Notes for Jacob A. Gwinner:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Jacob A. Gwinner, who is now living retired in Ann Arbor, was born in this city in 1869 and is a representative of a worthy German family of Washtenaw County. His parents were William Albert and Amelia (Rupff) Gwinner. The father was born in Germany and in that country he was engaged in the cutlery business. He came of Italian ancestry, his father having removed from Italy to Germany, where he changed the spelling of his name to its present form. William A. Gwinner continued in the country of his nativity until 1857, when he crossed the Atlantic to America, going first to Ohio. There he was employed for a year, after which he came to Ann Arbor, where his people had preceded him. Here he began working for J. C. Mead as a farm hand and when Mr. Mead was elected sheriff of the county he chose Mr. Gwinner as his deputy, and the latter held the office for two years. At the time of the Civil war he espoused the cause of his adopted country and enlisted in 1861 in defense of the Union as a member of the First Michigan Military Band, serving for three months, when he was mustered out. He then went into business with his father and brothers under the firm style of Gwinner & Sons, dealers in cutlery, on Washington Street, Ann Arbor. This mercantile enterprise claimed his attention until 1867, when he rented the Hanscliff Block, which contains the opera house, and was not only manager of the opera house but also conducted a confectionery and ice cream parlor and saloon. In May, 1869, he bought property at No. 220 Detroit Street, where he handled liquors up to the time of his death, which occurred on the 3rd of June, 1901. In the family of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gwinner were six children, of whom one died in infancy, the others being: William, Jacob, Emma, Julia and Ernest. In his political views the father was a democrat and never faltered in his allegiance to that party. Jacob A. Gwinner acquired his education in the public schools of Ann Arbor and on putting aside his text books he worked for Luick Brothers, in whose employ he remained for eight years. Following his father's death he took charge of the liquor business in connection with his brother William, and after a partnership of four years he purchased his brother's interest in 1897 and conducted the business alone until 1902, when he sold out. He later went into business at No. 109 North Main street, where he conducted the Orient until May, 1905, when he again sold out.

In 1894 Mr. Gwinner was united in marriage to Miss Matie Carr, of Ann Arbor. He votes with the democracy, but is without political aspiration. However, he is interested in all that pertains to the welfare and progress of the city and has given active co-operation to many movements for the general good. He lives at No. 504 North Fifth avenue, where he owns a fine residence. He has a very wide and favorable acquaintance among the German-American citizens of Ann Arbor and the circle of his friends is constantly increasing.

Notes for Alfred Jonathan Paul:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Alfred J. Paul, one of Ann Arbor's native sons, was born March 24, 1867. His father, Henry Paul, was a native of Scio Township, Washtenaw County, and there his death occurred in December, 1891. He had for many years been actively engaged in business in Scio and later in Ann Arbor. He married Miss Katherine Cook, a native of Michigan, who is now living in this city. and unto this marriage were born a son and two daughters, the latter being Amelia, now the wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, mentioned elsewhere in this volume; and Augusta, who died and was buried in the cemetery here. Alfred J. Paul, the eldest of the family, acquired his education in the public schools of this city and on putting aside his text-books went upon his father's farm, being actively engaged in general agricultural pursuits until 1900. He is now in business at No. 109 North Main Street, conducting a fine and splendidly equipped buffet opposite the courthouse.

Mr. Paul was married in 1903 to Miss Emma Gwinner, a representative of one of the old families of Ann Arbor, in which city her birth occurred. Mr. Paul is a Mason, also belongs to the Knights of Pythias lodge and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and he attends the Bethlehem Evangelical church. He represents a pioneer family of the county and he has a wide acquaintance here, where he has maintained his residence from his boyhood to the present. His friends embrace many who have known him from his youth as well as the acquaintances of his later years.

Marcia graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1954 and would continue to be very involved with friendships she formed during her time in the Ann Arbor public schools. She eventually became a fixture at Haisley as a "lunch lady," serving as a supervisor for the whole lunch program. For many years, Marcia was involved in various bowling leagues and supporting her husband's work with his bowling leagues and charities through the Ann Arbor Elks. Marcia enjoyed traveling up north to visit friends in Lake City and also trips with her mother, sisters, and cousins to Mackinac Island and other points "over the bridge." She was a member of the Pittsfield Senior Center where she enjoyed Wii Bowling and potlucks. In 1997, Marcia became "Oma," German for grandmother, to Abigail Schmid and was thrilled when Ethan became Abigail's baby brother in 2001. His golf career spanned for more than 75 years, he had 10 holes-in-one, including 4 at his home course of Chippewa as well as a Double Eagle. His best advice was, "just keep practicing and never wear shorts, you need protection!" He was a lifelong fan of the Toledo Rockets, Cleveland Browns and the Detroit Tigers. Dick was most recently very involved and excited about the startup of Brickyard Sloppy Joe Sauce company by his Navy veteran grandson Don Jr., he was quite the salesman for the company! In addition to golf, family life was important to him as well. Dick began working for Willys Overland in 1952 as a Payroll Supervisor and worked there until his retirement in 1995. He greatly loved his Jeep family, enough so that it kept him there for 43 years.

Notes for Joyce Elizabeth Weiss:

Joyce Gwinner, a piano teacher for decades who with her late husband, Donald, played organ at churches in northwest Ohio and southeast Michigan, died Wednesday in Ebeid Hospice Residence, Toledo. She was 83. She had congestive heart failure and dealt with complications of diabetes, her son Wayne said. She retired after she played organ at Christmas Mass, 2007, in St. Joseph Church, Monroe. Her husband died the year before. They were organists for more than a decade at St. Joseph. "They worked as a team for many years. They were a close couple," said the Rev. William Fisher, pastor of St. Joseph. "She and her husband were consummate musicians."

