Notes for George Gruner:

The fate of the former furniture factory at 109 East Madison, a key building in the debate over the use of local floodways, has been delayed. The present owner, the University of Michigan, tried to sell it but took it off the market after failing to receive any offers that were close to its appraised value. Built in 1883, it is a classic three-story brick building, with subtle detailing and large windows. But visions of turning it into condos for downtown's hot housing market ran into a seemingly insurmountable problem: the building is in the Allen's Creek floodway. Although normally hidden in an underground pipe, the creek reappears during a "hundred-year flood" (the kind of flood that has a 1 percent chance of occurring in any given year; see "Storm Warning" in the November Observer). In such a flood, 109 East Madison not only would get wet, but would receive the full force of the flowing water.

There was no regulation of floodway construction in the late nineteenth century, when cabinetmakers George Gruner and George Kuebler decided to go into business for themselves. Gruner and Kuebler built their factory on the corner of South Fourth Avenue and East Madison, nestled into a bend of Allen's Creek--the creek passed along the building's Fourth Avenue side and then curled around the back. Gruner and Kuebler's equipment was steam driven, so they didn't need the creek's waterpower; more likely, they chose the site to be near their labor market, the skilled craftsmen who lived on what is now known as the Old West Side. In 1899, after Kuebler died and Gruner moved to Cincinnati, Charles Sauer bought the property. Sauer was born in Canada to German parents and learned carpentry from his father before moving to Ann Arbor at age twenty. He worked as a draftsman and as a contractor before forming Sauer Lumber with his two brothers, Adam and John.

He was born 29 Mar 1833 in Affalterbach, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 02 Jul 1907 in DeWitt, Clinton Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Georg Gall:

John George Gall, Parents: John Leo & Mary (Zeeb) Gall (Death Cert. Clinton Co; Michigan. Bk 3, P. 223 (Jul 1907); List his parents as John Leo & Mary (Jeet) Gall. Age at marriage 24 yrs; fathered 8 children, 7 living at the time of his death.) Believed to be buried in the Gunnisonville Cemetery in an unmarked grave.

Clinton County Paper, July 1907: Stated "that he loaded a shot gun with slugs, putting the muzzle in his mouth, and the balls went through the top of his head into the ceiling. On his shirt was a letter written in German, in which he stated that he had worked hard and saved a comfortable amount for his family; that he had given it away and had been thinking of killing himself for several months. He also left a letter sealed and directed to the Judge of Probate in which he asked him to see that his daughter, Louise, was cared for. He had upon his person and in boxes about the home $1015.00 in gold and $401.00 in currency. Slips were attached to or in boxes with some of the money, and various amounts were marked "Lydia, Minnie, Sophia, Maria, Louise". He also had Two certificates in the Lansing State Savings Bank, one for $156.00 and one for $113.00. In May, 1906, he gave a deed of the 80 acre homestead to his son, John G. Gaul, (Clinton County Paper spelling was Gaul, but Court papers have it spelled as Gall.) providing that he and his daughters Louise and Caroline should have a home there during their lifetime. His son and wife were out during the evening, and the death of the father was not discovered until morning. "

John and Mary was born and it appears they were married in Germany. Then came to America and settled in Dewitt Twp, Clinton County, Michigan between 1850 & 1860. They may have came from Affalterbach District of Marbach, Germany.

In 1999, The old homestead became the location for the new Dewitt Twp. Hall. Located: 1401 Herbison Rd; Dewitt, Michigan. 48820, 1168. Regina¹² Koch (Anna Maria¹¹ Fromm, Jacob¹⁰, Anna Maria⁹ Walcker, Martha⁸ Hornung, Magdalena⁷ Walker, Stephan⁶ Walcker, Georg⁵, Martin⁴, Veit³, Georg², Veit¹) was born 20 Jan 1837 in Kirchentellinsfurt, Tuebingen, Wurtemberg, and died 26 May 1891 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. She married Johann Martin Breining 15 Sep 1861 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Johann Breining and Maria Reitmiller. He was born 27 Dec 1829 in Guelstein, Boeblingen, Wurtemberg, and died 19 Oct 1897 in Okemos, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Martin Breining:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ionia and Montcalm Counties Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1885:

JOHN M. BREINING, a retired farmer and old settler of Michigan, now resides on twelve acres of finely improved land within the city limits of Edmore, Montcalm County. His parents, Jacob and Barbara (Reidemiller) Breining, both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany came to America in 1836 and located in Freedom Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. The father was a cooper by trade, and followed that line of work in the old country, but here he took a farm of one hundred and twenty acres in the forest and proceeded to clear it of timber. Both parents resided on this farm, living honest, conscientious lives, and being members of the Lutheran Church until they were called from earth.

The subject of this sketch was the eldest of eight children, and was born in Guelstein, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1829. He was seven years old when they left the old home, and undertook the passage from Havre to New York. They were upon the ocean thirty-three days. In 1854 he began to work for himself and bought sixty acres in Lodi Township, Washtenaw County. Having cultivated this land for a few years, he sold it and removed to Adrian, where he farmed until 1865, when he went to Douglas County, Illinois. In the year 1868 he removed to Omaha, Nebraska, working on a farm and in a gristmill until 1877. In February of that year he came to Ingham County, this State, and worked near Okemos, and then bought an improved ten acres adjoining the Agricultural College, and did teaming for the college. In 1887 he took a contract to carry the mail for four years between the college and Lansing, but sold out this contract in 1890, and on October 15th of that year came to Edmore and bought the Whittlesey place, a well-improved place having good buildings upon it. Here he carries on general farming on a small scale.

Mr. Breining's first wife was also a native of Wurtemberg. They were married in October, 1859, in Washtenaw County, where Mrs. Breining died after having become the mother of three children - Jacob, James and Mary. The present Mrs. Breining is the daughter of Jacob Koch, who was a farmer of Wurtemberg, Germany, whence he came to America in 1854 and located in Fredonia, New York. Here as above stated, his daughter Regina, was united to the subject of this sketch. Mr. Koch died in Lodi Township at a very advanced age. His wife died in Freedom Township. They were members of the Lutheran Church, and were the parents of six children, of whom the wife of our subject was the fourth in order of birth. She was born in Kirkentellinsfurt, Germany, January 20, 1837. After her emigration with her parents to this country, she supported herself in New York City. She is the mother of nine children, six of whom are living: Lena, Frederick, Katie, Ella, Minnie and George. They are devout members of the Lutheran Church, and Mr. Breining is a Democrat in principle, and casts his vote with the party. He is universally respected for his integrity, and forwards any movement that will enhance the prosperity of the township.

Notes for Jacob (Johann Jakob) Koch:

Obituary Thursday June 11, 1914 Chelsea Standard Newspaper:

"Accidental Death - Jacob John Koch of Lima Killed by the Cars Monday."

Jacob John Koch, for many years a resident of Lima, was instantly killed at Buron, a suburb of Batavia, New York, by falling from a west bound train No. 13 of the New York Central known as "Wolverine". Mr. Koch was 68 years of age, and was on his way here from an extended visit in Germany. His boat arrived in New York Sunday.

Two of his sons, Chris, who resides on the homestead farm in Lima, and Otto, of Ann Arbor, left Tuesday night for Batavia and reached Ann Arbor this morning with the body. A dispatch from Batavia says: "In the man's pocket was ticket to Chelsea and a memorandum on was written the name Jas. S. Gorman, of Chelsea, who was Koch's attorney. The accident happened at Byron, New York, a small station outside of Batavia. Koch either leaped or accidentally fell from the platform of the train, death resulting instantaneously. Corner Snow, of Genesee County, New York. According to the dispatch, was notified, and at first was in doubt as to whether Koch had come to his death accidentally or whether he had planned self-destruction, but finally gave it as his belief that Koch fell from the platform accidentally."

Chief of Police J.T. Kenny, of Ann Arbor, was notified by telegram from the chief of police of Batavia of the accident and in turn, notified the family of Mr. Koch. There survive ten children: Christian Koch, Mrs. J. Barrels and Albert Koch, all of Lima, and Clara, Emma, George, Otto, Arthur, Oscar and Reuben, all whom make their home with their mother in Ann Arbor. The funeral was held at four o'clock this afternoon in Ann Arbor.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Koch, of the firm of Koch & Haller, furniture dealers, was born at Wittemberg, Germany, in 1848. Here he was also educated and learned the business of cabinet and furniture making in all its branches from drafting to the complete finishing of the work. He was also employed at Tuebingen in a very large furniture house. In 1866 he came to America and located at New Haven, Connecticut, remaining there but a short time. In 1867 he came to Ann Arbor, where, during the next three years, he was in the employ of several men. He then went to Columbus, Ohio, where, for a few months, he was employed in a large house. Returning to this county he went into business at Dexter, under the firm name of Costello & Koch, and was there in business two years. At the end of that time he sold out and came to Ann Arbor. The next seven years he was in the employ of John Keck and the Keck Manufacturing Co., of which he is a stockholder. During his employ with the company he was assistant superintendent of the same. In May, 1880, he went into business for himself at Ann Arbor, and in November, 1880, received as partner Mr.

