- 1161 i. Albert Henry<sup>9</sup> Stollsteimer, born Aug 1880 in Buffalo, Erie Co, New York; died 09 May 1962 in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada. He married Annie May ?; born 1896; died 31 Jan 1963 in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

Notes for Albert Henry Stollsteimer:

Regina, Saskatchewan, Sept. 8, 1934 - William Gunderson, trusty prisoner at Regina jail who is snterested In the Oxford Group movement, told authorities the other day all about a crime he committed back in 1931.

Gunderson was sentenced Saturday to five months by Magistrate W. B. Scott, K.C., in Mounted Police court for breaking and entering a grocery store at Flaxcombe, Saskatchewan, on October 10, 1931.

But Gunderson will only serve about one month of the sentence which became effective Saturday. Gunderson still has four months to serve of a 15-month sentence imposed upon him at Lampman in December, 1933, for attempted safe "blowing." This term concludes In January, and the one imposed Saturday in February.

Gunderson's confession gave police their first clue to what was evidently a "perfect crime," Corporal W. Lambert, R.C.M.P., prosecuting, told the court. When the safe in A. H. Stollsteimer's grocery store at Flaxcombe was found "blown" there was not a single clue, he said, and first inkling of who was responsible came with Gunderson's confession.

Troy Beaver, speaking as a friend of Gunderson's, said the man wished to clear up his past as he had a job to go to upon completion of his term and wished to be re-united with his wife and child. Mr. Beaver was emphatic Gunderson would make restitution and repay for the damaged safe when re-established. A companion of Gunderson's in the Flaxcombe episode is at present in a Manitoba jail. Gunderson told the court his previous convictions included terms of seven months in Prince Albert for selling homebrew and one month in another jail for vagrancy in addition to the Lampman sentence.

Helena immigrated to the United States about 1869 at age 20 with her father, probably on the ship, New York. After arriving in the United States, she worked in a tavern in Lansing, Michigan where she met Johann Ulrick (John U.) Stierley, born October 26, 1839, a widower. After a four-week courtship, they were married by a Lutheran minister.

According to the 1870 census, they lived on farm in DeWitt Township, Clinton, County, Michigan. John's parents, John (65) and Catherine (66) lived with them. All of their children were born in DeWitt Township. The 1880 Census shows Helena's father, Andrew Kiensle (75) living with them in DeWitt Township. German was spoken in the home. In 1894 they traded their farm near DeWitt for another east of Potterville, Michigan near the King School where John served as a school director. One of the schoolteachers who boarded at their home taught Helena, English. Helena made for each of her children a quilt – red and white for the daughters, blue and white for the sons. John died January 24, 1917 at age

Notes for Johann Ludwig (Lewis) Staebler, Jr.:

J. Louis Staebler, Sr., was born in Germany in 1820, and died in Cooper County, Missouri, in 1903. The ancestral seat of the Stabler family is at or near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mr. Staebler immigrated to America in 1853 and settled near Urbane, Campaign Co, Ohio, at that time, was in a more or less wooded condition and the forests in process of clearing. The soil was wet and malaria was prevalent among the settlers and residents. Mr. Staebler became afflicted with malaria and was advised by his family doctor to go west, entirely out of the malaria-ridden country.

He had friends in Missouri and learned through them of the excellence of the climate in the Cooper County neighborhood. Accordingly, he disposed of his property in Ohio, and drove across country in company with two other families, their belongings being carried in six wagons. In 1859, Mr. Staebler brought his belongings to Missouri with two teams and lived for the first two years on a farm south of Boonville and Cooper County in 1863, the Confederates raided the Staebler farm, stripped the farm and home of provisions and livestock and feed, and robbed him of his money and all his possessions. A battle was fought near the Staebler place between the Union forces under General Kratz Brown and Price's men. In 1873 he located on the farm owned by his son, J. Louis Staebler, Jr. His wife was Christina Graver. She was born near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1833 and departed this life January 20, 1917. J. Louis Staebler was the only child of his parents.

Notes for Johann Georg Murrthum:
Macomb County, Michigan - History

Organized on July 3, 1864, Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church was the first German Protestant congregation in Mount Clemens. Its founding trustees were John Rossow and Abraham Devantier from Prussia, John William Miller and Carsten Roecker from Hanover, and John Charles Riemold and John George Murthum from Wuerttemberg. Zion Church operated as a free congregation, welcoming all Christians. It served primarily German-speaking Catholic and Protestant immigrants, including Lutherans, Calvinists and Huguenots. Worshipping at first in the Macomb County Courthouse, the congregation purchased this site, the former Methodist Academy, in 1862. The nave of the present brick sanctuary was built by Minard Barr in 1880. The tower and transepts were added in 1895.

The itinerant ministers who served Zion Church in its formative years were Methodist, Lutheran and Evangelical. The first resident pastor was the Reverend William Kies (1862 - 1864). He was followed by the Reverend Hermann Gundert (1864 - 1903), who contributed $4,000 of his own money to help fund the tower and transept of the present church building. It was not until the 1920s, during the pastorate of the Reverend F.A. Roese (1903 - 26) that English became the language of the worship service and of church records. In the early twentieth century, the congregation turned to humanitarian work. Lead by the Reverend Jacob Wulfmann (1927 - 49), the congregation helped support the Evangelical Deaconess Hospital and the Evangelical Home for Children and Aged in Detroit. In 1961 the church received its present name, Zion United Church of Christ. Located at 62 New Street in Mt. Clemens.

George Murthum was born 19 December, 1820, in Musberg, Wuerttemberg, and died 1n Macomb County on the 21 or 22 October, 1888. He married Dorothea Schimpf, the daughter of Johann G. Schimpf of Schonaich, Wuerttemberg, and farmed land "seven miles to the southwest", According to Pastor Gundert's notes, probably near Hayes and Clinton River Roads in present Sterling Heights. He left Zion Church to help found St. Paul 's Church on Mound Road, Warren. George Murthum and his wife are buried next to Johann Carl Reimold near the Clinton Grove Cemetery office. The hometowns of these three persons are neigh boring villages on the southwest edge of Stuttgart, the capital of Wuerttemberg in Germany.

The Wuerttemberg Theology

As two of the founding members of Zion (J.C. Reimold and George Murthum), Missionary Friedrich Schmid and Pastor Gundert all had their spiritual roots in the Evangelical Church of Wuerttemberg, It is appropriate to briefly review the place of this church in German Protestantism. Just as the Kingdom of Wuerttemberg was independent, so was the Evangelical Church free of the strict dogmatic statements demanded by the Calvinist and Lutheran churches. Johann Brenz, a friend of Martin Luther, led the Reformation in Wuerttemberg .and developed a simple succinct statement of faith and catechism of only three articles. The first is that the teaching of the church is based on the teaching of Jesus and his apostles and that Jesus is the eternal, only-begotten Son of God who died on the cross for the sins of the world; the second is the Apostles' Creed; and the third article identifies the sacraments as Holy Baptism and the Lord 's Supper, both of which are to be celebrated as instituted by Jesus. This simpler approach to faith can be seen in development of Zion Church from the beginning to the present day. Inherent in our heritage from the Evangelical Church of Wuerttemberg is the privilege of a genuinely evangelical freedom of interpretation, based on the teaching of Jesus and the apostles.

- 1621 viii. Robert W. Butchee, born 03 Sep 1860 in Polk Co, Texas; died 07 Oct 1883 in Sipe Spring, Comanche Co, Texas.

Notes for Robert W. Butchee:

October 7, 1883 - Oakland church, six miles from Sipe Springs, in this county, was the scene of a dark and terrible tragedy last Sunday evening. The following is the most reliable report of the deplorable affair we have been able to obtain: Just after the congregation had left Oakland Church last Sunday, to attend a baptizing, Robert and William Butchee became involved in a quarrel with their brother-in-law, Carter Harris. One word brought on another until Robert told Harris that "he would fight him a fair fight." Harris then turned off into the brush if toward his horse, as he was going after something. The young men and a man name Jones were left together. One of the brothers suggested that they all go on home and avoid further difficulty with Harris.

The party stated, but before they had gone far Harris returned with a gun (which he had hidden in the brush) and called to them to "hold on." The young men stopped, but Jones kept on. Robert Butchee stated to meet Harris, when the latter said, "If you come any further I'll kill you." Robert stopped and replied, "I will not come any further, then," having previously told Harris that he and his brother were both unarmed. After a few more words, Harris leveled his gun and shot the young man, inflecting a mortal wound in the stomach. As Jones looked back, he saw Harris shoot and Robert Butchee fall. Harris then cocked the other barrel of this gun, with the evident intention of shotting William, but before he could do so, the young man wither struck the murderer with a rock or sprang like a tiger upon him, and the two strongmen were locked in a death struggle the ferocity of which is hard to describe, rising and falling and rolling in the dust with all the fury of wounded lions, each straining every nerve to kill each other. There is something terribly grim in a struggle like that – it means life for one, death for the other – and the silence is broken by hisses and curses of hate and revenge, mingled with the groans of the dying brother. Both fought within cool desperation that was awful to witness, but the furious fight was finally decided in favor of William Butchee, a boy of nineteen or twenty, who wrenched the gun from Harris's hands and struck him a violent blow over the head, felling him to the ground. As Harris would rise, young Butchee used the gun as a cudgel with terrible effect. Harris soon sank to the earth disabled, and his antagonist thought him dead. His injuries on the head are dangerous, but not necessarily fatal. Physicians think he will recover. Robert Butchee died in about an hour after being shot, his remains were brought to Comanche Monday and buried in the cemetery near town on Tuesday. He was about 23 years of age, and his sad end is greatly deplored by many sorrowing relatives and friends.

October 7, 1883 – It seems that Carter Harris had married the widowed sister of the young men, and the pair recently separated on account of cruel treatment to the woman and her little children. Harris has been a source of great annoyance to the family ever since, and it is said, he went to the church last Sunday with the avowed intention of killing Robert and William Butchee. If reports are correct, there will be a damning chain of evidence drawn around Mr. Harris in the criminal court. Harris was brought to town Thursday evening and lodged in jail, to await trail. William Butchee gave bond and will have an examining trial before Judge Brewer today.

Notes for Johann Ludwig (Lewis) Staebler, Jr.:

J. Louis Staebler, Sr., was born in Germany in 1820, and died in Cooper County, Missouri, in 1903. The ancestral seat of the Stabler family is at or near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mr. Staebler immigrated to America in 1853 and settled near Urbane, Campaign Co, Ohio, at that time, was in a more or less wooded condition and the forests in process of clearing. The soil was wet and malaria was prevalent among the settlers and residents. Mr. Staebler became afflicted with malaria and was advised by his family doctor to go west, entirely out of the malaria-ridden country.

He had friends in Missouri and learned through them of the excellence of the climate in the Cooper County neighborhood. Accordingly, he disposed of his property in Ohio, and drove across country in company with two other families, their belongings being carried in six wagons. In 1859, Mr. Staebler brought his belongings to Missouri with two teams and lived for the first two years on a farm south of Boonville and Cooper County in 1863, the Confederates raided the Staebler farm, stripped the farm and home of provisions and livestock and feed, and robbed him of his money and all his possessions. A battle was fought near the Staebler place between the Union forces under General Kratz Brown and Price's men. In 1873 he located on the farm owned by his son, J. Louis Staebler, Jr. His wife was Christina Graver. She was born near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1833 and departed this life January 20, 1917. J. Louis Staebler was the only child of his parents.

