examination of witnesses may be allowed, and its action in that respect will not, in the absence of an abuse of discretion, be the subject of review by this court.

3. Review: INSTRUCTIONS. Where several instructions are grouped in one assignment of the motion for a new trial or petition in error, they will be examined no further than to determine that a single one thereof was rightly given or rightly refused.

ERROR from the district court of Dixon county. Tried below before NORRIS, J. Gantt & Welty, for plaintiff in error. J. J. McCarthy, A. E. Barnes, and Marsh & Henderson, contra.

POST, C. J.

This was an action by William L. Ogden in the district court for Dixon County against S. P. Mikesell, S. K. Bittenbender, and John Stough upon a promissory note for $6,000, bearing date of September 5, 1889, payable to the order of the said Ogden one year after date, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually. Separate answers were interposed to the petition below, and a trial had, resulting in a verdict and judgment for the plaintiff against the several makers of the note described, from which Stough alone prosecutes error to this court .

The answer of the defendant last named states two defenses, viz.: (1.) That said note was, as the plaintiff well knew, executed by said defendant as surety only and for the accommodation of the Ponca Milling Company, a corporation, and that payment thereof was for a valuable and sufficient consideration by the plaintiff extended from time to time after its maturity without the consent of the answering defendant. (2.) Said note has, without the consent of the defendant, been materially altered since its execution and delivery, by the insertion therein of the prefix "semi" immediately preceding the word "annually," thus making the interest in terms payable semi-annually, whereas the note as executed provided for interest payable annually. The jury, as we have seen, found against the contention of the defendant with respect to both defenses, and we cannot, upon the record, say that the verdict is unwarranted by the evidence. Referring to the second defense it is sufficient to say that Mr. Mikesell, who prepared the note for the signatures of the makers, testifies positively that the alleged alteration was made by him previous to the signing by either of the parties thereto. He is, it is true, contradicted by his co-defendants, but the issue of fact thus made was fairly submitted to the jury, whose finding thereon must be accepted as conclusive. The verdict was right also upon the other issue tendered by the answer, since the evidence fails to sustain the allegation that the note in suit was executed by the defendant as surety for the Ponca Milling Company. True it was in one sense for the accommodation of the milling company, for the reason that the proceeds thereof were devoted to its benefit; but it is also true that Mr. Ogden, the plaintiff, refused to make any advancement upon the credit of that corporation, and expressly stipulated that the loan in question should be made upon the personal credit of the defendants, who are as to him principals, whatever may be their relations toward the corporation named as the result of that transaction.

It is argued that the trial court erred in receiving in evidence the note sued on, without first requiring an explanation of the alleged alteration, which, as we have seen, is the insertion in writing of the prefix "semi" in the printed form employed for that purpose. The plaintiff had, however, testified that he received the note on the day of its date from Mr. Bittenbender, one of the makers thereof, and that it was in the same condition when offered in evidence as when received by him. This evidence certainly tended to prove that the alleged alteration was made by the makers themselves at the time of the execution of the note, and was sufficient, prima facie, to rebut any presumption to the contrary arising from its appearance. The court did not, therefore, err in receiving the note in evidence, the question of the alleged alteration being in the end one of fact for the jury upon all of the evidence adduced. (Goodin v. Plunge, 47 Neb., 284.)

The plaintiff below, in his examination in chief, answered in response to an interrogatory by his attorney, that he had on one occasion, by appointment, met the defendants, when the latter all examined the note; that no objection was made thereto by any one present, and that all agreed that he, plaintiff, should have his money, but could not unite upon the means of paying it. On cross examination he was asked the following question: "Was his [Stough's] attention in any manner drawn to these changes in the note?" to which an objection was interposed and sustained on the ground that it "was assuming something not in evidence." The examination might properly have been allowed, although its exclusion cannot be said to be error calling for a reversal of the judgment. There had, up to that time, been no proof of any alteration of the note subsequent to its execution by Stough, and there is nothing in the record to indicate the purpose of the question, and its exclusion under the circumstances is not prejudicial to the defendant.

It is next argued that the court erred in allowing the plaintiff, upon cross-examination of the defendant Stough, to inquire into the affairs of the milling company. The examination may, it is conceded, have been unnecessarily protracted, but there was no such an abuse of discretion as to warrant a reversal upon that ground.

The remaining questions all relate to instructions given and refused, and are assigned in the motion for a new trial as follows:

"5. The court erred in refusing to give the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, ninth, eighth, first, and seventh instructions asked by the defendant.

"6. The court erred in giving the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth instructions asked by the plaintiff."

It has been repeatedly held by this court that where several instructions are grouped in one assignment of the motion for a new trial, or petition in error, they will be examined no further than to determine that a single one thereof was rightly given or rightly refused. It is not claimed, and cannot be claimed, that the district court erred in refusing all of the instructions enumerated in the fifth assignment, or in giving those enumerated in the sixth assignment. Indeed, the charge, as a whole, stated the law quite as favorably to the defendant as he was entitled to in view of the case as made by the pleadings and proofs. There being no error of record, the judgment will be AFFIRMED.

119. Elizabeth Ann⁵ Mikesell (Jane Carrie⁴ Sides, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 14 May 1842 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 09 Oct 1866 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania. She married John Garrabrant Ogden 14 Mar 1860 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, son of Amos Ogden and Elizabeth Moorehead. He was born 1836 in Fairfield, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania, and died 01 Aug 1884 in Darlington, Gentry Co, Missouri.

Notes for John Garrabrant Ogden:

Sioux City – At Darlington, Gentry County, Missouri, John G. Ogden, of Sioux City, aged 47 years, 1 month and 23 days. The first news of the illness of Mr. Ogden came on Wednesday night in a telegram to his son Lincoln, saying that if he wished to see his father alive to come at once. The son left on the first train and arrived at Darlington at 6 o'clock on Thursday afternoon Sept. 30, 1884, three hours after the death of his father. The remains arrived at this, city on the midnight train of last night, and from the son these particulars of the death were learned: On Monday afternoon Mr. Ogden was riding in a wagon with several other gentlemen. A singletree breaking the horses sprang forward, tipping back the seat on which Mr. Ogden was sitting. In falling back his neck struck the end-gate of the wagon. He called to the others that his arms were broken. They were paralyzed from the shoulder down, and his lower limbs were also paralyzed. During his last days he had the best care that kind friends could bestow. As shown by the certificate of the attending physician, death was caused by concussion of the spinal chord.

The deceased was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, June 8, 1837. He came to Dakota City seventeen year, ago and after the death of his first wife, was married there. Ten years ago he removed to this city and engaged in the mercantile business with B. 8S Holmes. The partnership lasted a year. After going but of this business Mr. Ogden went to the Black Hills, and after his return was several terms city marshal.

He leaves three sons, Lincoln and Amos by his first marriage, and Otis, the son of his second wife. At the time of his death he was engaged in railroad work, as he has been for several years past, as foreman for S. Smead, of this city. The deceased was a member of both the Knights of Pythias and Freemasons, and it is expected that the funeral will be in charge of the former order. There was an insurance of $3,000 on his life in the endowment rank of the first named order, which, it is understood, is payable to his eldest son, who for several years has paid the dues and assessments. The remains were taken to the residence of Mrs. W. Bowdlear, Bluff Street, between West Sixth and Seventh, where Amos Ogden makes his home. The funeral will be from that residence at 10:30 a.m. today.

Notes for Antonetta M. Nothafft:

Sioux City - An 88-year-old Sioux City woman fell down a flight of stairs to her death Friday night or Saturday morning July 26-27, 1963, Dr. Thomas L. Coriden, county medical examiner, said. Dead is Mrs. Antonette M. Ogden, 88, 724 S. Alice Street. Dr. Coriden ruled the death accidental, and the cause of death as a brain injury. Her body was discovered Saturday afternoon by a neighbor boy. She was last seen Friday afternoon. Her bed had been slept in, however, according to Dr. Coriden. Her bedroom was on the second floor. Her body, clad in a nightgown, was found at the bottom of the stairway leading to the second floor. Neighbors became worried when her curtains remained lowered throughout the day. The doors to her home were locked, and a neighbor boy used a ladder to climb in a second-floor window.

Mrs. Ogden was born April 2, 1875, at Buffalo, New York. She also lived at Norfolk, Nebraska, before coming to Sioux City 72 years ago. She was married to W. L. Ogden, August 28, 1924, in Sioux City. He was affiliated with the Hanford & Ogden Produce Co. Mr. Ogden died in 1925. Mrs. Ogden was a charter member of Trinity Lutheran church and formerly was active in the church's women's organizations.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Mary Blatt, and a half-brother, William Boss, both of Norfolk. The body was taken to the Nelson-Berger north side funeral home.

He was born Bet. 26 Sep 1856 - 07 Jun 1862 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania, and died 31 Oct 1935 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Laura Elizabeth (Lizzie) Sides:

Johnstown – Mrs. Laura Elizabeth (Sides) Strauss, wife of William H. Strauss of 617 Franklin Street, former postmaster, prominent merchant and a member of the local board of education, died at 9:36 o'clock yesterday morning August 25, 1930 at the home of her brother, William Sides of Alverda, Indiana County, where she has gone some time ago in the hope of benefiting her health. Mrs. Strauss had been in failing health for the last six months, suffering from a complication of ailments. Death was attributed to myocarditis.

Laura Elisabeth Sides was born April 1, 1866, at Fine Flats, Indiana County, a daughter of Adam and Mary (Dickey) Sides, both deceased. She and William H. Strauss were married in Fine Flats March 31, 1892, since which time they made their home in Johnstown.

Besides her husband Mrs. Strauss is survived by these brothers and sisters: William Sides of Alverda, mentioned above; Uriah Sides of Barto, Florida, Adam Sides of Pine Flats, Mrs. W. C. Wilson of 185 Garfield Street, Morrellville, and Mrs. Emma S. Hahn of Alverda. A nephew, Walter Sides, who has made his home with the Strauss family for the last 18 years, also survives.

The body was brought to Johnstown last evening by Undertaker H. M. Picking and will remain at the Picking mortuary until noon Thursday, at which time it will be removed to the First Christian church to lie in state until the time of the funeral. Services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, in charge of her pastor, the Rev. O. E. Tomes. Interment will be in Grandview cemetery.

Notes for Michael G. Mack:

Blairsville - Michael Mack, aged 81 years and 11 months, a lifelong resident of West Wheatfield Township, died at 3:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon April 15, 1927 at the home of his son, Melvin O. Mack, of 251 North Brady Street, following a lingering illness. The deceased had been in ill health for several months, and had been a patient at his son's residence here for the past six weeks. The deceased was born in West Wheatfield Township, the son of James and Sara Wagner Mack, and had resided in that section, near and practically his entire life, to wife. Mrs. Lucinda Lower Mack, died at Robinson, Indiana County, on February 22, 1923. Mr. Mack was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bolivar. He would have attained his eighty-second birthday on May 15 had not death occurred yesterday afternoon.

The deceased is survived by four sons: Perry J. Mack and Wilbert I. Mack, both of Bolivar; Lawrence M. Mack, of Vandergrift, and Melvin O. Mack, of Blairsville; two daughters, Mrs. Pearl Telford, of Rochester, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Orrie Boyle, of Bolivar; and by two brothers, J. M. Mack, of Bolivar, and Hugh S. Mack, of West Wheatfield Township. Fifteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren also survive him.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence of Melvin O. Mack, 251 North Brady Street, in charge of Rev. Howard E. Lloyd, minister of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Blairsville. Interment will follow in the Blairsville cemetery.

Notes for Thomas Dillon Dias:

Thomas Dias, at a young age, he and a friend started off to Pittsburgh to enlist, but his father got work or was suspicious and showed up before they could join. A few months later, in 1863, he slipped off again to Greensburg and enlisted when not quite seventeen. He got into the thick of the fight very soon; first as a guard at Washington, where he saw President Lincoln every day going to the hospitals for his regular visits.

Under the command of Col. Dick Coulter, he was ordered to take care of the Weldon Railroad. This command was part of the big effort to take Richmond. He was in the four day battle of the Wilderness and later Spotsylvania and Cold Harbor. He was shot through both legs, but not with the same bullet or at the same time, he attempted to crawl out of harm's way and was shot in the other leg.

He was a large man, more than six feet tall and built in proportion, and over the years he had sympathy and good-will to men. He operated a boarding house for McMinnie & Simms when they built the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Pittsburgh to Altoona. He also ran the Central Hotel at Seward, Pennsylvania.

According to his military pension file, the marriage of Thomas and Edith didn't last, even though they did not divorce. It appears as though Edith brought with her a son from her previous marriage to live with her and Thomas. Thomas apparently considered him to be a deadbeat who did not want to work and maybe threw him out. Edith got mad and moved out, then filed a claim with the government for half of his military pension on the grounds that he abandoned her (she lost).

Thomas was in a car wreck and had a heart attack and then pneumonia at son's home in Seward, while recuperating. This led to his death.

Notes for Jacob R. Walbeck:

Indiana, Pennsylvania –Jacob R. Walbeck, aged 69 years, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Robinson, died at his home on Sunday afternoon July 15, 1928. He had been ill with dropsy for several months and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Walbeck was born in West Wheatfield township, the son of the late Levi Walbeck, being a descendant of one of the pioneer families of that community. He was employed as a farmer in his earlier years and until his recent illness by the Garfield Fire Clay Company.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Mock Walbeck, and by one daughter, Lydia Elizabeth Walbeck, and also by an adopted son, Leonard Walbeck, and by the following brothers and sisters: Joseph L. Walbeck, John G. Walbeck, Mrs. Catherine Lichtenfels, of West Wheatfield Township, and Mrs. Rebecca Hair, of New Florence.

Mr. Walbeck was a member of the Brethren Church. Services were held in the Lutheran Church on Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. John Clawson. Interment was made in West Wheatfield Township.

Wheatfield Twp, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania. He married Chrissie Mae (Christine) Stormer Bet. 12 Apr 1887 - 1888 in Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of Noah Stormer and Rosanna Brendlinger. She was born May 1863 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 16 Sep 1935 in Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Albert Michael Walbeck, twin:

Indiana, Pennsylvania – Coming as a great shock to the community was the tragic death of Albert M. Walbeck, a prominent resident and farmer, of West Wheatfield Township, who ended his life by hanging in the wagon shed of his home farm on Thursday forenoon June 2, 1927. The deceased had been in failing health for several months and it is believed that he committed the act during a sudden mental collapse while brooding over his condition. He was serving as road supervisor of his district and leaving the house that morning he announced that he going to Indiana to transact business in connection with the office. Late that afternoon while at the barn gathering eggs, Mrs. Walbeck went to the wagon shed where she discovered the dead body of her husband suspended from a rope which was tied to a rafter. The condition of body gave evidence that the deed must have been committed shortly after Mr. Walbeck left the house that morning.

The deceased, who was a son of late Levi Walbeck, was aged 66 and was a life-long resident of West Wheatfield Township, where he was regarded as one of the most substantial citizens. He was a man of fine Christian character and was one of the active members of the Germany M. E. church. He was identified with various community interests throughout his active career and served his district in several positions of trust.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Nesbitt, of near Blairsville, and sons, R. S. and R. D. Walbeck, at home. He was a twin brother of Joseph L. Walbeck, who in the same township. Funeral services were conducted at the on Sunday afternoon and interment followed in the Lutheran church cemetery.

John Samuel Walbeck (1780-1852) & Elizabeth Seitz (1790-1858) had 12 Children... two of which were Charles Walbeck (1822-1902) which is the line that Forrest descended from. Another son Was Levi Franklin Walbeck (1824 to 1908). Levi married Lydia Sarah Wagner (1827-1909) and they had 9 children, one of which was Albert M. Walbeck (1862-1927).

Albert married Crissie Mae Stormer (1863-1935) and they had 4 children, one of which was Ralph Deane Walbeck (or Walback)(1903-??) as he seemed to spell it differently throughout various newspaper articles from that period when he as the youngest son was the executor of his mother's estate in 1935. I found him with the Merchant Marines in San Francisco in 1930, but lost track of him after that. He married Margaret Biggerstaff (1912-??) in 1939. He appears to have gone by the name of Dean not Ralph. So based on the evidence that you found, the certificate dated Jul 1928 and the photo, which I'm guessing is around that same date, I believe this to be a photo of Ralph's mother Crissie Mae Stormer-Walbeck. Her husband Albert (Ralph's father) had a tragic ending. According to his obituary, he was a prominent farmer and one of the most substantial residents of the county of West Wheatfield. Unfortunately, his health began failing and he became broody in 1927. He kissed his wife good-bye on the 9th of June and said he was going into Indiana on business and went into the wagon shed and hung himself. Later that day, Crissie went to gather eggs and found his body hanging from a rope suspended from the shed's rafter. He was a man of fine Christian character and an active member of the Germany Lutheran Church.

Notes for John Grant (Walback) Walbeck:

Oct. 12, 1922 - Mystery surrounds a shooting incident in West Wheatfield Township, in which John G. Walbeck had a narrow escape from being hit by a bullet. Mr. Walbeck, who resides two miles north of Robinson, was awakened by a noise in his chicken yard. In the kitchen, preparing to go to the coops, he was startled by the sound of a revolver being discharged, the bullet crashing through the window just missing the householder's head. Mr. Walbeck says he believes he has a clue to the person who fired the shot. He says that while he and his son were going to Robinson last Saturday, he was accosted by five men in a car. It is his opinion that the noise among the poultry was created to get him out as the poultry house was not opened nor were any fowls missing.

Notes for Levi Franklin Walbeck:

Levi Franklin Walbeck, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walbeck, of West Wheatfield Township, died on Thursday, September 20, 1906, from cholera infantum. Funeral services were held today at the home of the parents. Interment followed in the Lutheran Wheatfield Township.

- 875 vii. Loyal M. Walbeck, twin, born 21 Aug 1907 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania; died Jun 1911 in W. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Loyal M. Walbeck, twin:

June 24, 1911 - Two children of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Walbeck, of West Wheatfield Township, died the past week from the of whooping cough. A third child is seriously ill with the disease. The children which died were aged four years and six months, respectively. The six months-old child died on Thursday and when the friends and neighbors gathered to attend the funeral they were surprised to find that the four-year's-old child had also died from the same disease, while another child was in a serious condition.

The funeral of the child that had first died was then postponed until Saturday afternoon, when both children of the afflicted parents were buried together. Mr. and Mrs. Walbeck were married in 1902, nine years ago, and nine children have been born to them during that time, all but two of whom are dead. The condition of the child now ill with the whooping cough is reported as being improved.

Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 22 Sep 1926 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania. He married Alice V. Thomas 18 Jul 1885 in New Florence, New Florence, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of William Thomas and Abigail Hill. She was born 30 Jan 1859 in Fairfield Twp, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania, and died 04 Mar 1922 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Samuel Kinner Wakefield:

Johnstown - Samuel K. Wakefield, age 71 years, a veteran employee of Cambria Steel within a month of retirement, despondent because of ill health, ended his life yesterday afternoon September 22, 1926 by hanging in the basement of the home of his son-in-law on Orange Avenue, Morrellville. The police investigated the death and it was reported to the coroner. Samuel K. Wakefield was born in Indiana County and came to this city many years ago. He was a well-known employee of the Cambria mills for many years, having worked in the mechanical warehouse until about two years ago, when he was transferred to the rod and wire department. Mr. Wakefield, who was unable to work for the last year on account of illness, would have been retired October 15 under the Bethlehem Steel Co. pension plan.

Mr. Wakefield's wife, Mrs. Alice Thomas Wakefield, died four years ago last March. He is survived by two daughters, Miss Bertha E. Wakefield, at home, and Ethel, wife of C. C. Kessler, 426 Orange Avenue. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Notes for Alice V. Thomas:

Indiana, Pennsylvania – Mrs. Alice Thomas Wakefield, aged 63 years, wife of Samuel K. Wakefield, and a sister of Mrs. James Hoover of Indiana, died Saturday morning March 4, 1922 at her home in Johnstown. She suffered from a complication of diseases and had been ill for several years. She was born near the Packsaddle January 30, 1859. She and Samuel K. Wakefield were married July 18, 1885 at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, New Florence, by the late Rev. Dr. Jesse Franklin Gore. They made their home near New Florence and Bolivar until 1895, when they went to Johnstown.

The deceased leaves her husband and two daughters, Mrs. C. C. Keffer of Johnstown and Miss Bertha Wakefield at home. Aside from Mrs. Hoover she leaves the following other brothers and sisters: William J. Thomas of Medina, Ohio; Henry Thomas of Mineral Point, and Mrs. William Lauver and Mrs. Emily Pierce, both of Altoona.

Funeral services were conducted at her late home this afternoon, at half-past two o'clock by the Rev. Thomas H. Morris, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church of Johnstown. Interment was made in Grandview cemetery.

Notes for Curtis Beriah Bliven:

History of Dakota County, Nebraska by Warner, page 101:

Curtis Bliven belonged to the Farmer's Club, a society organized in 1886 which held a great "Farmer's Institute" in a grove near home, July 30, 1887.

As a young man who freighted materials with an ox team from Laramie, Wyoming to Sioux City, Woodbury County, Iowa. He was just a teenager when he was driving the ox team. Indians were a menace in those days and family history says Curtis was a friend of an Indian brave who kept him posted on the location of troublesome tribes. As Curtis made his many trips back and forth he gazed at a tract of land with a grove of large elm trees and dreamed of someday owning this land and becoming a farmer.

This dream became reality on October 23, 1860 when Curtis purchased the 10 acres from Israel G. Lash. The farm is located 2 miles west and 2 miles south of Dakota City, Nebraska. Curtis lived with a neighbor family while he constructed a log cabin. This probably served as a family home for a few years. Later a wood frame house was constructed. Curtis cleared much of the land and farmed until about 1890, when Will the oldest boy, took over for about ten years. Then Leslie and Charley began farming the home place in 1900. They purchased a farm directly east of the Bliven place from Glen Armour in 1903. Later they divided the property and Leslie remained on the original Bliven farm.

- 1148 ii. William Arthur (Will) Bliven, born 20 Aug 1870 in Dakota, Dakota Co, Nebraska; died 31 Jan 1904 in Albuquerque, Bernalillo Co, New Mexico.

Notes for William Arthur (Will) Bliven:

Dakota City, Nebraska, Feb 5, 1904 – The funeral of William A. Bliven, who was killed by the care at Albuquerque, New Mexico, on January 31, 1904, was held here yesterday, and although the day was frigid cold the Salem Lutheran church, three miles west of this place, where the services were held, was packed to its utmost seating capacity by old friends of the deceased who came to pay their tribute. The remains arrived in Sioux City from Albuquerque on Friday night, being accompanied by the brother, George. Accompanied by the relatives, they were brought to this place at 10 o'clock this morning, where the members of Omadi lodge, No. 5, A.F. & A.M., of which the deceased was a member, joined the funeral cortege and accompanied the remains to the church where Rev. S. M. Leshner, Lutheran pastor, delivered a most fitting sermon on the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death. The casket was a bank of flowers contributed by loving friends. After the church services the Masonic lodge and many friends accompanied the remains to the Taylor cemetery where Past Grand Master R. E. Evans conducted the Masonic funeral services.

Mr. Bliven was in his thirty-fourth year and was born and raised in the county. He was one of the brightest of young men, sober, industrious and successful farmer and catted feeder. By successful financiering in the past few years, he accumulated upwards of $15,000 and when he met his death was enjoying himself sightseeing and looking for an investment.

He married Lillian Isadore Stonum 27 Feb 1881 in Ray Co, Missouri, daughter of John Stonum and Elizabeth Porter. She was born 24 Jan 1863 in Lisbonville, St. Louis Co, Missouri, and died 06 Dec 1945 in Randall Co, Texas.

Notes for George Edgar Robinson:

History of Ray County, Missouri, by Missouri Historical Company. Page 719:

George E. Robinson. This gentleman is a native of the state of Pennsylvania. He was born on the 2d day of May, 1860. When he was about eight years of age, his father removed to the state of Iowa, but remained there only seven months, and then came to Ray County, Missouri. Here he purchased a home and at once commenced farming. George attended school in the winter season, and assisted with the farm work during the summer, until the death of his father, in the autumn of 1870. The mother of our subject married again in 1877, and he began work for himself. In the month of February, 1881, George E. Robinson was married to Miss Lillian Stonum, daughter of John Stonum, Esq., of Ray County. Mr. Robinson is a member of the Christian Union Church, and a very worthy young man. He resides with his wife on the farm his father owned, and is doing his part in the great work of developing the agricultural resources of his native county.

Canyon, Texas – George Edgar Robinson died Saturday afternoon March 15, 1941 at 3:30 o'clock at the family home in the Southwest part of the county where he had been in poor health for some time. He has lived in Randall county for nine years. Mr. Robinson was 80 years, 10 months and 13 days of age. He was a member of the Christian Union Church.

The funeral service was held at the home at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev R. O Browder of Westbrook and Rev. Sam A Thomas of Canyon. Interment followed in Dreamland Cemetery in charge of the Griggs-Thompson Funeral Home. Pall bearers were: M. O. Slack, T. V Slack, C. P. Robertson, Ben Buecher, H. F. Garvin and Louis Hinders.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. G. E Robinson; one son, E. C. Robinson: six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Sallie Crenshaw of Wray, Colorado. Mr. Robinson was born May 2, 1860, in Bolivar, Pennsylvania. He came with his parents to Missouri in 1867. In 1909 he moved to Hemphill County, Texas, and then to Randall in 1932. He was converted when 14 years of age and joined the Christian Union Church, living a consistent Christian Life. He has not been able to attend services for several years due to his health, but listened every Sunday to the broadcast sermons. All neighbors of the family greatly appreciated his fine life and will greatly miss him.

Notes for Lillian Isadore Stonum:

Canyon, Texas, Dec. 13, 1945 - Lillian Isadora Stonum was born at Lisbonville, Missouri, Jan, 24, 1863. On Feb. 27, 1881, she was married to George Edgar Robinson. To this union were born 2 sons, John Elsworth, who died in early childhood; and Elbert Clarence with whom she was making her home at the time of her death. Mrs. Robinson was converted at an early age and she and her husband united with the Christian Union Church in Ray Co., Missouri. She and her husband continued to live in Missouri until the fall of 1909 when they moved to Hemphill County, Texas. They lived there until the fall of 1932 when they moved to Randall County. Her husband passed away March 15, 1941.

She is survived by three brothers and one sister all of Missouri; one son, Elbert C. Robinson, six grandchildren, Mrs. C. D. Pyeatt and Mrs. J. W. Mathis, both of Canadian, Texas; Mrs. A. N. Southall, Jr. of Oakland, California; Mrs. Esther McCleery, Long Beach, California; William Edgar Robinson, Keesler Field, Mississippi; and John C. Robinson of Canyon. There are also seven great-grandchildren.

She was a good wife, a loving mother and a wonderful friend. Her thoughtful concern for others was one of her outstanding characteristics. Though she is gone, the loving faith she had in her Maker will long be an inspiration to all who knew her.

She married Bernard Manuel Boals 07 Jun 1905 in Dakota City, Dakota Co, Nebraska. He was born 19 Sep 1876 in Dakota City, Dakota Co, Nebraska, and died 11 Jan 1950 in Sioux City, Woodsbury Co, Iowa.

Notes for Bernard Manuel Boals:

Bernard Manuel Boals was born Sept. 19, 1876 and died Jan. 11, 1950. He is buried at Logan Park, Sioux City, Iowa. Bernard Manuel Boals was of sturdy build, rugged and healthy, 5 ft 6 1/2 inches in height. He had brown eyes like his mother. Bernard, like his father George Jr., loved to hunt and surely brought in the plump jack-rabbits which in that country are almost like "beefs" and splendid eating; also cottontails which are plump and fat like the jacks, also many ducks. On the hunt for jack-rabbits he was a stayer and if he once jumped up he would stay on the trail until he brought it down even if it took him all day. Bernard went to school at Brushy Bend School until through the 10th grade, then had a year at business college at Dixon, Illinois at the age of twenty. Bernard had an impediment in his speech which bothered him greatly and at Dixon he tried valiantly to master his difficulty. During the winter of 1903 Bernard spent two months in Detroit, Michigan at a school for training to overcome his impediment. He made significant progress during this time.

When twenty four, Bernard was married on September 20, 1900 to Etta Wilhemina Beerman who was one year and two days his junior. Etta was a daughter of Fred Beerman Sr. and Anna Armbricht. Etta was born Sept. 21, 1877 and was a sweetheart of their Brushy Bend School days. They were a devoted and happy couple and everything was joyful about their home. Members of Etta's family were continually dropping in and would bring a loaf of bread or a pickle or something to pretend they were keeping them from starving. Bernard and Etta set up housekeeping on the David Boals home place, which George Jr. (Bernard's father) bought from David and Hannah Boals when they moved to Dallas, Oregon. Bernard still brought in the jack-rabbits hanging from his belt and Etta would praise him on his success in hunting; theirs was surely a happy home. Bernard and Etta had one son, Manuel Wilhelm Boals, born June 5, 1902. Etta passed away at or shortly after his birth, and here was Bernard, alone and with a little boy, motherless.

Bernard's mother, Hattie Plank Boals, came to the rescue and sustained Bernard and cared for little Manuel. Porter Boals, Bernard's brother said "I used to watch mother bathe him and noted his little arms and legs, just like we grown people, only just little. I always called him the "little fellow" and how I watched him grow day by day." Georga, Bernard's sister lived with Bernard and kept house for him all this time. Bernard, with his mother's assistance gradually accepted the loss of his wife and adjusted himself to conditions as they were and realizing it would be better not to continue on alone married Alta Foreshoe on June 7, 1905. Alta was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foreshoe of Dakota County, Nebraska and was a member of Salem Church were all of the Boals families attended. Bernard and Alta had three children in addition to Manuel Wilhelm. Bula Berniece, born Feb. 15, 1907, who died in infancy on July 5, 1907. Rhea born March 14, 1908. Rhea was a healthy child and vigorous and how Bernard loved her. When she was a little over two years old she was stricken with Infantile Paralysis and lived only a day or two and died Sept. 11, 1910. Both children are buried at Logan Park, outside of Sioux City. Their third child was Bernard Ralph Boals, born Oct. 19, 1909.

In 1919 Bernard and Alta rented out their farm for two years and with their sons, Manuel and Ralph, went out west to visit the Porter Boals family (Bernard's brother). They crossed the "Plains" with the Robert (LAHS-Ord) Hileman Family and were guided by the "Blue Book" which one would read while the other one drove. (No highways or signs you see). Each family had a two wheeled trailer which could be made up at night into a house on wheels to provide sleeping quarters and protection from the elements. Naturally this was quite an experience and took quite a while with all kinds of roads and weather.

They arrived in July, 1919 and it was an enjoyable occasion for everyone. That was the year that Mary Elizabeth was born to Alice and Porter Boals, so Bernard's family rented a home in Payette and the boys went to school there. The next summer they went on to California. Porter and his family travelled with them as far as Walla Walla. Bernard had a Haynes car and Porter had a Model T Ford. They had a great experience obtaining gasoline and crossing the Blue Mountains. Bernard rather wanted to stay and live in Payette where he had made many friends but Alta and the boys wanted to go back to their farm in Nebraska, so that fall they all returned to Nebraska. Bernard is buried at the Logan Park Cemetery NW of Sioux City, Iowa.

Notes for Rev. Winfield Scott Hoskinson:

American Lutheran Biographies: or, Historical Notices of Over Three Hundred and Fifty Leading Men of the American Lutheran Church - From its Establishment of the Year 1890. By Jens Christian Roseland. Page 377:

Rev. Winfield S. Hoskinson, Sc.D. was born in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, October, 1852. He is of English and German descent. His paternal grandfather was a Virginian, whose ancestry were of the leading people among early settlers. They were noted especially for their shrewdness and intelligence. Prof. Hoskinson's father has retained these traits in a large degree, being now recognized as a man of unusual intelligence and good, common sense, and although not a professional man, is of liberal education.

But that perseverance characteristic of the subject of this sketch came rather from the German, through the maternal parentage. His maternal grandfather and grandmother were natives of York County, Pennsylvania, and when young emigrated with their parents to the then sparsely settled western part of the State. Both branches of that family were prosperous, and became the thrifty people of their respective communities.

They were Lutherans in church polity, and noted for their strict adherence to the faith of their ancestry, as well as for an honesty and integrity of character, which make their names revered to this day. Prof. Hoskinson's boyhood days were spent on his father's farm. Farming in the hilly country in which he was raised meant an unusual amount of hard work. His father being a practical mechanic, spent his time largely in looking after the interests of a flouring mill and saw mill, leaving the young boy to manage the plowing and sowing. This was done with an energy and determination truly remarkable in one so young. Like most boys, he was unusually fond of horses, and when but twelve years of age would make trips to the distant railroad station, six miles, hauling lumber, flour, tanbark, etc., managing his team on the rough hills with remarkable skill. Being the oldest of a large family of children, the burden of the work and management fell to him. He is remembered by those who knew him when a boy as one who always performed his nearest duty most faithfully.

His schooling when a child was but three months of the year. Of studious habits he made rapid progress, and after spending a short session at a normal school was chosen by the Board of Directors of his home district to teach the winter term of school. This was a severe undertaking, as many of his pupils, being neighbors, were much older than himself. Pluck prevailed, and he was successful, as his re-election to the same school the next year proved. He was not fifteen years old at this time. Having acquired a taste for books and study, he continued teaching in winter and attending normal school in summer.

In the spring of 1870 he came to Wittenberg College, entering the preparatory department, and devoting his time to the study of Greek and Latin. His desire was to return to college at the beginning of the fall term, but was disappointed. He again taught in the winter of 1872, and attended another term of normal school the following summer. In the fall of 1872 he entered the Freshman class in Wittenberg, with the design of preparing himself for the ministry, and in due time was graduated, standing among the first of his class. He then entered the theological seminary, and completed a course in theology. After graduating from the Seminary he was invited to fill the pulpit of Dr. S. A. Ort, in Louisville, Kentucky, during the summer of 1878. Several calls to fields of labor in the ministry were extended to him at this time, but being chosen tutor in the preparatory department of the college he accepted the position, and has filled it ever since. Had brought on by an accident in Norway, and they were finally obliged to apply to an older brother for aid.

Mr. Hoskinson is not one of those who is content with present attainments, but is ever desirous of widening his field of knowledge, and of more thoroughly mastering what he has already been over.

As a teacher Professor Hoskinson has been unquestionably a success, and during his work in the college he has always shown himself master of the branches which he taught. He is strict to the extent of requiring his students to prepare thoroughly what they pass over; feeling that their success, especially in Greek, in their after years in the college department, depended greatly on the thorough training and solid foundation they have laid while in the preparatory department.

In the summer of 1880 Mr. Hoskinson was married to Miss Clara B. McKee, who had been for several years a teacher in the city schools of Springfield, O. They have a family of three children, two girls and a boy.

Mr. Hoskinson began his scientific studies in the fall of 1883, paying particular attention to chemistry and mineralogy. In 1884 and 1885 he published, in connection with Dr. E. F. Smith, "Notes on Minerals," and "Electrolysis of Molybdenum and Mercury Solutions" —papers appearing in the Journal of Chemistry, and in abstract form in foreign journals. In 1885 he translated "Stammer's Chemical Problems," published by Blakiston, Son & Co., of Philadelphia. This little work has been of great service to teachers of chemistry. The summer of 1886 he devoted chiefly to the study of geology and paleontology, making a fine collection of fossils, some of which, found in the Clinton limestone of Ohio, are new. His thesis for the Sc. D. degree relates to mixed halogen derivatives of salicylic acid.—Hist. Wittenberg College.

Dr. Hoskinson has spent one year at the University of Berlin, and is at present pastor of the English Lutheran church at Sacramento, California.

Indiana, Pennsylvania – Word has been received here of the death in Richmond, California, June 28, 1923, of the Rev. Winfield Scott Hoskinson, D. D., a native of Indiana County and an uncle of Mrs. Flora Wilson Williams of South Eleventh Street.

Rev. Hoskinson was a son of the late Squire William B. and Louisa Mikesell Hoskinson of New Florence and was born October 3, 1852. He was graduate from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio; taught in that institution for a number of years and then went abroad to finish his education. Upon his return to the United States he was sent to Sacramento, California, to preach in the First Lutheran Church, where he remained for 20 years.

The Rev. Mr. Hoskinson was also chaplain of the California Senate for a number of years. He was united in marriage with Miss Clara Belle McKee of Springfield, Ohio, on July 8, 1880. He leaves his widow and three children, Carl, Ruth and Rena. He also leaves two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. E. A. Zimmerman of Johnstown. Mrs. Herbert C. Howe of Spokane, Washington; Dr. Wilson Hoskinson of Three Rivers, Michigan, and John M. Hoskinson of Atkinson, Nebraska.

Notes for Oliver M. Wilson:

Indiana, Pennsylvania – Oliver M. Wilson, of No. 218 Eleventh Street, died suddenly in Hunt's European Hotel, Chicago, at noon yesterday August 18, 1907. His death was unexpected, although his family had known that he was not in the best of health. Word from Chicago last night was that Mr. Wilson had returned to his work late last week and was expected to assume his post as clerk in the European Hotel as usual yesterday. His associates there had not seen him until noon and when they went to his room it was found he had died from heart trouble. Mr. Wilson was a frequent sufferer from this ailment, and in 1904-06 gave up his post in Chicago because of illness from this cause. Mr. Wilson was born in Lawrence County about 58 years ago. For a time his parents resided in New Wilmington and the children attended Westminster College. After that the family moved to Clyde, this county. Mr. Wilson was among the first students at Indiana Normal, attending school in the spring terms. In 1878 he went to Johnstown and became bookkeeper in John Thomas & Sons' store, holding the position six years. Mr. Wilson then conducted a store in New Florence, and in 1892 the family moved to Indiana, where the deceased was employed in Mack & Ray's store. During the past ten years Mr. Wilson was employed in Chicago, except during the years noted above.

Mr. Wilson is survived by his wife, who was Emma Hoskinson, of Heshbon, and these children: Arthur W., of Johnstown, and Curtis, Olive and Flora, all at home. He is survived by two brothers and two sitters, as follows: Rev. W. J. Wilson and Mrs. D. C. Mack, of Indiana; Robert Wilson, of Coraica, Jefferson County, and Mrs. Andrew Kerr, of Seward. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Wilson arrived here last night, and Curtis M. Wilson, who is located in Salem, Ohio. with a U. S. Geological corps, reached here at noon today. Arrangements for the funeral have not been perfected, although the inter meat will be made here.

Notes for Daniel Franklin Brenneman:

Winterstown - Daniel F. Brenneman, veteran bank director, former revenue collector and prominent citizen of this borough, died at 7:40 o'clock yesterday morning May 31, 1948 at his residence, Felton RD 1, this place. He was 88. Death followed an illness of three weeks. Mr. Brenneman, a son of the late Joel and Catherine Stabley Brenneman, was the husband of Mrs. Lucretia Battye Brenneman. He was one of the organizers of the First National Bank and Trust company, Red Lion, in 1899, and has served as a director ever since. He was deputy collector of internal revenue of the fifth division, ninth district, for nearly five years, starting in 1897. He was a former street commissioner and school director of Winterstown borough. He was a life-long member of the Lebanon Lutheran church and Sunday school, near Felton, and also belonged to the Dallastown IOOF. Mr. Brenneman was a farmer all of his lifetime and was affiliated with the Republican party.

Surviving, besides his wife, are these children: Mrs. Dennis L. Rouzer, 311 South Main Street, Red Lion; Daniel Sargent Brenneman, Felton RD 1; Murry C. Brenneman, Lincoln, Delaware; Mrs. Otto Remde, Baden, Pennsylvania, and Hathaway S. Brenneman, Mt. Joy, Pennsylvania. He also leaves seven grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Sechrist, Felton RD 1, and Mrs. Amanda Sheffer, Red Lion RD.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Berg Funeral home, Red Lion. Rev. Henry Springer, pastor of Lebanon Lutheran church, will officiate and interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining that church.