Haller.

- 2404 iv. Emma Barbara Margaretha Stollsteimer, born 21 Nov 1883 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 18 Feb 1986 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Edward Charles Armbruster 01 Oct 1902 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan; born 28 Sep 1871 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 22 May 1946 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Emma Barbara Margaretha Stollsteimer:

"Life-long Salinian." Emma Armbruster brings new meaning to this old expression. It's remarkable enough that Emma will turn 100 years old November 21, 1983. But she has lived her whole life within half a mile of her birthplace on Brassow Road. For the last 37 years, Emma has lived right next door to the place where the old farmhouse once stood. She lives with her sister, Mary Waar — who at 97 is nearing the century mark herself. That's Emma on the right and Mary on the left. The two still cook and keep house and take care of themselves. Until a few years ago, they even cut their own lawn with push mowers!

Emma was born in 1883, one of five children of George and Anna Stollsteimer. She received her schooling at the little one-room Lodi Plains schoolhouse which stood at the end of the road. When Ed Armbruster came courting, it was with a horse and buggy. Ed and Emma were married in 1902 and lived on a farm on Maple Road. Armbruster passed away in 1946, and Emma came to stay with Mary, who in the meantime had married Ed Waar. Waar died in 1958, and the two sisters have been on their own ever since. "I've always enjoyed having her with me," Mary said of Emma. "We've worked together really well and never had an argument worth mentioning." Perhaps that's what has kept them looking so lovely all these years!

Naturally Emma has seen many changes in Saline during 100 years. "It's altogether different now," she said. "It used to be the only streets were uptown — the others were dirt roads. It was all swamp along E. Michigan Avenue. "We always went to town on Saturday nights to walk around, shop a bit, and meet the neighbors," Emma continued. "There wasn't much else to do for fun then," Mary noted. Emma always has attended St. Paul Church, and has helped at Pittsfield Grange activities. She crocheted and did many kinds of fancywork until her sight worsened in the last few years. She also made her own clothes — including the dress she's wearing in the photograph. An open house for Emma's 100th birthday will be held Sunday, Nov. 27, from 2-5 p.m. in the Fellowship Room of St. Paul UCC. It will be hosted by nieces and nephews of Emma and Mary — Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stollsteimer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stollsteimer, and Eunice Buss.

Emma Armbruster of Brassow Rd. reached that age last Thursday Nov. 21, 1985. She enjoyed the day in good health and good spirits, in the company of good friend and she looks forward to more of the same in the years to come. One secret of her long life and her serene outlook is her skill at accommodating, developed through years of practice. "When I was young, I wanted to clerk in a store, more than anything else," Emma recalled on her birthday. "But then in 1892, at age 19, Edward Armbruster and I got married. I never did clerk in a store. We settled on the Armbruster farm, on Maple Rd., and there was no time for clerking." But Emma accommodated happily.

She and Ed had been classmates at the old one-room Lodi Plains School and life with him was good. After Armbruster died, Emma and her young sister May Wahr who'll be only 100 next May took up housekeeping together at their present home on Brassow Rd. They have devotedly looked after each other, ever since joining forces in 1946. "We never have a cross word. Maybe a little difference of opinion, now and then, but hardly ever," they agree. Fun and happiness for Emma and May are still very real present-day things. "We enjoy it the most when young friends and neighbors come to visit." And with the couple as alive and alert as they are, company and visits are almost daily happenings. Most appreciated is the help that the two ladies accept from nieces, nephews and neighbors.

Until recent years, Emma and May were proud to take care of everything at their home. But now they are happy to accept assistance with the heavier chores. They especially offer thanks to Cliff Olson, who "does almost everything for us." And Emma, born the week before Thanksgiving, sums up her 102 years on a note of deep gratitude. "The more the years go by, the more I have to be thankful for," she smiles.

Emma S. Armbruster, who celebrated her 102nd birthday last November, died Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1986 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born November 21, 1883 in Saline, the daughter of George and Anna Gruner Stollsteimer. A Saline resident her entire life, she was married to Edward Armbruster October 1, 1902; he preceded her in, death May 22, 1946. A friend of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, Mrs. Armbruster farmed and lived off Maple Road until her husband's death. A member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Armbruster is survived by: her sister, Mrs. Mary Wahr of Saline; two nephews, Frederick Stollsteimer and his wife Katie, and Glen Stollsteimer and his wife Pat of Saline; one niece, Mrs. Eunice Buss of Pinckney; dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson of Pinckney; and several great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by one sister, Mrs. Ida Hawker, and three brothers, Oscar, George, and Fred Stollsteimer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Armbruster will be held this Thursday, Feb. 20 at 1 p.m. from the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial will follow in Lodi Township Cemetery. Visitation is scheduled for Wednesday evening from 7-9, at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the Saline Evangelical Home.

Notes for Joseph Schweikert:

Joseph Schweikert was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, September 17, 1838. His parents died when he was about three years of age. He was reared in Germany where he received his education and such practical instruction as the German system required for its children. He learned the wagon-makers' trade in his native land. At the age of seventeen years he came to America with many others. He was especially attracted to a university town and located at Ann Arbor where he worked at his trade for a year.

The next few years were spent in service upon farms near Ann Arbor. He continued in this way until the breaking out of the Civil War when his zeal was fired by the danger in which he felt his adopted land was placed. He joined the army as a private in Company C., First Battalion, Fifteenth U.S. Infantry. He served with the regiment three years. He was in many of the principal engagements. His term of service expired in Atlanta and he was honorably discharged after which he returned to Michigan. He received a gunshot wound at the battle of Stone River and also contracted rheumatism that he suffered from more or less of the time.

After the war he purchased a farm south of Byron on which he lived until 1902 when he with his wife moved to Byron where they resided until the death of Mrs. Schweikert in 1913. All he possessed was earned by his own efforts. He was modest and retiring of nature an honest and upright in his dealings with his fellowmen. His motto was, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches". He was a member of the G.A.R. G.D. Royce Post No. 117 of Byron, and enjoyed recounting with his comrades the varied experiences of the years spent in the south.

He was married to Miss Margaret Bahnmueller of Lodi, Washtenaw County. To this union were born four children: Mary, Charles, Clara and Fred who were with him through his last illness and did all that loving hands could do. He realized he was going and told them not to feel badly. He thanked God for his eighty five years. September 17, 1923 his children and grandchildren were with him to celebrate his eighty fifth birthday. Grandpa Schweikert as so many called him will be greatly missed in Byron. He leaves to mourn their loss, four children, eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren and a host of friends. He died of pleural pneumonia October 15, 1923 at the home of his son, Charles. He was a member of the M.E. Church.

Excerpts taken from Portrait and Biographical Album of Shiawassee and Clinton County Michigan

Joseph Schweikert was born in Germany where he learned a wagon makers trade. He came to America in 1855. Owned a farm in section 26 of Burns Township, Shiawassee County Michigan. Joseph joined the army as a private in Company C, First Battalion Fifteen United States Infantry. He served with this regiment for three years, and was with the Army of Cumberland in the Fourteenth Army Corps, First Brigade and Second Division. He was in many of the principal engagements.

A man who has been through such experiences as the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Perryville, Kentucky, Stone River, Chickamauga, has a story that can be transcended in interest by but few events in any history whatsoever. The gentleman of whom we write was a participant in all these, and was also in all the battles of the Georgia campaign, even the taking of Atlanta. His term of service expired in Atlanta, and he was there honorably discharged, after which he returned to Michigan. He will ever wear an honorable badge of his army service in a wound resulting from a gun-shot at the battle of Stone River. He escaped the bitter experience of being taken prisoner, but contracted rheumatism while in the army, that he has suffered more or less from ever since. His honorable service is recognized by the Government by the payment of a pension of $12 per month.

She was born 26 Sep 1857 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Apr 1950 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friedrich Jacob Heusel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Friedrich Heusel- The business interests of Ann Arbor have a worthy and well known representative in Friedrich Heusel, the extent and scope of his operations having made him a successful man. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 1, 1850, a son of Friedrich Heusel, Sr., who died in the fatherland in 1900. The mother, who bore the maiden name of Mary Steinmaier, has also departed this life. Friedrich Heusel, reared and educated in his native country, came to America when twenty-three years of age. He located first in New Haven, Connecticut, where for four years he was employed in a machine shop, but the better business opportunities of the west with its greater competition and advancement more quickly secured, attracted him and he made a visit to the Mississippi valley in 1877, spending some time in Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis and other cities. However, at that time he returned to New Haven, where he worked in a large bakery, which he conducted until 1879. That year witnessed his arrival in Ann Arbor and for fourteen years he was employed by the firm of Koch & Haller. In 1894 he established a large bakery at the present site of 206 East Huron street, and is now conducting an extensive wholesale bakery and confectionery business with a well equipped plant, and the excellence of the product secures a very extensive and growing patronage.