Notes for Sarah Ellen Little:

Sarah Ellen Little daughter of James and Addie (Root) Little. She married William A. Stierley on February 11, 1903 in Windsor, Eaton Co., Michigan. She married Claude L. Redfield on March 23, 1907 in Charlotte, Eaton Co., Michigan.

Death certificate shows Sarah B. Redfield was the daughter of James Little and Addie Root (both of Eaton Co., Mich), female, white, housewife, not indicated whether married or widow, born October 12, 1884 in Eaton Co. and died on May 8, 1916 in Eaton Twp., Eaton Co., Michigan at the age of 31 years 6 months and 26 days, cause of death Embolism. Informant Claude Redfield of Eaton Twp. Burial was on May 11, 1916 in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

Sarah (Little) was married to my grandfather William Stierley and they had 2 children before divorcing and she married Claude Redfield. I do not know why her middle initial is listed as B. on the death certificate as all of her birth and marriage documents have it listed as E. or Ellen.

I am the granddaughter of Claude Redfield. In my experience with records, sometimes they are misread, as in the case with the Addie "B" instead of her true initial, E. A clerks visual of a signature might appear as different than actually written. With cursive letters, people's flair in signatures are often mistaken. Also, I will be by sometime to clean the grave properly with D-2 and non-abrasive brushes. (no metal) I grew up in Eaton Rapids. Thank you all for your impute.

Notes for Christian Friederich (Cristino) Stollsteimer:

At age 13 attended school at Hohenheim Castle; then at 14 worked for a merchant in Reutlingen, Wurtemberg. A few years later was a bookkeeper for a weaver in Heidenheim on Brenz; then worked for Mr. Kayser in Boeblingen, Wurtemberg, who was a grocer.

On April 17, 1860 he left by way of Frankfurt to Hamburg, Germany for the United States. The ship stopped at Southampton, England on its way. He landed in 1860 at New York City and traveled by way of the Erie Canal to Detroit, Michigan and stayed overnight in Ann Arbor, Michigan and by train thru Chicago, Illinois to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. From Milwaukee he travel on foot to Greenfield, Wisconsin.

On April 6, 1863 he left Greenfield for the west. He went by way of Hamilton, Missouri; St. Joseph, Missouri; Fort McKearney, Colorado; Denver, Colorado; to Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

When he arrived in the United States he spoke only German and French. After a few years in Wisconsin he learned English and Spanish.

He had a registered horse and cattle branding iron. He had his own coinage. He was involved in several business ventures, a few with Kit Carson.

Corruption hinders progress for the Jicarilla Apache

By John M. Motter

After waiting almost 30 years, the Jicarilla Apache finally had a home, the reservation they still occupy in New Mexico just south of Pagosa Springs. Unfortunately, even after obtaining title to the land in 1887 following a presidential order, the Jicarilla had a great deal of difficulty occupying their new home. Government bureaucracy, squatters and thieving, dishonest agents were only part of the trouble. Black troops belonging to the Tenth Cavalry were stationed in Dulce, their job in theory to protect the Jicarilla and their hard-won land base.

The Tenth's commander, Col. Grierson, charged Indian Agent Christian Stollsteimer with using his official influence to retard the removal of illegal settlers from the reservation. Stollsteimer was in no position to protect Jicarilla interests. J.M. Archuleta, business manager of the Archuleta Mercantile Company and owner of a large livestock operation in southern Colorado and northern New Mexico was his son-in-law. Archuleta was son of J.M. Archuleta Sr., the Colorado Senator for whom Archuleta County is named. The Archuletas were well connected politically in Colorado. Archuleta Mercantile Co. at one time or another operated stores in Amargo, Lumberton, Edith and Pagosa Springs. I think the Pagosa Springs store was on Pagosa Street on the lot later occupied by Sullenburger's Hotel.

A great deal of feuding took place between Archuleta and his compatriots and the Anglo stockmen in Pagosa Springs. Archuleta's Pagosa business burned at least twice. Archuleta apparently led an effort to move the county seat from Pagosa Springs to the settlement that later became Edith. It was natural that a man of Archuleta's economic stature would be called upon to protect the interests of his neighbors. It was partially through the influence of the Archuletas that the Jicarilla had been removed to Mescalero in 1883, and it was this same group that sought the advice of Stollsteimer when protesting the return of the Jicarilla.

Stollsteimer stated that he could not afford to offend the squatters; that he had much property; and that if he attempted to aid in their removal, they would prosecute him for damages. Furthermore, he expected to make his home in that section after he ceased to be Indian Agent. He favored the removal of the Jicarilla to the Ute Reservation and removal of the Utes to Utah. Stollsteimer was not alone in wanting to send the Jicarilla and Utes off to Utah. Daniel Egger, editor of The Pagosa Springs News from 1891 until about 1900, wrote endlessly of the necessity of "removing the Utes." One can only assume that Egger's readers agreed with him. Stollsteimer opposed the construction of a sawmill for building an agency and homes for the Jicarilla. When confronted by Special Agent Welton who had been instrumental in helping the Jicarilla obtain their reservation, Stollsteimer denied the charges and informed the Indian Office that Welton's envy had caused him to misinterpret his actions. Grierson and Welton brought additional charges against Stollsteimer. They claimed he was opposing government policies regarding the Jicarilla; that he was illegally grazing sheep on the reservation, and instigating plans to prevent the Jicarilla occupation of their own land. They both recommended his suspension.

In October 1887, the commissioner appointed T.D. Marcum to investigate the charges. Marcum concluded that Stollsteimer should be removed from office, but the Indian Office took no action. During an inspection visit to the Southern Ute Agency in Ignacio, Marcum found Stollsteimer's farmer (Agent) guilty of signing certificates for vouchers he knew to be false. This indirectly implicated Stollsteimer. In June, Marcum finally had sufficient evidence to file the following charges against the Southern Ute and Jicarilla agent (Stollsteimer): awarding contracts to higher rather than lower bidders, making open market purchases at excessively high prices, purchasing old buildings at five times their true market value, making questionable distribution of annuity goods, and violating other departmental regulations.

On June 20, 1888, Stollsteimer lost his job, but through his political connections he obtained the position of clerk for the Jicarilla agency in 1889. Stollsteimer's corrupt practices gave the Jicarilla little cause to respect the government and its representatives. More next week on the Jicarilla's long struggle to make a home in Dulce. Much of the information for this series of articles concerning the Jicarilla is taken from "The Jicarilla Apache Tribe, A History, 1846-1970," by Veronica E. Velarde Tiller.

Notes for Adela Josephina (Della) Stollsteimer:

Durango, Colorado, May 3, 1899 - The Ute Indian Reservation will be thrown open to settlement tomorrow at noon. The first man took his place before the land office door at 6.30 a. m. Tuesday and began his long wait. The man is Philip F. Voght of Blanco, Coetello County, Colorado. News of Voght's initiative spread quickly over the city during the morning, and at noon the line began to lengthen at a rapid rate. By nightfall it had extended down the stairway into the street, the last man being compelled to stand in the wind and the snow, which has been playing fitfully upon the thoroughfares all day.

Two young women, Misses Emma and Adela Stollsteiner, neither of whom is over 20 years, occupy the third and fourth places in the line, their brother, A. P. Stollsteiner, holding fifth place. Those in line have agreed to preserve the lineup intact while the members take turns at eating and sleeping. There are several hundred boomers in the city, but most of them will make the run for the land, believing that they are too far away to be stopped, although Registrar Perkins has announced that he will not receive duplicate filings, regardless of when improvements on the land were begun. A snow storm is raging here.

Notes for William Murthum:

Past and Present of Macomb County, Michigan - by Robert F. Eldredge. Page 294:

William Murthum, who is engaged in the cultivation of fruit and berries in Warren, was born on the Reimold farm, in Clinton Township, Macomb County, January 21, 1854, and is of German lineage, his parents, George and Dora (Schimpf) Murthum, having been born in the fatherland. The former came to this county in 1845, settling first on the Reimold farm, where he remained until 1862, when he removed to Sterling Township, purchasing the Saunders farm, upon which he lived until his life's labors were ended in 1895. He left a widow, who died in 1898, and four children: Charles, a resident of Utica, Michigan; Mrs. George Berz, of Sterling Township; William; and Mrs. Henry Wolfe, of Mount Clemens. Mr. Murthum was deeply interested in the public welfare and his aid could always be relied upon to further progressive measures, while his position as a supporter of democratic principles was an unequivocal one. He belonged to the German Evangelical church of Mount Clemens and was most loyal to its welfare.

William Murthum was a public school student between the ages of six and thirteen years, but at that early age left home and started out in life on his own account, since which time he has been dependent entirely upon his own resources. Going to Detroit he there learned the confectioner's trade, after which he returned to Warren Township and gave his attention to agricultural pursuits, following farming until thirty years of age, when he opened a meat market in the village of Warren. After conducting it for four years he sold out to F. W. Cartwright and rented the Cartwright farm, remaining thereon for two years. He next purchased a part of the Spinnings farm, to which he removed, making it his home for six years, when in connection with C. F. Halsey, he opened a general store in Warren. That partnership, however, was dissolved after six months, and a year later Mr. Murthum opened another store in the village, which he conducted successfully for twelve years, when he sold out to Frank Peck. In the meantime he had purchased twenty acres of land in the northern part of the village, on which he erected his handsome residence. Here he now lives, devoting his time to the cultivation of fruit and berries, for which he finds a ready market in Detroit. He makes a close study of the needs of trees and plants and raises only high-grade fruit.

In 1883 Mr. Murthum was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Cartwright, a daughter of F. W. Cartwright, of Warren Township. She died in 1884 and their only child died in infancy. In 1886 Mr. Murthum wedded Miss Fanny Trusdale, of Oakland County, and they have two children, Edna and Jessie, both at home. In his political views Mr. Murthum is an earnest democrat, but the honors and emoluments of office have little attraction for him, as he has always preferred to devote his energies to his business interests, and he finds in the duties of the everyday life ample opportunity to exercise his industry, perseverance and determination— his dominant qualities.

Notes for Georg Friedrich (Fred) Gollmar:

A History of Cleveland and Its Environs: Biography. By Elroy McKendree Avery, Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago-New York, 1918. Page 469:

Fred G. Gollmar. There are very few self-made men who, in looking back over the path they have successfully climbed, will really wish that their lot had been otherwise. There is a compensating satisfaction in self-earned victory that is very valuable to one who has gained it. One of the prospering business men of Cleveland is Fred G. Gollmar, who is president of F. J. Gollmar & Company, and his business success has been the direct result of his own industry and perseverance.

Fred G. Gollmar was born in Stuttgart, Germany, January 8, 1876. His parents were George and Christina Gollmar, who came to the United States in 1881 and settled with their family at Medina, Ohio. There Fred G. attended the public schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he went to work as an employee of A. I. Root Company, manufacturers of beekeepers' supplies. He was steady and industrious and remained with the company for seven years, when he came to Cleveland, where he very soon secured a position as salesman for the firm of Stranahan & Company, where, for ten years he had charge of their cigar department in the Arcade Building. It was this connection that gave him the experience that has since proved so valuable in his own enterprises.

During his long term of service with Stranahan & Company, Mr. Gollmar had contracted a wide acquaintance and made many personal friends, and when he severed his old business relations and purchased a cigar business of his own, at No. 163 Arcade Building, he found a purchasing public ready for him. As a business man on his own responsibility, Mr. Gollmar soon proved the possession of many of the business qualities that are essential to success, and in 1912 illustrated it by taking over the cigar business in the Rathskeller on East Fourth Street. In the following year he secured the cigar trade of his former employers, and in 1914 he purchased the cigar stand at No. 742 Euclid Avenue. At present he is operating all the above under the general name of the F. G. Gollmar Company, of which he is both president and treasurer. To no outside influence does Mr. Gollmar owe his business success. He worked faithfully and efficiently while in the employ of others and when the opportunity came for independence, he had the wisdom and good judgment to make use of it. He is now one of the substantial business men of this city.