Their son said: "When my father died, part of her died. They didn't do anything if they didn't do it together. "I grew up with two pianos and two organs in the house." Before St. Joseph, she was organist for Second Baptist Church and for more than 20 years at St. Agnes Church, both in Toledo. She and husband were substitute organists at area churches and were called frequently for funerals. "People all over Toledo remember Joyce Gwinner," said Father Fisher, who got to know the couple more than 50 years ago in the Toledo Opera chorus. "She was bubbly and charming. She fit in very well in Monroe." The couple also taught piano, although she mostly taught in their West Toledo home, and he mostly went to students' homes.

"You better love it to do that job. Their schedule was so sporadic," their son said. "Working as a musician, it's constant." "She didn't take students who were much younger than 8. She could be strict as she emphasized basics: arched hands, proper posture. Her students learned to read music as they learned to play, and she asked that they practice no less than 45 minutes a day." "She was very thorough," her son said. "It just came from the heart. She loved what she did."

And when she found free time, she retreated to her home piano. "She couldn't play the piano enough. That was her time to herself," her son said. She was a former accompanist to the Community Singers. She and her husband also were in the Toledo Opera chorus into the 1970s, performing in such works as La Traviata, Aida, Turandot, and Die Fledermaus. She was a member of the Toledo chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society. She also belonged to the local piano teachers association and the American Guild of Organists.

Joyce Gwinner, age 83, of Toledo, died April 11, 2012, at Ebeid Hospice, Sylvania. She studied with the Sherwood School of Music in Chicago. A former member of the American Guild of Organists, Toledo Piano Teachers Association, Charter member of the Toledo Chapter Theatre, Organ Society, sang with the Toledo Opera and the Toledo Choral Society, accompanist for the Community Singers, Organist for many Catholic Churches and Second Baptist Church and a member of the National Riffle, Association. She was an organist at St. Joseph's Church in Monroe, Michigan for 13 years before she retired in December 2007. She is survived by her sons, Joseph and Wayne Gwinner. He married Karen L. Hertenstein.

Notes for Richard Van Akkeren Dieterle:

Richard Van Akkeren Dieterle passed away after a difficult battle with cancer at his beloved Ann Arbor Township farm on February 28, 2012, surrounded by family and friends. He was born in Ann Arbor on December 24, 1941 to Jennie Van Akkeren Dieterle and Robert Richard Dieterle. Richard is survived by his wife, Karen L. Hertenstein, daughter, Elizabeth Caroline Dieterle of Phoenix, Arizona, son, Carl Jarrett Dieterle of Washington D.C., and sister, Caroline Dieterle of Iowa City, Iowa. He is also survived by three precious grandchildren, Alexander, Mila and Eva Srejic of Phoenix, as well as a cousin, Richard (Carroll) Walterhouse of Ann Arbor.

Richard spent his childhood days playing with the children of farm neighbors, hunting small game after school and riding Silver, his strawberry roan pony. He attended the one-room Foster School, which was within walking distance of his farm, until middle school, when it was closed and the students were incorporated into the Ann Arbor Public School District. Richard loved to share memories of his rural upbringing. He met his lifelong friends Lloyd Braun and Al Honke on the junior high school bus. High school days brought more hunting, running track (hurdles) and becoming an outstanding student of German, as well as a violinist. Richard attended the University of Michigan and was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He graduated with a degree in Anthropology before enrolling in the University of Michigan's Medical School, from which he graduated in 1969. This was also the year he started The RFD Boys, a bluegrass band in which he was the fiddle player and emcee. Richard did his internship at Blodgett Hospital in Grand Rapids and returned to the University of Michigan for his pathology residency. He served as a Major in the United States Air Force at Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, O.H. from 1973-75.

In 1975, Richard returned to live at his childhood farm and began working in the Pathology Department at Allegiance Healthcare System (formerly Foote Hospital) in Jackson, Michigan. He became Director of Pathology in 1990 and retired in June of 2009. Richard enjoyed his physician colleagues and was forever inspired by the lab personnel he had the privilege to work with during those years. In 1966, Richard began a 45-year service to Ann Arbor Township, first as a volunteer fireman and township constable for 22 years, followed by 23 additional years as an Ann Arbor Township Trustee. Like his other endeavors, Richard formed close bonds with his fellow trustees, working to preserve farmland around Ann Arbor.

Over 42 years, the RFD Boys (consisting of the original four members) played at Mr. Floods Party, Lums, The Pretzel Bell and finally found their home at The Ark acoustical music venue. The Band played for heads of state and crossed the oceans for gigs in Germany, Austria, Monaco, and Australia. Summers were filled with gigs in northern Michigan, which provided Richard with a wonderful array of bluegrass fans, as well as a chance to find respite in his Northport, Michigan cottage. Richard loved bluegrass music and found his spirit and soul in the Bill Monroe and Kenny Baker traditions. He reveled in the numerous and culturally varied fans of his music. Richard was known for his on-stage comedic humor and his extraordinary sense of timing as the RFD Boys' emcee. His last, and proudest, contribution to the art form was an instrumental bluegrass CD of his own compositions, which he completed weeks before his death.

The family will receive friends at the Nie Family Funeral Home, Liberty Road Chapel, 3767 W.

Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48103 on Saturday, March 3, 2012 from 2-4 pm and 5-8 pm.