In 1883 Mr. Heusel was united in marriage to Miss Mary Niethammer, of Freedom, Michigan, and they have two sons and two daughters: Friedrich J., who is in business with his father: Amanda Paulina; Erwin Carl; Frieda marguerita. Mr. Heusel is a member of the Arbeiter Verein and his political views are in accord with republican principles. He has gained and retained the confidence and respect of his fellowmen and is distinctively one of the leading citizens of Ann Arbor, being the founder and owner of the business which contributes to general commercial prosperity as well as individual success. It is a matter of history that the Teutonic race has been a most important element in the colonization, up building and progress of many lines and the German-American citizenship of America possesses a worth acknowledged by all. Mr. Heusel displays many of the strong and sterling characteristics of the fatherland, which, combined with the enterprise and progressive spirit that dominates the Middle West has made him one of the prosperous residents of his adopted city.

Notes for Samuel Heusel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Samuel Heusel. Among those who have come from foreign lands to become prominent in business circles of Ann Arbor is Samuel Heusel, well known as proprietor of an extensive bakery. His success in all his undertakings has been so marked that his methods are of interest to the commercial world. He has based his business principles and actions upon strict adherence to the rules which govern industry, economy and unswerving integrity. His enterprise and progressive spirit have made him a typical American in every sense of the word and he well deserves mention in this history. What he is to-day he has made himself, for he began in the world with nothing but his own energy and willing hands to aid him. By constant exertion associated with good judgment he has raised himself to the prominent position he now holds, having the friendship of many and the respect of all who know him.

Samuel Heusel is a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, born October 14, 1860. His father, Fredrick Heusel, also a native of Wurtemberg, conducted an extensive business there in the line of general merchandising but is now deceased. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Mary Steinmaier, was also a native of that kingdom. In their family were six children: Frederick, who is engaged in business as a baker at Ann Arbor; Jacob, who went to the west about twenty years ago and has never been heard from since; Gottlob, who is living in Germany; Samuel of this review; and Mary and Marguerite, who are also living in the fatherland. No event of special importance occurred to vary the routine of Samuel Heusel's life in his youth up to the time of his emigration to America, but he felt the call of the new world with its unceasing business activity and unlimited opportunities and he responded. Landing on American shores he made his way to northern Michigan, spending some time at different places in the Upper Peninsula ere his removal to Ann Arbor in 1893. He has since been a factor in business life of this city, working his way steadily upward through the utilization of opportunity, and by reason of his unfaltering industry and perseverance.

In 1893, he joined his brother Frederick in the bakery business and about 1904 he established a large bakery on his own account at the corner of Liberty street and Fourth Avenue, where his business has grown with such rapidity as to be classed with the mammoth industrial and commercial concerns of Ann Arbor. He ships large quantities of bread out of the city and has a splendidly equipped plant in which are immense ovens built especially for Mr. Heusel at a cost of thousands of dollars. There is machinery operated by steam power for the mixing of dough and in fact the establishment is equipped with all of the latest and most modern devices known to the baker's trade. He occupies a large new building in the conduct of his business and furnishes employment to many men and women. Mr. Heusel fraternally is connected with the Odd Fellows of Ann Arbor and the local German societies and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran Church.

He was married in 1888 to Miss Mary Lilivelt, descended from Holland ancestry, her parents having been early settlers of Michigan. They became the parents of three children: Frederick, who at the age of sixteen years is a high school student in Ann Arbor; Sadie, thirteen years of age, also in school; and Hilda, seven years of age, who has just entered upon her school life. On the 21st of August, 1905, Mr. Heusel was called upon to mourn the loss of his wife who died after a few days' illness of appendicitis. Mr. Heusel deserves great credit for what he has accomplished since crossing the Atlantic. Reaching New York in 1880, he found himself in a new country where the manners and customs of the people were very different from those of the fatherland and he probably often longed for the "little German home across the sea." However, he was brave and determined and faithfully pursued his work and through careful industry and frugal living he succeeded in saving a sum of money which enabled him to engage in business for himself. He wisely chose the west with its almost limitless opportunities as the scene for his labors and the increase of his business from year to year has given him prominence in commercial circles and brought to him a very gratifying competence.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, April 15, 1912 - An apparently poor but honest farmer recently came into Samuel Heusel's store lugging what to all appearance was a crate of eggs. He told a hard-luck story. His father had instructed him to take six crates to a certain grocery store, but he unfortunately forgotten the name of store. He opened up the crate and enough there were rows of strictly fresh eggs and all he asked was 25 cents dozen. Heusel lost no time trying to assist him to remember the name of the grocer whom he had been directed. In speed hustled him out after he had paid for eggs. Later Heusel, gloating over his "find" started to open the other five crates sure enough, there reposed rows of fresh, clean eggs on top of each crate, and if Heusel had stopped there he would have deferred his disappointment longer. Instead, however, he took out the top tray and there found nice rows of black dirt where eggs should have been. The condition was found in all the other tray of eggs, four trays of dirt.

Notes for Jacob Lutz:

The Pleasant Lake Inn - Jacob Lutz – Builder and First Owner

The land on which the Pleasant Lake Inn sits was originally purchased by Henry Griffin, one of the earliest Freedom Township settlers, and elected its first supervisor in April 1834. Griffin owned and farmed the land through the early 1860s, when it was sold to William Hanky, who constructed a steam-powered saw mill on the north shore of the lake and harvested lumber for making logs. This land and business were located on what was originally named “Lodi Road”, first surveyed and built in 1834 along an existing Native American trail to connect Lodi Township and Ann Arbor-Saline Road with several township “centers” heading west. It thus became a major route for travelers and freight moving between Ann Arbor and points west.

By 1874, the land is owned by Jacob Lutz, as the immigration of Germans peaked, making Freedom Township almost 90% German-owned. Jacob was born in Kirchentellinsfurt, Germany in 1822, and emigrated in 1848. He initially began as a fur trader and tin ware dealer, then moved into the railroad business, before ending up in Freedom Township by 1858. Jacob and his second wife Regina Hegge had five children.

The first “Pleasant Lake House” was constructed by Lutz in 1880, up from the lake and near the road, to attract travelers coming down the road. The two-story home had a saloon and grocery store in the front sections, with the family rooms in the back portion. The building came under the general term of “roadhouse”, a rural stopping place along a road for refreshments or for overnight stays. A barn was also constructed across the street where the parking lot for the Inn now sits. Lutz descendants told stories of travelers staying overnight, including a travelling circus with wagons and elephants during the summer months. The Pleasant Lake House became known as the place to socialize and relax in Freedom Township. Jacob’s son, Henry, continued to farm the land and provide food for the grocery store.

Jacob Lutz died in 1903 and is buried in the Bethel Church cemetery. Shortly before his death, he sold the Pleasant Lake House to David Schneider.

Marriage Notes for Johann Walker and Emma Blaess:

A lovely occasion marked the celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Manchester Road Sunday April 3, 1938 at their home. With open house to their friends they enjoyed many calls throughout the day. Mrs. Walker was Miss Emma Blaess of Lodi prior to her marriage to Mr. Walker. They were married April 3, 1888 in Lodi Township and came to the farm where they have ever since made their home.

They have two daughters, Mrs. Sam Lambarth of Saline and Mrs. R. E. Jedele of Ypsilanti. There are four grandchildren, Helen and Paul Lambarth of Saline and Luther and Doris Mae Jedele of Ypsilanti. A family dinner was enjoyed at noon and a delicious wedding cake decorated in gold with the words "Fiftieth Anniversary" written across the top, and designs accentuated with gold leaves, was a feature of the occasion. Ice cream and cake were served to callers throughout the day who came to congratulate the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Walker received candy, flowers and cards as tokens of esteem from their many friends and relatives, nearly a hundred of whom called Sunday.

- 2971 vi. Ezra Herman Bohnett, born 15 Nov 1898 in Clinton Co, Michigan; died 08 Dec 1991 in Charlotte, Eaton Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ezra Herman Bohnett:

Ezra Herman Bohnett, was a very quit and hard working person. He never talked about his past and never said a bad word about anybody. He was a small man, Height about 5'4", weight about 150 #. He served in the US Marine Corps in 1921 and he never married. Ezra finally started working for the Eaton Rapids Hospital and after 43 years of service, he retired in 1977. He also served many years on board of the First Baptist Church of Eaton Rapids. Edward B. McRee, President of Ingham Medical Center (Lansing, Michigan), sums up Ezra's life and as a person, in the article he wrote for the Eaton Rapids Hospital newsletter.

He made a Difference: Ezra Bohnett, (abt. 1984) "He bends over a bit as he walks, and yet every day he plods the length of Main Street. While his head is bent and he seldom looks up or down, if you meet him, he will greet you in the strong and vigorous voice which gives you some idea of the hearty soul that's within. He's seen by scores of eyes daily and most likely is thought to be just another workman, and few probably give much thought beyond a mere glance. But he deserves much more than the quick look and passing afterthought, for he is a grand contributor to this community. He's much more than just the name, Ezra Bohnett, who spent his life caring for the looking after the physical plant which has sheltered the birthing and the dying of a large segment of this population, as well as the healing and mending of even greater numbers. He represents a way of life, a way of thinking, which benefits all of us, and over many, many years has contributed immeasurably to the wellbeing of this city.