In February 26, 1902, Mr. Gollmar was married at Cleveland to Miss Laura Blaschke, and they have one daughter, Anna Louise, who is attending the public school. Mr. Gollmar has always been an upright and useful citizen and has ever used his influence in the furtherance of movements that promise to be generally beneficial. In political affiliation he has preferred to be independent. He belongs to Forest City Lodge, Free & Accepted Masons, to the National Union and to the order of Maccabees, and is known to be very charitable although never, advertising his generosity.

Notes for Henry Carl Friedrich:

History of Cooper County, Missouri by W.F. Johnson in 1919; page 408:

The life story of Henry Carl Friedrich, of the Billingsville neighborhood, Palestine Township, is a record of industry, energy, good business management, and of an interest taken in good works beyond that of the ordinary citizen. Since the purchase of his first modest farm of 121 acres in Aug., 1909, Mr. Friedrich has been prosperous and enterprising. His present home place of 214.70 acres is a fine farm, good land, which raises good crops each year. This farm, which is fairly well improved, was purchased by Mr. Friedrich in 1909 at a cost of $74 an acre, or a total cost of $16,000. Mr. Friedrich has done considerable improving of the property since he purchased it. He has built over seven miles of woven wire fencing. He handles pure bred Hereford cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs.

Henry Carl Friedrich was born in Germany, Feb. 11, 1866. He is a son of Herman and Martha Elizabeth (Sunshine) Friedrich. His father was a public school teacher in Hesse-Cassel, and died in 1868, leaving seven children: Mary died in Germany; William came to America, settled in Cooper County, Mo., and died here in 1897; August died in the land of his birth; Ferdinand lives in Pennsylvania; Charles lives on a farm eight miles east of Boonville; Henry Carl, subject of this review; Adam resides on a farm south of Bunceton, Missouri. The mother of these children was born May 3, 1835, and is living at the home of Mr. Friedrich.

Henry Carl Friedrich received a good education in his native land, which he left in 1885, accompanied by his mother and his brother, Adam Friedrich. When he arrived in Cooper County, he was possessed of $200 in cash. He first worked out by the month until he became familiar with conditions and then began renting land. He has made a success of his vocation as an intelligent tiller of the soil. His first farm was bought on time payments and the first crop season, that of the famous dry year of 1901, was a period of discouragement to him. However, everybody suffered the same hardships and like his neighbors, he managed to pull through and has had enough good crops in past years to enable him to trade his first homestead for his present place. This trade placed him $8000 in debt, but this is all paid and the Friedrich farm is clear of all indebtedness.

Jan. 7, 1892, Henry Carl Friedrich and Miss Lena Grauer were married. Mrs. Lena Friedrich was born March 5, 1872, near Boonville, Missouri, and is a daughter of Jacob and Catherine Grauer, natives of Germany and Texas, respectively, the latter of whom died in 1881.

The children born to Henry Carl and Lena Friedrich are: Ferdinand, Edward Carl, Arthur Henry, Oscar Harmon, Henry Rudolph, Adolph Eugene, and Adolph Elmer. Ferdinand William Friedrich was born Nov. 19, 1892. He is a farmer and owns 85 acres of land. He married Lydia Delius. Edward Carl Friedrich was born Jan. 23, 1895, is a farmer and land owner. He was called to the colors to serve in the National Army July 26, 1918. He was in training at Camp Funston, received his honorable discharge in Jan., 1919, and returned to his home Jan. 14, 1919. Arthur Henry Friedrich was born Feb. 7, 1897, and is a land owner and farmer. Oscar Herman Friedrich was born Jan. 30, 1899. Henry Rudolph Friedrich was born Nov. 3, 1902. Adolph Eugene Friedrich was born March 27, 1908. Adolph Elmer Friedrich was born July 8, 1916.

Mr. Friedrich is a republican. For a number of years he has been a member of the local school board and is serving as president of the board. For the past 13 years he has been trustee of the Billingsville Evangelical Church. He is active in educational work, is a teacher of the Bible Class in the Sunday School and has been superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years. He is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and is active in lodge circles. He holds membership in the Woodmen of the World and he and his brother Charles inaugurated and were the principal organizers of the Speed Camp of Woodmen in 1900. He is a member of the Ladies' Circle and Auxiliary of the Woodmen.

Notes for Gertrude Maxine (Gertie) Williams:

Gertrude Maxine (Williams) Stierley was born June 6, 1931 to Jesse and Florence (Chapman) Williams in South Haven Michigan. When asked how she wanted to be remembered she would jokingly say, "as a grouchy old lady," but she'd go on to elaborate that family was the most important thing to her. She was the matriarch of the family and she loved them well. She is survived by her son, David Stierley (Evelyn), her daughter Pam Martin (Gary), her daughter-in-law Tanga Korte (Roy), along with numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. She loved all of them so much.

She was preceded in death by her mom, Florence from whom she inherited her resilience and strength, her sisters (Helen and Norma), her son, Donald Stierley, and her husband of 59 years, William Stierley. Reluctantly, she gave in to being set up on a blind date with a man home on furlough from the Air Force. 3 weeks later she married him and embarked on an amazing journey with the love of her life. Not only did she love her family, she loved God and served him too. Even as a child she walked to nearby churches every Sunday. Her love for God is the greatest legacy she has given her family. She worked and served in many different places throughout her lifetime. She was well loved as a bus driver for Lansing Christian, she worked in a Deli, and when she was younger she worked at St. Lawrence hospital until she contracted the measles. She served God in many roles as well, cooking dinners for large groups, and teaching Sunday school for many years, among many others. She's had many titles over the years; daughter, sister, wife, mom, niece, aunt, grandmother, and friend. But the greatest thing this incredible woman leaves behind, her legacy, is a life full of love for God and for others.

The Funeral Service will be held on Friday, July 14, 2023 at 11:00 AM at Maranatha Baptist Church, 2300 North Waverly Road, Lansing with Rev. Glenn Ray officiating. The visitation will be held on Thursday from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Palmer, Bush & Jensen Family Funeral Homes, Delta Chapel 6301 W. St. Joe Highway, Lansing. Visitation will continue Friday at the church at 10:00 AM until the time of service. Interment will take place at East Lawn Memory Garden at 4:00 PM. Memorials may be made to the Maranatha Baptist Church in memory of Gertrude.

Notes for Fredinand Francis (Fred) Stollsteimer:

May 10, 1899 – The rush at the land office was wild one. The line, consisting of one hundred people, was kept in check by a committee of ten until the whistles announced the noon hour. Main and Eighth Streets were crowded with people to witness the rush. When the land office opened at noon George P. White was the first man into the enclosure. White purchased the improvements on Chief Ignacio's ranch and the priority if filing. P. F. Voight was really the first man to file. He took up 160 acres of land in the valley of San Juan and cheerfully paid $80 and registry fees. Fred Stollsteimer and sisters followed next. They took mediately after filing, the Stollsteimer crowd rushed away from the and office to protect their holdings. The two girls, Della and Emma, daughters of the sheep king of the San Juan, formed an unique picture in the rush at the land office. The Stollsteimers have taken up over 1,200 acres of land and it is said will start a new town near Ignacio and extend the sheep industry throughout the valley of the San Juan.

A. F. Sellenberger filed a claim for a railroad from Cato to Pagosa Springs. Sellenberger, Whitney Newton and others are figuring on a railroad and town near Arboles. The land office quickly disposed of the applicants in line and registered 4 filings before closing.

Notes for Rodney Edmund Runsteen:

Betty L. Smith, of 1425 N. C St., is in critical condition this morning March 7, 1980 in an Omaha hospital after an accident Thursday night on west Dodge Road in Omaha. Douglas County Sheriff authorities said Ms. Smith was eastbound on Dodge about 7:30, following a car driven by Rodney Runsteen, 66, of Omaha. He stopped to make a left turn and Ms. Smith apparently ran into the stopped car, said Captain James T. Wintle. Authorities said they do not know why she hit the parked car. The impact pushed her car into the oncoming lane of traffic, where it bounced off a westbound car and roiled, Wintle said. The driver of that car was Debra L. Montoya, 16, of Omaha. He said Ms. Smith suffered head injuries and was taken to Nebraska Methodist Hospital. Mrs. Runsteen, a passenger in the car her husband was driving, received minor cuts and bruises, Runsteen said. Ms. Smith was alone in the car and Ms. Montoya escaped injury.

Notes for Alvin George Reimold:

Manchester - Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Reimold, Manchester, have been notified by the War department that their son, Pvt. Alvin G. Reimold, has been missing "somewhere in France" since Aug. 4. Pvt. Reimold, selected for service last December, was an infantryman, and had been seen action in France since the early part of July. He was home last April on a 14-day furlough before going overseas the following month. The 20-year-old soldier was trained at Camp Sheeler, Georgia, Fort George Meade, Maryland, and Camp Grant, Illinois. Before joining the Army, Reimold worked on his father's farm near Manchester.

"It was just like the old mouse trap play in football," said Pvt. Alvin G. Reimold in describing capture by the Germans last August. The 20-year-old member of the Fourth Infantry Division has just returned to the United States, after being interned by the Germans for nearly 10 months. "We were riding on tanks through France, and thought that the going was pretty easy. Four of the tanks got off onto the wrong road, and for a while we wondered if the Germans were still in the country. After a while we approached the town of Versailles, near Paris, and rolled right in without a bit of opposition. Then it happened, we had driven right past the German emplacements, and once inside town they opened up. At first we tried to escape, but the Germans cut us to ribbons. Out of the 75 men in the group, only 15 were taken prisoner, the rest were killed."

Reimold had very high praise for the American Air Force. "We were first taken to Lindburg, and then to Mooseburg," he said, "and during the time that they didn't make us walk, we were herded into boxcars. It is a funny feeling to be bombed and strafed by your own planes, but the AAF hit every thine that moved in Germany. Our train was wrecked, but luckily, I wasn't hurt. I can say that though the Germans didn't feel very well, we weren't kick around by them. They did stripe us of everything, including my watch. "I was then taken to Munich where they put me to work on the railroad for a while. That was about the most useless task I ever did, because as soon as we fixed the rail, American boomers wrecked them again. The city was a mass of destruction. The rail yards were all torn up, with the rails standing straight up in the air.

"The living conditions were terrible, and the food was worse, but the latter was aided by Red Cross parcels, which I got about once a week. We had to sleep on a straw tick, with no bed. It was so full of lice and bedbugs, that most of the time I just slept on the floor. "Then I got a break. I was sent to work on a farm about 50 miles from Munich, and there, was treated very well. The men ate the same food that the farmer did, we had clean clothes, and a good place to sleep.

"The German for whom we worked had a son who was a prisoner in New York. He told us his boy was 15 years old, and was set to become an officer when he was captured. The German press and radio had been telling the people about the terrible destruction that German planes were dealing out to New York City, but few of the people believed it, except the soldiers on the front lines. The farm I worked on was very backward. The only thing that I learned there was how to drive a team of oxen. There were few tractors, but this may have been because of the fuel shortage. "We were liberated by American troops early one morning in May, and then spent the rest of the day rounding up Germans. We also led the American troops to other farms, where we knew Americans were being kept. I wanted to go on with the patrol that freed us, and finish the war, but it was no go. They sent us, to Munich, and from there we flew to LaHarve, France, and from there we were sent home."