Indiana, Pennsylvania – Coming as a great shock to the community was the tragic death of Albert M. Walbeck, a prominent resident and farmer, of West Wheatfield Township, who ended his life by hanging in the wagon shed of his home farm on Thursday forenoon June 2, 1927. The deceased had been in failing health for several months and it is believed that he committed the act during a sudden mental collapse while brooding over his condition. He was serving as road supervisor of his district and leaving the house that morning he announced that he going to Indiana to transact business in connection with the office. Late that afternoon while at the barn gathering eggs, Mrs. Walbeck went to the wagon shed where she discovered the dead body of her husband suspended from a rope which was tied to a rafter. The condition of body gave evidence that the deed must have been committed shortly after Mr. Walbeck left the house that morning.

The deceased, who was a son of late Levi Walbeck, was aged 66 and was a life-long resident of West Wheatfield Township, where he was regarded as one of the most substantial citizens. He was a man of fine Christian character and was one of the active members of the Germany M. E. church. He was identified with various community interests throughout his active career and served his district in several positions of trust.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Nesbitt, of near Blairsville, and sons, R. S. and R. D. Walbeck, at home. He was a twin brother of Joseph L. Walbeck, who in the same township. Funeral services were conducted at the on Sunday afternoon and interment followed in the Lutheran church cemetery.

John Samuel Walbeck (1780-1852) & Elizabeth Seitz (1790-1858) had 12 Children... two of which were Charles Walbeck (1822-1902) which is the line that Forrest descended from. Another son Was Levi Franklin Walbeck (1824 to 1908). Levi married Lydia Sarah Wagner (1827-1909) and they had 9 children, one of which was Albert M. Walbeck (1862-1927).

Albert married Crissie Mae Stormer (1863-1935) and they had 4 children, one of which was Ralph Deane Walbeck (or Walback)(1903-??) as he seemed to spell it differently throughout various newspaper articles from that period when he as the youngest son was the executor of his mother's estate in 1935. I found him with the Merchant Marines in San Francisco in 1930, but lost track of him after that. He married Margaret Biggerstaff (1912-??) in 1939. He appears to have gone by the name of Dean not Ralph. So based on the evidence that you found, the certificate dated Jul 1928 and the photo, which I'm guessing is around that same date, I believe this to be a photo of Ralph's mother Crissie Mae Stormer-Walbeck. Her husband Albert (Ralph's father) had a tragic ending. According to his obituary, he was a prominent farmer and one of the most substantial residents of the county of West Wheatfield. Unfortunately, his health began failing and he became broody in 1927. He kissed his wife good-bye on the 9th of June and said he was going into Indiana on business and went into the wagon shed and hung himself. Later that day, Crissie went to gather eggs and found his body hanging from a rope suspended from the shed's rafter. He was a man of fine Christian character and an active member of the Germany Lutheran Church.

The funeral services will be conducted by her pastor, Reverend Charles Shindler, at 4:00 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Interment will follow in the Brush Valley Lutheran cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Robert Walbeck and Margaret Murdick:

A very pretty wedding took place at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 8, 1904 at the home of the bride, near Rico when Mr. Robert C. Walbeck, of Heshbon, was married to Miss Gertrude M. Murdick, daughter of the late, Chambers Murdick. Rev. J. Milton Snyder, of Strongstown, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Verna R. Findley, a niece of the bride, and Mr. J. E.

Walbeck, a brother of the groom. The bride carried orange blossoms and the bride's maid a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A number of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony, and a bounteous wedding supper was served. The bride is one of the most highly respected ladies of the community. The groom has been a popular and successful school teacher for years, having taught the Mechanicsburg school during last year's term. Mr. Walbeck intends to continue the profession of teaching in his own township.

She was born 06 Dec 1875 in Brush Valley Twp, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 13 Mar 1953.

Notes for Joseph Sides Wagner:

Adapted from the History of Indiana County, Pennsylvania:

After attending the common schools of West Wheatfield Township, Mr. Wagner went to the select school kept by Professor Campbell, receiving the benefit of that learned instructor's training. While thus engaged with his father, and continued with him until he attained his majority. At the time he was in the lumber business in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, and conducted it for a year.

After several changes, during which time he rented land, Mr. Wagner bought the McNealy farm of a80 acres in 1906. This property is in West Wheatfield Township, which locality has been the scene of so much valuable agricultural work that it would seem but natural that he should settle there too. His farm is conveniently located on the clay pike, one mile from Clyde. As soon as he bought his property Mr. Wagner began making improvements on it, and in 1909 put up his handsome $4,000 barn, which is one of the best in the county. It was constructed according to the latest models of sanity building, and the plans have received universal approval from other agriculturists.

Like his father, Mr. Wagner believes in fruit culture, and has already set out over five hundred fruit trees, purposing to devote considerable attention to his orchard culture in the future. Realizing the worth of advanced agriculture and intensive farming, Mr. Wagner has supplied his farm with modern machinery and is trying to make his land produce to its fullest extent. His excellent location gives him a good market, and his produce is sought by those who appreciate first-class articles.

Notes for Cecil B. Wagner:

Kittanning, Sept. 1, 1931 - Two Seward men were killed and third injured seriously today when their truck overturned on a curve at the foot of a steep hill near Edgewood, two miles from Kittanning. Cecil Wagner, 40, driver of the truck, Seward, killed instantly. Carl Hrabavosfey, 17, Seward, died enroute to Kittanning Hospital. Injured was Robert Wagner, 17, nephew of Cecil Wagner, in Kittanning hospital.

The accident occurred when the truck, loaded with laurel, enroute from Seward to Canton, Ohio, got out of control at the foot of the hill, left the highway and overturned onto the street car tracks nearby. The cab of the truck in which the three were riding was wrecked completely. The elder Wagner suffered a broken neck and a fractured skull, Hrabavosky received a fractured skull and a crushed chest and Robert Wagner suffered lacerations of the face and skull and a fractured wrist.

The trio left Seward last midnight and were enroute to Butler, and Canton on Route 422, the Benjamin Franklin Highway. The younger Wagner, said the truck was descending the hill at about 40 miles an hour. When they neared the bottom the brakes refused to hold. The driver was unable to make the sharp turn.

Notes for Eugene W. Ludwig:

Eugene W. Ludwig, 84, of Robinson, passed away peacefully on Monday, Oct. 1, 2018, at Keeper of the Flame Personal Care Home, Blairsville. Eugene was born Nov. 4, 1933, in Seward, the son of late Joseph and Carrie (Travis) Ludwig. Gene was a dog lover. He enjoyed his beagles, coonhounds, squirrel dogs and many household pets. He was very knowledge able about coon hunting and won many trophies and ribbons through the years. He attended his last bench show in May 2018, which he enjoyed immensely and was able to share his knowledge with others there. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing through the years with his father, brothers and nephews. He was a proud supporter of both United and Laurel Valley athletic programs. Gene enjoyed a good cup of coffee (or two!) with sugar and cream and also always was chewing Freedent Gum. He was known to make his rounds to friends' and relatives' houses and have coffee and just enjoy each other's presence. Gene was a member of Conemaugh Valley Beagle Club, Salem Beagle Club, Robinson VFW and Korean War Veterans Association. He proudly served in the U.S. Army from 1952 to 1955. Gene was employed as an electrician at Bethlehem Steel and Penelec.

He is survived by his brother, Paul (Nancy) Ludwig, New Florence, who he affectionately called "Brother Paul," and his sister, Catherine Duncan, Seward, who he lovingly called "Sis." Numerous nieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews and other relatives who he adored and treated as if they were his own, also survive him. He was very proud of all their accomplishments.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Carole (Penrose) Ludwig, with whom he shared 50 happy years; brother, Louis Ludwig and his wife Mary; infant brother, Robert Ludwig; and his brother-in-law, Tom Duncan.

Our family would like to extend heartfelt gratitude to the following: Gene and Mary Wilson, his neighbors in Robinson. The support they provided has been unwavering. They showed great love for our brother and uncle. The staff at Keeper of the Flame. He cared about each person there and had the ability to know each of their stories because he listened to them. They showed him much love and made his adjustment to leaving home much easier. They also were able to get him to try to like mashed potatoes for the first time since his service days! Thanks also to the VNA Hospice of Indiana County, especially Jeanie Clark, Darlene Neff and Karri Hodgkinson. They provided peace, love and comfort for him and strength for our family, which will not be forgotten.

Friends will be received from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday at the Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence. The funeral service will be at 3 p.m. with Pastor Ruth Moore officiating. Private interment will be in Germany Lutheran Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Conemaugh Valley Beagle Club, VNA Hospice of Indiana County, or Keeper of the Flame Personal Care Home in Gene's memory. In memory and to honor the man that Gene Ludwig was, have a cup of coffee with a relative, friend or stranger, lift each other up, enjoy the fellowship and be a light to others in this world. Romans 15:2: Each one of us needs to look after the good of the people around us, asking ourselves, "How can I help?" (MSG Bible).

Notes for Alfred Torrance Dilts:

Alfred Torrance Dilts, 24, of Josephine, well known in the, Ambrose section, died in Indiana Hospital at 2:07 o'clock Sunday morning March 24, 1940 as the result of a fist-fight with Gilbert Buzzinotti, 27, of Black Lick. The fist-fight occurred outside the John Ferra tavern in Black Lick. Dilts was a grandson of Mathew T. Hamilton, of Ambrose, with whom he had visited frequently as a youth, spending much of his childhood in the Ambrose section. Coroner E.L. Fleming attributed death to a cerebral hemorrhage and brain concussion superinduced when Dilts was knocked, or fell unconscious during the fist-fight.

Buzzinotti was held in Indiana County Jail this morning while Sheriff J. Clair Irvin, Deputy Sheriff William J. Kelly, and H. S. Luther and Harry F. Anderson, of the Indiana Sub-station of Motor Police, investigated the affair. Dilts and Buzzinotti fought outside the John Fetta tavern after a dispute inside the drinking place, Private Luther said he learned. He said that William Gearhard, 23, of Blairsville, R.D. 3, the only eye witness of the fight, told hint of following Dilts and Buzzinotti when they left the tavern. Gearhard told Coroner Fleming that Buzzinotti hit Dilts while the Josephine man was removing his overcoat, adding that it was the only blow struck. Dilts fell backwards, his head striking a parked car, Gearhard said. Dilts never recovered consciousness it was reported. Coroner Fleming said he learned that the quarrel "Was the result of all old dispute between Buzzinotti and Dilts' father, Niles J. Dilts." Admitting that he fought with Dilt, Buzzinotti told officers, however, that he was fighting Gearhard when Dilts collapsed. He accused Gearhard of striking him from behind while he was engaged with Dilt.

Notes for Marion David B. Cline:

Blairsville, May 8, 1975 - Marion D. Cline of Blairsville RD 1 has received two United States patents for applications he filed in November 1973. Mr. Cline's "material protector" patent is a protective device to be used to tie down rolls of steel for shipment without damaging the steel. He states the device, a one-piece unit, is inexpensive to manufacture, easy to install, and interengageable with tie-down chains to retain the steel in the desired working position. His second patented device is called an "Anti-Rolling Shipping Support for Steel Coils." This device, according to Mr. Cline, replaces the common practice of using Wooden blocks spiked to the floor. His invention is made of heavy gauge metal and holds the block of wood in the desired position without spiking the blocks to the floor. The Cline product reportedly is simple to construct, easy to use and highly effective in preventing coils or other round objects from shifting position during shipment, Mr. Cline has other patents approved through the years.

Marion D. "Dave" Cline, Sr., 86, of Blairsville, Pennsylvania passed away on Monday, January 14, 2013 at Conemaugh Memorial Medical Center, Johnstown, Pennsylvania. The son of George H. and Mamie E. Wheatfield, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 21 Jan 1951 in Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Elsie Rebecca Mack:

The electrical storm of last evening was indirectly responsible for the death of Mrs. Elsie (Mack) Hutchison, 63, wife of Charles H. Hutchison of near Armagh and mother of Clarence Hutchison, manager of the G. C. Murphy Company store here. Shortly after the storm began there was a sharp crack of lightning and Mr. Hutchison went to the barn thinking that it had been struck. Finding no signs of fire he returned to the residence and detecting smoke discovered a small fire in the attic. Quick use of a fire extinguisher was effective. In the meantime Mrs. Hutchison who had a heart condition for some time, suffered an acute attack, and died before medical assistance could be summoned. Coroner Edward L. Fleming M.D. made an official inspection and said that death was attributable by the shock of the storm and ensuing fire.

Surviving with Mr. Mack and the son mentioned are the following other children: Royden Hutchison of Bethlehem; Joseph Hutchison of Brushvalley; Samuel Hutchison, at home; Mrs. Wilden Mack of Jeannette and Miss Ann Hutchison, at home.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Services for Mrs. Elsie (Mack) Hutchison, whose death from a heart attack super induced by shock, when her home was struck by lightning Wednesday evening, have been arranged for the Hutchison home at 2:00 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. Carl Buterbaugh, pastor of the Armagh Methodist Church, will officiate and interment will be in Armagh Cemetery.

A native of Indiana County, Mrs. Mack was born in West Wheatfield Township, June 16, 1880, a daughter of Joseph and Ella (Sides) Mack. Surviving are her husband, Charles Hutchison, and these children: Royden, Bethlehem; Joseph, Brush Valley Twp.; Clarence, Indiana; Mrs. Jane Mack, Jeannette; Samuel and Anabell, both at home. She was a sister of Mrs. Edna Summer, Hollidaysburg, and Roscoe Mack, Derry. Clarence Hutchison is manager of the Indiana Murphy Company store.

Notes for James D. Shaffer:

James D. Shaffer, Professor Emeritus Department of Agricultural, Food, and Resource Economics (AEC/AFRE Faculty, 1953 – 1997 & AEC Instructor, 1947 – 1953). Degree: Ph.D., 1953. Michigan State University & B.S., 1947. Michigan State University.

James D. Shaffer was born in Indiana, Pennsylvania and raised in Michigan. He served in the U.S. Navy in World War II, 1943-46. Throughout most of his professional career at Michigan State University, he held variable appointments including teaching, research, extension, consulting and public service. Upon retirement in 1997 he completed 50 years of service from the time he first taught at MSU an introductory course, Economics 101, in the fall of 47 as an economics graduate assistant. Over his career his major interests were in market behavior, institutions and policies; applied social science; consumer analysis; and marketing in economic development.

He became well known as an intellectual leader and a truly innovative scholar in the agricultural economics profession. Not content with conventional economic theory and its application to contemporary economic problems, he constantly sought new approaches to the solution of difficult social problems. He was unusually creative in drawing upon ideas and concepts being developed in several social sciences. Through his extensive writing, teaching, and interaction with other professionals he has stimulated and influenced policies and programs in food system organization and public policy.

Shaffer's career reflects a strong commitment to the missions of the USDA/land grant university system. Early in his career, Shaffer attracted attention for his pioneering work on consumer behavior and demand for food. He worked closely with Dr. Gerald Quackenbush in the development and operation of the MSU Consumer Panel which served as a basis for many publications on food purchasing patterns and the socioeconomic factors underlying the demand for food.

In the 1960s, his research interests shifted toward policy questions in the organization and performance of the U.S. food system. He became a national leader in developing new approaches to marketing research. His 1968 working paper concerning publicly supported economic research in agricultural marketing stood the test of time as a major issue-raising paper. That document and related papers dealing with marketing, institutional obsolescence, and innovation have had a significant influence on research programs within the USDA/land grant system.

Shaffer also played a major role in the highly regarded national research program, "Organization and Control of the U.S. Food Production and Distribution System" (NC-117). He shared in the 1980 AAEA award recognizing professional excellence for distinguished policy contributions through that project. During the 1970s, Shaffer's research emphasized three areas; (a) organizational arrangements to facilitate farmers' bargaining with buyers of their products, (b) the problems of reorganizing railroad services in Michigan, and (c) policies and programs to improve marketing system organization in developing countries.

He applied his research in extension and public service in Michigan, serving as chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Marketing and Bargaining Board and the Michigan Railroad Advisory Council. Shaffer's extension activities included farm and food policy, but he has also contributed to programs concerning the problems of rural communities and their governments. He served as director of a grant-supported Center for Rural Manpower and Public Affairs and was primarily responsible for developing a successful in-service training program in public affairs.

Shaffer's professional career included a significant international dimension as an active advisor and mentor in a series of Michigan State University food marketing and food security research projects. He served as a consultant to applied research and policy outreach activities in twenty-five countries.

Shaffer also gave strong, continuing leadership to the undergraduate and graduate teaching programs at Michigan State University. He chaired the committee which developed a new undergraduate public affairs management curriculum, including the development and teaching of its introductory course. He was on countless graduate student advisory committees, and was major professor for over 58 students. Former graduate students and colleagues in research and outreach projects around the world regard Shaffer as an outstanding teacher who stimulated and challenged them to apply theory, analytical tools, and relevant data in creative ways. His Socratic method of teaching and personal example motivated students and colleagues to explore new areas and undertake research on difficult, but real, problems. He also played an important role in local community affairs, serving 7 years as president of the East Lansing School Board.

- 2462 iii. Josephine Faith (Josie) Loughry, born 1948; died 22 Aug 2019 in Mendham, Morris Co, New Jersey. She married ? Adamack.

Notes for Josephine Faith (Josie) Loughry:

Josephine (Josie) Faith Loughry Adamack passed away peacefully at her son Noah Verner's home in Mendham, New Jersey on August 22, 2019 after a summer of illness. She was 71. She was born and raised in Miami, Florida to parents Jean Faith Loughry and John Loughry. She is survived by her son, Noah Verner, sisters, Judy Arthur (Jon), of Coral Gables, Florida, and Hendersonville, North Carolina, 'Jeannie' Sarah Jean Bond-Parsons (Albert), of Monroe, Washington, and Jill Beach of Miami, Florida.

Josie leaves nieces and nephews Kathy Callobre', Miami, Florida, Pamela Silverman, Lake Worth, Florida, Michael Slattery, Ladson, South Carolina, and Russell Beach of Austin, Texas. She leaves great nieces and nephews, Carly Callobre', Mike Callobre', both of Miami, Florida, Austyn and Eryn Slattery of Ladson, South Carolina, Julia and Derek Silverman of Lake Worth, Ruby and Ramona Beach of Austin, Josie loved animals and made a happy home for many cherished dogs and cats. Gardening, reading, cooking, music and movies were among her hobbies. A graduate of Miami Senior High and the University of Florida, she joined Coral Gables Congregational Church in 1992 and later attended The First Congregational Church of Hendersonville, North Carolina. Following graduation from U of F, she worked in banking in Miami for a few years, then moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee, where she was a social worker. The major years of her career were dedicated to teaching. She taught World History at South Miami Senior High. There, she proudly served as the sponsor of the social/service Interact Club. In this role, she represented South Miami Senior High at the South Miami Rotary Club. After retiring in 2013, she moved to Hendersonville, North Carolina, her special place of beauty and peace.

Josie requested no service, though prayers are welcome. She will be missed. Honor Josie's memory by donating to a pet rescue organization.

Notes for George Horace Bliven:

George Horace Bliven, veteran attorney and leader in fraternal, civic and religious activities, died

Sunday afternoon in his home at 2403 E. Solway street. He was 63 years old. Mr. Bliven suffered a general physical breakdown several weeks ago and failed to respond to treatment at a hospital. He was forced to abandon his law practice with the firm of Bliven & McKinley in the Trimble building two months ago. During his 55 years of residence in Sioux City, Mr. Bliven won a place of leadership in various organizational activities, particular in lodge work.

Born October 22, 1875, on a farm in Dakota county, Nebraska, he came to Sioux City with his parents when he was 8 years old. He attended the old Webster school, on the west side, was graduated from high school here and went on to the University of Iowa where he was graduated from the law school.

Returning here, he served as secretary to Mayor A. H. Burton and several years later formed a law partnership with the late Chauncey Joy. After Mr. Joy's death he practiced alone for some time before becoming a partner of Sherman McKinley, Jr., in 1926. For 12 years, from 1912 to 1924, Mr. Bliven was secretary of the board of education and was attorney for the present board. He was a director of the Sioux City Boat club for many years and was a member and trustee of the First Presbyterian church. Active in Masonic lodge circles, he served as secretary of the Masonic Building association which erected the present temple at Ninth and Nebraska streets. He also was a member of Abu-Bekr Shrine temple. Other fraternal organizations of which he was a member were Columbian Commandery 18, K. T.; Sioux City chapter 26, R. A. M., and Landmark lodge 103, A.F. & A. M., of which he was a past master. He was a past patron of Rose Croix chapter 400, O.E.S.

At the home of his death, he was secretary of the John Marshall chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. He also was a member of the Sioux City and Woodbury county bar associations and was an inheritance tax appraiser for the state. Mr. Bliven married Sara E. Murphy October 19, 1904.

Survivors include the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Katherine Plotts of Sioux City; a son George H. Bliven, Jr., both of Sioux Falls; two brothers, Leslie S. and Charles J., both of Dakota City; a sister, Mrs. Hugh Graham of Sioux City, and four grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Westcott-Doughty-Chandler funeral home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete, but services probably will be held Tuesday afternoon.

1152. Curtis Harold (Hal)⁷ Bliven (Sarah Katherine⁶ Stormer, Levi⁵, Susan⁴ Seitz, twin, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 24 Jun 1878 in Dakota, Dakota Co, Nebraska, and died 26 Jun 1912 in Sioux City, Woodbury Co, Iowa. He married Margaret Ada Sawyer 16 Mar 1902 in Woodbury Co, Iowa. She was born 1879 in Iowa, and died 16 Feb 1963 in Pueblo, Pueblo Co, Colorado.

Notes for Curtis Harold (Hal) Bliven:

Harold C. Bliven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bliven, of Sioux City, died at the parental home in Sioux City, Wednesday night of last week, of tuberculosis. The deceased had been in ill health for several years, and had tried several localities in search of health, but gradually grew weaker until the final summons came.

Harold C. Bliven was born June 24, 1878, on the home farm in Dakota county, Nebraska, where he resided nearly his entire life. He resided in California a few years, returning to Dakota county and locating on a farm where he resided until last fall when his health became such that he entered a sanitarium at Denver, Colorado. He found no relief there, and recently returned to the home of his parents, in Sioux City.

He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his departure, besides his parents and other relatives. Mr. Bliven was a member of Omadi lodge NO. 5, A.F. & A.M., the lodge having charge of the services at the grave. The funeral services were held Friday at 10 o'clock a.m., from the Curtis N. Bliven home in Sioux City, the remains being taken to the Taylor cemetery for interment.

Notes for Elbert Clarence Robinson:

Canyon, Texas, May 20, 1953 – Last week' "Mystery Farm" is that of E.C. Robinson. It is located 17 miles southwest of Canyon and has been in the Robinson family of four generations. Mr. Robinson says the land was in cultivation when it was purchased from C. O. Keiser. The dry land farmer and his wife, Rosa Ann, have six children, four girls and 2 boys. The two boys, John and Edgar, live in Canyon. Two of the daughters who live in Canadian are Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Pyeatt, and Mrs. Lillian Mathis. Those living in California are Mrs. Esther Gerhart and Mrs. Irene Southall. Robinsons are members of the Methodist Church and the Farm Bureau. Mr. Robinson says that one of his favorite hobbies is playing dominoes. On the farm wheat is considered the most profitable crop. This is also the favorite crop. The farm also produces its own feed for the dairy Holstein cattle that are grown there. To help keep this feed free of weeds, 2-4-D weed spray is used. Mr. Robinson has been a Canyon News reader for the past 12 years. His favorite section of the paper is the classified ad section.

Notes for Dr. Frederick Victor Lichtenfels:

Word has been received of the death of Dr. F. Victor Lichtenfels, Sr., 70, early Sunday morning, May 6, 1956, at his home in Pitcairn, Pennsylvania. Dr. Lichtenfels, husband of the late Edith Karns Lichtenfels, often visited in Franklin at the A. S. Karns home. He was a member of the staff at Pittsburgh Eye and Ear Hospital for more than 37 years and had offices in Pitcairn and in the Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh. A native of Bolivar, Westmoreland County, he received his doctor's degree at the University of Pittsburgh Medical School in 1912 and served his internship at Presbyterian Hospital. During World War I, Dr. Lichtenfels served in the Army Medical Corps. He was a member of Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity; American Medical Association; Post No. 356, American Legion, Pitcairn; Pyrian Lodge 612, F & AM; Consistory Valley of San Antonio, Texas, and past president of the Pitcairn Kiwanis Club.

Surviving are a son, Dr. Frederick V. Lichtenfels, Jr.; a brother, Percy V. Lichtenfels; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the McGinnis Presbyterian Church, Pitcairn, and burial will be in Crossroads Presbyterian Cemetery, Murrys ville. Attending the service from Franklin will be Mrs. A. S. Karns, Miss Lillian E. Karns, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Karns, and Mr. and Mrs. Benton

K. Karns.

(Anson)⁶, Elizabeth Ann⁵ Mikesell, Jane Carrie⁴ Sides, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 17 Mar 1889 in Sioux City, Woodbury Co, Iowa, and died 22 Mar 1951 in Spokane, Washington. He married Evelyn K. Bostwick 1920. She was born 25 May 1889 in Oregon, and died 29 Jan 1968 in Jacksonville, Jackson Co, Oregon.

Notes for Owen Francis Ogden:

Salem, Oregon - Owen F. Ogden, who is making a sensational drive to break national life insurance sale records says that his campaign is attracting national attention and advertising Salem throughout the country, largely because it is the first-time newspaper publicity has been extensively used in an individual campaign by an insurance agent. Talking of his effort he says: "Before I started this, I had the Okeh of the New York Life home office. I have recently received a wire from Thomas A. Buckner, the rice president, wishing me well, also wires from our head men all over the country. The local chamber of commerce endorsed it, also the American Legion. My first full page ad showed a letter to me extending well wishes of Charles L. McNary, our governor. I. L. Patterson, Chief Justice Rand, secretary of state, Sam Kozer, State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay. Dr. Carl Doney, president of Willamette university and Mayor Tom Livesley.

"I am expecting wires from the east from some men that are certainly in the public eye. If I succeed in breaking the record that was made in Vancouver, Washington, it will stand out above all the rest because I have attempted things that no one ever did before. No one has done as much newspaper advertising as I have. I am going to line up the support of the New York Life officials and try to get this story in some magazine with a national circulation. If I get this over, this article will not only show just what I used in the way of advertising but will also show what all the state institutions look like and all our buildings with plenty of data about Salem and Marion county. "If I get what I have gone after in the way of endorsement I will make a national affair of this."

Salem, Oregon - Owen Francis Ogden, resident of Salem since 1921, died suddenly on a train at Spokane, Washington, March 22, 1951, while en route to his old home in Sioux City, Iowa, for a visit. Ogden, who resided at 914 Saginaw Street, Salem, and had operated a Bible and Book Nook there for some time, was a native of Sioux City, Iowa. When he left that city he went to Seattle. He came from Seattle to Salem. When he first came to Salem in 1921 Ogden was manager of the Liberty theater, here. Later he was with the New York Life Insurance company here. He was a member of the Assembly of God church.

Surviving are his wife, Evelyn K. Ogden of Salem; a son, Vernon Ogden of Portland; and a sister, Mrs. Ethel Clancey, of Seattle.

Announcement of services will be made later by the Virgil T. Golden company chapel.

Notes for Nancy Ann Mikesell:

Nancy M. Wade, age 87, passed away on Monday, June 9, 2014, at Hospice of Northwest Ohio in Perrysburg. Nancy was born in Toledo, Ohio on March 1, 1927, to Robert and Gladys Mikesell. She was a graduate of Ottawa Hills High School and attended Bradford Jr. College before graduating from Mt. Vernon College. Nancy ran a day care center for 3-4 year olds at Ottawa Hills High School over the summer months throughout her college years with her friend Sue Olander. After graduation, she taught pre-school at Maumee Valley Country Day School. Nancy married George S. Wade in 1949 and began volunteering with The Toledo Hospital Auxiliary pushing the book cart through the hospital floors. She was a longtime volunteer for the Red Cross and drove the motor corp for years before eventually becoming co-chairman of all volunteers. Nancy later served on the Red Cross Board and had the opportunity to travel with them to numerous national conventions. She was instrumental in organizing relief efforts after major disasters such as plane crashes, tornadoes, fires, and floods.

Nancy was a longtime member of the Junior League of Toledo and transferred her membership to the Junior League of Boca Raton, Florida after moving there. She served on the board of the Sunset House on Indian Rd. and helped plan parties and entertainment for the ladies there. Her family donated the first van to assist in transporting residents to the doctor and other appointments. Nancy and George were members of Toledo Country Club, Deerfield Country Club in Deerfield, Florida, and Manistee Golf and Country Club in Manistee, MI. They were also members of Portage Yacht Club where their family was very active in the sailing program. Nancy and her family spent every summer in Northern Michigan. They built two cottages to house all of the children and grandchildren where they enjoyed all sports winter through summer.

Nancy owned and managed Kaleidoscope Needlepoint with different partners for 20 years turning the hobby that she loved into a successful business.

Nancy is survived by her children, Debbie S. Wade, George S. "Tim" Wade (Chris), Amy Degucz (David), and Robert M. Wade (Marina); nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, George.

Services will be private. Contributions in Nancy's memory may be made to the Boys and Girls Club of Toledo, 2250 Detroit Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43606 or to the American Red Cross of Toledo, 3510 Executive Pkwy., Toledo, Ohio 43606.

Nancy M. Wade, 87, who addressed her business ventures and volunteer work with industry, died Monday in Hospice of Northwest Ohio in Perrysburg Township. She had a stroke, her son Tim said. She lived independently at home - Ottawa Hills in the spring and fall; Boca Raton, Florida, in the winter, and the family summer place in Onekama, Mich. Yet rarely was she alone, her son said. "Most of her life the last 20 years was dedicated to spending time with her family," her son said. Mrs. Wade and her friend Martha Schomburg bought Kaleidoscope, a needlework shop on North Reynolds Road, in 1973. About four years later, they opened a second shop at Peddlers' Alley in Waterville.

Her father, Robert Mikesell, was an investment banker and "a very aggressive businessman," her son said. "So she was born and raised with that fire in her belly and wanted her own business." Mrs. Wade operated Kaleidoscope into the early 1990s. She also made needlepoint kneelers for St. Michael's in the Hills Episcopal Church in Ottawa Hills and for St. John by-the-Lake Episcopal Church in northwest Lower Michigan. "It was a small cottage industry, but it certainly was her passion," her son said.

Mrs. Wade was a board member and deputy chairman of volunteers for the American Red Cross' Greater Toledo Area Chapter. After disasters, she assembled teams of volunteers to respond. As a member of the local Red Cross board, she represented Toledo at national conventions. She was a member of the board at Sunset House, which began as a residence for elderly women and where her mother was a volunteer leader, and volunteered at Toledo Hospital.

She was born March 1, 1927, to Gladys and Robert Mikesell. She was a graduate of Ottawa Hills High School, attended Bradford Junior College, and received a degree from Mount Vernon College in Washington. She spent summer breaks from college operating, with a friend, a daycare center for 3- and 4-year-olds at the high school. She later taught preschool at Maumee Valley Country Day School. She and George S. Wade married Sept. 16, 1949. He died Sept. 23, 2002.

Surviving are her daughters Debbie Wade and Amy Degucz; sons, George S. "Tim" and Robert Wade; nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be private. Arrangements are by the Walker Funeral Home. The family suggests tributes to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Toledo or the American Red Cross in Toledo.

Notes for George Sinclair Wade:

George S. Wade, co-founder of a once well-known local investment banking firm, died of cancer Monday in Hospice of Northwest Ohio. He was 76. Mr. Wade and his partner, George Roose, formed Roose, Wade & Co. in 1963. The firm belonged to the Midwest and New York stock exchanges but was best known for underwriting and selling tax-exempt bonds. Mr. Roose was perhaps best known as a one-time owner of Cedar Point amusement park, which he had bought in 1957. As a municipal finance specialist, Mr. Wade was heavily involved in the debt issues of area towns, school districts, and hospitals. He arranged financing for the ship simulator at One Maritime Plaza that attracts ship pilots from around the world for training.

In the 1970s, his company underwrote a $17.25 million bond issue for expansion of Mid-States Terminals and was part of a syndicate that financed a $29 million expansion of Mercy Hospital. Roose, Wade remained independent until 1978, when it became part of Wm. C. Roney Co., a Detroit-based brokerage firm. Mr. Wade became a general partner in Roney. In 1972, Mr. Wade and a group of investors bought a property-management firm, Al E. Reuben Co., and changed its name to Reuben Co. Today, the business is owned and operated by Mr. Wade's son, Tim. Mr. Wade's investment banking career began with Stranahan, Harris Co. in 1949, the year he and his wife, Nancy, were married. He entered the firm at the behest of his father-in-law, Robert Mikesell, who was a partner there, according to Tim Wade. Mr. Wade also was involved in managing Citizens Gas Fuel Co., an Adrian distributor of natural gas owned by his father-in-law.

Mr. Wade grew up in Sylvania and graduated from high school there. He attended the University of Rochester and graduated from the University of Toledo with a degree in business administration. He served in the Navy's officer training program during World War II. Mr. Wade's board memberships included Toledo Hospital, UT, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Toledo, Woodlawn Cemetery, and the Greater Toledo Area Chapter of the American Red Cross. He also belonged to the Rotary Club of Toledo, Portage Lake Yacht Club, the Toledo Club, Toledo Country Club, Ottawa Skeet Club, and Castalia Trout Club. Mr. Wade was an avid fisherman, hunter, and skier, his daughter, Debbie Wade, said. He and his wife lived in Ottawa Hills.

Surviving are his wife, Nancy; daughters, Deborah Wade and Amy Degucz; sons, Tim and Robert; brothers, Benjamin and Tom, and nine grandchildren.

A memorial service will be at 11:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Michael's in the Hills Episcopal Church. Arrangements are by the Jeffrey Fretti Funeral Home. The family requests tributes to Hospice of Northwest Ohio or the Boys and Girls Clubs of Toledo.

Notes for Donald Dean Angel:

Don D. Angel, 83, of Waukon, Iowa, died Monday, September 9, 2013, in Waukon following an accident. Donald Dean Angel was born June 23, 1930, in Dysart, Iowa, the son of John and Mabel Dorathea (Stein) Angel. He was baptized and confirmed in Dysart. In 1948, Don graduated from La Porte City High School; he then attended and graduated from Gates Business College in Waterloo, Iowa. Don received his Bachelor's at the State College of Iowa (now U.N.I.) in Cedar Falls, Iowa. On January 31, 1951, he married Shirley Ruth Sides at the Methodist Church in La Porte City. He taught in Brandon, Iowa, before moving to Waukon, Iowa, in 1962. While teaching, Don earned his Master's degree from the University of Illinois in Champaign, Illinois. Don was also a drivers' education teacher and a coach for girls' golf and basketball. He retired from teaching in 1992, and in 2007, was inducted into the Iowa Girls' Coaches Hall of Fame for golf. On October 23, 2004, Don married Audrey Grotegut at the First Presbyterian Church in Waukon.

Don was a member of the United Methodist Church in Waukon, where he was a trustee and was on the committee for the McDowell scholarship. He also attended the First Presbyterian Church in Waukon with Audrey. Being an active member of the community, Don was involved with numerous organizations including: Waukon City Council, the Jaycees, Kiwanis, the Veterans Memorial Hospital Board, and the Lions Club. He was also a member of the Waukon Golf and Country Club, Sportsman's Club, Pheasants Forever, and was a Mason. Don loved life and took on a variety of activities. He liked to go bowling and loved to golf, participating in several golf tournaments; he even made two holes in one during his lifetime. An avid sportsman, Don liked hunting, fishing, gardening, trap shooting, and archery. He also liked traveling and made trips to Alaska, Canada, Branson, Missouri, and Florida. He also made sure to attend his children, and later, grandchildren's events. Don will be remembered for his infectious smile and his "halo".

Don is survived by his wife Audrey of Waukon; three children: Mick (Cathy) Angel of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, Linda (Mark) Hale of Stoughton, Wisconsin, and Chad (Leah) Angel of Waverly, Iowa; step-daughter Jane Grotegut of Waukon; ten grandchildren: Amy Bodensteiner, Angela Archer, Ali Roemhild, Lucas, Justin, and Isaac Hale, and Rhini, Cede, Trey, and Cali Angel; step-granddaughter Beth Schulte of Greene, Iowa; nine great-grandchildren; and two step-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife Shirley, who died in 2002; and an infant brother Dale.

Memorial services will be held Tuesday, September 17th, at 11:00 AM at First Presbyterian Church in Waukon with Pastor Grant VanderVelden and Rev. Richard Iles officiating. Burial will be at Oakland Cemetery, Waukon. Friends may call from 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM Monday at Martin Funeral Home in Waukon. Following the visitation, the celebration of Don's life will continue at the Waukon Golf and Country Club. Honorary pallbearers are Jim Christensen, Wayne Martin, Roger Rugnitz, Wayne Sawyer, Marv Strike, and Walt Wedo.

He married Neva Jean Johnson 30 Jun 1956 in Santa Clara Co, California. She was born 28 Aug 1937 in Hanford, California, and died 27 Jan 2011 in Los Gatos, Santa Clara Co, California.

Notes for Neva Jean Johnson:

Neva Jean Argall, resident of Los Gatos, peacefully slipped away from us on January 27, 2011. She was born in Hanford, California, on August 28, 1937, but it was in Los Gatos, California that she spent most of her life. Shortly after graduating from Los Gatos High School, Mom married the love of her life, Gerald "Jerry" Argall. Together they raised their two children Vicky and Jon, and later they spoiled their grandchildren.

Those people who were special to Mom knew she enjoyed reading, was a master at all needlecrafts, dabbled with paints, adored her grandchildren, and had a special place in her heart for her grandniece, McKenzie. Mom loved visiting with friends and family; having Jean come to stay with her, going out to lunch, having her niece Nancy over for a quick chat, and spending hours on the phone talking to Vicky. Sadly, Jerry passed away six years ago, and Mom was left without her anchor. As recently as December, Mom lost her brother Dick Johnson.

Neva is remembered by her daughter, Vicky Gino, son-in-law David Gino and grandchildren, Katie, Jake and Luke of Texas; her son Jon Argall of San Jose, California; her sister Pattie Minor and brother-in-law Dick Minor of Arizona; sister-in-law Ann Johnson of Washington, and several nieces, nephews and grandnieces and grandnephews. Many thanks to Marge Derrington, for being the best of friends, we could not have made it through this without you. Memorial services are not planned at this time.

1475. Eugene Melvin⁸ Jones (Milo M.⁷, Amanda Eleanor⁶ Sides, John⁵, Adam⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 17 Sep 1912 in Springfield, Lane Co, Oregon, and died 23 Mar 1991 in Woodland, Yolo Co, California. He married Mary Viola Stoddard 15 Jun 1935 in Oroville, Butte Co, California. She was born 14 Nov 1912 in Clinton, Utah, and died 17 Nov 2012 in Woodland, Yolo Co, California.

Notes for Mary Viola Stoddard:

Viola Mary Stoddard Jones, 100, passed away peacefully in Woodland on Saturday, Nov. 17, 2012, three days after celebrating her 100th birthday. She was born on Nov. 14, 1912, to Asa Aaron and Margaret Owen Stoddard, in Clinton, Utah. She spent her early years on the family farm in Burley, Idaho, along with her four brothers (Eugene, Aaron, Loren, and Bill) and cousin (Lola). In 1922, the family headed westward, eventually settling in Gridley in 1927. She graduated from Gridley High School in 1931. After graduating from high school, Mary took a job as a secretary/bookkeeper at the local JC Penny store to help with the Stoddard family finances. In 1935, she married her high school sweetheart, Eugene M. Jones, moving to Woodland in 1938 where Eugene was hired as the industrial arts teacher at Woodland High School.