For me, he was a splendid example of dedication, as he rose in the wee hours of every day to begin the careful polishing of the hospital corridors in order to have them immaculate and shining when morning activity began. He cared about everything that concerned the hospital, and it was from him that I learned a spark of patience, and a bit of endurance as he placidly carried out the myriad tasks, which were required to ensure that all would function well in this building, which protected so many.

Because he cared, nothing was too hard or too burdensome for him to undertake. The hours were long and arduous, the demands frequently exasperating. Some of the tasks were endlessly repetitive, and certainly uninteresting. But there was a toughness about him that demanded his all, and to this day his walks down Main Street are stridently laced with this vigor which I'm confident will never disappear.

How grandly he persevered. Today in retirement, he lives in quiet obscurity. But how encouraged I am for having known him! "

Notes for Daniel Hertler:

Fire of unknown origin starting above the kitchen spread and eventually destroyed the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hertler on US-112, two miles east of town Sunday morning April 12, 1931. Most of the furnishings were saved, but the house was level with the ground when the final embers died out late Sunday night. Two small children were in the home and Mr. Hertler was about the premises when a passing motorist noticed the smoke rising from the back portion of the house and sent in an alarm. Mr. Hertler and neighbors succeeded in getting most of the furniture out except that in two bedrooms. A considerable amount of clothing was also saved. The Saline fire department under the direction of Chief Martin Fuoss responded to the alarm and ten members of the crew were on hand. The wind was blowing from the south so that flying embers did not travel toward the outhouses and barns. A building only a few feet from the house was not injured in any way by the fire. Chief Fuoss stated that if the wind had been from the opposite direction it is doubtful whether the buildings could have been saved. Although the department worked very efficiently, in fact the best that they have worked for some time according to the chief, the fire had made such headway by the time the department arrived that there was little chance of doing anything but checking the spread of the flames while some of the furnishings were saved.

Most of the furniture was moved across the road to the tenant house of George Heining. The house was unoccupied and the Hertler's are making their home there until a new house can be built. They expect to start building operations as soon as possible. Part of the loss is covered by insurance although underwriters had not made their appraisal as yet. The house was constructed of wood and was covered; with a veneer of stucco. The wooden frame burned inside of the stucco which made it difficult to combat. Great caution had to be exercised by members of the fire department because of the deceptiveness of the walls, which stood apparently whole while the insides were nearly gone, and they toppled with little difficulty. The loss was estimated to be in the neighborhood of $5,000. The firemen were at the blaze from 10:30 until 3. There was an adequate supply of water at all times and the chief commended the work of those who kept the supply up. A call was put in again in the early evening when smaller blazes started in the smoldering ruins. They were quickly put out, however.

Notes for Raymond George Klumpp:

A devastating fire at the Raymond Klumpp residence located north and west of Bridgewater on Weber Road required and services of both the Saline and Manchester fire departments. Wednesday morning March 15, 1950 at approximately nine o'clock Mrs. Paul Heiber, who was driving her children to school, noticed smoke billowing from the roof of the Klumpp residence. She immediately notified her husband, who called the Saline Fire Department. Mrs. Klumpp was at work and Mr. Klumpp, returning from the ham after having done his morning chores, observed the fire. There was no one in the house at the time the fire started. The Manchester Fire Department was called and arrived just in the nick of time with added chemicals to aid in extinguishing the blaze. The majority of household furnishings were removed. It is thought the fire was caused by sparks from the chimney. Damage was estimated at between four and five thousand dollars. The farm is owned by George Weber.

Marriage Notes for Raymond Klumpp and Lorena Hack:

The marriage of Miss Lorena Hack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hack of Lodi, and Raymond Klumpp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klumpp of Lodi, took place at an impressive ring ceremony on Saturday, June 29, 1935, at the bride's home. The marriage service was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with Rev. Adolf Lederer, Evangelical Lutheran pastor of Saline, officiating.

The bridal party descended the stairs as Miss Mildred Hoeft, cousin of the bride, played the Lohengrin wedding march. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned with a cowl necklace and long tight sleeves and extended train. White pearls across the front with orange blossoms at either side of her head held the bride's cap in place. Her finger-tip veil fell in graceful folds about her shoulders. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, snapdragons and swansonias. Dozens of white and pink peonies against a background and extended sides of evergreens, with small evergreen trees on either side, made a lovely background for the nuptials in the sun room. Assorted bouquets of roses, snapdragons, fox-gloves, peonies and delphinium gave the remaining rooms their lovely attraction.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Klumpp, sister of the groom, was gowned in a pink georgette dress with a high neck line and full elbow length sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums. Leon Hack, brother of the bride, performed the duties of best man. Two beautiful flower girls, Marjorie Noble and Corine Kinsley, cousins of the bride, added a lovely attraction to the bridal party. Their frocks were of white organdie trimmed in pink, wearing hair ribbons to match. They carried colonial bouquets consisting of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a two-course wedding supper was served to eighty guests. The bride's table was centered with a large white ring cake holding a small ornament in the center. White candles burned in silver holders on the table while two bouquets of white roses on either side added the remaining attraction. The other table was also decorated with candles and bouquets of flowers. On their return from a trip through the east, Mr. and Mrs. Klumpp will reside in Lodi.

Notes for Emanuel Johann Sodt:

The Pleasant Lake Inn - Emannual (Manny) Sodt – Third Owner

Manny Sodt became the third owner in 1925 with the purchase from David Schneider, and installed electricity into the inn. Manny was born in 1890 just west of the Fredonia hamlet. Manny had a career as a motorcycle policeman in Ann Arbor, and accompanied important visitors such as the governor when they visited the area. He was also the equipment manager for the University of Michigan football team. Manny was married to Clara Koch of the hamlet of Jerusalem, daughter of a saloon owner on Fletcher Road, which brought experience into the business. Clara also designed and installed rock and flower gardens to beautify the Pleasant Lake House area.

Manny decided in 1927 the dancehall was too far from the road, and also wanted to expand the lakefront area for more camping facilities. With logs carefully placed under the dancehall, the structure was rolled a few feet at a time, up the hill and onto the road, and then positioned east of the house on a new foundation. He also purchased several used wooden waiting stations from the inter-urban railroad, and placed them as cabins near the lake. Olympic star Jesse Owens is recalled by family members as one summer guest who came to relax. Bear cubs, foxes, porcupines and other unusual animals were housed in stone dens built along the hillside for the benefit of camping guests.

Manny Sodt also enlarged the saloon and restaurant by enclosing the front porch. In the summer, dances would move outdoors, often accompanied by Phil Diamond and the Four Aces. Manny himself played horn with local German bands, and the Ann Arbor Greek community was well known for boisterous parties and good food in the park.

The Sunday afternoon baseball games continued on the baseball field west of the tavern. The Pleasant Lake Tavern team was considered one of the best in the area. Rules included a free beer for every base hit. Even the losers were never disappointed. Fourth of July fireworks displays, which started with David Schneider, continued with Manny Sodt, who had to go to Ohio to buy them, but it brought huge crowds and plenty of business. It was during this period that the Pleasant Lake Fourth of July Boat Parade also started, with boats blaring loud music and plenty of reveling. The prizes for best-decorated boats began soon after. Business increased with the paving of Pleasant Lake Road around 1930. Manny added a gas pump and oil reservoir, and the road construction workers ensured a full house for the inn.

During planning for the Freedom Township 175th anniversary celebration in 2009, the planners investigated what had been done, if anything, to celebrate the township's 100th anniversary in April 1934. Township minutes were found for the April 7, 1934 meeting, held in the old brick Freedom Township hall. It was noted that Board members Schaible, Buss, Kothe and Reno moved and approved a permit to allow "E. J. Sodt" to sell beer off the premises, and to provide $5.00 towards soft drinks and use of the dance hall. The minutes did not state what for, but we presume that a party of some sort was held to honor 100 years of Freedom Township.

Manny's health began declining in the 1940s. He sold the property in September 1943 and passed away a few months later.

Ray Hoener – Fourth Owner

Ray Hoener was a tool and die maker from Detroit, and owned a cottage with his wife Lydia across the lake from the inn. When he heard that Manny Sodt was planning on selling the property, Ray considered it a good investment, and moved his family in late 1943. Lydia took over running the restaurant, and Ray added an enclosure on the back porch to further expand the restaurant and bar capacity. Ray determined to relocate the bar further away from the restaurant, grocery store and his family. He built the 40-foot long bar and walk-in cooler into the west side of the hall, received a beer and wine license in 1944, and opened the new bar for business. Improvements to the lakeside picnic area and indoor toilets for the patrons were also added.