Reimold entered the Army Dec. 4, 1943, and was trained at Camp Wheeler, Georgia. He was sent to Fort Meade, Maryland, where he left for England, arriving in July, 1944. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reimold, Manchester are holding an open house in his honor from 1 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mother (Amanda),

I never realized how much I want and need you. So many things we didn't get to do. The laughter. The cries. The no goodbyes. I know you're happy as can be with our Lord all mighty pain free. Just remember I love you, ma, eternally with every ounce of all of me. I think of you now every day since the day you passed away. I grieve the love no longer felt as emptiness fills my heart. My angel you are and will always be the best living part of me. Until that day we meet again I'll do everything I forever can. I say now a final goodbye to the one and only mother of mine. I love you to the moon and back and don't you ever forget that.

I miss you, mom. Lala Willingham

She was born 22 Jun 1922 in Great Neck, Nassau Co, New York, and died 24 Jun 2014 in Las Cruces, Dona Ana Co, New Mexico.

Notes for Enid Thurston Frank:

Enid Thurston Frank Hecker died on June 24, 2014, at Mesilla Valley Hospice-La Posada in Las Cruces, New Mexico, after a brief illness. She was born June 22, 1922, and had just celebrated her 92nd birthday. She was born in New York City to Oliver C. Frank and Edna Thurston Frank, but home was in Great Neck, Long Island. She was an only child and was cherished by her parents, her many aunts, uncles, cousins and grandparents. During high school she worked in an antique shop and then did secretarial work for the family business, and later in the public library. Growing up in the Depression, she learned to utilize her many talents in hand crafting. During WWII, Enid enlisted as a Navy Wave, where she was stationed in Brooklyn, New York. She worked nights on payroll for the crews for 15 months. Enid met the love of her life and partner, Lee Hecker, during this time when he was in the Coast Guard. They had both gone to a beer garden with friends, where Lee introduced himself and took an immediate interest in Enid. They were married three months later in military uniforms, with many military friends in attendance. Their cake was made from donated sugar rations. After the birth of their first son, she left the Navy and returned to the family home in Great Neck where their next three children were born. They then moved to Lee's home state of Michigan. In 1954, Lee was hired on at White Sands Missile Range. They drove to Las Cruces, Enid in a 1952 Pontiac woody station wagon with five kids under the age of eight. Lee followed in a 1946 Ford flatbed truck with all of their belongings. Lee and Enid were together for 63 years, calling Las Cruces home, and thrived on being amazing parents, grandparents and active community members.

She was raised in the Episcopal Church in New York and remained an active member at St. Andrew's in Las Cruces, being one of the longest members at the church at the time of her death. While Enid refused to sing in elementary school, her musically inclined family's influence got her singing for several years in the church choir. She was a regular on the altar guild for many years, and with Lee was a longtime volunteer at the soup kitchen and had short periods of helping in the nursery and at LOGOs. She also was involved in the Dona Ana Extension Club and Red Hot Stitchers of the American Needlepoint Guild and won many awards for her beautiful work, which was frequently seen hanging in public places for all to enjoy. She was a very talented artist, including sewing, needlework, painting, and ceramics. Being afflicted with macular degeneration decreased and eventually stopped her ability to work with her hands, but for several years she was a generous contributor to research for this organization as well as for cancer, and other services related to children.

She is survived by daughters, Janice L. Neaves (Jack, deceased) Deborah A. Hecker (Jim Kelly), Laurie J. Hecker (Brian Meador) sons, Peter F. Hecker (Rachel Nevarez), Thomas J. Hecker (Susan Fields), Timothy A. Hecker (Robin Carlson). Her grandchildren, Chris Miller, Sherry (Kevin) Chesnut, Sandy (William) Harrell, Allie (Greg) Sakellakos, Joey Hecker, Jennifer (Roger) Prescott and Kari (Brian) Hecker, Vince (Erika), Nick and Bob Kelly, Samantha and Dave Hecker, Hallie and Taylor Meador, and eight great-grandchildren. Visitation will be at the cemetery from 12:30 pm until time of service Saturday.

Jo An (Joan) was born on June 29, 1926 in Wishart, Missouri to Willard (Button) and Phyllis Miller. Raised in rural Missouri, Joan found the love of her life when she met and later married a young sailor from Louisiana. Her husband, Mel (many fondly called him Gene), served his country in the U.S. Navy during WW II, the Korean conflict and the Cold War. Mel was often away from home, leaving Joan to raise their four children on her own. She was a brave, intelligent, strong-willed woman who never failed at anything she attempted in life. Joan had a sense of adventure and loved to travel. As the wife of a career Navy man she had ample opportunities to travel. With her young children in tow she traveled and made a home for her family in Guam, Hawaii, North Carolina, Oregon, Washington state, Missouri, and Northern California. After the death of Melder in 1986, Joan moved to Nevada and later settled in Sandpoint, Idaho. Joan never lost her sense of adventure, faith in independent thought and action, nor waived in her love of family and friends. All who knew and loved her will miss her.

Joan is survived by her two sons Alan (Charlie) Lawson of Mexico and Michael Lawson of Winslow, Arizona; daughter Susan Munson of Middletown, California; granddaughter Tamara Bertacchi of Santa Rosa, California; grandson James Lawson; and great-grand daughter Chianne Bertacchi. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, and son Jim.

Notes for Dorothy Ann Mutton:

Dorothy "Dot" A. Creasman, 90, passed away peacefully on November 7, 2023, surrounded by her three girls. She was preceded in death by her husband of 49 years, Charles "Charlie" E. Creasman, Jr. Left to cherish her memory are her beloved daughters, Carolyn Denise Creasman of Williamsburg, Delores Gail McHenry (Frank) of Chesapeake, and Catherine Marie Nimmo (Michael) of Chesapeake, as well as three grandsons, Tyler, Kyle, and Dustin, who she adored immensely. She is also survived by her brother, Albert Frederick "Rick" Mutton, Jr. (Janice) of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, along with a host of other much-loved family members.

Dot was born December 6, 1932 and raised in Asheville, North Carolina, and was the daughter of Albert Frederick Mutton and Ethel Leona Bailey. After she married Charlie, his Naval career led them to Norfolk, Virginia, where she became a longtime resident. She was a talented seamstress known for her elaborate wedding gowns, bridesmaid dresses, and ballet costumes. She was also a devoted wife, mother, and "Memaw," who enjoyed spending time with and taking care of her family. Often opening her home to friends and neighbors, Dot had the gift of giving advice and encouragement, or just having a good conversation over a hot cup of coffee. She was a strong and feisty woman who did not mind giving her honest opinion. She loved her sweets – especially Costco raspberry tarts – collecting angels, reading mysteries, The History Channel, British royalty shows, the Washington Commanders, and last but not least, catching a "glimpse" of actor Jason Momoa on TV.

The family wishes to express their deep gratitude to Perimeter Home Health (Britney) and Trinity Hospice (Deb, Valencia, Penny, Nikki and Alyssa) for the care of Dot. A graveside service will be conducted on Friday, December 1, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. by the Rev. Dr. Connie Jones at Albert G. Horton, Jr. Memorial Veterans Cemetery, 5310 Milners Road, Suffolk, Virginia, 23434. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that monetary or food donations be made to the Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore.

His daughter, Rochelle, when she was a little girl, would join her dad (our house was on Al's mail route) walking part of the route down the Main Street sidewalk with him. After a ways, Al would say, "Ok, go home now!" Al was active with Boy Scouts of America from 1968-1983 serving with the Cub Scout Program, Scoutmaster from 1969-1981 of Troop 455. He was on the District Commission Staff from 1981-1983. He was inducted into Wood Badge and Order of the Arrow. He took scouts from Troop 455 to the 1973 National Jamboree in Coeur d'Alene, ID. Al had great satisfaction seeing his scouts excel in knot tying, fire building, outdoor cooking/first aid and general camping skills.

Al was a self-taught wood carver of duck decoys which won him many competition ribbons. He also was a collector of antique duck and goose decoys. Al was a lifelong member of Ducks Unlimited and donated many of his carving to their fundraisers. Al enjoyed camping, fishing, gardening, berry picking, trapping his beloved fishers, deer hunting and his great passion for waterfowl hunting. He spent many Autumns chasing the feathered birds in Canada, North Dakota, Arkansas and Wisconsin. He loved spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Grandpa served up his wonderful pancake breakfast and yummy pies for all to enjoy!

Notes for Joanne ?:

Middleton/Milton/Greenfield/Wisconsin Rapids JoAnne Janz passed away on December 11, 2017, in Middleton, Wisconsin. Though a long journey of Alzheimer's Disease brings her story to its end, JoAnne Janz was grateful for 78 remarkably healthy and happy years finding reasons to smile everyday. JoAnne was born in Wisconsin Rapids, the eldest of three daughters. Heartbreak followed just 9 years later when JoAnne's father contracted Polio and died. Prayers were answered when her mother married Roland, and this kind and gentle man adopted JoAnne and her sisters going on to celebrate decades of family milestones. JoAnne graduated from Lincoln High School and Spencerian Business College in Milwaukee. On a gorgeous fall day, JoAnne married David Janz in Wisconsin Rapids. Together they raised their two children, Brian and Barbara, in Greenfield, WI. JoAnne worked for more than 30 years for the School District of Greenfield as a teacher's aid, head middle school secretary, and assistant to the district's business manager.

An accomplished pianist, JoAnne loved movies, dancing, music of all kinds, and attending musicals and concerts (especially those featuring her own children and grandchildren) and relished time with her husband, family, and her adored Shih Tzu. Travel around the US and to Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, and France while spending time with family filled her diary with memories to cherish. Boating and camping led to retirement years spent making good friends on the shores of Lake Koshkonong. Besides feeding those she loved and cradling them in her arms, she wrapped them in many beautifully hand-knitted afghans, scarves, and more--many times donating her hand-crafted items to hospitals. JoAnne was quick with her beautiful smile, her easy laugh, and her sometimes-sassy sense of humor. The party began when JoAnne arrived, and her grandkids quickly learned that fun was in motion when Grandma Jo was holding their hands.

JoAnne is survived by her lovingly devoted husband of 58 years, David, who didn't leave her side even when her cherished memories did. She is further survived by those who filled her world with wonder and joy, their children and grandchildren: son, Brian (the late, Lisa) Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; daughter, Barbara (Richard) Schramm of Middleton; grandchildren, Brianna Janz (Abraham) Farhat of Omaha, Nebraska; Cameron and Addison Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; Evan Schramm of Middleton; and Andrew Schramm of New York, New York. JoAnne was grateful for beloved sisters, Karen (the late, David) Vallin of Tampa, Florida, and Marilyn (Ronald) Jevnick of Wisconsin Rapids, WI, dear sisters-in-law, Carolyn (Lawrence) Graff of Menomonee Falls; Luetta (the late, James) Hartz of Mosinee; and Mary (the late, Les) Janz of Olympia, Washington; Judith (the late, Alfred) Janz and brother-in-law, Gary (Danelle) Janz, all of Mosinee; as well as many nieces, nephews, and friends.

JoAnne is also preceded in death by her parents, Gordon, Marion, and Roland; parents-in-law, Alfred and Bertha; and brother-in-law, Norman.