In the late 1940s, Mary again found it necessary to help with family finances. She started as a secretary at the State and Porter Theaters in the day, later being promoted to night managerial duties. In the early 1950s, she went to work as a social worker for the Yolo County Welfare Department and continued there until her retirement in 1977. Mary enjoyed many interests and hobbies through years, especially enjoying her two daughters, 11 grandchildren, and 26 great-grandchildren. She was an excellent seamstress, sewing dresses for her two daughters and four granddaughters. Making Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls for family and friends was especially gratifying for her. She loved square-dancing, ceramics, needlepoint, embroidery, knitting, crocheting, gardening, cooking, baking, and genealogy. In her later years she renewed her interest in the piano and purchased an organ, joining the Woodland Organ Club. She has been very active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, holding many positions as a teacher, chorister, and Relief Society president (twice). For more than 20 years she traveled to Sacramento to volunteer in the genealogical library of the LDS Church and volunteered another five years at the newly opened Woodland LDS genealogical library.

Mary is survived by her devoted family: daughters, Sharon (Don) Swain and Marilyn (Marvin) Camarena; 11 grandchildren, Anthony Camarena, James (Julie) Camarena, Christi (Garey) White, Jillian (Dustin) Camarena-Williams, Gary Swain, Lynette (Cory) Borup, David (Stephanie) Swain, Sheryl (Jay) Aguilar, Brian (Becky) Swain, Jonathan (Sharon), and Jeremy (Mindy) Swain; 26 great-grandchildren; sister-in-law (Helen Jo Stoddard); and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, parents, brothers, and grandson Michael Camarena.

A visitation will be held at McNary's Funeral Chapel, 458 College St., Woodland, from 5 to 8 p.m., Friday, Nov. 23, with internment at the Gridley-Biggs Cemetery in Gridley at a later date.

A 1966 graduate of Homer-Center High School, Mr. Thompson is presently attending Indiana University of Pennsylvania. No definite wedding date has been set by the couple.

Marie Ann Walbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dale Walbeck of 277 S. Main St., Homer City, became the bride of Donald E. Thompson, son of and Mrs. Eugene Thompson of Marion Center RD 2, at 6:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony performed Dec. 23, 1972 the Marion Center United Presbyterian Church, Marion Center. The Rev. Willis Kearns officiated at the double ring ceremony. Grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Steele Thompson, and soloist, Bernard C. Voyten, uncle of the bride, presented music at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride appeared in an eggshell gown of pure silk organza with Alencon lace and an empire bodice delicately embroidered with small pearls set off by a portrait neckline. The gown featured colonial sleeves of lace and silk organza and a controlled skirt with a chapel sweep that accented the back by extending into a cathedral length train enhanced with motifs of Alencon lace. A cluster of pure silk organza leaves over a small crown of lace enhanced with pearls held her silk bouffant veil. She carried phalaenopsis orchids, white rosebuds, baby's breath and eggshell streamers in her bridal bouquet. Matron of honor was Mrs. Linda Balls of Homer City who in a Christmas red velvet gown designed with an empire bodice, portrait neckline, full sleeves, long cuffs that were delicately trimmed with small velvet covered buttons and a long chapel sweep train accented the back of the gown. Her headpiece consisted of red velvet loops and she carried a hurricane lighted lantern trimmed with holly and a red bow. Bridesmaids were Misses Monica Rura of Coral and Janice Thompson of Marion Center, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns, headpieces and flowers were identical to the matron of honor's.

The bride wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue and carried a luck piece. Prior to the ceremony a white rose was presented to the mother of the bride and following the ceremony the bride gave a white rose to her mother-in-law. Best man was Larry Fabin of Indiana. Ushers were Dan Killinger of Allentown and Jim of Marion Center, brother of the bridegroom.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride the ceremony. A 1968 graduate of Homer- Center High School and a 1970 of Robert Morris College, the bride is employed by Mine Service Company as a secretary. Her husband is a graduate of Center High School and is presently attending Indiana University of Pennsylvania. The new Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are residing in Homer City.

Notes for Chester George Beaufort:

Latrobe - Chester George Beaufort, 83, of Ligonier Township (Waterford) died Wednesday, Aug. 21, 2002, in Latrobe Area Hospital. He was born Jan. 31, 1919, in Bolivar, a son of the late Charles F. and Tillie (Stormer) Beaufort. A member of the Civilian Conservation Corps at Laurel Hill State Park, George subsequently entered the U.S. Army for eight years, during which he had the honor of serving as a driver for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower. After working as an AT&T lineman and self-employed general contractor, he was employed as a carpenter for Westinghouse Electric in Blairsville for 23 years until his retirement in 1979.

He was a life member of the Ligonier VFW Post 734, a 55-year member of the Ligonier Township VFD Co. 1 (Waterford), a 50-year Westmoreland County Forest Fire Warden, and served as Emergency Management Director for Ligonier Township for 49 years. He was a member of the committee that founded the Ligonier Valley Ambulance Service and also a founding member and chairman of the Ligonier Township Planning Commission. He was an active Boy Scout leader, a committee person for the Democratic Party and also served with the Area Agency on Aging. He was an avid hunter and member of the Ligonier Township Sportsmen's Association. George most recently acted as consultant for his sons' and grandson's business, Beaufort Services Inc.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by seven sisters and three brothers. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Mary Jane Roberts Beaufort; a daughter, Mrs. Mark (Susan) Ankney of Rector; three sons, John (Vicki), Thomas (fiancée, Jeanine Villanueva), and Rob (Rhonda) Beaufort, all of Ligonier Township (Waterford); five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a brother, Arthur J. Beaufort of Ligonier, and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Friends will be received 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday and 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Friday in J. Paul McCracken Funeral Chapel Inc., 144 E. Main St., Ligonier. Service will be held 11 a.m. Saturday in the funeral chapel with the Rev. David A. Bell Sr. officiating. Interment with full military honors will follow in Fort Palmer Cemetery. The Ligonier Township VFD Co. 1 will hold a service 7:30 p.m. Friday in the funeral home. The family requests no flowers. Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to the Waterford United Methodist Church or to the Ligonier Township VFD Co. 1 (1229 Route 271 South, Ligonier, Pennsylvania 15658), as Mr. Beaufort was a devoted member and supporter of this fire company all his life.

1563. Joan Valentine⁸ Skidmore (Ella May⁷ Stormer, John Hezekiah⁶, Noah⁵, Susan⁴ Seitz, twin, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 14 Feb 1919 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 03 Dec 1997. She married Albert Clinton (Bert) Detwiler. He was born 28 Mar 1919 in Jeannette, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania, and died 30 Dec 2014 in Tucson, Pima Co, Arizona.

Notes for Albert Clinton (Bert) Detwiler:

Albert C. "Bert" Detwiler was the fourth of six children born to J. Homer and Blanche (Shaffer) Detwiler. All were born in the same house in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. Bert was born on March 28, 1919, and died of complications following surgery on December 30, 2014, in Tucson, Arizona. He was 95. As a young lad, Bert worked as a paper boy and delivered milk on a truck around town. Always a movie fan from the first "talkies," Bert and his buddies hung around the local theatre and sometimes were let in free by an usher via an exit door. Then he got in the movies free by changing the posters in the theatre lobby and the letters on the marquee. This led, while in high school, to a job as usher, rising from there to assistant manager. After a short stint as circulation manager of the local newspaper, Bert at age 23 became the manager of three theatres in Latrobe, PA, in 1942. Bert married his high-school sweetheart, Joan Valentine Skidmore, on April 23, 1940, in Indiana, PA. In 1944 Bert volunteered for service in World War II. He spent six weeks in Army basic training, and in December was shipped to Europe via the Queen Mary ocean liner, converted to a troop ship carrying 15,000 service personnel. He was assigned to the Third Army's 11th Armored Division. After the European war, Bert was transferred to Gen. George Patton's Third Army Headquarters in Germany. He was awarded the Combat Industry Badge and the European Theater Medal with three Battle Stars, among others. In 1945, a Pittsburgh music publisher, Fenton Snyder, published a song called "Sentimental Music," whose lyrics were written by Bert.

Bert was discharged from the Army in January 1946. He returned to theatre management in three Pennsylvania towns before taking a position as manager of the Plaza, an art theatre in downtown Washington, DC. His movie career ended in Frederick, Maryland, where in the 1950s he began a career in civil service with the U.S. Department of the Army. In Frederick, he teamed up with a co-worker to establish Langanore Gardens, an iris nursery surrounding his country home. Hundreds of visitors came each bloom season to view and purchase plants. In the early 1960s, Bert sold everything and, for a promotion, moved his family to New Jersey where he was a program analyst for the U.S. Army's Munitions Command Headquarters. In 1973, the command was moving to the Midwest and Bert accepted early retirement. He moved his family back to his hometown in Pennsylvania and, after a short time, he and Joan took a lengthy trip "out West" to find a retirement location. Tucson filled the bill and they bought a house! In Tucson he again gravitated to the theatre. He was a lead actor in several plays at the former Playbox Theatre in Trail Dust Town, then moved on to the Southern Arizona Light Opera Company (SALOC) for additional acting experience. He was selected for roles in several movies filmed at Old Tucson, Mescal and Arivaca. He was directed by Michael Landon in one of them. Bert also appeared in several episodes of the TV series "Little House on the Prairie." He was also active in print modeling and TV commercials. His first spot earned him recognition by the public as "The Man with the Green Valley Grin." Bert was a member of the Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (SAG-AFTRA) and the Actors' Equity Association. Bert connected with the Tucson Gilbert & Sullivan Theatre group after appearing at the Temple of Music and Art in "The Student Prince." He acted and sang in several G&S shows, became the company's director and, in 1986 founded the Plaza Dinner Theatre in the conference center of the former mid-town hotel. The dinner theatre was a big success and brought the company out of the red. Bert retired from the company in 1989.

Bert was a volunteer teacher of English at Pio Decimo Center and at his home for many years, teaching his last lesson several weeks before he died. Many of his former students kept in touch with him over the years through visits, lunches and birthday celebrations. Bert and Joan traveled to 10 foreign lands, including China, Japan, the British Isles, Scandinavia, and other European locations, including Spain, Yugoslavia and Greece. After Joan's death in 1997, Bert continued to see the world, going solo to Portugal, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, Poland and central Europe. Since his arrival in Tucson, Bert was an active member of the Tucson Area Iris Society; at the time of his death serving as its Historian. As a grower, he specialized in Louisiana irises and was responsible for bringing the Society of Louisiana Irises to Tucson in 2005 for "A Sonoran Desert Trek" as part of the society's annual convention. Bert's eastside garden has been on a number of tours and was filmed for the "Secret Gardens of . . ." series by Home & Garden TV. In the last year of his life, Bert fulfilled a lifelong dream of designing and creating a Japanese garden behind his home, where he had lived independently since the death of his wife. Bert was the patriarch of an extended Detwiler family. His son Barry preceded him in death in 2009.

He is also survived by his daughters, Susan Detwiler Babbitz (Stephen) of Orange, Connecticut and Marcia Detwiler Scupin (Tom) of Tucson. Also four grandchildren, Mara Babbitz Ginsberg (Ken) and David Babbitz (Eileen) of Woodbridge and Bethany, Connecticut, respectively; Rebecca Riley of Tucson and Chris Riley (Monika) of Glendale, Arizona. Eight grandchildren survive, Nicholas Ginsberg, Abigail Ginsberg and Adam Ginsberg; Hannah Babbitz and Zachary Babbitz and Donovan Shapiro, Erik Shapiro and Finn Shapiro.

Bert is also survived by two sisters, Doris Jane Palien of Asheville, North Carolina, and Jo Ann Leyh of Dublin, Ohio, and numerous nieces and nephews. His ashes have been interred in the family plot at Jeannette Memorial Park in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. Bert and Joan were both music lovers. In his last year, Bert left a legacy for young musicians by establishing the Albert C. and Joan V. Detwiler Scholarship Endowment, benefiting the School of Music at The University of Arizona. Anyone who wishes to remember Bert in this way is invited to contribute a gift payable to The University of Arizona Foundation. Please indicate the "Albert C. and Joan V. Detwiler Scholarship" on your check. The UA Foundation's address is 1111 N. Cherry Ave. / P.O. Box 210109, Tucson, Arizona 85721-0109. Bert was extremely proud of his entire family and its colorful Swiss heritage, serving as family genealogist. He was a Renaissance man who taught himself several languages, loved opera, played classical piano, traveled the world, grew beautiful flowers and generously helped others. Those whose lives were touched by Bert often described him as "amazing" and a "true gentleman." Bert was fond of this quote: "One day your life will flash before your eyes, make sure it's worth watching." Those who knew and loved Bert Detwiler are invited to join his family on Sunday, February 22, 2015, for a Celebration of Life gathering at the Lodge on the Desert, 306 N. Alvernon Way, Tucson. The memorial will be held in the Catalina Room from noon to 2:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Bring a memory to share.

He married Esther Phillips 29 Apr 1948 in Paulding Co, Ohio. She was born 04 Nov 1924 in Kulpmont, Pennsylvania, and died Jul 2020.

Notes for Esther Phillips:

Esther Cummings, born Esther Phillips in Kulpmont, Pennsylvania on Nov. 4, 1924, was preceded in death by her mother, Esther Pandey, her father, Bertram Phillips, her brothers and sisters, Julia, Steve, Bert, Mary, John, Alex, Frank, Joe, and Betty, and her husband, William E. Cummings. She married William on Aug. 13, 1947 and created a beautiful family of 10 children - Barbara (Hank), Billy (Kathy), Denise, Marian (Mike), Barry, Wayde (Stacey), Dale (Connie), Wanda (Ted), Marsha (Jack) and Phil (Carmel); 17 grandkids - Sharon, Dawn (Mike), Woody, Renee, Jennifer, Joshua (Jessica), Barry Jr. (Emma), Billy, Brandon, Andrew, Dale Jr. (Karen), Matthew (Tara), Jonathan (Brittany), Branden (Brittany), Tyler (Samantha), Wesley and Clay; 20 great grandkids - Ryan (Ashley), Alyssa, CJ, Taylor Jayne (Doug), Tristan, Ashton, Patty, Little Woody, Ella, Hope, Jerry, Nicole (Tysean), Brittany, Jordyn, Dylan, Kayla, Mason, Reid, Kendra, Emma, Aiden; and eight great great grandkids - Madison, Anthony, Ryan Jr., Arianna, Winter, Aurora, Grayson, Elijah.

Esther held her first job at 16 years old at a coat factory in Kulpmont. She then moved to Youngstown, Ohio and worked in a lawyer's home before heading to Lorain, Ohio, where she worked at the Skelp Mill unloading bars of steel during the war, which is where she met her husband. After Dad became ill, Mom went to work in the Noxeem Factory in New Jersey then to Nylomatic in Tullytown, from where she retired in 1989. Mom was a Union girl through and through! Mom so enjoyed spending time with her family and was a whiz at anything technology related. She spent many hours on her computer playing games and catching up on Facebook, reading on her iPad, texting her family and sending Marco Polo videos. She was a lifelong fan of the Philadelphia Phillies and NASCAR racing and also loved to sew, crochet, play bingo, read, and listen to hymns specifically by Elvis Presley, the second man she loved!

There was never a holiday that did not include over 40 people squished together with lots of laughter or a meal that she did not share with her dog Bella. She created an amazing legacy of family as well as her work ethic and she had the sharpest mind to the end. We will never forget the vacations at Seaside, the late nights playing Boggle, her chicken and dumplings, macaroni salad and her nutrolls.

Family and friends are invited to call from 12 to 2 p.m. Saturday, July 11, at the James J. Dougherty Funeral Home, Inc., 2200 Trenton Road, Levittown, where her funeral service will begin at 2 p.m. Interment will be held privately. In honor of Esther's love for her lifelong team, the family has requested that everyone please wear your Phillies attire. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation - Delaware Valley Chapter, 2004 Sproul Rd., Suite 208, Broomall, PA 19008, to help keep her great-granddaughter healthy!

Notes for Mabel Elaine Salmonson:

Mabel Elaine Harmon (Salmonson), age 99, of St. Cloud, Minnesota, formerly of Spooner, Wisconsin, passed away on July 25, 2015, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Home. She was preceded in death by her husband, Eugene L. Harmon; her parents, Charles A. Salmonson and Jenny C. Salmonson (Johnson); her sisters, Anita L. Salmonson and Sandra J. Parker (Salmonson); her brothers-in-law, David D. Willmore and David L. Parker; and, her sister-in-law, Diane C. Salmonson (Fox). Mabel is survived by her sister, Arliss R. Willmore, of St. Cloud and her brother, Gary A. Salmonson of Spooner, as well as many nieces and nephews and numerous grand nieces and nephews.

Mabel lived her life on the sunny side- always kind and positive. She and her husband, Gene, loved birds and kept records of sightings for over 60 years. She loved to spend hours at sewing and could create any manner of lovely items. Her handwork included crocheting, knitting afghans and quilting. She was a mainstay at Trinity Lutheran Church (Spooner) and hand-made many of the altar linens. She loved and enjoyed her family who counted on her presence in their lives as a wonderful gift.

We thank the dedicated care-givers at Good Shepherd Lutheran Home Canary Creek and St. Cloud Hospice for their loving and attentive care. A memorial service will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Spooner, Wisconsin, at a later date with interment in Spooner Cemetery, beside her beloved husband, Gene.

Notes for Pierce Hubert McDowell:

Sioux Falls, Feb. 17, 1975 - Pierce H. McDowell made an extraordinary contribution to the growth and betterment of Sioux Falls. He carved out a long and distinguished record as a civic leader, a man who gave freely of his abilities and energies to the furtherance of projects and programs which have done much to make Sioux Falls a progressive and wholesome community. Howard Wood Memorial Field, in the establishing of which he played a major role, stands as just one enduring reminder of his public-spirited interests and concerns.

As a prominent figure in the Sioux Falls Development Foundation he was instrumental in bringing to reality the Earth Resources Observation Systems (EROS) Data Center in this area. The efforts he put forth as one of the original members of the Municipal Airport Board reflected an intense desire on his part to expand and improve our public air travel facilities. He wielded an important influence in the selection of Sioux Falls as the location of an Army technical school during World War II.

Pierce McDowell's good works were performed in many fields - educational, cultural and religious. He served ably and effectively as a member of the School Board and in various fund drives. Altogether he left a shining and indelible imprint upon the city as one of its greatest citizens of all time.

Sioux Falls - Funeral services for Pierce H. McDowell, chairman of the Board of Directors of Howalt-McDowell Inc., since 1972 and director of Northern States Power Co., Minneapolis, since 1951, will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the First Congregational Church. Mr. McDowell, 72, of 2608 S. 1st Ave., died Friday afternoon Feb. 14, 1975 at his home. He retired as president of Howalt-McDowell Inc., a partnership dealing in real estate, loans and insurance, in 1972. A longtime civic leader, one of his major achievements was making Howard Wood Memorial Field a reality. A plaque bearing his name hangs at the main entrance to the field, which was dedicated in October 1957. He had been active in the Sioux Falls Industrial Development Foundation taking an active part in the eventual location of EROS near Sioux Falls. He was one of the original members of the Sioux Falls Municipal Airport Board. A plaque honoring him as such is now hanging in the new airport.

Mr. McDowell retired from the Sioux Falls School Board on July 1, 1956, after 10 years of service. At that time, he was serving his second term as board president. He was instrumental in the selection of Sioux Falls as the World War II site of an Army technical school. He was a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Knife & Fork Club and Minnehaha Country Club, was a past exalted ruler and trustee of the Elks Lodge and a past trustee of the First Congregational Church. He was a former chairman of the Board of Naval Officer Procurement in Minneapolis. He also served as chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Crippled Children's Hospital & School. He was active in the advance gift sections of the Sioux Valley and McKennan hospital fund campaigns and library fund drive Mr. McDowell was a past director of Northwestern National Bank. Red Owl Stores Inc., Northwet Bancorporation, Raven Industries and the S & H Manufacturing Co. He was a director and part owner of Suburban Lanes and the East Side Centre.

Mr. McDowell Aug. 12, 1902, was born in Rock County, Minnesota. He grew up in Sioux Falls and after finishing his university studies he practiced law here for a year and a half. He then became a trust officer of the Northwest Security National Bank. He resigned as vice president of the bank in 1946 to establish his own business. His marriage to Alice Jackson of Ipswich took place Dec. 20, 1923, in Sioux City. Mrs. McDowell died June 12, 1956, and Mr. McDowell was married in 1961 to Lois Hammond Tabor of Canistota.

Survivors include the widow; two daughters, Elizabeth Hamilton, Newport, Oregon, and Ann J., New York City; a son, Pierce J. "Mick," Sioux Falls; a step-son, Lon Tabor, Scottsbluff, Nebraska; a brother, John R., Sioux Falls, and 11 grandchildren.

Mr. McDowell received the Cosmopolitan Club's Distinguished Service Award in January 1957 and a 1955 award from the U.S. Treasury Department for patriotic service. He was the Argus-Leader's "Citizen of the Week" Sept. 8, 1963, and a member of the newspaper's "All Star Football Team" of Sioux Falls alumni in 1970. He was elected as president of the University of South Dakota Foundation in 1967. In 1972 he was chosen one of the 10 charter members to the university's Coyote Hall of Fame. He received an outstanding Alumnus of the Year Award from the university in 1974. The Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Sioux Falls - Pierce H. McDowell, 1625 S. Main Ave., was honored Thursday night Jan. 17, 1957 when he was given the Cosmopolitan Club's distinguished Service Award medal. The presentation was made during the club's 33rd award banquet. In presenting the medal to McDowell, a Sioux Falls resident for 50 years, W. F. Klawiter referred to the recipient as a quiet, modest man who has done many things for the city. Klawiter was chairman of the committee which selected McDowell. Others were James Kennedy, George Kirk, Vern Gleason and Jerry O'Hearn. In making the selection, the committee studied letters received from local service and civic clubs. Each club was asked earlier to select a man it considered worthy of receiving the award.

Klawiter, in his presentation speech, listed many of McDowell's civic achievements. He called attention to many of the city's schools which McDowell's leadership helped make possible. The recipient is a past president and board member of the Board of Education and served on the board for 10 years. McDowell is a past president and director of the Chamber of Commerce. He was instrumental in the selection of Sioux Falls as the World War II site of the Army Air Field. While actively serving on the Chamber he had much to do with bringing industry to the city, by finding office and warehouse space usually available by the time the businesses moved here. He has continued in this capacity since, Klawiter said. McDowell, Klawiter continued, is a past president of Rotary Club, past president and director of the Minnehaha Country Club, past exalted ruler and trustee of the Elks Club and past trustee of the Congregational Church. Since 1950 McDowell has been a director of Northern States Power Co., Minneapolis. He has been a director of the Northwest Security National Bank. Since last May 8, he has been a director of Red Owl Stores, Inc., Minneapolis. The award recipient is a former chairman of the Board of Naval Officer Procurement, Minneapolis. He is a past chairman of the Building and the Investment Committees and is presently chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Crippled Children's School. He was active in the advance gift's sections of the Sioux Valley and McKennan Hospital fund drives and served on the Augustana College library fund campaign. McDowell received a 1955 award from the U.S. Treasury for patriotic service and is a member of the 100 per cent Club under the U.S. Savings Bond program.

He has three children; Elizabeth is on the staff of U.S. Sen. Karl Mundt, Pierce Jr. is a student at the University of South Dakota. Ann is attending a girl's school at Fairbairn, Minnesota. McDowell was born in Rock County, Minnesota, Aug. 12, 1902. The family moved to Sioux Falls in 1906. He, attended grade school here and was graduated from Washington High School where he was a star in athletics, winning football, basketball and track monograms. He was a graduated from the University of South Dakota in 1926 with a LLB degree. He was elected student body president his senior year. At the university he was a four-year letter-man in football and captained the team in 1924.

In 1926, McDowell entered the law firm of Bielski and Elliott. The following year he Joined Northwest

Security National Bank as trust officer, becoming vice president in 1936. In 1946 he resigned from the bank to form a partnership in the loan, insurance and real estate business. Klawiter said that selection of McDowell for the service award was not difficult because his name was presented by so many service and civic Clubs.

Notes for Alice Elizabeth Jackson:

Sioux Falls - Mrs. Pierce H. McDowell, 55, whose husband will retire this month as president of the Sioux Falls School Board, died at her home at 1625 S. Main Ave. this morning June 12, 1956. Van Ausdall will be organist. Pallbearers will be T. M. Reardon, R. S. Sweetman, B. L. Pribble, W. D. Howalt, Francis M. Reagan and Sam Fantle Jr. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Pierce McDowell and Alice Jackson:

Sioux Falls, Dec. 20, 1948 - It doesn't seem 25 years ago since Miss Alice Jackson, (Miss Dakota) and Pierce McDowell University of South Dakota football player, eloped to Sioux City and were married and then returned to graduate from the university. And, I then chronicled a society item about the elopement. And, the fact that they issued silver and blue invitations didn't mean a thing to me as silver and blue are popular colors at Christmastime, almost as much so as red and green.

Bidden to drop in for cocktails and a buffet supper at the Cataract hotel, the intimate friends of the McDowells were delightfully surprised to find that the gathering was to celebrate their 25 years of marital happiness. The Cataract parlor was very festive with a beautifully decorated buffet table holding a centerpiece of red, white and green flanked with three branched silver candelabra and a table fairly groaning with good foods. Two smaller trees were lighted and stood at the south and north walls. Tables were around for folks to be seated at and to enjoy their servings. However, some of the guests had a hunch that something more than a cocktail buffet was to be the blithesome occasion. Stunning was Alice in her Alice blue taffeta creation trimmed in silver, all of which was more attractively colorful by her corsage of orchids. It seemed even her graying locks, done so beautifully, enhanced the hostess as she welcomed us. Society reigned and about 200 Sioux Falls friends were in attendance, all showering Alice and Pierce with heartfelt felicitations.

A delightful chat with Congressman Donald L. Jackson of Santa Monica, California, there with his charming wife, on his way to Washington, D. C., and by the way a cousin of Alice, revealed he was a Republican elected from California for a second term. When asked how he was reelected, he smiled "I am just a remnant." Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Baldwin braved the icy road from Lincoln, Nebraska, to come to the party and when Tom Kirby asked the dewy-eyed Mrs. Baldwin what was she crying for she answered "I guess I'll never get over crying when I come back to Sioux Falls for a visit." The M. S. Finches were afraid of the icy highways from Minneapolis and took a plane to Sioux City, where they visited with Mr.

and Mrs. A. J. Waldons and then came here by rail. The Dana Coles also came from Lincoln for the event, as did Mr. and Mrs. Glen Siddons of Platte, the latter being a sister of Mrs. McDowell, also Robert McDowell, of Chicago, a brother of Pierce and the Robert Bratagers of Madison. Soft Christmas music was played during the four hours. When coffee was served it was from the beautiful sterling silver coffee service Mr. McDowell had given to his wife as an anniversary gift. To make the holiday pre-celebration complete, Miss Elizabeth McDowell is arriving this, evening from the University of Washington at Seattle to spend the holidays at home.

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth McDowell and Alexander Hamilton:

Washington, D.C., Jan. 26, 1957 - A former Sioux Falls girl said her nuptial vows this afternoon at the Episcopal Church, Georgetown. Miss Elizabeth Jane McDowell, daughter of Pierce H. McDowell, 1625 S. Main Ave., recited her nuptial vows to become the bride of Alexander Moore Hamilton, Bedford, Oregon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Moore Hamilton Sr., Medford, Oregon. Dr. John Anschutz read the service. The bride, who walked with her father, wore ice blue taffeta made ballerina length in princess style. A Jacket of lace, featuring high neckline and three-quarter sleeves, enhanced the bodice, and it was trimmed with pearls and sequins. A shoulder length veil was secured to a tiara decorated with pearls said sequins. She carried phalaenopsis and stephanotis on a prayer book.

Miss Georgina Bailey, Sioux Falls, maid of honor, wore rose colored taffeta made ballerina length in princess style, and she Carried rose camelias and siesta roses in a bouquet. Robert Monroe, New Orleans, Louisiana, was best man, and T. P. Forbes, John De Zell, Medford, and Gordon Olson, seated the guests. Mr. Bell was organist.

A reception followed the service at the Mayflower Hotel, where Mrs. M. T. Woods, Sioux Falls, and Mrs. G. R. Siddons, Platte, South Dakota, aunts of the bride, acted as hostesses. After a wedding trip to the Poconos Mountains in Pennsylvania, the couple will be at home in Arlington, Virginia. For traveling the new Mrs. Hamilton wore a tweed suit with matching hat, and black accessories. She is a graduate of Carleton College and the University of Washington, and is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma. She is secretary for Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota. Her bridegroom, a graduate of Oregon State University where he was affiliated with Chi Phi, is a student under patronage for Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon.

Notes for Laurence W. Barrett:

Sioux Falls - Laurence W. Barrett, 85, died Thursday, June 17, 1999, at the Good Samaritan Village of natural causes. Funeral Mass begins at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Michael's Church. Visitation begins at 3 p.m. Sunday at Barnett-Lewis Funeral Home with a Scripture service at 7 p.m.

Sioux Falls - What is a chore to many people and a mystery to others was a source of delight for Laurence W. Barrett for most of his life. He enjoyed tracking the ebb and flow of business through columns of figures. He operated his own accounting firm in Sioux Falls. "He was a numbers kind of guy," says his daughter, Janet Henjum of Sioux Falls. Barrett, 85, died Thursday, June 17, 1999, at Good Samaritan Village of natural causes. "He gave his last job to me when he retired," says his daughter.

Barrett was born Oct. 28, 1913, in Emery. He passed some of his boyhood in Mitchell, then moved to Sioux Falls, where he graduated from Washington High School in 1932. He went on to attend Nettleton Business College, where he received an accounting degree. After that, he joined the Civilian Conservation Corps, working in an office in the Black Hills. Barrett did corporate accounting, and he had individual customers, for whom he did tax work. "He enjoyed doing tax returns," said his daughter. "He had quite a few customers after a while. Messenger Tire was one of his favorites. I remember when he would take me along, I could smell the tires. They smell better than they do now." She was not the only child to enjoy Barrett's company. "He was close to my kids when they were young," she says. "He and my daughter would have pancake days on Tuesday. He would pick her up, and my mom would make pancakes for them." For many years, he enjoyed photography and coin collecting, pursuing those hobbies even when slowed by Parkinson's disease. "He would get mint sets from the Treasury every year. He used to like to go to sales and things," Henjum says. "He got my sister and myself Laurence Barrett both started in photography. We both take a lot of pictures." Barrett also used to take his daughters target shooting, and he enjoyed tending his yard and a small garden. He never drew the family's attention to his illness, and strove to remain active as long as he could, says his daughter.

He outlived two wives. He married Irene Fenner in Sioux Falls on Feb 27, 1935. She died in 1972, and on Dec. 19, 1973, he married Frances Young, also in Sioux Falls. She died Oct. 10, 1994. He is survived by daughters Dolores Smith, of Newport, Oregon, and Henjum; a step-daughter, Bonnie Brown, of Glendale, Arizona; a sister-in-law, Marguerite Barrett, of Sioux Falls; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; four step-grandchildren, and many step-great-grandchildren.

He was a member of St. Joseph's parish for many years, and late in life he was active in church services at Good Samaritan Village. "He was a quiet person, and we had a nice home life," says his daughter. "He was home a lot. He did a lot of his big work at home. It was nice to have him around."

Funeral services begin at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Michael Parish, with burial in St. Michael Cemetery. Visitation will begin at 3 p.m. Sunday at Barnett-Lewis Funeral Home. A scripture vigil will take place at 7 p.m.

Marriage Notes for Doris McDowell and Marvin Nelson:

Sioux Falls - The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McDowell of Valley Springs, South Dakota, was the setting for a pretty June wedding at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 14, 1941, when their daughter Doris became the bride of Marvin Nelson, son of Gullick Nelson, Hills, Minnesota, Rev. Underhill of Harris, Iowa, being the clergyman.

Miss McDowell chose for her wedding day a frock of white chiffon made over satin with a fitted bodice and sweetheart décolletage and short sleeves. The full-length tulle veil was held in place with a cap effect of tulle. She wore the bride groom's gift of a single strand of pearls. Her bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Dorothy Olson, bridesmaid, was dressed in pink chiffon organdy over satin. A small tiara of white flowers was worn in her hair and her corsage was of pink roses. Only Nelson acted as best man in the ceremony.

Mrs. McDowell wore for her daughter's wedding, a navy triple sheer and white accessories. She had in her bouquet pink roses and sweetpeas. Mrs. Nelson also chose navy sheer and the same accessories and flowers. Dinner was served to the immediate families at the parental home of the bride. A three-tiered wedding cake was the adornment for the bridal table with lighted tapers at either end. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have gone to northern Minnesota and Canada on a honeymoon trip. Mrs. Nelson wore for traveling a summer sheer blue outfit with white hat, shoes and gloves.

The bride graduated from Valley Springs high school and State college at Brookings, she has recently been a teacher in the Brandon high school. The bridegroom graduated from Hills, Minnesota, high school and now is located at Ely, Minnesota, where the couple will live. The pre-nuptial dinner for the bridal party and families was served in the Federated church Friday evening, about 150 guests attending.

Notes for Wanda Rose Kroneman:

Northwood - Wanda Rose (Kronemann) Crom passed from this life on Monday, Oct. 5, 2015, at the age of 88. Graveside services are at 10 a.m. on Oct. 16, 2015, at the Sunset Rest Cemetery, followed by a reception at the Northwood United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Wanda's name to the Mayo Clinic Health System Hospice program in Albert Lea.

Wanda was born on Jan. 29, 1927 in Mitchell County to Theresa (Kirchgatter) and Arthur Kronemann. Wanda attended grade school in a one-room schoolhouse in Rock Township, followed by high school in St. Ansgar. Wanda met Dwight Hooker Crom at the Terp Ballroom in Austin, Minn. They were married on April 22, 1951, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Rock Township, Mitchell County, and subsequently had four sons: Doyle, Bruce, Ralph, and Jason. Her sons all remained in the area with the exception of Bruce, who stayed in California to live and work after serving in the Navy and graduating college. Wanda worked at the Lutheran Retirement Home, Carroll George, and then spent 12½ years at Winnebago in the Stitch craft building, until she and Dwight retired together in 1989.

Wanda had an amazing sense of humor and quick wit. She was able to see the best in others and always had a positive attitude, even in trying times. Raising her family was her greatest joy. Wanda loved keeping a daily journal. She also loved flowers, bird watching, wildlife, arts and crafts, sewing, and letter writing. Her stationary was delightfully hand-created, and her cards and letters were always fun to read. Wanda brought much joy to this world. She was an inspiration to many and she will be missed by all those who knew and loved her.

She is survived by her four sons (listed above); two sisters, Irene Beard of Rio Rancho, New Mexico and Margaret Christiansen of Osage; and one daughter-in-law, Cindy (Bruce). Wanda is also survived by many nieces and nephews, Lane Ballandby and Lana Ballandby—children of sister Dorothy; Larry Kroneman, Lorraine Kroneman, Linda (Kroneman) Toemay, and Lorna (Kroneman) Gerk—children of brother Raymond Kronemann; Roger Koschmeder—son of sister Margaret (Kronemann) (Koschmeder) Christiansen; and Jim Tobiasen and Linda (Tobiasen) Vanderbosch—children of Dwight's sister Maxine (Crom) Tobiasen.

Wanda was preceded in death by husband Dwight in 2010; her parents; sister Dorothy (Kronemann) Ballandby; and brother Raymond Kronemann.

She married Harold R. Dodd. He was born 19 May 1916 in Chapin, Iowa, and died 10 Jul 2013 in Hampton, Franklin Co, Iowa.

Notes for Harold R. Dodd:

Harold R. Dodd, 97, of Hampton passed away July 10, 2013, at the Muse Norris Hospice Inpatient Center in Mason City, Iowa. He was born May 19, 1916 on a farm west of Chapin, Iowa, to William A. and Stella (Crain) Dodd. Harold attended country school in rural Franklin County. He served his country in World War II in the United States Army. He landed on Utah Beach on "D-Day + 6" (6 days after the landing on Omaha Beach). He remained in the Germany and France area until the end of the war. While training in the United States, prior to overseas duty, Harold was married to Helen Lavonne McDowell on July 1, 1943, in Hampton, Iowa. A son, Dennis was born on May 2, 1944. Following the war, Harold and family returned to Franklin County and moved to a farm Northeast of Hansell. A son, Dean, was born on May 29, 1947 and the family moved to a farm south of Rockwell, Iowa. Mary was born on December 22, 1948. The family was active in the Rockwell Methodist Church. Harold served as the Sunday School Superintendent for several years. He was also active with the Farmers Coop, Farm Bureau and the Cerro Gordo County Extension Service.

In 1958 the family moved to a farm near Palmer, Iowa in Pocahontas County. The family remained active in the United Methodist Church while Harold became the adult Sunday School Teacher and was elected to several positions on the Church Council. He was also elected to the Pocahontas County Soil Conservation Board of Directors and the Farm Bureau County Board of Directors. In addition, he was elected to the Pocahontas County ISU Extension Service Board. Harold and Lavonne moved back to Franklin County in 1971 where they began farming in partnership with son, Dean. Both Harold and Lavonne remained active in the West Fork United Methodist Church. Harold became the Chairman of the Franklin County Soil Conservation Service Board. The Dodd's were named the winners of the Iowa North Central District Owner-Operator Soil Conservation Award in 1976. In 1980 the partnership of Harold and Dean won the Conservation Tillage Division of the Iowa Corn Yield Contest with a yield of 192.5 bushels per acre. Harold remained active in Farm Bureau, and the ISU Extension Service.

In 1983 Harold and Lavonne retired from farming and moved to Hampton. Sadly, in the fall of 1983, Harold lost his lower right leg in a PTO farm machinery accident. To stay active during retirement, Harold joined the Hampton Lions Club, was nominated to a position and served on the Hampton Park Board, became an active member of the Gideon's International and was active with the operation of the Hampton Senior Center while also helping to establish the SHARE Program for the Franklin County Area. Lavonne passed away in 1993 after a 7 month stay at The Hampton Care Center. Harold married Luella (Ballhagen) Draeger at the Hampton United Methodist Church on May 28, 1994. Luella passed away on February 9, 2005. Harold moved to the Franklin Prairie Apartments in October, 2009 before moving to the Sheffield Care Center in June of 2012. Harold's life was spent being a strong supporter of his family, being a good neighbor and helping others. That life of service and farming ended after a brief stay with excellent care at the Muse Norris Hospice Inpatient Center in Mason City on July 10, 2013.

Harold is survived by his son Dennis Dodd of Forest City, son Dean and wife Jean Dodd of Hampton, daughter Mary and husband Jon Weber of Palmer, grandchildren Kimberly Jo Dodd of Joice, Danyel Denise Dodd of Lake Mills, Melissa (Steve) Groe of Lake Mills, Doug (Jennifer) Dodd of Iowa Falls, Dwight (Abby) Dodd of Keota, Laura Weber of Fort Worth, Texas, Robert Weber of Manson, great grandchildren Luke, Lexi, Kate and Megan Groe, Dayna and Darby Dodd, and Dalton, Dakota and Drew Dodd. One brother, Lloyd and Elvera Dodd of Hampton. Harold was preceded in death by his parents, wives (Lavonne and Luella), infant daughter Rita Rose, brother Wayne and sisters Mabel Kothenbeutel and Esther (3 years old).

Burial will take place in the Hampton Cemetery in Hampton, Iowa.

Children of Helen McDowell and Harold Dodd are:

- 3149 i. Dennis Dee⁹ Dodd, born 06 Jul 1940 in Franklin Co, Iowa.
- 3150 ii. Dean Dodd. He married Jean ?.
- 3151 iii. Mary Dodd. She married Jon Weber.

1673. Robert Avery⁸ McDowell (Samuel Kenneth⁷, Samuel Adam⁶, Barbara⁵ Sides, John⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 15 Aug 1919 in Hampton, Franklin Co, Iowa, and died 10 May 2008 in Hampton, Franklin Co, Iowa. He married Grace Ethyl Bridge 02 Nov 1946. She was born 23 Jan 1926, and died 18 Mar 2018 in Hampton, Franklin Co, Iowa.

Notes for Robert Avery McDowell:

Robert McDowell, 88, of Hampton died Saturday (May 10, 2008) at the Hampton Health Care Center following 11½ years with Alzheimer's disease. For 11 of those years, he was cared for at home by his wife Grace. Robert Avery McDowell was born Aug. 15, 1919, on the family farm, rural Hampton, a son of Kenneth and Irma (Ellis) McDowell. He attended country school through the eighth grade then graduated from Hampton High School in 1937 and received the scholarship key. He attended Grinnell College, Iowa State College and Drake University.