The Hoeners also made several major improvements to the house in terms of heating, new windows, and new plumbing, all of which were becoming costly. Combined with their growing fatigue with running the bar, they leased the bar part of the operation to Floyd Schneider in 1948. The Hoeners did act to increase their property's value by constructing the subdivision and mobile home park on the land where the former dance hall had stood. This mobile home park initially served the workers building the oil and gas pipelines and pumping station in Freedom Township.

In 1959, the Hoeners sold their property, except for the mobile park subdivision, to Louis Brow.

Louis Brow – Fifth Owner

In 1959, Louis Brow renamed the inn as Louie's Bar. The restaurant was converted to a grocery store and soda fountain. Cement blocks were used to build the new storefront with large plate glass windows to display their merchandise. In 1965, the Browns then sold to John and Vicky Weber of Dexter.

John and Vicky Weber – Sixth Owner

The Webers continued the business with an emphasis on fishing and related contests. The Webers directly ran the grocery store and specialized in good butchered meats. Two of their children formed a band called the Clichés, and played in the tavern on Friday and Saturday nights. During the Webers' ownership, the building also housed an antiques shop. The business was considered successful, building upon the inn's heritage as a community socializing center until 1978. In that year, they sold the business to four young enterprising men, who renamed the business and started it on a new era.

A sample quote from the time of the sale came from a former worker: "I learned my diplomacy cracking heads and pouring drinks," he joked. The Webers were deeply rooted in the community, and they attracted a crowd of locals with lunch specials and weekly euchre and pool tournaments. They also sponsored a Pleasant Lake Inn baseball team—most of the players drove beer trucks for a living—that won several championships in the Manchester league."

Richard Dimond, Daniel Arrington, Philip Jones and Donald Yates – Seventh Owner

By 1978, the inn was characterized as old, rambling, somewhat unattractive, but with "potential". Four young men bought the inn in 1978, and renamed it "Aura Inn" – An Unusual Roadside Attraction". These new owners, high school friends from Cass Tech, had been engaged in old home renovations in Ann Arbor. They began by trying a new menu, including chapatis and herb teas in addition to the usual burgers, chips and beer. This was quickly readjusted back to the menus loved by the regulars. Soup was made by Uncle Ole, who crocheted as he drank. The most exotic sandwich was the Pope Burger, a Polish sausage with sauerkraut on Italian bread. The Lewis and Clark Expedition, a country-western band, was popular for an extended period, as well as various rock bands. In the early 1980s, a former worker recalled, the inn was very popular—"There'd be people five deep at the bar"—and too noisy for him to hear customers' orders. "We had to read lips," he said.

The owners also began revamping the waterfront into "Aura's Pleasant Lake Park" offering boat launch and rentals, camping, picnicking, swimming, fishing and sailing. The park was open daily from Memorial Day to Labor Day, with admission 50 cents to a dollar. The idea of a small-scale "family resort" with a concession stand and boat rentals would hopefully resurrect a disappearing institution. As the Manchester Chronicle noted, "There is still that place which captures the spirit and ambiance of an Irish pub, a "Cheers"-kind of camaraderie, a place to go with family and friends". Besides comfortable and cozy upholstered booths, or next to a window with views of the lake and park-like setting around old weeping willows, the Aura Inn featured theme nights like Hawaiian Night and Toga Night. Karaoke, Friday night Fish Dinners and Sunday rotisserie dinners were also highlights.

The Aura Inn welcomed patrons for 20 years, and on Sunday, August 30, 1998 hosted "The End of an Era at the Aura – 20 Years of GOOD times" with a noon to midnight Pig/Beef Roast. Richard Dimond asked patrons to come to the "Pucker Up and Kiss Me Goodbye Party". Richard retired to a different career, and initially the facility was to be sold to Alex DeParry, a contractor from Ann Arbor, who was going to completely renovate the bar/restaurant for use as a banquet facility. However, by May 25, 2000, the new building owner was identified as Paul Parkinson.

Paul Parkinson – Eighth and Current Owner

Paul Parkinson and wife Barbara McCoy acquired the Aura Inn from Richard Dimond in May 2000, and renamed it The Pleasant Lake Inn. It is currently listed as owned by "Secure Properties and Investment" of Ypsilanti, Michigan. When Parkinson purchased the property, he noted that the Pleasant Lake Inn was a bar/restaurant with eight acres of lakefront setting, a unique situation in Washtenaw County. He completed a series of internal brightening moves, such as new white ceiling tile and white tablecloths, opening up more windows and cleaning overgrown brush. He also set about rebuilding the deck and stairways, and a boat dock to welcome boaters coming in for a meal. The Pleasant Lake Inn continued to host local patrons, visitors passing down Pleasant Lake Road, and featured bands on weekend nights, focusing lately on local bands such as Risky Brenda from Manchester and Trembling Earth. The property was listed for sale and possible redevelopment as of the date of the fire on February 8, 2015.

As of the date of this article, what is left of the Inn, part of Jacob Lutz's original 1880s home, remains boarded up. Prior to the fire, there had been talk, concurrent with the commercial real estate listing of the inn, that a major new upgrade or building was needed for the site. The real estate listing spoke of bed and breakfast potential, with excellent lake views. After 135 years, we hope that the ninth owner will bring new ideas and vision to this hillside site on the north side of Pleasant Lake. The End of the Inn, February 8,

Notes for Robert William Heusel:

Mr. and Mrs. William Heusel of Scio Church Road received word from the War Department last week that their son, Robert, had been killed in action on Okinawa on May 15, 1945. Robert was a member of the Sixth Marine Division and had been overseas since October, 1943, having enlisted in the Marine Corps in March, 1943. He had seen service on Eniwetok and Guam. He was a graduate of the Ann Arbor High school and was 20 years old last Dec. 1. He is survived by his parents; his sister, Nancy; his grandmother, Mrs. John Burkhardt of Saline; and a number of aunts and uncles. He was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical church where memorial services will be held at a later date.

A large number of relatives and friends gathered at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, July 8, 1945, to pay their respects to the memory of Pfc. Robert William Heusel, of the United States Marine Corps, who lost his life in the service of his country on May 15, 1945, on Okinawa Island. Rev. Alvin Siemsen officiated at the service, which included the reading of the obituary and sermon. The Rev. C. H. Wittbracht who had baptized the serviceman in his infancy and not only confirmed him, but also his mother, used the words of Robert's confirmation memory verse, "My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways" Prov. 23, 26, as the basis for his meditation. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Schmid offered as a duet, "Sometime We'll Understand," and Mr. Schmid sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

Robert William Heusel was born in Ann Arbor, the son of William and Esther Burkhardt Heusel, on December 1, 1924. He attended school in the neighborhood of his home on Scio Church Road, and graduated from the Ann Arbor High School on June 10, 1942, following which he was employed at Fiegel's clothing store until his enlistment in the U.S. Marine Corps on March 13, 1943. He received his boot training at San Diego, California, following which he went to radio school until September, 1948, when he was sent to Camp Pendleton. On October 26, 1948, he went to Camp Elliott and thence overseas. He was in the Hawaiian Islands until January when he participated in the Eniwetok Atoll, and later took part in the invasion of Guam, Palou and Okinawa, where he was instantly killed in action by enemy artillery fire on May 15, 1945.

He is survived by his parents and sister, Nancy, and his Grandmother Heusel and Grandmother Burkhardt Burg. Contributions to a memorial fund in place of flowers were received to be used for charitable purposes in tribute to his memory.

The body of Pfc. Myrl Heusel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heusel of 1040 W. Liberty St., will be returned to Ann Arbor Saturday, just four days after the anniversary of his death in action Nov. 26, 1944, in Germany. Pfc. Heusel's remains are the first of Ann Arbor's hero war dead to be returned to the city, and the third of approximately 70 which will be transferred from military burial places abroad to cemeteries in Washtenaw County. A joint guard of honor of men from the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet the casket, which will be accompanied by a one-soldier escort. The War Department has notified the family that the body is to arrive on the 9:52 train Saturday morning at the Michigan Central station.

The Legion and the VFW. will join in a military burial at Bethlehem Cemetery for Pfc Heusel following funeral services planned for 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Muehlig Chapel.

Marriage Notes for Charles Kern and Mariana Visel:

A dual celebration of 50 years of marriage is scheduled for Sunday, June 11, from 2 until 5:30 p.m. It will be an open house at St. Paul United Church of Christ to honor the anniversaries of two sisters who were married on the same day, May 16, 1917, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Visel, in York Township. Lydia Visel married Chris Volz on that day, and Minnie Visel married Charles Kern. The couples were sponsors for each other and were married by the late Rev. C. H. Wittbracht. They are members of the St. Paul United Church of Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Volz have a son, Kenneth, of Saline, and two grandchildren. A daughter died at two years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Kern have two sons, Neil of Mesa, Arizona, and Calvin of South Lyon, and four daughters, Ruth Strolle, Lillian Holzhauer and Shirley Schindler of Ann Arbor and Arlene Schroen of Chelsea. They have 24 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Charles Kern is president of Saline Public Library board and a member of the Woman's Club. She enjoys gardening, sewing and playing bridge. Her husband was president of St. Paul's council for several years and is a former Sunday School superintendent. Mrs. Kern taught Sunday school for over 30 years and served as president of the women's fellowship group from time to time. Mr. Kern was a farmer until 1940 when he moved to Saline and did carpentry work and contracting before he retired. He served on the City Council and was a member of the Board of Supervisors for several years. He enjoys reading and traveling. The Volz's owned and operated Five Points Restaurant and gas station from 1928 to 1946. He was sexton of Saline Cemetery from 1950 until he retired in 1965. Now he keeps busy in his workshop, building tool boxes and other small items. Mrs. Volz enjoys housework and gardening, cooking and baking. Her hobby is rug hooking. She is treasurer of St. Paul's church school and a member of Saline Woman's Club.