The family wishes to thank Heartland Hospice for their professionalism, comfort, and kindness and the compassionate caregivers of Artisan Senior Living and Memory Care in Middleton. A visitation will take place from 10:00 AM until the time of the Memorial Service at 11:30 AM on December 16, 2017, at the Cress Center, 6021 University Ave., Madison, Wisconsin 53705. Should you wish to do so, memorials may be made in JoAnne's name to the Alzheimer and Dementia Alliance of Wisconsin, 517 N. Segoe Road #301, Madison, Wisconsin 53705.

Notes for Jacquelyn Kay (Jackie) Tobias:

At age 63, Jacquelyn Kay Reimold passed away on Wednesday, August 31, 2016 in her home. Jackie was born on June 29, 1953 in Saline, Michigan, the daughter of Elmer and Virginia (Schoenhals) Tobias. She is survived by her husband, Alfred "Fred" G. Reimold who she married on October 16, 1976 and her two children, Alyssa Reimold and Chad (Carley) Reimold, along with her three grandchildren. Jacquelyn Reimold (Jackie) was a beautiful person who touched the lives of all who came in contact with her. She was full of life and spirit, a strong woman with an addictive smile and laugh who was grounded in faith and the love of family. Jackie grew up in Saline, Michigan as one of eight children to farmers, Elmer and Virginia Tobias. Hard work, growing and nurturing were traits that rippled through her life beyond the farm.

A retired employee of the University of Michigan Hospital, she was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She loved spending time with her sisters, grandchildren, cooking, crafting, and going to up north Michigan. Most of all she loved her family. She valued family and never drew lines on where her family ended. Everyone was welcome in her home and you felt that warmth immediately because to her, love was something everyone should have in their life. She had a big heart and extended her home to many people because she wanted them to feel devoted love and give them a safe place they could call home. Jackie considered her family her greatest achievement and loved her children, grandchildren and husband without complexities and with a depth that can't be measured. They have a love that they will carry with them forever. She taught and ingrained in her children that the simplicities of life shouldn't be taken for granted. Being kind, honest, trustworthy, and genuine will ultimately form the kind of person you will become - and she led by example. She continually showed her loved ones a strength and perseverance that was limitless and amazing. Jackie's imprint on the many lives that she touched will never be forgotten.

Survivors in addition to her husband, children and grandchildren include her extended children Vanessa Kusak, and Heidi (Ronald) Hamill-Coakley. Other survivors include her siblings Thomas (Julia) Tobias, Marilyn (Ernie) Weaver, Barbara Lopez, Linda Hopkins, Diane Banks and Timothy Tobias, twelve nieces and nephews, twenty-one great nieces and nephews, and six great-great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer and Virginia, sister Janet Sue (Susie) Tobias, and niece Deborah Jean Kolander.

A Memorial Service will take place in the near future at the Milan Baptist Church in Milan, MI. Please check back for more information. Memorial contributions in her name may be made to The Myositis Organization for continued research and awareness Arrangements are entrusted to the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline.

Sept 28, 2020 - After 12 years with Royal Oak Schools as a teacher and instructional specialist, Alyssa Reimold is the high school's new assistant principal. More than 120 people applied for the job and Reimold was selected after three rounds of interviews with candidates. She stood out for two reasons, said Michael Giromini, high school principal.

"First, she has an incredible ability to develop meaningful, supportive relationships with everyone she encounters, including students, staff and families," he said in a statement. "Second, her appreciation for diversity and her commitment to equity and inclusion have already had a profound impact on Royal Oak High School ... I only see that influence growing." Reimold was the design and technology teacher at the high school last year and was named High School Teacher of the Year for the district. School officials said Reimold is known for recognizing her students as individuals and they in turn respond to her calm demeanor. Pat Wolynski, executive director of staff and student services, said in a statement that Reimold has taught at the elementary, middle school and high school levels. "She has ... consistently demonstrated leadership qualities with a commitment to equity and inclusion for all students," Wolynski said. "For the past six years she has led the Student Diversity Council at Royal Oak High School."

Reimold has a bachelor's degree in visual arts education from Eastern Michigan University, where she also earned a master's degree in educational media and technology. In her profile on the school district's website before she was named assistant principal, Reimold described herself as a specialist at the high school who supports teachers with instruction and technology integration. "My passions are teaching, learning, traveling, digital design, the arts, technology, design thinking and project based learning," she said. "I wear many hats in the building and I love it all!"

Fall 2020 - I'm Alyssa Reimold, one of the Assistant Principals at ROHS. I received my bachelor's degree in K12 Visual Arts Education and my master's degree in Educational Media and Technology, both from Eastern Michigan University. My passions are instruction, curriculum, equity, service, learning, traveling, design and the arts.

In my time working in Royal Oak I have taught elementary Visual Arts (Oak Ridge, Oakland & Keller), Visual Arts and Design Technology (Royal Oak Middle School), Graphic Communications, Visual Imaging Technology, Web Design and Interactive Media, Digital Photography and the Raven iLab (Royal Oak High School). I have held a number of professional support roles such as Response to Intervention Data Coach, Teaching and Learning Specialist and IB Diploma Programme Creativity, Activity and Service Coordinator.

I lead Equity and co-lead School Improvement and am a representative for technology on our district's Learning Council. I also sit on the Oakland County Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Social Justice Council and am a member of the Cultural Competence Engagement Committee (CCEC), CCEC planning team and DK-12 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion team.

She married William Marvin Thelen 02 Jul 1983 in Dallas Co, Texas. He was born 28 Mar 1954.

Notes for Deborah Kay Berlin:

Deborah Kay Berlin Thelen was born on February 18, 1956 in Lansing, Michigan to parents Patricia Louise and Lawrence Charles Berlin. She was a sister to David Berlin and Denise (Berlin) Ilieff. Deborah was always a protector of the people close to her. At a young age, Deborah's father passed away, forcing her mother to work long hours to support the three children. Deborah always stood up to protect Denise and David acting as a mother figure at times. Deborah, David, and Denise enjoyed golfing, tennis, bowling, and roller skating together. She had an immense love for the arts, including her love of painting and ballet. Deborah and her husband, William (Bill) Marvin Thelen met during Bill's senior year at Michigan State University. She was extremely supportive of Bill while he attended Michigan State and after his graduation. Bill moved to Texas in search of better opportunities, and Deborah remained in Lansing, Michigan. Bill and Deborah continued to communicate while Bill was in Texas which tested their relationship, but Bill and Deborah realized they did not want to be without each other. Six months later, Deborah took a leap of faith and boarded the airplane with an African violet on her lap that was given to her by Bill. While in Texas, their love for each other continued to grow. One day Bill proposed to Deborah at the top of Reunion Tower in the restaurant that revolved and overlooked Dallas, Texas. This place symbolized their future life in Dallas, Texas.

Bill and Deborah were married on July 2, 1983 at All Saints Catholic Church in Dallas, Texas. Prior to starting their family, they traveled to Hawaii, New York City, Puerto Rico, Colorado, and San Francisco, enjoying each other's company. After purchasing their first home in Carrollton, Texas, they started a family. Nicholle Lindsey Thelen was born on July, 5 1989, and William Ryan Thelen II was born on August 29, 1993. In order to raise her two children, Deborah sacrificed her career to stay at home as a full time mother. She was a selfless mother, never asking for anything, and was always concerned about the well-being of her family. She extolled her children and raised them to value education and exude confidence. She always taught them to honor their word, and she stressed the importance of responsibilities.

Deborah was never afraid to laugh and play with Nicholle and Ryan, even crawling on her knees just to entertain them. She always put her family before herself, doing whatever she could to make her family feel loved and happy. She would gently wake up her children in morning with a kiss, write notes in their lunches that she prepared, and send messages every day to tell them how much she loved them. To give her children better opportunities, she moved her family to Plano, Texas, in 1994, allowing them to enroll in a reputable school district. Always making sure her children excelled in life, she encouraged them to explore different interests and supported the pursuits they chose. Deborah was very artistic and enjoyed crafts. She used her creativity to assist Nicholle and Ryan with school projects. She encouraged faith and spread the message of the Lord through her selfless actions and love. She never valued herself over others. She genuinely cared about everyone and not just those close to her. She loved all and treated others as if they were part of her family. By her doing this, she created an even bigger family not bound by blood but love. Deborah will always be remembered for spirit. She lived a life filled with laughter and joy. Through her presence and impact on the lives of others, she will continue to live. No words here can express her exceptional role as a wife, mother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend to those she love.

Husband William Marvin Thelen, daughter Nicholle Lindsey Thelen and her fiancé David Bechtel, son William Ryan Thelen II, step-father Larry Knuth, brother David Berlin, sister Denise Ilieff and her husband Andrew, brothers-in-law Paul Thelen and his wife Ann, Luke Thelen and his wife Jane, Lawrence Thelen and his wife Ellen, Phillip Thelen, Stanley Thelen and his wife Patricia, Dennis Thelen and his wife Dianna and sister-in-law Denise Cushion. Deborah was preceded in death by her father Lawrence Charles Berlin, mother Patricia Louise Berlin Knuth, father-in-law Jerome Thelen, mother-in-law Genevieve Thelen, brother-in-law James Thelen, sister-in-law Diane Urbanik and her husband Anthony Urbanik.

He married Jessica Zdawczyk. She was born Aft. 1981.

Notes for Shane Matthew Stierley:

To David W. and Juanita Stierley, 1212 Alsdorf, a son, Shane Matthew, Dec. 30, 1982 at Sparrow Hospital.

Holt - On Tuesday morning Jan. 9, 2007 Army Sgt. Shane Stierley was back in the danger zone, Stierley's new wife, Jessica, was in labor with the couple's first child and Stierley's mother, Juanita Zdawczyk, was at her desk in a local doctor's office, sounding about as worried as a mother can sound. "I wish he was home," Zdawczyk said. "I was upset when they sent him back there." But, send him back they did. On Thanksgiving Day, Stierley, a graduate of Holt High School, returned to Iraq for a second tour of duty. "I can't tell you where he is exactly; I'm not even supposed to know, myself," said Zdawczyk, who lives in Delhi Township. "But it's dangerous." Meanwhile, Zdawczyk was painfully aware that President Bush, after weeks of rumors, was expected to announce a plan to beef up the U.S. presence in Iraq. This, she knew, did not bode well for a family reunion any time soon.

If Stierley's name sounds familiar, it may be because he was, for a while, the State Journal's eyes and ears on the front lines of the war in Iraq. Early in the aftermath of "Shock and Awe" we published Stierley's e-mail dispatches from the war zone under the heading "A Message From the Front." For the most part, they were the wide-eyed observations of a 21-year-old kid who had spent little time away from home before joining the Army. In one his first e-mails Stierley, who was in Kuwait and Iraq for a year starting in November 2002, wrote: "For me and my unit ... it is exhilarating. We have waited and planned for this and now we'll get to put our training into action." He wrote about sand storms and camels and his support for the war: "I know people have their doubts but I support my president, and my commander in chief," he wrote. "Not only because he is my boss, but because I believe in him. As do a lot of others out here."

Zdawczyk said her son's enthusiasm for the war as well as his faith in the overall mission has waned considerably since those days. In fact, she briefly considered forwarding me a copy of a recent e-mail in which Sgt. Stierley described the depth of his disenchantment, but she thought better of it. Zdawczyk said President Bush will have her full attention tonight when he outlines his plan for the next phase of the war. "I was all for the president sending the troops," she said, "but now I'm looking for some kind of resolution." At the end of the business day Tuesday, Jessica Stierley was still in labor.