Bob spent four years in the U.S. Army Infantry between 1941 and 1945. He served in the 7th Infantry Division in the South Pacific. He fought in the hardest battles of World War II. He helped take the surrender of the Japanese on Okinawa in August of 1945. Bob met Grace Bridge in February of 1946 at the Tromar Ballroom in Des Moines. They were married Nov. 2, 1946, at the Bondurant Federated Church. Bob was a farmer all his life; in 1982 his family farm became a Century Farm. His family knew a man could not do much better than to leave his piece of land better than when he found it. Bob was a long-time member of the Grinnell Insurance Board, and West Fork Township Trustee. He was a member of the Dumont American Legion. The West Fork United Methodist Church was Bob's church of choice.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 61 years, Grace; three sons: Bruce W. (Anne) McDowell, Newport Beach, California, Alan E. McDowell PhD., Fairfield, Ohio, and Mark A. (Connie) McDowell, Hampton; four grandchildren: Andrew McDowell, Melinda McDowell, Kim (Vince) Feck and Scott McDowell; four great-grandchildren; one sister: Shirley From, of Iowa City. He is preceded in death by his parents and sister, Marjorie Siegman.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday, May 16, 2008, at West Fork United Methodist Church with Elsa Lawry presiding. Interment will be at Hampton Cemetery with veteran's honors. Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. today at the Retz-Grarup Funeral Home, Sheffield. Memorial contributions may be directed to Hospice of North Iowa, Hampton or to the family c/o Mark McDowell 2032 200th St. Hampton, IAowa50441, to be distributed at the family's discretion.

Notes for Grace Ethyl Bridge:

Grace McDowell, 92, of Hampton passed away Sunday, March 18, 2018, at Hospice of North Iowa. Grace Ethyl McDowell was born January 23, 1926 to Ray and Haeryette (Johnson) Bridge. She attended school and graduated from Bondurant High School She also graduated from Felt and Tarrant Comptometer School in Des Moines. She then located a job with the F.W. Fitch Shampoo Co. in Des Moines as an office worker. Grace met Bob McDowell in February, 1946 at the Tromar Ballroom in Des Moines. They were united in marriage November 2, 1946 at the Bondurant Federated Church. They settled on the family farm and remained married for 61 years. Together they raised three boys. Later in life they had two grandchildren nearby and she spent many hours teaching and caring for them. She was excited to become a Great Grandmother in recent years.

Grace loved to raise garden produce and help out on the farm wherever she could. Among those many chores were caring for sick animals, walking beans and driving the 'H' for the hay fork. She nursed a sickly yellow kitten back to health which would become a long-time family pet named 'Bill'. Grace also was good at her crafts especially making cornhusk dolls. She would even give demonstrations on how to make them at various clubs and meetings. She would use any money she made from selling her creations to buy things for their house.

Grace had a fun-loving personality and exchanged jokes and pranks with friends and neighbors. She enjoyed entertaining at home. One of her friends group called themselves 'The Butterfly Girls'. She was a member of H.O.A. (Help One Another) club, the Child Guidance club, and the West Fork United Methodist Church. Most of all, she loved her family. For the last eleven years of his life, Bob had Alzheimer's disease. Grace devotedly cared for him so he could be at home where he was most comfortable. After Bob's death, Grace was successfully treated and became a cancer survivor.

Grace is survived by sons: Bruce (Anne), Camarillo, California; Alan, Fairfield, Ohio; and Mark (Connie), Hampton; four grandchildren: Andrew (Nicole), Davenport; Melinda (Wes) Tremmel, Garner; Kim (Vince) Feck, Keller, Texas; Scott McDowell, Springfield, Missouri; 2 great-grandchildren: Lily and Emma McDowell, daughters of Andrew and Nicole; sister: Florence (Roy) Bishop, Ankeny. She is preceded in death by her parents and husband Bob.

Visitation will be held 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., Thursday, April 5 at Retz Funeral Home, Sheffield. Funeral service will be held 11:00 a.m., Friday, April 6, at the West Fork United Methodist Church, rural Sheffield. Interment will be at the Hampton Cemetery.

1685. Earl Raymond⁸ Perkins (Esta Mae⁷ McDowell, Willam Andrew⁶, Barbara⁵ Sides, John⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 03 Jul 1919, and died 13 Mar 1997 in Pipestone, Pipestone Co, Minnesota. He married Helen Maxine Long 04 Aug 1942 in Ehrenberg, Arizona. She was born 06 Sep 1919 in Pipestone Co, Minnesota, and died 10 Nov 2016 in Pipestone, Pipestone Co, Minnesota.

Notes for Helen Maxine Long:

Helen Maxine Perkins was born to Samuel Everett and Florence (Dingler) Long on September 6, 1919 on a farm in Grange Township of Pipestone County, Minnesota. When she was one year old, she developed a serious children's digestive illness which she outgrew after eight years. Her mother took her by Great Northern train to Minneapolis many times to see a pediatric child specialist, and she was a patient at St. Mary's Hospital there several times. Only through her parents' loving care, patience and a special diet did she live. As a result, she started school at seven years of age, only going day. She attended District 16 rural school and graduated from Pipestone High School in 1938. She joined 4-H when she was ten, raising lambs so she could be outdoors for her health. Bread baking, sewing and home decorations were other projects which won her prizes and trips to the State Fair. In 1932, she was confirmed and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. After high school, she attended Miss Wood's Kindergarten and Primary Training School. When she graduated in 1940, she taught kindergarten (Saturdays) and 1st and 2nd grades at Adrian, Minnesota.

Helen was united in marriage to Earl R. Perkins on August 4, 1942 at Ehrenberg, Arizona. Do to a strict "no marriage rule" in her teaching contract they kept their marriage a secret until Christmas break in 1942. In January, 1943, she joined Earl who was stationed with the U.S. Army Air Corps in Florida. She then substitute taught and worked in a dime store. In September, 1944, she began teaching third grade at Kissimmee, Florida. Following Earl's discharge at the end of 1945, they returned to Pipestone. In 1946, she taught first grade in Pipestone and then substituted for many years in the Pipestone schools. When Earl began Perkins Auto Clinic in 1948 and the real estate business in 1966, Helen was the bookkeeper and office manager. In mid-1970's, she became licensed as a real estate salesperson. Her love was not in selling, but managing the office and doing bookwork. Helen and Earl retired in 1978 due to Earl's health. They became snowbirds, spending winters in Arizona and Florida. Earl preceded her in death on March 13, 1997. After his death, Helen continued to live in Pipestone, first in a condo and then becoming a resident of Ridgeview Estates in May, 2005. In May, 2016, she became a resident at the Good Samaritan Communities of Pipestone.

On Thursday, November 10, 2016, Helen was called home by her Lord and Savior at an earth age of 97 years, two months and four days. Helen was a Methodist all her life and belonged to Peace United Methodist Church in Pipestone where she taught Sunday school and Release Time Instruction. For several years, she sang in the church choir. She also served as Past President of the United Methodist Women, belonged to a circle continuously, and most recently served on the Caring Committee. Helen was an active member of the Pipestone community. She belonged to many groups and organizations including the Sew and So Club, the Book Club, a Bridge Club, the American Legion Auxiliary and served as President, the Golden Club, and was a 50 plus year member of the Eastern Star. She and Earl were one of the ten couples who started the local KOA campground. They were members of the Horseless Carriage Club, participating in the activities and parades with their family and their 1925 Velie, 1917

Model T Ford, and a 1930 Model A Ford. Their acreage and airstrip were their pride and joy, having sons Larry, Steve, and other friends land and take off. Helen's enjoyment was her children, as well as her flower gardens, especially the hybrid Irises, music, traveling, and antiques as hobbies.

She is lovingly remembered by her two sons, Larry (Linda) Perkins of Sarasota, Florida and Ellison Bay, Wisconsin, and Steve (Marianne) Perkins of Sioux Falls, South Dakota and Sun Lakes Arizona; three grandchildren, Carrie (Todd) Van Rossum of Geneva, Illinois, Jason (Cara) Perkins of Green Bay, Wisconsin, and Aaron (Karolyn) Perkins of Shoreview, Minnesota; eleven great-grandchildren; four step-grandchildren, Mistyne (Dale) Aiken of Omaha, Nebraska, Marleta Ouverson of Broomfield, Colorado, Melicia (Jesse) Kehnenman of Apple Valley, Minnesota, and Michael (Jenn) Ouverson of Burnsville, Minnesota; six step-great-grandchildren; one brother, Verne Long of Pipestone, Minnesota; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her husband, Earl; her parents; and one brother, Donald Long.

Marriage Notes for Herbert Skyles and Dorothy Campbell:

Indiana, Pennsylvania – The marriage of Dorothy Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell of Homer City, R.D., and Herbert Skyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Skyles of Vintondale, R.D., took place in the home of the bride, at half after seven Oct. 1, 1951. The single ring ceremony was by Rev. Clarence Bennett of Strongstown. The home was decorated with chrysanthemums and baby mums. Traditional wedding music was played by her sister, Mrs. James Stephens of Indiana

The bride wore a street length dress of turquoise blue silk with navy accessories and her corsage in red rose buds. Mrs. Wayne Campbell, sister-in-law of the bride her only attendant, was attired in street length dress of navy-blue taffeta. Her corsage was yellow rose buds. Wayne Campbell, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the Immediate relatives was held in the bride's home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Skyles, Sr., and Mrs. Harrison Skyles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Campbell, Marjorie, Kenneth and Paul Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens and son Donald, and Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Bennett.

The bride is a graduate of Brush Valley High School and Indiana Business School. Before her marriage she was employed by Penelec. The groom is a graduate of Armagh High School, and Johnstown Rowe College and is employed by the Johnstown Radiator Co. After a northern trip the couple will be at home to their friends, 120 Stutzman St., Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Jay Ord Mack:

Cornwall - Jay Ord Mack, Jr., 97, of Cornwall, Pennsylvania, passed away June 29, 2019, at Cornwall Manor. Born May 2, 1922, in Wilksburg, Pennsylvania, he was a son of the late Jay Ord Mack, Sr. and Willa June Shupe. After graduating from Wilksburg HS in 1939, Jay received his Bachelor's Degree in Metallurgical Engineering from Carnegie Institute of Technology in December of 1942. Married to his wife Nyla in May of 1943, they both went to work for the Naval Research Lab in Washington, D.C. He then attended Penn State where he was teaching while working on his Master's Degree. As a metallurgical engineer for U.S. Steel, he was soon transferred to the new Fairless Works plant in Fairless Hills, Pennsylvania, where he later became Chief Metallurgist. Promoted and transferred back to Pittsburgh, he became a consultant for the company, and was sent to help improve the quality of steel in plants around the world, including Brazil, Egypt, Japan, and Sweden. After working at U.S. Steel's pipe works in Baytown, Texas, he returned to Pittsburgh and retired in 1984. An accomplished artist, his works are known in many circles, one of which is hanging in the Pennsylvania State Capital, and his pen and ink drawings of local buildings are still used for circular covers and cards. He has had private gallery showings in New Hope, Pennsylvania and in Cornwall, Pennsylvania with both oil and watercolor mediums. Over the years he was involved with such organizations as Boy Scouts of America, the Morrisville Rotary, the Masons and was an ordained Elder in the Presbyterian Church, serving in Morrisville, Pittsburgh, and Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

Surviving are his 2 daughters, Nyla Mack Houser and Debra Lee Williams; 3 grandchildren, Nyla Beth Gawel (Paul), Kathryn Lee Owen (John), and Brett Jay Houser; 2 great-grandchildren, Nyla Ann Gawel and Mack John Gawel; and 8 nieces and nephews and their families. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his wife of 76 years (by 3 weeks); and brothers, Clifford and Kenneth Mack.

No services are scheduled. Memorial contributions may be made to Cornwall Manor, 1 Boyd Street, Cornwall, Pennsylvania 17016. Arrangements by Cremation Society of Pennsylvania, Inc.

Notes for Nyla McCrory:

Cornwall - Nyla McCrory Mack, of Cornwall Manor, passed away on June 8, 2019, 9 days short of her 98th birthday, at Cornwall Manor Health Center. Born June 17, 1921, in Scottdale, Pennsylvania, she was a daughter of the late Albert J. and Edna (Thompson) McCrory. Following her Bachelor's Degree from Carnegie Institute of Technology, Nyla worked in the field of bio-chemistry for the Naval Research Lab, and in the Carnegie Tech Lab. While living in Yardley, Pennsylvania. She was active in the Morrisville Presbyterian Church, teaching Sunday School, singing in the choir, and was a charter member of the handbell choir. She accompanied her husband to posts in Brazil and Egypt by U.S. Steel. Following retirement, the two traveled extensively, and celebrated their 76th wedding anniversary in May of 2019. The love they shared for each other was obvious to all who knew them, and their devotion to each other was admired by all.

Surviving are her husband, Jay O. Mack; daughters, Nyla Jayne Mack Houser of Yardley, Pennsylvania and Debra Lee Williams of Tomball, Texas; grandchildren, Nyla Beth Gawel (Paul), Brett Jay Houser, and Kathryn Lee Owen (John); great-grandchildren, Nyla Ann Gawel, and Mack John Gawel; and 6 nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sister and brother-in-law, Irene and George Storey; and her brother-in-law, Clifford Mack.

A small family and friends service will be held at the Chapel at Cornwall Manor on June 28th, 2019. Memorial contributions may be made to Cornwall Manor, 1 Boyd Street, Cornwall, Pennsylvania 17016. Arrangements by Cremation Society of Pennsylvania, Inc.

Notes for James Dent Bracken:

James Dent Bracken, age 97, formerly of Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, passed away peacefully on January 3, 2020 in Leesburg, Virginia. He was born in Johnstown, Pennsylvania on March 12, 1922 to Edward Denton Bracken and Susan Carlotta Delancey Bracken. Jim grew up in Armagh, Pennsylvania with his five siblings; Edward J. Bracken, George D. Bracken, Charles O. Bracken, Evelyn B. Hutton and William F. Bracken. He enlisted in the U. S. Army on September 22, 1942 and served in the Marine Maintenance Detachment at Camp Gordon, Johnston, Florida. He was honorably discharged on February 8, 1946. Before and after his service in the army, he was employed as an Optician.

In September 1947, he married Katherine Schmidt, his sweetheart. Together they raised four children. He is survived by Cheryl B. Grubb and Ernest Grubb of West Chicago, Illinois; Jeffrey J. Bracken and Joyce T. Bracken of Tarentum, Pennsylvania (formerly of Berkeley Springs); David S. Bracken and Lesley H. Bracken of Molalla, Oregon; and Jennifer B. Thompson and Stephen Thompson of Herndon, Virginia. Grandchildren of Jim and Katie include; Timothy Grubb, Jonathan Grubb, Jessica Franceschina, Stephanie Beymer, Laura Bracken, Rachel Thompson and Chloe Thompson. Great-grandchildren include Ethen Beymer, Savannah Beymer, Marcus Franceschina and Norah Franceschina.

Jim owned Bracken Opticians in Annandale, Virginia where he grew a very successful optical business for 40 years. In addition to his business Jim was an avid woodworker who loved to design and build furniture for his family and friends. He also loved to travel all over the United States with his wife Katie in their travel trailer. After Katie's death in 1998, he briefly owned a home and lived part time in Mount Dora, Florida. Jim loved to interact with people and easily made friends with strangers.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, January 10, 2020 at Helsley-Johnson Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 95 Union Street, Berkeley Springs, West Virginia followed by a graveside ceremony at Union Chapel Cemetery where military honors will be provided by the Tri-State Honor Guard. The family will receive friends from 3-5 & 6-8 pm on Thursday at the funeral home.

Wheatfield Twp, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 Mar 1967 in Robinson, W. Wheatfield Twp, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania. He married Leona Pearl Steffy 11 Jun 1947, daughter of Terry R. Stiffy. She was born 02 May 1930 in Pennsylvania, and died 31 Oct 1995 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Richard Dale Lichtenfels:

Robinson - Richard Dale Lichtenfels, the 38-year-old Robinson man who went on a gun spree Monday evening March 27, 1967, probably died of a blast from his own shotgun and not from pistol bullets fired, by police, Indiana County medical authorities said today. Lichtenfels, who earlier had killed his brother, Albert, 41, was cornered in the basement of a neighbor's house and was in what appeared to be an of shots with state police. State police yesterday said they were not sure whether their bullets or a shotgun blast Lichtenfels.

There were three wounds in gunman's body. Dr. Kenneth Sayers, Indiana County coroner, said today an autopsy performed on Lichtenfels' body indicated that the fatal wound was that of a shotgun blast. Police are theorizing that the blast was an accident. They believe Lichtenfels, hiding in the basement of the neighbor's house, "ducked behind a hot water tank which lying on its side." It is believed his .12 gauge - double - barrel shotgun bumped the tank and accidentally discharged. State Police Lt. James Barger and Trooper John Bardroff, who entered the basement, immediately fired, at the gunman. Medical authorities, however, said neither of the police bullets were fatal. The shotgun discharged, they said, killed Lichtenfels. Lichtenfels was the subject of massive four-hour manhunt in southern Indiana County community. He went on a gun spree about 8:30 p.m., wounding his 15-year-son, Donald; a teenage companion, 18-year-old Gary Clark, New Florence R.D. 2, and two teenagers before he killed his brother. Lichtenfels eventually hid in the home of Don McAnulty, 76, his wife, Mary, 70.

Police traced the gunman to McAnulty home through the work of a Bell Telephone Co. employee, Gail McCombs, of Lichtenfels had made "several calls" from the McAnulty house, presumably to learn how his son was injured. McCombs traced the calls to McAnulty house and police converged on the area. Lt Barger and Trooper Bardroff entered the house and finally located Lichtenfels in the basement.

Lichtenfels' son and the Clark are listed in fair condition today at Lee Hospital, Johnstown, where they are being treated for shotgun wounds. Leonard Barbus, 18, and Donald P. Dodson, 15, both of New R.D. 2, were given emergency treatment for pellet wounds at the Bolivar Medical Center and were released. Meanwhile, State Police Cpl. Thomas Hudock of Indiana began interviewing Robinson persons today to learn what ignited the gun spree. Police have charged the McAnulty couple with aiding and abetting a felon. They have not elaborated on the charges. The McAnultys were given a hearing yesterday Thomas Ira Martin, White Twp. on justice of the peace.

Richard Dale Lichtenfels, 39, of Robinson, died March 28, 1967, in Robinson. Born March 7, 1928 in Robinson, he was a son of Albert R. Irene McClelland Lichtenfels. Survivors include his wife Leona Steffy Lichtenfels; and the following children: Richard Jr., with the U.S. Air Force in China; Donald, Darlene, and Kathy, all at home; the following half-sisters: Mrs. Alice Nixon, Mrs. Marie Cline, and Mrs. Lillian Wakefield, all of Bolivar.

Marriage Notes for Rodney Brett and Nancy Walter:

Latrobe, Jan. 17, 1969 – Bride-elect Nancy Walter of 400 North Ligonier St., Latrobe, has become the fiancée of Rodney Brett of Robinson, Pennsylvania. Making the announcement were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Walter. Miss Walter graduated in 1965 from Latrobe High School and is a senior at the Indiana University of Pennsylvania. The prospective bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Brett, is a 1964 United High School alumnus and graduated in 1968 from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He is teaching in Apollo. An early spring wedding is planned by the couple.

Latrobe, April 9, 1969 - Nancy Walter of Latrobe, a senior at the Indiana University of Pennsylvania, was married recently to Rodney L. Brett, a 1968 graduate of the same university. The double-ring marriage service was performed in the Latrobe United Methodist Church, the Rev. C. Kerr in charge. Donn Syster was acolyte. White gladiolas decorated the church for the mid-afternoon ceremony. Approximately 150 friends and relatives heard the couple repeat vows of marriage. Traditional wedding music was played on the organ throughout the ceremony by Mrs. Donald Hazlett of Latrobe.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Walter of Latrobe, was given in marriage by her father. Maid of honor at the wedding was the bride's sorority sister, Marcia Marzaloos of Port Vue, Pennsylvania. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Leslie Sobota and Brenda, Syster, junior bridesmaid. The bride wore a floor-length gown composed of nylon organza over peau de soie with an overlay of daisies accenting the chapel train, bell sleeves and jewel neckline. Her elbow-length silk illusion veil was attached to a tiara of pearls and lace and she carried stephanotis and glamelias in her cascading bouquet. The attendant's gowns were designed similar to the brides. They were ice blue, floor-length formats made from silk shantung. They wore matching headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of blue carnations, sweetheart roses and heather.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Brett of Robinson, asked a fraternity brother, Robert Strouse of Williamsport, to be best man. Other gentlemen attendants Andrew Sobota, Jeff Syster, Andrew Schmidt and Joel Heimlich. The mother of the bride greeted guests in an aqua ensemble with matching accessories and pink cymbidium corsage. Mrs. Brett wore a peach-colored outfit with bone accessories and a white cymbidium corsage. The newlyweds honeymooned in Williamsburg, Virginia, and are making their home in Apollo where Brett is employed as a teacher in the Apollo School District.

Esther will be laid to rest next to her husband, Edward, in Roselawn Memorial Gardens, Vernon Township.

Notes for Edward Joseph Smolinski:

Edward J. Smolinski, 85, of 11110 Hunters Ridge Blvd., Apt. 3, Meadville, passed away Saturday, Jan. 5, 2008 at Wesbury United Methodist Community, following an extended illness, surrounded by his loving wife of 62 years and four children as he was embraced by our Lord's loving arms. He was born in Conneautville, Sept. 4, 1922, the son of the late John Joseph and Zofia Przybyszewska Smolinski. On Nov. 28, 1945, he married Esther Jean Nelson. She survives. He was a member of St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church. In April 1985, he retired from the former Avtex Corp. where he had been employed in the process department for several years. A veteran of the U.S. Army Air Force, he was a World War II veteran, serving from Nov. 18, 1942, until his honorable discharge on Nov. 9, 1945 where he had obtained the rank of staff sergeant. Over his tour of duty, he was awarded the American Theater Ribbon, European-African-Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon with two bronze stars, Good Conduct Medal, Air Medal with two bronze clusters and the World War II Victory Medal. He enjoyed the outdoors, gardening and hunting, especially his annual trips to Warren when family and friends would gather at his brother Joe's camp for the opening of deer season. He was an avid Cleveland Indians fan and enjoyed baseball and football. He will be remembered as being a strong, sensitive, stubborn giant of a man and for his love of family. His grandchildren were the light of his life and he was welcomed into the love, warmth and peace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ by his grandson Chase Ryan Carlson, who held out his waiting hand to welcome him.

In addition to his wife Esther of 62 years, survivors include four children Robert Edward Smolinski and his wife, Angela, of Meadville, Patricia Ann Kedzierski of Erie, Burnell Eugene Smolinski and his wife, Linda, of Cambridge Springs and Betty Jean Carlson of Meadville; six grandchildren Kimberly Marsteller and her husband, David, Jamie Smolinski and his wife, Leanne, Kevin Carlson and his fiancé, Rachel Contrucci, Deanna Hall, Tara Hall and Ashley Hall; six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mary Leszek of Meadville and Rose White of Linesville; and several nieces and nephews.

Notes for Guy A. Brendlinger:

Guy A. Brendlinger was born Feb. 5, 1922. He was shown as residing in West Wheatfield, Indiana Co., Pennsylvania, in the 1930 Census. His parents were Paul and Pearl Saxton Brendlinger of Pennsylvania, and his siblings in 1930 were Weldon, Roy, and Robert. Guy was listed as "Gary" and was the eldest child.

His military record shows his 'nativity' as New Jersey, although some sources indicate Pennsylvania. He entered into the US Army as a member of the Regular Army at some unknown point before WWII began. He is said to have served a number of years in Panama...His serial number was 07025271. He was assigned to the 455th AAA Bn., after the unit was formed in Sept. 1942. The 455th AAA trained at Camp Stewart and Ft. Benning, Ga. (Guy was shown on the records of both locations), then went overseas to Norfolk, England (in Sept. 1943). Guy was in Battery 'C', gun crew #8, as the assistant machine gunner on a quad .50-cal. anti-aircraft gun. His rank was Private. Guy's unit was located at a B-24 bomber repair airbase at Watton, Norfolk, England. He is not shown in a 'C' Btry. photo taken in 1943 in England.

In July 1944, the 455th AAA went to France for 'Operation Cobra', as part of Patton's 3rd Army, Walker's XX Corps. They later went into Germany and Austria and returned home in October 1945. The unit shutdown/damaged over 130 German aircraft and became the second highest-scoring anti-aircraft unit in Patton's 3rd Army. It is known that Guy was with the 455th in France, but was transferred to the 134th Inf. Regiment, of the 35th Inf. Division in Dec. 1944, during the Battle of the Bulge. Some 50 members of the 455th AAA were sent to the infantry as replacements. A report on Jan. 17, 1945 from the 110th Medical Bn. indicates that Sgt. Brendlinger had been 'lightly' wounded and was transferred to the 65th Field Hospital.

At the end of the war, Guy was shown as enlisting in the National Guard on Oct. 9, 1945 at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. His occupation was listed as 'farm work' and he was shown with a grammar school education and was shown as a 'widower'. If the latter was true, he married Gladys Penrose (she was born in Pennsylvania in 1925, and passed away at Medina, Orleans Co., New York in 2002, at age 77). Guy was shown as passing away at age 61 on May 25, 1983, while also residing in Medina, Orleans Co., New York.

Notes for Patricia Ostheim:

Patricia L. Penrose, 75, Bolivar, beloved wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend, died after a courageous battle with breast cancer late on March 14, 2014 at 75 years of age. She is deeply mourned by her family and friends. Her big heart, loyalty and spirited personality are remembered by all who knew her. Pat met Jim Penrose, who was to become her husband, when she was 20. They married in 1962, and enjoyed a lifelong love for 52 years. Their love endured such challenges as separation during Jim's tour of duty in Vietnam, and the rebuilding of their home after a devastating fire destroyed their residence in 1972. They were partners in every aspect of life, including the family business, J & D Penrose, Inc., where Pat worked as the Office Manager for more than three decades. Theirs was a lasting and special love, admired greatly by their children and family. Pat was born in Johnstown, Pennsylvania on March 2, 1939, to the late Frank and Helen Boyer Ostheim.

She is survived by her loving and devoted husband, Jim. She was the proud mother of two children, Jill Penrose-Smith (Michael) of Bath, Ohio and Brian Penrose (Kerri) of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She was the loving grandmother of four energetic and boisterous grandsons, Tyler, Braeden, Mitchell and Spencer. She is also survived by her sisters, Judy Sheppard of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania and Nancy (Allan) Constable of Murrells Inlet, South Carolina; a vast extended family; many close friends; and her beloved four-legged companions Hayley and Fawn.

Visitation will be held from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday, March 17 at The Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home in New Florence. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, March 18 at The United Methodist Church, New Florence. Burial will be at Germany Lutheran Cemetery. Notes for Cleo Joan Baird:

Cleo Joan McClure of Belle Vernon, formerly West Bolivar died October 6, 2014 at the age of 78. She was born in West Wheatfield Township and was the first child of the late William Thomas Baird and Bessie Almeda Baird (Shetler). Cleo attended West Bolivar Elementary and graduated with the class of 1954 from Laurel Valley High School. She joined the United States Marine Corp during the Korean Conflict Era and was stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. She loved children and retired from Ligonier Valley School District where she was employed as a teacher's aide at both Bolivar and Laurel Valley Elementary for many years. Cleo loved to go dancing in her younger years and to the casino in her golden ones. She enjoyed watching her many children perform on the football field from the hill in front of the school where she worked. Her grandchildren were her delight and she always kept them on their toes. She enjoyed catching anyone off guard with one of her practical jokes or very funny birthday cards. Cleo was an avid reader and dabbled a little in poetry. Many of us were taste testers for her "new recipe" but to her nothing was better than the first tomato out of the garden. Her sense of humor and her compassionate giving spirit will be missed by those whom she left behind including her husband of 46 years, Earl E. McClure of Belle Vernon, formerly West Bolivar.

She is also survived by four sons, Kevin M. McClure of Quartzsite, Arizona, Gary B. McClure (Sara) of Carbondale, Co, Thomas W. McClure of South Park, and Darren E. McClure (Marinn) of Fairfax, Virginia. Her two surviving daughters are Lisa A. Spekis (Bob) of Belle Vernon, and Wendy J. Everson of Colorado Springs, Co. Cleo has two siblings Carrie Darlene Mehalic of Riverview, Florida and Thomas Wayne Baird of Clarksburg. Those most loved by Cleo are her grandchildren Meghan, Jim and David Johnson, Hannah and Rachel Everson, Robby Spekis and Case McClure.

Family and friends will be received at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence, on Saturday October 11 from noon till time of memorial service at 2 PM. Interment to follow at Bethel Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to her favorite charity, the Salvation Army, or to those who took such wonderful care of her. Family Hospice inpatient Facility in Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

She was born 29 Dec 1930 in Brush Valley, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania, and died 16 Sep 2010 in Brush Valley, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Charles G. (Junior) Shoup:

Indiana, Pennsylvania, Feb. 4, 1955 - The current winter weather that is gripping the county was blamed indirectly for causing the lone Indiana County highway accident yesterday in which damages estimated at $325 were caused and one man was slightly injured. Clyde H. Herlingce, 69, of Butler, was having his car towed onto Route 56 one mile south of Brush Valley yesterday afternoon when the mishap occurred, according to State Police of the Indiana substation. Police said the Herlinger car was being towed by another vehicle when it was struck by a car driven by Charles G. Shoup, 25, of Brush Valley who was traveling south on Route 56. Herlinger suffered a lacerated head and possible head injury and was released from Indiana Hospital after treatment. Damages to the Herlinger car were set at $200 and at $125 to the Shoup machine.

Charles "Junior" G. Shoup, 84, Brush Valley, passed away Monday, May 13, 2013, at Bethany Place, Indiana. Born in 1929 to Charles B. and Evelyn (Cline) Shoup in Colver, Cambria County. Charles was married to Bernice V. (Gray) Shoup on July 17, 1952, and had 58 wonderful years together. Charles was a member of Calvary United Methodist Church, Brush Valley. He was active in his church, having served as custodian, usher, trustee, administrative council and attended church conferences. While attending high school, he worked as a night watchman for Hesh Bon Coal Co. in Heshbon, Pa. He retired from Bethlehem Steel in Johnstown in 1985, after 33 years of employment. Following his retirement, he served as Brush Valley Township Supervisor for 10 years. Charles enjoyed gardening and spending time with his family. He was a veteran of the Korean War, having served with the U.S. Army. Following his honorable discharge from active service, he served with the U.S. Army Reserves in Indiana, Pa. Charles was a Life member of VFW Post 1989 in Indiana.

Survived by two sons and two daughters, Charles A. Shoup, and wife, Mary Ann, Saltillo, Miss.; Dianne K. Dougan, and husband, William, Brush Valley; Donald C. Shoup, and wife, Joyce, Blairsville; and Debra L. Shoup, Windber; grandchildren, Jodi Blasi, and husband, Christopher (Chris), Irwin; Roxanne (Roxy) Mazzeo, Brush Valley; Curtis Shoup, Blairsville; Sena Hockenberry, Pittsburgh; and Thaddeus (Kris) Hockenberry, Windber; great-grandchildren, Carter Blasi, Irwin; and Martin Hanson, Brush Valley; brother, Orville (Buddy) Shoup, and wife, Helen, Clyde; sister-in-law, Betty Lou Shoup, Johnstown, Mundys Corner; and brother-in-law, D. Notes for Allan Lloyd (Grease) Van Heel:

Conrad - Allan Lloyd "Grease" Van Heel, 56, died of prostate cancer Tuesday at his home in Conrad. His funeral is 4 :30 p.m. Friday at the Conrad High School gym, followed by a reception at the Conrad Mission Church. Pondera Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. God bless all those who may attend.

He is survived by the great love of his life, his wife, Kelsy; his children, Sean Van Heel, Mark (Corrine) Van Heel, Erin (Bob) Ferrell, Shari Parrish, Kevin Taylor Bliss, Kevin Allan Van Heel, Blair Bliss and Jennifer Van Heel; grandchildren, McKenzie, Meadow, Cecille, Emma, and Lilly, who is due to be born June 23; and his "much older" sister, Judy (Tom) Doheny. Grease was born July 14, 1948, in Conrad, Montana, to Al and Emma Van Heel. He died May 3, 2005, at home, surrounded by his family. Grease grew up on the family farm west of Dutton and attended Dutton schools. He first began his lifelong love of sports in 1953, becoming a New York Yankees fan. In 1959, he added the Green Bay Packers to his sports addiction. In 1966, he became a devoted Griz fan and also attended college in Missoula.

His love of sports and youth joined forces and he began his Little League coaching career in 1969. He not only coached Little League, but girls' fast pitch and basketball. Tidbits about Grease you may not know: he was Batman and drove a Batmobile. He enjoyed amusing his children with the Unicom song. He was the King of storytelling! He was the mad wanderer after Griz games. He could eat an entire turkey and was very proud of it. He loved others' kids as if they were his own: EliahMannen and Courtney Ellefsen and every kid he coached. Family trips were comprised of making the kids read historical markers and others were planned around stopping at Tony Roma's for ribs. He had a collection of more than 1,000 books; many he read numerous times, often in "his office." He was the smartest man his family will ever know; he was Albert Einstein and Mickey Mantle all in one. His heaven on earth was Glacier National Park with his family, whom he loved dearly. We have a cornucopia of stories to tell you about Grease; if by chance you never met him, you really missed out. He was large as a grizzly, and gentle as a lamb.

He was preceded in death by his father, Al, on May 5, 1983; and his mother, Emma, on Feb. 17, 2005.

He married Amelia C. (Amy) Madison 1946. She was born 24 Mar 1923 in Derry, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania, and died 25 Mar 2013 in Greensburg, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Amelia C. (Amy) Madison:

Amy C. Dixon, 90, of Derry, passed away Monday, March 25, 2013, in the Greensburg Care Center. She was born March 24, 1923, in Derry, a daughter of the late Gregg (Skip) Aljo and Clara Lenore Short Madison. She was a member of St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church of Derry. Amy had worked for the Stupakoff Co. during the war effort. She was very active in starting a women's softball team in Derry. She enjoyed hunting and fishing and had many enjoyable years camping with her husband and family in the Pinecreek Valley Area of Lycoming County. Amy also liked to cook and took great pride in her holiday meals she served.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, George R. Dixon; a son, Thomas R. Dixon; a brother, Francis "Skip" Madison; two sisters, June McCartney and Helen Kibble; and a daughter-in-law, Gloria Kociszewski Dixon.

Children of Harry Dixon and Amelia Madison are:

- 3973 i. Thomas Roy⁹ Dixon, born 12 Jun 1947 in Latrobe, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania; died 10 Jan 2002 in Mayer, Yavapai Co, Arizona.

Notes for Thomas Roy Dixon:

Thomas Roy Dixon passed away Sunday, Jan. 10, 2002, near his home in Cleator, Arizona, of heart failure. He was born June 12, 1947, to George and Amy Dixon of Derry. Tom loved the warm climate and solitude of his desert home. He worked as a contractor and took particular pride in maintaining the lines that provided water to his neighbors in Cleator. Tom liked to say he was born 100 years too late because he loved the rugged life experienced by the miners of the Old West. He was lucky enough to find a place where time stopped in that era.

Tom is survived by a sister, Cheryl and her husband, Jerry, of Mt. Pleasant; and two brothers, Bill and his wife, Toni, and Dave and his wife, Gloria, all of Latrobe. Also surviving are his nieces and nephews, Audra Hixson, Susie and her husband, Dave Lawson, Mark Hixson, Lindsay Dixon, Nicholas Dixon and Scott Dixon. Tom is also survived by his many friends in the Cleator, Crown King, Mayer and Phoenix areas of Arizona. A memorial gathering in celebration of Tom's life was held in Cleator on Jan. 24. He will be very sadly missed by his family and friends. May God bless him and grant him peace.

Notes for Betty Jo Dixon:

Betty Jo (Dixon) Seaman, 90, of Latrobe, died peacefully Tuesday, May 29, 2018, at Excelsa Health Latrobe Hospital, surrounded by her loving family. Born March 1, 1928, in Blairsville, she was a daughter of the late Roy Dixon and Zala (Seasholtz) Dixon. Betty was retired from the Menasha Corporation. She was an avid bingo player, enjoyed going to casinos, gardening, feeding squirrels and rabbits and watching birds. She and her husband were motorcycle enthusiasts and traveled the country, even to Canada, on their bike after they both retired. Inevitably, they would always find a bingo game on their trips.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Howard V. "Hud" Seaman; a son, Terry Seaman; two daughters, Sally Moorhead and Bonnie Slaninko; a son-in-law, Dennis Repko; two sisters, Helen Baughman and Dorothy Johnson; and two brothers, Roy and Jack Dixon. Betty is survived by three daughters, Linda Hanlin and her husband, Ronald, of Latrobe, Kimberly Kutzer and her husband, Kelly, of Latrobe, and Paula Dickerson and her husband, Michael, of Latrobe; a son-in-law, Rudy Slaninko, of Latrobe; one brother, Robert Dixon and his wife, Jessie, of Millwood; six grandchildren, Terry Seaman and his wife, Diane, Steven Hirko, Michael Seaman and his wife, Dawn, Melissa Flock and her husband, Jeff, Erik Dickerson and Janelle Palmer; five great-grandchildren, Nathan Seaman, Zack Seaman, Karissa Seaman, Jamie Flock and Emily Flock; and two step-granddaughters, Mattie Morrow and Alexie Ament.

There will be no public visitations or services. Private inurnment will be at Unity Cemetery. Arrangements are being handled by the John J. Lopatich Funeral Home Inc., 601 Weldon St., Latrobe.

2399. Diane⁸ Sides (Jamison Stuart⁷, Stuart Jacob (Stewart)⁶, Adam J.⁵, Joseph⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 22 Jan 1932 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania, and died 05 Aug 2020 in Arlington, Virginia. She married Benjamin Harmon Anderson, Jr. 15 Jan 1954 in Palos Verdes Estates, California.

Notes for Diane Sides:

Diane Sides Anderson was the beloved only daughter of the late Dorothy Kathryn Minch and Jamison Stewart Sides. She was born on January 22, 1932 and left us on August 5, 2020. During her later years of life she was afflicted by Parkinson's Disease, complications of which were the ultimate cause of her death. It was amazing how stalwartly she proceeded through her Parkinson years without succumbing to self-pity. Parkinson's isn't curable, so one rolls with the unfortunate punches. She was GREAT! Benjamin H. Anderson, Jr., was the unbelievably lucky man that Diane chose with whom to march through life. Ben was a soldier and they moved often throughout the country and the world. Diane always made their home a welcome place for friends, relatives, and, of course, their three wonderful sons, David, Douglas, and Donald. In addition to the burdens of military "wifedom," Diane was a professional elementary school teacher. She taught with the Department of Defense Schools and with the Fairfax County Public Schools systems. She was a "readin' writin' and 'rithmetic" teacher. While she studied and knew the "modern education" systems and mores, the children that passed through her classrooms knew how to read, write, add, and subtract (not to speak of their multiplication tables). As the parents of her students might remember, "A 'C' is a 'C'!"

Diane is survived by Ben, their three sons, three precious daughters-in-law, Patti, Molly, and Michelle, and the jewels of her later life, her amazingly attractive and incomparably intelligent grandchildren, Lauren, Phil, Jeff, Matt, Paul, Nicole, and Cecilia. She expressly asked that anyone wanting to memorialize her should please consider Fisher House Foundation.