Charles and Minnie Kern of Russell St. reached their 63rd wedding anniversary last Friday, May 1980, and the couple's children marked the occasion by taking them out to dinner. Joining together to honor the lifelong Saline area pair were Calvin and Carol Kern of Maumee, Ohio, with their two children Beth and Matthew; Arlene and Bob Schroen of Chelsea; and Shirley Schindler of Ann Arbor.

Charles and Minnie Visel Kern, married 65 years last Monday May 1982, were honored by family and friends at a surprise dinner party Sunday at Leutheuser's. Among the 150 guests were the Kerns' six children and their families. The Kern sextet: Calvin, from Maumee; Mrs. Lillian Holzhauer, from Honor; Mrs. Ruth Strolle, from Leslie; Neil, from Scottsdale, Arizona; Mrs. Arlene Schroen, of Chelsea; and Mrs. Shirley Schindler, Ann Arbor. Along with the six children's spouses, the group included a healthy collection of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Lydia Volz, Minnie's sister, also attended the party. She and her husband, the late Chris Volz, were married in a double ceremony with the Kerns, on May 17, 1917. The rites were performed in the girls' family farm home on Moon Road. Charles, a builder during his more active years, also served as a civic leader. Among his elective jobs, he sat on Saline City Council and as the City's representative on the County Board of Supervisors. Minnie has been a long-time member of the Saline Woman's Club, and she and Charles have been members of St. Paul United Church of Christ for many years. Sunday they receive many gifts, cards, flowers and best wishes from relatives, friends and neighbors. One special gift was a travel collection from the six children and their families. A trip to Germany and back was suggested—but the Kerns think maybe they'll use the fund for shorter trips. The afternoon session included some reminiscing. Calvin told of when the silo blew down at the family farm on Bemis Rd., years ago. Neighbor Art Heininger came over to help clean up the wreckage after the storm. Calvin, helping the crew gather and stack the splintered lumber, noticed that Art carried two pieces of wood with every trip, and Charlie carried only one. Calvin asked his Dad why? Charlie's answer was quick: "Art's too lazy to take two trips," he grinned.

And despite years of such "insults", the Kerns and the Heiningers are best of friends. Neighbors on the farm, they moved to town and have been next-door neighbors on Russell Street for years. Art and Esther were present Sunday, and they joined the army of people who love Minnie and Charlie, in best wishes for their upcoming 75th.

She was born 18 Aug 1849 in Hochdorf, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 23 Jul 1915 in Columbia City, Whitley Co, Indiana.

Notes for Gottlieb Friedrich Binder:

1907 Frederick G. Binder – During the years immediately preceding the Civil War six brothers by the name of Binder emigrated to the United States from Germany and settled in various towns in eastern Michigan. As they wrote favorable reports back home, another brother, Jacob U., was tempted to come in 1860, and settled at Ann Arbor, where one of the others lived. He established a butcher shop in connection with stock buying, and became an old style drover, taking cattle to Buffalo and New York. At one time he received an order to send forty yoke of cattle to Lake Superior and after some lively hustling procured the number in two days and drove them to Detroit, for shipment by boat. He brought with him, Frederick G., who was born at Wittenberg, Germany, March 12, 1853, and learned the butcher trade, while with his father in Ann Arbor.

He worked both in Ypsilanti and Detroit, but in 1874 came to Whitley County, Indiana, which was destined to be his permanent home. He first worked with Fred Bush and for eight years for Daniels Brothers, in Columbia City, but being ambitious to enter business on his own account he began at South Whitley, with a capital of two hundred dollars. However, he had a partner by the name of Dickey, whose standing enabled him to get all the needed credit. In 1885 he opened business, at the stand where he now is, though the intervening years have made wonderful changes in his financial condition. His business as a butcher, stock-dealer, and meat merchant grew steadily, through good management, skill and industry until now after twenty years Mr. Binder can consider with pardonable pride what he has accomplished. His annual sales now exceed twenty thousand dollars and he pays to the farmers of Whitley County between ten thousand and fifteen thousand dollars a year for stock. By confining himself strictly to his own business and giving it his undivided attention, he has achieved well merited success. He is now located in the same building in which he worked while employed by the Daniels Brothers, buying it in 1893.

In politics he is a Democrat and has frequently been honored by his party, while in turn rendering it faithful and judicious service. He was county chairman for two years and has been delegate to the county and state conventions. He was a member of the city council for two years and held the office of city treasurer twelve years in succession. Mr. Binder would not be a German could he not find time for social intercourse and for the enjoyment of the society of friends. He contributes to all influences to develop and improve his adopted city. He is a stockholder in the furniture factory, one of Columbia City's most valuable industries, besides having other real estate and business interests. He is a charter member of the Knights of the Maccabees and has been a trustee ever since the institution of the lodge.

In 1974 Mr. Binder was married to Rebecca Waltz, of Marshall, Michigan, and they have an interesting family of five sons. Fred G., the eldest and namesake of his father, is a printer, Otto S. and Edward C. remain with the father. Walter is clerk with the Providence Trust Company and Homer is in high school.

Fred G. Binder, 75, brother of the late Samuel and Chris Binder, pioneer Butte men, died January 6, 1929 in Columbia City, Indiana, it was learned here yesterday. Mr. Binder visited in Butte several years ago and was known to meat dealers here.

Among survivors are two nephews, Elmer and Ernest Binder Butte men, other relatives in Butte and five sons. Mr. Binder died suddenly after a cold developed into influenza and pneumonia.

Fred G. Binder was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob U. Binder, who emigrated from Germany in 1862 and became a pioneer in the cattle and butcher business in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The son had been in the meat business in Columbia City since 1885.

2740. Christian¹³ Reiff (Georg Michael¹², Christina Regina¹¹ Zeeb, Johann Georg¹⁰, Christina⁹ Weber, Johann Jacob⁸, Catharina⁷ Walcker, Martin⁶, Veit⁵, Martin⁴, Veit³, Georg², Veit¹) was born 20 Nov 1856 in Kirchentellinsfurt, Tuebingen, Wurtemberg, and died 28 Nov 1934 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Maria Magdalena Heimerdinger 08 Feb 1887 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Heimerdinger and Anna Raus. She was born 31 Jan 1865 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 04 Dec 1913 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Christian Reiff:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Christian Reiff is the owner of valuable farming property in Ann Arbor Township and is one of the respected and worthy citizens of Washtenaw County. Like a large majority of the leading men of this part of the state, he is of German birth, the place of his nativity being Wurtemberg and the year of his birth 1856. His parents were Michael and Lizzie (Horning) Reiff, also natives of Germany, where the father is still living. He is a farmer by occupation, his entire life being devoted to the tilling of the soil. In his family were nine children, three of whom crossed the Atlantic to the new world, a brother and sister of our subject being residents of the state of Washington. The brother has been very successful in connection with the salmon fisheries for fifteen years, conducting a profitable business in the line of that industry. In 1873 Christian Reiff, then a youth of sixteen years, came to America, making his way at once to Washtenaw county, where he was employed as a farm hand for fifteen or sixteen years. With the capital he acquired through his own earnings he then bought fifty-four acres of land on section 30, Ann Arbor Township, from Fred Schmidt and in 1895 he bought the ten-acre tract of land upon which he now resides. The entire farm of sixty-four acres has been cleared. There was only six acres cleared when he took possession of the farm and he performed much arduous labor in bringing the place under its present high state of cultivation. He raises the cereals best adapted to soil and climate and in addition he has a fine orchard of fourteen acres planted to pear, peach, apple, plum and quince trees. He also keeps five cows and finds a ready sale on the market for the butter which he produces because of its excellent quality.

In the year 1887 Mr. Reiff was married to Miss Mary Heimerdinger, a daughter of Michael Heimerdinger, of Ann Arbor Township. They have five children: Robert, Oscar, Edwin, Arthur and Alma, all at home, Robert being now employed in Ann Arbor. On coming to America Mr. Reiff took out his naturalization papers and in 1878 became a citizen of this country. Since that time he has exercised his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the democracy and his fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, have frequently called him to office. He served as path master for ten or twelve years and in 1905 was chosen township treasurer for one term. No trust reposed in him has ever been betrayed in the slightest degree and on the contrary he is most loyal to every responsibility and obligation that devolves upon him. He holds membership in the Trinity Lutheran church at Ann Arbor and his life is in harmony with his professions. Through many years he has resided continuously upon his farm, which is now a well improved property. He has built there a good barn thirty by forty-four feet and he has two houses upon his farm, one of which he rents. This property is the visible evidence of his life of thrift and enterprise and shows what may be accomplished by determination and purposeful action when guided by sound judgment.