Donations may be made to: Make-A-Wish or to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Dad you were always there to cheer, to encourage, and to lift us up. You taught us to always work hard and give our best- to always do it right the first time, to have pride in our work, to believe in ourselves, to never give up. You taught us STRENGTH and PERSEVERANCE. You loved to work outside in your yard, in your garage...to build things, and create. There was not a project that you wouldn't perfect. You taught us to PROBLEM SOLVE and INNOVATE. You loved simplicity. Your dinner needed no spice or onions and pizza only made sense with pepperoni. You observed the simple, sweet details, whether looking out into your backyard or appreciating a road trip and scenic view. You taught us to live simply and to stop and appreciate the BLESSINGS around us.

You loved tradition, Christmas with you and mom in your beautifully decorated family room will never be the same. You loved to take pictures and cherished the present and the past, but taught us to set goals and have hope for the future - We learned all of this from you and carry it with us. We loved Disney together and you taught us that it's ok to let the innocence and imagination of childhood shine sometimes; to believe in the MAGIC. You loved our mom endlessly, and until your last day, you remained faithfully by her side. You loved your children, your friends, your family, your pups. You were the BEST Dance Poppy and your grandchildren were your world. You filled us with LOVE and taught us RESPECT and DEVOTION. You showed us the WORLD And taught us the values to make a difference. You taught us about Jesus. To believe in Him, to serve Him, to love Him, to have FAITH. Daddy, We will miss you so, so much, and until we are together again, We Love You. p.s. Thanks for sharing a milkshake with me.

He married Lisa Marie Scott 27 Nov 1982 in Ramsey Co, Minnesota. She was born 22 Mar 1960 in Beloit, Rock Co, Wisconsin, and died 13 Aug 2016 in Germantown, Shelby Co, Tennessee.

Notes for Lisa Marie Scott:

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Lisa Marie (Scott) Janz of Germantown, Tennessee on August 13, 2016 after a courageous battle with endometrial cancer. She is survived by her husband of almost 34 years, Brian, who was the love of her life, always a supportive partner and never left her side, and her daughter and son-in-law, Brianna (Janz) Farhat and Abraham; and her sons Cameron and Addison, all of whom were the center of her universe. Lisa was born in Beloit, Wisconsin on March 22, 1960 to Tom and Sonia (Meyers) Scott, and had a wonderful childhood with her brothers Bradly (Shannon) and Stephen, and sister Julie (Scott) Belden (Jim). Lisa also loved visiting with her extended family, including her sister-in-law Barbara Schramm (Richard), her in-laws David and JoAnne Janz, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and nieces that she loved dearly.

Although the depths of our grief is so very deep, we gain comfort in thinking about Lisa's upbeat and optimistic outlook on life and the role model she was to so many. At a very early age Lisa learned the love of the outdoors, and Lisa, Brian, and the kids could often be found on some kind of adventure -- whether it be hiking in the woods, biking on the road, sailing, windsurfing, swimming, fishing, and wakeboarding on lakes, or scuba diving on ocean coral reefs. Lisa loved to travel, whether it was as an exchange student to Turkey in 1977, visiting her own 2008 exchange student "son" Jakub Slavicek in the Czech Republic, hiking the cities and countryside of Germany, France, and Austria, or the jungles of Madagascar and Costa Rica. After graduating from Beloit Turner High School in 1978 and earning a degree in computer science in 1982 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Lisa enjoyed a rewarding career as a database administrator in the field of information technology at Sperry Univac, American Express, and FedEx, and took special joy in mentoring young women entering her chosen field of information technology. People loved Lisa's infectious smile and laugh which were the result of the great joy she derived from her "work family" at FedEx, her wonderful friends from the SWAK cooking and book club, and the "biker chicks" in the Memphis Hightailers Bike Club. Finally, Lisa was grateful for the care she received from Dr. Linda Smiley and the staff at the West Clinic, as well as the wonderful nurses and staff at Methodist Healthcare's Hospice team. Together, they helped to provide a high quality of life for Lisa and her family during her final adventure.

A celebration of Lisa's life will be held on Friday, August 19th, at the Lichterman Nature Center located at 5992 Quince Road. Welcoming of family and friends will take place from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Lisa was a strong believer in life-long learning, and wanted to know that young people would continue to get a good start on their careers in the field of information technology. In this spirit, in lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to The Brian and Lisa Janz Scholarship in Business Information and Technology at the University of Memphis Foundation, PO Box 1000, Dept. 238, Memphis, Tennessee 38148.

He was preceded in death by brother Brian Janz and brother-in-law Paul Ryszka; grandparents Jesse and Margaret Janz, and Jack Schenk.

Nick will be remembered as passionate, opinionated, and hard-working. He gave 110% to every project he ever worked on. We will see him in all the things he built and fixed for us. He will guide us with every critter we track, animal we harvest, dog we raise, and shot we take. His love and passion for life will always live on in us.

Memorial Services will be held Saturday, July 6, 2019, 1:00 p.m. at St. Matthews Lutheran Church, 4285 US Hwy 12, Warrens, Winconsin. Pastor Kory Janneke will officiate. Family and friends are invited for visitation on Saturday from 10:30 a.m. until the time of service at the church.

As an expression of sympathy, instead of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the "Janz Memorial Fund" through the Co-Op Credit Union in Black River Falls,

Notes for Paul M. Ryszka:

Paul M. Ryszka, age 38, of Wisconsin Rapids, passed away at his home surrounded by his loving family on Thursday, May 25, 2017 following a courageous battle with cancer. Paul was born October 14, 1978 in Green Bay, Wisconsin to Dr. Donald and Bonita (Follett) Ryszka. He graduated from Oconto Falls High School and later from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay where he earned his degree in computer science. Paul spent the last 10 years with the love of his life, Sara Janz, by his side. Paul and Sara were blessed with life's greatest gift on April 15, 2015 with the arrival of their daughter, Lilyanna. On January 14, 2017 Paul and Sara experienced their "fairytale" wedding. Paul was employed by Renaissance Learning as a software engineer in Wisconsin Rapids for many years. Paul had a special place in his heart for his amazing and supportive coworkers, referring to them as his "work family."

Paul was known for his big smile and ever-present twinkle in his eye. He was a huge fan of Star Wars, becoming an even bigger fan when his daughter Lily took a liking to Yoda. He enjoyed "Guy's Weekend" where he and his friends would gather at his home around several big screen TVs and play video games and enjoy one another's company. Paul loved to cook, trying new recipes, and entertaining family and friends. He always had to have the latest gadgets, which he thoroughly researched before purchasing. Paul also enjoyed shooting sports and flying his drones and hobby helicopters, however Paul's greatest love was spending time with his adoring wife, Sara, and their daughter, Lilyanna. Paul loved being a father and was known to be a "big kid," especially when he was with Lily. Paul and Lily enjoyed singing songs together, dancing, having tea parties, and pretending to cook. Paul also enjoyed sharing his love for technology with Lily. Paul, Sara, Lily and his dad, Don, recently enjoyed a once in a lifetime trip to Disney. Paul was an avid Green Bay Packers fan and loved his pets, especially his cat "Critter."

Paul is survived by his loving wife and soulmate, Sara Janz and their daughter Lilyanna; his father and best friend, Dr. Donald Ryszka of Wisconsin Rapids; his mother, Bonita Follett of Abrams, WI; maternal grandmother Margaret Follett; stepfather, Thomas Hickey of Utah; brother Brendan (Andrea) Hickey and their daughter Leona of Texas; sister, Rachel Hickey of Green Bay; father and mother-in-law, Gary and Bobbi Janz of Wisconsin Rapids; brothers-in-law: Nick (Amy) Janz and their children

Mackenzie, Jaedyn, and Cooper of Warrens, Wisconsin, Jesse (Katharine) Janz and their daughter Eleanor of Newport, Washington, and Justen Janz (Sarah Lawton) of Amherst Junction, Wisconsin. Paul is also survived by his aunts, uncles, cousins, and special friends Eric Hendrickson, Scott Rasmussen, and Paul Jablonski. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Harold Follett; paternal grandparents, Bernard and Angeline Ryszka; brother-in-law, Brian Janz; and special friend Paul "Little Paul" Rutkoske.

Paul's family would like to extend a heartfelt thank you for the tremendous care given by his medical team at St. Joseph's Hospital and Marshfield Clinic. Your kindness and compassion in helping Paul through his journey did not go unnoticed. A special thank you to our families for their generous support throughout our journey, because of you, dreams did come true.

Family and friends are invited to attend Paul's Life Celebration from 1-4 P.M. on Saturday, June 3, 2017 at Herman-Taylor Funeral Home, 2201 Chestnut Street, Wisconsin Rapids. A prayer service will follow the Life Celebration at 4:00 P.M. on Saturday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be designated to a fund which is being established for Paul's daughter, Lilyanna's education. Paul was strong and determined to win his fight against cancer and he did just that. He fell in love, became a father, and lived life to the fullest. Paul won his battle as he is now free to run and watch over his family. We love you Daddy! Love, Sara and Lilyanna.

Child of Cortney Stollsteimer and Ricci Spagnuolo is:

- 5462 i. Arlo Lyla Perrino<sup>14</sup> Stollsteimer, born 22 Mar 2021; died 19 Apr 2023.

Notes for Arlo Lyla Perrino Stollsteimer:

Jan 25, 2022 - A 10-month-old St. Johns girl is fighting a movement disorder so rare her doctors believe she may be the only one who has it, her moms said. Arlo's mothers, Ricci and Cortney Stollsteimer, are desperate to discover more information about the disorder that is causing her symptoms. "I think the hardest part is just seeing Arlo in pain and knowing that she's probably so confused and scared when this happens," Cortney Stollsteimer said. "We can't comfort her, we can't stop what's happening to her."

Arlo has some form of a movement disorder similar to dystonia. She has muscle spasms across her body and she involuntarily can arch her back or move her head. During this, she has no control of her body, Stollsteimer said. During these episodes, Arlo's heart rate increases and her temperature uncontrollably rises, Stollsteimer said. It's gone up as high as 105 degrees. Most recently, Arlo's episodes have lasted for hours, Stollsteimer said. She's conscious the entire time. The only treatment that has worked is IV sedation, Stollsteimer said. If she's asleep, her body won't move so it gives her a chance to rest. "It's incredibly stressful and worrisome," Stollsteimer said. "This is new, she's never had episodes this bad. I think this is the progression of her condition."

Her physicians have done nearly all diagnostic tests available and they cannot find a root diagnosis, Stollsteimer said. At this point, they're just treating her symptoms. "This is just really hard on her and we're hoping maybe someone can see this and have had a similar experience or knows a doctor who may be able to help or something," Stollsteimer said. Arlo has been at Sparrow Hospital in the intensive care unit since Jan. 17, Stollsteimer said. Doctors say she's critically stable. That started the battle to find a diagnosis and treatment for their baby girl, with constant tests, appointments and hospital stays. Arlo is physically disabled and cannot yet hold her head up by herself, Ricci Stollsteimer said. She cannot speak or emote, though her mothers have been able to get her to smile periodically, she said.

She has cerebellar hypoplasia (a condition where one of the brain's lobes is smaller than usual or not completely developed) and vocal chord dysfunctions that stop her from swallowing and protecting her airway, Ricci Stollsteimer said. Arlo has a feeding tube and isn't able to eat by mouth, Cortney Stollsteimer said. She could do so until about 6 months old, when she lost the ability. Doctors plan to surgically place a feeding tube straight into her small intestine to help her avoid her aspiration and reflux issues. Once Arlo is stable, her neurologist wants her moms to take her to a children's hospital that specializes in movement disorders to see if they have any ideas, Cortney Stollsteimer said.