She married Roy E. Barron. He was born 20 Jun 1936 in Tarentum, Pennsylvania, and died 03 Dec 2011 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Roy E. Barron:

Roy E. Barron, 75, Johnstown, died Dec. 3, 2011, at UPMC Montefiore Hospital in Pittsburgh. Born June 30, 1936, in Tarentum, Pennsylvania, the only child of the late Roy E. Sr. and Helen Hinkle Barron. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Margaret Tilley Barron; daughter, Sara Louise, Johnstown; son, Jonathan "Jon" Roy, and wife, Laura Callahan, Montpelier, Virginia; son, Brad Edward, and wife, Sarah Hunt-Barron, Greenville, South Carolina; and grandchildren, Elaina, Joel, Henry and Elliot Barron. He also is survived by his sisters-in-law, Barbara A. Tilley, Fort Lauderdale, Florida; Eleanor T. Meagher, Johnstown; and Carolyn T., and husband, George C. Walter, Fullerton, California; five nephews; and two nieces.

Roy, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, retired from Penelec in 1995. He was an active member of Roxbury St. Paul's United Methodist Church. Member, trustee and former Noble Grand of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Alma Lodge 523 and the William F. Packer Encampment. Member of the Flood City Regional Antique Auto Club of America and Johnstown Area Heritage Association. Roy's favorite volunteer job after retirement was as a driver for the Blood Services Division of the American Red Cross.

Family and friends will be received from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Picking-Treece-Bennett Mortuary Inc., Menoher Boulevard, where IOOF memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday and where funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Pastor Wayne Sedei. Notes for Carol Jean Shepard:

Carol Jean Shepard 1951-2012 Monroe County, New York

Dear Kenny,

It is with much sadness that I write to you about the passing of my friend and well-known upstate New York horsewoman, Carol Shepard, after a lengthy illness. Carol will be remembered for her quick wit, her extraordinary beauty and her outstanding abilities with horses.

Carol's life-long devotion to horses began when her parents got her a little chestnut rogue named "Turkey" that she kept at a barn near her home. She soon moved to High View Farm and began riding for Jack Frohm. Carol and her bay gelding "Shadow Lake" were practically unbeatable in the juniors in the mid-60's. In 1969, Carol changed to Roger Young Stables. She went on to show regionally and nationally and was champion just about everywhere she went! Among the many horses she successfully campaigned were Ira Kaufman's "Roman Talk", Susie Schoellkopf's "First Edition", Richard Zimmerman's "Shamrock", Young's "I'm the Greatest" and "I Ain't Brown" and countless others.

In the mid-seventies, she became more involved with racehorses. Carol and her friend, John Lana, established The Unstable at Finger Lakes Race Track. Makecents Farm's "Vital Chum", "Fowl Mouth" and "After the Prom", Hard Six Stables' "Powerful Flower", Roger Young's "Sir Sioux", Charles LaLoggia's "Colombia Gold" and "Ducky Duchess" were just a few of the winners who benefitted from their expertise. You could always pick Carol's horses out in the paddock since they were the ones that were clipped, immaculately groomed and even braided! Later on, Carol worked at EquiCenter (Therapeutic Riding Facility). She enjoyed seeing the mentally and physically challenged learn to benefit from the animals she so loved.

A memorial reception for Carol will be held at EquiCenter on Monday, December 10th from 3:30 to 6:30 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to EquiCenter, 3247 Rush-Mendon Rd, Honeoye Falls, New York 14472. Sincerely, Lynda Robesonvv

A memorial headstone plaque has been placed on a plot at Whitehaven Memorial Park Cemetery in Pittsford, New York alongside her mother's (Barbara Winebrenner Barrett) & step-father's (L. Michael Barrett) graves. Section F -Lot 635 Grave 6. Near her father Richard G. Shepard F-635-3

Carolina. He married Mary ? 18 Aug 1932. She was born Aft. 1910.

Notes for David Samuel Fulcomer:

David S. Fulcomer, 64, a former resident of Holland Township and a longtime teacher at the Holland Township School who became embroiled in a protracted legal battle with the school board after his dismissal in 1962, died unexpectedly on Monday May 14, 1973 while on route to his home in Vacation Village, Florida. Fulcomer is also a former resident of Stewartsville, Pennsylvania. He was born in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, son of the late Curtis and Sara Harris Fulcomer. He was a graduate of Tyrone, Pennsylvania, high school and he had degrees from Susquehanna University, Duke University, a masters degree from New York University and an elementary teaching degree from Rutgers. Fulcomer taught math at the Holland Township School from 1954 to 1962 and then from 1967 to 1971 when he retired and moved to Florida. He also taught at Philipsburg High School and at a school in Riverhead, New York. He was interested in teener league baseball and served as a coach. He is a U.S. Army Veteran of W.W. I and was the first commander of the Meesey Bishop American legion Post in Stewartsville. Fulcomer is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Fulcomer; three sons, Robert D. and William E. both of rural Milford and Jerry E. of rural Hackettstown; a daughter, Mrs. Natoli Gualberti of rural Milford; eight grandchild; two brother Verne K. of Tyrone, Pennsylvania. And George W. of Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania; four sisters, Mrs. Alice Knarr, Mrs. Clara Morder and Mrs. Velma Heilman, all of Tyrone and Mrs. Irene Pitts of Warren, Ohio. Funeral services will be private.

Fulcomer, who began teaching at the Holland School in 1954 was dismissed in 1962 after he allegedly used physical force to discipline a 14-year-old student in one of his classes. Fulcomer was dismissed by the Holland Board after a hearing was conducted by the state's commissioner of education. Fulcomer appealed to the State Board of Education and was granted a second hearing in 1964 but the dismissal was upheld. Fulcomer carried his case to the courts and in 1967 the Appellate Division of the Superior court after ruling that dismissal was too harsh a penalty returned the case to the new Commissioner of Education, Dr. Carl Marburger. In August of 1967, Commissioner Marburger ordered Fulcomer's reinstatement at the Holland Township School with his tenure and pension rights restored but without back pay. Fulcomer then began a long and ultimately unsuccessful battle to try and get court permission to sue the township and state boards for damages. During his suspension from the Holland School, Fulcomer taught in Riverhead, New York. Throughout his fight with the township and state boards Fulcomer maintained that he was dismissed not solely because of the incident with the student but because of his ideas on discipline and education.

He married Marie Antoinette Pribelsky Aft. 1951. She was born 14 Jun 1933 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania, and died 10 Feb 2015 in Ligonier, Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Marie Antoinette Pribelsky:

Marie A. St. Clair, 81, New Florence. Marie's family is sad to announce the death of their mother. She passed away Feb. 10, 2015, at Bethlen Home, Ligonier. She was born June 14, 1933, in Johnstown, daughter of the late August A. and Rose F. (Dey) Pribelsky. Marie also was preceded in death by her husband, Earl H. St. Clair, in 1991; brothers, Thomas, Joseph and Charles Pribelsky; stepsister, Madeline Chapman; son-in-law, William Mattern, M.D.; and very special friend, Edward DeTemple. Marie is survived by her six loving children, Della Mattern, and husband, Duane Boulis, Huron, Ohio; Earl Joseph St. Clair, and wife, Pamela, Bolivar; Patricia Coram, and husband, Charles, Novi, Michigan; Michael St. Clair, and wife, Lee, Wichita, Kansas; Marcia Ziebell, and husband, Todd, Plymouth Minnesota; and Sheila Marabito, and husband, Kevin, Seward. She also was the proud "Gammy" to 15 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Her sisters, Rita Muir of Silver Spring, Maryland, and Rosemary Csehoski of New Florence, also survive her.

Marie worked for many years as a seamstress at Bestform and also had a chocolate shop in her home for many years. She was very proud of her hand-dipped chocolates. She created her own recipe for her peanut butter meltaways and butter crunch. Marie enjoyed camping at Treasure Lake with her family. There were many great stories told around the campfire. This lady, who was proud that she was a "Hunky," loved her large family gatherings, and could certainly put out a great spread, and made everyone feel welcome. She will be missed greatly by us all. God Bless you Mom, we love you and will miss you.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 20, at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21, at Holy Family Church, 425 Bridge St., Seward, with the Rev. Robert Washko officiating. Interment, Armagh Cemetery.

Notes for Thurman Robert Brendlinger:

Thurman R. Brendlinger started at the Pittsburgh Auto Trade Association in January 1978, and that same year he brought back the Pittsburgh Auto Show, an event that had been stalled out for almost a decade. The car show, held in tight exhibit space at the Civic Arena those first few years, faced challenges, said Jill Costic, who worked on that event and now directs the auto show. "It had pillars every 10 feet," she recalled. In addition, the arena simultaneously hosted other events such as hockey games and even concerts like the one by the band Styx. Mr. Brendlinger's calm, gentlemanly demeanor helped in keeping all the different parties and the show on track. "You have to referee sometimes," Ms. Costic explained. Those low-key leadership skills were useful to Mr. Brendlinger all his life, as he participated in projects that ranged from creating a credit union at the Pittsburgh Auto Trade Association -- later renamed the Greater Pittsburgh Auto Dealers Association -- to helping establish the Cedars of Monroeville nursing home.

Mr. Brendlinger, 89, died on Saturday March 31, 2012 at Cedars Community Hospice in Monroeville after a difficult year in which he suffered two hip fractures as he was already coping with advanced Parkinson's disease and prostate cancer. He was born on Feb 26, 1923. A native of Pitcairn, he had started studying at the University of Pittsburgh when he was called to duty in the Army Air Forces during World War II. He served as a cryptographer because, according to family lore, military officials decided his intelligence was a good fit for the challenge.

In 1946, he graduated from Pitt's business school and went on to work for Chevrolet, according to his wife, Marie of Monroeville. He would later own two different Dodge dealerships, first in Homestead and then in Monroeville. He was more comfortable with the business side than in chatting about each vehicle's technical bells and whistles, said Mrs. Brendlinger, with laugh. In the late 1970s, he took the position at the auto trade group, which represents dealers and businesses that support them. There, in addition to shepherding the auto show through what press reports of the time indicate were some tough years for the industry, he is credited with starting the credit union that still serves employees of dealer members.

"He was a man of vision," said Louise Parkhill, director of administration. She started as a secretary a couple of years before Mr. Brendlinger retired in 1994 and remembers his patience in helping her learn the job.

In 1995, he married Marie Damask. Both were widowed -- his first wife, Helen, died in the late 1980s -- and friends thought they should meet. His three children were all adults by then, but two of her four were still young enough to live at home. "He was a wonderful father to both of them," Mrs. Brendlinger said. Over the years, he served in numerous organizations, ranging from leadership roles in church and veterans groups to president of the Pitcairn Savings and Loan as well as chairman of the board for Sentinel Savings and Loan. His resume also lists involvement with the Better Business Bureau of Western Pennsylvania and past president of the Glenwood Condominium Association.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Brendlinger is survived by his sister, Ann Edwards of Pitcairn; two daughters, Barbara Beisel of Collier, and Nancy Power of Somerdale, New Jersey; one son, Thurman Brendlinger Jr. of Philadelphia; two stepdaughters, Rosemarie Meagh of Atlanta and Dianne Learish of Pine; two step-sons, Hank Damask of Eldersburg, Maryland, and David Damask of North Fayette; seven grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

Visitation will be from 1 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. today at Gene H. Corl Funeral Chapel & Cremation Center of Monroeville. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Cross Roads Presbyterian Church in Monroeville.

Notes for Guy Gary Sides:

Guy Gary Sides, 60, of Dakota City passed away Sunday, April 13, 2014, of natural causes at his home. Gary was born on Oct. 28, 1953, in Sioux City. He graduated from South Sioux City High School in 1972. He worked at the Paddock Steak House in South Sioux City from the eighth grade until graduation. After high school, he toured Europe for three months and then attended the University of Nebraska for one year. In 1974, he opened Sides Sodas and Confectionery in Oakland, Nebraska. He also owned and operated the Lyons Soda Fountain in Lyons, Nebraska. He sold the confectioneries and in 1977 he and his father, Jerry Sides, purchased the grain elevator at Emerson, Nebraska, and opened as Sides Feed and Grain. The father and son team worked together at the elevator until 1989 when they sold it.

In 1989, Gary moved back to Dakota City and into the home once lived in by his great-grandparents, grandparents and mother. He devoted the rest of his life to pursuing his love of history, especially the history of the Siouxland region. He compiled thousands of notebooks regarding the history of Dakota County relating to steamboats, bridges, buildings, schools, farms, towns and life stories. Gary accomplished many historical endeavors, including creating several historical pictorial wall displays throughout the area. These displays include a photo wall at the Dakota City United Methodist Church featuring all ministers from 1856 to current, a display at the Dakota County Courthouse showing all district judges, and the historical pictures and explanatory text that line the walls of the historic O'Connor House in Homer, Neb. He also accumulated and had microfilmed the 1870 to present newspapers and raised $10,000 to provide a microfilm reader and printer for the Dakota City Library.

Gary selflessly shared his love of the history of his community with others. At the time of his death, he had on loan to the Dakota County Treasurer's office a collection of "70" Dakota County license plates from 1915 to the present that he and his father had collected. He also designed the first Dakota County flag which hangs in the Dakota County Commissioner's Office and depicts explorers on the Lewis and Clark Expedition. Over the years Gary has helped many people search their family history. He served as president of the Dakota County Historical Society from 1991 to 2003. The history buff also researched and co-authored with Melvin Shadbolt a 400-page book about the history of Methodism on the 150th anniversary of the Dakota City United Methodist Church. Gary is also known to people throughout Siouxland as the man who won the contest to name "Twigamore," the stick-built art sculpture that graced the lawn of the Sioux City Art Center from 2005 to 2007. The name is a tongue-in-cheek tribute to the iconic Biltmore Estate in North Carolina. The last four years, he had been caregiver to Maxine Nielsen. And finally, Gary will be remembered by his family and friends for his love of a good story and a malty Belgian beer, and his generous, heartwarming and hearty laugh.

Gary is survived by his parents, Guy Gerald "Jerry" and Shirley (Niemeyer) Sides; sisters, Jerri Lynn Zortman (Marjorie Knotts), and Eve Sides (Tracy Dean Burns); nieces, Hillary Zortman, and Gretchen Zortman; and grandnephew, Carter Zortman. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Guy Gayland Sides and Helen (Antrim) Bland; and his maternal grandparents, Maurice and Catherine Niemeyer.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Dakota City United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Richard Savage officiating. Burial will be in Dakota City Cemetery. Visitation will be 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, with the family present 6:30 to 8 p.m., at Becker-Hunt Funeral Home in South Sioux City.

He was born 08 Mar 1921, and died 27 Mar 2007 in Pasadena, Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for Annie Marjorie Marbourg:

Marjorie A. Marculescu passed away peacefully on May 28th 2016 after seeing so many dear friends while attending her "best friend's" memorial service. Anne was raised in Burlingame, California, where she attended school with her future husband, Courtney. They lived in San Marino for over 50 years, where they raised their daughter, Karen. Anne and Courtney were a team involved and supportive of Five Acres, Huntington Hospital, and Pasadena Guild of Children's Hospital. She was a member of National Charity League, San Marino Area Chapter during its formative years. Anne's favorite game was bridge, and she played until she turned 92. Keeping in touch with her grandchildren was an integral part of her life. Because she was a great conversationalist, we learned lots of life's lessons. We are left with so many memories and wonderful teachings. For example, "I used to believe in forever but, forever was too good to be true." (Winnie the Pooh).

Anne is survived by her daughter, Karen Hammond and grandchildren Rob Hammond (Nicole), Courtney Negrevski (Eric) and Jamie Hammond (Sarah). She also leaves six great-grandchildren: Lauren and Colby Hammond, Alex, Nick, and Ryan Negrevski, and Pauli Hammond.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Pasadena Guild of Children's Hospital, Post Office Box 51101, Pasadena, Ca. 91115. Cabot & Sons, Pasadena.

He married ? 1985. She was born Aft. 1934.

Notes for Richard Meredith Gardner:

Richard M. "Dick" Gardner, 77, of Jackson Avenue, Morgantown, passed away Monday (July, 9, 2012) at Ruby Memorial Hospital following a valiant battle with gall bladder cancer. Dick was born Aug. 4, 1934 in Cumberland, Maryland, the son of William and Thelma Gardner, and was raised in Shinnston, graduating from Shinnston High School in 1952. He served in the U.S. Navy as a sonar technician and attended the United States Naval Academy. He was a graduate of Fairmont State College and received his MBA from West Virginia University. Dick served 35 years at West Virginia University and was professor emeritus in the College of Business and Economics. He was the assistant dean and adjunct assistant professor, where he thrived teaching the large introductory courses in management. Named Outstanding Professor several times, he was very popular with his students and set the highest moral and ethical standards with humor and grace. Prior to becoming assistant dean, Dick served 19 years as the WVU budget director and chief financial officer. During his tenure at West Virginia University (WVU), he was involved in many university service activities and was the face of West Virginia University across West Virginia high schools in the "WVU Day Across West Virginia" program. He served as College Scholarship, Honors and Awards Committee chairman, WVU Alumni Association Board of Directors, WVU Foundation Scholars Selection Committee, "the Mountaineer" Mascot Selection Committee, Mr. and Miss Mountaineer Selection Committee, WVU Faculty Leaders Program, WVU Athletics Recruiter, and for more than 10 years was Santa Claus for the WVU Faculty/Staff Holiday Celebration. He was a member of Mountain, the WVU service honorary. Outside of WVU, Dick Gardner was a fixture in Morgantown. A Paul Harris Fellow, he was a member of the Morgantown Rotary Club since 1974, serving as president in 1985, and song leader as long as the other members endured him. He internalized and advocated the Rotary 4-Way Test, ensuring all his actions and decisions were grounded in truth, fairness, were beneficial to all, and promoted lasting friendships. Additionally, he served on the Morgantown Utility Board for 20 years, the American Cancer Society Board of Directors, the Black Diamond Girl Scout Council Board of Directors, the Morgantown Chamber of Commerce, and the United Way of Monongalia County. He was basketball coach at First Ward Elementary School for nine years and led the commencement of elementary girls' basketball in Monongalia County. He was inducted into the Shinnston High School Hall of Fame in 1996. He was a wonderful husband, father, teacher, mentor and friend to all. His upbeat personality and optimistic outlook on life touched all who knew him. An avid trout fisherman, Dick truly loved the natural beauty of wild, wonderful West Virginia, and on his many travels around the world, could always be seen sporting the Blue and Gold insignia of West Virginia University.

Dick Gardner is survived by Ruth, his loving wife of 27 years; one sister, Deborah McDonald of Fairmont; one son, Capt. Eric W. Gardner, USN, and his wife Amy of Naples, Italy; one daughter, Valerie Powers and her husband Neil of Richmond, Virginia; two stepsons, Stuart Price and Jason Price, both of Salt Lake City, Utah; and five grandchildren, Grace and Sophie Gardner of Naples, Italy, and Dylan, Zachary and Cole Powers of Richmond, Virginia.

Family and friends will be received at Hastings Funeral Home, 153 Spruce St., Morgantown, from 2-4 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. today and again on Friday from 9 a.m. until the time of the funeral service at 10 a.m. in the funeral home with the Rev. Michael Q. Atkinson officiating. Interment will follow at Shinnston Masonic Cemetery, Shinnston. Mr. Gardner's family wishes to extend their gratitude and thanks to the nurses and staff of 9 West at Ruby Memorial Hospital for the compassionate care afforded Dick over the last two weeks of his life. In lieu of flowers, Dick requested that well-wishers assist future Mountaineers by making a donation to the Richard M. Gardner Scholarship Fund, College of Business and Economics, West Virginia University, P.O. Box 6025, Morgantown, WV 26505.

Ken also served honorably in the U.S Navy.

Kenny was an avid fisherman who not only enjoyed fishing with family and friends but also was one of the primary organizers of the Bassbusters and Hooksetters Bass Fishing Clubs which focused on the youth of the community. He remained active as President and event director from 1987 to 1991. During this period under his direction the club won both the Eastern Outstanding Overall Junior Club Award in 1988 and 1989 and the Outstanding Overall National Junior Club Award from the Bass Federation in 1988 and 1989. He was awarded the Maryland BASS Federation Certificate of Recognition for his role as Junior Bass Chairman for three consecutive years 1988-1990. He also loved hunting, golfing, camping and Nascar. His favorite driver was Kyle Busch. Kenny was also a member of the Duquesne Dray Team. Kenny cared for his wife, Billie during her long and brave struggle with diabetes. His dedication to his wife and continual care allowed her to enjoy many more years with family and friends. They enjoyed eating out and taking trips. Their most memorable trips were Skyline Drive, Disney World, Ocean City, Branson, Missouri and Niagara Falls.

Surviving are two children; Kenneth W. Fox of Middletown and Steve M. Fox and wife, Krissy of Frederick; one sister, Virginia Fox Burner and husband, John Burner of Frederick; one aunt, Betty Craver and husband, Calvin. He is also survived by his best, devoted and faithful friends of 26 years, Jim and Joy Deater of Frederick. He will also be missed by devoted and faithful friends, Thomas Pratt of Monrovia, Donnie Stevens of Frederick and Terry Taylor of Virginia. His good friend, Wayne Snurr predeceased him. A very special baby, Jaelyn Deater became his honorary granddaughter and during his illness brought him joy and love.

Marriage Notes for Bertha Frey and George Sensbach:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen I. Frey, of Stewartstown, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening May 17, 1905, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Bertha Frey was married to Mr. George W. Sensbach, of Ronceverte, West Virginia. The house was artistically decorated. In the corner of the parlor was a bower of laurel, dogwood and snowball, within which stood Rev. A.G. Parker, of Berwyn, Maryland. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was rendered by Mr. Oscar Fulton as bride and groom appeared before the minister.

The bride was handsomely attired in embroidered white batiste trimmed with lace and pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of Brides roses. In the dining room, suspended from the ceiling, was a white silk parasol decked with pink carnations. A streamer of pink ribbon reached from each rib to the plate line, being there attached to a bunch of pink carnations. The handle of the parasol was wound with smilax and rested on a mound of lilies-of-the-valley. The couple will be at home at Ronceverte, West Virginia, after May 22.

Marriage Notes for Bruce Smith and Janice Boyle:

Shrewsbury - The Methodist Episcopal church was the scene of a pretty Thanksgiving wedding today Nov. 24, 1935 at 12 o'clock noon, when Miss Janice Ora Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.R.

Boyle, this place, became the bride of Bruce Carlton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, of Glen Rock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Aurance F. Shank, pastor of the church, the ring ceremony of the M.S. church being used. Preceding the ceremony a 15-minute recital was given by Miss Marian Kehr, organist and Mrs. C. Melvin Norris, vocal soloist. Miss Kehr's numbers were "Serenade" (C. Franz Schubert): "Indian Love Call" (Rudolph Friml) Mrs. Norris sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery" (Victor Herbert), and "A Dawning" (Cndmnn). For the processional Miss Kehr played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," by Wagner, and for the recessional Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." During the ceremony she played "Salut D'Amore."

The bride given in marriage by her father, H.R. Boyle. The bride had for her matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. William Hamilton, of New Freedom. The bridesmaids were Miss Creda Brenneman and Mrs. Kenneth Rohrbaugh, of York, and Misses Margaret Stover and Catharine Sweitzer, this place. Mr. Smith had for his best man, Kenneth A. Keller, of Glen Rock. The ushers were Harold D. Keller, Ellsworth S. Rudisill, Lyman B. Moody and Millard A. Slonaker, all of Glen Rock. The bride wore an ivory satin dress, fashioned on princess lines, with high neck and full sleeves. The skirt formed a train. Her tulle veil was arranged with a braided halo effect, caught on both sides with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses, white snapdragons and white pompoms. The matron of honor wore a gown of Italian Rose velvet Renaissance, with sandals to match. She carried a bouquet of mixed chrysanthemums. Miss Sweitzer and Mrs. Rohrbaugh wore dark green velvet dresses while Miss Brenneman and Miss Stover were attired in avine velvet dresses. The bridesmaids all wore silver sandals. They carried bouquets of chrysanthemums. The church was beautifully decorated with pine branches and chrysanthemums. The decorating was in charge of Cyrus F. Koller.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the DeLuxe restaurant, New Freedom. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Keller. Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Rudisill, Lyman B. Moody, Kenneth A. Keller, Creda Brenneman, Catharine Sweitzer, Margaret Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rohrbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Anstine, Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Brenneman, Gladys Brenneman, Justine Brenneman, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Becker, Baline Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith and daughter, Norma Jean, C. Junior Smith, Dr. and Mrs. L.L. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. Melvin Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ritter, Mary Lowe, Millard A. Slonaker, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Marian Kehr, Marie Gerbrick, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Boyle, Joe Weinbrum, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reese and Mr. And Mrs. Bruce C. Smith

The couple left on a wedding trip for a tour of the southern states. For traveling, the bride wore a burgundy-colored dress. With this, she wore all brown accessories. On their return they will live at Glen Rock in a newly furnished apartment in the Joseph Dise estate property, Cottage Avenue. Mrs. Smith is a graduate of both the Shrewsbury and West York High schools. She is an active member of the local M.E. church. She is also a charter member of the Southern Riding Club, Baltimore County, Maryland. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Glen Rok High school and Thompon's Business school. He is a member or Zion Lutheran church, Glen Rock, and the Glen Rock Lions club. He is now bookkeeper for the Glen Rock Light and Power company at its Glen Rock office.

Notes for Bruce Edward Flinchbaugh:

Bruce Edward Flinchbaugh, 63, of Dallas, died Monday, Feb. 1, 2016 in The Medical Center of Plano from injuries suffered in a fall. Bruce was born Nov. 4, 1952, in Dayton, Ohio, to James and Jean (Turner) Flinchbaugh. He graduated from Otterbein College in 1975 with a degree in Math and earned a Ph.D. in Computer Science from The Ohio State University in 1980. He was later named a Distinguished Alumnus of both schools. Bruce worked at Texas Instruments in Dallas from 1982 to 2012, becoming a TI Fellow and director of the Video & Image Processing Laboratory. He led R&D projects for many TI products, including the design of imaging, video and vision algorithms for embedded processors in video surveillance, digital video recorder, digital camera/phone, media player, and automotive vision applications. He was TI's principal investigator for DARPA Image Understanding Research in the 1990s. He held over 20 patents for TI technology, and published or presented in over 75 technical forums including journals, industry magazines, conferences and universities. Bruce was a wonderful husband, father, brother, friend, and role model. He was a loving and positive life force for his family and so many people. He had a unique, witty sense of humor that spread throughout his family. He was always exercising his creativity with projects; he found so much joy in photography, home improvement, and data analysis, to name a few. Before having kids, he brewed his own beer in a bathtub. He loved cooking burgers/steak on the grill. He made the best waffles. He loved maintaining the purple martin house in the backyard. He loved being a butler during Halloween. He loved playing card games, like O'Heck, with his family. He loved music, wrote hundreds of songs during his youth, and that love for music inspired and uplifted his family.

Bruce loved his wife Mary with all his heart. They married on Sept. 29, 1979, sharing 36 years of a fruitful and exemplary marriage. They were a wonderful team and had so many memories and adventures together. He also loved his parents, siblings, and other relatives. Bruce admired the good in everyone. He was an incredibly proud fan of his son and daughter, John and Anne, and supported them every step of the way through both joyous and difficult times. He had an uncanny way of articulating and sharing the accomplishments of others in ways that they wouldn't even recognize themselves. He shared a love for the game of baseball, the Reds in childhood, and the Rangers in adulthood with his son John. He led an annual Texas Rangers season-ticket draft with friends and colleagues. John so greatly enjoyed going to hundreds of games with him, capped off by watching the Rangers advance to the World Series in 2011. He was always fascinated with the intricacies of the game, the endless hypothetical scenarios you could imagine taking place, and how the rules would impact them. Combining this with John's love for the game and statistics, it is just one example of countless father-son bonding experiences that will forever be cherished and held dearly close. Baseball has so many intricacies; it is a timeless game. Bruce had a deep appreciation of all kinds of intricacies; his positive impact and example on our lives is timeless. In retirement, Bruce enjoyed exploring the world with his wife, the love of his life, affectionately called MJ, be it a cruise, road trip, flight, or night together on the couch. He became a dedicated runner, training with the Dallas Running Club, logging more than 1,000 miles a year, and shattering his personal record with 1,550 miles in 2015. Bruce completed 5Ks, 10Ks, half-marathons, marathons and ultras. He inspired his son and daughter to take on running as well. He was predeceased by his parents.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Fontana; son and wife, John Flinchbaugh and Jessica Ngo; daughter, Anne Flinchbaugh; sister and husband, Nancy Flinchbaugh and Steve Schlather; brother and wife, Paul and Angela Flinchbaugh; and mother-in-law, Victoria Fontana.

Friends may make memorial donations to High-Tech High Heels. Funeral services will be held Friday, February 5, 2016 at 9:00 AM in The Abbey Chapel at Restland Funeral Home. A Mass will be celebrated in All

Notes for Dean R. Lichtenfels:

Dean R. Lichtenfels, 84, the beloved husband of Helen A. Thurston Lichtenfels of Daytona Beach, FL and Black Lick went to be with the Lord at 1:00 A.M. Wednesday, June 14, 2006 at St. Andrew's Village, Indiana, Pennsylvania with all of his family around him. A son of the late William F. and Mabel Campbell Lichtenfels, he was October 22, 1921 in Heshbon, Indiana Co., Pennsylvania. Dean was the founder and proud owner of Lichtenfels Trucking in Black Lick, PA for over 50 years. He had so many important parts of his life. Since moving to Florida during the winter months, Dean was proud of the fact that he held a meaningful position driving bus and van transportation for Bethune-Cookman College of Daytona Beach. Dean had in his life been a coal miner, Burrell Township Supervisor, contracted work for LICMA and Pennsylvania state road work. He ran race cars in his youth and continued to drive that way throughout his entire life. Work ethic was instilled in his family seven days a week. He would hire kids all through his life to give them a start in a productive life. Whether you called him Dean, D.R., Dad, Pap, Big Pap or Pappy Dean once you were a part of his extended family you were treated as part of the family and held to his standards. He was a husband, father, grandfather great grandfather, great-great grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was to have a meal or a party with all of his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda Lydic and husband, Roger; Lois Zack and husband, Ken; Bobbie St. Clair and husband, Ralph; Betty Cochran and husband, Randy and Cindy Gearhard; sons, Neil Lichtenfels and Jeff Gearhard and wife, Julie; grandchildren, Sheila Wilson and husband, Denny; Ken Zack and wife, Cindy; Dean St. Clair; Tammie Mack; Deanna Wooldridge-Smith; Lisa Wooldridge; Luren, Kelsey and Jacob Gearhard and Zachary Zilke; great grandchildren, Jamie Arone and husband, Tony; Matthew Wilson and wife, Misty; Mason Zack; Marc Zack; Meghan Mack; Karen Mack; Robert Sawyer; Marissa Smith and Jacob Smith; a great-great grandson, Jaxson Anthony Arone and a great-great granddaughter, Savanna Snow Wilson; and many nieces and nephews of whom he was the last remaining uncle. He was a part of all of their lives and they also knew he was there for them. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Bertha Dies Lichtenfels and seven brothers and four sisters.

His family and friends will be celebrating his life again from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 P.M. Friday at the Shoemaker Funeral Home, Inc., 49 N. Walnut St., Blairsville, PA. Services will be held at 11:00 A.M. Saturday in the funeral home with Rev. Jason L McQueen officiating. Interment will be in the Blairsville Cemetery, Blairsville, PA. Memorial contributions may be made to, St. Andrew's Village Outdoor Furniture Fund, 1155 Indian Springs Rd., Indiana, PA 15701 in appreciation for the staff's loving kindness during Dean's last moments. There can never be enough thanks expressed to his wife, Helen. It was due to her care and love that made it possible for all his family and friends to continue to enjoy him until his latest illness.

Notes for Joe Russell Walbeck:

Robinson, Pennsylvania - Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Walbeck have been advised that their son, Pfc. Joe Russell Walbeck, was killed in Korea fighting on July 9, 1951. Pfc. Walbeck had enlisted for the second time. He was attending Bolivar High School when he enlisted in 1947. He served 32 months, 20 months of this term in Japan. He returned to this country in June, 1950, and was discharged. But re-enlisted last October 30, went overseas on New Year's Day and, the last information known about him showed he was in combat with the 77th Field Artillery Battalion of the First Cavalry Division. His wife was Nancy Swank Walbeck of New Florence. They had a son, Joseph Lee Walbeck, who was born two days after the father was killed.

Robinson - Mrs. Joe Russell Walbeck of Robinson has been informed that her 20-year-old Army husband was killed in Korean action July 9, 1951, only two days before she gave birth to a son. Pfc. Walbeck, a graduate of Bolivar High School, was serving his second enlistment. He first enlisted in 1947 and, after 2 months, was discharged. He re-enlisted last October 30 and went overseas with the 77th Field Artillery Battalion of the First Cavalry Division. In addition to Mrs. Walbeck, the former Nancy Swank, the infant son and Pfc. Walbecks' parents survive.

Notes for Joye Eileen Carswell:

Joye Eileen Koehler, 78, was raised in Hoopeston, Illinois, by her grandparents Irma and Bob Williams. She attended Hoopeston High School, where she was a member of the marching band and the girls softball team. Upon graduating in 1956, Joye married Gerald "Tom" Koehler who was in the USAF and stationed at Ruislip AFB, England. While in England Tom and Joye traveled throughout the country as well as Scotland, which she loved. Until her death, Joye loved reading about England and its history and always hoped to go back. After returning to the United States, Joye and her family moved several times with the military until finally settling in Maryland. She worked on Andrews AFB as a civil servant for the National Guard until she and Tom purchased Martin's Jewelers in La Plata, Maryland. After Martin's Jeweler's closed in the mid-eighties Joye worked various jobs until she found a fulfilling career in home health care. Joye worked in health care for many years in Southern Maryland with a diverse group of patients whom she not only took care of, but treated with dignity, respect and developed long lasting friendships. In 2004, Joye moved to Hayes, Virginia where she lived the rest of her life. Joye dedicated her life to caring and providing for her children and grandchildren both physically and emotionally. She was a loving and accepting mother and grandmother, who will be greatly missed. Her legacy will live on in each of us.

Joye is survived by her children, George "Bill" Koehler, Donna DiGioia (Frank), Suzan Hrach (Frank), and Mark Koehler (Ellen) and her Grandchildren, Kate Edgar (George), A. B. Butler, Jessica Proper (Fred), Kris Tyndall, Kim Cantwell (Bruce), Jake Hertzog, Michael Hertzog (Karen), Derek Koehler (Meaghan), Jonathan Koehler (Stephanie) and Amy DiGioia, as well as nine Great Grandchildren.

Notes for Marvin Wesley Camarena:

Marvin Wesley Camarena, 75, passed away peacefully in Sacramento on Thursday, April 9, 2015. He was born on Sept. 12, 1939 to Charles C. and Reubennette Edwina Camarena in Woodland. He attended the Holy Rosary Academy, Woodland High School and Stanford University. After graduating from high school in 1957, Marv attended Stanford University and served in the U.S. Army in San Antonio, Texas. In 1962, he married Marilyn Jones and graduated from Stanford two years later. He completed his teaching certification at the University of California at Davis in 1966 and returned to Woodland as an art teacher at Woodland High School.

During his 36 years teaching at WHS in the art and math departments, he coached football for 29 seasons, girls' softball for 13 seasons, and baseball for two seasons. Marv also loved coaching his children at the local level. Marv enjoyed many interests and hobbies through the years, especially playing slow-pitch softball, fishing and spending time at the family cabin at Eagle Lake. He attended his children's sports and extracurricular activities from their youngest days through high school, college and at the professional level. He was active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, holding many positions including 13 years as an early-morning seminary teacher, Sunday school teacher, and serving in the High Priest Group.

Marv is survived by his devoted family, wife, Marilyn Camarena; sons, Anthony Camarena and James (Julie) Camarena; daughters, Christi Camarena and Jillian (Dustin) Camarena-Williams; five grandchildren, Tyler, Drew, and Kelli Camarena, Camryn White and Miley Williams and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles Camarena; mother, Reubennette Camarena Spencer; brother, Wendell Camarena, and infant son, Michael Camarena.

The funeral service will be held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 850 Pioneer Ave., on Saturday, April 18 from 11 a.m. to 12 noon. Interment will be at Monument Hill Memorial Park directly after.

- 4556 v. Jillian Mary (Jill) Camarena, born 02 Mar 1982 in Woodland, Yolo Co, California. She married Dustin Williams 2010.

Notes for Jillian Mary (Jill) Camarena:

Jillian Mary "Jill" Camarena-Williams (born 2 March 1982) is an American retired track and field athlete who competes in the shot put. She competed at the 2012 and 2008 Beijing Olympics and has represented the United States both indoor and outdoors at World Championship-level.

She took back-to-back titles in the shot put at the Pan American Junior Championships in 1999 and 2001. Domestically, she is a two-time USA Outdoor Champion in the shot put, having won in 2006 and 2010. Camarena-Williams set an American indoor record in the shot put to win at the 2011 USA Indoor Track and Field Championships, recording a mark of 19.87 meters to improve upon Ramona Page's record which had stood since 1987.

Born in Woodland, California, she is listed at 5 foot 10 inches tall and 250 lbs. She did her undergraduate work at Stanford University and graduate studies at Brigham Young University. She is a Latter-day Saint. Camarena-Williams married her physiotherapist, Dustin Williams, in 2010. On July 29, 2016 - Camarena-Williams announced the four city team challenge at Track Town, USA in Eugene, Oregon on ESPN was her final competition.

Jillian Camarena Williams was born in Woodland, California and started competing in shot put when she was in the seventh grade. Her brother was a champion in high school and convinced her to give the sport a try. Jillian graduated from Stanford University in 2004, and since then has made shot put her career. She was on the 2008 Olympic team in Beijing and in 2010 became U.S. Champion in both indoor and outdoor shot put. Her participation in Beijing was in question when she herniated a disc in her spine just before qualification trials. After praying about the decision, she chose to have back surgery and still qualified.

Jillian currently is the assistant shot put coach at Brigham Young University. Her husband, Dustin Williams is her trainer. Jillian cites the triple-blessing of this arrangement. First, he cares for her deeply; second, he is able to give her physical therapy when she needs it for her easily injured back and knee; and third, he is able to give her a priesthood blessing for healing and comfort when she needs it.

Jillian qualified for the 2012 Olympics in London. Representing the United States, Jillian Camarena-Williams' longest toss was 18.22 meters in the qualifying round. She was 16th in the standings and the top 12 advanced to the finals. Another Mormon, Valerie Adams of New Zealand, took the silver medal in shot put.

July 12, 2016 - At the moment, life as a track and field athlete is still potentially a part of Jill Camarena-Williams' future. The 34-year-old Woodlander and two-time Olympian failed in her attempt to make a third Olympic team when she finished fifth in the women's shot put last Thursday at the USATF Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore. Before the trials she mentioned to The Democrat and other media outlets that this would be her final Olympic trials.

But a few days after her trials ended, Camarena-Williams reiterated that while she may be done with the Olympic movement, she is not necessarily finished being an active player in the sport. "I have not counted myself completely out of next year's world championships, mostly because the trials are in Sacramento, but I'm going to take some time before I make that decision," she told The Democrat. "I need to relax, get Dustin back from Rio, and have a long talk with him and my coach to see if I can make one more last push, but goodness gracious these young girls are so talented, it may be time to bow out."

Dustin is her husband and physiotherapist Dustin Williams, the head athletic trainer for the U.S. Olympic Track and Field team that's headed to the Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Her coach is TJ Crater, who last year took over for her long-time coach Craig Carter. And the young girls Camarena-Williams referred to include Raven Saunders, the 20-year-old who was one of the three women to earn a spot on the U.S. Olympic team along with veterans Michelle Carter and Felisha Johnson. "(Saunders) will be a multi-medalist at the world championships and Olympic Games in the future. I wish them all the best of luck in Rio and in the future."

As for her performance at the trials, Camarena-Williams and the rest of the competitors dealt with rain which began almost simultaneously with the start of the women's shot-put competition, but she said "the ring was perfect." Her best throw of 61 feet, 8 1/2 inches came on the third of her six attempts and temporarily put her in third place. But she was passed early in the fourth round of throws. "I'm very sad I did not make the Olympic team, but to have even had the chance to be back here on this stage and fight for one, I am completely satisfied and proud of myself," she said.