Marriage Notes for Julius Walker and Emma Jedelev:

In honor of the 25th, wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Walker, 50 immediate relatives and friends pleasantly gave them a surprise at their home Saturday evening, March 17, 1934. While they were waiting for their son, Erwin, and wife to spend the evening with them, the relatives and friends walked in and showered congratulations on them. They were presented al silver buffet set, the rose bowl containing 25 sweet peas and snapdragons symbolizing the past years. Several other gifts and cards of congratulations were received from friends. The dining table was centered with a beautiful three tiered wedding cake.

A splendid program was opened by Miss Ellen Theurer of Ann Arbor with Miss Lucille Theurer of Saline at the piano, after which Rev. Adolf Lederer of Saline gave a short address, using as his theme the words that had been spoken to the couple 25 years ago by his father, the late Rev. C. A. Lederer, at the wedding ceremony. Miss Lucille Theurer sang "Because," with Rev. Lederer accompanying at the piano. Little Harold Renz a nephew of the couple, sang several selections, which were enjoyed immensely. Miss Ellen Theurer gave a short recollection of the weeding 25 years ago. Guests were present from Ann Arbor, Saline, Lodi and Clinton. A brother, Herman Walker, and family of Elgin, Illinois, as well as several other near relatives, were unable to be present. Light refreshments were served after which the guests departed, congratulating the couple and wishing them 25 more happy and prosperous years.

Notes for Orion C. (Oren or Arion) Bohnett:

Orion Bohnett's father died when he was less then a year old and his mother died when he was 9 years old. He was then sent to Dewitt Twp. in Clinton County, Michigan to live with his Aunt and Uncle Jacob Keck. He never talked much about his younger days. He did tell a story while living on the farm in Jackson County of the boys building a tractor from old parts that they found and was driving it around their farm. All the Bohnett boys were all very mechanical minded. He also told the story about when his mother used to go to Eaton Rapids to shop, that they would get on the old horse and ride Springport and get they their supply of smoking and chewing tobacco. If she went to Springport, they would go the Eaton Rapids.

His working days started at a very young age. He quit school after the eighth grade. At age 15, he had his own team of horses and doing a full days work. In 1923 he got his inheritance from his parents estate. A appears a car was first on his list. In about 1930 he went into partnership on a peppermint crop. His partner was taking more then his share of the peppermint, so before the next year peppermint crop, he rented the farm on Woodbury Road, Woodhull twp. and started farming on that farm. That was in the 1931.

Orion spent most of his life in farming, which he loved. He raise crops including tobacco, sheep and dairy cattle. He worked the farm at the corner of Woodbury and Britten Roads for 21 years, from 1931 to 1952. The first year, he raised tobacco, 350 plants. The farm had 230 acre, of land, about 80 acres of tillable land. After he had a heart attack in 1952, they sold the farm and moved into the City of Laingsburg. After recovering from his heart attack, he started doing custodial work and driving school bus for the Laingsburg School District. He retired after 14 years of services and received a nice plack from the High School student body.

He lived an honest upstanding life. His word was as good as any written agreement. If he said he was going to do something, it was done. He died in 29 Jun 1972. His death certificate has the cause of death as Bacteremia due as the consequence of pneumonia with coronary heart disease contributing to his death. He died Twenty days after the death of his daughter.

Miss Leila M. Schlack, sister of the bride, was the only attendant in a pink taffeta and net gown. She carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons and carnations accented with pink croton foliage. Lorena Katherine¹³ Hertler (Wilhelmina Elisabetha (Minnie)¹³ Weber, Johann Georg¹², Jacob¹¹, Michael¹⁰, Martin⁹, Martin⁸, Catharina⁷ Walcker, Martin⁶, Veit⁵, Martin⁴, Veit³, Georg², Veit¹) was born 16 Apr 1916 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Aug 2014 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Douglas Liston 10 Oct 1936 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Donald Liston and Hazel Riddle. He was born 11 Apr 1913 in Utah, and died 21 Oct 1989.

Notes for Lorena Katherine Hertler:

Lorena Liston lived her life her way: Always for her children, but always her very own way. And she died at age 98 still able to get out to Bingo and play her 15 cards, and win. She became a figure of admiration and a model of her beliefs to all, especially to her Floridian bingo friends, giving hope that they too could overcome their problems, stay level, and keep themselves in the mainstream.

Lorena was born April 6, 1916 and given the name Lorena Katherine Hertler, fourth child in a lineup of seven, to the proud German farming family headed up by Minnie and Daniel Hertler, of the "east side" Hertlers of Saline. Lorena's sisters were Ruth Brookins (Jack), Esther Gross (Waldo, "Jim"), Dorothy Quick (Johnny), and younger sister Eleanor Smith (Wally), all now deceased. Dear and gentle younger brother Paul also preceded her in death. Little bro Carlton still maintains the proud Hertler farming traditions (and antique equipment by the legion) at his Moon Road farm in Saline.

Lorena was a committed, caring and industrious mother for her five children: Sergay (of Bountiful, Utah), Novell (also in Bountiful, Utah), Danon (of St. Augustine, Florida.. "Dan" to y'all), Carolyn (of Rapid City, Michigan and Ft. Collins, Colorado) and Kalian (presently down the road in Clinton).

To the last, Lorena asked for prayers for them, their spouses and families including all the great-grandchildren, such that they all remain safe and productive, and happy. All together, what with spouses, grandchildren, great-grandchildren (and great-greats-), the numbers exceed the pieces in Carlton's equipment collections (well, maybe). During her time here, fruitful to the last, Lorena excelled in all the roles she took on: farmer, student, nurturer, mother, homemaker, pioneer, seamstress, cheese maker, nurse-volunteer, career woman, bookkeeper and office manager, grandmother, ballroom dancer, dance club organizer, traveler, phrase-coiner, oil painter, peacemaker, a model of her beliefs, a (did that Lorena win again!?) bingo player, and patient, wise and kindly counsel to all.

Come join in the recognition and celebration of the life of one truly heroic mother, and native Salinian at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home 301 East Michigan Ave. Saline, MI 48176 on Sunday, September 14, 2014 at 12:00 Noon. All are invited. Those wishing to come at 11:00 A.M. for viewing are welcome. The main celebration will take place at 12:00 P.M.

Marriage Notes for Glenn Weber and Sylvia Finkbeiner:

A lovely wedding took place in St. Paul's Church on Friday evening, April 21, 1944, at eight o'clock when Miss Sylvia Finkbeiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Finkbeiner, of Saline Township was united in marriage with Glenn O. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Weber, also of Saline Township. The bridal party formed before the altar which was lighted by four tapers and flanked by large candelabra, bouquets of snap-dragons and calla lilies, and palms. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests.

The bride was charming in a floor length gown of white taffeta fashioned with long sleeves and sweetheart outlined yoke of net with high neck. Her veil of lace-edged tulle was held in place by a starched coronet, and she carried sheaf of white roses and snap-dragons. Doris Finkbeiner acted as her sister's maid of honor and wore an aqua dress of marquisette and carried a sheaf of pink roses and snapdragons. Two other, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Robert Dieterle and Violet Finkbeiner, served as bridesmaids and wore identical frocks of net over taffeta Mrs. Dieterle's in yellow and Violet's in pink. Both carried tiny muffs of matching net studded with purple iris. All three attendants wore shoulder veils of matching colors held in place by lattice work caps fashioned of twisted tulle. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Elmer Cammet. Alwin Finkbeiner, cousin of the bride, and LeRoy Feldkamp, cousin of the groom, served as ushers. Little Shirley Harvey of Detroit, cousin of the bride, took her place as flower girl. The Lohengrin Wedding March was played by Mrs. Lucile Henderson, and Mrs. Basil Smith sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the ceremony.

A reception at which a three course luncheon was served by several ladies of the church with friends of the bride acting as waitresses was held in the church parlors for about 125 guests. For the wedding Mrs. Finkbeiner, mother of the bride, wore a blue suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Weber, the other mother, was also dressed in blue with black accessories and likewise wore a gardenia corsage on her shoulder. Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Saline High School. Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Weber will be at home on the Oscar Weber farm on Manchester Road.

Notes for Erwin C. Feldkamp:

April 23, 1953 - Mr. Erwin Feldkamp, Supervisor of Production Control at the Ford Manchester Plant, resides in Bridgewater. Mr. Feldkamp has been a resident of this area all of his life. He graduated from Saline High School in 1935. Prior to his ten years of service with the Ford Motor Company, Mr. Feldkamp was employed at Goodyear's. He is the father of three children and served as director of the Bridgewater Station School.