But for right now, the Stollsteimers and their doctors are just hoping to get Arlo back to her baseline, where her episodes aren't hours long and she is awake and alert. Arlo was just officially adopted by the Stollsteimers last week and they hope to be able to celebrate properly when she is out of the woods. "We do not know what her life will look like, or how long she will be able to sustain life," Ricci Stollsteimer wrote in a post on Facebook. "But we do know, that she is a fighter, and we will advocate and reach high and low to give her the best life while she is here with us. "She has the most stunning blue eyes, and she tells us everything with them." The Stollsteimer's family has set up a GoFundMe page to raise money to cover Arlo's medical expenses.

Feb 2, 2022 - Two mothers in St. Johns are desperate for answers for their 10-month-old baby girl Arlo, who they adopted last month. She's battling a movement disorder so rare her doctors call her a medical mystery. Arlo's moms Ricci and Cortney Stollsteimer tried to have a baby almost immediately after they were married in 2016. But after years of fertility treatments without success, the couple began fostering.

That's how they met baby Arlo. "On April Fools Day, actual — I kind of thought it might be a joke — We got a phone call that was life-changing, and they said they had a baby girl that needed a pre-adoptive placement," Ricci explained. They had been chosen to foster Arlo. "For the next two-and-a-half/three weeks, we spent every day and every night in the NICU with baby Arlo," said Ricci. "She just had kind of a traumatic birth." "And then she had trouble eating," Cortney added. "She actually never took a bottle until we started seeing her and working with her. She left being able to eat," said Ricci. "From then it was just tons of joy."

Then, they started to notice some health issues. "She was considered to be just colicky or maybe a reflux baby just because she was crying all day long." But by August, Arlo started experiencing episodes of severe dystonic movements. "When she has these episodes, her temperature goes up very quickly to 105, 106, and stays there until they can stop her movements," said Cortney. These episodes can last hours. "Her last one, we were in the emergency room five or six hours, and she was awake the entire time moving her body and couldn't stop," said Cortney. "I can't imagine how hard it is for her. I mean, just to watch it, it will break your heart." Arlo has been in and out of the hospital since August. Her moms say she has a doctor for just about everything. "It's nothing that the doctors have seen before," said Ricci. Cortney said Arlo has had multiple EEGs, but doctors aren't seeing any seizure activity.

Ricci said the hardest part is not knowing what is causing her baby so much pain and not knowing what her quality of life will be down the road. "Because they don't know the underlying disease, they can't tell us how often this might happen, how often she'll have to be hospitalized, if this will progress," said Cortney. Arlo is currently at Sparrow Hospital. Dr. Kabelo Thusang is Arlo's neurologist. "We've been talking to experts in the U.K. and also the children's hospital in Washington D.C. because they too have movement disorder specialists, since this is my first case," said Dr. Thusang. "If medication don't work, there's a surgery that's been done in adults, but it's trying to find somebody who can do it for a child."

The Stollsteimers hope that by sharing their story, it will lead them to answers. Our number one hope is to find maybe someone somewhere that has either treated another patient like this or maybe just has some different, totally out-of-the-box ideas about maybe testing they could do to find her underlying condition." The Stollsteimers ask if anyone has any information or suggestions, to send ideas to BraveLikeArlo@gmail.com.

May 24, 2022 - Earlier this year, Cortney and Ricci Stollsteimer were desperately seeking answers for their then-10-month-old daughter, Arlo, who has a movement disorder so rare her doctors call her a medical mystery. Now one-year-old, Arlo is home on hospice. Arlo experiences hours-long episodes of involuntary movements that cause her temperature to spike as high as 106 degrees. She has been in and out of hospitals since August without any signs of improvement.

Her mothers say she has a doctor for just about everything but still no answers. "It just seemed like either her disease was progressing or her medications were not working," Ricci said. "We weren't real certain and neither were doctors, actually." Ricci said Arlo also started to experience gastrointestinal issues as well. "April 20, we went back to the hospital, which seemed pretty routine, actually, at first. We thought it was maybe medication management or issues with her GI tract," Ricci said. Two weeks later, they were still at the hospital. "They finally ordered an MRI of her brain and she had to be sedated for that," Ricci said.

The results were something no one was expecting. "It showed that her brain and her brain stem were significantly atrophied," Ricci said. "Her neurologist, her geneticist, her doctors—nobody could have imagined how dramatically this had been happening." The Stollsteimers have been home on hospice with Arlo since the first week of May, and they still aren't sure what to expect. "Because her illness is unknown. So, there's a lot of 'We don't know' around that. Based on the atrophy of the brain and the amount of time from her last MRI, the geneticist did say three months," Ricci said. "We didn't think should would make it through the weekend, but she did. So, we really just don't know. We're taking it moment by moment." They are keeping her as comfortable as possible.

"We have a hospital bed in our front room where she sits and we have the whole window covered in sun-catchers for her and it's mostly just comfort-management and feeding," Ricci said. "She is finally able to take more formula. There was a few days where she wasn't able to get any nutrition that way." Some days are better than others. Ricci said majority of the time, Arlo is asleep. "But, today she did have a long period of time where she was able to have her eyes open," Ricci said. As her parents, they will continue to hope. They are going to start a trial drug that has a 1 percent chance of stopping Arlo's brain and brain stem from continuing to atrophy. "It won't improve what has already happened," Cortney said.

The Stollsteimers want to share Arlo's story as a reminder that life is short and precious. "I think a lot of people have been impacted by her, and maybe in the future, if there's another child or anyone that has something that they can't find answers for, maybe more people will step in and help," Ricci said. "We were lucky to be able to share her story and to get lots of public eyes on Arlo and lots of people trying, and they're still trying, and I think even if she is to pass on, they'll continue to try and search for answers."

Arlo Lyla Perrino Stollsteimer, passed away peacefully in the arms of her parents on April 19, 2023 after a brave and courageous journey with a rare neuro-degenerative disease at Sparrow Hospital. She was just 2 years old. She has touched the hearts of many and her impact will be everlasting. Arlo was born March 22, 2021. She bravely endured what no child should have to and she is finally free of her body.

Arlo is survived by her Mama, Cortney Stollsteimer, and her mommy, Ricci Stollsteimer, Forever remembered and treasured by her biggest brother Lance Corporal Austin Spagnuolo, and doting sibling Gabriel Stollsteimer. She is also loved and remembered by grandparents Wendy and Bob Stollsteimer of Elsie, Michigan, Terry and Jackie Wagner of Ovid, Michigan, Gayla and Ron Gossman of Lakeland, Florida, Bonus Grandparents Sue and Frank Spagnuolo of Grand Ledge, Michigan. Treasured in the hearts of her aunts and uncles, Tristan (Patricia) Stollsteimer of Bannister, Terry Wagner Jr of Grand Ledge, Jamie (Dave) Madar of St Johns, Roni (Brad) Behrens of Ovid. Step Aunts and Uncles Kathy (Jim) Blunt, Kirt (Lyndsey) Lover, Bobbi-Jo (Dustin) Howard, Ashlie (Ryan) Randolph, Ben (Debbie) Gossman, Corey (Doug) Jones, and Becky Gossman. Many special cousins and friends made along the way.

Arlo was preceded in death by many great grandparents and grandparents, and shared an incredible and special close bond with her Great Grandma (Nani) Mary Ferrall who passed in November 2022 and who we know was waiting for her angel to come home.

Arlo spent her entire life enveloped in the best of care and love and knew nothing more. Her parents advocated until her last breath to make sure that Arlo was well cared for and will continue their mission to find Arlo's diagnosis and to help others. Arlo had quite a personality, and she found her own ways to communicate with her parents and others. She used her eyes, sounds and even her feet to do so. She was curious and sassy, and when she didn't like something, she let you know. She watched closely anyone who came near her with scrubs on, she did things her own way always, and would make a liar out of any Dr, Specialist or Nurse because Arlo was Arlo, and no one told her how things would go. She defied odds and science almost her entire life. She loved to watch Toy Story, to be sang to, to tell stories in her own way, to be read to, spending time with her cousins, to sit in her wheelchair and watch out the window. She enjoyed cuddling with her pets, watching her lights from her mobile and listening to music. She had the bluest most incredible eyes and lashes, and the most perfect angels kiss birthmark on her left cheek.

Arlos strength is one that will never be matched. Our hearts are broken, but they are also more full, and our souls are richer because of her. We will see you in the skies Arlo. Til we meet again. Special mention to her hospice Nurse Karen who took great care of Arlo and the family since May 2022. Dr Erika who went above and beyond overseeing Arlo's care. Being the parents to a medically fragile child can be isolating, but these 2 made sure to share in valleys and peaks. We will never forget you, and either will Arlo. Also, thank you to Sparrow PICU Nurses and staff who took great care of Arlo, always.

Notes for Madison Swain:

Madison Swain has been a part of my 2020 Senior Model Team this year and she has been such a bright light the whole year! She was originally scheduled for in the middle of all the craziness in the world and we needed to reschedule because of it, but we were given gorgeous weather, beautiful light and a way to celebrate when so much has been taken away from these seniors this year! My heart truly breaks for them! Madison will be attending Florida State University this fall and she is just so excited to get out and meet new people and experience the whole college thing!

With Madison being a part of my 2020 Senior Model Team, she has had a few different sessions this year all with different looks and backgrounds, so she opted for a natural, green setting for her individual session because we haven't had a ton of that this year in other shoots! I had her meet me at one of my random abandoned lots for the first location and then we drove to one of my favorite nearby parks! I LOVED her outfit choices; they went so well with the setting and springtime!

He married Kaitlin Ann Edmondson 23 Aug 2014. She was born 1988.

Marriage Notes for Aaron Parisho and Kaitlin Edmondson:

While planning their August wedding, Kaitlin Edmondson (25 and a wedding planner) and Aaron Parisho (27 and a certified public accountant) knew one thing for sure: A barn was an absolute must. "Both of our mothers grew up on their family farms, so the idea of a barn wedding just felt right," Kaitlin says. The only problem? The venue they had their eye on was under heavy construction. "We had to climb a makeshift staircase, and you could see the first floor via holes in the second-story floor," Kaitlin says of their first visit to Cottonwood Barn in Dexter, Michigan. "I may have raised a few eyebrows when I showed people our venue, but the end product was absolutely stunning." Armed with a muted color palette of blush and gold, the couple used gold sequined linens and mismatched vintage china to turn their rustic venue into a romantic reception space. For a luxe contrast to the natural wood detail of the space, gold chiavari chairs and gilded candles were also brought in. One detail we especially loved: the lush arrangements of dahlias, garden roses and astilbes created by Eden Designs of Brighton, Michigan. "I wanted arrangements that looked as if you'd run through a field of wildflowers and picked some up," Kaitlin says. "Our florist absolutely nailed it." After exchanging vows in an outdoor ceremony overlooking a small pond, the newlyweds and 200 guests retreated to the air-conditioned barn for dinner and dancing among high-top tables made from whiskey barrels. As for wedding favors, the couple treated guests to handmade pretzels, a wedding tradition common in Aaron's family. "Every detail represented us perfectly," Kaitlin says of their celebration. "We just wanted to make sure our guests understood how thankful we were to be surrounded by all our family and friends."

Notes for Randy Patrick Stollsteimer:

THORNTON, Colorado -- A couple and their three sons were all killed instantly Thursday night by an out-of-control sport utility vehicle -- a vehicle driven by a Denver woman who was placed on probation just two days before the deadly crash.

The victims were identified as Randy Stollsteimer and Crystaldawn Stollsteimer and their sons, 12-year-old Sebastian, 8-year-old Darian and 6-year-old Cyrus. Randy was 34 and Crystal was 31.