"After my (back) injury, my surgery, my ban (in 2013 for using an illegal fertility hormone), losing my dad, losing my coach of 10 years, and of course (giving birth to) my baby, I could have easily walked away from the sport, but I got to come back to the Olympic trials and be a contender. "So am I sad? Yes. Disappointed? No way. I fought till the end, and that is all I asked of myself." If this does turn out to be the finish of her major-meet career, Camarena-Williams doesn't want it to end without saying a special thank you to the people of Woodland.

"I have been so blessed to grow up in such a wonderful, welcoming, and amazing town filled with so many loving and caring people," she said. "To thank everyone involved in my life and career would be impossible, but I want to just say thank you to everyone who has contacted me, sent me emails or Facebook posts. "It has meant the world to me to read them and I'm so glad I have been blessed with such amazing people in my life. I love you all."

Notes for Dustin Williams:

Athletes aren't the only people who are selected to represent their countries in the Olympic Games; athletic trainers must qualify and apply before they are selected for a spot on an Olympic medical staff team — a behind-the-scenes position that cares for athletes and their bodies day and night during the Olympics. BYU cross country and track and field athletic trainer Dustin Williams was recently selected as the head athletic trainer on the USA track and field's medical staff for the upcoming 2020 Tokyo Summer Olympics. The USA track and field team is the largest team that represents the United States in the Olympics, making up about a quarter of Team USA. Williams is responsible for making sure every athlete is taken care of.

"It's an honor to serve and help the Olympic athletes achieve their dreams and to work with them," Williams said. "It will make for a busy summer, but I look forward to it." Williams has held similar positions in the past. He worked as an athletic trainer during the 2016 Rio Summer Olympics, he was a member of the medical staff during the 2008 Beijing Paralympic Games and 2012 London Summer Olympics, and he was head athletic trainer during multiple outdoor and indoor track and field world championships. It's a 24-hour job to work as an athletic trainer during the Olympics. Williams said he averaged two to three hours of sleep every night because he was taking care of Olympians from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. every day, forcing him to become an expert at taking catnaps on the bus. The sacrifice was worth it for Williams because he loves the games' atmosphere. He added that exceeding his smart-watch step goals every day was an added bonus.

He said one of his favorite memories was standing in an elevator during the Rio Olympics. The door opened, and Michael Phelps walked in. He remembers trying to stay calm and wishing the world-famous swimmer success in his upcoming event. Volunteering as an athletic trainer is not for those with sightseeing in mind. Williams said he was only able to squeeze in three hours of exploring during the Rio Olympics. He's prepared to buckle-down and work during the upcoming Tokyo Olympics, but he did visit Tokyo earlier this year and was able to do some sightseeing.

Athletic trainers also have the opportunity to walk in the closing ceremonies. Williams and his wife had the chance to walk together in the closing ceremony of the 2012 London Olympics because he was on the medical staff and she was an Olympian. "Every year that goes by, we realize how precious that moment was," Williams said. He also said walking in the closing ceremonies is fun because you can let go of the stress that comes from the Olympic Games.

Williams' students say they appreciate the opportunity they have to learn from him because of his happy personality and because he is well-experienced. Senior athletic training major Kaylie Muns said he always has a smile on his face and supports every athlete, no matter the sport. Ana Hernandez, who is studying athletic training, said, "Dustin is a busy bee and is always working on one task after another, always with a positive attitude. He teaches clearly with every opportunity that arises and gives us the chance to practice our skills." Williams said he looks forward to the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. He will keep himself busy in the meantime with helping his athletes and students reach their dreams.

August 3, 2016 Dustin Williams received the good news in the spring. After years of volunteering his talents and skills, the U.S. Olympic Committee named the native of Arco, Idaho, as head athletic trainer for the U.S.

track and field team for the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro. "You just can't explain it, it's like nothing else," Williams said of going to the Olympics. "It's going to be great to be a part of that atmosphere."

The opportunity, a dream come true for Williams, was years in the making. In addition to earning college degrees and gaining the experience to make a living as an athletic trainer, Williams also volunteered as a trainer at various sporting events for more than a decade. In the process of being a trainer, he met the athlete who became his wife. The returned missionary also believes his reputation as a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was a factor in being chosen to oversee the care of America's top track and field athletes. "Part of it is how we conduct ourselves. It helps people trust us," Williams said. "They know I have high morals and good ethics. They know I am an honest and trustworthy person. If I tell them how to take care of their injuries, there is a level of trust there because of how I conduct myself."

After serving a Mormon mission to England from 1997-1999, Williams' path to Olympic athletic training started as a student at Ricks College (now Brigham Young University-Idaho). After earning an associate degree, Williams continued his education at Utah State University, where he obtained his bachelor's (2003) and master's degrees (2005). While working on his graduate degree in 2004, Williams first volunteered with U.S. track and field at the Olympic trials in Sacramento, California.

After completing his master's at USU, Williams received a year-long fellowship for the U.S. Olympic Committee at the Olympic training center at Lake Placid, New York. During that time he worked mostly with winter sports such as the bobsled and skeleton athletes. That experience opened more doors for Williams, he said. "That's how I got my foot in the door with the U.S. Olympic Committee," said Williams, who attended the 2008 Paralympics in Beijing. "After that I got hired full-time at BYU, but continued to be involved with various Olympic sports over the next few years."

It was during his five years at Brigham Young University that Williams met and married his wife, Jillian Camarena, who would go on to compete in the 2012 London Olympics in the shot put event. The two met at the 2008 Olympic trials when Williams treated Camarena for some injuries. A former USU coach Williams knew was then coaching Camarena and helped make an introduction. They found they shared a passion for track and field as Williams also has a hobby of long-distance running. They began dating a short time later when Camarena moved back to Provo to finish her master's degree. The couple was married shortly after the 2009 world championships in Berlin. "It's funny how certain things bring people together," Williams said. "That's how track and field has been for us, it brought us together."

Williams was hired as an associate athletic trainer at the University of Arizona in 2011. That same year the couple traveled to South Korea for the track and field world championships. In 2012, Jill threw the shot put for Team USA while Dustin was on the medical staff. Being together on that occasion has become a special memory for the young family, Williams said. "For us to be able to walk together as husband and wife in front of thousands and millions more watching on television, to represent our country in the closing ceremonies, is something we are proud to tell our kids about," Williams said. Camarena-Williams finished fifth at the USATF Olympic trials a few weeks ago in Eugene, Oregon, and didn't make the Olympic team this year. She will remain home with the couple's 2-year-old daughter. But she was the first to notice a press release from the U.S. Olympic Committee naming her husband as the head athletic trainer for Team USA's track and field squad, Williams said. "I knew I was nominated but didn't know it had been approved by the USOC," Williams said. "I was honored and excited for the opportunity to represent my country and the challenge to lead the medical staff."

Williams filled a leadership role with USA track and field in 2013 and credits mentor Jack Ransone, the head athletic trainer for USA track and field at the London Games, for preparing him for this opportunity, he said. As head athletic trainer, Williams will oversee the medical treatment for 130 American athletes. Most of his time will be spent coordinating schedules and services provided by medical practitioners, chiropractors, sports psychologists, nutritionists and team physicians, he said. While Williams is thrilled to work with Team USA's track and field athletes behind-the-scenes, he is also proud to be an example of Latter-day Saint values, especially the health code known as the Word of Wisdom, he said. "Because of my faith and the decisions I've made in my life, I feel like I have been in a mentoring role, especially to the younger athletes. I try to let my actions speak louder than words," Williams said. "If you avoid putting bad things in your body, your body will perform at a high level. I tell them you can still have fun, but sometimes it's a challenge for them."

Outside of his athletic training duties, Williams has delighted in interacting with LDS Church members in the different countries where he's traveled. While time is limited, Williams does his best to attend local church meetings on Sundays, he said. Although he'll miss having his wife nearby this time, Williams knows the Olympic experience in Rio de Janeiro will be memorable. Expenses are paid, but the head athletic trainer is an unpaid, volunteer position. Williams is most looking forward to serving the athletes in the Olympic village. "To have that many talented athletes in one area is unbelievable," Williams said. "They have all worked so hard to accomplish their goals. They all have different stories and backgrounds, but all share the goal of representing their country and winning an Olympic medal. Just to be a small piece of that puzzle, helping the individual athletes in that aspect, is very rewarding."

2982. Thomas James⁹ Sides (Walter C.⁸, Jacob Clay⁷, Uriah⁶, Adam⁵, Adam⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 23 Apr 1938. He married Helen Edwards. She was born 07 Aug 1938 in Johnstown, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania, and died 09 Apr 2020 in Lake Placid, Highlands Co, Florida.

Notes for Helen Edwards:

Helen E. Sides, loving wife, mother of four children, and grandmother of nine grandchildren passed away at the age of 81 on Thursday, April 9, 2020 in Lake Placid, Florida. She was born on August 7, 1938 in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. She was one of 12 children to Edna Leone Grow and John Earl Edwards.

She is survived by her devoted and loving husband, Thomas J. Sides and four children, Thomas (Pamela), Richard, Kenneth (Renee), Carol Tonsing (Timothy). Left to cherish her memories are her nine grandchildren, Katie Collier (Grant), Rachel, Benjamin, Jonathan, Emily, Kenneth, Matthew, Tyler, and Connor. She is also survived by her brother James Edwards (Debbie).

Her life was devoted to her husband, her children, and her grandchildren. Her devotion and service to her friends, many nieces and nephews, and community was constant. Her caring nature was an experience cherished by all. Always poised and ready to offer kind advice on all life experiences that ended with talks of angels, flowers, and Christmas decorations with subtle reminders of how things are done. Helen was a long-time member of the Lake Placid Women's Club with a passion for volunteering. As a long-time resident of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania she was the truest fan of the Steelers and Pens; a classy lady with a passion and love of the game. Her giggles and laughter rang true across Bridge tables as she collected her pennies, thoughts, and winnings.

A celebration of life for family and friends to honor and respect Helen will be held at a later date in Lake Placid, Florida.

3052. Jane Elizabeth (Betty)⁹ Harmon (Alfonse Brownell⁸, George Washington⁷, Susan⁶ McDowell, Barbara⁵ Sides, John⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 23 Mar 1921 in Spooner, Washburn Co, Wisconsin, and died 12 Mar 2013 in Madison, Wisconsin. She married Arthur Dodge Spoolman 1944 in Pasquotank, North Carolina. He was born 06 Mar 1920 in Rainer, Oregon, and died 26 Oct 1990 in Spooner, Washburn Co, Wisconsin.

Notes for Jane Elizabeth (Betty) Harmon:

Betty Spoolman, age 91, passed away on Tuesday, March 12, 2013, at the AgraceHospiceCare Center in Madison, surrounded by loved ones. Betty was born to Irene and Font Harmon on March 23, 1921, in Spooner, Wisconsin. After graduating from Spooner High School in 1939, she attended Northland College in Ashland where she earned a teaching degree. In 1944, she married Arthur D. Spoolman of Ashland, whom she had met in college. During their years of raising a family of five children, Betty was a well-loved music teacher in the Cumberland Schools and later, when the family moved to Hayward, she became active and made many friends in that community. Later, she and Art lived several happy years in retirement in Spooner.

Wherever she lived, Betty loved being active in music and in her church—the First Methodist in Cumberland, First Congregational in Hayward where she directed the choir, and finally, the Spooner United Methodist Church where she was also choir director for several years. She loved to spend time at the family cabin on Big McKenzie Lake northwest of Spooner, and was proud to be one of the first of us to swim every year in the cold water of late spring or early summer. She never tired of being a generous and loving mom, grandma, and great-grandma and enjoyed every minute that she could spend with family members during what she called splendid times. She taught us all to savor life's good moments in the same way. In 1955, Betty and Art suffered the loss of their daughter Jean, their third child, to cystic fibrosis at age 3½. In her last years living at Harmony Living Center in McFarland, she struggled with serious health problems including the effects of a severe stroke, macular degeneration, and congestive heart failure. Through it all, she embodied courage, strength, kindness, and selfless love. While she lost so much, she always managed to keep her positive, loving energy flowing. To the very end, she carried that energy and, at last, handed it off to us—her children and other loved ones—to carry it on for her. She was a force for good in this world and a true inspiration to us all.

Betty is survived by her daughter Amy (Mike) Lanphear of McFarland; sons John (Rose) of Plymouth, Minnesota; Rick (Nancy) of Rapid City, South Dakota; and Scott (Gail) of Madison; 6 grandchildren Liz (John) Beutel, Chad (Lindsey) Spoolman, Corey (Kathy) Spoolman, Kerry (Greg) Bill, Will Martinelli-Spoolman, and Katie Martinelli-Spoolman; 8 great-grandchildren Brian, Andrew, McKenzie, Betty Mae, Koen, Joe, Charlie, and Robbie; sisters-in-law Mabel Harmon and Ruth Strohane, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews, and friends. She was preceded in death by her daughter Jean, husband Art, sister Lone, and brothers Gene and John.

A memorial service will be held for Betty in Spooner on Monday, March 25th at the United Methodist Church, 312 Elm Street, at 11:00 am, followed by a luncheon reception at the church. A visitation will be held at the church before the service from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Interment will be next to her husband in the Spooner Cemetery. The family wishes to give special thanks to the staff at Harmony Living Center in McFarland for their loving care and friendship so generously given to our mother during the 7 years she lived there. We ask that memorials be made to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation or the Spooner Library. Any donations will be greatly appreciated.

3069. Pierce Huebert (Mick)⁹ McDowell (Pierce Hubert⁸, John Hubert⁷, Robert (McDonald)⁶, Barbara⁵ Sides, John⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 08 Sep 1931 in Sioux Falls, Minnehaha Co, South Dakota, and died 29 Sep 2002 in Sioux Falls, Minnehaha Co, South Dakota. He married Contance (Connie) Kundert 23 Jun 1956 in Lake Co, South Dakota. She was born 05 Mar 1934, and died 12 Feb 2008.

Notes for Pierce Huebert (Mick) McDowell:

Sioux Falls - Pierce "Mick" H. McDowell, 71, a lifelong resident of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, passed away September 29, 2002. Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 AM. Wednesday, October 2, 2002 at Christ The King Catholic Church. Burial will be at Woodlawn Cemetery. A Scripture service will be held at 6:30 PM. Tuesday, October 2, 2002 at Miller Funeral Home, 13th & Main Ave. Public visitation begins at noon, Tuesday at Miller's.

Mick, son of Pierce H. and Alice (Jackson) McDowell, was born September 8, 1931, in Sioux Falls. Mick attended Mark Twain grade school, Washington High School and the University of South Dakota from which he graduated with a degree in business in 1957. An outstanding athlete, Mick was the Quarterback for both his high school and college teams. He enlisted in the 175th Fighter Squadron from 1950 until he was honorably discharged in 1953. On June 23, 1956, Mick married Constance Kundert at the St. Thomas Church in Madison, South Dakota, and subsequently joined his father at the Howalt-McDowell firm. After working for a time at Northwestern National Bank as a loan officer, Mick established McDowell Realty and Insurance in 1970 and went into partnership with Emmet and Pat Rogers in 1983 to form McDowell Rogers Realty. In 1995 they were joined by the late Cal Chambers to establish the present McDowell Rogers Realty, LLC. In September Mick was the recipient of the Sioux Falls Realtors' 2002 "Spirit Award".

His past and present affiliation with civic, professional organizations include: Sioux Falls Development Foundation Board President; Sioux Empire United Way - Chairman; Howard Wood Relays Board; Sioux Falls Board of Realtors; National Institute of Real Estate Brokers; National Finance Association; YMCA Board; Northwestern National Bank - Colonial Branch Board; Greater SD Association Board; PTA President; Junior Achievement Board; Downtown Rotary Board; and FCA Mick was a devoted member of Christ the King Parish where he served as sacristan, lector, and acolyte. Mick's pride and joy and, in his words, his greatest achievement was his family.

Grateful for that legacy of love are Constance, and Sioux Falls residents Pierce III, his wife Barbara and children Ali and Pierce IV, Thomas J., his wife Susan, and children Olivia and Wil, Robert W., his wife Linda and daughter Samantha of Phoenix, Arizona and Mary "Mimi" W. of Lajolla, California. He is also survived by his sister, Ann McDowell of Wilton, Connecticut and the children of his late sister Elizabeth: Alex, Allison, Mary Liz, Melanie and Lori.

Mick will be remembered for his love of family and friends, his passionate love of sports, his love of the community and his wonderful sense of humor. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the University of South Dakota - Athletic Department, the Washington Pavilion, Sioux Falls Catholic Schools or the Avera McKennan Hospice program.

Notes for Contance (Connie) Kundert:

Sioux Falls - Constance Kundert McDowell, 73, passed away February 12, 2008. Connie was the only child of adoring parents Walter and Winifred Kundert of Madison, South Dakota. She was raised in the same beautiful home in which her father was born. Especially close to her parents, it was hard for her to leave home to attend St. Mary's College of Notre Dame. She attended St Mary's until she was introduced to the Quarterback from the University of South Dakota, Pierce "Micky-McDowell" at a mutual friend's wedding. Connie left her beloved St. Mary's of Notre Dame to join Mick: first to complete their studies at the University; second to raise their family in Sioux Falls and now to be together in eternity with their loving Father.

On June 23, 1956, Connie married Mick at St. Thomas Church in Madison, South Dakota. This relationship created a joyous foundation from which Connie could build and maintain all the cherished friendships that touched and uplifted so many of us. Connie truly loved her time and friends at St. Mary's College, her sorority sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta, her PEO sisters, her church involvement in Sioux Falls, the great friends of Supper Club, women of her Book and Knitting Clubs, the children she tutored in the school system, and every single young person upon whom she showered her love and unbridled joy. Connie would be the first to recognize that the peace and joy that she shared with and inspired in each of us came through her love of Christ and His peace in her heart. She joins Him now.

Above all earthly things. Connie's family brought her joy; she and Mick loved them completely. Grateful for that legacy of love are Sioux Falls residents Pierce H. III, his wife, Barbara and children, Ali, Pierce IV, and Anika; Thomas I., his wife, Susan and children, Olivia and Wil; Robert W., his wife, Linda and children, Samantha and Jackson, and Mary "Mimi" W. of Laiolla, California and fiancé Costa Littas of Boston, Massachusetts.

She also is survived by her cousins on her father's side: Betty Simpson of Florida; Jim Holahan of Iowa; Elsbeth Malerich Rice of Maryland; Jerome Malerich of Massachusetts; and on her mother's side: Margaret Moderegger, Florence Kuemper and Samuel DeNeui of South Dakota; Richard Selover of Florida; Lucretia Gordon of New Hampshire; Anthony Selover of Arizona; Lee B. Selover of Maryland and sister-in-law Ann McDowell of Connecticut.

Connie will be joyously remembered for her great love and devotion to family, especially the grandchildren's events, her friends and for her enduring faith in our Risen Savior. She reflected God's peace and grace to everyone who met her and she will be dearly missed here on earth and welcomed in Heaven.

Funeral Mass will begin at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary Catholic Church. Interment will be in Wood-lawn Cemetery. Visitation with the family present will be from 6:00 -7:00 p.m. Friday at Miller Funeral Home, Main Avenue location, with a scripture service beginning at 7:00 p.m. The family respectfully requests that Memorials be directed to the Washington Pavilion's Connie and Mick McDowell Family Endowment.

Marriage Notes for Pierce McDowell and Contance Kundert:

Madison, South Dakota - June 23, 1956 - St. Thomas Catholic Church was the setting today for the wedding of Miss Constance Mary Kundert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Kundert, and Pierce Hubert McDowell Jr., son of Pierce Hubert McDowell Sr, and the late Mrs. McDowell, Sioux Falls. Father John M. Reuter officiated at the nuptial Mass after the double ring service attended by 300. Mrs. Walter Foley played the organ music and accompanied Mrs. Verald Westby, who sang. The bride, escorted by her father, wore imported lace, silk and tulle. The princess lines of the bodice were detailed by a scoop neckline embroidered with lace, sequins and seed pearls. The waistline was accented with appliques of lace and flared into a bouffant floor length skirt of tulle worn over hoops and ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown of tulle petals and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert C. Davis Jr., Rapid City; Miss Elizabeth McDowell, Washington, D.C.; Miss Jacqueline Smith, Circleville, Ohio; Mrs. Michael De Padro, Fredricksburg, Virginia; Miss Dona Blasey, Parkston, and Miss Kathleen Lang, Madison, wore gowns of blush pink antique taffeta, made similar to that of the bride, and they wore matching hats and carried bouquets of pink carnations. John McDowell, Sioux Falls, attended his nephew, assisted by Peter Beckman, William Friedhoff, William Wilkins, Robert Bittner, and Donald Bruce, Sioux Falls, and Donn Reynolds, Mitchell.

A reception was held at the Madison Country Club with guests listed by Miss Ann McDowell and Mrs. Ray Wenk Jr. Others serving were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bratager and Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Sommervold, Vermillion, punch; Miss Stella Fitzgerald, cake, assisted by Mrs. James Ingram Jr., Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Jack Holahan, Sioux City; Mrs. Richard Selover, Huron; Mrs. Glen Siddons, Platte; Mrs. M. T.

Woods, Sioux Falls, and Mrs. Paul Bratager, coffee; and the Misses Shirley and Marlys Wiegman, Margaret Stahl, Lucretia Selover, Huron, and Michelle Ray and Mary Ann Lykken, Minneapolis.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Banff, Lake Louise and the Pacific Northwest. For traveling the bride changed to a gown of beige with harmonizing accessories. She attended St. Mary's of Notre Dame and received her bachelor of arts at the University of South Dakota where she was a leader in campus and social activities and affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The bridegroom, a veteran of the Air Corps, entered the University of South Dakota on his return from service and will receive his degree in business administration at the close of the first semester next year. He is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity. They will live in Vermillion until the bridegroom is through school, after which Sioux Falls will be their home.

Notes for David Veryl Dodds:

Minneapolis - David Dodds, a pioneer in emergency medical services who helped modernize Bloomington's volunteer rescue squad, died Tuesday Feb. 15, 2000 in Paynesville, Minnesota. He was 65. After serving in the Korean War, he joined the rescue squad and became its second chief in the mid-1960s. "We were still adhering to a World War II civil defense concept, more worried about bomb shelters than modern emergency systems, and Dave helped change everything," said Morel Moss, Dodds' longtime assistant chief. Dodds retired in 1988 after 20 years with the Bloomington Fire Department. He also served as the emergency medical coordinator at the Hennepin Technical College for 20 years. Dodds and his wife, Doris, moved to Paynesville in 1991. His wife said he died of a disease that affected his internal organs.

In addition to his wife, Dodds is survived by daughters Denise Dow of Farmington and Rosemarie Dodds of St. Petersburg, Florida; a son, Grover Dodds of Minneapolis; a step-daughter, Ann Bemis of St. Cloud, Minnesota; a step-son, John Scheller of Anoka; a sister, Darlene Jorgenson of Rochester, Minnesota, and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. March 4 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Paynesville.

3146. Patricia Rose⁹ Beemer (Leslie William⁸, Annette M. (Nettie)⁷ McDowell, Samuel Adam⁶, Barbara⁵ Sides, John⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 17 Jun 1934 in Hampton, Franklin Co, Iowa, and died 07 Mar 2007 in Spencer, Clay Co, Iowa. She married Roy E. Johansen 21 Nov 1954. He was born 26 Dec 1931, and died 16 Jul 2000.

Notes for Patricia Rose Beemer:

Patricia Rose (Beemer) Johansen was born June 17, 1934, in Hampton, Iowa. She passed away at her home on March 6, 2007, in Spencer, Iowa. She was preceded in death by her parents, Leslie and Vera Beemer of Hampton, Iowa; sister, Jean Webb of Escondido, California; brother, Rex Beemer of St. Paul, Minnesota, and her husband, Roy E. Johansen of Spencer, Iowa. Patricia had her first horse at the age of two years old and had two other horses while she grew up on a farm in Hampton, Iowa. She had a great love for horses and would ride her horse (Bud, Buster, or Babe) in the countryside singing as loud as she could.

She was given a gift from God in having the ability to sing with a strong beautiful soprano voice which was appreciated by many music lovers, friends, family and also public performances. One of many public performances included singing a solo performance under the direction of Robert Shaw at a Concert Chorale when she lived in Independence, Iowa with her husband and children. She sang at Luther College under Wes Noble, the Director of Music at Decorah, IA. In today's society her talent could be compared to Sarah Brightman's talented soprano voice. During her high school years while growing up in Hampton, Iowa, she sang in Mixed Chorus 1,2,3,4; Officer 2; Girl's Chorus 1,2,3,4; Officer 4; Variety Show, Home Coming Queen Candidate 4; G.A.A. 1; Pep Squad 1,2,3,4; Junior Class Play (crew) 3; Cheerleader 1,2,3; All State Chorus 3,4; and Vocal Soloist 2,3,4.

She was introduced to her husband, Roy E. Johansen on a blind date by a mutual friend, Maurice Wolf of Hampton, Iowa. They fell in love and married on November 21, 1954. They resided in Hampton, Iowa, after marrying and their first daughter, Julia Marie Johansen was born on September 18, 1955. They then moved to Iowa City while her husband attended college at the University of Iowa. Their second daughter, Teresa Lynn Johansen was born in Iowa City, Iowa, on January 8, 1958. Her husband, Roy, was very active in politics and served as the Vice President for the Young Democrats of Iowa. He inspired Patricia's political activism and both became very involved in campaigning for John F. Kennedy. After he won the election as President of the United States, they received a personal invitation to the Inaugural Ball. Patricia was a very avid Iowa Hawkeye fan along with her husband, Roy. They inspired their first and only grandson, Joshua W. Smith to the Iowa Hawkeye's and he still remains as much of a fan as they were. Her granddaughters are also Iowa Hawkeye fans. Later in Patricia's life she spoke a lot about the past and how different our Country was as to when she grew up. She always referred to it as the "Gentler Times", even though there was war and violence in those days, people lived simpler lives and family unity was very important. She had so many prayers and hopes that our Country would someday revert back to some of those gentler times she spoke of. She not only prayed for this for her own family but all families living during these very uncertain times. Patricia was a strong faith-filled woman who cared for many people tenderly throughout her entire life.

Patricia is survived by two daughters: Julia Lineweaver and Cole, and Teresa Smith and Robert, all of Spencer, Iowa; four grandchildren: Joshua Smith and wife, Heidi of Milford, Iowa, Leslie Lineweaver of Spencer, Iowa, Emily Widen and Matt of Spencer, Iowa, Betsy Lineweaver and Luke Logan of Spencer, IA, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Memorial Services will be held at 10:30 A.M. on Saturday, March 17, 2007. Officiating Rev. Gary Nims. There will be no visitation. Interment will be at North Lawn Cemetery Spencer, Iowa.

She married Wesley Clyde Julson 22 Feb 1948 in Minnehaha Co, South Dakota. He was born 12 Apr 1926 in Valley Spings, South Dakota, and died 21 Jul 2007.

Notes for Veryl Florence McDowell:

Veryl F. Julson, age 80, of Sherman, South Dakota, passed away on Monday, November 3, 2008, at Sanford Hospice Cottage in Luverne, Minnesota. Veryl Florence Julson was born to W. Earl and Florence McDowell on February 8, 1928, in Springwater Township, Rock County, Minnesota, on the farm of her Hoime grandparents. Veryl graduated eighth grade from District 21 rural school, Springwater Township, Rock County. During the summer of 1947, she flew solo in a plane from her father's airport on the farm. On February 22, 1948, Veryl wed Wesley C. Julson in the Lutheran parsonage at Garretson. Veryl was a lifetime farm daughter and wife. She and Wes were farmers in Palisades Township, South Dakota, selling milk for 47 years. Veryl served on the South Dakota Farm Bureau Board of Directors as Women's Chairman and was named Outstanding Farm Bureau Woman of the Year of South Dakota District 2 in 1971. She was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, participating in circle and serving as a Bible study leader. She resided at home, actively participating on the family farm, until October 10, 2008.

Survivors include her son and his wife, Bob and Betty Julson, Garretson; a daughter and her husband, Linda and Steven Holmes, Houston, Texas; two grandsons, Cody and Kipp Julson; three granddaughters, Erin Karnofski, Tina Scott and Kassie Holmes; one great-granddaughter, Alyssa Scott; and two step great granddaughters, Teila and Teisha; one brother and wife, Dale B. and Rosy McDowell; and sister-in-law, Bev McDowell. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wesley, her parents Earl and Florence, and her brother Dean.

During Veryl's days at The Cottage, she was saddened to hear of Tony Dean's passing. She had great appreciation for his work and enjoyed his articles and shows for many years. At her request, if you desire, memorials may be directed to the Tony Dean Memorial Fund, 1013 North Grand, Pierre, SD 57501. Donations will be used to purchase a public recreation area for public hunting that will be named for Dean.

Prayer services will begin at 7:00 P.M. Wednesday, November 5, 2008 at the Minnehaha Funeral Home, Garretson. Visitation will begin at 1:00 P.M. Wednesday, with the family present from 5-7:00 P.M. at the funeral home. Private family burial will be held at Hills of Rest Memorial Park in Sioux Falls. Veryl wanted to be remembered for her love of her family and the farm.

Notes for Wesley Clyde Julson:

Wesley C. Julson, age 81, of Sherman, SD, passed away after a brief illness on Wednesday, July 18, 2007 at Sanford Hospital Luverne. For the past two years he was a resident of the Minnesota Veterans Home in Luverne. Wesley C. Julson was born on April 12, 1926, at Garretson, South Dakota to Emil and Viola (Rademacher) Julson. His father died when Wes was three. The family moved to Brainerd, Minnesota in 1936 and lived off and on with Uncle Ralph and Aunt Minnie Rademacher until 1942. Cousins Harold, Donald and Dick Rademacher were like brothers. After quitting school in 1942, Wes went to work for Garretson area farmers including August Anderson and Wes' Uncle Bill Rademacher.

He entered the U.S. Army on January 1945 as an infantryman, and was stationed in the South Pacific and occupied Japan. He received a Good Conduct Medal, a Victory Medal, and an Army Occupation Medal. On July 27, 2007, he was to have received a medal at the Minnesota Veterans Home in honor of his service. After returning home, he and his brother Vernon went into a trucking business for one year.

On February 22, 1948, Wesley wed Veryl McDowell in the Lutheran parsonage at Garretson. Veryl and Wes were lifetime farmers in Palisades Township, South Dakota, selling milk for 47 years. Wes served on the township board for 15 years, was a member of SD Farm Bureau for several years, and a member of the Garretson American Legion since 1946.

A lover of horses and dogs, they belonged to Twin Village Saddle Club and helped start Dakota Harness Club, participating in parades, trail rides and wagon trails. Lots of people and children learned to ride on the Julson's horses and ponies. Wes had a small wooden wagon collection that he liked to share with others. He enjoyed making things out of metal, doing wood carving, coloring and drawing, hunting and fishing. Wes was proud to continue the tradition of August M. Anderson by providing land to the Garretson Community for enjoyment by children and families. Facilities on that land include the Zion Lutheran Church, Tandberg Field, Community Swimming Pool, Garretson Jaycee's Softball Complex and the Garretson School Athletic Complex.

Survivors include his wife, Veryl, Sherman, South Dakota; a son and his wife, Bob and Betty Julson, Sherman; a daughter and her husband, Linda and Steven Holmes, Houston, Texas; two grandsons, Cody and Kipp Julson; three granddaughters, Erin Karnofski, Tina Scott and Kassie Holmes; and two step-great-granddaughters, Teila and Teisha. He was preceded in death by his parents, in-laws, Earl and Florence McDowell, and a brother, Vernon.

Funeral services will begin at 11:00 A.M. Saturday, July 21, 2007 at Zion Lutheran Church in Garretson with interment following at Hills of Rest Memorial Park in Sioux Falls. Visitations will be from 5:00 to 7:00 P.M. Friday at the Minnehaha Funeral Home, Garretson. Wes always liked to say that "the guy who never made a mistake never did anything" and "I am as good as I can be for the shape I am in."

He married (1) Ghislaine Louise Blanche Slypsteen 1952. She was born 15 Apr 1929 in Brussels, Belgium, and died 30 Nov 2009 in Tacoma, Pierce Co, Washington. He married (2) Ronna Irene Garrett 21 Jan 1984 in Moese Lake, Grant Co, Washington.

Notes for Ghislaine Louise Blanche Slypsteen:

A Celebration of her life is on: Dec 18, 2009 - 6PM to 8PM. at Christ Community Baptist Church 8016 176th St. E Puyallup, Washington 98375 253-846-3000. Our Mommy (Mummy is how we said it) On November 30th 2009, at 4:44 am, Ghislaine L. Bowser passed away peacefully at her home with her children at her side. Our Mommy was born April 15, 1929 as Ghislaine Louise Blanche Slypsteen, in the lovely city of Brussels, Belgium. As a young girl Mom was full of spunk and talent. At age 12 her pastel pictures showed a true artist and as she reached the teenage years, she was studying music at the School of Juliet. Her focus, classical piano music. Our grandmother purchased a piano for this purpose – further her musical talent. Things change. World War II broke out when she was still a young teenager yet she worked with the Underground to support the Allies. In 1946 she met a soldier named Robert E Bowser at a restaurant in Brussels. The word is the entire place was empty except our Mom who was with her Dad. My dad walks in – sees the most beautiful woman he has ever seen and asks to sit at their table since all other tables are taken. Shortly after World War II she later married Dad (Robert) in 1952. Or Dad was a very patriotic man and eventually retired from the service.

Back to Mom. Talk about change, little did Mom know exactly what she was in for! She had her first child Robert in 1953 while stationed in England. Then we transferred to El Paso, Texas where Thomas was born in 1954. Soon afterward Dad received orders for another transfer, this time to California – March AFB. Here Madeleine was born in 1955. See a trend here? Kids – all stages of them now?! Mommy was excited to be in America, though could she ever have imagined travelling all around the world and the states like she did? Amazing adventures and with 3 kids. Just around a year later, Warren was born in 1956. Well it was about time for another transfer and this one took the family to Germany where Michelle was born in 1957. After a short stint in Germany, back to the USA to Lompoc, California where Diana and Denise were born in 1959 and 1961. Of course, another transfer came, this time taking the family to Grand Forks, North Dakota where we just happened to live for longest 3 years. During these 3 years Daniel was born in 1963 and Dale in 1965.

Dad and Mom separated in 1970 and from then on, this 4'11" woman raised us 8 children on her own. Mom had worked part time during the marriage while taking care of 9 children (Warren passed away at an early age of 3 months, imagine that loss). Always a loving mother, she now became head of the household as well. As you can imagine, finances were extremely tight and having just moved into a new big house, well to put it bluntly, we lost our new home. We moved into house that was really built as temporary workers shack, this had to be a heavy blow to Mom and a good one as we had shelter. You could feel the wind go right through the house! We lived around the oil heater in the middle of the living room. Only one bathroom and 5 women. Somehow because Mom always saw the positive and being optimistic, we always had what we needed and she was always there to talk. A very strong woman! And a good listener. Mom took on a waitress job and worked as a janitor to try to make ends meet. Not once as we grew up did she ever complain about having to work so many hours. Tired, though always upbeat, positive and loving with us kids. She never missed a birthday or Christmas – somehow she always made these very special days for us, as with all the holidays. Mom had this unique quality of calmness and love with everyone, especially her children. There is no doubt in any of her children's minds that she lived for us. She gave of herself so we had what we needed.

Thom's comments about Mommy If I had to describe our Mom's attitude towards us, the song by Mark Harris hits it on the spot. The words are: It's only for a moment that you are mine to hold. The plans that heaven has for you will all too soon unfold So many different prayers I'll pray For all that you might do But most of all I want to know You're walking in the truth And if I never told you, I want you to know As I watch you grow I pray that God will fill your heart with dreams And faith gives you the courage To dare to do great things I am here for you whatever life brings So let my love give you roots And help you find your wings May passion be the wind That leads you through your days And may conviction keep you strong Guide you on your way It's not living if you don't reach for the sky I'll have tears as you take off But I'll cheer as you take off This is how our Mom or as we called her Mommy raised us. We have been honored to have such a mother. She was always there when life dealt us a good or bad blow or to just talk with, she pushed us to do better – to give everything, to reach for the sky and spread our wings. She gave us great ethics and moral guidance by her actions. Not only a mother, she was our best friend, our confident and the one we looked up to with great respect. A celebration of her life is on Dec 18, 2009 - 6PM to 8PM. at Christ Community Baptist Church 8016 176th St. E Puyallup, Washington 98375

She married Dr. William Charles Brown, Jr. He was born 19 May 1928 in Trenton, New Jersey, and died 02 Jun 2016 in Washington Crossing, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Dr. William Charles Brown, Jr.:

William C. Brown, MD, of Washington Crossing, Pennsylvania, died Thursday, June 2, 2016, at his home after a long illness, surrounded by members of his loving family. He was 88. Bill was the beloved husband of 62 years to Ethel Klotz Brown. Born in Trenton, New Jersey, he was the son of the late John Wesley and Helen Sanders Brown. Bill was a resident of Washington Crossing for over 50 years. He was a graduate of Ursinus College and the Temple University School of Medicine. Dr. Brown completed a year of internship at Mercer Medical Center in Trenton, and went on to complete a residency in Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology in the U.S. Public Health Service in Galveston, Texas, Baltimore, Maryland, and Norfolk, Virginia. He had a successful and distinguished career as an ophthalmologist from 1963 where he established and maintained a private practice at 651 W. State St. in Trenton and later at 770 River Road in West Trenton and at the Mercer Medical Center in Trenton until his retirement in 2002. Dr. Brown was a fellow of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and a member of the American Medical Association, and the New Jersey and Mercer County Medical Societies. He was a 33rd degree Mason and a member of the Trenton Cyrus Lodge No. 5. He was also a Shriner and member of the Scottish Rite. Bill had an extensive knowledge and love of military history, especially the American Civil War era. In his leisure, he enjoyed singing, collecting antique firearms, and building models, particularly military figures, airplanes and ships which he assembled with great care and detail. Bill was a lifelong fan of West Point football and enjoyed working in his garden. He would often try his hand at repairing almost anything and in his early years was a wood craftsman. Bill appreciated the quality time spent with his family and he loved the family vacation home on Cape Cod.

In addition to his wife Ethel, Bill is survived by his five children and their spouses, Dr. William C. Brown Jr. and his wife, Norma R., Rev. Dr. John Wesley Brown II, David C. Brown and his wife, Elizabeth T., Bruce G. Brown and his wife, Juli H., and Scott C. Brown and his wife, Kimberly J. He is also survived by his 10 grandchildren, Katherine Kaufmann (John), Kristen Welsh (Joseph), Laura Daniels (William), Anne Brown (Luke Clapp), Stefanie and Christina Brown, Sabrina and Nathan Brown and Juliet Z. and Nicole L. Brown, and his three great-grandchildren, Geoffrey, Jack, and Clay Kaufmann.

Relatives and friends are invited to express their condolences from 5 p.m. until his funeral service at 7 p.m. which will be officiated by the Rev. Dr. Norman J. Leve on Sunday, June 12, at the New Life Christian Church, 4 Freedom Drive, Newtown, PA 18940. Prayers prior to departure for interment in Ewing Cemetery, Ewing, NJ, will be offered at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, June 13, at the New Life Christian Church. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to New Life Christian Church, 4 Freedom Drive, Newtown, Pennsylvania 18940 or the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen, 72 Escher St., Trenton, New Jersey 08609. Notes for Doris Jean Mikesell:

Doris Campbell-White, 83, of Huron, passed away on Feb. 8, 2012 at her residence in Huron, Ohio. Doris was born in Painesville, Ohio, on Nov. 5, 1928 to Harry and Elda Mikesell and graduated from High School in Indiana, Pennsylvania, in 1946 where she was known as "Mike" to her friends. She married another Indiana native, a World War II fighter pilot named Donald Marlin Campbell on Nov. 1, 1946 and they moved to Cleveland, Ohio, to start a family and earn their college degrees. Don and Doris moved to Willoughby Hills, Ohio, in 1955 where they passionately served their community, her husband as councilman and Mayor for 14 years and Doris starting a Kindergarten program in Willoughby Hills in 1963 with Thelma Blazy and Marge Sakach. After her husband Don passed suddenly in 1981, she worked in the City of Willoughby Hills Finance Department from 1981 until she retired in 1996. In 1996, she moved to Estero, Florida, where she met and married Robert White in 2000. They had many happy years together golfing, traveling, reading and enjoying fine dining. Bob passed in 2009 and Doris returned to Ohio in 2010 to be near her family and lived her last years enjoying a beautiful panoramic view of Lake Erie in Huron. Doris was a golf fanatic who loved to play the game. People who've played with her will tell you "She could putt the eyes out of a snake!" Doris organized and ran many of the ladies golf leagues she played in when she lived in Ohio and Florida. She had three career holes-in-one and had two within a three-month span at the age of 72. Doris loved to spend time with her family and was the soft-spoken rock of the family. To her, family always came first.