Lifelong Bridgewater resident and 37-year Ford Motor Company employee, Erwin Feldkamp, 63, will retire February 29, 1980 from his position as-Superintendent of Material Handling at the Saline plant — and as fate has it, Erwin is working a day extra, this being Leap Year Week! "Ford has been real good to me; it's a good company to work for," Erwin says. Throughout Erwin's years at Ford, his wife Esther and their family have been an important part of his life. "My wife, Esther Wackenhut before we were married, is a local girl and we've known each other our whole lives," Erwin says. "We were married in 1939 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater." In 1943 Erwin quit a job with Goodyear Department Store as home furnishing salesman and installation man — he tiled the basement of the Curtiss Mansion as his first job -- to join Ford. He took a considerable pay cut. "I decided that to get into Ford Motor Co. would be better for the future," Erwin explains. The day after Erwin quit Goodyear's and was hired by Ed Hering at the Ford Soybean Mill (now Weller's), he started as astock handler.

Between that first Ford job and the one he has now, Erwin has been transferred to different jobs and plants seven times. Most of the moves have involved promotions, but he had another reason for welcoming the last change, to head of Material Handling at the Saline plant."I like this last job the best because of the people I work 3- with and because the plant's near home. I like being in my oldhome town!" Erwin says.

Erwin was born in 1916 on the farm where he was 3 raised, in Saline Township. After elementary grades in a one-room school, he attended the Saline Public School's original Union School building for one semester and then helped,move fixtures, etc. to the new building - today's UnionSchool."I remember the old school's rickety stairways," Erwinsays.He graduated from high school May 29, 1935. "Saline has changed tremendously since then; I used to know everyone in town ... funny the way it grows," Erwin says. "Now I read names of streets, in the paper, and I don't even know where they are ... So many names of peopletoo, and I don't know them anymore."But no matter how big Saline grows, Erwin will never losetrack of his family and old friends.

Erwin and Esther have three sons and one daughter. They are: Bob, a Millwright, currently full time Union Representative for Skilled Trades, married to Nancy who owns Arbor's Beauty Shop in Tecumseh; James who works in Sales andPricing in Ford's Electric and Electronic Division at the Ford Rawsonville Plant, married to Carolyn who teaches school in Adrian; Dave, the manager of Lenawee Tire and Auto Supply Co. in Adrian, married to Karol, a teacher in Clinton. Their daughter Kathy is a Research Assistant for the Michigan Evaluation and Resource Center in Ann Arbor. Erwin and Esther have seven grandchildren.

Erwin's mother, who will be 88 soon, lives in the-; Evangelical Home, Saline. His brothers and sisters are: Harold of Saline, LeRoy of Adrian, and Arlene Hoeft of Ann Arbor. J Erwin and Esther belong to St.

John's Church, where they were married. Through the years Erwin has served his church and community in many ways, as a Director of the old grade school in Bridgewater, Director of the Zoning Board in Bridgewater Township, President of the Church Council; and he is currently serving on the Board of Directors of Saline Community Hospital. He has won the Ford Motor Co. Citizenship Award for his years of community service. "I plan to stay in the automotive business, in the sales end, on a part-time basis," Erwin says for the future. Even so, without a doubt, his buddies at the plant will miss him dearly. Erwin's co-workers have planned a retirement party for him at the American Legion Hall, Friday, March 21.

RETIRING THIS FRIDAY FROM FORD'S, after a 37-year career with the automaker, Erwin Feldkamp reminisces about the good old days. A grouping of Taylor Jacobsen's prints of Old Time Saline, which hangs in the front office at the local Ford Plant, shows some of the buildings that Erwin's life has been involved with. Gordon McKay, Operations Manager at today's Saline Plant, is a willing audience as Erwin points to the shed at the former Soybean Plant [now Weller's] where he-, first worked for Ford. Feldkamp attended the old three-story Union School on McKay and Ann Arbor St. for one year, then helped move into the present-day Union School where he graduated in 1935. He did his banking at the old three-story Citizens Bank and his first job, with Goodyear's Department Store, took him to the Curtiss Mansion for a tiling installation.

Erwin C. Feldkamp of Bridgewater, Michigan, age 88, died Saturday, June 5, 2004 at Saline Community Hospital, as a consequence of congestive heart failure. Mr. Feldkamp was born June 22, 1916, in Bridgewater, MI, son of Clarence and Lillie (Weber) Feldkamp. He had been a resident of Bridgewater all of his life and affectionately known too many as the Mayor of Bridgewater. On June 22, 1939, he was married to Esther Wackenhut and she preceded him in death on April 21, 1998. Erwin was a life member of the St. John's Lutheran Church, also in Bridgewater, Michigan. In his professional life, Mr. Feldkamp was employed by Ford Motor Company for 38 years, retiring in 1980. After retiring from Ford he continued employment at George Underwood Lincoln-Mercury Ford Dealership in Clinton, MI, as a car and truck salesperson.

Erwin's survivors include four children, Robert (Pamela) Feldkamp, James (Carolyn) Feldkamp, all of Tecumseh, David (Karol) Feldkamp of Adrian, Michigan, and Kathy (Randy) Johnson of Scotts Valley, California. Other survivors include twelve grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; one brother, Leroy of Adrian, Michigan; one sister, Arlene Hoeft of Huntington, WV; a sister-in-law, Rena Feldkamp of Saline; and several nieces and nephews. In addition to his wife, Esther; he was preceded in death by one brother, Harold Feldkamp. Erwin was a loving father, grandfather, and husband and will be greatly missed.

Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 9, 2004 at the St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, MI, with Rev Kurt Peterson officiating. Burial will follow in the St John's Lutheran Church cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the St John's steeple/elevator fund, or the charity of one's choice. Marriage Notes for Erwin Feldkamp and Esther Wackenhut:

A very pretty wedding took place in St. John's Lutheran Church, in Bridgewater last Thursday evening June 22, 1939 when Miss Esther Luella Wackenhut, daughter of Herman Wackenhut of Burmeister Road, became the bride of Erwin C. Feldkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Feldkamp. Rev. C. M. Phillip performed the ceremony using the double ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk net and lace. The dress was made with gathered sleeves and trimmed in front with glass orange blossoms which matched her beaded, crowned veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses held together with a large white satin bow. Mrs. Erwin Wild, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in peach marquisette and her flowers were yellow daisies and lavender sweet peas tied with yellow-satin. The groom was attended by his brother, Harold, and the ring bearer was Donald O'Hara. Little Betty Noble, daughter of Mrs. D. Noble, was flower girl. The altar was beautiful with palms, roses, delphiniums, white lilies and garden flowers. Miss Dorothy Betz presided at the organ. Miss Marion Horton of Detroit and Mrs. Carl Burmeister sang, "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony. Ushers were Clarence Wackenhut, brother of the bride, Leroy Feldkamp, brother of the groom, Paul Mann, a cousin, and Erwin Wild, a brother-in-law.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's father. One hundred ten relatives and friends were present. Guests came from Ann Arbor, Detroit and Saline. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Hulda Armbruster, Hilda Hertler and Gertrude Zahn catering. The wedding day was also the groom's birthday anniversary and the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and will reside at the home of the bride's father. They received many beautiful wedding gifts. The groom is employed at Goodyear's in Ann Arbor.

Open House Fetes Feldkamps' 25th Between 75 and 100 people called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Feldkamp at the open house this week in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Guests came from Jackson, Clinton, Manchester, Ann Arbor, Saline, and Bridgewater. Neighbors presented them with a silver dollar tree. They were also presented with a silver ball about the size of a golf ball with a card containing the names of the couples who had celebrated their silver anniversaries in the family — the Feldkamps in turn are to present it to the next couple to celebrate their 25th. Started as a "sort of joke" a number of years ago, it has now become a tradition in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin C. Feldkamp of Bridgewater were honored last Sunday June 24, 1989 with a dinner at the Tecumseh Country Club to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. Erwin C. Feldkamp married Esther Wackenhut at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater on June 22, 1939 in a ceremony witnessed by Pearl Wild, the bride's sister, and Harold Feldkamp, the groom's brother. The two attendants were among the 125 friends and relatives attending the anniversary celebration by the Feldkamps' four children: Bob and Pam Feldkamp and Jim and Carolyn Feldkamp, all of Tecumseh; Dave and Karol Feldkamp of Adrian; and Kathy and Randy Johnson of Aptos, Calif. Also attending from the Feldkamps' wedding party were Donald O'Hara, ringbearer; Leroy Feldkamp, Paul Mann, and Erwin Wild, ushers; Dorothy Armbruster, organist; and Doris Burmeister, soloist.

Following dinner, the couple enjoyed a program that looked back at the past 50 years, recalling some of the family's favorite memories. Florine Rentschler, niece of the couple, and Kelly and Kristy Feldkamp, the eldest of their 10 grandchildren, shared poems and words of love with the group. The highlight of the program was a video presentation set to music and showing photographs of the couple's 50 years together.