Family and friends who stopped by the site of the crash at East 84th Avenue and North Grant Street said that the Stollsteimer's were a loving couple and would do anything for their children. They said the Stollsteimer's didn't live too far away, but they don't know where the family was headed. They placed balloons, flowers and stuffed animals in the parking lot as part of a growing makeshift memorial.

Four others were injured in the chain-reaction crash, which was all started by an out-of-control Ford Expedition, police said. The Expedition was driven by 33-year-old Monica Chavez, of Denver, police said Friday. Her 6-year-old son and 10-year-old daughter were in the car with her. All three were transported to Denver Health. The hospital status of the three was not clear. Chavez has a lengthy criminal history, with arrests for assault, felony menacing, shoplifting, driving under restraint, traffic violations, possession of a controlled substance and forgery.

The driver of a third vehicle, 47-year-old Victor Omar Madrid-Martinez, of Denver, was also hurt in the crash. He was in a Mazda and was taken to St. Anthony's Central. He has since been released. The cause of the accident is still undetermined.

Witnesses Say Expedition Was Driving Recklessly. Witnesses told police around at 5:50 p.m. they saw a white 2000 Ford Expedition speeding and driving erratically southbound on Grant Street at East 88th Avenue. Just before the intersection of East 84th Avenue and Grant, the Expedition crossed over the raised median and veered into the northbound lanes, said Thornton police spokesman Matt Barnes. The Expedition clipped a 1994 Mazda, which was in the westbound East 84th Avenue left turn lane, and then struck the raised median, which caused the SUV to go airborne, Barnes said. The SUV flew into an eastbound Chevrolet S-10 pickup, landing on top of it, and then rolled across the parking lot into an Urban Mattress Store, eventually landing on its side, police said. The pickup truck was flattened and everyone inside was killed, Barnes said.

Police originally said four occupants of the pickup truck died in the crash. Emergency crews found a fifth body more than three hours later as they were moving the mangled wreckage. The force of the impact pushed the Mazda across the intersection and over the curb near where the other two vehicles came to rest.

Monica Annemarie Chavez has a history of arrests and may have used numerous aliases, according to state records. Chavez was arrested on Nov. 6 on suspicion of felony menacing. She is accused of waving a knife at several women.

She appeared in Adams County court on Tuesday and pleaded guilty to misdemeanor assault -- recklessly causing injury. She was sentenced to two years probation and ordered to pay more than $1,300 in fines. "She seemed to be out of it," Paul Roggow, the owner of the Urban Mattress store, said of Chavez. "There didn't seem to be any obvious issues. I can only speculate on why she was driving that fast." Roggow was the only person in the mattress store at the time of the crash. He said he was on the phone with a customer when he turned around and saw an SUV rolling through the parking lot. He said he heard the glass storefront crashing and out of instinct, he ducked behind his desk. Large shards of the glass flew over his head and landed behind him. He walked away with scratches on his hand and back.

"Only by the grace of God am I standing here," Roggow said. He said the next thing he knew, people who were nearby rushed in to check on the victims in the SUV and in the upside-down pickup truck. "When I saw everything, I was just kind of horrified ... You can never dream anything like this would happen. The thought that came to my mind was, 'Come quickly, Jesus,'" Roggow said.

The SUV landed on top of Roggow's desk and part of a mattress in the store. He said he heard the boy and girl in the SUV screaming, but Chavez didn't say anything. He's not sure if she was in shock or if her silence was the result of her injuries. He said both children appeared relatively fine, but shaken up. His mattress store is expected to be closed for a week for structural repairs, but Roggow's not thinking about the store. "I just pray for the families of the victims," Roggow said.

A relative of the family wants the community to drive more safely. "What can the community do to help is you know, slow down. Slow down, watch your surroundings, pay attention to what's going on," said Alejandro Aldaco, the uncle of Crystaldawn Stollsteimer. The case is actively being investigated by the Thornton Police Traffic Accident Investigation Team. Police don't know why the woman was speeding and driving so recklessly. It's not clear if alcohol and drugs were involved.

Memorial for Randy & Crystaldawn Stollsteimer Family

Departed on February 17, 2011 and resided in Thornton, Colorado.

Memorial Service: Friday, February 25, 2011 Cemetery: Mount Olivet Cemetery

Crystaldawn Cheri: Was born May 8th 1979 at Rose Hospital. A very healthy and curious child, not more than 5 minutes after she was born she rolled over to see what was going on. Was into theatre with her sexy legs! Her laugh was the most unique thing that everyone would recognize. Her courage to fight for anything she would believe in or just to argue her point.

Randy Patrick: Was born July 10th 1976. Randy started out as the quiet shy timid gentleman but then once you got to know him he was a wonderful outspoken person. The simplest toys would frustrate Randy at Christmas time to put together and in turn he became a fine sheet metal worker. Randy's sister is the one who introduced them; they then became middle school sweet hearts and were inseparable. Crystal drew Randy out of his shell. They were married in 1997 and started a family soon after.

Sebastian Orion: Was born October 1st 1998. So loving and just adorable, he grew to become a very respectable young man and a wonderful charmer. A big kid whose latest endeavor had him playing basketball.

Darrian Demetriouse: Was born August 2nd 2001. Just very quiet until he would start playing video games, he would get so excited he would be bouncing around and Crystal would always ask him if he needed to use the restroom.

Cyrus Vincent: Was born March 3rd 2003. Very sweet and cuddly and looks like a little man. Loved to tease Randy and his Gramps and then run and flop his feet up on Grandma to rub.

In closing we want you to know how strong this family was, the many surgeries they had to overcome made them stronger. Most people would only wish to have their strength. Randy, Crystal, Sebastian, Darrian, and Cyrus passed away as they lived, together.

Notes for Brian Michael Connolly:

April 2014 - When Brian Connolly was only 34 he became the first layperson on the board of the Daughters of Charity. It was 1985 and he'd just been appointed CEO of Providence Hospital, a Daughters of Charity hospital in Southfield, Michigan. Today he is president and CEO of Dearborn, Mich.-based Oakwood Healthcare, a four-hospital integrated health system serving a million people in southeast Michigan that includes Detroit. "There were 12 sisters in habit and me," says Connolly of being one of the first of many lay executives to run a Catholic health system. Born in Detroit and raised in an Irish Catholic family with six brothers and a sister in its suburbs, his father owned an underground-construction firm and served on a local hospital board. That influenced Connolly to earn a Master's in public health at the University of Michigan. After a consulting stint where he learned to apply industrial engineering concepts to hospitals, he worked at Oakwood for seven years before going to Providence as COO and then CEO for 14 years. He served as executive VP for Catholic Healthcare Partners' 15-hospital Ohio region and then helped the Daughters of Charity buy back their California hospitals from Catholic Healthcare West. Connolly returned to Michigan to be near family and took the top job at Oakwood in 2007. He and Darcy, his wife of 43 years, have three adult children, a son who's a lawyer and two daughters, an occupational therapist and a teacher.

He married Karen Hagel.

Notes for Wilson Harris Clark:

Wilson Harris "Highpockets" Clark was born on January 29, 1962 to the union of his late father, Israel Wilson Clark and his late beloved mother, Edna Murlene Clark, and he passed from this life at home surrounded by his loving family on July 12, 2021, after an extended illness. Harris was a loving husband and father to his family and he means the world to them. He worked as a Motorman for Reading and Bates Drilling Company during the 80's for six years. After the oilfield days and being a fifth-generation cotton farmer, he decided to stay off the Gulf and started Clark Farms and operated it for twenty-nine years in his hometown of Hebert. In between farming he worked as a carpenter, a cabinetmaker, furniture builder and concrete finisher. He was an avid outdoorsman. He loved to hunt, especially duck hunt, which led to his hobby, training Labrador Retrievers to, in his words, "Fetchem' Up!" He became a lifetime member of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club where he served several terms as President. He also served as a Volunteer Fireman for both the Hebert and Grayson Fire Departments. Harris was a faithful member of the Hebert Community Church.

Left to cherish his memory is his beloved wife of thirty-eight years, Karen Hagel Clark, their two sons: Steven Harris Clark (special friend, Karen Martin) and Adam Kyle Clark (girlfriend, Christine Wagers); his treasured granddaughter Raeleigh Clark; two sisters: Kay Clark and Karen Clark; his brother, Dale Clark; his two dog "buddies": Rain and Jazzy; and a host of other family members and friends.

Serving as pallbearers are his two sons, Steven and Adam; his co-workers, Dave Cobb and Sammy Shipp; and his nephews, Kenny Grant and Lee Boyett. Honorary pallbearers are the men and women of the Hebert Fire Department, the members of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club and Billy McClanahan. The Clark family will receive visitors on Thursday July 15, 2021 at the chapel of Riser & Son Funeral Home, 7131 U S Highway 165, Columbia from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM. Funeral services will be held Friday, July 16, 2021 at the Hebert Community Church at 1:00 PM with Bro. Billy Lane McClanahan officiating. There will be visitation at the church prior to the service beginning at 9 A.M. The church (formerly Hebert Church of God) is located at 696 Highway 848, Columbia, Louisiana. The Clark family would like to extend their gratitude to the Matriarch of the Clark Family, our Aunt Shermie, for being there at mom's time of need, also to Judy Blackwell for sitting with dad, his nurse Phil, and Dr. Hinson's office for dad's end stage care.

Children of Wilson Clark and Karen Hagel are:

- 5617 i. Steven Harris<sup>14</sup> Clark.
- 5618 ii. Adam Kyle Clark.

Notes for Ryan Michael Scott:

Ryan Michael Scott, 29, of Boonville passed away Monday, December 21, 2020. Ryan Michael

Scott was born January 7, 1991 the son of Jeff Scott and Marsha Van Boening. Ryan had the biggest heart and most quirky sense of humor. He loved to tell jokes, play pranks and tease everyone around him. Ryan began working for Ward Tile and Stone out of Marshall as a tile craftsman. He quickly developed an eye for detail and took great pride in the work he did. He loved his job and was always eager to learn more. Ryan's hobbies included raising bees and producing local honey. Ryan had a love for music, but his favorite job was being a father and he was so proud of his little boy Isaac. He loved Isaac with all his heart and would do absolutely anything for him. Ryan enjoyed the outdoors and had a love for animals. He enjoyed taking Isaac mushroom hunting, to the park, and teaching Isaac about raising bees. Ryan believed that some things are better left unsaid and some things are better left alone, don't make mountains out of mole hills. Ryan tried to live by this and turned the other cheek even if it hurt him in the process. He was loved by so many and will be dearly missed.

Ryan is survived by his parents Jeff Scott of Boonville and Marsha (William) Van Boening of Boonville, son Isaac Scott of Boonville, brothers Brandon Roberts of Boonville, Tyler (Kylee) Scott of Jamestown, Austin Scott of Bunceton, and Colton Scott of Boonville, grandparents Alfred (Billie) Friedrich of Bowling Green, Barbara Friedrich of Boonville, and Bunny Scott of Boonville, as well as nieces, nephews, many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Ryan is preceded in death by his grandfather Troy Scott of Boonville and uncle Jerry Friedrich of Boonville.

Visitation for Ryan will be held at Howard Funeral Home Monday, December 28, 2020 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. with a service beginning at 11:30 a.m. with Tim Fairley officiating. Burial will follow in Pleasant Green Cemetery. Memorial contributions are suggested to his son Isaac.

Child of Ryan Michael Scott is:

5640 i. Isaac<sup>15</sup> Scott.