Doris is survived by her brother, Harry Mikesell; sister-in-law Janet (Robert) Grundy; daughters Barbara (Gary) Craun and Nancy (Craig) Bulea; sons Daniel Campbell and Mike (Diane) Campbell. Grandmother of 15 and great-grandmother of 13.

3302. Gwen Ellen⁹ Wagner (Richard Kern⁸, Loyal Leroy⁷, John Walbeck⁶, Jacob⁵, Anna⁴ Sides, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 30 Jun 1949 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co, Ohio, and died 12 Jul 2017 in Erie, Erie Co, Pennsylvania. She married Charles Burnham (Chuck) Huffer 17 Jun 1972 in Waterford, Erie Co, Pennsylvania. He was born 11 Oct 1950.

Notes for Gwen Ellen Wagner:

Gwen Ellen (Wagner) Huffer, age 68, of Thousand Oaks, passed away July 12, 2017 surrounded by family at UPMC-Hamot Hospital in Erie, Pennsylvania. Gwen was born June 30, 1949 in Cleveland, Ohio to Richard Kern Wagner and Jane Ellen Talcott, both of whom predeceased her. She grew up in Waterford and Erie, Pennsylvania with childhood friends Marian, Susan, Jeannie, Yvette and others. Gwen graduated from Erie East High School in 1967 and from the College of Wooster (Ohio) in 1971, where she fell in love with her future husband and companion of over 47 years, Chuck. She later went on to earn her medical degree from The Ohio State University in 1975, followed by two years active-duty service as a Navy Lieutenant at NAS Miramar and Naval Training Center in San Diego. She completed her pediatric residency at Children's Hospital of Los Angeles in 1980.

In 1972, Gwen was married to Charles Burnham "Chuck" Huffer. Gwen and Chuck have lived in Thousand Oaks since 1980, where they raised two children: Richard Burnham "Rick" Ishii-Huffer (husband Shane) of Auburn, Washington; and Robin Anne Talcott (Huffer) Lynch (husband Chris) of Kailua, Hawaii.

In addition to her loving husband and grateful children, Gwen is survived by her older sister, Carol Rawson, of Jamestown, New York; her granddaughter, Eleanor Rachel "Ellie" Lynch; sister-in-law, Sheila Wagner, of Oak Harbor, Washington; and several Wagner and Talcott cousins, nieces, and nephews. Gwen was preceded in death by her older brother, Bruce Wagner, of Whidbey Island, Washington.

Gwen lived a life dedicated to healing, devoting 37 years as a pediatrician in the Conejo Valley and surrounding Ventura County communities. She specialized in developmental and behavioral pediatrics, most recently at a clinic serving low-income families. Despite her diagnosis with multiple myeloma nine years ago, Gwen never slowed down. She became active with the local Cancer Support Community in Westlake Village, in the myeloma support group and in the Knotty Knitters. She knitted hundreds of beautiful scarves, blankets, and sweaters that are cherished by her family, friends and pets. Many of her creations were sold at the Community's annual fund-raising bazaar. Gwen was a member of the Church of the Epiphany in Oak Park, giving of her time with the church's Altar Guild and Flower Ministry Team. Recently, Gwen joined a local chapter of PEO, an international philanthropic women's group "helping women reach for the stars".

Gwen was a twirler in her high school and college bands. Among her passions were camping, classical music and show tunes (her favorites were The Sound of Music and West Side Story), theater, gardening, running and later walking when she could no longer run. Pilates kept her mind focused and her body strong until the very end. She was known for her cat naps, often joined by her cat, Gogo. Throughout her life, she loved giraffes and amassed a collection of them on her travels and as gifts from loving friends and family who will always think fondly of her when they see a giraffe. Gwen's generosity continues even after her death, as she chose to donate her body for research and education. The next generation of physicians will learn from her final gift so that they may carry on her legacy. A local medical school in her home town of Erie received her donation, which was the same school to which her father donated his body some years earlier. At a future date, she will be cremated, with her ashes returned to her family in California.

A celebration of Gwen's life will be held on Saturday August 19th at the Church of the Epiphany in Oak Park, 5450 Churchwood Drive, Oak Park, California 91377, led by Reverend Julie Morris and the Very Reverend Melissa McCarthy. A reception will follow. If you wish to contribute to Gwen's memory, we are asking that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Cancer Support Community Valley/Ventura/Santa Barbara; the City of Hope; or the Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation.

Notes for Thomas Joseph Hannafin:

Thomas Joseph "Tom" Hannafin, 71, of Spicewood, Texas, passed away suddenly on August 2, 2012. He is survived by his wife, Anne, and their five children and spouses, Thomas D. Hannafin, Meghan and Robert Blankenship, Colleen Hannafin and fiancé, Abraham Barker, Allison and Garrett Hall, Jessica and Daniel Hannafin. He was also the proud grandfather of eight grandchildren; Riley, Caden, and Bailey Blankenship, Bella and Sofia Pistone, Harper Hall, and Gabriel and Quentin Barker. He is also survived by his siblings, Mary Hannafin-Tyrrell, John Hannafin, and Eileen Van Artsdalen. He is preceded in death by his mother and father, Mary Verdon and Jeremiah Joseph Hannafin, and sister, Anne Katherine Hannafin.

Tom retired from Kitz Corporation of America after 25+ years and continued to serve the company in a consulting role. He most recently served as Board President of Manufacturers' Standards Society

(MSS) and was a long-standing member of American Petroleum Institute (API). A loving husband, father and grandfather, Tom enjoyed spending quality time with his adoring children and wife. Tom was an avid golfer, whose favorite pastime was teaching the game of golf to his grandchildren. He also enjoyed traveling with his wife Anne over the years, across the world, especially to Ireland, his beloved heritage country. He recently re-discovered volunteerism, whether it be organizing a charity golf tournament for Down Home Ranch, helping at a Spicewood Arts Society function, or pitching in at the Spicewood Library.

Memorial Mass will be held at 11AM on Monday, August 6, 2012, at Queen of Angels Chapel, 20600 Siesta Shores Drive in Spicewood, Texas. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Down Home Ranch (where Tom Jr. resides). Arrangements by Weed-Corley-Fish Lake Travis, 411 RR 620 South, Lakeway, Texas 78734

Bob will be laid to rest at Arlington National Cemetery on Monday, March 6th at 2pm. Please meet at the Admin building at Arlington by 1:30. After the services, we will be having a remembrance at Irelands Four Courts from 3-6pm. Address 2051 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22201. Both are accessible via the Metro, Arlington Cemetery (Blue Line – Arlington National Cemetery), Irelands Four Courts (Orange/Silver – Clarendon) A story about who Bob was by Son in law Michael Bailey Bob was a man that most men would aspire to become, he was a person that unselfishly gave himself to his family, his friends, his career, and his country. I had the great pleasure of meeting Bob 28 years ago. These are the things I learned about his life through our conversations. Bob grew up with his brothers and sister in Washington, D.C. with nearly nothing during the great depression. I remember a picture he used to show me from time to time of a man in a suit standing next to him while he was sitting on a fence. Bob's clothes were torn and dingy. I think Bob would show me this picture, not just to show me, but to also remind him of how blessed he was throughout his life. This may sound funny to most, but I enjoyed listening to him talk about himself and his accomplishments. He was a proud man and rightly so.

He served in the U.S. Navy as a radioman aboard a submarine seeking ship. He ranked up to Seaman First Class. He often tried to get me to understand Morse code, something I could never catch on to, although I can still hear him doing code with his voice. After the service, he started working in Washington D.C. as a Fireman. It takes a very special person to be a fireman. I heard many stories of how he saved lives, how he was not able to save lives, and having to be saved, himself, while fighting a fire. Bob, in my eyes was a true hero. Through his accomplishments and hard work, he retired with the title of Battalion Fire Chief. The memories I have of him are great ones. I look back at the holidays, Bob had traditions, something I never grew up with. Trains around the Christmas tree, setting up a huge Thomas Kincade Village every year for his wife Nancy, cold cuts from a special deli in D.C., he took me to one time, I still can't find it, then having friends and neighbors over to enjoy every moment. In my eyes Bob loved to see joy in peoples faces. He loved to give moments that would make memories for everyone to enjoy, even on days like today. What I learned from Bob is that he would not want us to sit here and shed tears over his death. Bob Talbert, Brother, Husband, Dad, Father-in-Law, Pop-Pop, Grandpa, friend, neighbor whatever he was or meant to you, would want us all to talk about all the great memories we had of him, tell stories we shared with him, and laugh about how he could turn everything into politics.

Notes for Hugh Seward Hirtle:

Hugh Seward Hirtle, Illustrator & Fine Artist, Devoted Husband and Friend Family, friends, and colleagues mourn the passing of Hugh Hirtle on Monday, May 14, 2012, at his home in Silvermine, following a short illness. Born in Springdale, Pennsylvania in 1934, Hugh began his prolific creative career where from the age of 6 through 17 years he was an invited guest of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh Museum and Carnegie Tech participating in drawing, sculpture, and painting classes. He graduated from Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, New York in 1955. His fine arts degree led him to a long career with IBM Office Products, New York. He established his own fine arts studio in the late 1970's, first in Greenwich, Connecticut and later in Norwalk, Connecticut. Hugh created editorial illustrations for international publications and advertising agencies in New York and Connecticut.

Always grateful for his God-given gift to draw and paint, Hugh's love of nature proved to be his constant inspiration. His portrayal of wildlife and ability to capture the human spirit through portraiture emerged as his most captivating and enduring works; they may be found in galleries and private collections throughout the United States and abroad.

Hugh is survived by his wife Barbara Kingsley Hirtle of Silvermine; his daughters JamelaBeyerle, of Lititz, Pennsylvania, and Stephanie Hirtle of New York City; his sister, Natalie Osborne, of Boca Raton, Florida,; his son-in-law, Scott Beyerle, granddaughter, Kathleen Beyerle; his grandson, Scott Beyerle, Jr. of Lititz, Pennsylvania; and extended families throughout the country.

She married Robert Leland Whiteley 29 Apr 1967 in Atlanta, Cass Co, Texas. He was born 25 Feb 1942 in Upshur, Texas.

Marriage Notes for Eldonna Brown and Robert Whiteley:

The engagement of Miss Eldonna Brown and Robert Leland Whiteley, both of Tyler, has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Eldon Ross Brown of Atlanta. Miss Brown is a graduate of Atlanta High School and Texas Eastern School of Nursing in Tyler. Mr. Whiteley a graduate of Kilgore High School, has served five years in the Navy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Stewart, 1016 South Augusta.

The marriage will take place on April 29, 1967 at the First Methodist Church in Atlanta.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, Robert LeLand Whiteley and his bride, the former Miss Eldonna J. Brown, will make their home here at 118 South Glenwood. They were married in a double-ring ceremony Saturday evening May 6, 1967 in the First Methodist Church at Atlanta. The Rev. Jim Garrett officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eldon R. Brown of Atlanta. She is a graduate of Atlanta High School and Texas Eastern School of Nursing. Parents of the bridegroom, a graduate of Kilgore High School are Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Slewatt, 1016 Augusta. He attended Kilgore Junior College and served four years in the U. S. Navy.

The bride's wedding gown of white peau de soie had bell sleeves. Rows of scalloped lace banded the floor-length skirt and edged the chapel train, which fell from the bateau neckline. Her veil fell from a peau de soie rose. She carried white orchids and roses atop a Bible. She was given in marriage by her brother, John Eldon Brown. Bridal attendants were Mrs. Randy Hanner of Atlanta, matron of honor, and Miss. Marge Brooks of Houston and Miss Diane Nutt. bridesmaids. They were attired in formal dresses with bateau necklines and bell sleeves. That of Mrs. Hanner was deep blue, and the bridesmaids wore pastel blue. They carried cascades of white feathered carnations. Attending the bridegroom were Bob Schuman and Glenn Boyd, groomsmen, Jack Lewis, Bill Nettles, Bob Nettles and Tim Tyler, ushers. Robert Smith of Lufkin was best man. Gold candelabra held white tapers at the altar, flanking a sunburst of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and stock. Additional gladioli and stock in pedestal baskets completed the decoration. Miss Peggy Cox, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Bob Cartwright of Greenville, organist.

Making up the reception house party were Mesdames Mari Ellis, Edna Joslin, Lajuanna Allday, Beth Mays, Libia Riley, Jolea Grogan, Vonnie Clements and Mary Ann Lewis and Misses Barbara Knott, Mary Lou Jones, Barbara Carrington, Kaye Chaney, Mary Riley, Lisa Riley and Eva Joslin. Decorating the bride's table was a spray of blue and white carnations and chrysanthemums. An arrangement of multicolored chrysanthemums was on the bridegroom's table. For travel the bride selected a white A-line dress covered with a bright green overdress. She used beige accessories.

She married Richard Zello 1966. He was born 20 Mar 1943.

Notes for Brenda Lee Lichtenfels:

Brenda L. Zello, 70, Brush Valley, passed away March 6, 2015, at Beacon Ridge Manor. Born March 22, 1944, in Johnstown, daughter of the late Russell J. "Jake" and the late Florence M. (McCullough) Lichtenfels. Like many babies born during World War II, Brenda first met her father at the age of 16 months. She attended Wehrum Elementary School, graduated from United High School, then graduated from IUP Teachers College with a B.S. in elementary education. She spent her life working with or for children. Initially, she taught kindergarten at Wehrum Elementary, then at United Elementary School. Eventually, she became a homemaker and mother while still substitute teaching and contributing many hours to the United Junior/Senior High School PTA committee and UHS band boosters. In the community, she was a Cub Scout den leader, Talus Rock Girl Scout unit director and council trainer. She established annual "calendar party" events, organized kids games at BV Days and directed, taught and contributed to VBS, Easter egg hunts and Halloween parades. Once her family was grown, she donated much of her time as an active member at Brush Valley United Methodist Church. She helped co-found, direct and substitute teach at Brush Valley United Methodist Preschool, where she served on the preschool board for more than 26 years. She served as both president and secretary within the women's group at BVUMC, where she also helped cook funeral and community dinners. Most recently, she helped with BV Coat of Many Colors.

Brenda's additional passions included spending time in the outdoors and camping and traveling in tour groups and to see the family. Some of her travels included trips to the Grand Canyon, San Antonio, Florida, Yellow Stone and Glacier National Park. Brenda took pride in her flower and vegetable gardens and enjoyed canning the vegetables and making apple butter, along with all cooking, especially "Brenda's famous spaghetti sauce and cookies." If her hands were not busy cooking or spending time in her gardens, she would be doing some type of craft, painting, sewing or quilting.

Her loves were her six grandchildren and her church family. Survived by husband, Richard Zello; children, Richard J. Zello, and wife, Lorinne, Selma, Texas; Tammy L. Zello, Newark, Delaware; and Susan M. Pisarcik, Indiana; grandchildren, Joshua, Benjamin and Grace Zello; Emily N. Comer-Zello; and Kristen and Samantha Pisarcik; and brother, Gary Lichtenfels, and wife, Dorothy, Seward.

Friends received from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Richard C. Stuart Funeral Home, 392 E. Philadelphia St., Armagh. Service will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Brush Valley United Methodist Church, 180 Valley View Road, Brush Valley, the Rev. Richard C. Russell officiating. Interment, Armagh Cemetery. At Brenda's request, in lieu of flowers, donations should be made to Brush Valley United Methodist Pre-School, in care of Nancy O. or Brush Valley United Methodist Women, in care of Nancy G., both at 180 Valley View Road, Homer City, Pennsylvania 15748.

Marriage Notes for Craig McConnell and Kerry Clark:

Homer City – Valley Grace Brethren Church, Armagh, was the site of the March 19, 1994 nuptials of Kerry Darla Clark, daughter of Floyd and Carol Clark of Homer City RD 1, and Craig Allen McConnell of Butler. He is the son of Burnell and Dorothy McConnell of New Florence RD 2. Rev. Norris Mason presided over the afternoon, double-ring ceremony. Organist was Tom Plowman, while Kriss Clark and Don Spaid served as poem readers.

Escorted by her father, the bride was given in marriage by her parents. She chose a white bridal satin gown featuring a sweetheart neckline. The double-beaded embroidered bodice was enhanced with crystal and pearl droplets that also cascaded from the gigot sleeves and a deep basque tipping on the front of the gown. The cathedral-length train was complemented by beaded and sequined cut-out appliques. A large double bow accented with pearl and crystal droplets appeared at the back waistline. Her headpiece included white flowers and pearls. She carried a cascade of purple roses and white lilies. Matron of honor for her sister was Kathy Reasor of Indiana RD 4. Bridesmaids were Connie Stango of Kent, a friend, and Missy Gorman of Homer City, the groom's niece. Best man for his brother was Jim McConnell of New Florence RD 2. Ushers were Jeff Allison of Dilltown, a friend, and Steve Campbell of Blairsville, the groom's nephew.

Reception was held at the Clyde Fire Hall and included a buffet-style dinner. The couple took a one-week wedding trip to the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee. The bride is a 1988 United High School graduate and received a bachelor of science degree in accounting from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in December 1993. Her husband is a 1986 United graduate and received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering technology from Penn State University, Behrend Campus. He is employed by West Penn Power, Butler-Kittanning Division, Butler. The couple is at home in Butler.

Notes for Tracy Allen Penrose:

Bolivar, Feb. 22, 1991 - A Bolivar, Westmoreland County, man was arrested and charged with criminal homicide and arson Thursday evening, after his wife was found dead in a second-floor closet of their fire-gutted home. Tracy Allen Penrose, 29, was arrested by state police about 6:10 p.m. Thursday, and, after arraignment, was lodged without bond in the Westmoreland County Detention Center. The victim was identified as his wife, Patricia Annette Penrose, 26. Her body was found in their home at 724 Lincoln St. in Bolivar, after firemen from four companies extinguished a blaze which started shortly after 9 a.m.

When state police arrived on the scene, Tracy Penrose was standing outside the burning house holding the couple's 8-month-old son Maxwell. They were not hurt, police said. The couple has another 6-year-old son who was at school when the fire started. Bolivar fire chief Ed Speidel said a search of the gutted second story discovered Mrs. Penrose's body in an upstairs bedroom closet. She did not appear to be alive or conscious when firemen found her, Speidel said, and she was pronounced dead at 11:35 a.m. by Westmoreland County deputy coroner Joseph Musgrove.

An autopsy was performed at the Central Medical Center in Pittsburgh, and Musgrove said her death resulted not from fire or smoke, but from fractures to her skull due to blunt force trauma of the head. Investigating state trooper Paul Destefano said a state police fire marshal for Troop A in Greensburg concluded the fire was incendiary in origin, and Westmoreland County district attorney John Driscoll also commented it was evident to investigators the fire was an arson. A preliminary hearing for Penrose has been scheduled for 11 a.m. on Feb. 28 at the office of District Justice Denise Thiel in Ligonier. In addition to Bolivar firemen, Speidel said volunteers from New Florence, Clyde and Fairfield Township in Westmoreland County and personnel from Tri-Community Ambulance service also assisted at the scene.

Ligonier, March 1, 1991 - A Pennsylvania state trooper testified in Ligonier Thursday morning that Tracy Alien Penrose of Bolivar admitted to him he struck his wife with a clothes iron and a baseball bat last week before Penrose's house was destroyed by fire. A second trooper said the fire was set with perhaps as much as five gallons of a flammable liquid. After nearly two hours of testimony, District Justice Denise Thiel ruled the Commonwealth had presented sufficient evidence to hold Penrose for court action on charges of homicide and arson.

The 29-year-old Penrose was arrested Feb. 21 after firemen extinguished a blaze which wrecked his 724 Lincoln St home in Bolivar. When the fire was out, the body of his wife, Patricia Annette Penrose, 26, was found in an upstairs bedroom closet. An autopsy determined, however, she died not from smoke or flames, but from blunt force trauma to her head. During his preliminary hearing Thursday, Penrose, dressed in jeans and a polo shirt, was silent and only looked down at his hands folded in his lap. State police Trooper George Bates of the fire marshal's unit in Greensburg testified Patricia Penrose's body was still in the second-floor closet when he arrived on the scene. "I noticed a pool of blood under her head on the floor," Trooper Bates said, adding her body was covered with what appeared to be a nightgown or slip. He observed a deep laceration behind the victim's left ear, he said, and when her body was rolled over, there was a strong odor of gasoline on her hair, clothing and pillows in the closet. An extensive investigation of the remains of the house, Trooper Bates said, led him to the conclusion the fire started at the bottom of the interior stairwell, and then spread up the stairs and across a second floor hallway. A "pour pattern" was also found, the trooper said, which indicated a flammable liquid had been poured from the closet, across the bedroom floor, along the hallway and then down the steps to the front door of the house.

When questioned by Westmoreland County assistant district attorney Timothy Andrews about how much flammable liquid may have been used to spread the fire, Trooper Bates replied, "An excessive amount. Two to five gallons, I would estimate." "The vapors (when ignited) would have created a flash, a brief explosion," the trooper continued, and the fire's spread up the stairs would have been "instantaneous." He concluded an upstairs window was blown outward by the flash fire, allowing the stairwell to act as a chimney which probably sucked most of the oxygen out of the bedroom, sparing it from extensive fire damage. More damaging testimony was given by Trooper Paul DeStefano, a state police criminal investigator from Greensburg.

During a three-hour interview with the defendant the afternoon of the fire, Trooper DeStefano said Tracy Penrose told him there had been an altercation between himself and his wife in the bedroom after their 8-year-old son had left for school. According to Trooper DeStefano, Penrose said he hit his wife with a clothes iron, then went downstairs to care for the couple's 3-month-old son. A short time later there was a second altercation in the bedroom. Trooper DeStefano said, and that time Penrose told the trooper he hit his wife with a baseball bat. Under cross examination by Penrose's public defender, David Caruthers of Irwin, Trooper DeStefano also testified Penrose told him in the interview his wife had first swung the bat at him. But because of some martial arts training he was able to deflect the blows and took the bat away from his wife.

Trooper DeStefano also said Penrose told him a kerosene heater in the bedroom had been overturned during the altercations, but Trooper Bates had earlier testified the heater did not ignite the fire. Caruthers who had entered pleas of not guilty at the beginning of the hearing then asked Justice Thiel to dismiss the charges, claiming the Commonwealth had presented nothing which showed Tracy Penrose caused his wife's death. She was struck with the iron, Caruthers conceded, but she was still alive when her husband returned to the bedroom, and nothing had been submitted to prove he caused her death in the second altercation. Assistant DA Andrews disagreed, saying the Commonwealth had presented evidence Penrose struck his wife, and she was found dead at the scene. Justice Thiel agreed with Andrews and ruled Penrose would continue to be held without bond while a court date is set.

Greensburg, Sept. 11, 1992 - Tracy Penrose admitted to the jury at his homicide and arson trial Thursday that he struck his wife with a baseball bat and poured gasoline around her body, but testified he didn't mean to kill her and had no recollection of how their Bolivar home caught fire on Feb. 21, 1991. Penrose, 30, was called to the witness stand by his defense attorneys in the fourth day of his second trial in Westmoreland County Court. Penrose described his 27-year-old wife, Patricia, as irritable on the morning she died. The couple had argued over his unemployment and the family's financial situation, and because Patricia had put gasoline in a bedroom kerosene heater, Penrose said. He told the jury his wife "flipped out," and started yelling at him and swinging a ball bat at him. He said he took the bat away from his wife in self-defense and struck her on the head. Penrose also said he thought his wife was dead as he inexplicably poured gasoline around her body in a bedroom closet. But he testified he could not remember how the home started to burn.

Police officers have testified gasoline was poured on bedding around the body and down an interior stairway to the front door where investigators said the fire started. During his testimony, Penrose also explained that loan papers, birth certificates and other documents were stored in the family vehicles and escaped the home fire because he planned to take them for a welfare application. Other valuables had been moved to his pickup truck and were not burned, he said, because they were to be used as collateral for a loan. Assistant district attorney Timothy Andrews may begin his questioning of Penrose today. He is seeking a first-degree murder conviction. Defense attorneys Amy Keim and Mary Ann Grec of Greensburg argue Patricia Penrose's death was unintentional, and her husband may only be guilty of manslaughter.

Greensburg, Sept. 15, 1992 - It took 19 months for his two trials to be completed, but it took a jury less than two hours Monday to find Tracy Penrose guilty of first-degree murder and arson. The 31-year-old unemployed truck driver was then sentenced, to life to prison by Westmoreland County Judge Charles Loughran for fatally beating his wife and setting their Bolivar house on fire on Feb. 21, 1991. Penrose, who had quit his job as a truck driver-salesman because of stress, showed no emotion. The body of Penrose's wife, Patricia, was found in a closet of the family's burning home. Penrose told police he struck his wife in self-defense and poured gasoline near her unconscious body and throughout the house, but that the house caught fire by accident. His first trial this spring ended in a mistrial when anxiety and depression left Penrose unable to aid with his defense.

During his second trial which began Sept. 4, Pittsburgh forensic pathologist Dr. Cyril Wecht testified Mrs. Penrose's skull had been bashed two or possibly three times with an antique iron or baseball bat. Assistant District Attorney Timothy Andrews told jurors in his closing arguments that evidence about Patricia's injuries indicated something about Penrose's intent to kill his wife. The assistant DA said Penrose plotted to kill his wife after she threatened to end their 10-year marriage, adding Mrs. Penrose probably was dead before her husband put their 6-year-old son, Clay, on the school bus that morning.

Andrews also reminded the jurors that Penrose had packed his vehicles with guns, cameras, framed photos of the children, family documents and other personal items before setting the house on fire. And while the house burned Penrose had told neighbors his missing wife might have gone to the post office or a nearby store. Defense attorney Amy Keim argued that Penrose struck his wife during the heat of an argument and didn't mean to kill her. "There was a fight between two stressed-out people," Keim said. "Not a murder. Not a plan. No intent. No deliberation. No malice." The first-degree murder conviction carries an automatic life imprisonment sentence, but defense attorneys have 10 days to file post-verdict appeals.

- 5193 i. Shane Dixon¹⁰ Toner, born 12 Feb 1993.
- 5194 ii. Dakota Shea Toner, born 31 Mar 1995 in Miami, Florida.

Notes for Dakota Shea Toner:

Jan 12, 2011 - Considering that her father is Pat Toner, coach of both her Treasure Coast Aquatics club team and Pine School squad, 15-year-old Palm City resident Dakota Toner was practically destined for a future in the pool from birth. "He had me in the water when I was a year old or less," the sophomore said. "And I've been swimming competitively since age 7."

Pat Toner's 1974-97 run as swimming and water polo coach at Killian High School in Miami included numerous coaching awards and state titles. He founded the nonprofit TCA and its H2O Kats learn-to-swim program in Palm City in 2002, and the organization has become a feeder program for Treasure Coast high schools such as Martin County, Jensen Beach, South Fork and, of course, the Pine School.

Dakota and 18-year-old brother, Shane Toner, a senior who's also on the Pine School swim team at the institution's upper school campus in Hobe Sound, have risen through the TCA system ever since. Every family member, including their nonswimming mother Darla Toner, is involved. "My mom is neither a swimmer nor a diver," Dakota said with a laugh. "But she manages my dad's swim club, and she's also a real estate agent." Born in Miami during her father's coaching tenure there, Dakota's competitive swimming started when her father established TCA. And she doesn't have to look far to see one of the most successful results of his coaching methodologies.

Nancy Ross, an assistant coach for both TCA and the Pine School, swam under Pat as a child before lettering in both swimming and water polo through high school and at Appalachian State University. Collectively, coaches Toner and Ross may be creating another such success story in Dakota. She's been swimming and diving for the Pine School since attending middle grades at its Stuart-based lower school, and was the only Treasure Coast student among The Palm Beach Post's 2010 Fall High School All-Area Teams. "I won districts in diving last season," she said, "and placed second in swimming. Unfortunately, one of the relay teams I was on that was set to qualify for states got disqualified, so we couldn't go. At regionals, I may have pushed myself too hard, because I didn't finish as well in swimming. So I only qualified for states in diving, and I finished sixth in Orlando."

Diving now looks to be Dakota's future specialty even more than swimming. She studies with David Suba, the diving coach at Indian River State College in Fort Pierce. "I studied ballet when I was very young, then took up gymnastics for five years," Dakota said. "That stopped when I was 9, when I switched to diving. That's what I'm focusing on now. I want to get to college on a diving scholarship." One school tops her wish list. "I'd like to attend the University of Florida," Dakota said. "Their diving program is unbelievable." Afterward, the sky could figuratively be the limit. With her diligence, instruction and near-constant practices and meets, Dakota may be channeling her ballet and gymnastics training into the championship form of her favorite athletes. "I'm amazed by the diving of David Boudia," Dakota said of the springboard and platform diver. "And my favorite swimmer is Ryan Lochte. They were both on the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team."

4107. James Hugh⁹ Graham (Royal Reid (Roy)⁸, Tillia Luella⁷ Bliven, Sarah Katherine⁶ Stormer, Levi⁵, Susan⁴ Seitz, twin, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 22 Jan 1923 in Dakota City, Dakota Co, Nebraska, and died 26 Dec 2007 in Lexington, Dawson Co, Nebraska. He married Mary Alice Ostmeyer. She was born 01 Jan 1923 in Sioux City, Woodbury Co, Iowa, and died 31 Dec 2010.

Notes for James Hugh Graham:

James Hugh Graham, 84, of rural Dakota City died Wednesday, Dec. 26, 2007, at a Lexington, Nebraska, hospital. Each of us must release the hand of one we love into God's hand. Jim's hand was taken by parents, Roy and Mildred (Rogers) Graham on Jan. 22, 1923, and released on Tuesday, Dec. 26. He graduated from Dakota City High School and entered the University of Nebraska. His college education was interrupted by World War II, where he served in the southwest Pacific as a P-38 pilot who photographed Japanese placements on many islands. He returned from the war to take the hand of family with integrity and love as he farmed and served his community.

He was a member of Salem Lutheran Church and actively led the Dakota City and South Sioux City School boards, the Dakota City/Dakota Covington Rural Fire boards, where he helped establish the county wide 911 system. He served on the county/city law enforcement board, the board of Adjustments and Farmer's Co-op board. He was a lifelong Husker fan.

He is survived by his wife of nearly 64 years, Mary (Ostmeyer) Graham; children, Carol (Bill) Fleming, Barb (Dick Hollinger) Graham, Randy (Kathy) Graham, Ron (Pat) Graham and Kathy (Bruce) Poole; a sister, Marilyn Ebbert; grandchildren who accepted grandpa's hand of love, Kerry and Kyle Fleming, Jeff (Megan), Dan (Amy) and Andy Graham, Mike, Colleen and Kristine Graham and Graham Poole; and great-grandchildren, Eric, Emma and Thomas Graham.

Services will be 10 a.m. Monday at Salem Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Graceland Park Cemetery. Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, with a prayer service at 7 p.m., at Becker-Hunt Funeral Home. The family suggests memorials to Salem Lutheran Church and the South Sioux City Cardinal Education Foundation.

Notes for Mary Alice Ostmeyer:

Mary Alice Graham, formerly of Dakota City, passed away suddenly on Dec. 31, 2010. Mary was born on Jan. 1, 1923, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Sioux City, Iowa, to William Carl Ostmeyer and Matilda (Tillie) Ebel Ostmeyer. She graduated from Dakota City High School in 1940 and received her Graduate Nurse and Registered Nurse degrees from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine in 1944.

On May 23, 1944, she married her high school sweetheart, James H. Graham. Following his return from the Pacific Theater in World War II, they settled down to farm the family homesteads northwest of Dakota City and Homer. Their marriage lasted for 63 years until Jim's death on Dec. 26, 2007. From 1944 until 1946, she served as a nurse in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Sioux City, and then retired to raise her children and become a full-time homemaker.

Mary was a lifelong member of Salem Lutheran Church and its ELCA Women of the church circles. She was a long-standing member of the Goldenrod Club and a founding member of Salem couples' club known as "The Gang". Throughout her life, she dearly loved the friends made from her church and her clubs. She was a superb cook and baker, a gracious and hospitable hostess and maintained a loving and pretty home. Throughout her life, too, she served as a volunteer with her children's school and band clubs, their 4-H clubs, local elementary reading programs, and other community programs. Together with Jim, she followed and cheered the Nebraska Cornhuskers' football, basketball and volleyball teams over the past 60 years and this brought them much enjoyment.

She is survived by their five children, Carol Graham Fleming (husband, Bill Fleming) of Omaha, Barbara Graham (husband, Dick Hollinger) of Lexington, Nebraska, Randall Graham (wife, Kathy Sue) of Omaha, Ronald Graham (wife, Patricia) of Sioux City, and, Kathleen Graham Poole (husband, Bruce Poole) of Hagerstown, Maryland; their nine grandchildren and their spouses, Jeff (wife, Megan), Dan (wife, Amy), Andrew (wife, Joanna), Michael and Kristine Graham, Colleen Graham Black (husband, Jeremy Black), Kerry and Kyle Fleming and Graham Poole; three great-grandchildren, Eric, Emma and Thomas Graham; and many nieces and nephews. She eagerly anticipated the upcoming births of two additional great-grandchildren.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Salem Lutheran Church, 1753 G Avenue, Dakota City. Graveside services will be 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in Graceland Park Cemetery. Visitation will be 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, with a prayer service at 7:30 p.m., at Becker-Hunt Funeral Home in South Sioux City. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to Salem Lutheran Church, 1753 G Avenue, Dakota City, Nebraska 68731.

Children of James Graham and Mary Ostmeyer are:

- + 5235 i. Carol¹⁰ Graham, born 22 Jul 1946.
- 5236 ii. Barbara Graham, born 07 Oct 1948. She married Richard L. (Dick) Hollinger; born 04 Dec 1943.

4108. Marilyn Mildred⁹ Graham (Royal Reid (Roy)⁸, Tillia Luella⁷ Bliven, Sarah Katherine⁶ Stormer, Levi⁵, Susan⁴ Seitz, twin, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 10 Oct 1924 in Dakota City, Dakota Co, Nebraska, and died 02 May 2010 in Des Moines, Polk Co, Iowa. She married Edwin Lester (Ted) Ebbert, Jr. 03 Jun 1954. He was born 29 Apr 1926 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania, and died 24 Aug 1994 in Atlanta, Fulton Co, Georgia.

Notes for Marilyn Mildred Graham:

Marilyn Ebbert was born October 10, 1924 in Dakota City, Nebraska, and died May 2, 2010 at Mercy Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa of a sudden illness.

Marilyn is survived by two daughters, Amy Lou Hill of Monroe, Georgia, and Rebecca Lynn Ladd of Des Moines; five grandchildren, Paul, Leah, Tell, Lucy and Brett; and four great grandchildren, Jacob, Cody, Rylie and Tabitha. She was preceded in death by her parents, Roy and Mildred Graham and her brother, Jim Graham all of Dakota County, Nebraska.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Iles Funeral Homes-Grandview Park Chapel in Des Moines. Funeral services will be 9:30 a.m. Friday at the funeral home. Graveside services will be 3:30 p.m. Friday at Graceland Park Cemetery, Sioux City, Iowa.

Marilyn Ebbert, 85, died May 2, 2010, at Mercy Hospital of a sudden illness. Marilyn was born on October 10, 1924, at the family, farm home in rural Dakota City, Nebraska, the daughter of Royal and Mildred Graham. She graduated from Central High School in Sioux City, Iowa. Following her graduation, at age 16, she taught at District 29 School in Waterbury, Nebraska, a one room school house with students ranging from kindergarten through 8th grade. After a while Marilyn decided to attend the University of Nebraska where she received a BA and MBA in Sociology.

Marilyn worked as a Recreation Director at the Lincoln State Hospital for seven years before she decided to work abroad. She worked as an Air Force Service Club Director in Tripoli, where she met Edwin "Ted" Lester Ebbert. They were married June 3, 1954, and lived in a villa in Taguira. Ted's pilot career moved them around before they settled in South Sioux City, Nebraska. After Marilyn and Edwin's divorce she and her two daughters moved to Sioux City, Iowa, where she worked as Executive Director at the Florence Crittenton Home for unwed mothers. After 25 years at Florence Crittenton she pursued a career in private, international adoptions. This provided her with magnificent traveling opportunities as she picked up and delivered bundles of joy to adoptive parents. In 2000 Marilyn retired and moved to Des Moines, Iowa, to be closer to her family.

She is survived by two daughters, Amy Lou Hill of Monroe, Georgia, and Rebecca Lynn Ladd of Des Moines, Iowa; five grandchildren, Paul Cale, Leah Mertz, Tell Shappley, Lucy Shappley and Brett Molden; and four great-grandchildren, Jacob, Cody, Rylie and Tabitha. She was preceded in death by her parents, Roy and Mildred Graham and her brother, Jim Graham, all of Dakota County, Nebraska.

He married Janet Doris Eslinger 1960. She was born 11 Mar 1938.

Notes for Hugh Richard Graham:

Hugh Richard "Dick" Graham was born in Sioux City, Iowa on July 28, 1938. He graduated from Central High School in Sioux City in 1956 and attended Yankton College, in Yankton, South Dakota, graduating in 1960 with a BA in English. He married Janet Doris Eslinger on June 6, 1960 in Yankton, South Dakota. Dick and Janet moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania after their marriage, where he attended graduate school at Temple University, while she taught music. Dick received an MA in 1963 and a PhD in 1966, both in English.

He taught English for 3 years at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio, where his first daughter, Eve Elizabeth, was born. He then became a Professor of English at Franklin College in Franklin, Indiana, where he taught for 35 years, retiring in 2001. His daughters Susan Marie and Sarah Anne were born in Franklin. Dick served in government as a member of the Franklin City Council and was an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Franklin, Indiana. He was a board member and committee chair for United Way of Johnson County, Indiana. After retiring, he moved to Asheville, North Carolina, where he was active in United Way, Habitat for Humanity, Rotary, and the First Presbyterian Church, among others. Dick left this life on January 15, 2021.

He is survived by his loving wife Janet; his three daughters and their spouses: Eve and Aaron McClennen, Susan Graham and Conrad Liles, and Sarah Graham and John Anderson; and his 3 grandchildren: Veronica Claire McClennen, Gillian Louise McClennen, and Graham Joel Anderson.

More About Hugh Graham and Janet Eslinger:

Marriage: 1960

Children of Hugh Graham and Janet Eslinger are:

- 5242 i. Eve Elizabeth¹⁰ Graham, born 21 Dec 1965 in Columbus, Franklin Co, Ohio. She married Aaron McClennen; born 12 Feb 1970.
- 5243 ii. Dr. Susan Marie Graham, born 20 May 1967. She married Dr. Wayne Conrad Liles.

Notes for Dr. Susan Marie Graham:

Dr. Susan M. Graham, MD MPH PhD, is an Associate Professor in Global Health and Medicine and an Adjunct Associate Professor in Epidemiology. Dr. Graham is also the Associate Chair for Academic Programs in the Department of Global Health at the University of Washington.

Dr. Graham trained as a clinical epidemiologist and conducts research on HIV prevention and care in the United States and in Kenya. She is a board-certified infectious diseases physician who sees patients at the UW Medical Center, Harborview Medical Center, and the UW Neighborhood Clinic in Olympia.

Dr. Graham earned her bachelor's degree from Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island and her MD from McGill University in Montreal, Quebec. She holds an MPH in Health Services from Boston University and a PhD in clinical epidemiology from the University of Toronto. Dr. Graham was an intern and resident in internal medicine at the Brigham & Women's Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts.

Notes for Dr. Wayne Conrad Liles:

Both Dr. W. Conrad Liles '80 and his wife, Dr. Susan M. Graham have been on-call to help Covid-19 patients in the Pacific Northwest by communicating remotely with nurses, physicians, and public health officials. In addition, both Conrad and Susan provide clinical care to individuals with severe Covid-19 at the University of Washington Medical Center and Harborview Medical Center in Seattle, Washington. As physician-scientists, Conrad and Susan see patients, in addition to their research, administrative, and educational activities. Both are board-certified infectious disease physicians. Conrad concentrates on translational laboratory-research in sepsis and critical illness, while Susan conducts epidemiology-based research on HIV infection in sub-Saharan Africa. Having grown up in rural Kentucky, Conrad wants to create opportunities for future Ephs from rural parts of the US. In this spirit, he and Susan have planned for a bequest from their estate to fund a scholarship to support these students. The W. Conrad Liles 1980 and Susan M. Graham Scholarship will give students who might not normally consider Williams as an option the opportunity to live and learn in the Purple Valley and launch their own careers. Williams is grateful for the many ways in which Conrad gives back to the Eph community. In March 2021 he will participate in one of our virtual "How'd You Get There" events, part of a series that gives students (and alumni) an example of how to forge a path in diverse fields.

Dr. W. Conrad Liles returned to the University of Washington in 2012 from the University of Toronto, where he was Vice-Chair and Professor of Medicine, Director of the Division of Infectious Diseases, and the Canada Research Chair in Infectious Diseases and Inflammation. In addition to his duties as Professor and Associate Chair, Dr. Liles serves as Co-Director of the Molecular Medicine Training Program at the University of Washington.

Notes for Deborah Ann (Debra) Luft:

Debra Ann Kilberg, 61, of Gainesville, Florida passed away on Monday, March 16, 2015 after a battle with cancer. She is survived by Michael, her husband of 44 years, two sons, and a daughter: Troy of Jacksonville, Florida, Derek of Northfield, Ohio, and Jennica of Gainesville, Florida. Her three grandchildren, Justin, Rylan, and Nathan, were the joy of her life.

Debra was a wonderful mother and loving wife who always put her family first. She maintained beautifully landscaped gardens and koi ponds that were enjoyed by hundreds of people who attended garden tours at her home. Decorating her home for holidays was a passion that was shared with family and friends. She was also an avid sports fan and was devoted to Gator football, basketball, volleyball, and baseball, rarely missing home games for these sports. When not gardening or at a sporting event, she loved walking the beach and collecting shells.

Notes for Michael Steven Kilberg:

Professor Michael S. Kilberg earned his Ph.D. in biochemistry and molecular biology from the University of South Dakota, 1977.

. He did post-doctoral studies at the University of Michigan, before joining the faculty at UF. He has written numerous reviews, organized several symposia, and written multiple chapters for both the Annual Review of Nutrition and the Annual Review of Biochemistry. Dr. Kilberg has served three terms on the Editorial Board of the Journal of Biological Chemistry. Dr. Kilberg has received the University of Florida Doctoral Advisor/Mentoring Award, the College of Medicine Faculty Research Award, and a University of Florida Research Foundation Professorship.

We are investigating transcriptional and epigenetic regulation of human genes in response to protein or amino acid limitation, a stress that activates multiple signaling pathways collectively referred to as the Amino Acid Response (AAR). Genomic analysis of the human genes for asparagine synthetase (ASNS), activating transcription factor 3 (ATF3), and cJUN, has allowed us to characterize these AAR signaling pathways, the genomic cis-acting sequences that act as amino acid response elements (AARE), the corresponding AARE-associated transcription factors, the assembly mechanisms of the general transcriptional machinery, and the epigenetic changes within the target genes. The results have led us to focus on the genomic control of the genes for the nutrient-responsive transcription factors themselves, to understand the mechanisms for “regulation of the regulators.” Principle among these are the transcription factors ATF4, ATF3, C/EBPs, and cJUN/cFOS. Whereas induction of ATF4, a “master regulator of nutrient and ER stress” appears to occur ubiquitously, activation of an amino acid-responsive signaling pathway involving the JUN/FOS transcription factor family is preferentially activated in certain transformed cells. Deciphering the sensors for amino acid availability in tumor cells, identifying new signaling pathways, and characterizing the downstream target genes are current areas of interest.

4257. Karen Anne⁹ Marculescu (Annie Marjorie⁸ Marbourg, Edgar Foster⁷, Edgar Marcella⁶, Hezekiah Wilson⁵, Eva Lydia⁴ Sides, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 01 Apr 1947. She married Theodore Paul (Ted) Hammond. He was born 02 May 1947, and died 06 Mar 2013 in San Marino, California.

Notes for Theodore Paul (Ted) Hammond:

Paul Theodore Hammond, 65 years old of San Marino, California passed away with his family surrounding him on the morning of March 6, 2013. Ted Hammond was born on May 2, 1947 in Pasadena. He grew up in San Marino, California and attended Carver Elementary, Huntington Junior High and San Marino High School. He attended DePauw University and graduated Cum Laude with his BS from USC. He went on to receive his Juris Doctorate Degree from USC Law Center.

Ted Hammond's life was truly lived to the very fullest. He had a zest for life that was fulfilled in his love for family, friends, and the practice of law. Teddy's first love was his strongest and longest lasting. He fell in love at 15 with his wife and best friend Karen Marculescu. After receiving his law degree from USC, he focused his passion for law in the field of medical malpractice both as a trial attorney and most recently as an arbiter. He loved his work and taught us all to love and have passion in everything we do.

His ultimate love was his family and friends. He is survived by his sister Sharon Boultinghouse, three children Rob Hammond (Nicole Bieggar), Courtney Negrevski (Eric Negrevski) and James Hammond (Sarah Hamill) and grandchildren Lauren, Colby, Alex, Nick, and Ryan. He taught us to live, love and laugh. Ted never held back his infectious smile making everyone in the room, on the beach, or on the golf course feel all of his love. Teddy always said, "Memories are made." They are made on great trips, around the fire pit, on the boat or simply when great friends surround you.

How fortunate we all are to have known and loved such a special man who, in too short a life, lived more fully, loved more deeply and laughed more often than anyone we have ever known. We are so much richer for having Teddy in our lives. He will continue to be a model for us all, and we will make him proud of the lessons we learned from him. We will dance in the rain and dance wherever and whenever knowing in our hearts that's what Teddy would want us all to do.

Ted enjoyed his involvement in the community and was a member of Annandale Country Club, Fourth of July Yacht Club, Pasadena Breakfast Forum, Huntington H.E.A.R.T., The Twilight Club and many others. He loved giving back to society and participating actively in each of these organizations. In Lieu of flowers please give the gift of life in memory of Ted Hammond to USC Cardio Vascular Thoracic Institute; 1975 Zonal Ave. KAM 300 Los Angeles, California 90089 or The Pasadena Guild of Children's Hospital P.O. BOX 51101 Pasadena, California 91115. There will be a celebration of his life, held at San Marino Community Church on Tuesday March 12 at 3:30 p.m. Cabot and Sons Funeral Directors.

He married Michelle Price.

Notes for Dwight Robert (Doc) Hollingsworth:

Dwight Robert Hollingsworth, 62, of Johnstown, commonly known as "Doc," died Friday, July 26, 2013, at home. Born April 19, 1951, in Indiana, Pennsylvania, he was a son of late Gordon and Betty (Campbell) Hollingsworth. He also was preceded in death by his sister, Gloria Kay Willinger. Doc had special relationships with many friends and family members. He especially cherished his relationship with his little sister, "Kay Kay." Doc was a kind-hearted, selfless person, who would generously help anyone in need. For more than 35 years, he had lived and worked as a sheet metal worker in San Diego, California. He had just recently returned to the Johnstown area to be closer to his family. An avid NASCAR and Steelers fan, Doc enjoyed the challenge of the 7 o'clock "Jeopardy" show; he also enjoyed fishing and boating. Doc was a free spirit, who attended Woodstock, and continued to enjoy the music of that era.

Survivors include his loving daughter, Lisa Kay Sarver, formerly of Johnstown, and Garry Sarver and family; his brothers, Gordon and wife, Linda (Rowland), of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and Alan and wife, Vicki (Young), of Seward; brother-in-law, Mike Willinger, of Seward; nieces and nephews, Dawn Ryan, Shannon Ryan, Lyndee Van, Heidi Hollingsworth and Ross Hollingsworth and their families; several aunts, uncles and cousins; special friend, Donna Marie Ferrier; and former wife and lifelong friend, Michelle Price.

At Doc's request, there was no viewing. Friends and family were all invited to a gravesite memorial service at 4 p.m. Wednesday. Inurnment was at Armagh Cemetery. Arrangements have been entrusted to Richard C. Stuart Funeral Home, Armagh.

Children of Dwight Hollingsworth and Michelle Price are:

- 5331 i. Lisa Kay¹⁰ Hollingsworth, born 12 May 1973.
- 5332 ii. Garry Sarver, born 18 Mar 1972.

She married Michael J. Willinger 2001. He was born 01 Feb 1956.

Notes for Gloria Kay Hollingsworth:

Gloria Kay Willinger, 60, Seward, went to be with the Lord July 18, 2012, at home. Born Feb. 26, 1952, in Indiana, Pennsylvania, daughter of Gordon and Betty (Campbell) Hollingsworth. Preceded in death by parents. Survived by loving husband, Michael J. Willinger. Death breaks marriage union of 11 years in November. Also survived by loving daughters, Dawn Ryan, Martinsville, New Jersey; Shannon Ryan, married to Navin Nayak, Washington, D.C.; and Lindee, married to Stephen Van, Purcellville, Virginia; granddaughters, Brianna and Emily Van; brothers, Gordon, and wife, Linda (Rolland), Brush Valley; Dwight "Doc," Johnstown; and Alan, and wife, Vicki (Young), Seward; nieces, Lisa Kay Sarver and Heidi Hollingsworth; and nephew, Ross Hollingsworth.

Member of Seward United Methodist Church. Air Force veteran from 1973 to 1980, having served toward England, Germany, as a Russian linguist, and Alaska. She was in the Alaska Air National Guard from 1981 to 1984. She was employed by Social Security Administration-Johnstown from 1988 to present as a lead case technician. She was known to everyone as Kay. She enjoyed traveling, motorcycle riding and Friday Night Dates with two very dear friends. Her daughters were the joy of her life and her granddaughters, Brianna and Emily, had a special place in gram's heart. She found happiness in the small things in life.

At Kay's request, there will be no viewing or visitation. Friends and family are invited to attend an interment service at 10 a.m. Monday, July 30, at Armagh Cemetery, the Rev. Scott Hamley, officiating. Donations in Kay's name may be made to Seward United Methodist Church or American Cancer Society. The family would like to thank Conemaugh Home Health Care and Medi Home Health.

Marriage Notes for William Anstine and Gloria Gohn:

Miss Gloria Sandra Gohn, 581 West Philadelphia Street, daughter of Mr. Charlotte Gohn 20 East Eighth Avenue. became the bride of Gunners Mate Second Class William LeGrange Anstine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton F. Anstine, Glen Rock, this afternoon Jan. 19, 1946 at 4:30 o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed in Emmanuel Evangelical church, Glen Rock, by the Rev. Ivan P. Moyer, pastor.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Walter N. Burke wore a white gown with fitted satin bodice, yoke insert of net, leg of mutton sleeves and full net skirt ending in a circular train. Her finger length veil of net was fastened with orange blossom. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and roses tied with satin streamers. The matron of honor was Mrs. Richard DeLancey. Her gown was blue, fashioned with a fitted satin bodice, three quarter length sleeve and full net skirt. Misses Gerry Gross, Lois Geesey, June Moffatt and Jan McCleary served as bridesmaids. They were gowned alike, Miss Gross and Miss Moffatt in pink and Miss Geesey and Miss McCleary in blue. Their dresses were fashioned with fitted satin bodices, short puff sleeves, sweetheart necklines and peplums over full net skirts. On their hair they wore bandeaux of white flowers. All of the attendants carried arm bouquets of mixed white flowers tied with streamers to match their gowns. Miss Joyce Johnson, flower girl, was attired in a short dress of pink taffeta. She carried a small basket of mixed white flowers tied with a pink bow matching the bow in her hair. Harry Trout was best man. The ushers were Bruce Smith, both uncles of the bridegroom Alvin Krebs and Roger Smith.

While the guests were assembling Mrs. Beulah Frock, organist, played "Liebestraum" (Liszt), "Indian Love Call" (Friml), "Tree" (Kilmer) and "Claire de Lune" (Debussy). The soloist, Mrs. Roy L. Geesey, sang "O Promise Me" (deKoven), "Because" (d'Hardelot) and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults). The bride's mother wore a black dress and accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The mother of bridegroom chose a similar costume and corsage. Both the bride and bridegroom presented their attendants with jewelry.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social rooms. The tables were decorated with mixed flowers. On the bridal table was a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. After the reception the couple will leave on a wedding trip to New York city. For traveling the bride has selected a grey wool dress, black accessories and a corsage of pink camellias. The bride is a graduate of William Penn Senior High school, class of 1942. Since that time, she has been employed by the Service Supply company. Petty officer Anstine was graduated from the Glen Rock High school in 1942 and for the past three and one-half years has been serving with the U.S. navy. He recently returned from the South Pacific. On Feb. 8 he will report to the Philadelphia Naval base for further duty. Wednesday evening, following the wedding rehearsal, Mrs. Beulah Frock entertained for the wedding party at the Pine Tree Inn.

4323. Dean Arthur⁹ Flinchbaugh (Gordon Wise⁸, Jerome⁷, Sarah Ann⁶ Seitz, John Adam⁵, Adam⁴, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 22 Jun 1940. He married Ruth Ann Smith 09 Jun 1962 in Spry, York Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of Lloyd Smith and Dorcas Shearer. She was born 20 Mar 1940 in York, York Co, Pennsylvania.

Marriage Notes for Dean Flinchbaugh and Ruth Smith:

Spry - The wedding of Ruth Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Smith, York RD 2, near here, and Dean Arthur Flinchbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Flinchbaugh. 413 West Main Street, Dallastown, was solemnized Saturday evening June 9, 1962 at 7 o'clock. Rev. Roger E. Keech, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in Otterbein EUB church, Spry, in a candlelight setting of palms. Rev. Dr. Paul E. Copper, pastor of Bethlehem EUB church, Dallastown, assisted.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of silk and Alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a scoop neckline appliqued in lace which also trimmed both sides of the bodice and capped the shoulders. The long sleeves came to point over her hands. Ending in a chapel train, the full skirt of pleats also had lace appliques on both sides. A bouffant veil of illusion was attached to the bride's headdress a silk rose. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rose and baby's breath accented the glitter on the foliage.

Elizabeth Gross, York RD 2, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Joyce Smith, York RD 2, a cousin of the bride; Barbara Kohler, Red Lion RD 3; Mrs. Jo. Ann Hershner, Stewartstown RD 2, and Mrs. Carlyn Dentler, State College. Wendy Sharnetzka, Jacobus, the bride's cousin, was the flower girl. Adult attendants wore floor-length gowns of ice blue taffeta with scooped necklines and fitted bodices. Their backs were accented by bows. The headdresses were bows of matching material with chin-length veils and they carried cascades of red roses. The flower girl's dress was fashioned similarly to those of the senior attendants. She carried a nosegay of red garnet roses. Mrs. Smith wore for her daughter's marriage a light blue silk sheath with lace and pearl appliques. The bridegroom's mother chose a light blue sheath of imported linen with white embroidered flowers. Both mothers had white accessories and wore white cymbidium corsages. Gary Cronrath, Watsonstown, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Lloyd Smith, York RD 2, the bride's brother; Eugene Smith, York RD 2, cousin of the bride; William Workinger, Bloomfield, New Jersey, the bridegroom's cousin, and Ronald Dentler, State College. Susan Smith, York RD 2, a cousin of the bride, sang "Until," "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony, "Wedding Prayer." Larry Cisney, McConnellsburg, a college classmate of the bridegroom, served as organist. He played "Blest Be the Tie," "Traumerei," "Evening Star," "O Perfect Love" and the traditional wedding marches.

Approximately 200 guests attended the reception in the social room of Jacobus fire hall following the ceremony. After a one-week wedding trip to the Pocono mountains, the couple will reside at 232 West Packer Avenue, Bethlehem. Both principals were members of the 1958 graduating class at Dallastown Area High school. The bride was graduated from York Hospital School of Nursing in 1961 and has been employed as a staff nurse at York hospital. She now will assume a similar position at St. Luke's hospital, Bethlehem. The bridegroom received his bachelor of science degree in chemistry June 3 at Lebanon Valley College's commencement exercises. He will begin graduate studies in chemistry next fall at Lehigh university.

Susanna⁵ Walbeck, Elisabeth⁴ Seitz, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 23 Mar 1920 in Pitcairn, Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania, and died 09 Aug 2005. He married (1) Clare Mary Olshefski 03 Apr 1944 in Middletown, Dauphin Co, Pennsylvania. She was born 01 Jul 1924 in Mt. Carmel, Northumberland Co, Pennsylvania, and died 21 May 2016 in Burlington, Alamance Co, North Carolina. He married (2) Mildred Deimler 1949. She was born 29 Nov 1929.

Notes for Lloyd Edgar (Jess) Lichtenfels:

Lloyd "Jess" Lichtenfels passed away quietly at home in York Springs surrounded by his family on Tuesday, August 9, 2005. He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Mildred (Deimler); daughter, Deborah Keammerer and husband, Richard of Summerdale; son, Frederick and wife, Sheri of Waltham, Vermont; daughter, Laura Davis and husband, Ned of York; sisters, Evelyn Ankney and husband, Dale of Pitcairn, and Dorothy Sinclair of San Antonio, Texas; brother, James Lichtenfels of Southhampton; sister, Elaine McMaster of Pitcairn; grandchildren, Capt. Matthew Harnly and wife, Tara of Ellsworth AFB, S.D., Fred Lichtenfels of Manchester, Vermont, Kristin Lichtenfels of Hinesburg, Vermont, Natalie and Timothy Davis of York; and many nieces and nephews.

Lloyd was born March 23, 1920, in Pitcairn, the eldest son of the late Frederick and Laura Belle (Luther) Lichtenfels. He graduated from Pitcairn High School (class of 38). He served during WWII in the 84th Infantry "Railsplitters" Division, fought in the Battle of the Bulge and received a Bronze Star and a Purple Heart. Following an honorable discharge from the Army in 1946, Lloyd moved to Middletown where he worked at Olmsted Air Force Base and met his future wife. He and Mildred were married in 1949 and lived in Londonderry Township. He retired from the Air Base in 1968 and went to work for Caterpillar Tractor in York. In 1972, Jess, as he was known to his many friends, moved to York Springs. He retired from Caterpillar in 1983. During retirement Jess enjoyed farming and many other hobbies and activities. He loved singing with the Hanover Standardbred Barber Shop Chorus and participated in many "singouts" and shows. He was an Amateur Radio operator (W3LEL) and took great pleasure in hamming. He was a familiar call sign every morning on the "OldGoats" net, and also volunteered his time with the Adams County RACES emergency communications organization. Jess was an active member of the York Springs United Methodist Church, and his voice joined those of the Choir every Sunday he could. Like most World War II veterans, Jess loved his country and was very proud of his military service. He regularly attended reunions of the 84th Infantry Division, the Railsplitters. Above all else, Jess was a loving husband, father and grandfather and touched all who knew him with his kindness and sense of humor.

Funeral arrangements will be handled by Cocklin Funeral Home, Inc., Dillsburg. Calling hours will be Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. at his church, York Springs United Methodist Church, 810 Trolley Road. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. on Friday at the church. 4434. James Luther⁹ Lichtenfels (Frederick Lloyd⁸, Isaiah Clinton⁷, Margaret⁶ Brendlinger, Susanna⁵ Walbeck, Elisabeth⁴ Seitz, Johann Matthew³, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 05 Jul 1927 in Pitcairn, Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania, and died 30 May 2020 in Warminster, Pennsylvania. He married Joan McClain.

Notes for James Luther Lichtenfels:

James Luther Lichtenfels (Jim) was born July 5, 1927 to Laura Bell and Frederick L. Lichtenfels in Pitcairn, Pennsylvania. He died May 30, 2020 at his home with his three daughters by his side. Jim was predeceased by his wife of 42 years Joan (nee McClain) and siblings Lloyd (Mildred), Evelyn Ankney (Dale), Laura Jean, and Dorothy Sinclair (Fred). He is survived by his sister Elaine McMasters (John deceased), daughters Susan Pidany (Wayne), Jayne Kramer, Kathy Banfield (Mark), and grandchildren Austin Banfield, Alexis Pidany, and Amanda Banfield. Jim is also predeceased by his longtime companion Evelyn Wardell.

Jim graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1949. He served in the Signal Corp for the Army during the Korean War. After an honorable discharge, he worked as an electrical engineer for the Naval Air Development Center at Johnsville for 33 years. Jim appreciated that his retirement lasted longer than his employment years.

Jim was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He had an impish nature that he maintained even through the mature age of 92. He enjoyed bowling, square dancing, conversing over CB radio, and "paper punching" with his large assortment of "toys." Friends and family will always remember his sense of humor, laid-back attitude, and his eclectic "inventions." He was an engineer through and through and truly enjoyed life. As he reflected upon his life he stated, "I had a good run."

Due to the current circumstances and based on his wishes there will be a private memorial held in the Pitcairn area at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations in Jim's memory can be made to the Cancer Research Institute.

Notes for Mitzi Walbeck:

Jan. 29, 1953 - In a race with the stork to Lee Hospital, Johnstown, a Robinson mother was the loser by about 11 miles early yesterday morning. With an assist from four persons, she and the new-born baby arrived safe and sound at the institution. Mrs. Charles Walbeck was enroute to the hospital in a car driven by a neighbor, Fred Penrose and an aunt of her husband, Mrs. Florence Walbeck, also of Robinson. As the car sped through Seward, the baby, a six-pound, 4-ounce, daughter, was born. Mrs. Florence used her knowledge to insure safe delivery of the child. Penrose, the driver, noticed a Johnstown police cruiser car at the city line and requested their assistance in making a quick trip to the hospital. The escort was provided. Mrs. Walbeck and baby are reported as doing fine.

4554. James H.¹⁰ Camarena (Marilyn Margaret⁹ Jones, Eugene Melvin⁸, Milo M.⁷, Amanda Eleanor⁶ Sides, John⁵, Adam⁴, Adam (Sides)³ Seitz, Johann Joseph², Johannes¹) was born 02 Jul 1970 in Solano Co, California. He married Julie ?.

Notes for James H. Camarena:

January 11, 2009 - Major James Camarena has become an international traveler like his younger sister Jill. While she recently competed in the shotput in the Olympics in Beijing, he has returned home from a six-month tour in Baghdad, working with NATO operations. An Air Force Academy graduate, the major has spent 17 years in the U.S. military, mostly in the states. He has been relocated to Langley AFB near Yorktown, Virginia. Like his sister, he broke the Woodland High School weight records, putting the shot 56 feet, 4 inches and hurling the discus 160 feet, 10 inches in 1988. "I was hoping they'd last about 30 years like Lou Fisher, but they only lasted about 10 years," he jokes. Then again, he made his achievements without the benefit of a weights coach, like so many enjoyed under Rob Rathbun. In the latter era, the Wolves' weight records were shattered, attested by Jon Newell and Jill making United States teams. James threw the discus indoors one year at the academy and played football for two.

Now he specializes in satellite operations, which has included stints in North Dakota, Colorado Springs and Southern California prior to the International Zone in Iraq. He served with the Chief of Logistics, which handles infrastructure. "It was really different," he says. "It was hot and dry. Las Vegas comes to mind. Where I was, people dressed western. For the most part, they are no different than us. They want good schools, clean water and good neighborhoods." Then again, he nonchalantly mentions the day a bullet came through the roof of his hooch and landed inches from his foot. He points to the national news coverage as not reflective of everyday living. "On the news, you always see the car bombings. That's such a small part. In certain areas, there are no differences from here." One deviation was a trip to Sulamaniya, a Kurdish region in northern Iraq. "They have a regional government, and it's a whole different world. They were very friendly to us. There were no power outages. They had lights on all the Christmas trees. It was really colorful." Upon his arrival there, he recalls being greeted with looks like, "You're not going to wear that (weapons and body armor) in public." In Baghdad, he stayed in the IZ where he found much of the day-to-day living normal.

"When you fly over some of the neighborhoods in a helicopter, the houses will have flat roofs and yards of green grass. The other neat thing was being among a multinational force. There were a lot of other countries and you found out about their mindsets and their military." From his experience there, he believes progress is being made, more so than is believed in the U.S. "Things are getting better, but it seems like Americans are impatient. It'll take like a generational change. I have no idea how long we'll be there. The Iraqi government is making strides. I do think that once the Iraqi government gets to a comfort level, they will probably ask us to leave. When that is, I don't know."

One problem, he notes, is the area having so many regional forces, which adds to the challenge of unity. "There are groups that do not want them to succeed. I do know the average person with a family, like in America, wants to be left alone to take care of their family. Like the car bombings there, we have problems here too. There's a lot of people over there doing great."

Iraqi Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki frequently visited his area for high-level meetings. "I would have liked to have been in those meetings and heard the long-term plans for the country, but I wouldn't have understood." He doesn't speak Arabic. In retrospect, he sees ample progress. "Every plan has bumps and quirks, but we're moving forward."

James and wife Julie have three children, sophomore Tyler, eighth-grader Drew and fifth-grader Kelli. "She looks very similar to Jill," he says of Kelli. "She's my softball player." His only regret for his deployment in Iraq was being unable to attend his boys' football games.

Jill Update – After making the Olympic finals in the shotput, Jill Camarena has returned to Utah and is attending Brigham Young University. She is hopeful of completing her studies in about 18 months and become a college track coach. She continues to rehab from back surgery last March and has cut back her competition schedule. Training has been challenging since her coach, Craig Carter, remains at the University of Arizona, where she previously resided. "I have been rebuilding my strength base," she says. "I'm getting back into lifting, but I'm taking it slow. It's been really good. I'll just focus on outdoors." She admits to some technical problems in continuing her adaptation to spinning, being located so far from her coach.

"I've been going pretty good on my own." In the past, she worked part-time in a U.S. Track and Field program with Home Depot, but the latter is in the process of ending that work for athletes to supplement their incomes. "That was a great program. It helped a lot of athletes in a lot of sports. Hopefully, the USATF can find another program like it." At BYU, she has been able to teach three activity classes. In the meantime, she is pointing toward a fifth straight national indoor championship at the U.S. Indoor Championship in Boston in late February.

She was born 20 May 1964. He married (2) Miriam Anna Savino. She was born 26 Oct 1965, and died 24 Dec 2016.

Notes for Miriam Anna Savino:

Lake Wales, Florida – Polk County Sheriff's Office detectives are currently conducting a deputy involved shooting at 7342 Hastings Road in Lake Wales. No deputies were injured. The suspect, 53-year-old Miriam Ann Savino was air lifted to Osceola Regional Medical Center where she succumbed to her injury. At 1:32 pm, on Saturday, December 24, 2016, Savino call 911 requesting help for her son then hung up. Emergency Communications attempted to call Savino back three times and the phone went to voice mail each time.

During the attempts to call Savino back, she called 911 again and told the call taker her son was in the hospital and that it was "a matter of life or death." 26-year-old Deputy David Lockard responded to the Hastings Road residence at 1:42 pm and found no medical emergency. He canceled EMS prior to their arrival. Savino then pulled a knife on Deputy Lockard. Fearing for his life, he fired his agency issued weapon.

At 1:47 pm, Deputy Lockard reported to dispatch that shots were fired. After stopping the threat to his life, Deputy Lockard began administering first aid until EMS arrived. Savino was air lifted to ORMC where she died. Per standard PCSO protocol, Deputy Lockard has been placed on paid administrative leave pending the outcome of several simultaneous investigations.

There are four independent investigations ongoing at this time: an investigation into the shooting conducted by PCSO Criminal Investigation detectives; a PCSO Administrative Investigation, an investigation by the State Attorney's Office, and a Medical Examiner's Office examination will be conducted.

Deputy Lockard was hired in November 2011. He is assigned to the Southeast District as a patrol deputy. Savino has been in the Polk County jail 5 times, 2004, 2005, 2010, 2014, and 2015, during each incident, Savino was charged with Battery among other charges. Savino was arrested in August 2010 charged with 2 counts of Resisting Officer with Violence, Aggravated Battery on LEO, Battery Domestic Violence, and Battery on LEO.

During this incident two PCSO deputies responded to an unconfirmed emergency at Savino's Winter Haven residence. Upon their arrival, Savino came to the door and deputies heard a male yelling for help. Savino then attempted to shut the door. Deputies attempted to apprehend Savino but during the altercation, Savino kicked both deputies and hit them with a closed fist numerous times. After Savino was taken into custody, deputies learned the male victim, a live-in boyfriend, had called 911 after Savino had hit, kicked, and bitten the victim while he lay in bed recovering from a medical procedure. The investigation ongoing.

Notes for Kevin Grant Bowser:

Kevin G. Bowser, age 55, of Moorhead, Minnesota, died Thursday, July 15, 2010, in Bethesda Hospital, St. Paul, Minnesota. Kevin Grant Bowser was born on January 29, 1955, to Lawrence Sr. and Ferne Francis Bowser in Fullerton, California. He grew up and attended school in California and Idaho. In 1982, he was married in Dilworth, Minnesota, to the mother of Leea and Nathan and later moved to Moorhead, where he has resided since. Before Kevin became disabled, he was a man of many trades; he drove truck, school bus and was a painter amongst many other things. Kevin had a great passion for music as well as history. He personally met several music artists including Queen, REO Speedwagon, Styx, Steven Tyler, Getty Lee and others. He was a devoted collector of many things, from movie posters to music videos. He loved sports, above all, he loved basketball and he stood by the Los Angeles Lakers to the end. He was a devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and has served in many capacities in the church. He enjoyed working and teaching with the missionaries of the church throughout his years in Fargo/Moorhead and became close friends with many of them.

He is survived by two children, Leea and Nathan Bowser, both of Moorhead, Minnesota; three brothers, Kreig Bowser, Bruce Bowser and Lawrence Cherie Bowser all of California; and one sister, Shauna Hal Garner of Idaho. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lawrence Sr. and Ferne Bowser and one brother, Mark Bowser.

Notes for Karen Marie O'Shell:

Karen M. (O'Shell) Campbell, age 65, of Cranberry Twp., formerly of Duquesne, Pennsylvania, passed away after a 12-month battle with Metastatic Breast Cancer on October 25, 2019. Karen is survived by: beloved daughter, Ashley Nicole Campbell (Matt Moses); cherished granddaughter Hadley Nicole Moses; her loving sister Cathy (Craig) Goodwill and brother Wallace (Mary) O'Shell, as well as her nephew, Scott (Dawn) Butler, and many friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Herbert and Lois O'Shell.

Karen was a proud graduate of Duquesne High School Class of 1972. She was a Senior Tax Preparer for H&R Block, where she celebrated 41 years of service. Her claim to fame was never filing an extension in all of those years. Karen was a landlord for 20 years and she cherished her tenants, treating them like family. A Special Thank You to Andy Guntrum, her handyman, for all his years of service which meant the world to her. Karen was a 10-year volunteer with Exceptional Adventures and she enjoyed spending each New Year's Eve with her special group. The Salvation Army also held a special place in her heart. Karen enjoyed her home away from home in Rolling Greens Village, Ocala, Florida, and taking trips with her best friend of 55 years, Donna Rohach.

Visitation will be held on Monday, October 28 from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 pm at the Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, Inc., 301 Curry Hollow Rd., Pleasant Hills, 15236. A funeral service will be held at 11 am, Tuesday, October 29, in the funeral home. Interment in Jefferson Memorial Park.

Notes for Carlin Richard Rhine:

Carlin Richard (Dick) Rhine 82, passed away at his home April 21, 2023. He is survived by his loving wife Jean (Bowman). Dick was born August 29, 1940, in Lebanon; the son of J. Carlin and Mary (Hamilton)Rhine. He was preceded in death by brother Robert Rhine. In addition to his wife, surviving family members include Tina Rhine of Dallastown, Kathy (Dennis) Westhafer of Ventnor NJ, Josie (Tom) Flory of Red Lion, and Jim Miller of Cleona in addition to 7 grandchildren, Brent (Molly) Watkins, Travis (Kelsey) Flory, Tyler Flory (Nikki), Tasha (Carl) Barcikowski, Briona Stark (Chad), Tate Rebert (Lauren), and Ryan (Katie) Westhafer. He was blessed with 14 great grandchildren.

Dick graduated from Annville-Cleona High School in 1958, Lebanon Valley College 1962, and Shippensburg College in 1968. He received his administrator's certificate from Western Maryland College. Red Lion Senior High School is where Dick called home for 33 years of his professional life. Teaching Social Studies for 12 years, then becoming assistant principal for 16 years and principal for 5 years. After retirement, his commitment to Red Lion brought him back to the Junior High as an interim assistant principal. His passion for education took him to York College, teaching and working with student teachers.

Born a natural athlete, he participated in baseball, track, and basketball in high school and basketball in college. His love for basketball led him to be the head coach of the boys' basketball team at Red Lion and later became a PIAA basketball official. On Saturdays you could hear him announcing the football games at Horn Field. Dick was an active member of Grace Lutheran Church in Red Lion. His faith led him to become church council president, a member of the choir, Sunday school teacher and superintendent, an instructor for the catechism class, and assistant minister. He also served on various call committees and was chairman of the building committee.

In retirement, his love for music extended into membership in the Hershey Community Chorus, often as a soloist. He was a member of the Annville High School Alumni Association, serving in various capacities, he chaired the Red Lion Senior High's retired employees' group and on election day, you could find him at the polls working for West Donegal Township. He was an avid golfer, playing with many groups of friends and worked as a ranger and starter at Cool Creek Country Club. "Gramps" biggest joy in life was spending time with his family. Whether it was a birthday celebration or a trip to the beach, his smile said it all. You could find him cheering on his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren at their sporting or livestock events. Dick Rhine was born a leader. His compassion for others earned him the utmost respect of those who passed through his life.

Visitation will be 6-8PM on Friday, April 28, 2023 at Kreamer Funeral Home, 618 East Main Street, Annville, Pennsylvania and also Saturday April 29, 2023 from 9-12 at Grace Lutheran Church, 220 North Charles Street, Red Lion with a memorial service beginning at 12:00. - 5873 ii. Joni Lynn Lichtenfels, born Aft. 1955. She married James Michael Melnick Jun 1979; born Aft. 1951.

Marriage Notes for Joni Lichtenfels and James Melnick:

June 21, 1979 - Joni Lynn Lichtenfels and James Michael Melnick were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony in SS Simon & Jude Roman Catholic Church, Blairsville. The Rev. Fr. Michael Matusak celebrated the afternoon Nuptial Mass. Organist Barbara Soltesz and soloist, Cecilia Henigin, performed the following musical selections "Morning Has Broken," "Wedding Song," "Love One Another," "Our Father," "Ave Maria."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Lichtenfels of Blairsville RD 4 and Mr. and Mrs. Metro Melnick of Blairsville. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a full-length gown of white clava jersey and Venice lace with a scoop neckline edged in Venice lace trim. The bodice was accented with Venice foral lace that flowed to the lifted waistline. Long slender sleeves had sheer organza over the shoulder and enhanced the Dark yoke with venire lace trim. Venice lace was used again on the edge of the sleeve. The softly flowing skirt had a chapel length train edged with Venice lace. Her elbow length veil of bridal illusion with venice lace trim was caught in a band cap covered with venice lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations mixed with miniature pink and white carnations, pink silk rosebuds, baby's breath and ferns with white satin ribbon streamers.

Bonnie Bennett of Punxsutawney, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full length, sleeveless, peasant-style polyester knit gown in light pink with dusty rose floral design. The blouson bodice had a self-tying bow at the waist. A ruffle decorated the gathered neckline and bordered the hem of the skirt. She also wore a semi-sheer pink picture hat with matching floral band gathered in the back with a tight pink silk rose. She carried a natural wicker basket of light pink and dark pink carnations mixed with baby's breath and ferns with pink and white satin ribbon streamers. Bridesmaids were Lu Ann Morris of Fairchance, Barbara Arlia of Weirton, West Virginia; Donna Hoffman of Vandergrift, all friends of the bride, and Teresa Libengood of Greensburg, cousin of the bride. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor. Best man was Michael Paouncic of Blairsville, friend of the groom. Ushers were Allen Melnick, brother of the groom, Timothy Lichtenfels, brother of the bride, Robert Lasinski, friend of the groom, and Alan Lichtenfels, brother of the bride. All of Blairsville.

A buffet dinner reception in the Sokol Club in Blairsville followed the ceremony. Music was provided by the Jet Tones. The bride is a 1974 graduate of Blairsville High School and a graduate of Bradford School of Business in Pittsburgh. She is employed by the Mine Safety & Health Administration in Indiana. The groom is also a 1974 graduate of Blairsville High School and is employed by Iselin Preparation Plant Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada and the New York area the couple is residing in Indiana

He married Jeannie Mox, daughter of Frankin Mox and Imogene Slattery. She was born 1954.

Notes for Mark Alan Hellmann:

Mark Hellmann and his wife Jeannie retired to Wilmington almost three years ago after serving two Lutheran churches in Michigan and Minnesota as a pastor and frequently as a musician. Music and church have always been a part of Mark's life. He started piano lessons at five years old and continued through high school and on to Wheaton College where he majored in music with a concentration in organ. Since church was an important part of his family life, he often played for church services. One of his favorite memories was the regular practice of being handed a list of hymns titles with nothing but a key signature 15 minutes before a service began with the expectation he could sit down and play them. (Those were the most prayerful musical moments in his life!)

Mark has a passion for music. Although classically trained he has an appreciation for the many styles of music and how they all inspire and impact worship. He loves the rich choral tradition of the church as well as contemporary praise music. In addition to his musical interests, Mark also has a passion for fostering deep worship experiences through visual art, drama and technology.

An avid long-distance runner and gardener, he also enjoys reading science fiction. Recently he joined the Chamber Music Wilmington Board of Directors and continues to drive for the American Cancer Society's Road to Recovery. He and Jeannie have five children and two grandchildren, and like Pastor Bill and Susan have pictures to share as well!

Children of Mark Hellmann and Jeannie Mox are:

- 5906 i. Katherine Marie (Katie)¹¹ Hellmann, born 1989.

02 Nov 1992 in Westchester, Ohio.

Notes for Gail Loadman:

Gail Hunt, 52, of Winfield, Kansas, passed away Sunday afternoon, November 15, 2015 at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri. Born September 25, 1963 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of Richard D. and Grace F. (Hellmann) Loadman. She was raised and received her education in Pittsburgh, graduating from Baldwin High School in 1981. She then attended Robert Morris College in Pittsburgh and graduated with her Bachelor's Degree in 1985. She completed her Master's Degree in 1992 through Golden Gate University in San Francisco, California.

Gail was united in marriage to Eric Hunt on November 2, 1991 in Westchester, Ohio. The couple made their home in Ontario, California and later moved to Vancouver, British Columbia. In 1994, they moved to Narita, Japan and Gail volunteered her time teaching English to those in the community. In 2001, the family moved to Winfield, Kansas. Gail began working as a Para Educator for the Winfield School District in 2010. She was currently working at the Winfield Middle School.

She was a member of First United Methodist Church. She enjoyed scrap booking, cooking, swimming, and going to the movies. She especially loved spending time with her children.

Her family includes: husband: Eric Hunt of Winfield; son: Noah Hunt of Winfield; daughters: Isabella and Abigale Hunt of Winfield; mother: Grace Loadman of Powder Springs, Georgia; and brother: Eric Loadman of Lithia Springs, Georgia. Gail was preceded in death by her father, Richard Loadman.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Friday, November 20, 2015 at First United Methodist Church in Winfield. Interment will follow at Highland Cemetery. Friends may call at Miles Funeral Service on Thursday evening from 4 to 8 P.M. The family will greet visitors that evening. Memorials have been established in Gail's name for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and for the Youth Campership Fund at First United Methodist Church. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.
